REPORT THAT ITALY HAS DECLARED WAR

WASHINGTON NONCOMMITAL ABOUT LOSS ON LUSITANIA--SHIP WAS NOT ARMED

ITALY WILL ENTER THE FIGHT TO ANNEX TURKISH ISLANDS

NEWS OF ITALY DECLARING WAR PREMATURE — SINKING OF LUSITANIA GAVE UNFAVORABLE IMPRESSION IN ITALY AGAINST GERMANY.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Rome, May 8.—Italy has decided to proclaim the annexation of Turkish islands in the Aegean which is equivalent to a declaration of war against Turkey. This will cause the Teutonic alliance to intervene.

The sinking of the Lusitania caused a most unfavorable impression here against Germany.

Edmonton Rumor.
Edmonton, May 8.—The local press have issued an extra containing the news that Italy has declared war on Austria.

New York Has It.
New York, May 8.—The New York Board of Trade has received word that Italy has declared war on Austria as a result of the sinking of the Lusitania and the demands of Italy.

Frisco Papers.
San Francisco, May 8.—The above reports, while by no means authentic, indicate at least that the two countries, Italian and American, are strained because of the sinking of the Lusitania. Italian newspapers published in San Francisco which arrived here today contain the interesting information that an agreement

LUCAS SUES MINISTERIAL UNION

Vancouver, B. C., May 8.—Alex. M. Lucas, a member of the Ministerial Union, has issued a writ against members of the union on account of the attack made on him in the "Daily News." It is alleged in that writ that Lucas made profit to the extent of $10,000 in a time when he was assessor in the city.

Members of the union in Vancouver are Reverends G. A. Coake, Stillman, Henderson, and O'Donnell. The amount of the damages is not known.

BASEBALL

(Special to The Daily News.)
Following is the result of today's games in the Northern League:
Vancouver, 2; Spokane, 1.
Portland, 3; Tacoma, 2.
Seattle, 3; Seattle, 4.
Seattle is now in the lead.

PROMINENT AMERICANS LOSE LIVES BY THE SINKING OF THE LUSITANIA

ELBERT HUBBARD AND VANDERBILT AMONG MISSING---TORONTO MAN SAW SUBMARINE BEFORE FIRING SHOT---MANY NEVER REACHED SHIP'S DECK

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, May 8.—The Admiralty estimates that 1,450 lost their lives on the Lusitania. The known survivors are 703 out of 2,160 souls. Of 188 Americans, only 14 are reported saved.

One of the Vanderbilts, Elbert Hubbard, Charles Klein, Herbert Stone (of the Associated Press), Charles Frohman and Justus Miles Foreman are all missing. Captain Turner, of the Lusitania, was saved.

Germans Rejoice.
The Berlin press hails the deed of the sinking of the Lusitania in colossal type as a triumph of the German policy.

The Admiralty denies the report of the German embassy that the Lusitania was armed.

Rescue boats are arriving at Queenstown with the bodies. Hundreds are laid on the wharf for identification. The hospitals are full, as many of the rescued were wounded by the explosion.

The survivors praise the ship's officers. Hundreds of passengers were at dinner and never reached the deck, being stunned by the explosion. Others stayed aboard, thinking the vessel would float.

Saw Submarine.
Vancouver, May 8.—Ernest Cowper, a Toronto newspaper man, and a brother of J. S. Cowper, of Vancouver, was a passenger on board the S.S. Lusitania, and is among the saved. He was interviewed at Queenstown after landing and says that he saw the submarine rise out of the water about a thousand yards away and discharge two torpedoes at the ship. One of the torpedoes hit her on the bow and the other in the engine room. The authorities believe from the damage done that specially powerful torpedoes were used.

Had Little Time.
The torpedoes, the survivors say, were fired while the passengers were at lunch. The boats on the ship were immediately ordered out. The ship, however, listed badly almost immediately.

Two boats were put into the water and between 400 and 500 passengers entered them. Within fifteen minutes from the time the ship was hit she sank.

Died After Landing.
Of the survivors who have been

ROOSEVELT ATTACKS GERMANY--SAYS STATES MUST FIGHT NOW

CALLS THIS PIRACY ON A VAST SCALE — KIND OF WARFARE THAT DESTROYED LOUVAIN — SELF-RESPECT WILL MAKE STATES FIGHT.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Syracuse, N. Y., May 8.—Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt, who is here, has expressed himself in no uncertain way on the sinking of the Lusitania. He says it "represents piracy on a vast scale. This is the kind of warfare which destroyed Louvain and Dinant and which caused the deaths of hundreds of women and children in Belgium. It is warfare against our innocent fellow-countrymen and women. It is inconceivable now that we can refrain from taking action. We owe it not only to humanity but to our national self-respect."

