SUCCESSFUL WAR WILL GIVE RUSSIA A SEA OUTLET

STAIN SUPPORTS DEMAND OF RUSSIA—GERMAN VICTORY NOT AS SWEEPING AS REPORTED

RUSSIAN GALLANTRY SHOWN— TWENTIETH CORPS STILL FIGHT

GIVEN TO GERMAN CLAIMS OF SWEEPING VICTORY— TROOPS ARE STILL HOLDING THE LINES SUCCESSFULLY.

(Special to The Daily News.)
grad, Feb. 25.—Official de- given to the German of a sweeping victory and of the Russian Tenth bring their retreat. admit heavy losses to the th Corps, now surround- still fighting. They also the troops are still hold- lines and engaging the successfully. arrival of two regiments from the Twentieth Corps today raises the belief that others will fight their way back through the forest of Bohr.

More Prisoners.
Geneva, Feb. 25.—The Rus- sians continue their successes in the Carpathians. The Austro- Germans lost 3,000 men at Dukla Pass. The Russians also cap- tured an advance guard, with transport wagons and a treasury regiment at Grownik.

BELGIAN POPULATION IS REDUCED 600,000

Rockefeller Foundation Issues Its First Report on Investiga- tion There.

New York, Feb. 25.—Belgium's population has been reduced by about 600,000 as a result of the war, and her condition presents a situation without parallel in history, says a report issued by the Rockefeller Foundation from its War Relief Commission sent to investigate the effects of the war upon non-combatants. It is the first report from this commis- sion, which went to Belgium last november.

After stating that there are 320,000 Belgian refugees in Hol- land and 100,000 in England, the report says that the number of people who are still in Belgium but who have been driven out of their homes has not yet been esti- mated. The army, it says, has drawn off 250,000 men.

Of the destruction of homes and property, the report says: "We found people living in cellars under the ruins of their homes, in lofts over the cow stalls, saw children that had been born in hen coops and pig stys, and learned of one man who con- sidered that he was doing well when the population of his poul- try house was reduced from twen- ty-two to eighteen refugees."

Regarding the agricultural situation, the commissioner found that autumn planting has some- how been done, and it is conceiv- able that Belgium may continue to raise most of her own potatoes, fruits and fresh vegetables.

In connection with the destruc- tion of houses and property, the report says that no estimates can be obtained of the total either of the military requisitions and levies or of the destruction of property, but that this total must be enormous.

"Since the Germans occupied the country they have requisit- ioned grain, canned goods, food supplies, live stock and horses from towns and countryside. They have also requisitioned such things as cotton and woolen stores, both raw and manufactur- ed; copper fixtures and imple- ments in some factories, motor cars, gasoline and any machinery that can be used in the manufac- ture of armaments."

BUY HOME PRODUCTS EMPLOY WHITE LABOR

Fred Scadden, the local bill poster and painter, has received a shipment of bills advertising "Made-in-Canada" goods. This movement has spread all over Canada and everybody is helping it along. Mr. Scadden is donat- ing the use of his advertising spaces as well as the work of put- ting up the posters. Let every- body boost for "Made-in-Canada" goods and wherever possible for those made in Prince Rupert. It might also be a good time to re- mind those who deal withoutside department stores that they are not loyal to their own city and that the inevitable result of their conduct will be to work them- selves out of a job. Buy home products and get your work done by white men. This might also apply to laundry.

DECEIVING THE PEOPLE.

The Provincial govern- ment is endeavoring to deceive the public into be- lieving that there are mil- lions of acres of good land along the G. T. P. open for settlement. Particularly is this attempt made in the South, where local condi- tions are not so well known. They even pre- pare a map showing the land open for pre-emption along the G. T. P. Cit- izens of those districts whose attention was called to the map were amazed to find that the towns and settlements along the road are included in that list. Just think of it, a govern- ment map just out show- ing the sites of the towns of Terrace, New Hazel- ton, Smithers, etc., open for pre-emption. What can be expected of a gov- ernment that stoops to such villainy. Of course there is a loophole for the government to crawl out of if they are pressed; but this is only seen after the closest scrutiny. The evi- dent intention of the map seems to be to deceive the public.

