SOLDIERS ACQUITTED OF HUNTER'S DEATH

Canadians Found by Welland County Jury to Have Been Justified in Shooting.

Welland, Ont., March 15.—The bill charging manslaughter against a Provincial police officer and three Canadian soldiers, who last fall fired upon two American duck hunters, Walter Smith and Charles Dorsch, killing Smith and wounding his companion, was dismissed by the Welland County grand jury. The men who were named in the bill are Police Officer Thomas C. Delaney, Corporal Archie Mayo and Privates Leslie Kisman and E. McIntosh.

The shooting, which resulted in diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Great Britain and the paying by Canada of $5,000 to Dorsch and $10,000 to Smith's relatives, occurred on the Niagara River. Smith and Dorsch were said to have approached the Canadian shore, which was being guarded by soldiers against a possible invasion of Canada by Germans from the American side.

The soldiers, according to their own statement, fired when the two men failed to obey an order not to come any nearer.

BOWSER-McBRIDE SPLIT CONFIRMED-- THE INNER HISTORY OF THE TROUBLE

Dissolution of the House Was McBride's Bluff to Pull the Party Into Line--Bowser and His Following Re- fused to Submit and Called His Bluff

Vancouver, March 11.—The provincial political pot is now boiling to an extent never before attained in British Columbia. A battle for supremacy for the reins of government, not only between the two political parties, but between the leaders of the Conservatives, is evidently being launched. The McBride-Bowser partnership seems to be on the verge of dissolution and a fight for who is to be master is waxing hot between Sir Richard and Bowser. An announcement was made last Monday by the Premier that the election would be held on April 10, nomination, March 27.
Like a bolt from the blue comes the announcement today from the same source that the election is indefinitely postponed. This change of plan suggests the interest in the election is being waged in inner political circles. Owing to open revolt on the floor of the House, in caucus and dissension rife in the Cabinet, and because of fear that lesser scandals unearthed may divulge some suggested larger similar operations the Premier is said to be heartbroken. When the majority of members, led by Bowser, went against him in caucus last week, McBride is said to have attempted to pull off a colossal bluff by publicly announcing the election date without consulting his colleagues and to have afterwards stated that unless the members decided to stand by him in the additional subsidy vote for railway policy he would carry his case to the country. It is rumored members have given McBride till today to back down from his position or else go it alone. The Bowser faction evidently is in the ascendency as an announcement was made today that an election would be postponed indefinitely, although rumor says May 10 is the likely new date. Besides the Cabinet upheaval the government's overwhelming majority has brought about dissension in the well ordered machine and everywhere there is a scramble of party workers for plums, with the result that three and four Conservative candidates are fighting for the nomination in many ridings. Several present members are being ousted by the machine, while others are retiring on account of old age, some from satisfied ambitions, cold feet, and other disabilities, including revulsion of feeling owing to the autocratic attitude of Bowser on all matters political.

Rumor has it that the machine has to provide many of the faithful from Vancouver with plums, as there are not enough to get round on the coast. Many political aspirants are to be sent to outlying districts to win their spurs. Amongst other rumors, it is said that the Provincial Conservative machine has delegated to a Vancouver barrister the task of carrying the new Fort George riding for the McBride government. With the rapidly changing political events there is a belief gaining ground steadily here that possibly the postponement of election day may mean that the government has decided to live out the full term of office possible to them, which would be almost two years more, rather than take a chance with the electorate at a time when there is so much internal dissension, coupled with the widespread feeling throughout the province that the present government has outlived its usefulness.

THE MAYOR'S TRIP

The mayor and Alderman Morrissey have returned. They went as far as Montreal and it is safe to say that they accomplished nothing that could not have been done by mail. It is also a safe prediction that they got no money but that possibly the Bank of Montreal has agreed to defer the payment of the certificates—for what else could they do? It would also be a safe bet that the cost of the trip is nearer two thousand than one thousand dollars. The mayor will of course present a detailed statement and justify this waste of public money. He made this demand of a former opponent and he should be consistent. ?

