The retail Merchants' Association met on Wednesday night, when F. H. Mobley delivered an able address on credit, in which he pointed out that the only plan for shopkeepers is to get down to a cash basis of doing business.

ALLEGES THE GERMANS HAVE PLENTY OF FOOD

Amsterdam, June 11.—A telegram from Berlin states that Clemens Delbrueck, German Minister of the Interior, has informed the Prussian Diet that the food problem may be regarded as solved, and that there may even be carried over considerable reserves into the coming harvest year.
An inventory of the supplies of flour showed a surplus of 6,965,929 double hundred-weights. Potato statistics of May 15 were similarly favorable, the supply being on a level with that of normal times.

MILLIONAIRE MINING MAN DIES IN SPOKANE

Spokane, June 11.—Patrick Clark, 65 years old, a millionaire mining man, well known in the Coeur d'Alenes of Idaho and the mining camps of Montana, died at his home here Monday of heart failure. He had been associated with the late Marcus Daly and former Senator W. A. Clark, of Montana. Three sons and three daughters survive.
Mr. Clark came to the Coeur d'Alenes and Spokane in 1888, became interested in mines of the Coeur d'Alene district and also in the Slocan and Rossland districts, one time holding a bond on the celebrated Reco mine at Slocan. His present mining interests include valuable mines in British Columbia, Washington, Mexico, Arizona and Nevada. His fortune is estimated at a million dollars.

RED CROSS WORK.

The local branch of the Red Cross Society of Canada has lost no time in getting to work. Gifts of knitted socks and any other articles for the boys at the front may be left at the Board of Trade rooms, whence they will be forwarded to the various points.

TERRIFIC BATTLE BETWEEN ITALIANS AND AUSTRIANS

GREAT STRUGGLE FOR POSSESSION OF CORIZIA — RUSSIAN SUCCESS ON DNEISTER—6,700 PRISONERS ARE TAKEN—VESSELS SUNK BY ZEPPELINS.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Geneva, June 11.—The first great battle by the Italians is being fought along the Isonzo River for possession of Corizia. The Austrian artillery forced the Italian infantry back several times. The Italian artillery, east of the city, opened great gaps in the Austrian ranks.
The battle is still raging and is indecisive. The Austrians have lost over 8,000. Corizia is crowded with wounded.
More Ships Sunk.
London, June 11.—The steamer Strathcarron and the Russian bark Thomasina have been torpedoed. Two fishing smacks in the North Sea have been sunk by Zeppelins. The crews were saved.
Russian Success.
Petrograd, June 11.—An official announcement reports a Russian success along the Dneister. The Russians captured 17 cannon, 49 machine guns and 6,700 officers and men.
Serious Blow to Germany.
London, June 11.—The Russian check on the Dneister is a serious blow to the Austro-German army. It is believed that it will relieve the pressure on Lemberg.

ITALIANS HAVE BETTER GUNS THAN AUSTRIANS

Rome, June 11.—The following official statement was issued on Saturday night at the headquarters of the Italian staff:
"Minor operations of our troops continue along the entire front from St. Elvio to the sea.
"On the plateaus of Lavarone and Folgaria the superiority of our artillery in the bombardment of Austrian forts is becoming more and more manifest. Our infantry, thus effectively supported, is established more firmly on the conquered territory.
"Movements of masses of troops for concentration purposes continue everywhere in the most orderly manner."

REPORTED BIG STRIKE AT SURF INLET MINES

It is reported that the big strike has been made at the Surf Inlet mine on which the option held by the Tonopah-Belmont Development Company was recently extended for a further six months.

It is claimed that the main body of ore has been found and that it is of very high grade. It will be a cyaniding proposition, and is expected to be a big producer.
Such a property being developed on a big scale at a comparatively short distance from this city should help things along nicely.

COMMITTED TO TRIAL FOR STEALING FISHING GEAR

A man called McAllister, living on Eighth Avenue, was committed for trial this morning on a charge of stealing $17 worth of fishing gear from an American schooner.
The captain of the boat issued a warrant for his arrest, and he was taken by the city police after several fruitless errands to his shack, accused having put to sea to evade arrest. On his return he hid in the basement of the shack, the only entrance to which was through a trap door in the floor of the shack, and there the officials discovered him.
A man named White, who was also arrested as being implicated in the theft, was dismissed.

