CARBURETOR CASE GETS LONG HEARING

Mr. Scones, charged with being implicated in a carburetor steal, was examined before the court today. He told all about his connection with Bert Hanson, and his fishing trip. He helped fix up the boat and got part of a carburetor from Hugo Johnson and the rest from the Rupert Marine. The part from Johnson was loaned. Hanson knew this.

Scones got very seasick on the trip and besides that the business didn't appeal to him; so he quit. He settled with his partners, and got $21.80 as his share of the catch. Nothing was said about him fixing up the engine after the trip. He was all done with it.

Questioned by his solicitor, he accounted for his actions the three days following his return from the fishing-trip. (Hanson had said that it was the day after or the next on which Scones brought the carburetor to him about 7 o'clock in the evening).
Scones had been in company with his wife and other friends during each of those evenings from February 10 to 13, and hence was not able to bring the carburetor at the time mentioned by Hanson. He denied all the statements of Hanson in this respect.

In cross-questioning him, F.
Peters wanted to know where he was at, 6 p. m., February 18. The accused said it would take a little time to think it out. Mr. Peters said he could have all the time he wanted, and took out his watch to count it out. The accused, after thinking for some time, intimated that he could not figure it out, as he was a little nervous in court.

Mr. Peters, assisted by Mr.
Patmore, tried to break down his evidence by other pointed questions.

Hugo Johnson was called and corroborated the evidence given by Scones about the carburetor.

Other witnesses were called who bore out the evidence of Scones as to his whereabouts on the days in question.

The magistrate, after hearing all the evidence, said he would reserve judgment till Saturday morning.

FORMER CITIZEN HAS HAIRBREADTH ESCAPES

Mrs. Wm. Miller, of this city, has received word from her home in Dundee, Scotland, that her brother, Hugh MacDonald, who left Prince Rupert shortly after the war broke out, has been wounded.

He enlisted in the Gordon Highlanders and had spent several months in the trenches. During this time his health had been excellent but a few weeks ago he was attacked with an illness that necessitated moving him to the field hospital. While on the way, a German sniper took a shot at him and put a bullet through the biceps muscles of the right arm.
He was, therefore, invalided home and is now under the care of his friends at Dundee. When crossing the Channel the ship on which he traveled was chased by a German submarine. His escape on so many occasions is almost miraculous.

WILSON MAY DELAY TRIP.

Washington, March 4.—Whether President Wilson will carry out his plans for arriving at the Panama-Pacific International Expon-sition March 21 is still undecided.
There were strong intimations that he might postpone the trip until later, because of the foreign situation.

The President has not entirely given up hope for the shipping, Philippine and conservation bills and the ratification of the Columbian and Nicaraguan treaties.

MOUNTED RECRUITS.

More than enough applications for the mounted corps have already been received. Prince Rupert is entitled to twenty-five and there will be no difficulty in supplying them. Experience in the saddle is necessary besides passing the medical examination.

ern conveniences and fully furnished. Owner will be out of pion heavyweight pugilist of Europe, is reported to have been wounded, and now a German prisoner of war.

URGES NO SLACKENING OF HOLD ON GERMANY

Can Be No Bargaining on United States' Suggestions, Says Westminster Gazette

London, March 4.—"We are obliged to say at once there can be no bargaining on this subject," says the Westminster Gazette, in referring to the American notes to Great Britain and Germany concerning the situation which has grown out of Germany's naval war zone decree.

"The pressure of our sea power is a perfectly legitimate operation of war. Germany had full warning from her economists what must happen if she risked a prolonged war with a superior sea power. By making grain supplies public property, and still more, by putting her population on rations, she entitles us to treat these supplies as contraband of war.

"Her own principle of limited consumption, the supplies of the civil population could not be increased in the manner suggested.
The results would be simply to leave the government large supplies for military purposes.

"Who can suppose that if the positions were reversed and Germany were the superior sea power, she would listen to such a proposition if made by us?

"It may be a German necessity to win the war by starving her people, but it cannot be incumbent upon us to facilitate her scheme of conquest by saving her civilian population from the liability which was deliberately incurred on their behalf."

BOUT FOR SATURDAY.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Juarez, Mexico, March 4.—In order not to disappoint the crowd, a twenty-round bout has been arranged between Gunboat Smith and Jim Flynn for Saturday. The Johnson-Willard match has been postponed.

WEDDING BELLS.

