MICKY HOWELL BECOMES HERO--- SAVES WOMAN FROM SURE DEATH

FACES DEATH IN A LANDSLIDE AND RESCUES WIFE OF COMPANION--HOWELL RECEIVES BAD CUTS AND IS SEVERELY BRUISED.

The following letter, which was received today by The News is well worth publication. It speaks for itself:

U. S. Geological Survey,
Prince of Wales Island,
Hadley, Alaska.
Editor, The Daily News, Prince Rupert, B. C.:

Sir,—I have the pleasure to write you regarding a most courageous and reckless piece of heroism, enacted by my friend and colleague, Allan G. Howell, formerly a resident of Prince Rupert, and a member of your last year's baseball club.

"Mickey," as Mr. Howell is better known in the North, was performing his duties as transit man on the north end of Prince of Wales Isle, on Mt. Nickle, when without warning a rockslide started at a height of about 200 feet above him, and Mr. Howell, hearing the roar of the slide, started to run clear of its path, when he noticed Mrs. F. E. Brooks, my wife, coming up the hill, about 150 feet below the position of his transit. He turned back in face of almost certain death, but was to late to help my wife clear of the slide. In an instant he saw their plight, and threw my wife to the ground, behind a fallen tree, and then threw himself over her to protect her body from rushing rocks and earth which were tearing down the hill slope.

The rest of the party, including myself, had little hope of ever finding my wife or Mr. Howell alive, but Fate is a strange god. After searching and digging for a few minutes we found them both, my wife without a scratch and Mr. Howell, his head badly cut and his body horribly bruised, but still wearing a smile and a "Thanks, fellows, for digging us out," started for camp as though his heroic action was an everyday affair.

I believe such deeds of heroism should be given all the publicity possible and I have taken steps to have this act of heroism put before the board of directors of the Carnegie Hero Fund.

Mr. Howell is a Detroit, Michigan, boy, and in the years that I have known him, has always been a reckless daredevil.

Hoping you will publish account of Mr. Howell's action, so as his many Prince Rupert friends will hear of his bravery, I thank you for your valued attention, and beg to remain,

Yours respectfully,
F. E. BROOKS, C. E.,
Engineer in Charge.

SUNK OFF COAST OF IRELAND AT 2 O'CLOCK TODAY --- MANY PROMINENT AMERICANS ABOARD, WHO WERE WARNED OF THE DISASTER

GOVT. WILL OPERATE EASTERN END G. T. P.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Ottawa, May 7.—The Department of Railways announces that as the Grand Trunk Pacific has declined to take over, on a lease the government will take over the operation of the eastern division of the G. T. P. between Superior Junction and Fort William, including the terminals at the latter place. The jurisdiction of the general officers of the Canadian government railway will extend over their new lines. The G. T. P. employees on the line between Fort William and Winnipeg will be absorbed into the government railway staff, which has, under an arrangement with the railway department, been operating about 300 miles east and west of Cochrane for the contractors.

For the past year the I. C. R. has been operating the line between Moncton and Levis. A quantity of rolling stock, including fifteen locomotives, has left Moncton, and will be taken across the river at Quebec by the N. T. R. ferry "Leonard." The officials who will inaugurate the service also have left Moncton for points along the N. T. R. line.

Mr. Merchant, have you got that financial statement or balance sheet drawn up yet? If not, Phone 98. 102-107

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, May 7.—The Cunard liner Lusitania, which sailed from New York on May 1, was torpedoed at 2 o'clock this afternoon ten miles off Old Head of Kinsale, Ireland.

One thousand two hundred and fifty-three passengers, and a crew of about 700, are believed all saved. All the lifeboats were over the side before the vessel sank.

The Admiralty at Queenstown despatched all possible assistance. Twenty vessels of all classes are engaged in the work of rescue.

The Lusitania was built at Glasgow in 1906 and had a gross tonnage of 32,500. Her captain was W. T. Turner. Before leaving New York an advertisement appeared in the papers warning the passengers of the danger of the trip. Forty prominent Americans had received anonymous warnings.

The Lusitania was flying the American flag when she was torpedoed for the protection of her American passengers.

The Lusitania was a British ship, owned by the Cunard Line. Her tonnage was 32,500 and her horsepower 70,000. Her extreme length was 790 feet and her beam 88 feet. Her speed was about 32 miles per hour. She was a sister ship to the Mauretania and held the Atlantic record in 1907.

Before sailing scores of passengers received telegrams telling them not to sail, as the German submarines were waiting for her. One of the Vanderbilts received a wire as he was walking up the gangplank and as soon as he read it he tore it up. Notices were posted on the ship to the effect that her great speed put her beyond the reach of the submarines.

Earlier reports that she was beached have proven entirely unfounded.

Earlier Reports.

