AUSTRALIA CALLS FOR EVERY AVAILABLE MAN

(Special to The Daily News.)
Melbourne, Australia, Jan. 22.— William Morris Hughes, the acting Premier of Australia, has issued an appeal for more recruits, saying: "Every man available is needed for the front as soon as possible. The German power is by no means shattered and remains resolute with its strength unimpaired."

NEUTRAL MR. HEARST.

Congratulations to Mr. William Randolph Hearst, who, as we stated in our general news colon Thursday, has succeeded in Printing the case for both sides so admirably where the story of the European war is concerned. His paper, the New York American, has printed a picture, flattering enough, of the British Tommy, "who is doing such tremendous work on the battlefront in France"; but simultaneously his Deutsches Journal publishes another picture, to which the legend is subscribed:
"British troops that run so fast that it is not possible for Germans to capture them." This is war journalism with a vengeance.
Such high-minded impartiality should not go unrecorded or unrecognized. But Mr. Hearst, excellent man, does not stop here.
Not content to rest with merely giving the views of both sides, he has embarked on a third venture; for other newspapers of his —himself leading the van in person—are at the head of the "Stop the War" movement.
Broad-mindedness of this sort is affecting, indeed.—Hongkong Tel-graph.

LIBERAL RALLY WAS HUGE SUCCESS— LARGEST MEETING IN HISTORY OF PARTY

Hall Was Packed and Crowds Turned Away Who Could Not Obtain Entrance—Enthusiastic Speeches And Entertaining Program

The people who thought there were no Liberals in Prince Rupert were sadly mistaken last night.
The annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association demonstrated that. Those in charge of the meeting, thinking only of the size of former meetings, decided to hold it in the K. P. Hall, where only a few hundred could be accommodated.
Had they known the throng of people that were coming they would have chosen the Westholme Theatre instead. The place was packed to the doors, and chairs had to be secured from all the near buildings to pack the hall and there were crowds outside that could not get in.
The meeting was a great big protest at the profligacy and corruption of the McBride government. There can be no mistake about that. That the weakness of the Federal government was also behind the sentiment was likewise clearly seen. A large list of clear-headed and able speakers addressed the meeting, and their telling points against the governments were echoed and re-echoed throughout the hall.

The beginning of the end has come and last night's meeting will become historic.
Mr. T. D. Pattullo, the capable president of the Liberal Association, opened the meeting with a rousing address. Mr. Pattullo has a record of good speeches behind him but last night he excelled himself.

He began by an attack on the profligacy of the McBride government in throwing away the land of the province to speculators. He reviewed the scandal of the Mackenzie & Mann deal with the C. N. R. Great as was the fraud perpetrated in this respect, the recent action of the Attorney General with reference to the Dominion Trust Company was even greater. The chickens, however, are coming home to roost, and Bowser knows they are coming.
He is already protesting at the way the Liberals are exposing him, and in order to hide his villainy he is trying to cover it with a false patriotism. He is telling the people that the reason why New Zealand secured money at 4 per cent while we have to pay higher rates is because that colony gave a dreadnought to the Empire while Canada didn't. He has the audacity to say that Britain would discriminate against a colony that is today sending of her best sons to bleed and die for her cause. Australia has built up her own navy instead of contributing to the Imperial navy and yet Australia has not been discriminated against. "I say shame on the man who will stoop to such low arguments," said the speaker.
"We must give no quarter to an enemy of this kind. There never was a time when Liberals had a greater task to perform than the present in British Columbia. We must stand shoulder to shoulder until the wrongs of our country are righted and victory is won." Mr. George Nickerson was the next speaker. He dwelt chiefly on the fish question. He believed that H. S. Clements was doing all in his power to secure the fishery concessions demanded by Prince Rupert but the trouble was that the government he represented had wrong ideas about the freedom of trade.
At the close of this speech Mr.
Dan Morrison, who represented himself as a fisherman who has tolled for many years on this coast, asked the chairman for a chance to speak. He stepped to the platform and if anybody thinks that a fisherman cannot make a good speech he is entirely

ALLIES WILL UNITE WITH WAR'S FINANCE

Paris, Jan. 22.—A conference was held between David Lloyd George, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Alexandre Ribot and P. Burk, the French and Russian Ministers of Finance. It is reported the meeting was arranged to consider a joint loan of fifteen billion francs bearing interest at 3 per cent.

TURKS HAVE PROBLEM.

The Turks do not quite appreciate the serious nature of the job that awaits them if ever they reach the banks of the Suez Canal. It is stated that the invasion of Egypt is now timed for the early part of February, and that the Eighth Turkish Army Corps, well fitted and well supplied, has left Damascus for the Sinai Peninsula, where Turkish engineers are building a railway to aid in the invasion. Besides the railway, 8,000 camels will carry supplies.
There is something ludicrous in the Turks setting out to conquer Egypt with 40,000 men.

STEAM ROLLER KEEPS GOING— GERMAN FRONTIER IN DANGER

RUSSIANS HAVE MADE GOOD SUCCESSES IN LAST FEW DAYS —NEW FORCES THROWN INTO FIELD HAVING ENCOURAGING EFFECT.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Jan. 22.—News dispatches referring to the situation in Poland set forth that north of the Vistula in the vicinity of Lip-no the Russian advance guard is within twenty miles of the German frontier, while in the northeast the Germans have evacuated Skempt, twenty-five miles from the Prussian border and due southeast of Thorn.