A quiet wedding took place last night at the Presbyterian Manse, when Mr. M. McArthur and Miss Jean Pollock were married by Rev. H. R. Grant. They are both well and favorably known in the city. They will reside here.

AUSTRIAN ARTILLERY LOST TO RUSSIANS

(Special to The Daily News.) Geneva, March 4.—Austria has lost most of her new artillery in the recent fighting in East Prussia and Northern Poland. The losses include twenty-three batteries of 305 millimetres and a number of 135 millimetres.

At Plock the Russians captured nine batteries and destroyed nine batteries.

AGENT OF BLUE FUNNEL LINE VISITING RUPERT

Yesterday P. Sydney Jones, of Liverpool, England, representing the Blue Funnel steamship line, arrived in town to look over the prospects for making Prince Rupert one of their ports of call. He was taken over the city here by G. A. McNicholl, industrial commissioner for the G. T. P., and today they are away to Granby, making the round trip on the George.

Nothing definite will be known until the whole situation on the Pacific Coast is reported to the head office. It is almost certain that before long these boats will call at Prince Rupert, as this route will greatly shorten the distance from the Orient.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Harry Smith doesn't believe in keeping out of temptation's way.
He was warned by the police to keep away from the restricted area, but he went there in defiance of Constable Grady. As a result a collision occurred in which the big policeman came off with laurels, except that a little rip took place in his armor plate.

Smith was before the Police Court today charged with assault but the court, having too much carburetor, postponed it till tomorrow.

CANADA WILL TRY TO CORNER AUSTRALIAN LUMBER MARKET

DOMINION IS SENDING AGENT TO AUSTRALIA WITH THIS END IN VITW—THIS MARKET HAS BEEN LARGELY SUPPLIED BY WESTERN STATES.

(Special to The Daily News.) Victoria, March 4.—Canada will endeavor to secure the Australian lumber market, now held by the states of Oregon and Washington. Chief Forester McMillan, of this city, has accepted a position under the Ottawa government and will proceed to Australia for the purpose of endeavoring to arrange a preferential trade agreement with the Australian government.

Includes Big Trade.

Last year Washington and Oregon sent 238 million feet of fir to Australia, while British Columbia, that has this product in abundance, only sent ten millions.
The lumber manufacturers of the province are arranging to build a fleet of ships to enter the trade.

MOTOR SOUP KITCHEN FOR USE OF SOLDIERS

Vancouver, March 4.—Miss Kathleen Dunsmuir, daughter of Hon. James Dunsmuir, of Victoria, who left some time ago for England with the intention of volunteering for service at the front, is now in France, where she is engaged in one of the most practical movements on behalf of the wounded soldiers that have been undertaken.
Upon her arrival in England, Miss Dunsmuir purchased a large motor truck, which she had fitted up as a soup kitchen. This was attached to the Army Service Corps and she was given by General Bruce Williams, a special guard to meet her at Havre and look after her stores. Miss Dunsmuir has associated with her in the work of operating the motor-kitchen, Mrs. Scott, and Miss Scott, of London, mother of Mr.
Raymond Scott, formerly of Vancouver, but now at the seat of war.

Miss Dunsmuir's plan is to make her base at Havre and to run her motor to and fro from the firing line, meeting the wounded as they came from the trenches. Although a number of motor-kitchens similar to this have been put in operation by the French government, Miss Dunsmuir's is the first to be sent from England. Her kitchen is equipped with boilers of such a capacity that 200 soldiers per hour can be supplied each with a pint of hot soup.

Miss Dunsmuir has purchased and fitted out the motor at her own expense. Its maintenance will cost about $200 per week and to meet this she has already received a number of subscriptions from friends in England and Canada.

LAND FOR GARDENING.

Eburne, B. C., March 4.—In order to assist the unemployed, the C. P. R. is offering for lease at a rental of $1 per tract, for five years, a large quantity of land along the interurban line in Point Grey for gardening purposes, subject to a month's notice of cancellation of the lease. The land must be graded immediately and cultivated. A number of people have already taken up leases, and are busy getting the land into shape.

THE LIBERAL ATTITUDE.

