GERMAN GENERAL AND STAFF REPORTED CAPTURED

FRENCH TORPEDO BOAT RAMMED AND SUNK GERMAN SUBMARINE--LEIPZIG IS HEARD FROM

GERMAN GUNS WEARING OUT AMMUNITION VERY SCARCE

EXPERT SAYS GERMANY IS VULNERABLE ON HER FRONTIERS
—SILESIA WITHOUT NATURAL DEFENCES AND COSSACKS AT THEIR DOOR.

(Special to The Daily News—1:30 P. M.)
London, Nov. 13.—Military observers state the German guns and ammunition show signs of wear. The rifling has worn on the guns, making accurate firing impossible. A large number of shells fail to explode. Orders have been issued to their officers to husband their ammunition.

Hilaire Belloc writes that Germany is vulnerable on the frontiers, especially in the east, where Silesia has no natural defences. The Cossacks are within a day's march of the heart of this manufacturing province. Its occupation would seriously reduce the Kaiser's capacity for continued resistance. Meanwhile, the Allies are growing stronger, with more men and supplies.

MILLION EXTRA TROOPS WILL BE THE DEMAND OF ASQUITH

SESSION PROVES FULL OF INTEREST—GOVERNMENT IS LIKELY TO ISSUE BILLION DOLLAR LOAN TO BE PAYABLE IN TEN YEARS.

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.)
London, Nov. 13.—It is reported in parliamentary lobbies that Asquith will ask Parliament to sanction the raising of a million additional troops for the purpose of the war, bringing the total up to two million men. Much interest is shown in financing the war. It is understood that the government intends to issue a war loan of one billion dollars or more, probably at 4 per cent redeemable in ten years.

GERMAN GENERAL AND STAFF CAPTURED BY RUSSIAN ARMY

REPORT IS CIRCULATED IN BERLIN—SPLIT KNOWN TO HAVE OCCURRED BETWEEN THEM AND THE AUSTRIAN GENERAL.

(Special to The Daily News—1:30 P. M.)
Copenhagen, Nov. 13.—Rumors are in circulation in Berlin that General Von Hindenberg and his staff, including several German princes, have been captured by the Russians. Von Hindenberg was in charge of German and Austrian forces in the east. Yesterday's dispatch told of his desertion by the Austrian general.

LIST OF OFFICERS ON SUPPOSED LOST SHIPS

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.)
London, Nov. 13.—The Admiralty has issued a list of the officers and men on the Good Hope and Monmouth, which are presumed to have been sunk off the coast of Chile. It contains Admiral Sir C. Craddock, Captain Franklin Betsworth and Surgeon Veruel, officers on the Good Hope, and Captain Brant Herford, of the Monmouth.

ALLIES STILL HOLD ALL LINES INTACT

(Special to The Daily News—1:30 P. M.)
Paris, Nov. 13.—(Official)—The present violent effort in the Ypres region, while it may have succeeded in bending the Allied line in a few places, has not yet succeeded in breaking through and the attempt cannot be repeated under the same conditions. To the south, east and west of the Ypres line all attacks were repulsed all along our line and the British line.

Fort George, B. C., Nov. 13.—A disastrous fire occurred here this morning, destroying the greater part of Central Fort George. The damage is placed at $200,000. The Central Hotel is gone. Central Fort George is the Natural Resources townsite. It is about a mile from Prince George, the official townsite of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

FRENCH TORPEDO BOAT RAMMED AND SUNK GERMAN SUBMARINE

(Special to The Daily News—1 P. M.)
Paris, Nov. 13.—A French torpedo boat has rammed and sunk a German submarine off the coast at Ostend.

GENERAL SAM PROMISES MEET TROOPS IN BERLIN

(Special to The Daily News—2 P. M.)
Kingston, Nov. 13.—Major General Sam Hughes reviewed the troops here today. He promised to meet them in "Berlin" if he did not get to Kingston again before they left for the front.

HUGE HONOR ROLL FOR BRITISH ARMY

(Special to The Daily News—2 P. M.)
London, Nov. 13.—That the British casualties in the war to date total 57,000 of all ranks was reported in Parliament today by Premier Asquith.

RUSSIANS STILL MAKE PROGRESS

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.)
Petrograd, Nov. 13.—(Official.) In East Prussia the action has developed a front along Stallupoen, Keurgli and Anken in the region of Soldau. Our troops have occupied Johannsburg.