London, May 7.—The Lusitania was sunk at 2:33 this afternoon off Old Kinsale Head, south coast of Ireland.

New York, May 7.—The Cunard Steamship Company announced today that it had received from its agents in England unconfirmed reports that the steamship Lusitania had been torpedoed off the coast of Ireland. Assistance has been sent and all passengers are believed safe.

Mr. Lloyd George's intimation that British preparations for the expulsion of the German invaders from northern France and Belgium are not yet complete will prove a disappointment to many who hoped that the war would be brought to a triumphant end early in the summer.

The public has no adequate conception of the strain under which the arsenals and arms factories of Great Britain have been working during the past nine months. It is stated that three million men have offered for service. In August last, it is believed, there were not a million military rifles in the United Kingdom.

If the manufacture of rifles and small arms ammunition on an adequate scale has proved a difficult task the problem of providing artillery must have been vastly more serious. Great guns cannot be forged and bored and finished in a few days. The larger weapons involve weeks and months of labor by skilled artisans. Thousands of guns ranging in calibre from three inches up to the tremendous fifteen-inch weapons for the new super-dreadnoughts have been turned out since the war began.

Germany had vast accumulations of rifles, small arms ammunition, artillery and projectiles when she declared war. She was "stocked up." Britain went into battle bare of war material and without even the tools to produce large quantities in a short time.

GERMANS INSULTED AMERICAN LADY

London, May 7.—The Daily Mail quotes Mary Boyle O'Reilly, social worker and daughter of the late John Boyle O'Reilly, the Irish-American writer, as saying that she was robbed by German officials at Warnemuende, while on her way from Copenhagen to The Hague to report the Women's Peace Congress for the English-speaking people, and was ordered excluded from Germany.

"I then had to submit to a brutal personal search," she continued. "My dresses and even the boots I was wearing were ripped open, and I was ordered to return to the boat. My passport was marked, 'Forbidden to Enter Germany.'"

"While I was in the boat an examining officer asked me, 'Do you wish the Fatherland to be victorious?' I replied, 'No.' After further questions he said: 'The Americans are sending England the ammunition without which the English could not beat us. Damn the Americans.'"

Miss O'Reilly says the Women's Peace Congress was packed by the Germans, who, she says, organized it.

A FOUR-YEAR WAR?

London, May 7.—A telegram to The Evening News from Copenhagen quotes the German Counsellor of State, Herr Gottschalk, as saying that systematic efforts were being inaugurated in Germany for the purchase of sufficient foodstuffs for a four-years' supply. This is being done, it is said, on instructions to the German Chamber of Commerce from Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the Imperial Chancellor.

Herr Gottschalk is on his way to Sweden and Norway to organize a system for making these purchases.

BRITAIN MAY BEGIN USE OF GAS IN WAR

London, May 7.—Speaking in the House of Commons, H. J. Tennant, parliamentary secretary of the War Office, said Great Britain had under consideration the question of "employing similar expedients" against the use by German troops on the battlefield of asphyxiating gases.

The speaker admitted that as far back as April 6 the officer who is writing from the British front under the name of "Eye-Witness" had said the Germans were preparing for this method of attack, but notwithstanding such rumors the British authorities found it hard to believe that any signatory to The Hague convention could violate its fundamental principles and adopt methods which might have such a far-reaching effect in modern warfare.

AFRAID SHE WAS DYING

Suffered Terribly Until She Took "Fruit-a-tives"

ST. JEAN DE MATHA, JAN. 27th, 1914.
 "After suffering for a long time with Dyspepsia, I have been cured by "Fruit-a-tives". I suffered so much that I would not dare eat for I was afraid of dying. Five years ago, I received samples of "Fruit-a-tives". I did not wish to try them for I had little confidence in them but, seeing my husband's anxiety, I decided to do so and at once I felt relief. Then I sent for three boxes and I kept improving until I was cured. While sick, I lost several pounds, but after taking "Fruit-a-tives", I quickly regained what I had lost. Now I eat, sleep and digest well—in a word, I am completely cured, thanks to "Fruit-a-tives".

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT OPPOSES ELECITON

Winnipeg, May 7.—The Free Press' Sherbrooke, Que., correspondent says: "At a Conservative meeting Saturday, Hon. C. J. Doherty said the government was preparing for a general election. The persistent opposition of the Governor General to sign the order for dissolution of Parliament while the country was at war was the greatest obstacle in the way of the government. The government has spent $100,000,000 and another $100,000,000 was to be spent, and the government wanted to know if the people were satisfied with its acts. An appeal to the electorate was therefore necessary."