TWO SMALL COASTERS SUNK BY SUBMARINES

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Feb. 25.—The second week of the submarine campaign opened today with a loss of two small coasters, the Deptford being sunk of South Shields and the Western Coast off Beach Head. One life was lost.

NERLICH IS FOUND GUILTY OF TREASON

Toronto, Feb. 25.—Emil Nerlich, the wealthy German whole- sale merchant of this city, has been found guilty of assisting Arthur Zirow, a former German army officer, to leave Canada. His sentence has been deferred pend- ing an appeal which has been ap- plied for.

BUY A RIBBON.

The committee in charge of the sendoff for the local contin- gent has arranged a souvenir for the event. A ribbon, with the words: "Souvenir Second Contingent Sendoff, Prince Rupert, Feb- ruary 26, 1915," will be on sale during and before the celebration and everybody is expected to have one pinned to his breast. The price is optional with the buyer from ten cents up and the money will be given to the members of the contingent. There is no reason why a goodly sum should not be secured if everyone will do his duty.

FOR SALE.

SUBMARINES BUILDING CAUSE OF A PROTEST

Renewed Complaints Are Made in Behalf of Austria and Germany That Submarines Are Shipped to Canada From U. S.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 25.—Renewed complaints have been made to the State Department in behalf of the German and the Austro-Hungarian embassies that submarines were being built in the United States and shipped in sections to Canada for reship- ment to Britain. Secretary Bryan promised an official investiga- tion.

Mr. Charles M. Schwab, presi- dent of the Bethlehem Steel Com- pany and owner of the Union Iron Works, is said to have cancelled similar contracts with the British government several months ago after a conference with Secretary Bryan on the theory that they constituted a violation of the neu- trality laws.

Naval officers detailed at vari- ous private yards where con- tracts for the United States gov- ernment are being executed, re- cently reported to Secretary Dan- iels that the Union Iron Works of San Francisco and the Fore River Shipbuilding Company of Quincy, Mass., were building ten submarines each in addition to those they have under construc- tion for the United States. It was said these had been contracted for by Great Britain before the outbreak of hostilities and could not be delivered until the war was over.

The inspectors reported that none of these boats could be com- pleted for several months, and that none of their component parts have been shipped by the builders.

So far as the officials here know, no breach of the agree- ment between Mr. Schwab and the government is contemplated but it was evident that, notwith- standing the legal opinion secur- ed by the steel company affirming its right to ship parts of war ves- sels to belligerents, the govern- ment will not permit this to be done without appealing to the Su- preme Court if the courts are in- voked by the shipbuilders.

GERMANY YIELDS TO PROTEST BY VATICAN

Interdiction Against Cardinal Mercier Is Withdrawn.

Rome, Feb. 25.—Germany in answer to the Vatican's protest concerning Cardinal Mercier, pri- mate of Belgium, has notified the Holy See that the interdiction against the cardinal correspond- ing with the Belgian bishops has been withdrawn. Cardinal Mer- cier complained against this in- terdiction in his Latin letter of January 10, which was addressed to the deans of his arch-diocese.

TORONTO GIFT TO CARDINAL MERCIER

London, Feb. 25.—Canada's gift-ship, the Treneigon, filled with food and other good things for distressed Belgium, has left Plymouth for Rotterdam, having been delayed by stress of weather. The ship carries a special gift from Archbishop McNeil, of To- ronto, to Cardinal Mercier.

RUSSIA'S DEMAND FOR ACCESS TO SEA SUPPORTED BY BRITAIN

SIR EDWARD GREY MAKES THIS IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS—SETTLES POSSI- BILITY OF ALLIES' DISPUTE.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Feb. 25.—Disagree- ment between the Allies over the final spoils of war in the event of their winning seems now to be impossible. The demand of Rus- sia for access to the sea was well known to be uppermost in the minds of all. The attitude of Britain in this matter is reas- suring, for Sir Edward Grey an- nounced in the House of Com-mions today that Britain was in entire accord with Russia's desire in this respect.

FRANK JAMES, ONCE OULTAW, IS DEAD

Last Survivor of Robber Gang Had Lived Thirty Years as an Orderly Citizen.

