DIXMUIDE IN HANDS OF ALLIES— ALLIES RE-OCCUPY OSTEND

THE BATTLE ON THE COAST DEFINITELY TURNED.— A TERRIFIC ARTILLERY DUEL STILL PROCEEDING OVER RUINS OF DIXMUIDE.

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Nov. 14.—A dispatch from Rotterdam states that numerous refugees are coming over the border. They report that the Germans have entered Dixmuide in the early morning hours. These two events mark the certain sway of the coast battle in our favor but tremendous artillery fire has been proceeding even over the ruins of Nieuport, where previously the situation was calm.

ENEMY LOSE EIGHTY THOUSAND DISASTROUS RETREAT ON KALIZ

MAJOR LOSS OF SUBMARINES DESTROYED

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Nov. 14.—Rumors are that the new British submarine struck a mine off the east coast and was beached. The news of importance is the submarine menace off the coast has been relieved by the sinking of chains across the mouth of the channel. This project is believed to have destroyed certain German submarines which for weeks have eluded British guardships.

ROLL OF BRITISH OFFICERS

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Nov. 14.—The casualty list of British officers up to November 11 number 682 killed, 1,000 wounded and 354 missing.

GERMAN RULE IN LUXEMBURG

Luxemburg, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, Nov. 14. (Via The Daily News.)—This small country, which has almost been forgotten since the commencement of the war, is beginning to show signs of unrest under German rule. It is being gradually cut off from the rest of the world, and obliged to read newspapers which, under a strict censorship, are giving exclusive information, the sole purpose of which is to show the tendencies of the population and to believe in the news, as familiar in Belgium, Liege, Namur and other cities, where the people are kept in the dark. The Luxemburgians have suffered greatly since the Germans a few weeks ago stopped the iron industry, the main support of the country, by forbidding the use of dynamite. Operation of the mines has not been allowed again, but the Luxemburgians are obliged to use other less violent explosives. The friction is apparent between the Luxemburgians and the Germans, who ordinarily are bickering under pressure of the unrelenting Germans, now are using force exclusively as the only means at their disposal of showing resentment, the natives say, of their country's invasion and German domination.

GERMANS HOLD OVER 400,000 PRISONERS

London, Nov. 14.—A dispatch from Reuter's Telegram Company from Amsterdam says advice received there from Berlin are that up to last Sunday, the German concentration camps and hospitals held the following prisoners: French, 3,138 officers and 188,618 men; Russians, 3,124 officers and 186,779 men; Belgians, 537 officers and 34,907 men; British, 447 officers and 15,730 men. The correspondent adds that the Berlin dispatch says these figures do not include prisoners not encamped.

GERMAN ATTACK ON NIEUPORT FAILS AND DIXMUIDE BURNING

(Special to The Daily News.) Paris, Nov. 14.—(Official)—The German attack against Nieuport resulted in failure and various offensive movements of the enemy around Ypres have been checked. The wrecking of Dixmuide by the Allies has not been confirmed but the town is burning.

TURKS BREAK INTO FOREIGN EMBASSIES

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Nov. 14.—The American and Italian ambassadors at Constantinople have vigorously protested against the action of Turkish authorities, who broke into Italian, British, French and Russian embassies.

SAN FRANCISCO'S FIRST HELP FOR BELGIANS

One hundred thousand dollars, and then some more, in one hour! That's what San Francisco did for the Belgians on November 6 at a big mass meeting on the floor of the Merchants Exchange. There was $88,545.60 on the last total of the adding machine when the meeting formally closed. Then tens and fives and ones poured in. And when you add between $25,000 and $35,000 worth of provisions that were pledged, the grand total of San Francisco's first contribution to the California relief ship comes to about $118,000. That was pretty nearly $2,000 a minute, which is speedy spending, even for San Francisco.

CANADIAN OFFICERS IN THE FIRING LINE

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Nov. 14.—Three Canadian officers, one of the engineers and two of the artillery, have been in the firing line at Ypres and Dixmuide for the past week. They returned to London last night and three more will go to France.

