 HAS PRIOR RIGHT *****

The way some of the Tory politicians talk about the Warks Channel power you would think that 43 cubic feet per second was such a small stream that a thirsty man could drink it as it came along. That's probably the way they feel when they think of election money. The fact remains, however, that the Continental Power Company was given the prior claim to this power and that they have crown granted the best dam site on the property. The law provides that the government may refuse any application if they think it conflicts with the interests of the people. Why didn't they refuse this application and save the city from future lawsuits? The Continental Power Company staked all the water they required for their purpose and they will always stand in the city's way. Can William Manson deny it?

ONLY 17 MILES FROM GERMAN STRONGHOLD

ACTING MAYOR.

Little interest was shown in the selection of an acting mayor last night till it was announced that the acting mayor had no vote. Then the opposing elements stood out in relief, with Aldermen Edge, Maitland and Nicol on one side and Aldermen Beveridge and Montgomery on the other. Alderman McClymont was appointed to the position.

CITY SOLICITOR REPORTS THAT MAYOR AND MORRISSEY ARE DISQUALIFIED

Were Guilty Under the Act of Doing Business With City While Holding Office---Advises Them Both To Resign Their Seats.

The following is the report of the City Solicitor over the disqualification of the Mayor and Alderman Morrissey:
Prince Rupert, March 26, 1915.
Mayor and Aldermen:
Re Auditor's Report on Audit, 1914, and disqualification of Mayor and Alderman Morrissey:
Gentlemen,—The Council has referred to me a report of the city auditor, dated March 22, 1915, which report specially deals with the question as to whether His Worship the Mayor and Alderman Morrissey have become disqualified to act in their positions of Mayor and Alderman, respectively.

of the present Mayor, the Mayor being appointed manager of the company.
I have had but one short consultation with the Mayor as to the facts of the case. I understand that he prefers my reporting quite independently. I further understand that the Mayor is still the manager of the company.
The auditor has pointed out that various items were charged and paid in the year 1914, and I make reference to his letter of March 22 to show the exact number of cheques paid, the total of these cheques being $192.70, of which amount $21.30 was paid on January 16, 1915.
With regard to this matter I am strongly inclined to the opinion that the present Mayor has a sufficient interest in the new company formed to run The Empire newspaper to disqualify him from making any contract with the city. So long as the company was incorporated the mayor or any alderman interested in that company would not be disqualified, but would only be prevented from voting upon any matter affecting the company; but after the joint stock company was dissolved, as it has been a new state of affairs exists.

Mr. Newton has transferred all the business of the newspaper to his wife, he remaining the manager of the company. So far as I can understand, he still has an interest in the company to this extent; namely, that if there was any shortage he had to make it up.
A contract was entered into on January 4, 1915, and orders were given for the publication in The Empire newspaper of the election notices, which election notices were published from six days prior to the date of nomination and continued up to and including election day.
During the month of January various other small items were incurred for advertising in the Empire Publishing Company, Limited, which in point of fact had ceased to exist. This, I am sure, being merely in mistake. His Worship Mayor Newton has not accepted the cheques for any of this work, but that does not appear to be, to me, the real question.

TAKE BACK SEAT

The citizens were surprised last night to find that there were certain abuses of public funds taking place in the City Hall. They were also surprised to hear ex-Alderman Morrissey declare that certain city officials were overpaid. The ex-alderman apparently was telling tales out of school, but it looks as if he did so only because he himself cannot attend school any longer. Why didn't Mr. Morrissey come through with this information months ago and thus convince the people that he was honestly protecting their interests? It may be that the City Hall needs a general house cleaning—but the citizens needn't expect anything from a man who "squeals" only to cover up his own mistakes. Will Alderman Morrissey now go away back and sit down?

I may say that the duty thus cast upon me is one that I would much rather not have to deal with. My relations with the several mayors and aldermen I have had to deal with have always been of the most cordial nature, and therefore I hope you will understand that it is most unwelcome to me to have to report upon a matter relating to the qualification of any members of the City Council.
At the same time I would point out that as a direct reference has been made to me it would be cowardly if I did not state clearly what my opinion is with regard to the matter under discussion.
The report of the city auditor, dated 22d inst., points out certain matters with regard to the connection of the Mayor with the Empire Publishing Company. It appears that originally The Empire was carried on as a joint stock company. It further appears that some time during the year 1914 the company went out of existence as a limited company, and a new company was formed, not limited and not incorporated; and that the whole business was transferred to the wife of the present Mayor, the Mayor being appointed manager of the company.

