AMERICAN PRESIDENT'S NOTE TO GERMANY

LAST PONTOON OF DRYDOCK IS LAUNCHED -- FRENCH TAKE 6,000 PRISONERS

FORTY THOUSAND ALIENS INTERNED

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, May 14.—Recent happenings have stirred up so much feeling in London that the government has decided on an extensive measure of internment. Forty thousand Germans, Austrians and Turks will be lined up today and interned. All men over military age and all women and children will be deported.

EVERYTHING WENT LIKE CLOCKWORK

The last pontoon of the drydock took the water like a duck at night, everything moving like clockwork. As Superintendent Crowell made the release, the great engine room whistle raised its voice for the first time.

After the launching the company, which must have numbered over three hundred, was invited to partake of a sumptuous supper of ham chowder, coffee, sandwiches and cake, two long tables being spread in the moulding loft above the shipbuilding shed.

Mr. Crowell addressed the gathering and expressed great assurance at the harmony which existed amongst the men, and stated that he never wished for better workmen than he had here at Prince Rupert.

Mr. W. T. Donnelly expressed pleasure in being able to be present and highly complimented the men concerned on the high standard of work they had produced. He hoped that Prince Rupert drydock would do great work every day and expressed willingness to do everything he possibly could to bring business to it.

ANGLICAN CHURCH.

On Sunday next, May 16, in the church of England, there will be special services. The subject of the 11 o'clock service will be, "Prince Rupert's Roll of Honor." In the evening, "The Empire's Enemies." There will be appropriate music and decorations and invitation is given to all to attend. Especially are the members of the Earl Grey Rifles and the Fusiliers invited. 113-14

17TH OF MAY.

Local Norwegians will celebrate National Day of Norway with social and dance in McIntyre hall at 9 p. m. Tickets $1.00. Refreshments. All welcome.

CANADIAN OFFICERS PHOTOGRAPHED BEFORE LANGEMARCK

SCOTTISH SELECTORS' HARD PROPOSITION

There was quite a large gathering of spectators at the Recreation Ground last night to witness the football trial game put on by the Scottish selectors, which augurs well for the success of the football season. The game throughout was very interesting, and the array of talent displayed goes to show what a difficult task Selectors Smith, Brighton and Neilsen have in selecting the representative team. The game ended in a win for the Blue team by two goals to one, a result which was mainly due to the more open methods of the winning team's forwards. It was to be regretted, however, that towards the finish the game was rather spoiled by the rough tactics of numerous players, who would do well to remember that this is not the first year of the game locally and that most of the players who have helped to bring the game to what it is in Rupert are indeed fairly conversant with the rules. Such tactics will not tend to keep football in the forefront of true British sport and the players should realize that to play the game and play it fair is to their own advantage and means larger crowds at the games.

HOW THE TROUBLE STARTED IN VICTORIA

Visitors from Victoria claim that the anti-German trouble there began very simply. It appears that a number of Germans were celebrating the "great submarine victory" in a German hotel, having a picture of the Lusitania, with a German flag flying, fixed up over the bar. Britishers in the hotel naturally showed resentment, which eventually developed into disorder and destruction.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S DEMANDS

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, May 14.—President Wilson's note, which was presented today, calls attention to the "unlawful and inhumane destruction of the Lusitania and other violation of American rights on the high seas."

Germany is asked to disavow the act of the submarine commander in torpedoing, without warning, the Lusitania and the Gulfport, and to make reparation as far as possible and to take steps to prevent a recurrence of such action. No time is set for a reply and no course is indicated in the event of non-compliance.

The note concludes with the statement that it is the duty of the United States government to omit no word or act deemed necessary to defend the rights of the American people.

Embassy officials forecast that the German reply will attempt to justify submarine warfare, and insist on their right to destroy vessels carrying contraband.

It is supposed that President Wilson will not fight, but will denounce Germany as an outlaw among nations and will discontinue all relations and seize all interned vessels if attacks are made.