NEARLY THOUSAND CLERGY READY TO BE CHAPLAINS

But Usual Proportion is One to Thousand Men—Thirty-Two With First Force.

Ottawa, Nov. 13.—Nearly one thousand applications have been received from clergymen of all denominations anxious to go as chaplains with the Canadian expeditionary forces. The offers are sufficient for an army of nearly one million, since the usual proportion is one chaplain to each thousand men.

GERMAN CRUISERS ARE HEARD FROM

(Special to The Daily News—2 P. M.)
Valparaiso, Nov. 13.—The German cruisers Dresden and Leipzig arrived here this morning to take on provisions.

TAYLOR WILL RUN AGAIN.

Vancouver, Nov. 13.—Ex-Mayor L. D. Taylor, editor of The World, announces that he will be a candidate for the mayoralty at the January election.

BATTLE OF THE AISNE—CROSSING THE RIVER.

Rifleman David Lloyd, of the King's Own Rifle Corps, now lying badly wounded in the hospital, was one of the gallant band which crossed the Aisne single file over a plank bridge under terrific fire in order to drive the Germans from a ride while the Engineers were building a pontoon bridge. "I don't want to pretend," he said, "that I liked crossing that bridge with bullets almost as thick as hail all around, and shells bursting everywhere, but we got across somehow, though a lot of chaps fell into the water."

BOER REBELS ARE AGAIN DEFEATED

London, Nov. 13.—An official Pretoria report says that Gen. Louis Botha has come in contact with De Wit's commando twenty-four miles east of Winburg, Orange River Colony. This was after a forced night march. The rebels were severely defeated in the engagement. There were 250 taken prisoners by General Botha's force.

RIFLE AND BAYONET FOR VANCOUVER POLICE

Vancouver, Nov. 13.—For the first time in the history of the city of Vancouver the local police will be armed with rifles and bayonets. The question was discussed at a meeting of the Police Board, when the chief of police suggested that it would be better if this were done for many reasons, and the commissioners came to the conclusion that the suggestion of the chief was a good one. Results will be that the men will be equipped as quickly as possible with the latest pattern of rifle and bayonet.

AUSTRIAN ARMY MAY BE CUT OFF

Petrograd, Nov. 13.—The main army of the Austrians has been surrounded by the Russians. Their retreat by way of the Carpathians has been cut off. The result is that this force must either surrender or engage the Russians.

GERMANS DISGUISE THEMSELVES IN SKIRTS

Paris, Nov. 12.—One of the latest of the tricks of the Germans is to disguise themselves as women, according to semi-official information given out in Paris.

In this garb German soldiers recently went out to gather potatoes in a field near Senones, while in the neighborhood of Trois Maisons, a German convoy was observed apparently escorted by a group of women. In both cases the fraud was discovered by the French troops, who opened fire. The disguised soldiers ran, and under their skirts appeared the boots of cavalrymen.

GERMANS ARE BEING KEPT WELL IN CHECK

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.)
Paris, Nov. 13.—(Official)—To the north we hold all positions. The enemy sought to debouch from Dixmude by a night attack but have been repulsed. We have assumed the offensive against the enemy, who crossed the River Yser, and have driven him back at all points except at one place, where he still occupies from two to three hundred meters on the right bank. In the center we gained some ground in the region of Tracy-le-Val. In the Artois region the German attacks have been very serious but resulted in nothing.

THE BALKAN STATES MUST SOON MAKE CHOICE

Petrograd Paper Declares That It Must Be Either The Kaiser or Russia

Petrograd, Nov. 12.—The Novoe Vremya says that now the sultan is a subject of Kaiser Wilhelm, a solution of the questions involved in the possession of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus is imperative.

"While in the possession of the sultan the straits were a mere vexatious plaything, in comparison with the danger to all of Europe, now that they are in the power of the kaiser," says the paper.

"Russian control is indispensable in Russia and equally necessary for all the European peoples not enslaved by the kaiser. A sea raid will finally settle the position of the Balkan peoples. Bulgaria and Roumania must choose either Russia or temporary allegiance to Germany."

FRANCE FOLLOWS EXAMPLE SET BY RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT

Paris, Nov. 12.—Permanent prohibition of the sale of absinthe and alcoholic beverages in France is a result of the war. Transportation and the sale of absinthe was forbidden when the war began, but traffic in other intoxicants was continued. The government has now supplemented its original order with another forbidding the sale of any alcoholic drinks similar to absinthe. There is a marked movement in all parts of France tending to perpetuate this prohibition.