I have had but one short consultation with the Mayor as to the facts of the case. I understand that he prefers my reporting quite independently. I further understand that the Mayor is still the manager of the company.

 STREET ENDS *****

The City Council has been trying for the last year to secure a roadway to the Cold Storage. Many citizens will wonder why this is necessary; but if they will look at the city map they will see that McBride is the only street in the city that reaches the waterfront. All the other streets were cut short so that the G. T. P. would always hold the city by the throat. Now, when we want an entrance to the Cold Storage, we are told it must be on the understanding that it will be vacated on 60 days' notice. The McBride government sold this townsite to the G. T. P. They made sure that one-quarter was reserved for themselves, but no protection was given to the city. We were left the prey of the big corporations. Now the McBride government wants a renewal of our support. Do you think they deserve it?

COLD STORAGE COMPANY WANTS WHOLE WORLD

The Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company are not a whit bashful about asking for all they want. Evidently they have great faith in that scriptural injunction, "Ask and ye shall receive."
The Council had been negotiating with them to secure a reduction in the price of ice and bait in return for cheap power. It had been suggested that the Council might ever go as low as 2 cents per k.w. hour if the price of ice and bait was made right. Last night a letter was received from this company saying they would not make the change unless they got power at one-eighth of a cent per k.w. hour. In return for this, they will reduce the price of ice from $5 to $3 per ton but they say their present price of bait is very reasonable notwithstanding the fact that other places sell it at about a third less. They also say that their charge for freezing is already low enough. The Council didn't show any inclination to be stamped. The communication was referred to the Fish Committee and the Light and Power Committee.

HUGE LOAN FOR FRENCH GOVERNMENT

(Special to The Daily News.)
New York, March 30.—J. P. Morgan & Co. are negotiating with the French government for a $50,000,000 credit for France. The bond issue proposed will bring the French credits in this country up to $75,000,000. The government at Washington approves of the plan.

MAYOR NEWTON RESIGNS HIS OFFICE

The following is the resignation of the Mayor, read at last night's Council meeting, and accepted:
March 29, 1915.
To the Members of the Council, City of Prince Rupert:
Gentlemen,—In view of the report of the city solicitor re the position of Alderman Morrissey and myself, I wish to tender my resignation as Mayor of the City of Prince Rupert for the year 1915, and would deem it a favor if you would accept it immediately.
Upon reading the city solicitor's report, I immediately vacated the Mayor's chair, and lost no time in making the city's bankers acquainted with the circumstances in order that the recent negotiations with the bank, alluded to in the city solicitor's report, might not become impaired.
In tendering my resignation I do not do so in the belief that I am in any sense of the word open to disqualification proceedings, for certainly no money has been received by the Empire Publishing Company from any cheque issued since my nomination.
Whilst I therefore do not admit, but deny, that any real cause of disqualification exists, nevertheless I absolutely refuse to continue to hold the seat under the slightest suspicion of either wrong-doing or illegality.
In order to remove all doubt upon the matter, it seems to me it would be much better in the interests of the city as well as myself if you would follow the course suggested.
Yours respectfully,
S. M. NEWTON.

SIR RICHARD IS TOO SCARED OF BAD ROADS

Will there be a general election in Canada this spring? We do not know, and nobody else knows. The Aylmer Reformer probably states the case correctly when it says that Sir Richard McBride is being sent over the course to see how good the going is. If his government in British Columbia can go to the people at a time like this and come back safely, the Dominion government will feel encouraged to try. Of course in the last election, Sir Richard nearly had everything his own way, and it ought to be pretty safe for him to conduct this experiment in the interests of his party in federal politics. If he can romp in again pretty much as he did last time, or even if he only sustains such losses as would naturally be expected, it will be taken to mean that the country is friendly, not hostile, and that it would be safe to open ballot boxes.