BRITISH STEAMER SINKS SUBMARINE

(Special to The Daily News.)

Blythe, May 14.—The steamer Collairnie rammed and sank a German submarine off the Northumberland coast yesterday.

NOT RUPERT MAN.

The Leslie Hill reported yesterday as killed is not the Prince Rupert boy, as was supposed. So far as is known, G. A. Hill is still all right.

KITIMAT FARMERS FORM INSTITUTE

The organization meeting of the Kitimat Farmers Institute was held on April 14 at the Pioneer Ranch, Kitimat.

There are already thirty-one members of the institute, twenty-nine of whom were present at the meeting.

It was resolved to hold an agricultural exhibition at Kitimat this fall, to do everything possible to secure publicity, and to secure experimental seed from the Department of Agriculture.

The following office bearers were elected:

President—C. M. Carlsen.
Vice President—B. A. McConkey.
Secretary—L. Bentley.

The ladies afterwards served dainty refreshments and in every way the meeting was a pronounced success.

In the action reported yesterday north of Arras, the French captured 6,000 Germans.

ENTERPRISING PRINCE RUPERT DAIRYMAN

Mr. John Schaefer, proprietor of Prince Rupert Dairy, has just planned a new and ambitious venture. He has decided to open up a dairy farm in the Bulkley Valley, on which he will keep a hundred cows. Mr. Schaefer's idea is to run the farm in conjunction with his present business, having the dairy here distribute his produce.

He is installing the latest butter-making plant and intends to supply this city with the finest of butter and cream at reasonable rates. Everything will be carried out under the most sanitary conditions. A milking machine will take the place of hand work, so that the milk will never be in the slightest danger of contamination through handling.

Mr. Schaefer expects to have his new business in full swing by the middle of July and deserves every credit for his enterprise.

WAR STRIKES HOME.

The awfulness of war has been brought very closely home to Prince Rupert in the past few days.

For months past there have been almost daily reports of hundreds and thousands slain, but, to us, they were not even names, but merely numbers.

Today, the lists are anxiously scanned, and there is a name here and another there which are more than mere names. They represent men we knew; men who left us amid smiles and ringing cheers to do our share of the fighting in the titanic struggle of right against might, and who have now given all they had to give, for their King and country.

The memory of these men will never die; the noble spirit of sacrifice which prompted them to go still lives; they are not dead, but march in the deathless army.

THE LAST PONTOON.

The twelfth and last pontoon of the G. T. P. drydock was launched last night shortly after midnight, in the presence of W. T. Donnelly, the designer of the structure, and under the direction of Superintendent C. N. Crowell and J. H. Pillsbury, the engineer in charge.

There is still much work to do before the dock will be ready for business, but before many weeks are over that part of the harbor may resound with the clang of steel and the tap-tap of the riveter.

What the drydock will mean to Prince Rupert can only be guessed at meantime, but there is good reason for optimism. Such a structure and equipment were not placed where they are for ornamental purposes, and some day Prince Rupert may wake up to find itself famous for more than fish.

WAR'S STRAIN.

The strain on the men in the British shipyards is outlined in a letter by Edward M. Rigsby, now serving on H. M. S. Incon-

Ont., and published in the Toronto Globe.

These men are fighting the Germans just as surely as are the men in the trenches. They are working harder and for much longer periods than the men on the firing line.

It is true there is not the personal risk, but again there is not the offset of the excitement and tension of battle. To many men a fight is as enjoyable as a rough-and-tumble football game, but these engineers, boilermakers, etc., are called upon to put in long stretches of continuous toil without the incentive of combat. The following is Mr. Rigsby's letter:

