RUSSIANS FIGHT ANOTHER GREAT BATTLE

AUSTRO-GERMANS CLAIM VICTORY--ALLIES AGAIN ON OFFENSIVE IN GALLIPOLI

BIG BATTLE HAS BEEN FOUGHT BETWEEN HUNS AND RUSSIANS

AUSTRO-GERMANS CLAIM IMPORTANT VICTORY BUT PETROGRAD SAYS RUSSIAN LINES ARE STILL INTACT.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, May 5.—The claims of the Austro-Germans in their reported victory are grossly misrepresented according to the War Office reports. The Russian lines are still intact and are holding their positions firmly and gaining successes at various points.

What Berlin Says.

Berlin, May 5.—An important battle has been fought between the Austro-Germans and the Russians. The Austro-German army has broken through the Russian lines at the Donajec River and claim a great victory.

BERNBURG FAILED TO CONVINCE ROOSEVELT

New York, May 5.—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, the former colonial secretary for the German government, recently sought Col. Roosevelt to express his regret at the ex-President's public criticism of Germany's position in the war and tried unsuccessfully to convince the colonel that the friendship existing between him and the Kaiser should make his attitude a more friendly one. Luten Bonheur, ex-chairman of the progressive campaign committee in Nassau county, asserted here. Bonheur said he had heard a story from Col. Roosevelt.

"During the conversation Dr. Dernburg took exception to Col. Roosevelt's attitude toward Germany and asked him why it was," said Mr. Bonheur.

"Because I think the position Germany is wrong," replied the colonel.

"But you and the Kaiser are friends," interposed Dr. Dernburg. "I have great respect for the Kaiser and admiration for the German people; I object to the policy, that is all."

"Nevertheless, the Kaiser and the German government honored you on your visit there above any other citizen of a foreign country. The Emperor invited you to dinner," concluded Dr. Dernburg. "So did King George," replied Col. Roosevelt.

"And that concluded the interview," said Mr. Bonheur.

Miss Du Vernet was a passenger for the Interior this morning.

***** CRISIS IS REAL *****

Does it seem reasonable that the Ministerial Association of Vancouver should endorse an attack on the McBride government on the "say so" of somebody else. Doesn't it rather imply that they have examined the facts and that the crisis is very real? Rev. A. E. Cooke, speaking to the question, had the following to say: "God knows what further iniquity will be found upon proper investigation. Will any man with an ounce of brains or a grain of honesty, knowing these facts, think for a moment that we should keep quiet? Never in the history of humanity has there been such desperate need for the investigation of a government. They have stripped this country to the bone. If we allow them to get back into power for another five years they will pick the very marrow out. I appeal to the conscience of every man and woman to insist upon a thorough inquiry so that the public plunderers may be brought to justice and to see that they bring back to us and to future generations what is the rightful heritage of this country." William Manson is a good churchman. What has he got to say about this?

PRINCE RUPERT BOY DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED

In the latest casualty list under "dangerously wounded" appears the name of Private F. P. Darley, Dublin, Ireland.

Mr. Darley was on the staff of the Prince Rupert branch of the Bank of Commerce and left for Victoria with the first contingent from here, afterwards being transferred to the Princess Pats.

WIRES DOWN.

Both government and G. T. P. lines have been down most of the day and only a fraction of the usual war news has come through. Most of that contained herein is by courtesy of the P. R. Hotel, who got theirs through before the break.

SINKING OF THE CONCORD.

These three pictures, taken from H. M. S. Diana immediately after the crew had taken to the lifeboats following its torpedoing by a German submarine off Eastbourne, England. In the top picture a British torpedo boat is seen standing by and assisting the crew of the Concord. In the two lower pictures the Concord is seen taking her final plunge, bow first, to the bottom.

ITALY MAY ENTER WAR ON MAY 15

London, May 5.—The Morning Post correspondent telegraphs from Rome: "The date now set by persons who profess to know for Italy's declaration of war against Austria is May 15."

"Meanwhile several more classes have been called under arms, without any public notification of the fact. No enthusiasm, however, is manifested for war by the ordinary people. It is accepted as perhaps an inevitable necessity, for Italy cannot afford to remain isolated."

GOODS STOLEN.

The Guarantee tailor on Sixth Street, Mr. Levi, went up the line Saturday to look after some orders and when he came back he found that his assistant had "beat it" with five suit lengths of cloth and other incidentals. He reported the matter to the police but the man has not yet been located.