But if Sir Richard McBride should meet with defeat or find that by going to the polls he has landed himself in a real fight, from which he has difficulty in emerging safely, the Dominion government will decide that as there is no need for an election this year it would be most improper and unpatriotic to create the financial disturbance and let loose the partisan bitterness that an election would cause, and involve the country in the unnecessary expense that it would entail. Instead, it will be decided (if the going isn't good and Sir Richard gets bumped), to avoid an election and the strife it would occasion, and earnestly endeavor to unite all Canadians in the work that lies before us of resolutely confronting the common enemy and bringing this war of wars to a successful end.

HUNGARY UNIFORMS ARE LIKE CANADIAN BOOTS

Venice, March 30.—Hungary is said to have a cloth scandal of considerable proportions. Twenty persons have been arrested in connection with it and a number of suspects have fled the country. The swindle is said to have been cleverly carried out. Contractors submitted good materials for uniforms to the War Office, which sent them to the clothing factories to be made up.

During the transit of the cloth to the factories the swindlers contrived to substitute for it such shoddy goods that uniforms were literally rags in a few days.

One contractor of Pressburg, named Kohn received orders to cut cloth in certain lengths for uniforms. It is alleged that he cut each length one centimetre short, so that on an order of one million metres he defrauded the War Office out of ten thousand metres of cloth.

CHAMPAGNE HOME RUINED BY THE WAR

Epernay Has Become Great War Camp in East of France—Cellars in Chalk Rock.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—The National Geographic Society says that "those Americans who remember the Epernay of before the war doubtless find it a most difficult task to modify the cheerful picture of their memory to that of a great war camp, which Epernay is now pictured to be. Then it was a small town of prosperity and peace, from whose low, red brick railway station, with window plants, to outlying garden plots (the miniature farms of the townspeople, each kept with all the painstaking solicitude of a lady's dressing table), everything breathed of comfort and good will. Epernay lies just behind the line of invasion through Reims, and is one of the more important links in this segment of French defense.

"The town is connected with Reims, directly north, by a narrow-gauge railway, upon which, in times of peace, spirited trains rambled along, slightly faster than a normal walking pace. Like the bigger city to the north, Epernay is a great champagne centre. It has numerous works where the wines of the Champagne are bottled and great cellars drilled through the chalk rock on which the town is built. Here the wine is stored until thoroughly mellowed. Champagnes were cheap in the cafes of Epernay and the supply was plentiful.

"Much of the manufacture of the place is that of apparatus and material consumed in the champagne industry. There are railway shops here and small factory outputs of hats and sugar. Epernay has been engaged so long in the mellowing of wines that it has become mellowed in the process. Before the war it sold the finest of wines to the world, grew steadily wealthy and gardened its leisure hours away on tiny plots of ground upon its outskirts.

"These small farms were a feature of Epernay. Often they were almost fifty feet square, and every foot of their surface was covered with vegetables, trees, whitewashed stones or clam shells."

Republicans Name Committee to Consult With Progressives.

Albany, N. Y., March 29.—A committee of five was appointed at a meeting of the executive committee of the Republican League of Clubs of New York to ascertain on what common ground the Republicans and Progressives of the state can unite. Ormsby McHarg, of New York, was named chairman. The committee is authorized to confer with any similar committee to be appointed by the Progressives.

PRINCESS PATRICIAS GAVE GOOD MEASURE

Were Ordered to Take a Lost Trench—Captured Two More.

London, March 27.—Reports have reached here that the Princess Patricias have distinguished themselves in carrying out an order to take a lost trench. The Canadians not only carried out the order, but captured two other trenches, driving out the Germans at the point of the bayonet. It was in this charge that Lieut. Stewart, son of Lieut.-Colonel Stewart of Halifax, was wounded. Lieut. Stewart received a bullet wound in the stomach while leading a charge which was part of a sequel to the Neuve Chapelle victory.

During a visit to the Queen's Canadian military hospital, Major Hamilton Gault told the wounded men of the Patricias of the announcement that the commanding officer had been killed in action. Col. Farquhar was well liked by his men. He never hesitated to ensure the comfort of those in the ranks.

Major Gault has recovered from his wound and will return immediately to France to take charge of the regiment which was organized and equipped at his expense. Prior to the death of Col. Farquhar, Major Gault was second in command.

INVALIDED PRINCESS PATS AT HALIFAX

Halifax, N. S., March 29.—A number of the men from the Princess Patricia's Regiment returned home on the steamer Mis-sanabie.