"Overwork often causes drunkenness" is certainly a serious and enlightening assertion from a man in a position to know. At one port in Scotland the men who were needed for repairs and refitting came aboard on Monday and were not given time to sleep until Friday. This is the strain they endure every alternate week. They receive no extra reward for the ship being out on record time, their wages being about $10 or $12 per week, equal to double the amount in Canada. The Scottish mechanics impressed the writer as the most sympathetic, kindly, and loving people he had ever seen. He also classes them as on the whole more highly civilized than people of the same class in any nation he had visited. Their forbearance, long-suffering, and inherent gentlemanliness impressed him most deeply. This picture of the men who have been blamed for selfish indulgence at a time when the Empire needed all their strength may modify views formed at second hand. The need of restriction and prohibition is obvious, but the change should be urged, not as an attack on the unruly, but as an aid to men patient under an almost intolerable strain of overwork. I am, to his father at Sarnia,

"I AM A COUNTRY NOT A ROAD"

Here is the full text of a young Chinaman's witty summary of events which led up to the war:

"Now there is a great battle in Europe. This began because the Prince of Austria went to Serbia with his wife. One man of Serbia killed him.

Austria was angry, and so wrote Serbia.

"Germany write a letter to Austria, 'I will help you.'

"France did not want to fight, but they got ready their soldiers.

"Germany write a letter to France, 'You don't get ready, or I will fight you in nine hours.'

"Germany to fight them, pass Belgium.

"Belgium say, 'I am a Country; I am not a road.' And Belgium write a letter to England about Germany, to help them.

"So England help Belgium."—L'Echo de Chine.

ELBERT HUBBARD JOKED ABOUT THE SUBMARINES

Aurora Sage Said an Attack Might Land Him at Bottom and in Hall of Fame.

New York, May 13.—Before the Lusitania sailed, Elbert Hubbard, who was aboard, enjoyed the prospect of meeting a submarine. "Speaking from a strictly personal viewpoint," he said, laughing, "I would not mind if they did sink the ship. It might be a good thing for me. I would drown with her. That's about the only way I could succeed in my ambition to get into the Hall of Fame. I'd be a real hero and go right to the bottom."

NEARLY MISSED IT.

According to a cable message from The Hague, Miss Laura Hughes, daughter of Dr. J. L. Hughes, and niece of Canada's Minister of Militia, nearly missed the Women's Peace Conference at The Hague, at which she was the only Canadian delegate. She got there just in time for the closing sessions. She said she started with the first American delegation, but got separated from the others at Christiania. She took a freight steamer, which was delayed in the North Sea, and she was not able to reach The Hague till this morning, when she rushed into the hall where the congress was in session, crying, "Ah, I am too late!"—Ex.

MEARS WARNS WORKING MEN

The following notice, from the Seward Gateway, may be a guide to some who may have been casting longing eyes on Alaska:

Notice.

The following notice has been prepared to serve as a means of giving reliable information to those making inquiries in regard to the work at Ship Creek, Knik Arm, Alaska.

There will be very few positions to offer men on a salary or daily wage basis on the construction work at Ship Creek Alaska.

A limited number of railroad station men, experienced in the work of clearing right-of-way, culvert building and railroad grading may find work at or near Ship Creek, Knik Arm, on the terms usually offered by railroad contractors.

Gangs will commence clearing about May 1 and grading about May 15 or June 1.

There will be work at Ship Creek for a very limited number of experienced carpenters and carpenter helpers (having their own tools) in the erection of docksheds, buildings, living quarters and storehouses, as soon as the necessary material has been assembled.

The carpenters and carpenter helpers will be paid on an hourly basis and charged for their board at the rate of $1 per day.

The Commission will not engage large numbers of men on a force account basis, and those going to Ship Creek, Alaska, with the idea of finding ready employment on the new work will be largely disappointed.

F. MEARS, Commissioner.

AMAZING MARCHES.