Several bodies of Canadian troops are doing duty across the Channel already but only on the lines of communication. These are the westerly cavalry, whose training was complete before leaving Valcartier. It is expected that Princess Patricia's regiment will go to the front very soon.

GRATITUDE FOR AUSTRALIAN AID

Premier Massey Says That New Zealand Towns Were in Danger From German Cruisers. Sydney, Australia, Nov. 14.—Mr. W. F. Massey, premier of New Zealand, expressed in the House of Representatives appreciation of the valuable services rendered by the Australian navy to the Dominion of New Zealand.

Mr. Massey said that if the people of New Zealand knew the inner history of the past few months they would give thanks to God for the guardianship of the Australian navy. He would not go into details, but went as far as to say that had it not been for the protection afforded by the naval power of the Commonwealth many of the fortified towns of New Zealand would have been razed to the ground. Two of Germany's most powerful cruisers had been on one occasion within three days' steaming of New Zealand shores.

The German machines were destroyed by artillery. Eight officers were killed as a result of the bringing down of these German airships.

KAISER TO DETAIN BRITISH RESIDENTS

Germany, as Retaliatory Measure, Establishes Detention Camp.

Berlin, Nov. 14.—The following announcement has been given to the press from official sources: "Germany's warning of retaliation, in case German subjects, between the ages of 17 and 55, who are detained in England, were not treated differently before November 5, has been unanswered by the British government. Therefore, the German government has ordered the detention of all British of similar ages who are residing in Germany in a camp near Spandau, ten kilometers from Berlin. "All other Britishers who are left free after this measure has been enforced will be required to register twice daily at the nearest police station, and will not be permitted to leave that immediate police supervision."

ORANGE FREE STATE REBELLION WEAKENING

(Special to The Daily News.) Durban, South Africa, Nov. 14.—Railway communication between Harrismith and Ladysmith has been restored and conditions in Harrismith are reported normal again. Indications show that the general rebellion in the Orange Free State has rapidly weakened. It is anticipated that the government forces will occupy Harrismith without opposition either tonight or some time tomorrow.

FORT GEORGE FIRE LOSS ESTIMATED AT $150,000

GASOLINE EXPLOSION DESTROYS FIRE DEPARTMENT AND CAUSES LOSS OF LIFE—BANK OF VANCOUVER BURNT OUT.

Details of the Fort George fire, which was reported yesterday by wire, indicate that a gasoline lighting system was the primary cause. The fire, which completely burned out one side of Central Avenue, commenced with an explosion near the Main Hotel and almost immediately put out of commission the power system used for fire protection. This left the whole town at the mercy of the flames, with the result that damage to the extent of $150,000 was done before the fire burned itself out. The losses are estimated as follows: Fort George Hotel Company, $80,000; Oliver poolroom, $5,000; J. McLean, $500; Pastime poolroom, $5,000; Fort George Realty & Security Company, $1,000; Kennedy Blair, $20,000; J. P. Robertson, gents' furnishings, $15,000; Chinese restaurant, $300; Scott's Hotel, $1,500, and, in addition, the cost of buildings not occupied by owners. A number of buildings otherwise unharmed lost their plate glass fronts owing to the heat. It is expected that the safe of the Bank of Vancouver will take several days to cool. It is a matter for congratulation that a fire such as this only caused the loss of one life. The unfortunate victim was Mr. Richard Spence, a G. T. P. shovel engineer.

After Crossing the Yser Enemy Were Repulsed and Their Lines of Communication Endangered.

(Special to The Daily News.) Amsterdam, Nov. 14.—The Germans gained nothing by the occupation of Dixmuide. The Allies' lines are still intact. The German troops, after crossing the Yser to the right, left Dixmuide and were repulsed and their line of communication endangered. The Allies are now trying to prevent the Germans from bringing up heavy guns to the battle.

