ZEPPELIN WORKS DESTROYED BY FRENCH AVIATORS YESTERDAY

DROPPED BOMBS ON WORKS AT FREDERICHSAVEN, SETTING FIRE TO BUILDINGS AND DESTROYING FIVE AIRSHIPS--ATTACKED RAILWAY STATIONS.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Geneva, April 29.—The Zeppelin works at Frederichshaven is in flames as a result of the attacks yesterday of French aviators. Five airships were destroyed. Returning to their base, the French dropped bombs on Metz, Haltingen and Lorrach, inflicting damage on the railway stations and buildings. The damage done will seriously affect the operations of the Germans and shows future possibilities along that line.

SOLDIERS DRIVEN INSANE BY WORK IN TRENCHES

Geneva, Switzerland, April 29.—Dr. Scherer, of Lucerne, returned to Geneva yesterday from a visit to the war asylum at Oberwiesenthal, near Munich, Bavaria.

"I never realized the depth of the war horrors," said Dr. Scherer, "until I saw there hundreds of men, mostly young, who had come made in the trenches. Some by quietly, oblivious to their surroundings, other with burning eyes watched every movement of the visitors and attendants."

"A percentage of insane recovered after some weeks of careful care and rest, and later return to the front," Dr. Scherer said, "but the remainder are sent to other asylums, because, their recovery being doubtful, their presence in the trenches might endanger their own comrades. Several such special asylums for madmen from the trenches have been opened in Germany. Something seems to break inside the soldiers under the prolonged stress of fighting and fatigue, sanguinary scenes and hand-to-hand encounters."

F. W. HART HAS GOOD TIME AT THE FAIR

F. W. Hart is having the time of his life at the Fair. Yesterday the following letter was received from him which gives some idea of his enjoyment:

"I have been royally entertained ever since I came here. These Americans are wonderful people."

"I will leave for home on the 24th inst. and expect to be home not later than May 4."

"Today was Society Day. The parade was very large and very fine—more especially as the ladies all appeared in white, holding white parasols with red tassels."

"Among many interesting experiences I have had, yesterday I had the most thrilling in a flying machine over the Pacific Ocean."

"The enormity of the Fair is so great that no one could grasp it, even though he would see it every day for six months."

WEST SIDE OF THE YSER CANAL HELD FIRMLY BY THE ALLIES

ATTACK MADE ON EASTERN SIDE, TAKING PRISONERS AND TWO MACHINE GUNS—GERMAN ZEPPELIN FOUND WRECKED IN THE WOOD.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, April 29.—The official report says that the Allies are strongly holding the west side of the Yser Canal. Attacks have also been made on the eastern banks in which 150 prisoners and two machine guns were taken.

The enemy bombarded by flying machines and incendiary shells the unfortified town of Epernay, which was occupied exclusively by hospital detachments.

The Zeppelin which attacked Dunkirk eight days ago appears to have been damaged by our artillery. It was found wrecked in the trees between Bruges and Ghent.

In Belgium, progress continues to be made.

TRI-WEEKLY SERVICE FIRST OF JUNE

About the first of June the G. T. P. will start their tri-weekly service on both the trains and steamers, according to W. R. Hinton, the chief passenger agent, who is now here.

There will be three trains per week, leaving here on Mondays, Thursday and Saturdays, and arriving here on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The trains will leave at 11 a. m.

There will also be three trips per week of the S. S. Prince Rupert and S. S. Prince George, making connection with the trains here and making the run to Vancouver in thirty hours.

INDIAN COMMISSION AGAIN IN RUPERT

The Royal Commission looking into the Indian affairs in this province is at present in Prince Rupert, having returned from a trip to the Interior.

The commission consists of N. W. White, of Sheburne, N. S. (chairman); D. H. McDowell, of Victoria; G. Carmichael, of Montreal, and J. A. McKenna, also of Victoria. They are accompanied by J. McArthur, who holds the position of secretary.

It appears that British Columbia is the only province in Canada where a treaty has not been in force with the Indians. As a result, there are many difficulties, especially in the matter of the ownership of lands, in which the Indians contend they are not fairly treated.

The commission was appointed in 1912, and has traveled considerably in the southern portion of the province, but this is their first visit to the North. They will go south on Friday morning and return later to take in the Naas Indians.

They are accompanied by Andy Tyson, of the Indian Department.

INCENDIARY FIRES IN VANCOUVER POINT TO ACTION OF ALIEN ENEMIES

CONNAUGHT BRIDGE BURNED DOWN AT A LOSS OF $300,000---ATTEMPT ALSO MADE TO DESTROY GRANVILLE STREET BRIDGE---FIRE SET DURING HIGH WIND

(Special to The Daily News.)

