IS THE KAISER GETTING READY TO ABDICATE?

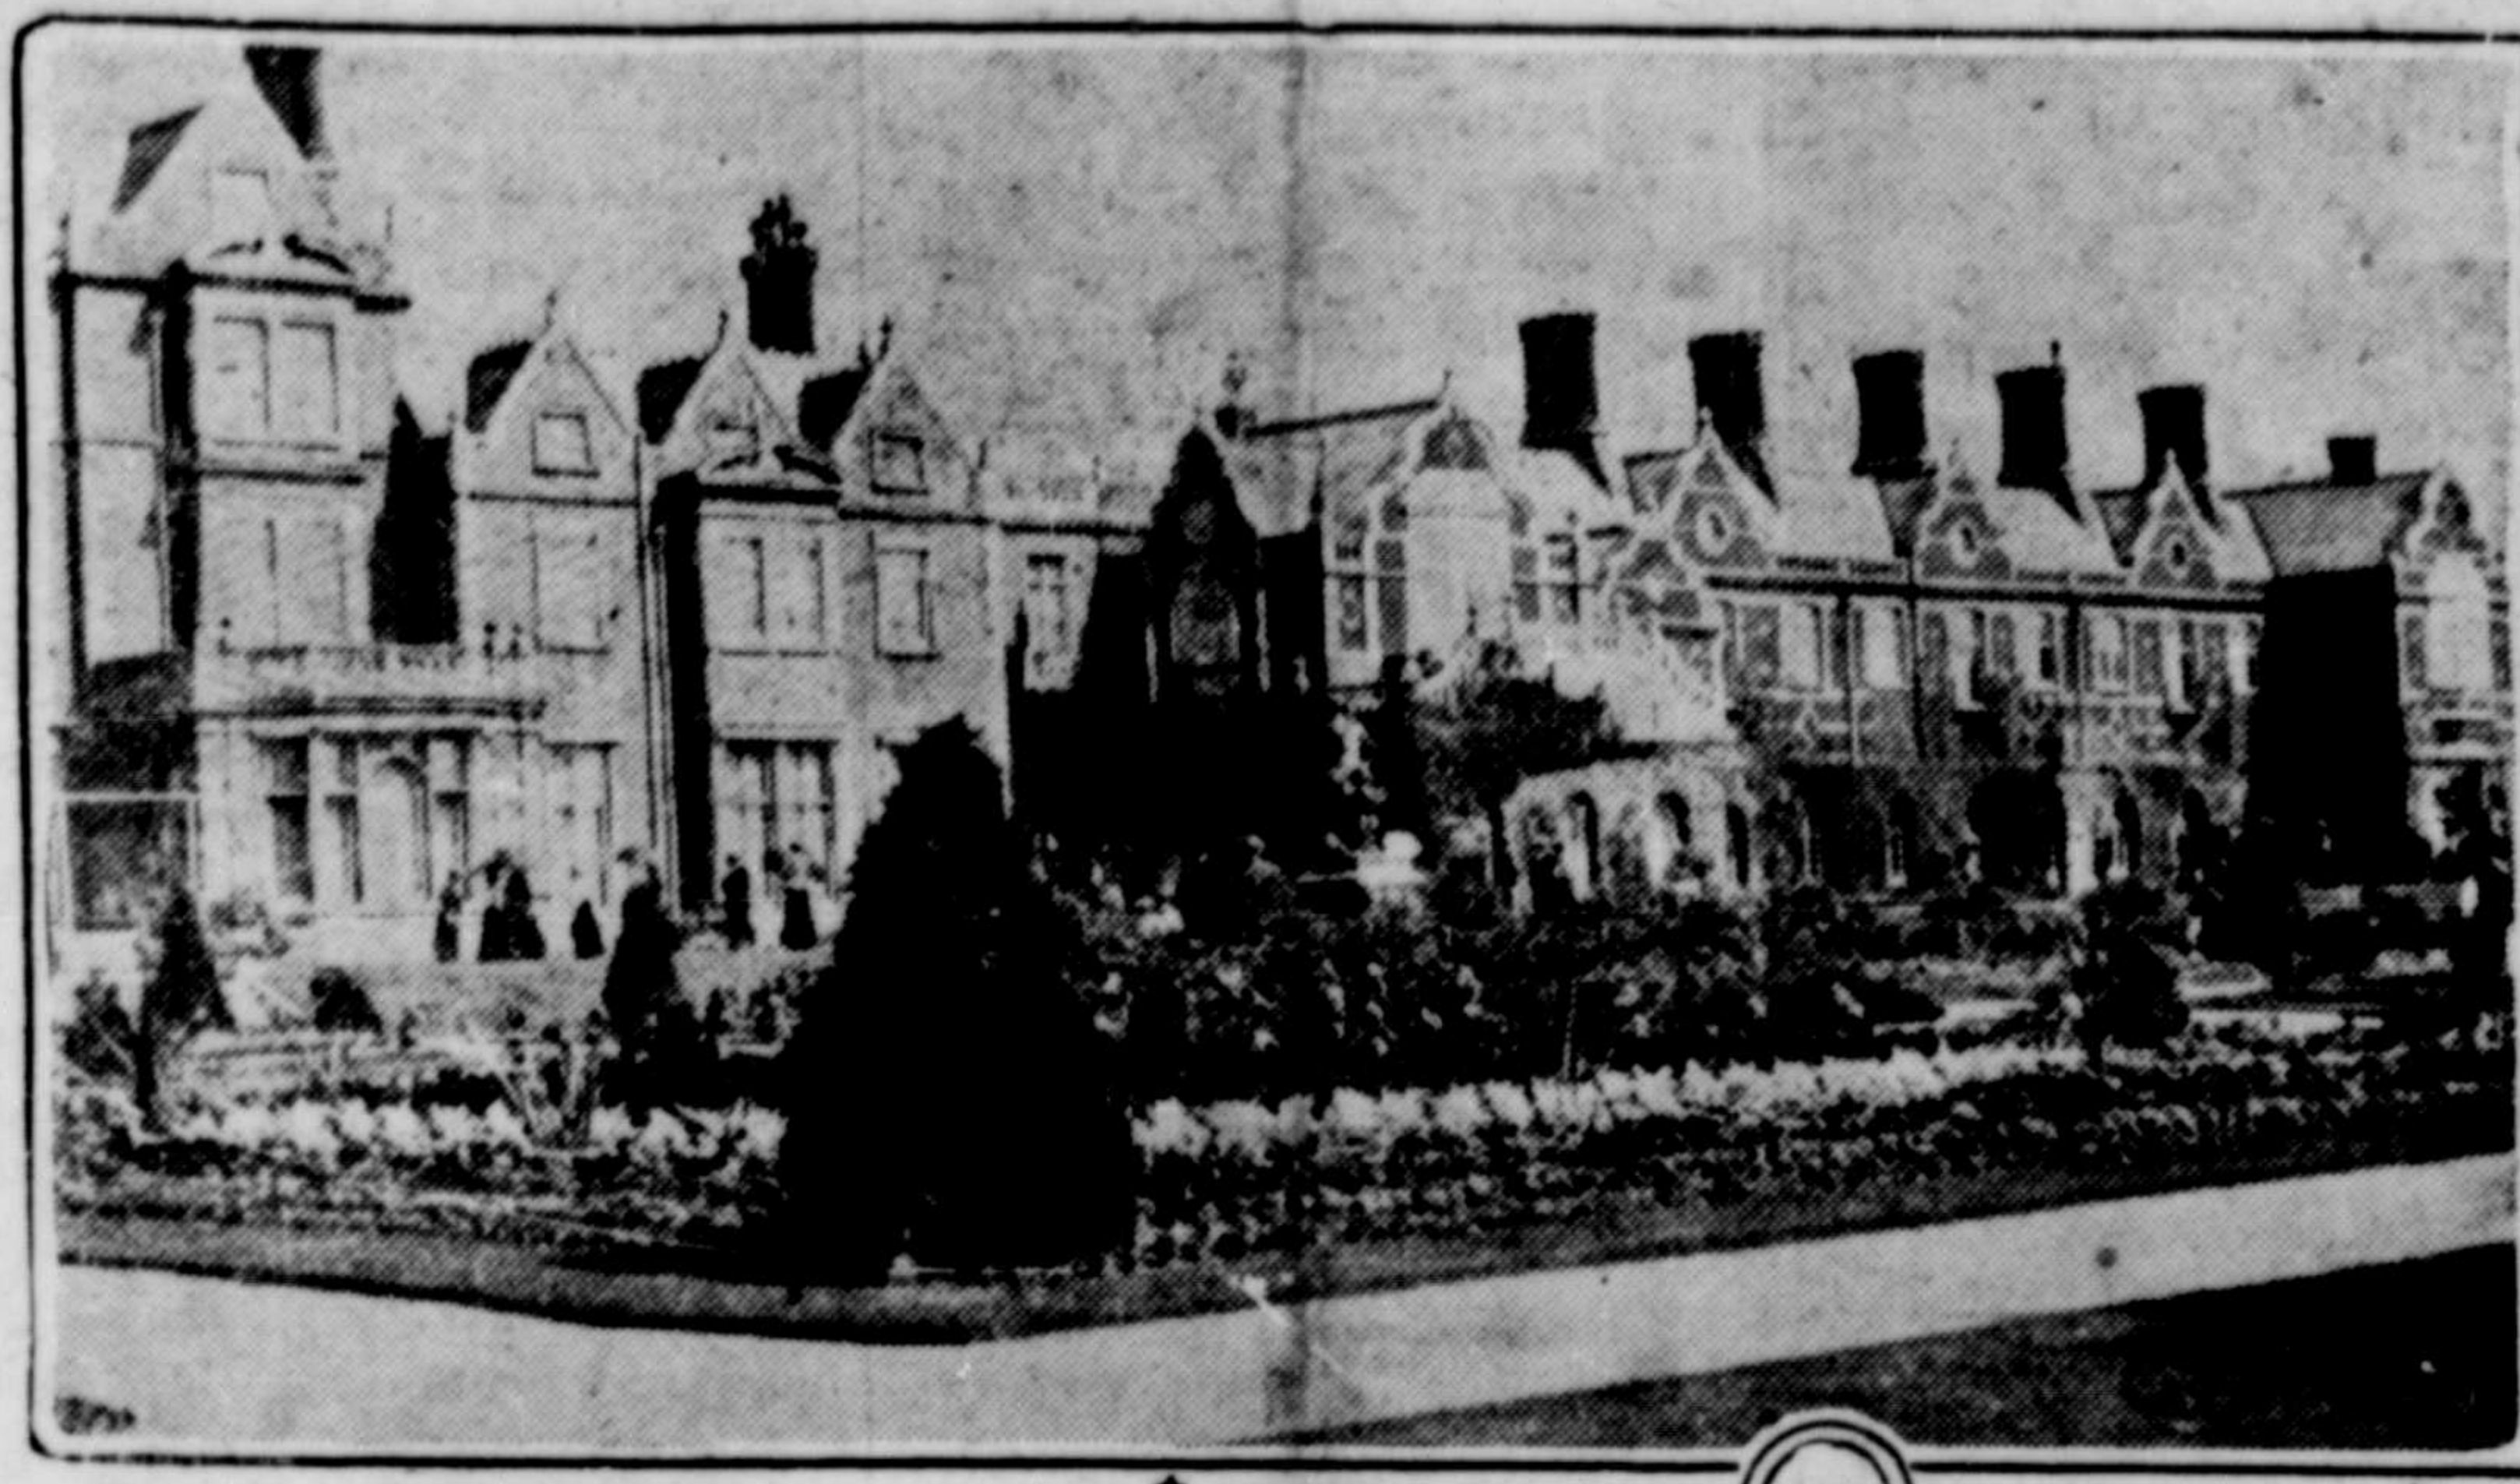

CAPTAIN OF BLUECHER MAY BE TRIED AS PIRATE--GOVT. SEEKS EXTRADITION OF VAN HORNE

KAISER MAY ABDICATE THRONE-- PUTTING ASIDE PRIVATE FUNDS

ONE MILLION DOLLARS INVESTED YESTERDAY BY A GERMAN FIRM IN NEW YORK BELIEVED TO BE FROM THE KAISER.

(Special to The Daily News.)
New York, Feb. 3.—The events of the last few days seem to indicate that the Kaiser feels not that his task is hopeless but that his personal fortune is at stake. Yesterday the German firm, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., of New York, made what is believed to be a heavy purchase for the Zollern family amounting to $1,000,000 in the canal highway and New York State bonds. They took the entire issue at $106.77, outbidding 495 competitors. The transfer from the agents