The Montreal Gazette, the leading organ of the Conservative party in the province of Quebec, paid a fine tribute to the attitude of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal party since the outbreak of the war, when it said in the course of an editorial on January 27:

"There is no fault to be found with the attitude of the official Liberal party, in Parliament or out of it. Its attitude has been in general keeping with that of the Unionists of Great Britain.
Its leaders recognized that when Great Britain was at war the whole Empire was at war. They recognized also that the responsibility for action rested upon the government of the day, and quietly assented to all that it was proposed to do. In this they strengthened the ministers' hands for the great work events have put upon them. For the first time since Confederation, it may be said, a great political issue arose and was dealt with by Parliament as something not to be used to help or hurt a party cause.
All this was well, and is duly appreciated."

CHANGE OF PLACE.

The Very Rev. W. T.
Herridge, D.D., Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, will address a public meeting in the Empress Theatre on Friday day evening at 8 o'clock.
It was originally the intention to hold this meeting in the Presbyterian Church Hall, but there has been expressed by members of other congregations in the city such a widespread desire to hear so distinguished a speaker that it has been decided to engage the theatre. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

How often one hears it said that the hardest thing in the world is to get a good man. The kind of good man that is referred to is the kind that is competent and willing and honest. On the other hand, it is well known that there are scores of men, a portion of the time of every year, out of a job and always looking for something permanent. Putting these things together, the solution ought to be self-evident. The attributes that are required in a good man are born with some men and acquired by others. The man who makes a failure of life is the man who has never set out to do some one thing supremely well, whether that be along the line of statesmanship or digging a trench for a sewer.

There are scores of young men in every town who have not yet learned this lesson. They are waiting for fortune to come to them on golden wings or gouching because she doesn't. The solution can only be found in hard and honest work. No man is worthy of a job who wants to earn his pay and nothing more. It is the man who besides earning his pay, makes the most money for his firm that is always sought after. Besides that, the more a man's heart is in his work, the less trying does it appear. The whole question settles down to one of self-interest. It pays in coin of the realm to render the best service that is in you and the very fact of doing this lightens the burden of your work.

Classical literature is full of references to a fabled drink which turned the upright shape of those who imbibed into a grovelling swine. We do not need, however, to go to classic fables to get our examples. We find them almost every day in practical life. A drunken man is far more filthy than the swine and a great deal more disreputable. Any man who could see himself in that wretched state ought to be so disgusted that he would never return to it. Why is it that men will persevere along that slippery path, when they know the fate of those who have gone before, it is difficult to see.

It used to be the fashion to say that you could not make men moral by acts of Parliament. Perhaps not; but at least you can make them a great deal more decent by removing the object of temptation. This has been amply proven in Russia, where their recent measure of prohibition has worked miracles among the people. It is safe to say that if it were not for the profit that is in the liquor business, it would not be tolerated for one moment in any decent country. Its effect on the people is almost as bad as leprosy, and governments have long ago isolated that dread disease from human society.

The British Columbia government is planning to spend a little over eleven million dollars in the next year, which is estimated to leave a deficit of almost five millions. The revenue of the Ontario government for the past year was $11,122,383, and their deficit was only $627,928.

MAY ENTER THE FIELD.

Ex-Alderman J. D. McNeill intimates That He May Be Candidate for Mayor.

Vancouver, March 3.—There is said to be a strong probability of a third candidate for mayor in the person of ex-Alderman J. D. McNeill entering the mayoral handicap. Although no definite statement as to his intentions could be obtained from Mr. McNeill, it is known that he is inclined to reconsider the answer he returned to a number of his friends last week and to enter the field. Further representations were made by a delegation of prominent business men, who saw Mr. McNeill yesterday. At the conclusion of this conference he intimated that he would give the question of running serious consideration and might accede to their requests. Nominations for the next election have to be placed next Saturday. Alderman Hepburn and Mr. L. D. Taylor have already definitely announced their candidature.

GREAT RECEPTION GIVEN CANADIANS

Hamilton Man Tells How Dominion Soldiers Were Received in France.

London, March 3.—A letter received this morning at the office of the Canadian Associated Press gives some interesting details of the Canadian contingent's life in France. The writer is Percy Buttery, who was on the Hamilton Spectator staff at the time of his enlistment in the Canadian Ammunition Column.

"Owing to the very rigid censorship," he says, "I am unable to tell you exactly how we got here or exactly where we are now. We had a pretty rough passage across, far rougher than anything I had experienced in my two crossings of the Atlantic."

"Upon our arrival we met with a great reception and it was evident that the Dominion troops that had preceded us had established themselves in the affections of the French people, particularly the female portion thereof. Crowds lined the streets cheering loudly and clamorously asking for souvenirs, all along the route we met an equally enthusiastic reception. Union Jacks were flying everywhere, and in point of number seriously rivalled the French national emblem."