EXIT VON BOWSER

It's a rather lamentable state of affairs for a Minister of the Crown to have to admit that he is unable to get a hearing in his home town. Attorney General Bowser yesterday admitted that it was practically impossible for him to get a hearing at Vancouver. There must surely be a very good reason for this. He has been many years now in public life and has had ample opportunity to make his worth known. If he finds that everybody wants to howl him down whenever he appears in public it ought to give him serious heart searchings. It's a good indication that he has been following a bad course, and that he should endeavor to reform. But perhaps that could be best done in retirement or in opposition, and the country would be charitable to Mr. Bowser if they would leave him at home next time to review his faults. He is a discordant note at present in B. C. and a change is in order. Exit Von Bowser.

Vancouver, B. C., April 29.—Connaught bridge, across False Creek, was partially destroyed by fire last night. The damage already amounts to $300,000 and it is still burning. An attempt was also made to set fire to the Granville Street bridge, but the fire was put out without great loss.

Germans Blamed.

Both of the fires are believed to be of incendiary origin and point to the work of alien enemies. It was started during a heavy gale about 4 o'clock this morning. The work of the fire-fighters was greatly hindered by the lack of hydrants near the bridge and the absence of a fire-boat. Two men were carried into the creek by a falling girder and had a narrow escape from drowning.

Enemy Rejoicing.

Further excitement has been added by reports to the effect that a number of Germans had met in a house in Point Grey to celebrate the recent Canadian casualties. Everything is being done to locate the parties and developments are expected shortly.

Attorney General Boswer said yesterday that the depression caused by the war was the reason why the Prince Rupert courthouse and other public works were not proceeded with. Perhaps he has forgotten that on the last visit of himself and the Premier it was announced that the courthouse and the road around the Island would be built at once and that the money was already appropriated. This was four years ago and only a fraction of this money has so far been expended. Since the money was then available the only explanation is that it was used in the South, as has been done with the millions already collected in the North. The explanation of the Attorney General will not hold water. He might as well come out and say that he has no use for the North since he has persistently practiced it.

St. Andrew's Society will hold another of their popular invitation dances tomorrow. A nicely blended program of Canadian and Scotch dances has been arranged.

EDITORIALS

According to a private but published letter by Dr. Dernburg, who represents in a semi-official capacity the German government in the United States, an "equitable solution" of the present European problem would include perpetual possession of Belgium. The mere fact that the attack made by Germany on Belgium was the occasion of Great Britain's decision to enter the contest shows how absurdly impossible such a condition is.