CANADIAN CASUALTIES HAVE REACHED 6,000

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, May 5.—The Canadian casualties in the battle of Langemark has reached almost 6,000. Between April 20 and 30, in all ranks below commissioned officers, there were 705 killed, 2,162 wounded and 2,536 missing. The commissioned officers already reported brings the list up to nearly 6,000.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

In this hot weather the Majestic Theatre is always cool and airy, thanks to a new system of ventilation recently put in. Tonight and tomorrow, the management announces a particularly fine six-reel program, including the seventh episode of "The Black Box"; a drama entitled "The Pursuit of Hate"; "Troublesome Pets," a great rural comedy; 4,000 feet of magnificent film depicting scenes at the Panama-Pacific exposition and the "Animated Weekly," showing the latest from the seat of war.

Friday and Saturday there will be a great seven-reel program.

ALLIES AGAIN ON OFFENSIVE AGAINST TURKS AT GALLIPOLI

STATEMENT MADE BY BRITISH WAR OFFICE—ADRIANOPOLE GARRISON CALLED TO ASSIST—POPULATION IS FLEEING TO ASIA MINOR.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 5.—The British Admiralty has issued a statement to the effect that the Allies are again on the offensive on the Gallipoli Peninsula. It says that the population is fleeing ahead of the allied army, many of them making their way to Asia Minor.

The garrison of Adrianople has been called to assist the weakening positions of the Turks.

***** A NAVAL POLICY *****

London, May 5.—J. C. Watson, for a short time Premier of Australia, the first labor leader to hold such a position, is in London.

Replying to the criticisms of Philip Snowden, the English Socialist, to the Australian labor attitude toward naval proposals, Mr. Watson says: "If we in Australia had followed the advice of the official class there would have been no Australian navy. From the beginning of federation our labor platform included the proposal of an Australian-owned navy."

"It took many years' propaganda before we convinced the people of its necessity. During that period the British authorities tried to convince us that a tribute disguised as a subsidy was a proper contribution to naval defence. "It was not until 1909 that the Admiralty gave countenance and assistance in the creation of a Pacific fleet."

EVERY MAN KILLED OR HURT.

London, May 5.—In a British eye-witness story of the latest stages of the battle of Ypres, mention is made of a machine detachment which kept their gun in action until all were dead or wounded. "The gun was stationed in an angle of the trench," says the eye-witness. "When the German rush took place, one man after another of the detachment was shot, but the gun still continued in action, although five bodies lay around it. When the sixth man took the place of his fallen comrades, of whom one was his brother, the Germans still pressing on, he waited until they were only a few yards away and then poured a stream of bullets on the advancing ranks, which broke and fell back, leaving rows of dead. He was then wounded himself."

A GERMAN VIEW OF THE BRITISH PEOPLE

A couple of years ago a German had the following to say about the English, which is very interesting today in view of the events of the last nine months:

"To live in England is the most charming country in the world, but I would not be an Englishman."

"You can do what you like, you can walk on the grass in the parks, and you can go on board one of your dreadnoughts. The authorities forbid nothing. They let you say what you like in Hyde Park, and print what you like in your papers. If you meet your King in the street and don't raise your hat not a policeman will interfere. In Germany these are all offences for which we are sent to prison."

"But you English are fools! "You care more for your football and your boxing than for your Empire. Your young men will take a lot of trouble to kick a ball a little bit more skilfully than somebody else, but they won't take the trouble to protect their Empire. You cannot get enough of even your territorial imitation soldiers."

"In Germany every man has to be a real soldier. We can at a moment's notice put nearly 3,000,000 fully-trained men into the field against our enemies. You have only 200,000 trained soldiers to protect your Empire all over (Continued on Page Four.)

The manufacturer is now able to sell his handkerchiefs made in Canada at six cents more for sixteen than he was before, without making it possible to save by importing them, yet he is only paying two-thirds of one cent more on the pound of cotton that went into the making of them, so that the manufacturer of cotton goods is now able to make a profit of five and a third cents more on a pound of his manufactured goods than he was before the new tariff went into effect. That is, he gets five and a half cents of what the people pay for war tax and pays two-thirds of a cent into the treasury.