"One feature of the crowd, impressing me more than anything, was the large number of young women dressed in deep mourning. At two stations en route the girls handed us postcards on which were written their names and addresses and bitter denunciations of the Germans, requesting us to send the cards back from the front. Eventually we arrived at the village in which we are now billeted and which is about nine miles from the firing line. We can hear daily the booming of guns, while at night rockets are used by both sides. This village, however, and its neighborhood is so peaceful and quiet and the inhabitants so calm that it seems scarcely possible that a big battle is raging a short distance away. This village was in the possession of the Germans for a couple of days, but they were driven out by the bayonet right back to the position in which they are now entrenched and from which in a few days we hope to shift them. In the very field in which our horses are now picketed nineteen Germans are buried and large numbers of others are in different places round about."

CATHOLIC CLERGY HELD.

All Natives in Mexican Capital for $500,000 Ransom.

Washington, March 4.—All the native Roman Catholic clergy in Mexico City are being held for a half million dollars ransom, official advices from diplomats in the Mexican capital received here say, and the only priests excepted are those of foreign nationality, who have been ordered to leave the country.

The habitual invalid can stick to the job longer than any other person.

BILL FOR U. S. TO PUT EMBARGO ON NATIONS AT WAR

Washington, D. C., March 4.—Word for word with the text employed by the act of June 4, 1794, by which all trade was stopped by the United States with Europe, Representative Stephen G. Porter, of Pennsylvania, introduced a bill authorizing the President to declare an embargo between this country and the warring nations. The measure, if it becomes a law, will enable the chief executive to forbid the commercial activities of all ships in the foreign trade. Should an embargo be declared, however, it is specifically terminated by a provision of the measure fifteen days after the convening of the next session of Congress.

Citing the analogy between the conditions which existed during the Napoleonic wars, when the embargo of 1794 was enacted, and the conditions of today, Representative Porter in introducing his bill declared:

"I am strongly of the opinion that if a proclamation were issued placing an embargo on wheat to take effect the moment our surplus stock of that great cereal has been exported it would stop the gambling in it and result in normal prices."

SAYS MARITZ IS CAPTIVE OF BRITISH

London, March 4.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Capetown says it is reported there that Lieut. Col. S. C. Maritz, the rebellious Boer leader, has been arrested and sent to Windhoek, Cape Colony, as a prisoner.

A dispatch from Pretoria, on February 10, said newspapers there had published a report that Colonel Maritz had been executed by the Germans for treachery. His military movements were supported by the Germans of German Southwest Africa. His reported execution was said to have been due to an attempt to surrender to the British at Kakamas the forces under his command.

Friendship that is proved by introducing one to a new brand of drink is not always desirable.

TORTURED BY CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Paralyzed Bowels and Digestion

ST. DONIPACK DE SHAWINIGAN, QUE. Feb. 3rd, 1914.

"It is a pleasure to me to inform you that after suffering from Chronic Constipation for 2 1/2 years, I have been cured by 'Fruit-a-tives'. While I was a student at Berthier College, I became so ill I was forced to leave the college. Severe pains across the intestines continually tortured me and it came to a point when I could not stoop down at all, and my Digestion became paralyzed. Some one advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and at once I felt a great improvement. After I had taken four or five boxes, I realized that I was completely cured and what made me glad, also, was that they were acting gently, causing no pain whatever to the bowels. All those who suffer with Chronic Constipation should follow my example and take 'Fruit-a-tives' for they are the medicine that cures."

RICH MEN'S SONS AVOID FIGHTING

Method of Young Austrians is to Secure Appointments as Correspondents.

London, March 2.—The Morning Post's Hungarian correspondent at Budapest sends the following:

"The original first line army of two million with which Austria-Hungary began the war is almost non-existent by now. These seven months have cost the monarchy four times as many men as they are willing to admit officially. They have lost not four hundred thousand, but one million six hundred thousand men, killed, wounded and prisoners. Of these 200,000 are generally being sent back to the front, some of them, however, not properly recovered. Accordingly, we can safely say the first line army of the first two million is entirely broken up already. New reinforcements have a comparatively small military value.

"The spirit of the army, however, is on no account broken, and one may expect some very good work from it yet, for the machine itself is sound and perfect, only its main power is beginning to give way. Its only hope is that the Russians are no better off. How much truth there is in that hope we shall see in April.