ELECTION DURING WAR STILL IN BALANCE

Ottawa, May 7.—The Morning Citizen is inclined to the view that there will be no definite decision in regard to an election before next week. The Citizen points out that only thirty days is required between dissolution and polling day and that if the voting is to take place towards the end of June there is no reason why a decision should be reached at once. J. S. Ewart, K. C., has addressed an open letter to the Prime Minister objecting to an election. Mr. Ewart in his letter says that no British statesman would under conditions existing today do what he says Premier Borden is being urged to do. Mr. Ewart states that in pledging Canada to participation in a gigantic war, the government acted without mandate and that for the immediate submission of its action to the people something of a precedent could have been cited. He maintains, however, that as the people are unanimous in their support of the Motherland the time when such an appeal should be taken has gone by.

DERNBURG DEFENDS USE OF POISONOUS BOMBS

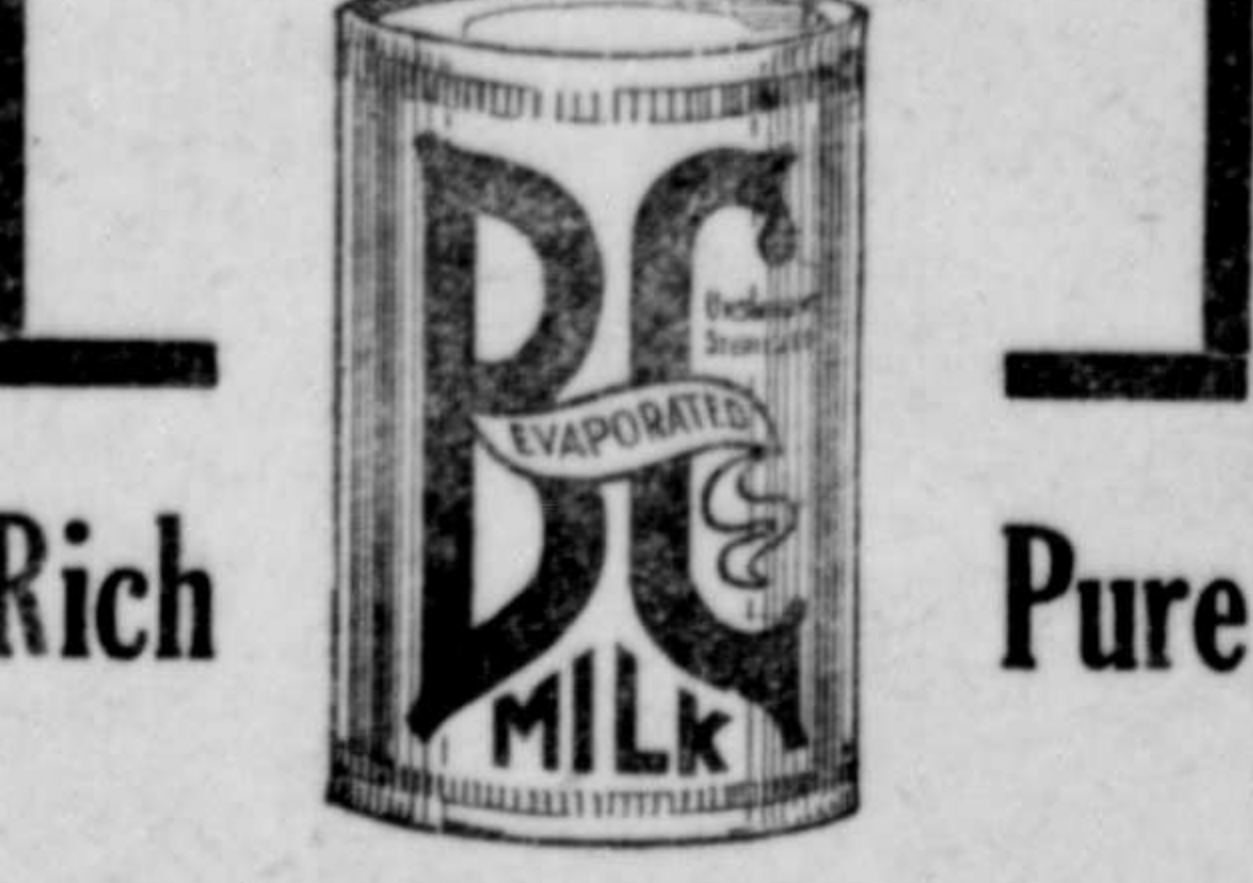

New York, May 7.—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, former Colonial Secretary of the German Empire, issued a statement relating to the use of asphyxiating gases by the Germans in trench warfare. "Dr. Dernburg asserted that when there was published last November reports of a French invention for the purpose of asphyxiating enemies by nauseating gases the ending of the war in favor of the Allies was predicted "with a great deal of satisfaction" by the American press.
 "But as soon as the Germans used the same kind of weapon in the battles around Ypres the denunciation of Germany for following the practice of her adversaries has been rampant, and the most invidious sort of epithets has been employed."
 This was cited as an illustration of the reason why German sympathizers in America consider the United States press unfair and unneutral.