The swiftness of the present Russian advance is in keeping with their traditions for good marching, as exemplified in the long journey of Suvaroff's army from Russia to Italy in 1799, and of Kutusoff's forces during the invasion of 1812. In this, as in other matters of warfare, however, the record seems to be with Napoleon. In 1805 he crossed the Rhine on September 26, was in Vienna on November 13, and on December 2 crushed the united armies of Russia and Austria at Austerlitz. Almost incredibly swift was Napoleon's sloop on Prussia in the following year, when, crossing the Saale on October 9, he defeated Hohenlohe's army at Jena on the 14th, and was in Berlin on the 25th, with all Prussia at his feet. Three years later he broke even these records by returning from France to Spain on April 17, rushing to the Austrian frontier, defeating the enemy five times in as many days, and entering Vienna on May 13.—Ex.

THE PROGRESS OF THE SECOND BATTLE OF YPRES.

The accompanying maps illustrate the British Eyewitness' statement of this conflict from Thursday morning, when the Canadians 8,000 strong occupied the portion of line shown, reaching to St. Julien. Thursday midnight the Germans by use of gas compelled the French retirement, exposing the Canadian flank. On Saturday the Germans launched an attack against the French offensive toward St. Julien. The last diagram, "Saturday morning," shows the position when the Canadians withdrew.

"JIMMY" DUFFY,

Winner of the Ward Marathon, 1912; Hamilton Herald race, 1912-13; the Boston Marathon, 1914, and the first Canadian to finish in the Swedish Olympic Marathon, who is reported dead of wounds at Ypres.

CAPTAIN JOHNSON CALLED TO LONDON

News has just reached the city that Captain Barney Johnson has received orders to report to the Admiralty in London, England.

Captain Johnson is well known in Prince Rupert, having sailed the coast for many years, first in charge of the Vadso and later as skipper of the Prince Rupert. Since the war broke out he has had charge of one of the Dominion government submarines at Esquimalt and was recently made a member of the Vancouver Pilot Board.

It is reported that Barney will have command of a submarine under the British Admiralty—and he is just the man for the job.

The hearty good wishes of the people of Prince Rupert will go with the popular skipper and his new command.

Three more American halibut schooners came in today. They are the Thelma, Forward, and Rolse.

SAILINGS CANCELLED OVER WESTERN OCEAN

Cancellation of three transatlantic sailings are announced as a result of the steamships in question being placed under charter by the Imperial authorities. The steamers temporarily removed from the Atlantic service are the Missanabie, of the C. P. R. fleet; the Scandinavian, of the Allan Line; and the Carpathian, of the Cunard Line. In view of the chartering of these steamers, the sailings of the Missanabie from Montreal on May 20, the Scandinavian on May 13, and the Carpathian from New York on May 13, have been cancelled.

Mr. A. E. Disney, Pacific Coast manager of the International Mercantile Marine Company's lines, announces that the Montreal-Liverpool service of the White-Star Dominion Line will be inaugurated on May 29 by the steamship Northland, formerly known as the Red Star steamship Zealand. The second sailing of the Northland from Montreal will be taken on June 26, while the liner Megantic, which has been engaged in the New York-Liverpool trade, has been placed in this service and will sail from Montreal on July 10. This announcement does away with the impression which appears to have gained ground that the White Star-Dominion Line would not operate in the St. Lawrence service this season.

It is probable that the steamship Southland, formerly the Vardeland, will be pressed into this service before the season is far advanced.

The Megantic, Laurentic, Canada, and Teutonic were the vessels which maintained this service last year, but the three latter vessels are still in the Admiralty service.

"BRONCHO BILLY" AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

Tonight and tomorrow the Majestic Theatre will present a three-reel Essanay photoplay entitled "The Tell Tale Hand."

The piece features G. M. Anderson, better known as "Broncho Billy." Two live comedies complete a very fine program.

Lieut. F. Peters, D.S.O., son of City Solicitor Peters, has now been promoted to the command of H. M. S. Meteor.

Follow The King

As head of the Church of England in British Columbia I earnestly appeal to all our Church members to follow the noble example set by our King.

Many are willing to do so but feel the need of something to make their decision definite. To such I would recommend the signing of the following pledge:

I promise, by God's help, to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquor as a beverage while the War lasts.