RESIDENTS FROM NEAR EAST GLAD TO SEE TURKS IN WAR

Armenian Says There Are 100,000 Christians in the Turkish Army.

Spoken to with regard to Turkey's entry into the war, Mr. Levon Babayan, a prominent Armenian resident in Toronto, said Albanians, Macedonians, Armenians and Greeks in Toronto were delighted at the idea, because they realized it would mean Turkey's overthrow.

There were about 100,000 Christians in the Turkish army, but they would join the Allies at the first opportunity. The only Turks likely to uphold Germany would be the Macedonians. In view of the fact, therefore, that Turks in the city are Armenians or Albanians, they will not feel their duty to leave the city. There are not many Macedonians in the city and very few in the Dominion. There is no consular representation for Turks in Toronto. —Toronto Star.

TOURIST CARS FOR XMAS.

G. T. P. Will Handle the Holiday Trade From Coast to Coast.

The G. T. P. announces that it is prepared to put on a few tourist cars to run direct from Prince Rupert to the Atlantic and connect with Old Country steamers if sufficient business shows to warrant the company doing so. Present enquiries indicate that there will be a large number of people going home for the holidays and as most of them will be anxious to patronize their own road it is likely that the tourist cars will be in operation very shortly.

DOMINION ELECTION IN FEBRUARY IS LATEST

The Rogers Wing of Conservative Party Is Again Pressing for Contest.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 14.—The abandonment of the recent well organized movement in a certain influential wing of the government for an immediate appeal to the Federal electorate is believed in certain well informed circles here to be simply temporary. While disappointed that dissolution of Parliament was not brought about three weeks ago, the Rogers wing of the cabinet has by no means given up hope of an early election, and there are evidences of a probable dissolution immediately following a short session in January. This will give the government an opportunity to put into effect certain very necessary financial legislation, to place before the country its record since the war commenced, and to outline an extensive program for the future, both in military and naval matters.

To Overcome the Senate.

It will appeal for re-election on the grounds that such a program should have the ratification of the electorate before it is proceeded with further and on the plea that the government desires to be free from interference in its legislation by the Senate. In the meantime as great a measure of "reform" of that body as possible will be brought about by the filling of present vacancies with Government supporters.

Government supporters profess to believe that they are losing good votes by the departure of Canadians for the front. If the opposition had contested the bye-elections in Quebec it would have given an excuse for a general election.

GERMAN-CANADIAN WAS VERY ENTHUSIASTIC

London, Ont., November 14.—At a patriotic meeting in Delaware township, a German-born farmer by the name of Kaiser said he was ready to give his last cent or shed the last drop of his blood for the British flag, although a number of his relatives had already fallen in the present war, while fighting in the German ranks.

DAILY EDITION  Saturday (Nov. 14, 1914)

EDITORIALS

The latest election report is that the Bob Rogers faction will force a Dominion election on in February. It is recognized on every hand that it would have been held this fall were it not that the Duke absolutely refused to dissolve the House. Ever since war was declared rumors of an election have been afloat in Canada and the Liberals all over the country protested. They did this on patriotic grounds. They contended that with all our resources in money and men having been placed at the disposal of the Empire it was not fitting to start a local fight over what is really only a petty issue in proportion to the business of the Empire.

Perhaps Conservatives are under the impression that the existence of a world-wide war would favor their re-election. Perhaps they even think that the Liberals are so patriotic that they would let the whole country go by acclamation. This is expecting a little too much. While the Liberals no doubt would be willing to allow the present government to conduct affairs through a crisis even after their term of office had expired it is unreasonable to suppose that they would allow them another term of office without a fight. That the chances for the Liberals are good is evidenced by the analogy shown us in the United States. There is no doubt but that the Republicans in the States as the Liberals in Canada have been the authors of the good times these countries have seen. The recent elections in the States, in spite of the fact that Woodrow Wilson has shown himself a remarkable man, shows that the country wants the Republicans back. They want back in power the government that holds the confidence of the people and made them prosperous in the past. The same is true in Canada. This country never saw a prosperous day under Conservative rule. Hard times came the moment the Liberals went out and it would not be surprising to find that Canada wants a change as much as they do in the States.