Excelsior Springs, Mo., Feb. 25.—Frank James, one of the last surviving members of the noto- rious James gang, died on his farm near here on the eighteenth. James, who was 74 years old, had been in ill health several months and was stricken with apoplexy.

One of the last members of a notorious robber band, whose un- paralleled career of crime during the Civil War and the unsettled period that followed, kept the people of a dozen states in terror, Frank James had been living the life of a quiet farmer for more than thirty years.

The son of a minister, respect- ed throughout the community, Frank James joined Quantrell's guerrillas in the Civil War, to- gether with his brother Jesse, and took part in the sacking of Law- rence, Kan. After the guerillas became bandits. Many notorious crimes of the decade following the war have been laid at the door of the James-Younger gang, of which the only surviving mem- bers were Frank James and Cole Younger, the latter of whom is now living at Lees Summit, Mo.

Although the James boys partic- ipated in hundreds of rob- beries, it is now generally believed that there were also hundreds of robberies charged to them of which they were innocent.

Ill health kept James close to his farm for the last six months. His wife and a son were with him at his death.

GERMAN ARMY MUTINY PLOT WAS THWARTED

5,000 Men Said to Have Been Sent Back From Front.

Paris, Feb. 25.—An official note issued last night tells of a big mutiny which it is alleged was plotted in the German army. As a result of the discovery of the plot, about 5,000 men, thirty of whom were officers, have, it is said, been sent back from the front tied together in pairs. The accused men were sent back to- wards Brussels, Malines, Antwerp and Namur.

INDOOR BASEBALL.

NO CHANCE OF AN AEROPLANE RAID

Aeroplanes Don't Fly by Night— Mr. J. A. D. McCurdy Explains Why.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—Discussing the possibility of an airship raid from the United States, Mr. J. A. D. McCurdy, the Canadian avia- tor, said to The News correspon- dent:

"It is possible, but it is not at all probable, for unless the ma- chines were built secretly for a raid, it would not be possible to get four high-powered machines in any town in the United States. Apart from machines at the fac- tories, and those held by the mili- tary authorities, there are only about twelve machines in the States which could make such a flight, and these are flying boats.

"It is a comparatively easy matter for a person to be deceiv- ed as to the sound of the en- gines," added Mr. McCurdy. "Rail- way engines in blowing off steam often make a purring sound which is almost identical with the noise made by the aeroplane."

Mr. McCurdy further explained that nearly all the aeroplanes in the States were small ones, used solely for exhibition purposes, and these had only a short radius and could only fly about 200 feet high. For a long flight it needed much larger engines, and the ability to carry a large supply of gasoline.

Another and an important reason why the story looked wrong was that aeroplanes are practi- cally never used at night. This is because of the great difficulty in landing after a flight.

CONCERT POSTPONED.

The Boys' Brigade concert, which was to be held in the Pres- byterian Hall tonight, has been postponed till tomorrow night on account of the sendoff which is planned for the soldier's tonight.

WILLARD-JOHNSON FIGHT CALLED OFF

(Special to The Daily News.)

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 25.—The Willard-Johnson fight to have taken place at Juarez on March 6 has been called off. It will take place at Havana later.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY ENTERTAINS SOLDIERS

St. Andrew's Society gave a dance last night to the members of their society who are leaving for active service. A very large crowd assembled to give the boys a sendoff. An admission of $4 was charged and a sum of about $100 was secured, which will be given to their soldier-members as the gift of the society. The mem- bers of St. Andrew's Society leaving with the contingent on Friday are as follows:

Ray McKinnon, Robert Wiggins, J. H. Kelly, Arthur Hunter, W. A. Paterson, Neil McKay, T. F. Longmuir and Allen Robertson.

Another dance was held last night in McIntyre Hall as a send- off to another section of the con- tingent.

WILL HELP OWNERS OF TRIANGULAR LOTS

Owners of triangular shaped lots will be glad to know that an act at present before the House at Victoria will considerably re- duce the expensive front tax at present in vogue under the local improvements bylaw. It reads as follows:

"In the case of triangular or irregularly shaped lots, and lots situate at the junction or inter- section of streets, a reduction shall be made in the special as- sessment which otherwise would be chargeable thereon, sufficient, having regard to the situation, value, and superficial area of such lots as compared with other lots, to adjust the assessment on a fair and equitable basis."