True, all grades of manufactured cotton are not the same. In some cases the pound of cotton may not be worth more than fifty cents after it is manufactured, but in this case the companies have had very little work to do changing it from the raw to the manufactured product. In other cases, the cotton is worth more than in the case of the handkerchiefs. Taking it all round, the government has given the manufacturers power to force the people to increase their profits by several cents on every pound of cotton that they manufacture, while only two-thirds of a cent goes into the treasury for taxes on every pound.

Is it any wonder, under these circumstances, that the value of the stocks in all the cotton companies are soaring, or is it any wonder that the price of cottons is going up. But the group of owners of textile mills is only one of the many groups of wealthy men to whom power has been given by the new tariff under the name of war exigency to enrich themselves out of the people's so-called war burdens.—Ex.

Will things in Canada be better or worse after the war? In seeking the answer we must allow for a measure of faith, facts and optimism. If there had not been a war, Canada would have felt more keenly the pangs of the present readjustment of conditions. The war has let us down easily from the heights of speculation and rapid development. It has made us realize, sooner than otherwise we would have done, that not the illusive cream of so-called "easy money," but the actual production of wealth, makes sound conditions and healthy prosperity.

* * *

The orders placed in Canada for war materials by various governments have given business to factories which would have been operating at greatly reduced capacity instead of night and day as is the case at present. The making of shrapnel shell in Canada has brought orders valued at $80,000,000 to the country. Unemployment has been lessened greatly by military enlistment, by a well-defined movement of population from cities to farms, and by an exodus of skilled labor to Great Britain, where there is a strong demand for its services. The slump, if we may so term the results of our economic sinning, would have gone to a lower level, had not war checked its decline.

* * *

After the war, will the slump go to that low level? The Monetary Times thinks it will not. Industrial and other activities here stimulated by the war, the impetus given to agricultural production and similar factors are giving a fairly healthy period during which matters may be adjusted. Canada will soon be a robust man among nations. Many of the youthful follies have been pruned for good, and possibly for all time.—Monetary Times.

NO ALUM GERMAN IS STUNG BY HARVARD POEM

New York, May 3.—Prof. Kuno Meyer, of the University of Berlin, announces in a letter to The Times that he has resigned his candidacy as exchange professor at Harvard university because of an anti-German poem, entitled "Gott Mit Uns," printed in one of the student publications.

Prof. Meyer announces that he sent his resignation to President Lawrence Lowell, of Harvard, informing him that he considers the poem the crowning incident of a series of acts from Harvard offensive to the Germans, and that he indorses "the hope expressed by my brother, an honorary graduate of your university, that no German will again be found to accept the post of exchange professor at Harvard."

The poem won the prize in a competition instituted by the publication for poems on the war. Prof. Meyer was to have filled his term as exchange professor during the next college year.

"SUCH A LITTLE QUEEN" AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

A pretty and daintier little story than that of "Such a Little Queen," the five-reel Paramount feature to be shown at The Westholme tonight, would be hard to imagine. Little Mary Pickford as the Queen is simply a dream of feminine grace and loveliness. Mary is the Queen of Herzegovina but owing to a revolution in that fiery little kingdom is driven from her throne. She lands in New York penniless, and being too proud to live on the charity of others she goes to work. The King of Bosnia is in the same predicament and he, too, escapes to America and goes to work for a living. How these two find each other forms the substance of a most romantic and at the same time humorous story.

Next week, on Wednesday and Thursday, another great five-reel Paramount feature, "The Man on the Box," will be shown. This is pure and unadulterated comedy of the best kind and is sure to make a big hit.

For a comfortable room, come to the St. Elmo Hotel, 836 Second Avenue, near Eighth Street, Newly opened. Steam heat and hot and cold water in every room. Free baths. Rates reasonable.

CHATHAM, ONT., April 3rd. 1913.

"Some two years ago, I was a great sufferer from indigestion. One day my eye caught a billboard of "Fruit-a-tives" and I said to myself, "If Fruit-a-tives will build me up like that, it is good enough for me". I bought some. After taking these wonderful tablets for only three weeks, I found myself wonderfully improved. In a short time longer, I cured myself entirely. My case was no light one, either, Gas would often form in my stomach and I was in daily fear that it would get around my heart and kill me. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only remedy for Indigestion".