PUBLICITY WOULD GET MORE FISHING BOATS

Captain Edwards, of the fishing boat Helgeland, is well pleased with his trip to Prince Rupert. He disposed of his catch yesterday to the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company at 4 1-2 and 2 1-4 cents.

Captain Edwards says that the American fishermen do not yet understand that the new order-in-council enables them to sell their fish here and get their money without the cumbersome routine of shipping in bond. It appears that some interested parties continue to spread conflicting reports about the conditions. Captain Edwards had heard many contradictory statements and when he made for this port yesterday he was not by any means sure that he could dispose of his catch but decided to make the experiment at any rate. Naturally, he will tell all his friends about it and he is determined to keep on coming here as long as the buyers continue to treat him as they did this trip.

Captain Edwards says that there is no doubt but that a great many of the Seattle boats would come here if the advantages were made clear to them. He thinks there should be more publicity given to it, particularly by getting into touch with the Pacific Coast Schooner Owners' Association of Seattle. When it comes through other channels it is liable to be contaminated.

The captain leaves again for the banks this evening, after having his engine overhauled, and hopes to be back within a couple of weeks with another catch.

Mr. Merchant, have you got that financial statement or balance sheet drawn up yet? If not, Phone 98. 102-107

SALE OF WORK AT ST. PETER'S, SEAL COVE

The ladies of Seal Cove are hoping for fine weather and a large attendance of town visitors at their annual sale of work next Wednesday, May 12. The sale is for the benefit of St. Peter's Church building fund and will be opened by Mrs. G. A. Rix at 3 p. m. There will be work, home-cooking, fancy and candy stalls to attract the keen buyer. Why not take the walk to Seal Cove and look in; it will be time well spent.

A concert with a first-class program has been arranged to commence at 8 p. m. the same evening, and no doubt many will stay on for this, admission to which is 25 cents.

The ladies of Seal Cove are holding a sale of work in St. Peter's Church on May 12th, at 3 p. m., in aid of the building fund. Everything attractive on sale and a splendid concert in the evening. 108-109

"News" Changes Hands

The present management of The Daily News ceases with this issue. The News has again changed hands and enters on another phase of its existence. During the incumbence of the present editor The News has always stood for something definite and positive. It would be too much to expect that everybody would be pleased for there is unanimity only with the dead. To his friends the editor extends his thanks for their encouragement and assistance and if there is anybody foolish enough to be an enemy all that is necessary to is to say that he is sorry for them. In the meantime, good luck to the new owners.

The new world has now their first taste of Germany's lawlessness. The torpedoing of coasting ships has been going on for some time and helpless neutrals were made to suffer on every hand. Now, however, a great and powerful state that imagined all the time that their neutrality was their safety has had the horrors of war thrust right into their midst by the sinking of the Lusitania. It appears that the submariners waited till the ship was returning crowded with Americans and then they sent her to the bottom without a moment's warning. With the terrible loss of life and the lawlessness and savagery of the whole affair and considering, too, that she carried the American flag it is difficult to see how Uncle Sam can further preserve his neutrality.

The sinking of the Lusitania is the worst blow so far of the submarine blockade. It was generally conceded that a swift boat like this was immune from their attacks but it now appears that there is always a danger and that the greatest amount of care still leaves them liable to a chance shot. The value of the Lusitania would be around three or four million dollars and her cargo and the personal effects of her passengers would considerably swell that sum, to say nothing about the terrible loss of life. Serious as the accident is, however, it will have no effect whatever on the course of the war except an impetus to recruiting and the Germans are only wasting energy and at the same time making enemies for themselves in every country in the world, a condition that she will find it hard to shake from her shoulders even after the war is over.

A great deal has been said of late about the way in which the war has made us callous to the sufferings of humanity and that the notice of ten thousand killed in battle is regarded as of ordinary occurrence. No doubt this is true with regard to those killed on the field of battle and if it were not for this it would be impossible to get men to fight. But that is only because war has been professionalized and the average man seems to look on it as a great big football match, hardly realizing that the men are really killed at all. The sinking of the Lusitania, however, is in a different class and the excitement created thereby seems to rival even that of the Titanic. Perhaps the fact that women and children are among the victims makes the difference. At any rate, it appears that the heart of humanity hasn't changed much.