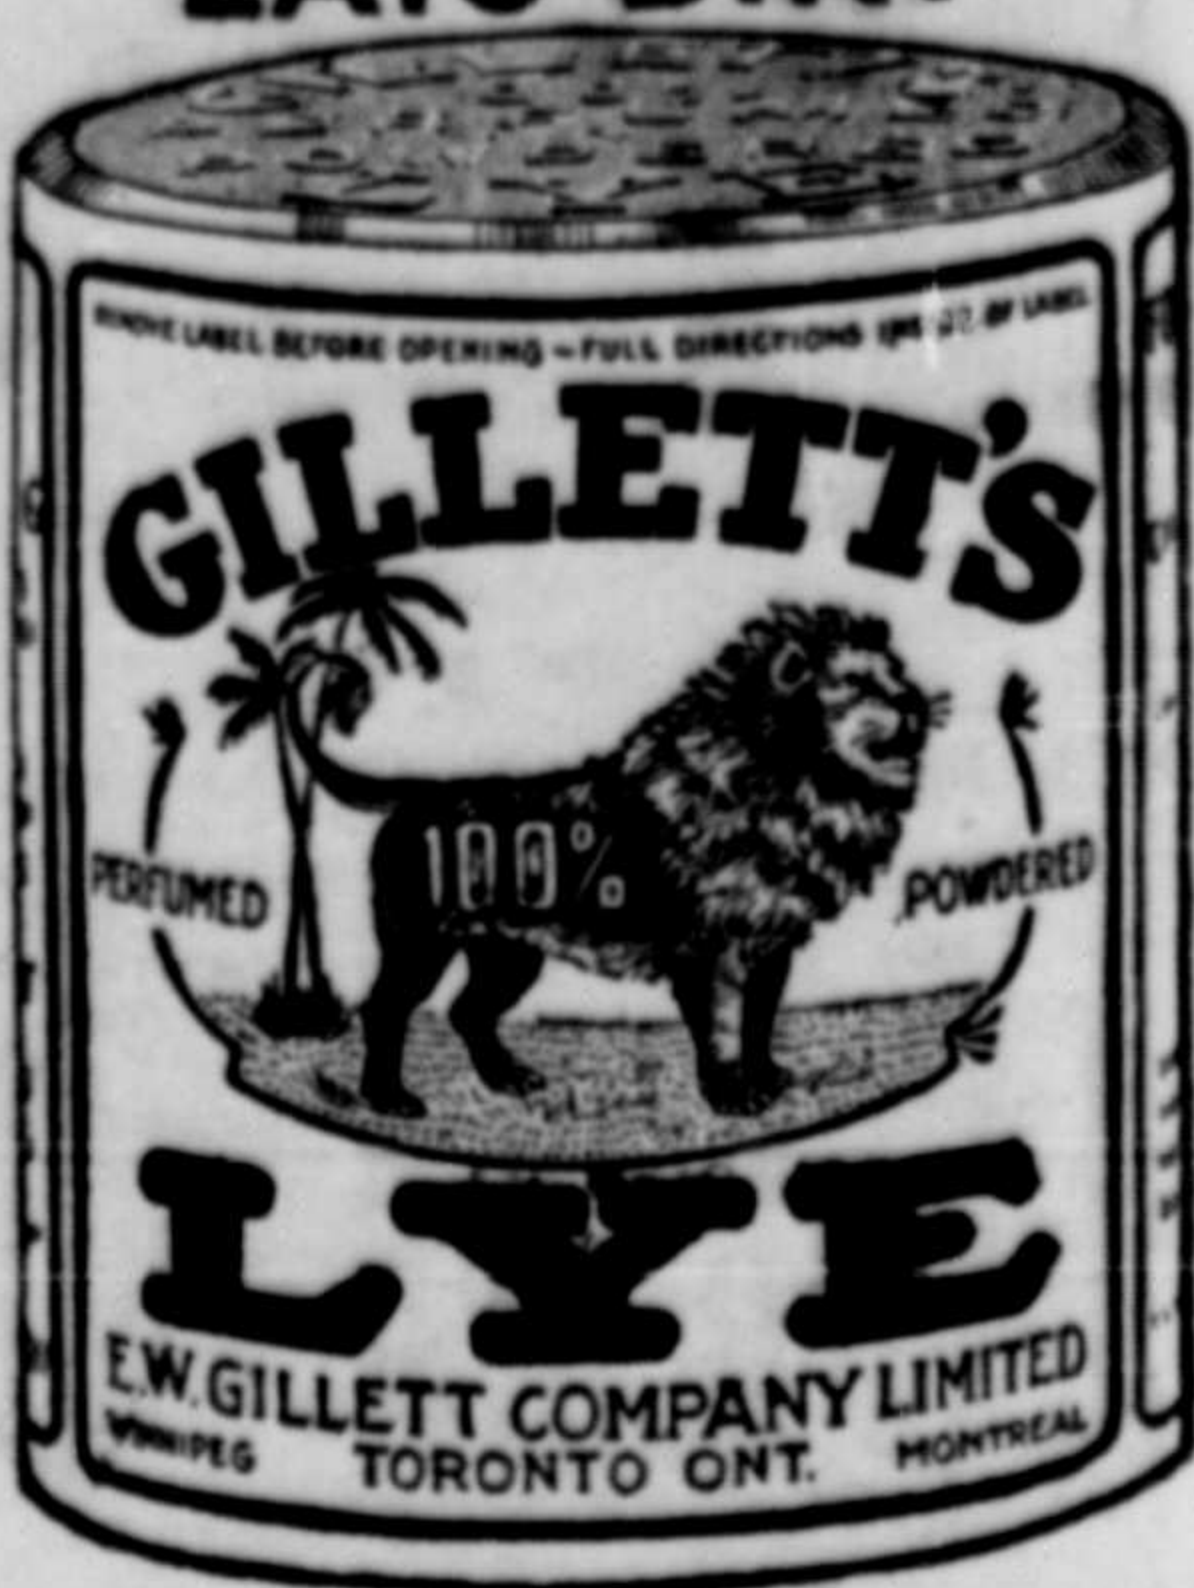

The only alternative offered for the ownership of Belgium is a "guaranteed free sea," which Great Britain cannot concede as he defines the expression. In any proper meaning of it Germany possesses now as much of the freedom of the sea as Great Britain does. Her ships in time of peace can go where they please throughout the while of the British Crown colonies and trade with their people on precisely the same terms as British ships enjoy. This is all Germany is entitled to, and it is all she is likely ever to get.