FREE TRIP TO BRITAIN FOR OVERSEAS WORKMEN

London, May 7.—Free trips to Britain and return are foreshadowed for skilled workmen in the United States and in the colonies of Great Britain who are willing to fill the shortage among the armament firms in the British Isles.
 Francis D. Acland, Financial Secretary of the Treasury, announced in the House of Commons that the government was taking steps to obtain such help in the production of munitions of war. Free transportation would be arranged, he said, if suitable labor were discovered without displacing the men already effectively engaged in those countries.

The photo shows the sea-battered condition of the former palatial passenger liner of 21,000 tons. She was at sea 255 days and sank fourteen small ships. Inset is picture of Commander Thierfelder taken on the deck of the raider.

ANOTHER FIRE DID DAMAGE LAST NIGHT

Another fire broke out last night in a building on Second Avenue, a little beyond Seventh Street, or almost opposite the Central Hotel.

Harry Hamblin was coming by the place about 10 o'clock and noticed a small fire in the rear of the vacant store. At the time, the fire appeared to be of small proportions. He rushed to the phone and called the fire department, which responded in quick order. Even in this short time, however, the fire had gained great headway and the building was almost filled with flames.

The fire department soon got the flames in the store under control, only to find out that the fire had reached up into the ceiling next the roof and it was here that the fight began. There being no passageway into this part of the building, it was not only difficult to get at the fire, but even to find out where it existed. The fire fighting was continued for several hours before it was finally subdued.

The upper part of the building is accordingly all burned up and the lower part either badly gutted with fire or damaged by the fire-fighting.

One part of the building was occupied by a grocery store run by Mr. Lalonde. Ample time was afforded, however to remove all the goods, which were stored in the Huston Cafe.

The indications are that the fire was of an incendiary nature but no clue of the guilty party is to be had.

Considerable looting is also believed to have taken place. The police arrested one man who was carrying away a quantity of coffee and enamelware. He will be charged with theft.

The building in question was built by a local syndicate and is believed to be fully insured.

ANOTHER AMERICAN FISHING BOAT ARRIVES

The American independent fishing boats are coming thick and fast these days. Besides the two that arrived yesterday, the Helgeland arrived today, and reported having passed another, the Agnew, on the way in.

Captain Edwards, who is in charge of the Helgeland, has previously made Seattle his headquarters and this is his first trip to Prince Rupert. Asked whether he intended to make this city his headquarters hereafter, he replied, with a twinkle in his eye, that "it all depends," which, of course, means that the captain is a shrewd business head and that he intends to keep the local buyers guessing.

The Helgeland brought in a catch of 30,000 pounds, although its capacity is considerably over that.

IN THE RING.

New York, May 6.—Al Reich, the New York heavyweight aspirant, was knocked out in the third round last night by Jim Coffey, the Dublin Giant.

PRINCE RUPERT SAILS.

The Prince Rupert sailed for the south this morning with a large list of passengers. The Prince George left Vancouver last night and will arrive here tomorrow morning, leaving again for the south on Monday morning. After the first of June, when the tri-weekly service begins, the steamers will leave here a few hours after arriving in the morning.

Among those going south this morning were the following: C. Abram, J. King, W. Johnson, W. L. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Beveridge, W. Mairs, J. L. Leason, C. R. Garrett, J. G. Millichamp, Mrs. M. H. Donald, T. Mahoney, J. W. McBernie, Miss Mohr, Mrs. Mohr, Miss Gillespie, Miss MacLean, Mr. and Mrs. Norman, Mrs. C. H. Elkins, Miss Kendall, J. C. McLennan, A. Peterson, S. F. Macey, T. McKenzie, A. G. Snelling, J. C. Garrigan, Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson, T. J. Burton, Mrs. Burton, E. S. Stillwell and Mrs. J. Sweeder.

Ben Self brought in a big basket of speckled beauties last night from Mile 46. The largest, a Dolly Varden, measured thirty inches, and took twenty minutes to land. Ben must be some angler.

Alderman Beveridge and Mrs. Beveridge were passengers south on the Prince Rupert this morning.

UNITED STATES IS AWAITING REPORT

Washington, May 7.—Pending an official investigation of the circumstances of the destroying of the American steamer Gulflight in the English Channel, the United States government will defer diplomatic representations, as well as any pronouncement of policy.

Two messages have been received from American Consul Stephens at Plymouth, Eng., reporting that the Gulflight was torpedoed off the Scilly Islands Saturday, and that the captain died of heart failure and two members of the crew were drowned.

Secretary Bryan said he would ask for a thorough and complete report from the American consul, and would direct Ambassador Gerard at Berlin to make similar inquiry of the German government for such facts as it might have on the subject. The United States may demand an indemnity.