to the Kaiser is, of course, kept a secret, but this is the only explanation that can cover such a large investment from a German source. It would indicate that the Kaiser wants to be ready to abdicate in case of a severe defeat.

ROYAL RESIDENCE SANDRINGHAM

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S BUNGALOW SANDRINGHAM

WHERE GERMANS TRIED TO VENT SPITE ON EDWARD VII.
Sandringham estate and country house near King's Lynn was the personal property of the late King Edward, being purchased by him with his minority accumulation. He willed the estate to King George but the house remained the property of Queen Alexandra, and the present King has never lived in it, but occupied York Cottage, in the grounds, during his visits. The recent attempt to wreck the grounds is indicative of German "kultur." The picture shows the big house at Sandringham, which is undamaged, though a bomb was dropped on the estate; also Queen Alexandra's bungalow on the sea at Snettingham, where another bomb was dropped.

CAPTAIN OF BLUECHER MAY BE TRIED BY BRITISH AS PIRATE

LONDON GLOBE IS ADVOCATING THIS COURSE—PEOPLE INFLAMED ABOUT ATTACKS ON HELPLESS NON-COMBATANTS.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Feb. 3.—There are evidences that the decision of Russia to treat attacks on noncombatants as acts of piracy will be adopted in Britain. Public feeling has been greatly aroused over the German attacks on helpless women and children through their recent raids. The Globe in today's editorial is urging that the captain of the German cruiser Bluecher, who has been taken a prisoner, be tried as a pirate. No action has yet been taken by the government in the matter.

