LONDON AFLAME WITH PRAISE FOR CONDUCT OF CANADIANS

CONCEDED THAT THEY SAVED THE DAY AT LANGEMARCK—WAR OFFICE SENDS CONGRATULATIONS—SECOND CONTINGENT LIKELY CALLED THIS WEEK.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, April 26.—This city is aflame in praise of the Canadians at the front and how they saved the day for the British at Langemarck. The Canadians were left entirely exposed by the French-Belgian lines being forced back by the Germans through the use of asphyxiating gas. The orders the Canadians had were that in all

ENGLISH SOCCER.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Manchester, Eng., April 26.—In the English Cup final the Sheffield United defeated Chelsea 3 to 0. There were 50,000 spectators.

BOOT LACES FOR TROOPS.

London, April 26.—The Canadian Associated Press is again asked to mention that woolen comforts are no longer needed by troops. These are still being received from Canadian friends. The latest consignments of comforts to Canadians this week included insect powder, footballs, chewing gum, tooth brushes and boot laces. A complete list of various goods sent would be instructive. Writing paper and envelopes are most eagerly sought. Friends of Canadians still in England are continuing to provide concerts and cinematograph shows at Shorncliffe and Canterbury.

eventualities they were to keep in touch with their right wing. When their left support fell away there was nothing to do but obey orders and close in on their right, leaving several guns and equipment behind. Later, however, they received order to return, and carried the Germans before them, recovering their guns and taking a number of German prisoners.

Canada to Avenge.
Ottawa, April 26.—Replying to a congratulatory telegram from the War Office for the splendid conduct of the Canadians, General Hughes says he is mourning the loss of his gallant comrades and that Canada desires to avenge their death. He believes the order for the Second Contingent to leave for the front will be given this week.

G. T. P. STEAMERS TO MAKE TRI-WEEKLY TRIPS

Vancouver, April 26.—Capt. C. H. Nicholson, manager of G. T. P. steamers, has announced that the company's steamers Prince Rupert and Prince George will maintain a service of three trips a week between Vancouver and Prince Rupert, commencing in June. To maintain this schedule the steamers will have to make the run in thirty hours. They have not yet been run at their full power, said Captain Nicholson, and he expects no trouble on the new service.

IN WHAT NORTH SEA?

Berlin, April 26.—The German Admiralty yesterday gave out a statement reading as follows: "The German high sea fleet has recently cruised repeatedly in the North Sea, advancing into English waters without meeting the sea forces of Great Britain."

VIOLENT FIGHTING YESTERDAY IN WEST

(Special to The Daily News.)
Paris, April 26.—Official—Two German attacks in Belgium yesterday were repulsed by the British. The enemy bombarded Ypres violently. Violent fighting also took place on the Meuse and Les Eparges. The enemy was repulsed.

TO TAKE PLEBISCITE.

People of Newfoundland Will Vote on Liquor Question.

St. Johns, Nfld., April 26.—Newfoundland, "the ancient colony," may become "dry" in July, next year. In the Colonial Legislature the Premier announced that the government intended to introduce a bill during the session providing for a plebiscite next November on the question of prohibition of the liquor traffic. In the event of the temperance policy winning, licenses will be abolished on July 1, 1916.

THIRTEEN CARS OF ORE ARRIVE FROM ROCHER DE BOULE MINE

BEING SHIPPED TO GRANBY SMELTER BY SCOW AND TUG—NEW BUNKERS READY TODAY THAT WILL HOLD THREE HUNDRED TONS.

The first shipment from the Rocher de Boule mines, near New Hazelton, arrived in the city last night en route to Anyox, where it will be smelted. There were thirteen cars of ore in the shipment, each car probably carrying about forty tons. They came in on yesterday afternoon's freight and are on the track ready to be transferred to the new bunkers which will be ready today.

The bunkers, which are constructed next to the G. T. P. wharf near Morse Creek, will contain about 300 tons of ore. This ore will be transferred to Anyox by a scow and tug. The G. T. P. has charge of the shipment, and are arranging to have the scow towed to the smelter.