HALF-HOLIDAY

At the request of the members of the City Council I hereby proclaim a Public Half-Holiday for Friday morning, February 26th, in order to enable all citizens to participate in a fare- well to Prince Rupert's Second Contingent for the war.

It is hoped all business houses, hotels, wholesale liquor houses and the clubs will specially aid in a complete suspen- sion of business until the departure of the boat, about 10 o'clock in the morning.

WILSON HESITATES TO BUY RAILROAD

President Affected by Campaign Conducted Against Copper River System.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 25.—While Secretary Lane, on behalf of the President, was opening the Exposition at San Francisco last Saturday the Senate in Washington was doing just that which Secretary Lane feared would happen should he be absent—passing the sundry civil bill without an attempt to raise the year's appropriation for the Alaskan railroad over the $2,000,000 allowed by the House. Secretary Lane is a loyal subordinate of the President, but he would have preferred to remain here and look after his Alaskan railway. His only satisfaction in the matter must lie in the fact that no opposition to the $2,000,000 appeared in the Senate.

President Not Won.

If Secretary Lane had hoped to acquire both the Copper River & Northwestern and the Alaska Northern, and many things point to the fact that he did, there are evidences that he has not won the President entirely to his way of thinking. To put it bluntly, the President has been affected by the campaign some interests have been conducting against any proposed purchase of the Copper River road.

Hence the President's refraining from making a fight to get more than $2,000,000 this year from Congress. Talk that the administration proposed to buy out the J. P. Morgan road was distasteful to him. The result is a small appropriation and promises of comparatively little work being done this year in Alaska. Much of the $2,000,000 granted will be used in further surveys.

Negotiations Not Dropped.

This does not mean that negotiations for both the Copper River and the Alaska Northern are to be dropped. Those for the last named road have progressed far. It is significant that Thomas Riggs, of the Alaskan Engineering Commission, spent several days in New York last week, and the responsible ownership of the Copper River lies in New York.

Also of significance in other ways is the fact that Sidney B. Condon, confidential stenographer to John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, has resigned his position to become assistant cashier of the Harriman National Bank at Seward, the bank chartered last week. He will leave for Alaska about March 1.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT HAS ABSOLUTE FAITH IN NAVAL SITUATION

Minister of Marine Says France Is Not Intimidated by the German Blockade of British Ports.

Paris, Feb. 25.—"The sinking by Germany of merchant ships is simply an extension to the sea of her war against non-combatants on land," said Victor Augagneur, the French Minister of Marine, to the Associated Press.

"The French government has absolute confidence in the naval situation," continued M. Augagneur, "and is not intimidated by the German blockade. When the steamer Amiral Gangteume, bearing women and children was torpedoed and several lives lost, great indignation was felt throughout the civilized world, but we now regard the sinking of merchant vessels with a certain calm. Germany did not wait until February 18 to begin torpedoing."

China Fears for Her Sovereignty

Opens Negotiations With Japan—One of Tokio's Desires Is Port on Chinese Coast.

Pekin, Feb. 25.—Lu Cheng-Hsiang, the Chinese Foreign Minister, has paid a visit to Eki Hioki, the Japanese minister to China, and inquired whether the minister was willing to discuss with him twelve of the demands Japan has made on China, which China has agreed to consider. It is stated in Chinese circles that Lu Cheng-Hsiang took the initiative in the matter in order to refute accusations of the Japanese newspapers that the Chinese government was delaying negotiations.

KILLED TRYING ESCAPE AS REPRIEVE IS NEAR

Prisoner Held at Whitehorse, Y. T., Awaiting Execution, Makes Break and Is Shot.

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—News of an unusual tragedy in Northwest Canada reached the Dominion yesterday. Romolo Caesari, under sentence to be hanged at Whitehorse, Y. T., for murder, attempted to escape and was shot by Constable Hayes, of the Northwest Mounted Police, who was guarding him. Two bullets took effect and the man died.

Word "Third" Omitted.

The word "third," it is declared, was omitted from the Japanese communication to the powers. That the number of "forcible Japanese advisers in political, financial and military affairs," which Japan desires to place in China is not mentioned is said to be causing concern to the Chinese. This is the foremost question which the Chinese are said to have declined to discuss.