Dr. Dernburg raises the question whether the attack on Belgium was "a breach of international law." This purblindness is on his part a mere affectation. He knows perfectly well that it was one of the grossest and most iniquitous violations of the law of nations known to history; absolutely unprovoked and inexcusable. He knows that the violated treaty bound Belgium to defend her territory against both France and Germany, and that this was frankly admitted by both powers in 1870. In one sentence he says: "Germany does not believe in conquering and subjugating unwilling nations," and that "no such attempts have ever been permanently successful." In the very next sentence he says Germany has conquered Belgium "with untold sacrifice of blood and treasure," because "it offers to German trade the only outlet to an open sea." There is no German population in Belgium, but there are French and Flemish people in abundance. This lapse into frankness was fortunate in the interest of truth.

Germany has no terms of peace offered to her except by all three of the great allied powers, and she will have to ask them before she gets them. The financing of the war for years to come has been arranged. The armies are all ready, waiting only for an adequate supply of ammunition. The remainder of the war in the west will be an inferno of artillery fire. If Germany desires to escape the ordeal which is just beginning she can do so, but not on Dr. Dernburg's terms.—Toronto Globe.

SOLDIERS AT WILLOWS AIR THEIR COMPLAINTS

There have been rumors for some time that the soldiers at The Willows were not treated in a manner befitting men who had offered their lives to their country but the following letter, addressed to the Victoria Times seems to show at least one abuse of authority:

To the Editor—About twelve hundred men at The Willows who, though they are prohibited from saying or doing anything against the orders of their superiors, were but yesterday free citizens of the Dominion and as such entitled to their rights and a hearing as anyone.

Below is a copy of Regimental Order No. 270, 48th Battalion, C. E. F.: Stoppage of Pay: "Five dollars will be deducted from each man's pay on April 30th and May 10th, 1915. Such money will be carried on the pay list as credit, and should a man be discharged within six months money will be expended in buying civilian clothing; if not discharged, the money will be paid to men at the end of six months. If a soldier deserts this amount is forfeited."

Every man who has enlisted will obviously be able to go away in the clothes he came with—in the event of his being discharged—so the chief reason for above is said to be "as a security against desertion."

The government is apparently legitimate picking for agents and contractors, but when about 2 per cent of the men who enlist—with the full knowledge that the country's services may call for their lives—decide to desert and take a shirt or pair of government socks with them then it is time to dock ten dollars off every man in the battalion. Some, it is true, have joined because they needed a meal-ticket, but by far the greater majority left good jobs and comfortable homes in order to do the right thing by our country and we intend doing so to the bitter end, but we at least expect to be paid what is coming to us while doing it.

A private soldier is not permitted to ask questions, but we would like to know whether the head of the militia thinks that the oath of Canada's manhood is of less security than ten dollars or whether some of the "higher ups" need the use of about twelve thousand dollars for six months.

If you will kindly publish above it may help a little towards fighting what we consider a wrong, and also help the people of Victoria by having $12,000 spent in the city which the country would otherwise never see.

SOLDIER.

COSTS TO EAT HOLES IN TRUST CO. FUNDS

Vancouver, April 29.—That the bill of costs for the preliminaries in the liquidation of the Dominion Trust will be carried to an appeal is practically admitted by those who are in the know and interested in the curtailment of the expenses attaching to the proceedings. The expenses are much higher than was at first anticipated.

The cost of the staff employed during the first month of the provisional liquidation proceedings amounted to $12,000, this being reduced for the second month to $2,200, in addition to which were the salaries of the principals in the auditing of the affairs. These were an average salary of $25 per day, two of $20 per day and one of a modest $10 per day, a grand total of approximately $3,500 for the two months.

Thus the total works out at: Cost of staff for two months, $14,200; salaries of principals, $3,500; solicitors' bill of costs, $6,504; a grand total of $24,204.

HOW THE CANADIANS WON THEIR VICTORY

London, April 29.—The following account of the battle between Steenstroate and Langemarek, where the Canadians recovered their four lost guns from the Germans is given by a Canadian officer wounded in the fight: "Our boys were more than magnificent, but there are very many, some of them our best military men, who we will never see again. The shelling started soon after 1 o'clock. It was directed mainly at the French lines north of us, but huge shells came behind our trenches every few minutes. It was literally 'hell' for the poor French beggars, who were joined up to us. Our artillery was splendid, and caught the massed Germans with raking shrapnel fire. It was lucky for the French, but unlucky for us, for it drew a part of the attack on our front."