WALTER PETERS LEAVES TO JOIN BRITISH ARMY

Solicitor F. Peters has sent two of his sons to the war. Walter H. Peters, recently with the Bank of Canada, left on the train for London, England, where he will enlist for the British Army. Another son, Jack Peters, proceeded to London several days ago, but instead of joining a British regiment as he could have done, he was enabled to join the first Canadian Contingent which is now at Salisbury Plain. His third son is second in command of the British destroyer "Hull," which played such an important part in attacking the recent German raid. Mr. and Mrs. Peters were at the train today to see their son off and did it with true maternal composure. Everybody wishes the boys luck and a safe return.

CANADA TO APPLY FOR EXTRADITION VAN HORNE

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, Maine, Feb. 3.—Under the auspices of Canadian officials a court session was held at McAdams Junction to take evidence to secure the extradition of Werner Van Horne, who blew up the St. Croix bridge. The offense is covered by the treaty of 1904. Van Horne is the eldest son of Count Karl Van Horne, a former minister and a general of Bavaria. He was a captain of Pioneers, and was prevented from rejoining the army by the activity of the British fleet.

FRENCH ARTILLERY STILL TO THE FRONT

(Special to The Daily News.)
Paris, Feb. 3.—The official report states that the French batteries have silenced the enemy's guns between the Lys and the Oise. At Lens they prevented the German attempt to float blazing explosive rafts down the River Ancre. German attacks were repulsed along the line at Perthes and in the Argonne.

NEW WATER BYLAW IS TO BE BROUGHT IN

A little further discussion took place last night on the proposed new water bylaw. The engineer said that the former bylaw penalized a man who put in modern fittings, whereas the new one would endeavor to overcome this. He cited the case of one citizen who was paying $40 at present because he had duplicate fixtures. Under the new bylaw he will pay only $16.

Under the old bylaw a five-room modern house was taxed $15 and under the new this was reduced to $11, while a four-room modern house is taxed $10. If it contains only one tap the price is $4. Under the old bylaw the cost was $6. The reduction will be about a third in the small houses and a larger proportion on the houses which formerly had been penalized for having a superabundance of fixtures.

Alderman Montgomery thought even the proposed prices were too high. He thought this was putting a tax on cleanliness and he objected to it. Now that the water system was supplied by gravity water was cheap and should not be spared.

Alderman Edge contended that every city utility should stand on its own feet. The discussion brought out the fact that under the proposed bylaw $9,000 was the estimated revenue, while the estimated expense was six or seven thousand dollars. Eighteen hundred dollars was set aside to cover temporary extensions that would likely be required for the year. Last year the pumping cost the city $18,000, so that the gravity system is a big saving.

MAN ARRESTED FOR SMUGGLING ALIENS

(Special to The Daily News.)
Seattle, Feb. 3.—After an exciting auto chase, Vergilio Davide was captured here on a charge of smuggling five aliens into the United States. Each had paid him $12 for being rushed across the boundary in an auto driven by Davide. His car was stopped after half a dozen shots had been fired.

Seattle, Feb. 3.—Salvage officials report that the steamer Delhi is going to pieces in Sumner Strait. There is a strong southerly wind, and she is pounding on the rocks.

GREECE TO AID SERBIA.

Great Activity Prevails Now in Military Quarters.

Paris, February 3.—A dispatch to the Balkan agency from Athens says: "Greece with all her forces will come to the aid of Serbia in every fresh invasion of Serbia by the Austro-German armies. The greatest activity prevails now in military quarters."

TO BE RED CROSS NURSE.

Daughter of Uncle Sam's Treasurer Leaves for Battlefield.

New York, Feb. 3.—Among passengers on the liner Lusitania, which sailed yesterday, was Miss Nona McAdoo, daughter of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. Miss McAdoo planned to engage in Red Cross work in France. She will have with her a close friend, Miss Catherine Britton, of Washington, Col. E. M. House, one of President Wilson's close personal advisers, and Mrs. House, of this city, will chaperone the young women.

WHY MAYOR TAYLOR MAY BE UNSEATED

Vancouver, Feb. 3.—The attempt made to unseat Mayor Taylor, of Vancouver, is based on the fact that in order to qualify for election he had to appear as the registered owner of real estate to the value of $1,000, free from all encumbrances, and his opponents will endeavor to show this was not the case.

Mr. Taylor, not having property of his own, borrowed a lot from a friend to cover the requirements; but as soon as this was done his creditors filed a judgment they held against him, thus reducing the value of his holdings away under the thousand mark. In case he is unseated the judge may declare the next highest candidate elected, or call for a new election. Mr. Baxter was second in the run.