A Disturbing Article.

The following is said to be a special article in the Japanese demands, the wording of which has disturbed officials:

"The Japanese government and the Chinese government, with the object of effectively protecting the territorial integrity of China, agrees to the following special article:

"The Chinese government agrees that no island, port or harbor along the coast shall be ceded or leased to any third power."

It is stated in Chinese circles that Lu Cheng-Hsiang took the initiative in the matter in order to refute accusations of the Japanese newspapers that the Chinese government was delaying negotiations.

According to information from Chinese sources, the Japanese minister told Lu Cheng-Hsiang that he was awaiting further instructions from Tokio. It is stated that the Chinese government cannot accept even the twelve debatable demands unless they are materially modified.

EDITORIALS

Tomorrow Prince Rupert will say farewell to a number of her sons who are going out to fight for the Empire. The motives that prompt these men may be all different, but their action is thrusting them into the centre of the big events that are making history. What part they will play the future has not yet disclosed, but they are to be trusted to give a good account of themselves if they get a chance. No better advice can be given than that of the Roman matron with which she sent her son to the fight: "Return with your shield or upon it." May they all return bearing their "shields" after having done honor to the cause they espoused.

There is an old tradition that the planets stand still while great events are happening, or, as the poet puts it, "The heavens declare the birth of princes." The battle of Waterloo has always seemed to be shrouded with a halo that lent a touch of the supernatural. The characters that walked across the stage of that time appear to be double their normal size. We stand today amid bigger events than Waterloo because there is more at stake. The trouble, however, is that we are too close to get the perspective. Future generations will look back with amazement at the titanic struggle of 1915, and the men who have even played a little part—if they play it well—will be enrolled among our heroes. Where is the man who is not proud of his great grandfather who fought at Waterloo. The great grandchildren of the present age will be just as proud of the men who will fight the battle of Berlin.

A great deal has been heard about the war tax which has just been imposed upon the people of Canada. Canada is right with the Empire in this struggle and is quite prepared to pay her share. The strange thing about the whole matter, however, is that the 7 1/2 per cent increase duty on imports and the special war stamps which will be used on all letters, cheques, etc., are not for the purpose of raising a war revenue at all. All the money which will be thereby raised will be required to make up the deficit of the government for this year. The cost of the war will be handed on to posterity—for what has posterity done for us?

Everybody knows that the resources of every country on earth have been shrunk by the great war. It is not on that score, therefore, that the Borden government is to be criticized. Where they fell down was in the unparalleled waste of public funds that took place prior to the war. In this issue there is reproduced an article from the Toronto Globe giving a list of these fearful extravagances. The $35,000 which has been sunk in the local postoffice site and the thousands wasted in its excavation has been duplicated all over Canada. Indeed, the wasteful expenditure of public funds at Ottawa is a good deal similar to that which has been going on at Victoria. Both governments have shown a disregard for public funds that should receive a severe chastisement from the people.

OWES HER LIFE TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Cured Both Stomach Trouble and Headaches

PALMERSTON, ONT., JUN 20th, 1913.
"I really believe that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives'. Ever since childhood, I have been under the care of physicians and have been paying doctor's bills. I was so sick and worn out that people on the street often asked me if I thought I could get along without help. The same old Stomach Trouble and Headaches nearly drove me wild. Sometime ago, I got a box of 'Fruit-a-tives' and the first box did me good. My husband was delighted and advised a continuation of their use.

Today, I am feeling fine, and a physician meeting me on the street, noticed my improved appearance and asked the reason. I replied, 'I am taking Fruit-a-tives'. He said, 'Well, if Fruit-a-tives are making you look so well, go ahead and take them. They are doing more for you than I can'.

Mrs. H. S. WILLIAMS.
"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box. 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

CARDINAL MERCIER'S PASTORAL LETTER GETS WIDE PUBLICITY

CONTAINS NOTHING WHICH GERMANS SHOULD OBJECT TO—TESTIFIES TO PURIFYING INFLUENCES OF SELF SACRIFICES.