The Western man is a wonderful being. There must be a vast difference both psychologically and physiologically between him and his Eastern brother. It is really a pity that somebody wouldn't classify and define him for the benefit of the world. The Western man we are told is such a wild fellow that every town must keep a restricted district to prevent him from getting mad and tearing up streets and killing half the citizens. In the East a little town like this would never tolerate such a system. The men who live back there, too, have red blood in their veins and some of them are just as wild and tough as we see in the West. Those people who want a restricted district should drop that silly argument that the Western man must be pampered because he cannot be tamed. Men are pretty much the same all the world over and what can be done in one place can be done in another.

LADIES' MUSICAL CLUB BELGIAN RELIEF FUND

The Ladies' Musical Club held a business meeting at the residence of the president, Mrs. P. I. Palmer, on Friday afternoon.

They take much pleasure in announcing that the proceeds from the "Grande Musicale" totaled $234, which sum was clear for the Belgian Relief Fund. There were no expenses in connection with the concert.

The Ladies' Musical Club has opened an account called "Belgium Relief Fund" (in trust), the Ladies' Musical Club signed for by Mrs. Du Vernet, Mrs. P. I. Palmer, Mrs. Armstrong and Miss K. Jenns. The secretary-treasurer, Miss K. Jenns will be pleased to receive any donations for the Belgium Relief Fund, which will be acknowledged in the papers. The monies of the fund will be sent to the head quarters of the Belgium Relief Fund at a later date or expended on provisions for the Belgians to be bought locally as proposed in a letter from Mr. Wright.

The club wishes to thank Mr. J. Fred Ritchie for his kindness in donating the Empress Theatre, which enabled the ladies to give the concert free of expense. The vocalists commented on the splendid acoustic properties of the hall.

WORKING IN PARKS.

Germans and Austrians Likely to Be Set to Work.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Utilization of the labor of Germans and Austrians in provincial as well as federal parks is the more probable course to be followed in the case of such of these people as are interned as a result of registration or who have to be provided for as out-of-workers. The exact plan will not be determined until General Sir William Otter has had an opportunity to investigate fully the conditions and makes his report. But in order not to interfere with labor generally, the course of putting them to work in the parks seems the most probable solution. In any event, it is not intended to put them in jails or public institutions.

PASSING EVENTS

Mrs. Lloyd George has given up her home at Criceith to Belgian refugees.

Over 1,000 of the internal students of the University of London have enlisted for the war.

One hundred members of the British House of Commons are serving with the army at the front.

More than a thousand men have joined the colors from the Salvation Army Social Institutions in Britain.

The plans for the holding of an International Peace Conference at The Hague next year have been abandoned.

Wireless messages from Great Britain to Honolulu, via America, can now be sent at 2s. 3d. a word, 9 d. less than the cable rate.

Great Britain has commissioned for the sea twenty-two new fighting ships, from Dreadnoughts to mosquito craft since the war began.

A new wireless system has been invented by the Priest-Professor Argenterio, of Aquila, Italy. No poles are required, and the small apparatus used is easily carried in the pocket, and can be worked, if necessary, by means of a connection with an electric light wire.

The Russian governor of Galicia has announced that any person offering spirituous liquor to the Russian troops will be tried by court martial.

The New York Press says, "If England had been as well prepared for war in her land forces as she was in her navy there would be no European war now."

The British Admiralty is arranging for a general supply of swimming collars to be distributed to the officers and men of the fleet. The men are instructed that the collar shall be carried on their person when they are awake, and kept inflated near each individual when he is asleep.

The Russian ministry of the interior says it has received information to the effect that a secret society exists in Roumania which is controlled by Germany and the purpose of which is to influence public opinion through the press. The society is said to have a capital of $4,400,000.