"At present the army of Austria-Hungary with the forces in the field and under training consists of between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000 men, and that is the limit for her military powers. As in every other state institution the army is exceedingly corrupt. Everywhere you can see what bribery and influence can do in exempting the rich and aristocratic from military service. In Budapest, young, able-bodied men still enjoy life or travel as newspaper correspondents of favored government organs. They are often rich bankers' sons, whose fathers subscribed to the war loan on condition that their sons would not be called upon to serve and thousands of other parasites.

"A new business developed on a great scale when the war broke out. For instance, those whom newspapers appointed war correspondents were exempted from military service and thus rich youths have been offering large sums of money to the Austro-philic press for appointments. Some poor papers, indeed, have done a good business out of this and have half a dozen war correspondents working for nothing or even paying a monthly salary to the proprietors for their positions.

"Under such circumstances, naturally, the third and fourth levy of boys of seventeen and men of forty-five, are a pitiable sight, for the medical examination is confined to two questions, one regarding consumption and the other as to lameness. The question as to eye-sight, physical weakness, general fitness or mental powers never arises at these examinations and men are ushered in before the doctors in groups of twenty, and under the pretext that there is no time for a more thorough examination, a man is at once passed over to the recruiting room for enlistment. He gets twenty-four hours to settle his civilian affairs and make his will and then is taken to the other end of the country for training."

FOOD FOR WHOLE YEAR.

Liverpool, March 3.—Following are the stocks of breadstuffs and provisions in Liverpool: Wheat, 1,578,000 centals; corn, 749,000 centals; bacon, 22,900 boxes; hams, 10,000 boxes; shoulder, 5,000 boxes; lard, 8,500 tierces of prime western, steam, and 1,940 tons of other kinds.

Recent advices from Liverpool estimated the food stored there as enough to feed the country for a year even should the German submarine blockade shut off Great Britain from outside supplies.

WILL HOLD NO BISLEY MEETING THIS SEASON

London, March 4.—Lord Chelmsford, presiding at the winter meeting of the National Rifle Association, said he had asked the War Office if they would permit them to raise a battalion of Bisley shots. The War Office had refused, so they had formed a school of musketry.

The offer to place the Bisley camp and ranges at the disposal of the army was at once accepted. After serious consideration the council has decided it was impossible to hold a Bisley meeting this year.

RUSSIAN HOAX KITCHENER PLAN

Myth of Soldiers Passing Through England Spread Rapidly—For Germans.

London, March 4.—The famous hoax of the first weeks of the war when a body of Russian soldiers said to number from 100,000 to 200,000 men, was reported to have circled around from Archangel, landed in Scottish ports and had been shipped through at night to reinforce the British force in France, originated with Lord Kitchener himself, according to a statement made by a British officer to a correspondent of the Daily Dispatch. It is a noteworthy fact that although the myth spread like wild fire through the United Kingdom with any number of witnesses to swear they had seen and talked to the Russians in their native language, the Press Bureau did not issue an official contradiction for a long time.

The Russian story, says the British officer, was designed to impress the German commanders in Belgium and Northern France and to keep them in fear of a surprise either in the rear or on the western flank. It accomplished its purpose, for this dread was real among the German staff and accounts to some extent for the retreat of General Von Kluck from Paris.

To give color to the report, Lord Kitchener is said to have caused a hundred transports laden with sundry goods to be sent from Scottish ports to Archangel after insuring them in Holland. And when the British troops were moved from various points in Scotland and the north of England to Channel ports, he ordered the blinds of the trains to be lowered so as to arouse popular curiosity and speculation.

Too Inquisitive.

VATICAN AMBASSADOR FOR PERIOD OF WAR

The Protestant world has been startled at the announcement that the British government has sent an envoy to the Vatican. It has never been British policy to recognize the Papacy as a temporal power. In recent years it has seemed specially inopportune to do so. In the first place, it would have embarrassed the French government, which had withdrawn its ambassador from the Vatican. In the second place, it might have annoyed the Italian government, which is supposed to have never regarded too favorably the proposal of representation from a non-Catholic power, like England or Japan, to the Vatican.

Four of the Catholic powers have enjoyed the privilege of sending an ambassador to the Vatican—France, Austria, Spain and Portugal. But France and Portugal have broken off their diplomatic relations with the Papacy. As Spain is of less account than Austria, of the two remaining ambassadors the Austrian representative apparently enjoys the most consideration of any one at the Holy See.