One of the noblest, most exalted and most exalting of human documents is the Pastoral of Cardinal Mercier, recently suppressed by the Germans. It is as intensely patriotic and profoundly pathetic. Indeed, the spirit of pure and beautiful Christianity which breathes through it, is its distinguishing characteristic, its crowning glory. It is like the white wing of an angel of light, flashed from the skies upon the thunder clouds of war, and murder and rapine surging and belching beneath. No one need wonder that the Germans ordered its suppression, forbade the Belgians to hear it, and sent their minions to imprison and attempt to intimidate its author. That was in strict accordance with all their recent record for suicidal stupidity.

Had Cardinal Mercier's message been allowed to go without question to the tortured Belgians to whom it was addressed, probably few but they would ever have heard of it, they being completely under the iron heel of Germany, and, for the time being, voiceless. But by their own brutal blunderings, the Germans have given world-wide wings to Cardinal Mercier's Pastoral. Round and round the globe it will circulate wherever there are Christian ears to hear it or civilized hearts to understand. One can fancy none unmoved by it except Germany's Turkish hirelings. Even enlightened Mohammedan minds must respond to it as inevitably as all Christian souls.

To be at all appreciated aright, or its unique merits comprehended as they should, the Pastoral must be read in full, and every one of its words and sentiments weighed as they deserve. The personal element naturally permeates the whole of it. In almost every sentence the Cardinal discloses his ardent love of his native land, and his anguish over its sufferings. Yet not a note of bitterness mingles with the thrilling melody of his sorrow, his faith and his hope. He is a stricken man who realizes to the full how terribly his beloved country people have been struck, yet he counsels and encourages them only as Christ himself might have done. When disposed, at first, to murmur at the sufferings of his country and to ask if God had forgotten, he tells us, "I looked upon Jesus, most gentle and humble Lamb of God, crushed, clothed in His blood as a garment," and remembered that "The Christian is the servant of a God who became man in order to suffer and die. To rebel against pain, to revolt against Providence because it permits grief and bereavement is to forget whence we came, the school in which we have been taught, the example that each of us carries graven in the name of Christian."

There is nothing in the whole Pastoral to which even modern Huns could rationally object except the irrefutable testimony which it bears to their vile misdeeds. It was such evidence as the following that they wished, and foolishly hoped, to suppress. They have only helped to publish it.

"In my diocese alone," says the Cardinal-Bishop, "I know that thirteen priests were put to death. One of these, the parish priest of Gerolde, I believe, a veritable martyrdom. We can neither number our dead nor compute the measure of our ruin." Made-in-Germany falsehoods will be of small avail against such damning truth from such a source.

No more splendid and impressive definition of true patriotism has ever been given than that which Cardinal Mercier embodies in his Pastoral. He writes: "Our country is not a mere concourse of persons of families inhabiting the same soil, having amongst themselves relations more or less intimate, of business, of neighborhood, of community of memories happy or unhappy. Not so; it is an association of living souls subject to a social organization to be defended and safeguarded at all costs; even the cost of blood, under the leadership of those presiding over our fortunes. Patriotism, an internal principle of order and unity, an organic bond of the members of a nation, was placed by the finest thinkers of Greece and Rome at the head of natural virtues. And the religion of Christ makes of patriotism a positive law; there is no perfect Christian who is not also a perfect patriot."

Cardinal Mercier sustains this thesis by absolutely convincing argument, the elaborateness of which forbids its being reproduced here in full. His conclusion is that:

"Right is Peace—that is the interior order of a nation founded upon Justice. And Justice itself is absolute only because it formulates the essential relation of man with man. Moreover, war for the sake of war is a crime. . . . When, therefore, humble soldiers whose heroism we praise answer us with characteristic simplicity, 'We only did our duty,' or, 'We were bound in honor' they express the religious character of their Patriotism. Which of us does not feel that Patriotism is a sacred thing, and that a violation of national dignity is in a manner a profanation and a sacrilege?"

After this follows one of the most wonderful and memorable of passages:

"But, if I am asked what I think of the eternal salvation of a brave man who has consciously given his life in defence of his country's honor and in vindication of violated justice, I shall not hesitate to reply, that, without any doubt whatever, Christ crowns his military valor; and that death, accepted in this Christian spirit, assures the safety of that man's soul. 'Greater love than this no man hath—that a man lay down his life for his friends.' And the soldier who dies to save his brothers, and to defend the hearths and altars of his country reaches the highest of all degrees of charity."