Olympia, Wash., Feb. 3.—A boxing bill permitting ten-round bouts under the authority of the State Athletic Association passed the Senate by a vote of 28 to 18.

ASK SALISBURY GIRLS TO GIVE UP KISSING

Medical Authorities Ban Osculatory Association With Soldiers.

Salisbury, Feb. 3.—The latest order issued by the medical authorities makes a request that Salisbury girls refrain from kissing the Canadian soldiers, owing to the infectious diseases in camps and town. Several dances have been forbidden. There are a few serious cases now in the camps but measures have been taken to prevent a further spread of meningitis and diphtheria.

One hundred and twenty men, mostly of Toronto and Montreal, have been transferred from the 19th to the 12th. The latter drafted its entire number to the Princess Pats, who are now in France.

All battalions of the First, Second and Third Brigades are sending men unfit for active service to the Fourth Brigade, receiving men from them in transfer.

Mr. Scheinman, of the Acme Importers, left this morning on a visit to their branch store at Smithers. The branch was opened there a few weeks ago. Charles Vaughan is manager of the branch.

BRITISH ARMY IS READY FOR ADVANCE

Northern France, Feb. 3.—Tremendous camps have been prepared at various places between the fighting line and the coast and already several hundred thousand well trained British reinforcements have arrived. Every Tommy you meet is full of optimism. Even the shattered soldiers who are brought down to the hospital say Germany is completely beaten as a fighter. The weather has become suddenly milder and the country people tell you there is going to be an early spring. This means an early advance of the Allies. Thousands of traction engines, many thousands of motor transports, tons of rails, hundreds of unused guns, miles of barbed wire and a million things that the army will need are all stacked, ready. The completeness of the British supplies has left the French amazed.

CHURCH DIVIDED INTO TWO CAMPS

DeWet Rebellion Has Created a Schism in South Africa.

London, Feb. 3.—The effects of the South African rebellion are being acutely felt in the Dutch Reformed Church, where something like a schism is threatened owing to differences of political opinion. The Dutch clergy have always been prominent in political affairs and many of them have favored the Hertzog party. While not lending support to an aggressive rebellion, a certain section of the clergy was inclined to be passive, chiefly because of their hatred for the progressive policy of Hon. Louis Botha. On the other hand, the city clergy and those of the outside districts who are in daily contact with English-speaking countrymen thoroughly support Botha's policy, and hence the Church is divided into two camps. As a consequence a special conference has been opened at Bloemfontein to discuss a way out of the difficulty.

A large number of people have been born pessimists and another large number are learning the lesson as fast as they can. A few of those croakers are to be found even in Prince Rupert, where conditions are less congenial to their existence than most places on the map. The fact is that the war is having very little effect on Prince Rupert. The speculative ideal was due to fall to the ground any time; but for the man who wants to produce something, whether it be materials or ideas, the time was never more opportune. Instead of bewailing about the past, let everybody get out and do something, and if nothing else is in sight let him get a little boat and go out and fish. There is no room in Prince Rupert for the knocker and everybody should constitute himself a committee of one to see that the rule is enforced.

A document of labored statistics arrives periodically at the office of this paper and the casual observer would ordinarily convey it to the waste paper basket with the thousands of useless periodicals received. A close scrutiny, however, reveals the fact that this is the government return for the chartered banks of Canada. The one received is dated December 31, 1914, and has the following interesting information:

The total assets of the Canadian chartered banks is $1,555,556,815. The currency of all the banks amounts to $62,569,688. Besides this they have in circulation $138,040,382 of Dominion government notes. They have deposited with the Finance Minister for the security of their notes, $6,732,562. There is due to them from banking institutions in the United Kingdom, the sum of $10,239,738, and from other foreign bankers, $35,427,429. In Canada they have short loans issued on the security of stocks and bonds, $68,511,653, and short loans outside of Canada, $85,012,964. Other current loans and discounts in Canada amount to $786,034,378, and other discounts outside of Canada, $43,413,760. To the Dominion government, they have loaned $5,000,000, and to the provincial governments, $14,104,820. There are overdue debts of $6,188,017. The value of these bank premises amounts to $46,713,745, which is pretty good for twenty-two institutions. If all the money loaned outside of Canada were called home there would not be much stringency in this country but perhaps the bank dividends would not be so great.

The indications are that the ship purchase bill will not pass the United States Congress, at least in its original form. There can be no doubt of the value to the Americans of securing the use of these ships for traffic is congested in every port while fine Hamburg-American liners lie at ease in New York harbor. There is another side to it, however. If the Germans could sell these ships there would be a vast sum of money set loose for the use of the war, and since the determining factor will probably be finance, the British government cannot be blamed for objecting to the sale, especially as it is forbidden by international law. It is possible that a way may be found out of the difficulty whereby the Americans can get the use of the ships without the purchase money being handed over to the Germans until after the war.