The price of copper at this time is up to 15 cents per pound, so the owners are anxious to get through as many shipments as possible. A large force of men are employed at the mine and the ore will be shipped as fast as it can be secured.

The owners are very confident about the future of the mine, and believe that this shipment will more than justify that confidence. The Rocher de Boule can really be classed as one of Prince Rupert's industries since all their shipping and business is carried on through this city.

CAPTURE TURK SHIPS.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Athens, April 26.—Allied warships captured the Turkish steamers Virginia and Madda carrying contraband. They were flying the American flag and were taken to Lemnos.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

The films include "Unrest," a psychological drama in two reels; "The Borrowed Necklace," "The Furnace Man," and a great comedy entitled "Getting Father's Goat."

VANCOUVER CONTINGENT HIT HARD IN RECENT BATTLE AT LANGEMARCK

COL. HART-McHARG AMONG THE SLAIN---SON-IN-LAW OF HIBBERT TUPPER KILLED AND SON WOUNDED---MANY NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS INCLUDED

SAM FELL DOWN
Sam Newton used to be a great advocate of the "New Freedom"—that is, the freedom of publicity and doing everything up and above board. But that was in the times when Sam was seeking office. The corrupting influences of power, however, had its sway, as it does with all weak men, and today Sam is an out-and-out advocate of "Star Chamber" methods in the City Council.
That's not the only place where Sam fell down. He has dropped about a thousand feet in the estimation of ex-Alderman Morrissey since the Montreal trip. Morrissey was a good dog to Sam; he would lick his feet and snarl at his enemies. When Morrissey wanted a friend, however, Sam wasn't there. Instead of assisting poor Morrissey back to office he threw him down and gave his support to the labor candidate—not because he likes the labor party but because he wants to hang on to a few workingmen's votes. Sam would throw down the workingmen, too, if it served his purposes—but not yet. Wait a while.

Vancouver, B. C., April 26.—This city is in deep mourning today over the gallant heroes who fell in the recent battle at Langemarck. The casualty list shows that the Canadians lost heavily, including many of Vancouver's prominent citizens. It is believed that the total death list exceeds a thousand officers and men.

Officers Hit Hard.
Among the fallen there were three Canadian colonels, Colonel Hart-McHarg, of this city; Lieutenant Colonel P. Birchall, of the permanent staff, and Lieutenant Colonel Russell Boyle, commanding the 10th Battalion. Besides those, Captain Cecil Merrit, a son-in-law of Sir Hibbert Tupper, and Captain Maxwell Fleming, both of Vancouver, were killed. The list of Vancouver's wounded includes Major Godson-Godson, Lieutenant Hibbert Tupper, a son of Sir Hibbert, and Lieutenants S. Darmour, G. Kenworthy, Victor McLean, S. H. Goodall, A. G. Spencer, G. H. Davis and A. L. Lindsay.

McHarg's Record.
At the opening of the court today the judge made reference to the loss sustained by the death of Colonel Hart-McHarg. He was an eminent lawyer of Vancouver, and had served in the South African war as a private. He won the Prince of Wales' Prize, the Governor General's Prize and the world's championship rifle shot last year. He was born at Kilkenny Barracks, Ireland, the son of Major McHarg, D. S. O., who was an officer under "Chinese Gordon."

THREE AMERICAN FISHING BOATS HERE

Three new American independent fishing boats arrived in Prince Rupert today and last night.

The Tordenskjold came in with 35,000 pounds of halibut, the Liberty with 30,000 and the Sitka with 35,000.

There was considerable dickering this morning before they disposed of their catch. The first offer they had was 4 1-2 and 2 cents, but it was finally sold for 4 1-2 and 2 1-2 cents to the cold storage. While this is not as good a price as they secured at Seattle last trip, it is contended that the prices secured here are as good as 6 cents straight in Seattle when time and cost of going south is considered. The fishermen appear to be well pleased with their trip.

It begins to appear that almost every child in Germany is assigned its task in connection with the war.