It must strike the casual observer as very strange that the city should be filling up a high dump in a lane between Second and Third Avenues at McBride Street when the portion of McBride south of Third Avenue is still unfinished. Ordinary business would lead one to complete first the main streets in order to make as good a showing as possible for the town. But the casual observer does not know that a party to whom the Mayor is very hostile owns property adjoining the street in question, which explains everything. That side of McBride street, too, is the natural place for the pedestrian travel but the Mayor went out of his way to put the walk across to the other side of the street.

Of course, as there is no prospect of using this property for some time to come, it happens that the owner is not worrying about the matter except that he is already paying for improvements that he cannot secure. But the whole transaction throws a fresh light on the way the Mayor insists on doing business. Most people who dabble in politics are willing to bury the hatchet as soon as their victory has been assured but the Mayor apparently insists on cherishing eternal hate and illwill. It appears that he has not yet found out that hate is a boomerang and that every time he tries to injure somebody else he is thereby turning the dagger on himself. This aspect of nature is rather startling but every word of it is true.

GREAT SHOW AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic tonight presents the finest "Wild West" show ever seen in Prince Rupert. Most folks have grown rather tired of the usual cowboy pictures, but "In the Days of the Thundering Herd" is something very much better than the usual.

There are wonderful photos of rounding up buffalo herds as it was done of yore; there are most realistic views of warfare with the Indians, and of course a delightful love story threading its adventurous way.

Two comedies of real worth complete one of the finest programs ever screened.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Hundreds of People Have Found "Fruit-a-tives" Their Only Help

READ THIS LETTER

Superintendent of Sunday School in Toronto Tells How He Cured Himself of Chronic Rheumatism After Suffering for Years.

DOVERCOURT ROAD, Oct., 1st, 1913.

For a long time, I have thought of writing you regarding what I term a most remarkable cure effected by your "Fruit-a-tives". I suffered from rheumatism, especially in my hands, and have spent a lot of money without any good results. I have taken "Fruit-a-tives" for 18 months now, and am pleased to tell you that I am cured. The enlargement has not left my hands and perhaps never will, but the stiffness is all gone and I can do any kind of work. I have gained 35 pounds in 18 months."

R. A. WAUGH

Rheumatism is no longer the dreaded disease it once was. Rheumatism is no longer one of the "incurable cases". "Fruit-a-tives" has proved marvellous powers over Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago—in fact, all such diseases which arise from derangement of stomach, bowels, kidneys or skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, or sent postpaid on receipt of 25c by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

BOARD OF TRADE DON'T WANT ELECTION

Montreal, May 7.—The council of the local Board of Trade has passed a resolution opposing a general election and deprecating the discussion of a possible election "at this unprecedented time of stress" and declaring:

"The political strife inseparable from the holding of a general election might at this time occasion such division of opinion as would seriously interfere with the provisions of assistance that all Canadians are anxious to give toward securing victory for the Empire and its allies, and further, that the business of the country, now showing signs of recovery from a period of depression would receive a serious setback by the holding of a general election."

SASK. CONSERVATIVES' POLICY ON TEMPERANCE

Moose Jaw, April 27.—At the Moose Jaw city Conservative convention this evening, W. B. Willoughby, K. C., the party leader, who was again nominated for the Legislature, set forth the Conservative policy on the liquor question. It provides for the taking of a plebiscite on provincial prohibition at the first municipal election following the next provincial election.

If the referendum be adopted, then the Conservative party pledges itself to introduce total prohibition within one year after the taking of the vote. In the event of the referendum not carrying, the liquor traffic is to be placed under the control of an independent commission. Should total prohibition become law, the municipalities will be given power to erect or purchase such buildings as may be deemed necessary for the accommodation of travelers.

CALGARY WORKINGMEN OPPOSE PROHIBITION

Calgary, May 7.—By an overwhelming vote, the Trades and Labor Council, at their last meeting, decided to fight prohibition in the province.

Twenty-four unions, representing 3,200 workers, supported the Brewery Workers Union in its resolution opposing prohibitory legislation, and pledging the council to work against it, while only two locals, representing between 250 and 300 voters, voted in favor of a "dry" Alberta.