Lord Kitchener has issued an appeal emphasizing the importance of keeping the army now training in England in good condition, which can only be accomplished by strict sobriety, and requesting the public to refrain from treating the volunteers or putting temptation in their way.

The population of Australia is now estimated at five millions. Wives of Australians are to receive a pension of one pound a week, with twelve pounds ten shillings a year for each child. The competition for the design of the parliament houses at Canberra, the new federal capital, has been postponed until after the war.

About sixty girls are employed at Old Bedford College making toys of the kind formerly supplied from Germany. Among the new models they have made are Tudor houses in sections, exact replicas of the old English houses in Holborn. One girl has designed a new gollywog, made of stockinette, and called "Tipperary Tommy."

The German authorities, so it is reported, have assented to the American proposals for the relief of the destitute people of Belgium by the import of provisions, under the auspices of the American and Spanish ministers at Brussels. But if Belgium is now a German province, as the invaders claim, why do not the conquerors provide for the famishing population.

The fisher folk of Labrador, facing a hard winter as a result of the short catch of cod during the present season, will be aided by the Newfoundland government. Efforts will also be made to prevent a further spread of beriberi, several cases of which have occurred along the coast. Special arrangements have been made by the government for the treatment of beriberi patients in hospitals in St. Johns. The disease has appeared in various parts of Newfoundland as well as Labrador.

MILLENNIUM FOR MEN; WOMEN BUY CHEAP DRESSES

London, Nov. 14.—The economy being practiced by British women at present is causing lack of work in certain branches of trade. At a meeting of relatively unemployed people here it was stated that one-third of the 66,000 dress makers in London are on short time because even the well-to-do are buying cheap readymade clothing. It was said that one-fourth of the 14,000 millinery workers are on short time, due to women buying hats which are cheaply trimmed. Statistics indicated that there are 3,000 more unemployed people in London than there were last year at this time.

In the past eight years, I have been afflicted with Dyspepsia. Now, after having used six boxes, I find that your claims for 'Fruit-a-tives' are well founded. I am now in perfect health and can enjoy my meals as I formerly did, and I just praise 'Fruit-a-tives' too strongly". WELLARD F. ALLEN.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY FACES BAD SEASON

Belligerent Lines Between Diplomatic Sets Sharply and Sternly Drawn.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Washington hostesses, particularly those who move in official and diplomatic society, are dismayed at the prospect of the most thoroughly disorganized social season this capital has ever known.

Of course it is chiefly due to the war, though President Wilson's bereavement is also a contributing cause to the gloomy outlook.

The indications are that there will be very few, if any, of the usual large social functions. The official entertainments, dinners, balls and receptions which constitute the real framework of Washington society, will be conspicuous by their absence unless the warring nations speedily adjust their differences.

Curiously enough the war, which is already limiting the scope of Washington entertainments, is also responsible for the coming to the capital of more winter residents of wealth and social aspirations than ever before as the result of the American exodus from Europe.

Belligerent Lines Drawn.

It is a well established rule that diplomatic representatives of the nations which are at war, do not recognize one another in meeting and carefully try to avoid such embarrassments. Not even the most ignorant hostess in Washington, therefore, will commit the error of inviting for example the British and the German ambassadors to the same party.

The German and Austrian ambassadors are necessarily excluded from the invitation list of any entertainment to which either the British, French, Russian or Japanese ambassadors or the Belgian minister have been invited.

It may be doubted too if the Italian ambassador or even perhaps the representatives of such neutral countries as Holland, Denmark or the Scandinavian countries, which have evidenced a fear of one or the other of the great Powers violating their neutrality, would feel exactly comfortable in finding himself seated opposite the representatives of those powers.

The only safe course for the hostess then if she wishes to have diplomats at her table is to limit her invitations to the Latin Americans, who are more prominent by their numbers than by their appearance in official society.