Here is Canada with a population of 8,000,000. In Germany, a province with that population would have put forward an army of 200,000 men

It is quite true that the first contingent was kept six months in England in the same way that Kitchener's army was kept there, and it is also true that the second contingent has been kept six months in Canada

The British Empire will not defeat the German Empire unless we all get down to the business of warring as the Germans are doing. That is not being done. People say that Toronto has done well as regards enlistment.

Let us face the facts. If British recruiting sergeants came into Canada tomorrow looking for recruits as they are looking for them in the United Kingdom

NERLICH CASE WILL BE TRAVERSED NOW

Toronto, April 26—The application of Mr. I. F. Hellmuth, counsel for Mr. Emil Nerlich, that the charge of high treason against Mr. Nerlich be held over until the Court of Appeal has given a decision in the reserve case following the conviction for conspiracy, has been received by the Attorney General.

"The matter will be allowed to rest entirely in the hands of the judge," stated Mr. Lucas. "If the judge sees fit to let the high treason hearing stand over, this department will not raise any serious objections."

As no date has yet been fixed by the Court of Appeal for the hearing of the stated case, this means that the Nerlich case will doubtless be traversed from the present session.

"Fruit-a-tives" cures weak, sore, aching Kidneys, not only because it strengthens these organs but also because "Fruit-a-tives" opens the bowels, sweetens the stomach and stimulates the action of the skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

WEAKNESS AND GOODNESS MAKE VERY BAD MIXTURE IN A LEADER

SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD, SIR WILFRID LAURIER AND PREMIER ASQUITH POINTED TO AS MODELS OF LEADERSHIP—PERIL OF WEAK LEADERSHIP.

Leadership that is weak is always perilous. Weak leadership is most to be feared when the leader himself is personally reputable. A bad man, a notoriously dishonorable man, a drunkard, or a grafter—even those who vote for such a leader know that he is not to be trusted. He is always under suspicion. His dealings with private corporations having designs on public rights are always scrutinized with care. His very disrepute is a protection of public interests. Nothing honestly and progressively useful is expected from him. Under his leadership the people may be robbed, but they need not be robbed unawares.

But the leader who hides the weakness of his personality under a reputation for personal decency of temperance or piety, the leader who has not the mental alertness to distinguish good from evil in political principles or in public issues, the leader who can be bullied or misled by his colleagues or coaxed or scared by the Big Interests, the leader who has no bones and muscle and steady nerves under the silkiness of his glove—he is a perpetual peril to every public cause that in the time of need looks to him for masterful leadership. He is not himself a thief, but because of his weakness or stupidity the thief is given abundant opportunity. He may be a tee-totaler, but in the very teeth of his professions and public assurances the organized liquor interests "puts one over" on the people. The people's peril is in the reputable weakness of their leader.

In Ontario the name of Sir Oliver Mowat stood through almost a generation for strong and trustworthy public leadership. He was trusted because he was master of the situation. From behind his double-glasses he looked clean through the disguises of his number associates, and, if public policy required it, even the strongest of his ministers was given opportunity to resign. The secret of Sir James Whitney's power was not at all in his intellectual ability, but rather in his almost autocratic mastery over his ministers and supporters. He could not be wheedled or browbeaten or compelled into silence.

In the Federal arena there have been two masters of men conspicuously as leaders because of the power of their personality and the undisputed prestige of their leadership. Sir John A. MacDonald and Sir Wilfrid Laurier were poles asunder in many of the essentials of their political power, but in one thing they agreed: each was master in his own house. Any minister who aspired to dictatorship found his occupation gone. Their leadership was effective because it was strong, positive, responsible.

The unprecedented effectiveness of the Asquith government in Britain is in large measure due to the fact that in a Cabinet of exceptionally strong men the Prime Minister holds his rightful place by the unchallenged premiership of his personality. For the moment one minister or another may seem to have the pre-eminence. At one time Grey is in the spot-light, at another Haldane; or it is Lloyd George or Winston Churchill; or today it may be Kitchener. But the master of all these masters is Asquith. He is Premier in fact as well as in name. He holds himself responsible. If any minister betrays his trust he is held to account. If anyone wants to "bolt" he finds it will be to his own hurt. There is no weak surrender, no zig-zag, no compromising evasion of duty.