PRINCE RUPERT'S FIRST PUBLIC DRINKING FOUNTAIN

Mr. Smith, of Smith & Mallett, installed a "Colonia" bubbling fountain opposite his shop on Third Avenue yesterday. The fountain is of vitroware, and is the latest thing in sanitary drinking fountains.

ONLY TWO TRIPS UP STICKINE THIS SEASON

C. H. French, of Victoria, of the Hudson's Bay Company, arrived in the city last night. He will visit Hazelton before returning south. He has just returned from a trip made by the steamer Port Simpson to Telegraph Creek on the Stickine.
The Port Simpson will make but two trips this season. She should be back in Port Simpson by Saturday.
The Hudson's Bay Company's ways at Port Simpson have become useless and the vessel will have to be hauled out on ways that will be built for her.

CHANGED VALUES.

In days to come, the battlefields of Flanders will bring fortunes back to many who have been ruined in the struggle. Cemeteries, churches, mills, breweries, etc., which have been the scenes of fierce conflict, and are now complete wrecks, will, when the war is over, take on new values. Tourists will visit Flanders in many thousands every year for years to come, and will gladly pay for the privilege of exploring the ruins on the various fields.

Up to last August, the field of Waterloo was a little gold mine, but its value must have dropped to a mere nothing. Waterloo was a mere incident compared to the present war, and, as an attraction to tourists, it must give way to Dixmude, Nieupoort, Ypres, the Yser Canal, Neuve Chapelle, Carency, Langemark and many other historic spots. What Canadian would dream of touring Europe without visiting Langemark?

For a century, the inhabitants of the little village of Braine-la-leude have made a living acting as guides to the field of Waterloo. Today, their occupation is gone. Waterloo will never be forgotten, but, as a place of interest to tourists, it has been completely wiped out. The occupants of the farm of Hougomont for many years have paid a big rent for the buildings and orchard, but have done no farming. The orchard, in which 1,500 of Britain's bravest sons are buried, was never cultivated. The revenue came rolling in steadily from visitors from all corners of the globe, who willingly paid for admission. In the hall of the farmhouse stands a grandfather's clock, just as it stood on that eventful June day a century ago, and through the case is a century-old bullet hole. Some years ago an American millionaire offered $3,000 for that clock, because of its history, and the bullet hole. Bullet holes must be very much lower in value today.

The old farmer used to make a considerable sum selling old bullets, buttons, etc., which he had found on the field; today they are valueless; such things are to be had by the ton. The old ruined chapel, behind the farm was always visited, and its stones chipped by relic-hunters. It cannot hope to compete with Louvain, Rheims and Antwerp cathedrals, and the forts of Namur and Liege.

The ex-guardsman who used to stand on the top of the Lion monument, and recount the story of the historic fray, will be out of a job. Waterloo will always hold its place in history, but as a wage-earner it is no more.

SIENKIEWICZ'S VIEWS.

A remarkable letter from Henry Sienkiewicz, author of "Quo Vadis" and innumerable other novels, was read before the Philadelphia Polish Committee of the Emergency Aid Association, a translation of which appears in the Philadelphia newspapers of recent date.

The great Polish writer looks upon the United States as the keeper of the world's conscience; the one great power which stands steadfastly for justice and law rather than force, as the rule of conduct to govern the nations in their relations with each other. Here is one paragraph from this remarkable letter:

"It seems that the principles of Christian love and brotherhood, banished from Europe, had to cross the ocean in search of refuge, and they found it in the hearts of the American citizens. Their generosity has saved thousands of unfortunates from starvation, but the task of America is not yet accomplished; with God's help she will in the following years become the conscience of the world, and propagate the ideas of justice, such as the triumph of law over force and the restitution of freedom to all oppressed nations, the realization of those principles being the sole guarantee of lasting peace and of a happy future for mankind. The higher the United States will raise this standard the greater and more blessed will be their worldly mission. It is a difficult task, but the American nation is generous and powerful enough to accomplish it. The eyes of the civilized world are now fixed on America—especially those who suffer look up to her with hope."

Many people of belligerent nations, looking solely to the ultimate triumph of their own arms, condoning anything and everything which might aid to that end and impatient with any checks interposed, refuse to see in the American protests against invasions of international law anything save a sordid greed for trade. The Polish writer, with a broader vision, sees behind it all the insistence of this country on justice, on humanity and on law as the rules of conduct for all civilized nations.—Seattle P.-I.