WAR TO LAST LONG GERMAN PRESS ADMITS

London, Nov. 12.—"The German semi-official press has now changed its mind and admits that the war is likely to last longer than it was originally thought," says Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent.

"The North German Gazette," the correspondent continues, "in a long article regarding the prices of provisions, urges the necessity to husband the wheat resources."

LADIES' CONCERT A GRAND SUCCESS

Full House Turned Out to Hear Local Artists and Were Delighted.

The music loving people of Prince Rupert were given a real treat last night by the Ladies' Musical Club. This club has been in existence for over a year, largely through the enthusiasm of Mrs. P. I. Palmer, the capable president. In the past all their efforts were confined to the ladies themselves and last night was their first public appearance. The enthusiasm with which they were received and the manner in which they delighted their audience shows the appreciation of the public for the finer things of life and gives the ladies an assurance that whenever they wish to come before the public again they will receive a hearty response.

Every number was received with such enthusiasm that perhaps it is unfair to specialize. There is no doubt, however, but that Mrs. Dolling received a major portion of the applause. Mrs. Dolling has only recently come to town. She is the wife of Lieutenant Dolling of the Irish Fusiliers. Her playing last night shows that as a pianist she is an artist of considerable proportion. The most difficult and complex expressions seem to come perfectly natural to her, and the fact that she plays from memory makes it all the more remarkable.

Mrs. Norman MacIntosh delighted the audience with a couple of breezy Scotch songs. Mrs. Jarvis McLeod and Mrs. G. Allen gave a delightful duet that received a hearty encore.

The following is the program in detail:

- PART I
- Duo... "Dance of the Demons" Miss Irwin, Miss Saunders
- Piano Solo... "Rondo Capriccioso" Mrs. Dolling
- Song... "Sing Me to Sleep" Miss Barnsley

EDITORIALS

That debts must be paid is the frequently forgotten truth which may be gathered from Sir George Paish's admonitory message to the United States. The "favorable" balance of trade delusion is also indirectly cleared away. Americans during the past six years have exported more than they have imported to the extent of $2,375,000,000. This is exclusive of gold and silver. The excluding of gold and silver from such totals helps to worse confound the confusion of the average fiscal discussion. Why gold and silver should be excluded while iron and copper are not excluded has never been made clear. But neither has anything else ever been made clear by discussing balances of trade as favorable or unfavorable. Including gold and silver reduces this balance by $269,000,000. The big balance still remaining has not liquidated debts abroad but leaves the country "still a debtor nation at its wit's end to meet its obligations." In fact the country went deeper into debt while thus selling more than was bought.

Absenteeism is the burden the American republic is carrying, and Sir George Paish might have made that important truth clear to his Washington hearers. A growing number of Astors, a multitude of wealthy tourists, and another multitude of creditors in Britain and elsewhere abroad make their annual demand on the products of the United States, and the Americans are in a position to secure in return only their receipted bills. It may help to an understanding of the balance of trade to point out that if receipted bills and shipping gains and losses as well as gold and silver were entertained in the grand totals exports and imports would accurately balance, like the debts and credits of a merchant's ledger. Ireland's large exports to Britain afford an example of a "favorable" balance of trade, not confused by a political boundary. The Irish former sends his products to feed his British landlord. In return he gets a receipt for his rent. If these rent receipts and similar documents were included in trade returns the exports and imports would evenly balance. As they are not included Ireland sends a big "favorable" balance of trade to Britain. There is no proportionate return cargo, not because goods are not "wanted" in Ireland, but because the men who get only rent receipts are unable to buy. Trade follows the creditor.

As Canadians borrow in Britain to buy American goods, New York, according to Sir George Paish, is the natural buyer and holder of Canada's securities. In reality we borrow American goods, and should be in debt to the Americans. To remain in debt to the British and have them proportionately in debt to or less the creditors of Americans is a needless complication. An appreciation of the position of a people in debt to absentee creditors should help to draw attention to the necessity of considering the problem of repayment. General admonitions along that line are of little use. The big borrower, whether a Federal or Provincial council, or a railway magnate will concentrate on the schemes on hand and let the future look after itself. Virtually the only restriction on debts under the popular government is the timidity of lenders. While money can be borrowed there will be popular approval for almost every expenditure. While credit is good it is likely to be used or presumed upon until it is no longer so regarded by lenders. A nation like an individual enjoys easy abundance when going into debt, and feels the stringency of the time of repayment. Although Canadians have been extensive borrowers there is productive capacity to meet all demands when the time of repayment arrives. But it may be well to remember that we cannot pay with boomed land values or great unproductive public works. We must pay with the products of the forest, the soil, the fisheries, the mines, and the factories. These must receive for the future our chief consideration—Toronto Globe.