Private Oscar Tichfield, of Red Deer, Alberta, a member of the regiment was brought ashore on a stretcher. He was taken to the military hospital, and will probably be sent home. He is seriously ill.

Another soldier named Herbert Burgess was taken to the quarantine hospital for observation for suspected spinal meningitis. With him went three of his comrades, who had exposed themselves to contagion.

Sergeant Samson, of Calgary, who says he was at the front for a month with the Princess Patricias, was in charge of the returned soldiers.

His story is that he went to France with his regiment and fought in the trenches a mile or so to the southeast of Ypres. His feet were frozen and he was sent back to the base hospital, and finally to England. He recovered there, but the doctors, he says, discovered that he was flat-footed, and refused to allow him to return to the front. He was offered a position as instructor, but as he was a volunteer he preferred, if he could not go to the front, to return to his home in Canada.

REPORT ON RUMORS.

The city solicitor reported last night on the rumors about town that city heads of departments and aldermen used their influence in favor of certain business houses.

One merchant had told him that several of his customers had left him and made the excuse that since they were working for the city they felt it incumbent to deal with the parties in power. There was no evidence to show that anybody threatened workmen if they refused their business. It was not illegal for aldermen to solicit business from city employees, although very indiscreet, if practiced. The city solicitor, however, had not been able to locate any evidence that was direct.

TO BUILD COTTAGE.

Another cottage will be built at Shawatlans. One of the employees has to live in a log cabin, and it is very unsatisfactory. The money to build a cottage costing about $1,000 is on hand in the electrical department and it was decided last night to proceed with the work. The Board of Works has the matter in charge.

Launching a Superdreadnought

This impressive bow-on view gives an idea of the size of the world's largest battleship. The Pennsylvania was launched on Tuesday, March 16, at Newport News, Va. She displaces 31,400 tons, but her guns are smaller and her speed slower. Below is a picture of Miss Kolb and the bottle of champagne she broke on the bow.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT ON MAYOR AND MORRISSEY

The same, he said, was true of the Mayor. The same man was in charge of the Empire when it was incorporated and now. It was folly to think the Mayor had committed an unfair act.

Alderman Morrissey, however, appealed to a higher tribunal than the Council. During his eight years in Prince Rupert he defied anyone to show where he had committed a dishonest act. "I stand here tonight," said he, "with as clear a heart as any of you that I have done no wrong as far as my intention was concerned."

Since the city solicitor had gone into technicalities, he would do so too. "The city treasurer, who gets a salary of $200 per month, is also allowed $500 for conducting a tax sale, and he got this last year. It would take a large number of poor taxpayers to make that up. Am I more guilty than he is, even if he has a technicality on his side?"

He also attacked the city clerk. Besides getting a big salary from the city, he had collected $89 of road tax last year and took a commission of 10 per cent out of it. "When I was discussing the reduction in City Hall pay last fall as they were in Vancouver the city clerk broke in and said, 'Nothing doing.' Is this man running the City Hall, or who is in charge?"

"When I get through speaking, gentlemen, I shall hand in my resignation; but I want to say right here that when the city solicitor was asked to report, he was asked to report to this Council. Several days ago his report was out in the streets and I believe he went out of his way to make an attack upon the Mayor and myself."

Alderman Montgomery was the next speaker and proceeded to defend the attitude of the city solicitor, whom he thought had reported as he felt in the matter. He was in favor of protecting city officials in the discharge of their duty. Even if the city clerk had protested at a reduction in salary, that was within his rights. In this, he was supported by Alderman Edge.

Acting Mayor McClymont made some effective remarks about the discord shown in the Council which had a tendency to lower respect for the city. He made a plea for the aldermen to try to see eye to eye more than in the past.

Alderman Maitland couldn't see why it was that the city officials had overlooked the illegal transactions of last year. Why were these questions taken up now more than then? He was inclined to think that there was nothing dishonest in the transactions.

Alderman Edge moved the acceptance of the city solicitor's report, which was seconded by Alderman Nicol. The vote for nominations to fill the vacancies was also set at April 6 and the election for April 9. City Clerk Woods was appointed returning officer. The resignations of the Mayor and of Alderman Morrissey were read and accepted.