PRICE OF C. N. R. STOCK AND THE GOVT. SECURITY

Had there not been a war and had we all foreseen that a drastic readjustment of Canadian conditions was inevitable, interest now would be awakening in the Canadian Northern Railway Company's common stock. Only the Canadian Northern people and perhaps the Dominion government and maybe a few trusted carriers of secrets know when the stock will be placed on the market. Holders of the company's income charge debenture stock may convert their holdings into common stock on and after January 1st, 1916. The dividend on this convertible stock would have been payable on May 2nd next under the terms of the issue, if a surplus of net earnings had remained after the fixed charges had been met. The surplus not being in evidence, this convertible stock will not carry a dividend this year. The option to convert the stock into ordinary shares of the company has been extended for three years, that is, until January 1st, 1922.

The common stock position of the Canadian Northern Railway is an interesting one. When the Dominion government last year guaranteed $45,000,000 worth of Canadian Northern bonds, 330,000 fully paid shares of the par value of $100 each of the capital stock were transferred to Canada's Minister of Finance in trust for the government, the parliamentary resolution adding "such shares shall be the absolute property of His Majesty in right of the Dominion of Canada." Of course, King George does not bother his head with the intricacies of Canadian Northern finance. So, as a matter of fact, as a reward for guaranteeing the company's bonds, the government holds 40 per cent of the company's common stock.

When it comes to determine exactly who will experience the speculative thrill in connection with the marketing of Canadian Northern stock, the three principal figures are Sir William Mackenzie and Sir Donald Mann, who have $60,000,000 of the stock, and the Dominion government, which has $40,000,000. There are also a few millions of convertible debenture stock, which will enter the common stock market arena between January 1st, 1916, and January 1st, 1922.

No one has yet attempted to say what the common stock is worth, and no statement has been made as to when it will be in the international stock market. Sir William Mackenzie, in an interview at Toronto a year ago, said: "The Dominion of Canada will obtain $40,000,000 of common stock, which in time will be worth par or better; but I have nothing more to say about the matter now." The capital stock of the Canadian Northern is fixed at $100,000,000, subject to increases only by Parliament. In the meantime, there are other matters holding public attention.—Monetary Times.

There was a large list of passengers on board the Prince Rupert today, twenty of them going East on the train. There was also 200 tons of freight.

Mrs. Middy Fortier was an arrival on the Rupert today, after having spent several months in Southern California and at the Panama-Pacific exposition.

F. W. Hart, who has been visiting the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco, returned to the city today. Mr. Hart had the time of his life and wouldn't have missed it for anything. He says that there were thousands of people calling every day at the Grand Trunk headquarters asking for literature about Prince Rupert and that there was none to give. All the other cities were well represented, but the people didn't want their "dope." They insisted on inquiring about Prince Rupert.

ALICE ARM CLAIMS ARE BEING DEVELOPED

Ole Evindsen, who passed through the city a few days ago, reported that considerable work was being done on the Dolly Varden group of claims on the Kilsault River, Alice Arm. These claims were bonded by Mr. Evindsen to R. B. McInnis, of San Francisco, representing Chicago capitalists. Several tunnels and cross-cuts have been driven into the property and the ore is looking up splendidly.

The ore is very rich in native silver and it is predicted that this district will yet be known as the "Cobalt of Western Canada." The ore is very high grade and if it persists in quality it will be one of the richest mines in the West.

Mr. Evindsen, who located the property, has already received a substantial payment on the bond and his trip South is said to be of particular interest, for he expects to take back a brand new wife.

SEVERE SENTENCE.

There has been a great deal of petty stealing going on around the Hotel Prince Rupert of late and an ingenious amateur detective got busy and located some of the trouble. Through an aperture, he saw a man enter the toilet, cut a towel from the roller and pack it beneath his coat. When the detective appeared he saw the man throw the towel in a corner. The case was tried before Magistrate Carss today and the man was found guilty and sentenced to one hour in jail.

ANOTHER DRIVE ON WARSAW IS PLANNED

Petrograd, May 5.—Marshal Von Hindenberg is preparing for another drive on Warsaw.

Dispatches from the front state that the Germans are massing troops and artillery for another offensive between Narew and Bobar on the Niemen River. This covers 150 miles and the Teuton attacks are expected to start immediately.

Thousands of Slav troops are being rushed to the scene to reinforce the Russians threatened and the proposed German advance will meet with strong opposition.

Unless the German advance is checked the Teuton army soon will be in a position to co-operate with the German armies at Przasnysz. This can be accomplished by cutting the Russian line of communication running to Warsaw from the north.