KAISER NOW CLAIMS TO BE ISLAM CONVERT

London, Nov. 12.—Astonishing reports of the latest effects of the German propaganda in Turkey reached the British government from Constantinople just before the declaration of war on Turkey and necessitated warnings being sent to English and American missionaries not to remain in isolated places where there is little protection. It is reported that German agents, in their desperate efforts to bring Turkey into the fighting line with Germany, have circulated widespread statements that the Kaiser has adopted the faith of Islam and desires all Mohammedans to join with him in a holy war of the Crescent against the Cross.

PASSING EVENTS

There are over six hundred German and Austrian prisoners of war in Canada, according to government reports from the various places of detention throughout the country.

Eight thousand bushels of grain were destroyed by fire in the Royal Mill of the Ogilvie Co. last week. The blaze is supposed to have originated in the grain conveyor.

A permit for a boxing tournament in Toronto in aid of the Patriotic Fund has been refused. The commissioners of the fund disapproved of such methods of adding to their funds.

Quite a number of Russians are volunteering to go with the second contingent. They are anxious to get into the fight to help their own country, and as many find it impossible to get back to Russia they are taking this means of getting to the front.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian club, Halifax, on Monday evening, $1,000 was voted to the Canadian Patriotic Fund. Dr. A. Stanley MacKenzie, president of Dalhousie University, was elected president of the club for the ensuing year.

Three hundred cars of food and clothing for the Belgians have been received by the Belgian Relief Committee in Halifax. The cars hold about forty tons each, so that the people of Nova Scotia and of the adjacent provinces have contributed about twelve tons of food and clothing to the Belgians.

At the Amherst session of the Supreme Court, Mr. Justice Russell sentenced William Tuttle and his wife to two years in Dorchester penitentiary for assaulting a constable at Pugwash, while making a search of their premises for liquor under the Nova Scotia Temperance Act.

A deputation of the Laymen's Missionary Movement from Toronto visited Halifax and addressed meetings in a number of churches on Sunday. On Monday conferences and men's meetings were held in Halifax and Dartmouth. Among the visiting speakers were D. H. Rose, secretary of the Anglican Laymen's Missionary Movement; Rev. Dr. Manning, secretary of the Methodist Home Mission Board; Canon Gould, secretary of the Church of England Missionary Society of the Church of England Missionary Society; Rev. R. M. Hamilton, secretary of the Presbyterian Laymen's Missionary Movement, and Mr. Caskey, secretary of the Interdenominational Laymen's Missionary Movement.

Hon. Colin H. Campbell, formerly a member of the Manitoba government, in which he was successively Attorney-General and Minister of Public Works, died at Winnipeg on Saturday last, after a long illness.

A fire which broke out on Barrington Street, Halifax, early Tuesday morning destroyed a number of buildings, doing damage to the extent of $140,000. The chief sufferers were the Macdonald Piano and Music Company, the Maze cafe, Frank Reardon, R. F. Johnston and G. C. Bateman, though other buildings in the vicinity were considerably damaged.

When one buys a volume at a certain Toronto book store there is delivered wrapped up with it an unordered copy of "The Truth About Germany," a work compiled by German editors with the object of besmirching Great Britain and her allies. Printed in New York and addressed primarily to citizens of the United States, this publication is eagerly circulated throughout Canada as well. This book is likely to alienate rather than attract public sympathy in Canada, the United States and wherever else outside of Germany it is circulated.