SEATTLE TO HAVE

LARGE SILK MILL

Seattle, June 11.—Bringing to Seattle the news that he had succeeded in Canton, China, in raising $200,000 for half the expense of establishing a large silk mill on the waterfront of that city, to be known as the American-China Silk Manufacturing Company, Mark Ten Suie, Seattle merchant, returned here on the steamship Sado Maru. Two hundred thousand dollars will now be solicited in Seattle for the balance of the $400,000 for which the company is incorporated.

It is planned to turn on the lighter weight silk demanded by American firms. It is expected that the plans will be completed by September 1.

REGINA'S VACANT LOT GARDENING SCHEME

Regina, June 11.—So popular has the vacant lot gardening scheme become that it is now proposed to operate a co-operative canning industry in Regina to take care of the surplus vegetables raised by the vacant lot gardeners and in private gardens. The scheme is the outcome of the vacant lot garden committee, and will be outlined at the next general meeting of the association. It is said that there are two thousand more gardens in cultivation in Regina this year than in any previous year in the city's history, and as a result it is expected that vegetables will be plentiful in the fall. Under the proposal which is being advanced by the manager of a large plant in the city, the gardeners will be assured of a market for all the vegetables they may raise. The proposal, which is on the co-operative basis, is to adopt the latest and most scientific method of canning by which a thoroughly sanitary and high class product may be guaranteed. This will prevent any glut on the market in green stuffs, and may be regarded as one of the most important announcements made by the vacant lot garden committee this year.

DANCING MASTERS BAN TANGO AS BARBAROUS

San Francisco, June 11.—The bunny hug, grizzly bear, turkey trot, Argentine tango, glides and similar terpsichorean contortions are vulgar, barbarous, worthy of eternal relegation to oblivion, and must go, according to the dictum of the International Association of Dancing Masters, as delivered at the first session of a six days' convention now in session in this city.

To make sure of the passing of the present fads, the sixty-five leading dancing masters of the United States and Canada, who are attending the convention, announce that they will evolve a new dance which is to be a "happy medium" between the fox trot, the canter waltz and the one-step on the one hand and the old-fashioned waltz and two-step on the other.

It would be easier to endure these human phonographs if they would change their records more frequently.

Coughing scatters germs—Stop it

Coughing increases the irritation of the already inflamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others. Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil promptly stops coughing, and soon, thanks to its tonic properties, effects a permanent cure. The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is specially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bronchial healer. Sold everywhere, 35c large bottles.

BELLA COOLA NOTES

The weather conditions in Bella Coola this season have been the most favorable to the growth of vegetation since the valley was settled by white people.

In the absence of Rev. T. C.
Colwell, who is making a longer stay at the ministerial meetings at New Westminster than expected, Capt. W. D. Stephenson, of Noosatusum, officiated at the services held at the Mackenzie schoolhouse last Sunday evening.
There was a large number of people in attendance.

Our suspicions concerning Rev.
H. Sageng's intentions prove to have been well founded. We learn from reliable sources that he, on the Saturday following his departure from Bella Coola, was married at Vancouver to Miss Mathilde Waal, late of Poulsbo, Wash. The Courier offers congratulations.

J. Grummett is well again and at his former business of village blacksmith. He has bought out his erstwhile successor, J. S. Robinson, who, with F. Robinson, has

CHARLIE CHAPLIN AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

The management of the Westholme Theatre announces as the headliner for tonight and tomorrow the two-reel Chaplin comedy entitled "A Jitney Elopement." This picture shows Charlie in an auto chase, and he is also seen to advantage using his trusty brick. No one should miss this show as it is one of Chaplin's best pictures.

A fine drama, entitled "The Price," is also shown. This should appeal to the ladies, the dresses shown being very pretty. In addition to this a Gazette will be screened, showing a submarine going at full speed ahead and also submerged. To wind up a splendid program, a two-reel comedy, entitled "Convicts, Costumes and Confusion," will be shown.