HOW GERMAN PASTOR LOOKS FOR VICTORY

Here is a notable account of the preaching of Pastor Samuel, a striking preacher in Berlin, given by a correspondent of the London Evening News:

"The enormous hall was filled by over 5,000 people. Evidently, thought I, P. Samuel is a celebrity. In a powerful, low-pitched voice he started to speak amidst perfect silence. I listened.

"God is not neutral! He is with the Germans. That is why He has placed them in the middle of Europe. After this war they will be for ever the first nation of the earth. But they must go back to Christ; the bankruptcy of materialism is complete. How could a materialist explain a phenomenon like the present war? The name of Idealist which has covered the whole nation from the beginning of this war has been superb; but an Idealism without religion must lead to final disaster.

"The victory of our arms is certain. Since Frederick the Great Germany has attributed to God the habit of being on the strongest side; now we can say that He is behind our guns. But even if they are not the strongest, God is with us all the same. He gave us our genius, our culture, our art, our music; He gave us the mission to make us teach it to the whole world.

"The victory is certain, but we must afterwards be worthy of it."

"At this moment it was that I really saw a new Berlin, a Berlin unsuspected, a Berlin I did not know, a Berlin which is really a creation of the war.

"Five thousand people had come to this theatre to hear that God is not neutral. After the preacher had finished the people sang:

"A safe stronghold our God is still,

A trusty shield and weapon;
He'll help us clear from all ill
That hath us now o'ertaken.

"After that a sudden extraordinary and fascinating thing happened. The preacher, with his strong, calm voice invited the audience to pray with him; Pater noster . . . The men stood, the women knelt down with the children, struck by a sort of mystic terror.

"Vater unser der du bist im Himmel . . ."

"Five thousand people of all classes, of all social conditions, everyone with a father or a brother or a husband to pray for, recited the Pater noster in the theatre.

"They recited it in a low voice, like the murmur of a quiet river. I can see, I can hear the war."

GERMANS LED WAY TO ABSOLUTE CONTRABAND

London, Jan. 27.—The decision of the German government to seize stocks of flour and grain, makes them absolute contraband, instead of conditional contraband, as they were heretofore, argues the London Globe in a leading article printed today.

"We permitted food to be imported by Germany," the newspaper says, "providing it was intended for the civil population alone, but now that it is to be treated as government property, it becomes absolute contraband and vessels carrying food supplies to the enemy's ports, or to neutral ports, from which these cargoes are to pass into Germany, will do so at the peril of capture."

The editorial argues that in view of the new status of flour and grain the American steamer Wilhelmina, which sailed from New York January 22 with a cargo of food for Germany has no right to land her supplies at Rotterdam.

SAYS JITNEYS SHOULD BEAR SHARE OF BURDEN

Take Cream of Traffic, Says Journal, and Leave Tramways Long Haul.

San Francisco, Feb. 2.—The Journal of Electricity, Power and Gas deals editorially with the question of the operation of "jitney" busses on the Pacific Coast in competition with the street railways. The subject is dealt with as follows:

"The competition of the 'jitney bus,' to which reference has previously been made in these columns, is seriously affecting street railway earnings in all Pacific Coast cities. If this were fair competition on even terms the street railway men would have but little to say, but its unfairness is so manifest that they are seeking to have the traffic properly regulated.

"In the first place the nickel busses take only the cream of the traffic, the short haul, while the street railways are obliged to carry passengers to suburban terminals for the same fare. The street cars give transfers, maintain a regular schedule during the most inclement weather and offer a dependable service. The busses do not.

"Furthermore, the street railways must have franchises, their taxes are an important element in the municipal revenue, they are held responsible for all accidents to life and limb, and are required to maintain their right-of-way. The bus escapes all these burdens. Both are common carriers, and if it is just for one to come under the jurisdiction of a public utility commission it is certainly right that the other should be regulated likewise."

Mistress—How came such a horrid, greasy mess in the oven, Maude? Maude—Why, the candles fell into the water, mum, an' I put 'em in the oven to dry.

"How would you classify a telephone girl?" asked the old fogey. "Is hers a business or a profession?" "Neither," replied his friend. "It is a calling."

"GOD SAVE THE KING."

His Majesty departed from Sandringham a few hours before the arrival of the German air raiders.

GIRL "JOY RIDE" VICTIM IS AWARDED $20,000

Young Woman Taken on Fast Trip, Against Will.

New York, Feb. 3.—Because she had been made a hopeless cripple on a joy ride on which she had been taken unwillingly, Celia Weistead received an award of $20,000 damages against John A. Kilgallon in the Supreme Court of Queens County yesterday. The girl had refused to take a ride in Kilgallon's automobile, but had accepted his offer to drive her to her home. Instead, he ran his machine toward New York at 60 miles an hour, when the accident occurred.