JUDGE DECLINES ALLOW INSURANCE ON LIFE OF TITANIC WRECK VICTIM

Montreal, Nov. 12.—The claims of the executors of one of the victims who perished in the wreck of the Titanic was dealt with by Justice Demers in the local court here. His Lordship denied the right of the National Trust Company to collect the sum of $5,000, accident insurance issued on the life of Thomas Beattie, of Winnipeg, by the Accident and Guaranty Company. The policy was issued in 1906 and was kept paid up. The defendant declined to meet the claim on the grounds that affirmative proof of the insured's death had not been furnished within the time required in the policy. Such failure on the part of the executors, according to the terms of the policy, invalidated the contract. Justice Demers, in summing up, scanned the policy and found defendant's submissions to be truly based on the terms of the contract. Suit was dismissed with costs.

In these hard times it is rumored that a certain Scotchman is making one sack of coal last all winter. He keeps it in a corner of his shack and when he gets cold he packs it around the room on his back until the exercise produces sufficient warmth.

By Taking "Fruit-a-tives" Says Capt. Swan

Life is very miserable to those who suffer with Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and Biliousness. This is the opinion of Captain Swan (one of the best known skippers on the Great Lakes) who tells how to get quick relief from Stomach Trouble.

St. IRVING, ONT., May 8th, 1913.

"A man has a poor chance of living and enjoying life when he cannot eat. That was what was wrong with me. I had lost all my appetite and I have been on my feet for these diseases for a long time. I have had a great deal of trouble with a great deal of flesh years. I lost a great deal of weight and suffered constantly. For the last few years, I have taken 'Fruit-a-tives' and have been so pleased with the results that I have recommended them on many occasions to friends and acquaintances. I am sure that 'Fruit-a-tives' have helped me greatly. By following the diet rules and taking 'Fruit-a-tives' according to directions, any person with Dyspepsia will get better."

GERMANS ARE BEING TAUGHT TO OPPOSE PERPETUAL PEACE

BERNHARDI SAYS CHRISTIANITY IS PERSONAL, NOT SOCIAL—QUITE RIGHT TO HATE ENEMY IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY—PEACE IS IMMORAL.

Is war better than peace? Is war a blessing? It is, according to Gen. Frederick von Bernhardt, of the German army, whose book, published just before the outbreak of the present war, has just been translated and printed in the United States. The book is causing an immense amount of discussion wherever it has been read.

General von Bernhardt is one of the leading military men of Germany and his views represent the views of the ruling class of his native country. What chance had the millions of Socialists of Germany when these ideas ruled the rulers?

General von Bernhardt is one of the leading military men of Germany and his views represent the views of the ruling class of his native country. What chance had the millions of Socialists of Germany when these ideas ruled the rulers?

Herewith are given quotations from this amazing but significant work, which General von Bernhardt says, he began to write after studying the future. "Providence has set before the German people as the greatest civilized people known to history.

Wars are terrible, but necessary, for they save the state from social petrification and stagnation. It is well that the transition of the goods of this world is not only preached, but is learned by experience. War alone teaches this lesson.

War, in opposition to peace, does more to arouse national life and to expand national power than any other means known to history. It certainly brings much material and mental distress in its train, but at the same time it evokes the noblest activities of the human nature.

From this point of view, efforts to secure peace are extraordinarily detrimental to the national health so soon as they influence politics. The states which from various considerations are always active in this direction are sapping the roots of their own strength. The United States of America, in June, 1911, championed the idea of universal peace in order to be able to devote their undisturbed attention and the enjoyment of wealth, and to save the three hundred million dollars which they spend on their army and navy; they thus incur a great danger, not so much from the possibility of war with England or Japan, but precisely because they try to exclude all chance of contest with opponents of their own strength, and thus avoid the stress of great political emotions, without which the moral development of the national character is impossible. If they advance further on this road, they will one day pay dearly for such a policy.

Again, from the Christian standpoint we arrive at the same conclusion. Christian morality is based, indeed, on the laws of love. 'Love God above all things, and thy neighbor as thyself.' This law can claim no significance for the relations of one country to another, since its application to politics would lead to a conflict of duties. The love which a man showed to another country as such would imply a want of love for his own countrymen. Such a system of politics must inevitably lead men astray. Christian morality is personal and social, and in its nature cannot be political, in order to strengthen him to work unselfishly in the interests of the community. It tells us to love our individual enemies, but does not remove the conception of the enemy.

If we sum up our arguments, we shall see that, from the most opposite aspects, the efforts directed towards the abolition of war must not only be termed foolish, but absolutely immoral, and must be stigmatized as unworthy of the human race.