WELSH LADY ADOPTS RELATIVES UNKNOWNLY

A correspondent of the London Morning Post vouches for the truth of the following story: A Welshman and his wife, anxious to adopt a child from among the Belgian refugees, journeyed from Abercromby to Swansea to make their selection. On their arrival they found that there were two young children—brother and sister—who particularly appealed to them and who might be adopted but one could not be taken without the other. In the circumstances, they decided to take both. As the children were being undressed to be put to bed after reaching home a locket was discovered hanging round the little girl's neck. Inside the locket was a photograph which the lady recognized as that of her own sister, who had gone to Belgium as a governess many years before, had married and settled down in that country, and who now turned out to be the mother of the little refugees. She had, therefore, unknowingly adopted her own motherless nephew and niece.—Ex.

PURCHASING STAFF ALREADY AT WORK

Montreal, June 11.—Though the appointment is one with which the Canadian government is not directly concerned, it is well understood here that Sir Thomas Shaughnessy has been asked to direct in Canada and the United States the purchase of war supplies for the British government.

Sir Thomas's present visit to Great Britain is stated to be at the request of Lord Kitchener. It is understood that before leaving for Great Britain a part of the organization was perfected by Sir Thomas, and that the purchasing of munitions already is being made by a highly competent staff. The British government has had a purchasing agent for months, but the increasing orders and the necessity for better system in the work has led to the selection of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy to direct this important work. To some extent, it is understood, the C. P. R. purchasing organization will be utilized.

FIERCE RIVER BATTLE FOUGHT OVER DEAD

London, June 11.—The fiercest fighting of the war, as far as the Baltic provinces of Russia are concerned, occurred a few days ago in a battle for the mastery of the Dubysza River, according to The Post's Petrograd correspondent. The river changed hands five times in one day, and at nightfall the stream was completely choked with the bodies of thousands of dead, so a plank roadway for artillery was laid by the victorious Russians across a solid bridge of bodies, the correspondent says.

The Dubysza, although wide, is so shallow it can be crossed on foot at some places. The Russians and Germans met at a ford half a mile wide north of Rossijeny, where they fought all day in the water. There were several bayonet charges in midstream, and all who fell, even though they were only slightly wounded, were drowned. Troops on both sides in their attacks and counter attacks late in the day advanced over the bodies of the dead.

SEATTLE TIMES EDITOR IS IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Seattle, June 11.—Col. Alden J. Blethen, editor of the Seattle Times, who has been confined to his home for several weeks, is in a serious condition, and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

BRITISH SOLDIER DEFENDS CRATER

London, June 11.—The exploit of a British soldier who lay in the crater made by a shell and hurled back at the Germans bombs which they tossed into the excavation to kill him is related in a dispatch from the front, under date of June 4, from the official observer attached to the British army, as given out in London last night.

"After having got into a German trench and finding he was the only survivor of his party, he managed to crawl deep into a shell crater nearby," the observer says. "The Germans knew where he was, but could not shoot him, and were prevented by our rifle fire from approaching. They therefore contented themselves with lobbing hand grenades into the crater."

"All day long the British soldier remained in the hole, within a few yards of the enemy, picking up and hurling back bombs with which he was pelted. At night he managed to crawl safely back to our lines."

Another incident described by the official observer has to do with an officer and ten men, who, when the Germans stormed and captured British trenches near Ypres, refused to retire. Surrounded by the Germans on all sides, they stuck to their trench in the hope of regaining the lost ground by a counter attack. At nightfall they withdrew, after holding the Germans at bay throughout the day.

LOCAL BASEBALL.

The Colts defeated O'Reilly's Cubs in a city league game at Recreation Park last night by 12 runs to 9. In spite of rather cool weather for baseball, there was a good attendance of spectators and some really first-rate ball was played after the first inning. In the first, the Colts ran away with 11 runs, but thereafter the game settled down into a very equal struggle, the Cubs striving hard to even up the score.

MANY REFUGEES LEAVING FAMINE-STRICKEN MEXICO

Washington, June 11.—Ninety Americans, 44 Englishmen, 127 Spaniards and 57 others of various nationalities will comprise the first refugee party leaving Mexico City on the special train which the Brazilian minister, acting for the American government, has arranged.

Other refugees from the famine-stricken capital, who will leave later to join the party at Vera Cruz, will bring the number to more than 600. The British consul had advised American Consul Silliman that many women and children are among the number.

An emergency supply of American food has been ordered to Vera Cruz for the refugees.

The Red Cross has telegraphed Galveston officials to ship 50,000 pounds of corn and 20,000 pounds of beans on an army transport which goes for the refugees.