If the Russians follow up their success at Skempt and continue the forward movement it will give them an unbroken front, the British observer says, and dangerously near German territory.

GERMAN SUBMARINE SINKS A SCOTTISH PASSENGER STEAMER

(Special to The Daily News.)
Rotterdam, Jan. 22.—The British steamer Durward was torpedoed by a German submarine twenty-two miles off the Maas lightship. The crew was saved.
The Durward was owned by George Gibson & Co., of Leith, Scotland, being one of their regular passenger and light cargo boats sailing between Leith and Rotterdam. The Germans have evidently begun their threatened warfare on the British mercantile marine.

DISEASE EPIDEMICS RAGING IN VIENNA

Venice, Jan. 21.—Private reports from Vienna and sattements appearing in the Austrian papers show that conditions in the Austrian capital are daily becoming more serious.

Smallpox, cholera and typhoid fever are prevalent, forty-five cases of smallpox being reported in Vienna during the first nine days of January. Many cases of contagion are also reported from various centers of lower and upper Austria, Syria, Bohemia, Moravia, Silesia and Galicia.

Great numbers of fugitives have arrived from Bukovina. Many of them are on the verge of starvation.

DOMINION FINANCE.

The Dominion government is confronted with a serious financial problem. The revenue of Canada has fallen off during 1914 nearly forty-five million dollars, while the expenditure during the same period has been increased by over fifteen millions, and over seventy-three millions have been added to the national debt, which now stands at $376,744,164.

TO KEEP PARIS DARK

Paris, Jan. 21.—The military government has submitted to the authorities a suggestion that there be a diminution in the number of lights in Paris, and its suburbs, as a precautionary measure against aerial raids by the Germans. RAILWAY BALL WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

The G. T. P. railwaymen were hosts at a very popular ball given last night in McIntyre Hall. The railwaymen have a name to live up to in this respect and did full credit to their hospitality.

The hall was suitably decorated for the occasion. The Third Avenue entrance to the hall was arranged to represent the rear end of a caboose and everybody got aboard.

The dance program was unique, being represented as a railway time table and the various dances were arranged on scheduled time. Each dance number was prefaced by some reference to the various departments, even to "A Raise in Pay." The following advice was included on the card:

"Extreme caution must be used at all time in regulating speed approaching damsels, safety of all dancers being first consideration."

"Any gentleman running with more than one lady or following a section must not exceed schedule speed."

"All persons must reduce speed to a safe limit approaching the dining hall."

"All persons approach punch bowl between dances as indicated in ball room, under full control, expecting to find preceding couple taking refreshments."

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 22.—Fifteen specially designed 14-inch guns, said to be as powerful as the Krupp 42-centimetre guns, passed through Minneapolis last night for Russia. They will go via Vladivostok. Railway gossip said they will be used against the fortifications at Przemyel.

The guns came from Bethlehem, Pa. They left for the West on a special train. The train was under special personal escort and the guns did not carry the name of any consignor.

DEAFNESS MAKES HIM THINK BATTLE OVER

An English subaltern had a wierd experience a few days ago. He was with half a dozen brother officers in a ruined farmhouse, when a shell burst in their midst. When he recovered consciousness he felt very sick, but slowly got better, and discovered that he was untouched. All his comrades were dead except one, who was very severely wounded, and he judged that the fighting was over for the time being, because the furious cannonade had ceased and everything was silent. He carried a wounded comrade on his back to the British line, walking slowly across country with his burden. He was surprised to feel the wounded man struggle feebly and to hear him murmuring something about lying down, but he attributed it to delirium. When he reached his destination he found that he had crossed unscathed the most deadly part of the battle zone, a terrain absolutely swept by the enemy's fire. For the fighting was still going on furiously, and his wounded comrade knew it all the time but he himself was stone deaf for a fortnight.

In the matter of argument most people have more talk than brains to spare.

CANADIANS FOUGHT WITH THE GARIBALDIS

British Columbians Who Traveled From Mexico at Their Own Expense. London, Jan. 22.—A group of British Columbians are doing valiant service in the French army. The story is brought to London by R. B. Cowell, of Golden, who says he has been one of the British Columbians serving at the French front with Garibaldi's Legions. He returned to London with his leg amputated in consequence of wounds, and is now assisting at the head recruiting office. Other British Columbians enlisted with the Garibaldis are John, Darcy, Woodrow, Fraser, Williamson, Tucker and Johnson. Of these, Johns was killed, and Darcy and Woodrow are now in hospital. The British Columbia party, most of whom had been employed at Tigró, Mexico, came to England at their own expense to enlist in a cavalry regiment, but finding no vacancies proceeded to France and joined Garibaldi's Legion, which consists of cavalry and infantry. Cowell says: "My horse was shot in an engagement at Troyes. I could not extricate myself as I was carrying a bunch of rifles. The horse fell on me and my kneecap was smashed. I had to lie where I fell all night and half the next day before I was found by the French Red Cross. They took me back to Troyes, where, after four operations, blood poisoning compelled the amputation of the leg." Cowell is remarkably cheerful and even jokes about his cork substitute, which he says works well.