NEY TROUBLE FECTED HIS SPINE

Suffered For Forty Years Until He Used "Fruit-a-tives"

BRONTE, ONT., OCT. 31st, 1913.
 For about forty years, I was troubled with lame back brought on by Kidney Bladder Trouble. I was never able to get up from the bed with the trouble, affected my spine and I had to lie for a time. I took advertised remedies which never did me any good. I saw "Fruit-a-tives" advertised and decided to try them. They did more good than any other remedy. I now suffer from the same trouble and frequently had to leave off my bed, but "Fruit-a-tives" remedied me. I would strongly advise anyone suffering from Kidney and Bladder Trouble to use "Fruit-a-tives".

WHAT THE GREAT WAR HAS DONE FOR THE NATIONS OF EUROPE

THE HEROES IN BRITAIN'S GOLDEN AGES HAVE AGAIN BEEN REVIVED—FRANCE HAS FOUND HERSELF AS SHE DIDN'T SINCE THE MAID OF ORLEANS.

"From the long and equal range of the common years some epoch-making points of time stand up at great intervals like summits. They may come as single peaks in the solitary eminence, but more often the dominating altitudes of history are in groups closely approaching each other in grandeur," says The Observer.

"Even 1914 may be immediately followed by more than its match. It has at least had very few equals in the course of historic time.

The Significance of Things

"The present war has lowered the significance of many things that seemed important in days not far behind us, and has even reduced many of the long-accepted values of other generations and centuries. It may well be, indeed, that the Old Year will be surpassed by the New in the magnitude and scope of its events as in their meaning and fascination for posterity. All the future will look back with amazement to the age we live in and endeavor by still deeper research to understand it.

"The year now expiring will always be renowned as the date when the greatest of wars, feared and postponed through a whole anxious and burdened era, broke out at last. Many had prophesied the event, but none the hour.

What Happened

"When the lot fell upon 1914 Germany shook the world by her struggle for supreme dominion. Little Belgium and Serbia, in a fight for liberty, flung themselves across the path of military empires, and ensued the overthrow of the powers of destruction. Turkey decreed its own doom. France rose for her noblest struggle since the Maid of Orleans. The mighty duel opened between the Teuton and the Slav. The British Empire, saved from civil strife by its deadliest enemy, found a soul and strength as in the days of Elizabeth, Cromwell, Marlborough, Chatham, and Pitt. There was war by strange means in the air above and under the waters.

"We make a routine of the most marvellous events when their sequence is prolonged. It is hard to keep the mind fresh to a due sense of the unexampled prodigies and portents that are happening around us or approaching. We are dealing with problems which in some respects have taken not decades, but centuries, to accumulate. We are settling—amid all the unsettling —the foundations of civilization for at least a hundred years," adds the Observer. "Throughout the world the conditions known before this struggle in home and foreign politics alike, in literature and art, in the temper of science and speculation, in manners, even in ethics, will be changed or swept away. Yet there are some people, perhaps many, to whom even Armageddon threatens to become commonplace."

The Observer quotes from Esdras the astonishing passage (Chapter XXI) now the subject of much conversation. Greater than even this passing year may be 1915, on condition of its leading to such issues "that all the earth may be refreshed, and being delivered from violence may hope for the judgment and mercy of Him that made her."

War Works Changes

"The war is working other changes," says the Morning Post. "It puts out the lights betimes and makes people go to bed at a healthy hour. It has extinguished for the moment art and literature. The corrupting and international cynicisms of the theatre jar upon people who are for once in earnest about something. Novelists who devoted themselves to the exploration of sex and egotism now find that the public have ceased to be interested in the sorrows and eccentricities of the pampered individual. The poet and the painter, who had become so super-subtle as to have lost touch with all but coeteries, find themselves without audience or occupation. If they rediscover patriotism they will find a new and more fruitful outlet for their energies. A national theatre, a national literature, and a national art may all subsist in war, but they must breathe something of the national spirit.

"The internationalism and the chaotic individualism of peace are no longer found acceptable. There is thus loss and gain; loss in liberty and in the culture of the individual, gain in national strength and the spirit of patriotism; loss in wealth and luxury, gain in courage and fortitude; loss in security, gain in faith; loss in the arts of civilization, gain in a simpler and sterner life. But, above all, there is a gain in the consciousness that political devices and phrases are fraudulent counters and not true coin, and that a nation must be prepared to sacrifice much for that strength which is necessary to secure not only its honor but its existence."