The embassies of the belligerent nations will also be dark this winter so far as the usual list of entertainments is concerned. The dinners and receptions in the diplomatic set have for years been among the most social and exclusive social events of Washington, to which invitations are sought with the greatest avidity.

More than one representative of a belligerent nation has already expressed the feeling that to engage in entertainments at a time when his people at home are in the depths of sorrow would be almost incompatible. In fact, it is not at all unlikely that soon the families of the ambassadors themselves will have personal reasons to mourn. A cousin of Lady Spring-Rice, wife of the British ambassador, has already been lost in the fighting in France.

For these and similar reasons, therefore, it seems certain that the embassies will do no entertaining except in the most informal manner and on the most limited scale. A few friends at tea in the afternoon or one or two intimates to dinner in the most informal way will probably be the limit of their entertaining.

It is equally probable that they will not care to accept any invitations to attend the usual formal dinners which in other winters have come in such numbers as to give those in official life hardly an evening alone at their own boards.

Though the date for the usual opening of the season of official entertainments has not yet arrived, some members of the diplomatic corps are already participating in these small informal parties. Their effect will be, it now seems, to divide Washington society to a certain extent into national and international cliques.

The Spirit of Neutrality.

Members of the diplomatic corps, especially the European members, have warm friends in Washington and wish to see one another as opportunity offers. It is doubted if the hostesses can keep up these intimate parties for representatives of belligerent nations and at the same time preserve the strictest neutrality.

It is regarded as inevitable that the spirit of those parties will be such as to make them impossible unless all present are of the same mind with regard to the war, and not even the most eager seeker of social lions could espouse the German cause at her dinner table one evening and that of the Allies on the next.

Likewise it has been intimated that at least one of the European ambassadors expects that those who hope to enjoy the privilege of his high society need not tender hospitality to representatives of countries with which his government is at war.

The cancellation of the four usual White House receptions has made the social prospect, already bad enough, quite as gloomy as could be imagined. It is probable that even had Mrs. Wilson lived the president would have decided not to hold the receptions. Most certainly he could not have expected the diplomats to attend, whereas he would have embarrassed them if he had sent them invitations they could not accept.

CANADA WILL NOT BRING OUT BELGIAN REFUGEES

Belgians Needed at Home to Help Build Up Devastated Country.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It seems hardly probable now that the government will bring out to Canada any Belgian refugees. It was thought at first that this would be an excellent move in order to provide farm help.

There are several reasons advanced against this action. The Belgian government has intimated that every man between the ages of 18 and 35 must join the colors.

Another reason is that the Belgian government will require all its available people to remake the country which has been devastated, and if the Canadian government took steps to bring Belgians to Canada it might be regarded as unfriendly.

It has been suggested by farmers themselves that they should combine and subscribe to a fund for bringing Belgian refugees to this country, but there is a former experience which has not yet been forgotten by the farmers of Western Ontario. They brought out 100 Irishmen, paying their way to Western Ontario points. Only a few of these Irishmen ever reached the point of destination. Most of them dropped off at Montreal.

DOUKHOBORS OFFER SERVICES TO RUSSIA

They Would Help the Czar's Forces by Doing Ambulance Work.

London, Nov. 14.—A Petrograd correspondent says that 300 Russian reservists have arrived there from Canada. Among them is a representative of the Doukhobors, who has come to ask the government to allow his co-religionists to act as ambulance men. The Doukhobors, it will be remembered, emigrated to Canada 15 years ago to escape military service, which is against their religious convictions. This emigration was made possible by the help of the late Count Tolstoy, who gave them the profits arising from the publication of his book, "Resurrection." Count Tolstoy's eldest daughter, Alexandra, and his son, Elie, are now serving in the Russian Ambulance Corps.

THE BRITISH SPIRIT.