The Pastoral in the most practical and direct manner gives loving, fatherly advice to the Belgians on how they should conduct themselves in view of the present German possession of the greater part of their country. It counsels no abjectness, no abandonment of patriotic hope, but it urges patience and toleration, and it solemnly warns against useless violence. There is not a word in it, from beginning to end, which should displease the Germans, were they other than what they have of late proved themselves to be, with the exception of the witness which it bears to the barbarities and brutalities of their entry into Belgium. Thanks to their blundering, short-sighted stupidity, all the world will now hear Cardinal Mercier's testimony against them, which might otherwise have remained almost as a sealed book.

NEW LIFE PRESERVER.

Distinct Type Found on Men Rescued From the Bluecher.

London, Feb. 24.—The German sailors who were rescued from the sinking cruiser Bluecher all wore new style life preservers, with which the German navy has been equipped since the beginning of the war. The apparatus consists of a cork belt and an inflatable vest fastened about the shoulders. The vest is of rubber and is about twenty-four inches long by ten inches wide. It can be blown up by the wearer in a moment and is so made that when in use the air feed comes opposite the mouth. German sailors stated that any man who lost this article was liable to a fine of $3.

BELIEVES GERMAN VOTE WILL THROTTLE WILSON

Berne, Switzerland, Feb. 24.—President Wilson's note protesting against Germany's threat to sink neutral ships indiscriminately is reported here to be treated with disdain in German official circles, where it is believed that German machinations and the German vote in America are sufficient to prevent Wilson and Bryan doing anything further.

The Journal de Geneva warns Germany against irritating America too much by sinking her ships and killing her sailors, for "if the Washington Cabinet is freed by submarines from the obligations of neutrality and places American trade, navigation and finance on the side of the Triple Entente, it appears certain that the Austro-German-Turkish Alliance must suffer thereby."

ASKING FOR LIGHT ON NEW WAR TAXES

Toronto, Feb. 25.—Much doubt is already being expressed as to the exact application of the new war taxes. Are circular letters included in the new stamp tax? is a question being asked by many business firms in the city. If everything in the form of a letter, whether sealed or not, is subject to the war-stamp, a reduction in circular letters sent through the post is likely to ensue, in the opinion of one business man of Toronto. Another opinion was to the effect that many United States firms maintaining branches in Canada will circularize the country from points in the United States. This, while burdening the Canadian mails to the same extent, would entail a loss to Canadian paper men, printers and distributors. It is said that many orders for printed advertising matter are being withheld.

A meeting of the executive of the Proprietary Articles' Association was held in the city Saturday to discuss the meaning of the tax on medicines. A tax on proprietary or patent articles seems to meet with general approval. The opinion of men in the medical supply business is that doctors' prescriptions calling for patent medicines will not be affected by the regulation.

THE ENGLISH SABBATH.

It may not occur to the average neutral that a people supporting armies to fight battles every day in the week would quibble over the morality of reading newspapers on Sunday. Yet the people of Great Britain are in the grip of a controversy covering the point. Before this war broke out Sunday newspapers were unknown in England. Despite all the protests, similar in tone and text to those once employed in the United States, the Sunday extras are meeting with public favor, and we are willing to risk the prophecy that they will continue and become permanent after peace returns.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

BORDEN GOVT.'S EXTRAVAGANCE MAKES WAR TAX NECESSARY

EVERY CENT OF WAR TAX MUST GO TO COVER DEFICITS—WAR EXPENDITURE IS HANDED DOWN TO FUTURE GENERATIONS.

As the people of Canada begin to understand that the heavy burden of new taxation is not imposed to pay the Dominion's war bill, but to meet a huge deficit in the ordinary expenditure of the country, a feeling of amazement spreads throughout all classes of the community. The few students of the Dominion finances who knew the record of the Borden government were not surprised. They knew that, war, or no war, a smash could not long be deferred. Now that the taxpayer begins to feel the effects of the past three years of reckless spending at Ottawa he may be interested in learning why the smash came.