The decision was not altogether unexpected. The division was taken after a debate in which both sides spoke at length and received an attentive hearing. Some of the speeches showed that the subject had been well and deeply studied from all angles.

The following was the resolution originally submitted by the Brewery Workers, which, after going the rounds of the union, received general endorsement:

Will Upset Economic Conditions.
"Whereas, the proposed prohibitory legislation will upset the economic existence of thousands of workers in the province, but will not prevent the drinker from obtaining alcoholic liquor;

"And, whereas, thousands of Alberta voters will be at the seat of war in Europe in July and so be deprived of a voice in the matter;

"And, whereas, the attitude of a large number of the advocates of prohibition is one of opposition to organized labor;

"And, whereas, it has been found in those parts of Canada which are now dry lower wages prevail than in those parts which have licensing laws:

"Be it resolved, that this council goes on record as being opposed to the prohibitory legislation, and pledges itself to work against the same."

What action will now be taken by the council remains to be seen. That it will be followed by action is implied in the wording of the resolution, which pledges the council to work against the proposed legislation.

AMBASSADOR GERARD SECURES A PROMISE CONCERNING CAPTIVES

London, May 8.—A British announcement issued says Germany is arranging through the American ambassador to accord exactly similar treatment to the British officers who have been especially confined in Germany as that given by Great Britain to German submarine prisoners.

W. H. Page, the American ambassador here, communicated to the Foreign Office a telegram from James W. Gerard, the American ambassador in Berlin, on the treatment of British officers under arrest in Germany as a reprisal measure for the treatment of German submarine prisoners by Great Britain, the text of which says:

"Each officer is in a clean cell and is allowed baths, books and packages. They are permitted to smoke and have one hour of exercise in the morning and another hour of exercise in the evening in the prison yard. During these exercise hours they can talk together. Their food is good. They have no complaints to make except that they are so arrested. The German government will follow exactly the treatment given its submarine crews. These officers will again be treated like other prisoners of war the instant the submarine crews are so treated in England."

TOO MUCH GAMBLING GOING ON IN CLUBS

The Attorney General will be asked by the board to make the chief of police a justice of the peace in order that warrants and summonses may be taken out without delay.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade took place last night in their rooms on Second Avenue.

Among other businesses discussed it was decided to press upon the government the making of this the home port for the S.S. Estevan. She now makes Victoria her home port, while most of her duty is in the North.

The proposals of the board to co-operate with the Northern B. C. Agricultural Association was accepted by that body and Mr. Wright, the commissioner, will attend to both concerns.

Financial matters are pressing upon the board and it was decided to approach the City Council for assistance.

It was also decided to continue the luncheons on board the G. T. P. boats if arrangements could be satisfactorily arranged.

St. John Ambulance Association was granted the use of the board's rooms for their meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gilmore left last night on the Maquinna on a visit to the Panama-Pacific exposition. They intend to proceed to Toronto via the Panama Canal. Mr. Gilmore has been on the Journal staff for the past three years.

GIVES GREAT BRITAIN AN INSIGHT INTO COST OF TITANIC STRUGGLE

London, May 8.—In one of the shortest budget speeches on record, he being on his feet a little over an hour, David Lloyd George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, gave the British public further insight Tuesday into what the war is costing the nation. The expenditure at present, Mr. Lloyd George said, was $10,500,000 daily and he added that if the war continued for a year Great Britain's bill would be upward of $5,000,000,000.

The debt of the country according to Mr. Lloyd George already stood well over the $5,000,000,000 mark.

Chancellor No Prophet.

The chancellor declined to predict the length of the war. He introduced no measures calling for new taxes, although he hinted that such a step would have to be taken. There was little discussion of the budget itself and the income tax resolutions were passed before the House adjourned.

Mr. Lloyd George said he was able to report that the revenue of the country had exceeded the estimates and that the surtax and income taxpayers were sending in their money with unusual celerity.

The Chancellor's speech was taken to indicate that at some future date Mr. Lloyd George would propose a huge loan to finance the war further for a period of six to twelve months.

C. N. R. HAS FAILED TO PAY DIVIDEND

London, May 8.—The Canadian Northern Railway Company has failed to pay the dividend due on May 2 on the $25,000,000 issue of 5 per cent debentures stock. In making this announcement the directors say that they see no prospect of paying the next semi-annual dividend on this issue, due on November 2, but that they hope to resume dividend payments next year. The stock is non-cumulative and therefore the holders must count on the total loss of this year's dividends.