Next in diplomatic ranks are the two ministers, and of them Germany has two, one from Bavaria and one from Prussia—both able men. Thus Germany and Austria enjoy a strong representation at the Vatican as compared with what England, France, and Russia have had. This situation has, it is contended by some, been greatly to the advantage of Germany and Austria, though Vatican policy does not indicate it.

At all events, England has now changed the situation in sending officially a special envoy to the Pope. He is Sir Henry Howard, well known in this country; the late Lady Howard was an American. Sir Henry has spent a lifetime in diplomatic service, and has gone to Rome in no recognition of the Pope's temporal power, but first, to congratulate Benedict XV. on his election to the Papacy; and at the same time, as the British government avows, to lay before him the motives which compelled it to intervene in the present war, and especially to inform him from time to time concerning the events of the war and of the British government's attitude towards the various questions which arise from those events. This frank statement would indicate that the period of Sir Henry Howard's mission might cover the duration of the war.

The British government's proceeding has awakened wide interest everywhere. We shall see whether its results are commensurate with the very unusual character of Sir Henry Howard's mission.—The Outlook (N.Y.).

BIG SLUMP IN FUR PRICES IN THE WEST

Principal Buyers From Trappers Drop Out of the Field Temporarily.

Edmonton, Alta., March 4.—The fur trade in the West is almost demoralized so far as the business of trappers and traders is concerned, as the result of the announcement of the Hudson's Bay Company and Revillon, & Co., early in the winter, that they would not be in the market this year for the purchase of skins.

It was a common thing during former years for a buyer from one of the world's largest fur houses to purchase some $25,000 worth of raw furs during a trip. This year the aggregate buying will not reach $2,000.

One of the most interesting deals ever made by a fur trader in this territory is credited to Colin Fraser, king of all the northern trappers and a man who for 61 years has caught fur-bearing animals of all kinds.

Fraser makes two trips to the city every year, and never fails to bring from ten to forty bales of raw skins. His catch this year was very moderate, a paltry 9,683 skins being secured.

Having spent six months in the wilds of the Mackenzie River basin, Fraser had not heard of the European war until he reached Edmonton.

He expected upon his arrival here to sell his furs at about $30,000 to $35,000. The skins were put up for auction, but there were no bidders. At last a bidder appeared in the person of a representative of a local firm. He would pay Fraser $13,000 for his twenty bales of new skins—$13,000 spot cash. The market was bad, he explained, very bad. Fraser had no alternative but to accept the offer, for raw furs once bought cannot long be left in storage unless properly cured. Never did a king have such a hard fall.

Never before has milady had such an excellent chance to lay in a stock of the finest furs that money will purchase. This is one result of the war from which the buying public is certain to benefit.

LOOKING FOR HER HUSBAND.

Writing most pathetically of her long search for her missing husband, Mrs. Mary Evans, of 1381 Dundas Street, West Toronto, has communicated with Chief of Police MacLennan in an effort to locate him. According to her story she came with her family from their home in South Wales to join him in Toronto. For some time they lived happily there together, and then he lost his employment and went West to find work. He wrote to her a week later from Winnipeg. That was in August, 1912. She had never heard a word of him since. Long months passed, and her anxiety grew into a fear that ill had befallen him. She packed her belongings, sold what furniture she had, and returned to Wales, but she was haunted by the fear that he might have been taken ill, and again she has ventured across the water to search for him. So far her search has been in vain. The police of Winnipeg, Brandon and the other Manitoba centres have been unable to aid her, and she now appeals to the Western departments in the hope of locating him. His name is George W. Evans. He is 26 years old, 5 feet 8 inches in height, and inclined to stoutness.—Vancouver Province.

M'GANN WINS IN ALASKA.

Defeats Andy Anderson and Geo. James in Special Election.

Nome, Alaska, March 4.—Thos. McGann is the winner in the special election held in this district to fill the vacancy in the Alaska Legislature, caused by the death of Senator Elwood Bruner. The latest returns show McGann, 455; George James, 367, and Andy Anderson, 402. The only precincts missing are Teller, Marshall City and Kiana, which will be heard from my mail and which cannot change the result. The McGann victory caused some surprise to political wiseacres.

Sarah Bernhardt, the great French actress, who leg was amputated recently in France, is making most satisfactory progress.