DEMANDS PURITY IN COUNTRY'S POLITICS

One gathers from a perusal of W. T. R. Preston's "Life and Times of Lord Strathcona," that the late peer was a selfish man, that the author of the book had a well defined bitterness towards the former Canadian High Commissioner in London, that each was jealous of the other's activities. An unmistakable "personal" touch, therefore, runs through the whole of the volume. It gives the shady side of many things, of lives and events. The chief good to be extracted from its leaves is a burning appeal,—conscious on the author's part sometimes, standing out in the facts chronicled at other times—for greater political purity in Canada.

Mr. Preston says toward the end of the volume:

"No country can afford to have its public interests overshadowed by the active influence of a great corporation. This is particularly objectionable if such a corporation has developed under bounty drawn from the public exchequer. Corporations have a proper position in every country but their place as corporate bodies, is not at the ballot box. The ballot is a personal possession, not corporate or collective in its character. It is the nation's "pearl of great price." The rich and poor must stand upon a perfect equality with the ballot and at the ballot box. There is no liberty of action when a powerful corporation, either secretly or openly, attempts to dominate elections. Such corporate monstrosities must be throttled.

"If the genius of statesmanship has not discovered a way to enact legislation, punishing with utmost severity all possible attempts to interfere with the liberty of the subject, the sooner it is done the better. If it is not done now, it will be done later, and then 'vested interests' will suffer. The Dominion Legislature is a parliament, possessing full parliamentary powers. And with public opinion behind it, there is no influence to stand in its way. The solution of this problem has long since been settled in British politics, but it has yet to be solved in the most important colony of the Empire.

"The general public had not time nor opportunity, amid the struggles for home and family, to watch too closely the actions of those who so loudly claimed to be patriotic. Canadians as a class are actuated by high principles. This heritage has fallen to them from the noble bands of English, Scotch, Irish and French who emigrated to Canada in its earlier years, and whose self-sacrificing toil laid the foundation of an honest race. The people had every reason to believe that the standards of honor and honesty that prevailed in the ordinary walks of life were finding expression in the administration of government. That the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada should be the medium of creating private wealth is as repugnant to them as it is to the electors of Great Britain. They believed that the British ideal existed in their own manner and form of government. No other conception of public life

FIRST VICTIMS FROM FIRST CONTINGENT.

The first casualties reported from the main contingent following their baptism of fire in the trenches are Private Jack Davis, of Renfrew, Ont., and Sergeant H. S. Hamilton, of the 51st "Soo" Rifles. Both are members of the 2nd Battalion of the 1st Brigade, which is composed of detachments from Ontario regiments. Both men were wounded by shrapnel.

President Wilson says that no nation has the right to change the rules of warfare because the methods of war have changed. No doubt there ought to be due respect for law. Also the law must be modified from time to time according to the conditions in which it operates. International law cannot be exactly the same thing today as in the days of bows and arrows and mail-clad knights.

The use of submarines against merchant shipping introduces a new question. The law and custom, as explained by Mr. Asquith, is that a captured merchant vessel must be brought before a prize court, where the regularity of the capture may be challenged, and where neutrals may recover their cargoes. The sinking of the ship is to be resorted to only in extreme cases. Mr. Asquith proceeds:

"It is upon this basis that all previous discussions of the law for regulating warfare at sea have proceeded. A German submarine, however, fulfills none of the obligations; she enjoys no local command of the waters in which she operates; she does not take her capture within the jurisdiction of the prize court; she carries no prize crew which she can put on board a captured prize; she uses no effective means of discriminating between a neutral and an enemy vessel; she does not receive on board for safety the crew and passengers of the vessel she sinks; her methods of warfare are, therefore entirely outside the scope of any of the international instruments regulating operations against commerce in times of war. The German declaration substitutes indiscriminate destruction for regulated capture."

Germany has treated the law of nations at sea as a negligible scrap of paper. If the old law is in force, Germany has no standing. If a change in the law is required, the only question is how to make the new law as humane and convenient as possible. The British proposal is not to sink the ship that is under investigation, but to carry it to a port where there is a prize court. The policy tends to save life and to save property. It tends also to shorten the duration of the war, and to hasten the advance in civilization which will follow the war. The best thing the United States can do is to recognize that Germany and her allies are besieged, and abandon all efforts to trade with them. This will shorten the war, and facilitate the return of normal conditions of business, which will greatly benefit the United States and other neutral countries—Toronto Star.