The story is best told in the form of official figures from the government's own records. A study of the public accounts for the year ending March 31, 1914, pages 20 and 21, will show that during the extraordinary period of expansion between 1896 and 1911, while the Laurier government was in power and Mr. Fielding was Minister of Finance, there never was an increase of the expenditure chargeable to Consolidated Fund—that is, the ordinary expenditure of the country—greater than eight millions in any one year. The ordinary expenditure during the last four years of the Laurier government was, in 1908, $76,644,000; 1909, $84,064,000; 1910, $79,411,000; 1911, $87,740,000. The Borden government came in during October, 1911, and became responsible for the expenditures of the year ending March, 1912, which were $98,161,000. These expenditures were based in some measure on Mr. Fielding's figures, so that responsibility may be said to rest on both parties for 1912. In 1913 the expenditure on consolidated revenue account went up to $112,059,000, in 1914 to $127,384,000, and for the current year ending March 31, 1915, Mr. White says it will be $140,000,000. For the year ending March, 1916, he estimates that it will be the same amount.

Now what does this mean to the taxpayer? Setting aside all war expenditures and all expenditures on capital account, the Borden government, less than four years in office, has increased the cost of operating the ordinary services of the country and of paying interest on the country's debt from $87,774,000 to $140,000,000. Assuming that there are now eight and a half million people in Canada, this means additional expenditure of $6.14 for every man, woman and child in the Dominion. Not all of this additional expenditure comes out of the taxpayer's pocket. Postal revenue has increased almost four millions, and receipts from government railways and kindred services over three millions. The great bulk of this colossal increase of fifty-two millions in ordinary expenditure, however, has come and must continue to come from taxes. In the year ending March, 1911, the country's revenue from taxes was $89,835,000. In 1914 it was $217,478,000. In the current year ending March 31 there will be a great falling-off in customs revenue, and as a result an enormous increase in the public debt. In the year ending March, 1916, the people of Canada will have to contribute in taxes at least $140,000,000 if they are to pay their ordinary current expenditure, apart entirely from the cost of the war.

This amazing increase in taxation has been brought about by utter recklessness in the conduct of the business of the country. An illustration of how expenditures are increased may be found in a return tabled in the House of Commons on Friday showing dismissals from and appointments to the Civil Service since the present government came into power. Although the return is not complete, and is dated last spring, the total number of dismissals given is 2,115, while the appointments reached the enormous total of 10,576. In the Agricultural Department there were 45 dismissals and 579 new men engaged. In the Customs, 271 dismissed and 1,649 engaged; in the Department of Indian Affairs, 135 dismissed and 295 engaged; in the Department of Inland Revenue, 73 dismissed and 291 engaged; in the Interior Department, 309 dismissed and 1,651 engaged; in the Immigration Department, 110 dismissed and 343 engaged; in the Department of Justice, 20 dismissed and 258 engaged; in the Labor Department, 21 dismissed and 60 engaged; in the Department of State, 20 dismissed and 287 engaged; in the Department of Railways, 363 dismissed and 2,076 engaged; in the department of mines, one dismissed and 103 engaged; in the Department of Trade and Commerce, 13 dismissed and 49 engaged; in the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, 124 dismissed and 527 engaged. Here we have a great army of over 8,000 additional office-holders quartered on the public. Some of them were required to conduct the public business efficiently but it is not too much to say that thousands of them owe their places to an abuse of the patronage system and were not required for the carrying on of the country's business.

An example of reckless squandering of the country's money is found under the heading "Railway subsidies." During the Laurier government's term of fifteen years in office it granted railway subsidies totalling $25,140,000. In the years 1912, 1913, and 1914 the Borden government granted railway subsidies totalling $24,830,000—almost as much for the railway promoter in three years of Borden and White as in fifteen years of Laurier and Fielding. Column after column the figures show the same thing. The government of Canada has been spending money like a drunken sailor, and now the people must pay for the debauch. They will have to keep on paying long after the present generation has ceased to bother about taxes. The year the Laurier government came into power the interest on the public debt was $10,645,000. When it went out fifteen years afterward it was $12,535,000. Mr. White tells us that in the year ending March, 1916, it will be $21,000,000. Before such figures is it to be wondered at that the country stands amazed?—Globe.