Every means must, therefore, be employed to oppose these visionary schemes. They must be publicly denounced as what they really are—as an unhealthy and feeble Utopia, or a cloak for political machination. Our people (Germans) must learn to see that the maintenance of peace never can or may be the goal of a policy. The inevitableness, the idealism, and the blessing of the war, as an indispensable and stimulating law of development, must be repeatedly emphasized.

GERMAN SUBMARINES WAITED FOR CANADIANS

Was Information Given by an Admiralty Official to a Toronto Officer—Too Much Publicity.

An officer with the First Canadian Contingent wrote to the Toronto Star, under date of October 19, as follows:

"S. S. Tyrolia, Devonport., October 19, 1914.

"We are still on board ship and will be lucky if we get off before Wednesday. I saw, after our arrival here, several Toronto papers that had two-inch red headlines that the Canadian contingent had sailed from Gaspé, and in one paper an official confirmation by the Minister of Militia. Result: This comes from very direct sources and seems to be confirmed by events. It was the intention to land at Southampton and march to Salisbury, twenty miles. Instead, the convoy was suddenly wheeled into Plymouth, while the British torpedo boats came rushing down the Channel. That was Wednesday, October 14. Plymouth has not the railway and docking facilities, so that the men have been left on ship, getting softer and flabbier every day. The cause of it all was that five German cruisers had followed the convoy from Cape Race, and the German submarines had broken out and were waiting for us off Southampton, so prominent Admiralty officials stated.

"One man of the contingent was arrested as a spy the minute he landed. He was in prison garb an hour later.

Suggests Restrictions.

"Now, I don't see how you can stop Colonel Sam talking to the papers unless you will not publish anything re troop movements that is unsanctioned by Imperial authorities. The English papers kept very quiet about it. Now, I think you could privately get the Canadian papers to agree not to publish news until the object desired has been attained. For example, not to publish that Canadian contingent has sailed until it arrives at its destination, and publish the arrival about a week later. It may mean the lives of hundreds of Canadians.

"We received a tremendous reception, and as our arrival was undreamed of, it was quite spontaneous. It was not until they heard our bands playing and saw the long lines of ships in the sound that they knew who we were. Plymouth Hoe was crowded. As we passed the cruisers and training ships the cheering was deafening. The sailors sang 'Rule Britannia,' and our chaps tried to sing 'The Maple Leaf.' Most of our chaps felt something like I did. We had a big lump in our throat and were just on the point of breaking, so we merely held our faces firm. However, the sailors took up 'Tipperary,' and that broke the tension. We all joined in, and there was some real singing—a case of 'deep calling unto deep.'

An Inspiring Greeting.

"A similar thing happened in an industrial training ship in the afternoon. The naval cadets came alongside, and while every laddie in the boat stood to attention like a rock and saluted, the boys' band played 'O Canada' and 'God Save the King.' These two incidents left us feeling more like getting into some quiet spot by ourselves.

"Canadians on shore are having the time of their lives. Their behavior has been good, and the people of Plymouth have been very hospitable.

"It would be a good idea to suggest that folks at home write frequently. Opportunities for writing and mailing letters do not always present themselves to us. The letters are always welcome, and are answered at every chance. 'Health of both men and horses is remarkably good. There was very little seasickness. All ranks are keen for disembarkation and work. It is expected that the camp at Salisbury will be dry.'

London Daily Telegraph Thinks They Should Soon Be Sent to Fighting Line.

London, Nov. 13.—That the Canadian troops need not be detained much longer at Salisbury Plain is the opinion of the London Daily Telegraph, which, commenting on the King's inspection, says:

"Now that their training is all but complete, the time has almost come for them to join the fighting men. They could have no better send-off than the praise encouragement from their Sovereign and the Minister of War."

The opinion, coming from such a responsible journal, amply refutes the ideas expressed in some quarters that the Canadian expeditionary force would require several months' training on this side before the troops would be fit for service in the fighting line.

CITY OF PRINCE RUPERT.

Applications will be received by the undersigned up to November 30th, 5 p.m., for the positions of Chief and three shift operators for Hydro-Electric plant.

Applicants must be thoroughly familiar with both water and electrical end of the business. Experience and salary required to be stated and copies of references sent.

GERMAN MONEY BEING SENT INTO IRELAND Americans Alleged to be Co-Operating—Vile Slanders Circulated.

London, Nov. 13.—Astonishing revelations were made at the meeting of the Dublin corporation yesterday. The Lord Mayor was presiding. Alderman Nugent alleged that money was being circulated in Ireland by German-American agents.