The Gas Bombs. "The Germans were mowed down by our machine guns, but they came solidly over two hundred yards and over our entanglements. Several mines were let off at just the right time by our engineers, but still they came on, yelling in English, taunts which were meant particularly for we Canadians. The ranks opened up close to our trenches and hand grenade men with special apparatus broke through with gas bombs. We had some shells of this kind earlier, and though we knew what to expect our men were sent staggering around almost in delirium for a few minutes. But they absolutely ran amuck among the Germans. We retired to another set of trenches and I was hit."

Hours on the Field. This officer's story can be continued by details gathered at the base. The Germans were themselves caught by the fumes of the gases which hovered over our left extreme trench and scores were killed. Many of our men were left on the field between the lines for several hours, but some managed to crawl back to their comrades in safety, despite the tremendous rifle fire. Many of the others were recovered when we drove the Germans back and recaptured the guns. There were thrilling scenes at the field hospital. Everywhere the bronze Maple Leaf badges were seen, there were many cheers for Canada and Canadian soldiers and the same greeting was given to the mangled men who were being brought down to the base hospitals. If reports are true, the Canadians saved the day.

GERMAN LOSSES TOTAL 2,750,000

Berlin, April 29.—Six Prussian casualty lists, just made public, show a total of 32,542 names in killed, wounded and missing. These lists bring the total for the Prussian army, since the beginning of the war, to 1,196,969. But that figure does not include the casualties of the Saxon, Bavarian or other armies, or of the naval division. It is estimated that the entire German losses since the war began have totalled 2,750,000. Cotton Hose will be sold at two pairs for 25 cents tomorrow at Jabour's Sale. 99-100

CHINESE MAKE AN APPEAL FOR JUSTICE

Honolulu, April 29.—President Wilson and the British Foreign Office in London were appealed to for assistance for the Chinese in resisting the demands of Japan in a prayer cabled by Chinese residents here after a mass-meeting.

The prayer asked that the governments of the United States and Great Britain use their good offices to assist the Chinese in preserving peace with honor. It adds that China is endeavoring to avoid a war which would be injurious to all and helpful to none. Urges Firmness. Tokio, April 29.—The firm attitude of the government in pressing its demands upon China is meeting with widespread approval in Japan and public opinion is manifesting itself with increasing force in this direction. Although Parliament is not in session a large number of the members of the national Legislature are lending active support to the government.

War Is Threatened. San Francisco, April 29—"War between China and Japan is a certainty unless China complies with the demands of the Imperial government of Japan," said Choye Goto, editor of a Tokio daily newspaper, the Miyako Shinbun, in an interview here. Beyond saying that Japan's demands are just, Goto declines to discuss them in detail. "If China refuses to accede to these demands, war is inevitable," said Goto. "Japan does not like to enter upon this war. Refusal to comply with her demands, however, will force her to resort to arms."

STEADY STREAM OF WOUNDED TO CANADA

Ottawa, April 29.—The Department of Militia has received three offers of splendid accommodations for Canada's convalescent soldiers whose injuries are of such a nature as to preclude the possibility of further service at the front. Sir William and Lady Mackenzie have offered the use of their summer home and grounds on the lake in Victoria County. Sir Rodolphe and Lady Forget have offered the use of their home and estate at Saint Irene, together with the hotel on the St. Lawrence River. D. Lorne McGibbon and Mrs. McGibbon have also offered their home at St. Agathe, with the hotel. The offers will be accepted. Steady Stream of Wounded. Canada's participation in the war having reached the stage when there is certain to be a steady homeward stream of invalid Canadians, the militia department is taking steps to look after wounded and sick soldiers on their arrival in Canada.

For that purpose a general committee of officers of the headquarters staff has been named. The members are Colonel Maunzel, Col. W. Halleck and Col. H. M. Jaques. In the case of soldiers having no home of their own, care will be taken to see that they suffer no inconvenience or discomfort on their arrival. Only 125 Are Left. Toronto, April 29.—Corporal Jerra has written to his wife that only 125 of the original Patricias are left of those who left in August 1,100 strong from Ottawa.

CETRIANNA HELD BY VILLA AUTHORITIES

San Francisco, April 29.—The Chamber of Commerce marine department has received a message that the British steel steamship Cetrianna is held by the Villa authorities at Ensenada, Lower California. The Cetrianna is a well known steamer on this coast and when she operated in the coast trade between Vancouver and Northern British Columbia ports she made frequent calls at Victoria. Along with the steamer Petriana, now the Gray, she flew the flag of the Northern Steamship Company. Last year she was disped of to Mexican parties and plied between San Francisco and the western seaboard of the southern republic. When the German squadron was active off this coast, it is alleged that the Cetrianna supplied the warships with coal and provisions.

Prints will be sold at 8c per yard and Gingham at 7 1-2c per yard at Jabour's Sale tomorrow. 99-100