Leadership that is weak is always perilous, and most perilous when the leader's reputation for personal respectability is unassailed. To be safe a leader must be not only decent but strong. The Premier who is mastered by his ministers is a menace to the country—Toronto Globe.

THE ROMANCE OF THE DARDANELLES

"The Name of the Dardanelles goes back to Dardanus, the founder of the Trojan race, and by his name one of the forts reduced on the edge of the Plain of Troy is called," says the Boston Congregationalist.

"In plain sight from the British and French warships was the stretch of beach on which for ten years the Greek galleys were drawn up, and the level valley where Hector killed Patroclus and Achilles avenged his friend by the death of Hector."

"Along this narrow strait went the ship Argo under the leadership of Jason. Here Xerxes crossed the straits on his bridge of boats; here Alexander made a pilgrimage to the site of Troy, and Julius Caesar meditated founding a world metropolis in honor of his father, Aeneas."

"At the narrowest point Leander swam the straits each night to meet his lady, Hero of Sestos; and the emulous Byron followed his example. The narrow course of the straits, flowing with swift current out from the Black Sea at the north, fairly bristles with historic and poetic associations, dating back to the myth of Europa, who crossed its waters on a bull's back. It is the meeting place of Europe and Asia."

SEE CROSSES IN FRENCH SKIES

Paris, April 26.—Meteorological phenomena have been observed so frequently of late that the question is raised whether there is any relation between them and the continual artillery firing on the battlefield. Abbe Moreux, director of the observatory at Bourges, says that his attention has been called every few days to singular phenomena in the sky, such as halos, crowns and luminous crosses. Many devout persons see in the latter manifestations, he says, a mystic sign of approaching victory.

Abbe Moreux says that these crosses are reflections produced by humidity in the atmosphere, and probably are due to depressions originating over the North Atlantic. He asserts that they have no connection with the artillery firing.

"ENOCH ARDEN" AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

The magnificent four-reel production of "Enoch Arden," the story of which is founded on Lord Tennyson's immortal poem of the same name, will be shown tonight only at the Westholme Theatre.

This is one of the very best photo-plays ever produced and should be seen by both young and old. It is a beautiful story and a splendid picture. Owing to the 68th Regiment Concert on Tuesday night this program will be shown Monday only.

Wednesday and Thursday "The Call of the North," which arrived on last Sunday's train, will be shown and will no doubt draw crowded houses at both performances as it is without doubt one of the finest dramatic productions ever filmed.

The story is of particular interest to Canadians, the entire action taking place in the Hudson's Bay country and the principal characters are Canadians. The famous actor Mr. Robert Edson, who takes the leading part, is himself a Canadian, having been born in Montreal.

W. R. ARNOLD'S WIDOW REPORTED DESTITUTE

Vancouver, B. C., April 26.—A wrong impression has been assumed by many people as a result of the recent lawsuit to prove the will of the late W. R. Arnold, says prominent counsel connected with the litigation. Because the will was held by the court to be proved, many persons have assumed that the widow and children of the testator will obtain $75,000 of the insurance moneys, as it is the first bequest named in the will, and is specified as being the first charge on the estate.

This idea is said to be wrong, because even the first bequest named in the will is subject to the debts of the estate being first paid. As a consequence of confirming the liquidator of the Dominion Trust Company as executor of the will, it is regarded as certain that the liquidator will admit as bona fide debts of the estate, the claims made by the Dominion Trust Company for alleged indebtedness by Arnold to the company. This will more than eat up the entire amount obtained from the insurance companies.

Since the death of Mr. Arnold his widow and children have been living in the garage at Shaughnessy Heights where the late financier came to his end and it is an open secret that they have had no resources other than their hope of being able to rank under the will, or obtain some kind of small settlement from the estate. A relative of the family is authority for saying that the only money which was left by Arnold to his family at the time of his death was a $20 gold piece found in his clothing.