Alderman Kelly denied on behalf of himself and friends that they were getting German money. Alderman Nugent: "I repeat, German money is being circulated."

The Lord Mayor said circulars from America were going through the post containing some of the vilest things ever uttered in the name of Ireland, but the "gentleman" sending it found they were not getting value and were more cautious about sending more. Regarding the war the Lord Mayor said if Britain had not interfered she would have been denounced by the very gentlemen now criticizing. "Was it because Britain had not been cowardly and not acted as in the case of the treaty of Limerick that they in Ireland should pocket all their views and become pro-German?" The corporation defeated by 41 votes to 7 a proposal to postpone the resolution expressing satisfaction over the passing of the Home Rule Bill. Devlin hoped to have an Irish parliament on College Green within twelve months.

COPPER PASSES INTO GERMANY

British Government Finds That Cargoes Consigned to Neutral Ports Are Sent to Enemy.

London, Nov. 13.—Information is in the possession of the British government that very large shipments of copper, rubber and other commodities are passing through Italian ports on their way to Germany.

In New York large purchases of copper are being made by representatives of houses in Rotterdam, Amsterdam and Copenhagen, who, it is stated, are working on German account.

The British government is determined that it will use every legitimate means to prevent copper reaching Germany, where it is being made into ammunition for use against the British forces.

Since October 25, vessels from New York for Italy, having on board a total of 5,700 tons of copper, have been diverted to Gibraltar, and the British government is informed that some thousands of tons additional are now en route to Italy.

In view of this evidence, the British government maintains that there is no alternative left it but to stop this contraband trade in copper with Germany through Italy.

The British steamer Italia, of the Anchor line, bound from New York for Mediterranean ports, has been detained at Gibraltar. The authorities there state that the Italia has contraband of war aboard.

PREPARING FOR PROSPERITY.

England is now following the example of Germany in urging recruits to marry before going to war. The nations are fearful lest the birthrate fall, though they make seemingly few provisions against the death rate of war. Empire has little heed of life when empire is at stake. As a sage one remarked after viewing the massed rush of a German maneuver, "Dead men do not seem to enter into his Majesty's calculations at all." But now each country has to think of the live men needed for the future.

Dear Sir,—I am glad the matter of a restricted district has been brought to the attention of the people of Prince Rupert.

Many good people have wrong views on this subject through being misinformed or through indifference. Every individual has some things about which they can say "I know." I know this—there is more temptation to a young man to cut loose from home influences and restrictions in a wide open city than one in which undesirable characters are kept on the move—or shut up in prison.

Having worked about ten years on survey parties I have lived off and on for that time in railroad and mining camps and visited all kinds of cities. It always "gets my goat" to hear it said that men from such "rough" places are liable to commit some heinous crime if they haven't a restricted district to go to when they visit the city. The men who build our railroads respect a decent woman. She is safer far with them than she is with the average city society man who gives him a cold shoulder when he comes to town. The men capable of such heinous crimes never get very far from the restricted districts where they are fostered. I'll admit that there are a great many men out in camp who firmly believe in what they call the necessary evil and as long as there are immoral characters there will be immoral conduct. On the other hand, I firmly believe in a properly governed city without a restricted district such conduct is more difficult.

If our mayor and city solicitor had no difficulty in locating bad characters in Vancouver it follows that the police could do the same. Then, why should they say that the idea of no restricted district is a failure? Would it not be nearer the truth to say that the Police Commission is a "lamentable failure"? They had their mandate from the people.

Let us here in Prince Rupert countenance no such abomination as a restricted district or a spineless Police Commission. J. A. TOZELAND, Prince Rupert, Nov. 11, 1914.

KAISER FAILING THROUGH WORRY OVER THE WAR

London, Nov. 13.—The following account of how the strain of war is making its mark on the health of the German Emperor is told by W. M. Duckworth, special correspondent of The Daily News at the front:

"Since the outbreak of the war he has visited Berlin only once—when returning from the eastern battlefield. He did not stay at his usual residence, but at a smaller palace. The imperial palace is closed. No guards are outside, the blinds are drawn and the windows unwashed.

"The Kaiser has lost his former air of bustling activity, his soldierly bearing being subdued. My informant, who personally saw the Emperor, described him as much older in appearance. His countenance is grave and careworn, and his hair is almost white."