STRIKERS IN EVERETT MOB NONUNION MEN

Attempt to Wreck Auto Carrying Employees From the Shull Shingle Mill.

Everett, March 13.—The first serious trouble since the beginning of the dispute between mill men and shingle weavers in this city occurred Monday, when a mob tried to block nonunion workmen who came from the Shull mill, the only plant in the city now operating.

An attempt was made to wreck the automobile used in carrying employees to and from the plant by tearing up portions of the tramway. No serious damage resulted.

One man was struck over the head with a lunch pail and one man arrested.

WOMAN DOG DRIVER IS LOST IN NORTH

Blizzard Swoops Down on Mrs. Dalquist's Team and Searchers Can Find No Trace.

Nome, Alaska, March 13.—Mrs. Emma Dalquist, proprietor of the roadhouse at Safety, twenty-two miles east of here, is lost in a blizzard and no trace of her can be found. Mrs. Dalquist, driving a dog team, left Safety for Nome. Soon after she set out a terrific blizzard began and has been raging ever since. A. A. (Scotty) Allen, the racing dog driver; Joe Sheldon, Mr. Dalquist and scores of Eskimos with dog teams have been out seeking the lost woman, but have met with no success. The storm is sweeping toward the sea, and it is feared that Mrs. Dalquist's dog team was blown off the trail along the beach out onto the ice field which covers Norton Sound.

DIFFICULT TO GIVE SOLDIERS FRANCHISE

No Record of the Place of Their Enlistment—New Zealand System Unsuitable.

Ottawa, March 13.—How to work out a scheme of conferring the franchise upon soldiers of the expeditionary forces in the event of an election occurring while they are at the front has been seriously considered by a special committee of the House.

"If we could find a way of giving every soldier a vote irrespective of qualifications, there would be considerable to say in favor of it," declared Hon. Mr. Doherty. "I have made inquiries at the Militia Department, and find no record of the place where they enlisted from, and all signed at Valcartier."

Mr. Doherty alluded to the New Zealand system, where the soldier leaves his envelope marked for the government or the opposition, and Mr. Murphy observed that at a dissolution time in Canada there is neither government nor opposition.

The commission finally decided to let the matter stand over for a while and ponder about it.

prevails in the minds of the masses of the Canadian people. The lives of men like Brown, Mackenzie, Holton and Dorion more properly represent the characteristics of this people than the record of those, living or dead, who have caused other considerations to prevail in high places." Therein is a message for every citizen of Canada, Liberal or Conservative in color. Both political parties have sinned in political impurity. Each promises better things but does not perform. The non-partisan public, which is now growing to respectable proportions, has been disgusted, but the time will come when politics will have to toe the line. Canada has little, if anything to learn from the United States of political tricks. The soul of Canadian politics is largely in the pockets of Canadian breeches. At some future time, politics and the people will reason together.—Monetary Times.

CITIZENS APPOINT STRONG OFFICERS

Boyd C. Affleck is the New President and a Strong Committee Was Elected to Assist Him.

New Hazelton.—The New Hazelton Citizens' Association held a reorganization meeting in the Assembly Hall on Tuesday night and there was a representative gathering. President W. J. MacKenzie occupied the chair and after opening the meeting declared that the first business was the election of officers for the ensuing year. He announced that as he had been president for the past two and a half years that he wished to retire now and desired that a new president be elected. C. H. Sawle, the secretary for the same length of time, made a similar announcement. The following officers were then chosen:

President—B. C. Affleck.
 Vice President—G. O. Graham.
 Secretary—E. B. Tatchell.
 Treasurer—James Richmond.
 Executive Committee—F. C. McKinnon, A. M. Ruddy, George Wall, George Walker, G. Hodgins.

George Wall was re-elected fire chief, and A. M. Ruddy and Roy McDonald were elected lieutenants. It was decided that a fire alarm be erected in the lower end of the town and A. M. Ruddy was authorized to secure same and have the fire department erect it in a suitable place.

The fire warden of the town will see that all business places and residences in town provide a ladder long enough to scale the wall of the building, and also a ladder on the roof.

The executive committee will consider the annual fee to be charged for membership and report at the next meeting, which will be held the first Monday in April, unless announced otherwise. The executive was also authorized to act on several other matters of importance to the welfare of New Hazelton.—Omineca Herald.