When Peace Comes

"If we use the restoration of peace to lapse in ease and licence we shall betray all the better purposes awakened during the time of stress, and the work of those who have died," says the Times. "We need to practise during the war restraint, self-discipline, forbearance, not simply as temporary expedients to meet an overwhelming necessity, but as habits deliberately acquired and meant to last. So the nation can be permanently fertilized in spirit, as the soil is left apter for cultivation after penetrating frost."

"THE KAISER'S FATE."

A merry lot are the Canadian troops at present in training on Salisbury Plain, and they fire off some of their humor in the columns of their magazine, the Second Battalion Bulletin, the editor of which is Signaller Crean. For the safety of the contributors, we are told, the names of the authors, particularly in regard to poetry, are concealed; but readers will doubtless agree that we could do with a little more from the pen of the writer of the following lines, which he calls "The Kaiser's Fate":

We fired some rounds of marmalade, some doughnuts hard as rocks.
 We wadded them down with blankets, with wristbands, and with socks.
 We fired a handsome custard-pie, a dread soft-nosed dum-dum;
 We brought it there from Valcarier to use in Bel-gi-um.

The enemy was starvin', and they were filled with woe.
 We put canned salmon in our gun and fired it at the foe!
 They all come in to breakfast—by millions they did come
 To meet the boys from Valcartier that went to Bel-gi-um.

The Germans they surrendered, their eyes were full of tears.
 They hadn't had so much to eat for many, many years.
 They asked us in amazement, "Where do youse folks come from?"
 We said, "We come from Valcartier to visit Bel-gi-um."

Oh! with our store of doughnuts, our pumpkin-pie, and jam,
 Our stock of food, canned salmon, our bread, cheese, and ham,
 We'll capture all of Europe, and we will make it hum;
 We'll capture all of Europe as well as Bel-gi-um.

A NEWSPAPER
 for Prince Rupert and Northern B.C.

The Daily News goes into nearly every home in Prince Rupert. It is the popular newspaper of the city because it is clean and reliable. It has all the news of the city, and keeps in touch with events and topics interesting to Northern British Columbia. It treats these subjects with moderate optimism and reliability.

The Daily News is the most valuable paper to advertisers because it is read by the buying public. It has a bigger circulation than any other paper in the city. It is read by the class of people the advertisers want to talk to.

NELSON SEEKS ROYALTY ON NAME "BATTLING"

Durable Dane Says Boxers Should Be Stopped From Using It.

New York, Feb. 2.—Batting Nelson is going to law to protect his name. The Durable Dane says he is sick and tired of all kinds of fighters hooking the name "Batting" on to themselves.

"Batting" is Nelson's real name, and he believes he has an exclusive right to it and that the other ring men who have appropriated it should be enjoined and either prevented from using it or pay a royalty on the "Nelson copyright."

One of his first acts this week will be to seek an injunction to prevent Dan Morgan from billing his heavyweight fighter Levinsky as "Batting" Levinsky. Nelson will go to court and ask that both Morgan and Levinsky be prevented from using the name unless a business arrangement is made with the Nelson forces.

TIME FOR PEACE HAS NOT YET COME

Renewed Talk of Ending Hostilities Gets No Encouragement From British Press.

London, Feb. 3.—The renewed peace talk gets no encouragement from the British press. The Times says:

"We mean to have real peace and we shall fight on until we get it. This will remain our attitude to the end. When Germany is ready to accept our terms, she knows where to say so. Until then, her suggestions of peace either are dishonest statements intended to curry favor with America or are indifferent to us."

The Daily Mail says: "Austria-Hungary may sue for an early peace and the Magyars may even proclaim their independence. It will make little difference. The Allies have but one goal, the destruction of that Prussian militarism which has driven all Germany into a course incompatible with the freedom of Europe. When the military and naval power of Germany is broken, it will be time enough for peace. Until then, the whinings of their dupes and accomplices are so much wasted breath."

"What kind of a fellow is he?" "Oh, he's the kind of a fellow who goes out for a walk with you, and then tells you how unconventional he is; not afraid of being seen with anybody."

PRETTY RUPERT LASS TO JOIN HER BELOVED

Anybody standing around the wharf today when the train pulled out would have thought there was a wedding party around. The ground and air was strewn with confetti and similar tokens of rejoicing. Inquiry brought out the fact, however, that it was all a little premature, as the girl was only just starting on the trip that would have very happy results.

Miss Lucy Hardy was the happy girl and although she was proceeding to a strange city all by herself and leaving parents and friends behind, her countenance was wreathed with smiles instead of tears. The explanation, however, is that W. J. Briggs, formerly of the Prince Rupert Sash and Door Company, is waiting at the other end of the trip and that thought swallowed up all else.

Miss Hardy was a very popular member of the younger Prince Rupert ladies, as anyone could see by the large crowd that was there to see her off.

Mr. Briggs is now located at Hamilton, Ont., and the happy couple will build their little nest in that city. Best wishes, little pair.