An illustration of the spirit of patriotism in England is the action of the Salisbury shepherds and laborers who formed the coroner's jury at the inquest over the Canadian, Private Hartley, who was found smothered on the road near the plains. They probably earn not more than $5 a week, many of them even less. But as soon as they heard that Hartley was a married man, they asked that their fees should be sent to the widow in far-off Canada. A little thing, but indicative of the spirit of the times.

Trail is charging a fee of $2 a year for the privilege of soliciting for outside newspapers in that town.

"IT'S A LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY"

"It's a long way to Tipperary," says the British soldiers' song, but the Germans are "right there." Five hundred German prisoners were landed in Dublin yesterday, states the Exchange Telegraph Company, and conveyed under escort to Templemore, County Tipperary.

Even the Germans know the tune of "Tipperary," according to a sergeant-major of the Goldstream Guards. "Our advanced outposts heard one day singing from the German lines and soon made out 'It's a Long Way to Tipperary.' Our men joined in."—Old Country Ex.

MONTHLY MEETING OF BOARD OF TRADE

The Board of trade last night confirmed the appointment of Mr. F. S. Wright as publicity commissioner to continue the work of Mr. P. F. Godenrath until the end of the year. Mr. Wright is in close touch with the newspaper world in London and will be able to obtain for Prince Rupert a good deal of notice in Old Country papers. In addition he has a very intimate personal knowledge of land and mining conditions in this district.

A committee was received from Port Arthur requesting the cooperation of the board in urging upon the Dominion government the necessity of state aid to farmers. The board did not feel called upon to endorse the exact form suggested by Port Arthur but decided to draw up a more general resolution and forward it to the proper authorities.

It was decided to defer the appointment of a delegate to wait on the Minister of Marine and Fisheries until the House is in session.

THE RUSSIANS WORRY THE KAISER

London, Nov. 14.—A dispatch to Reuter's from Rome says: "German advices received here say that Emperor William, much affected by the Russian victories, has held a council of war, which was attended by General Von Hindenburg, the Duke of Wurtemberg and the Austrian chief of staff, Field Marshal Baron Conrad Von Hoetzendorf, to decide on a further plan of campaign."

TACOMA FOOTBALLERS TO HELP BELGIAN FUND

Tacoma, Nov. 14.—Plans for holding a football game here to raise from $50,000 to $75,000 for the sufferers in Belgium are being prepared by the Tacoma Commercial Club and Chamber of commerce. The Tacoma Stadium will seat 40,000 persons. It is planned, if possible, to have the University of Washington play one of its inter-collegiate games here for the benefit or import another team and play an inter-sectional championship contest, the proceeds of which will be contributed toward the purchase of supplies for the starving Belgians.

THE SOUTH AFRICAN REVOLT.

The rebellion begun by De Wet and Beyers promises to be serious, for the former has a strong following in the Orange Free State or province, while the latter is equally strong in the Transvaal. The first act of hostility was at Heilbron, where a train carrying citizen soldiers was captured by a Boer commando. Heilbron is near where Colonel Maritz, the rebel who first took the field, was defeated.

In the Letter Box

To the Editor of The News.

Dear Sir,—I would like to bring home to the inhabitants of this city and district the necessity of keeping before them the practical certainty, that more men will be required to go from here to fight for the Empire's existence. It is only natural that after the excitement and enthusiasm of sending forth our first overseas contingent that there should be a slight apathy and reaction, and some may even think that Prince Rupert has done her share.

The following is taken from a speech by the Prime Minister at the Guildhall on September 4, 1914:

"It would be a criminal mistake to underestimate either the magnitude, the fighting quality, or the staying power of the forces which are arrayed against us; but it would be equally foolish, and equally indefensible to belittle our own resources whether for resistance or for attack."

The men of Prince Rupert have come gallantly forward so far, and I hope that those remaining will see the urgency of the cause, and will therefore prepare themselves for future calls by getting and keeping themselves physically fit.

I would also express the hope that the militia authorities will again start the drills, which have been discontinued since the departure of our first overseas company.

Yours faithfully,
T. J. LONGMUIR.