WORLD'S GREATEST KIDNEY REMEDY

"Fruit-a-tives" Have Proved Their Value In Thousands of Cases

WONDERFUL RECORD OF A WONDERFUL CURE

Only Remedy That Acts On All Three Of The Organs Responsible For The Formation Of Uric Acid In The Blood.

Many people do not realize that the Skin is one of the three great eliminators of waste matter from the body. As a matter of fact, the Skin rids the system of more Urea (or waste matter) than the Kidneys. When there is Kidney Trouble, Pain In The Back and Acid Urine, it may not be the fault of the kidneys at all, but be due to faulty Skin Action, or Constipation of the bowels.

"Fruit-a-tives" cures weak, sore, aching Kidneys, not only because it strengthens these organs but also because "Fruit-a-tives" opens the bowels, sweetens the stomach and stimulates the action of the skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

HONORABLE PEACE FOR GERMANY WOULD MEAN FUTURE DISASTER

UN-WARLIKE GERMANY MUST BE SHOWN THAT PRUSSIAN MILITARISM IS BAD — HONORABLE PEACE WOULD LAUD IT TO THE SKIES.

Now it is undoubtedly true that most people in this country have but the vaguest idea at present of the way in which the war is to be ended, and that many look forward to the utter "crushing" (details unspecified), ruin, and dismemberment of the German Empire as the only satisfactory conclusion. In so far as Professor Pigou is concerned to protest against this attitude, we have a great deal of sympathy with him. How to end the war on terms satisfactory to our selves and our allies without giving rise in Germany to an ineradicable spirit of revenge is undoubtedly one of the most difficult problems we have to face. There is a point beyond which the process of "crushing" any nation must not for the sake of the victors be pressed unless the length of imposing permanent occupation upon the defeated country. But what is this point? That is a question which, as far as we know, no one has yet attempted to answer. Professor Pigou's antithesis between a "penal" peace and an "honorable" peace in the sense of a peace which would reflect honor upon either her military machine or her methods of warfare. An "honorable" peace might, indeed, easily be as dangerous as the opposite extreme.

Excessive leniency, like excessive severity, would not be likely to lead to stable "post bellum" conditions. Suppose, for example, we were to offer peace now on condition that the German armies should simply evacuate France and Belgium and Poland, that Russia should keep that part of Galicia which she has occupied but should evacuate East Prussia, and that no indemnities should be paid, except a joint indemnity to Belgium contributed to by all the belligerents. That is an offer which we suppose might be accepted. But with peace made on such terms, what would the prospects for the future be? Is there any reason to suppose that a single nation in Europe would reduce by one ship or one man its preparations for the next war? Would there, indeed, be any chance of resisting the inevitable demand for conscription in these islands? Enormous sacrifices would have been made and nothing would have been settled, except that Germany with Austria-Hungary at her side, was strong enough to face any possible combination of powers. France might conceivably resign herself to the permanent loss of Alsace-Lorraine, but there seems less than no reason to suppose that German ambitions in Southeastern Europe would be given up, that Hungary would become a tolerant ruler, or that Russia would abandon her interest in the Southern Slavs.

What, then, are the minimum terms that we must seek to impose? It is generally understood that in the event of victory the Allies will insist on the complete reinstatement of Belgium (as far as a large indemnity can ensure that), on the surrender by Germany of Alsace-Lorraine on the west (together with, at least, the return of the five milliards) and of Posen in the east, on the surrender by Austria of Galicia and also of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and in the final departure of the Turks from Europe. But we suggest that far more important than any of these specific alterations of frontier is it that Germany should admit defeat; and here, perhaps, we are at a real issue with Professor Pigou and with all those who like him are more anxious about the date than about the actual terms of peace. What we are primarily concerned to secure is that no man and no party in Germany shall be able to claim this war as a vindication suggests. Until our armies shall have achieved something more than they have achieved at present, the terms of peace must remain a subject more suitable for private discussion than for public declarations.—New Statesman, London.

CONSERVATIVE PARTY SHOULD GET THIS MAN

Indianapolis, March 13.—A one-legged negro in Terre Haute voted eight times at the last November election, disguising himself each time by changing his artificial leg, United States District Attorney Frank C. Dailey told a jury here yesterday. Finally, having used wooden, cork and iron legs and having appeared once legless and with a crutch and once with a cane, the man added to his disguises, Dailey said by putting on a pair of glasses.

Dailey also charged that election inspectors favorable to Mayor Donn M. Roberts stood where they could see how the voting machines worked and signaled to persons outside who gave money to voters who pulled the proper lever. He also charged that they pulled the lever for the timid voter, registering for him a desire not his own.

For these and other alleged offenses, Mayor Roberts and twenty-seven other men are on trial here in the United States District Court. Dailey, in his speech, was outlining to the jury what he said the government intended to prove.

BANK CASHIER SHOT BY NERVOUS ROBBER

Oakland Man Struck Before He Can Throw Up Hands.

Oakland, Cal., March 13.—An unsuccessful attempt was made late yesterday to hold up Charles Evans, cashier of the Niles State Bank, a few miles from here, by Zelbert Goza. Evans was shot in the shoulder and slightly wounded. The would-be bandit was captured after a long chase by a score of citizens.

When Evans pulled down the shades preparatory to closing up, he noticed Goza standing at the counter and waited for him to leave. Goza drew a revolver and ordered him to throw up his hands. Before the cashier had time to comply the revolver was exploded, the bullet entering Evans' shoulder. Goza confessed to the police and said that he was from Advance, Mo., having been employed as a bellboy in San Francisco for several weeks.

London, March 13.—Six thousand alien enemies are at liberty in London. This statement was made in a discussion in the House of Commons on the subject of German spies. NO TRAWLERS TO SPARE.

St. John's, Nfld., March 12.—The attempt by the Newfoundland fishing firm of Hatten & Forsey to secure steam trawlers in England to operate on the Grand Banks codfishery the coming summer has failed, the British government refusing to allow any trawlers to leave British ports, as they are being used in mine-sweeping operations and other work around the British Isles.

IN THE LETTER BOX

Editor, The Daily News:

Sir,—Please allow me space for a few words in answer to a statement which appeared in The Daily News a few days ago, i. e., "A few intellectuals and laborites being led around by the political element." I will admit the fact in part; but wish to define it. The political school, no matter which of the two factions is in the lead, has become only a corps of rounders for covering the trail of the capitalistic regime. They seek to work their way into every social function and lead it safely to heel, benevolent associations, labor organizations, and religious denominations which hold to the principle of private property for profit as the foundation of their economic code. They also seek to nip in the bud any conscious awakening to a new economic code. Hence labor organizations of the craft union line are made the subjects of their most active tactics. While labor organizations of the new economic code receive the full force of their most virulent hatred. Therefore it is a hard task for the class conscious element to exist and keep a clear light shining on the confusion. We have gained a point in British Columbia unique in the history of Canada. Where one of the line factions has been completely absorbed or clearly knocked out under their own rules. And adherents of the new economic code held the opposition chair with admitted credit to themselves. We have now an individuality and dignity to maintain. There has been some talk of organized labor dominating in municipal affairs. They have also been given an opportunity to lead off for the Provincial. But their attempts are so lame as to be ridiculous. Their endeavors to place a safe blanket over the movement is amusing. Watch the next play when they see they have failed to lead us in to heel.

Thanking you in advance for this much, I am, Yours respectfully,
W. SHAW.

[The above writer, who infers that the Liberals are out of the race in British Columbia, could not have attended the recent Liberal meeting, over 500 strong; neither does he know the movement that is sweeping over this province in favor of that party. When he speaks of the labor unions controlling the City Council he is amusing. Three of the so-called "labor" men are well known hidebound supporters of the McBride government, and to suggest that they are acting independently for labor is a huge joke. They may be laboring men but they are Tories first.—Editor.]

Editor, The Daily News:

Dear Sir,—Permit me again to intrude on your space that I may assure the worthy editor of The Journal that he deceives only himself. I can quite understand that your contemporary cannot realize that such an anomaly as an independent Conservative can exist in British Columbia. That is just what one would expect from a man tied hand and foot to "Bows-erism."
Let me assure that gentleman that I am neither a "dyed-in-the-wool Grit," a "life-long Liberal," nor yet a "Conservative hater," but simply an Ontario Conservative who, after experiencing two years of "Bows-erism," culminat-
