MOBS ATTACK FOREIGN PROPERTY IN MOSCOW

(Special to The Daily News.)
Moscow, June 14.—Street riots and anti-German demonstrations have occurred during the last two days, arising from an outbreak of illness among men employed in a factory. A rumor that Germans poisoned the water started the rioting.
Mobs attacked all the foreign stores, looting spirit stores particularly, and starting fires. Troops, reinforced by the police, on the third day quelled the disorders.

BELLIGERENTS NOT READY FOR PEACE

Paris, June 14.—Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago, who arrived in Paris Saturday, said that she gathered from conversations in England, Germany, Austria and Italy that it would be most difficult to influence any of the belligerents for peace, for fear that the suggestion might be taken as a military weakness.
All felt that the suggestion must come from a neutral nation, preferably from the United States. Miss Addams regards the question of Belgium as the greatest difficulty to be settled.

AUSTRO-GERMAN ATTACK ON LEMBERG HAS BEEN ABANDONED

ENEMY NOW ATTACKING RUSSIAN WINGS SINCE CHECKED IN CENTRE—POLA NAVAL ARSENAL IS DESTROYED—ADVANCE AT DIXMUIDE.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 14.—The Austro-German attempt on Lemberg has been abandoned, following the defeat of Von Mackenzen's army and the loss of 20,000 men. Checked at the centre, the Austro-Germans are now attacking both wings of the mammoth line. The stand made by the Russians indicates that the shortage of ammunition which caused the loss of Przemyśl has now been overcome.
Pola Arsenal Destroyed.
Rome, June 14.—The arsenal at Pola has been destroyed by bombs dropped by an Italian airship. Ten warships have been damaged.
Advance at Dixmuide.
London, June 14.—A cable from Paris reports a slight advance at Dixmuide.

JACK PETERS HELD PRISONER IN GERMANY

City Solicitor Peters received a cable from a cousin in England this morning stating that his son Jack is held a prisoner in Germany.
Mr. Peters is greatly relieved to know that nothing worse has befallen Jack, though Jack is liable to reckon that this is the worst thing that could have happened to him, as it debars him from any more fighting, for a considerable time, at least.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE IN TOWN LAST NIGHT

A man named Louis Knudsen was taken to the Police Station last night on a charge of attempted suicide.
Accused, at 5:15 yesterday afternoon, threw himself from a window of the Grand Hotel, falling onto rocks sixty feet below. When picked up, accused had a horseshoe nail sticking in his neck and a piece of rope around his neck.
Dr. Cade was called and the man was removed to the General Hospital. His injuries are not supposed to be very serious. The nail gives a desperate touch to the attempt, but the unfortunate man showed lack of judgment in his choice of a rope, the piece used being extremely fragile.

BISHOP DU VERNET BACK FROM GRAHAM ISLAND

After spending a week on Graham Island and visiting Port Clements, Graham Centre, New Massett and Massett Reserve, Bishop Du Vernet returned to the city last Saturday. While on the Island he conferred with Rev. Heber Greene and Rev. William Crarey over a readjustment of the Anglican missions. Many of the settlers are inclined to be discouraged. There is little road work this summer and money is scarce but, on the other hand, the bishop noticed more land being brought under cultivation than ever before; and the fishing off North Island was reported very good. The chief grievance at present is the lack of a steamship service to the Queen Charlotte Islands.

GREAT LACROSSE GAME AT NEW WESTMINSTER

New Westminster, June 14.—In a splendid game of lacrosse here Saturday, the New Westminster team won in the senior amateur scheduled match. The score was: New Westminster, 13; Vancouver Athletic Association, 10. Twenty minutes of overtime was played to play off the tie. Tommy Gifford, an old-time favorite player with the Salmonbellies, is training the local team now, in succession to Alex. Turnbull.

TRADE REVIEW.

That trade in Canada has passed the period of greatest depression and already exhibits signs of a sound revival in many lines, appears to be the opinion of the majority of representative business men throughout the Dominion who have contributed their views to a comprehensive survey of conditions which has just been completed by the Canadian Northern Railway. Less than 10 per cent of those responding confess to a gloomy outlook; more than 90 per cent, numbering more than two thousand, report themselves as optimistic as far as the immediate future is concerned. Practically all are agreed that trade conditions will rapidly return to normal after the restoration of peace. A large number are convinced that if the harvest of 1915 is up to expectation, domestic business will be satisfactory in all the provinces.

In the survey, all classes of enterprise as defined by the last Dominion Census are reported upon. The provinces have furnished the latest information regarding the 1915 production of the agricultural, mining, fishing and lumbering industries. Country towns and villages as well as the large commercial and industrial centres have been covered, and officials of the Canadian Northern Railway are inclined to accept the views reported as frank statements of present trade and its future prospects.

The reports indicate that business in the Dominion, as a whole, is from 15 to 20 per cent below the normal of one year ago. Exactly two-thirds of the informants report of volume of trade as good, or better, than it was last autumn, while 12.03 per cent state they cannot compare present business and last autumn business because trade is always brisker with them at one season than during the other. Apparently trade in the Maritime provinces is affected least. In the Prairie provinces it is not nearly as brisk as it was last year, but optimism is reviving under the influence of excellent crop prospects. Business in Quebec is slow, but apparently improving and in Ontario it is gradually returning to normal condition. Broadly considered, the reports show that business in the towns and villages located in well-settled, fertile agricultural districts is practically normal. Dealers in all lines report that collections in such centres are generally normal, and that activities have not been curtailed to any extent. The chief falling off has been in the large industrial centres. When reductions in staff were made by manufacturers and by business houses last autumn, retailers were forced to curtail credits to customers thrown out of work and in turn wholesalers were obliged to scrutinize carefully all credits extended to retailers. The people generally continued to purchase necessary lines of food-stuffs and essentials in other branches of trade as well, but dealers discovered that goods not falling within that classification were in danger of becoming dead-stock upon their shelves; however, as Canadians arrived at a better understanding of actual conditions, a certain amount of confidence returned, and retail sales were gradually extended to take in the usual lines of goods. The distribution of orders for war materials also exerted a favorable influence where it brought about a renewal of employment in several of the industries in the large cities, and trade credits relaxed to a proportionate extent. Collections, despite the altered conditions, appear to have continued fairly good in the large centres, and seem to be steadily improving.

The reports go on to show the strong position in which farmers have been placed, and indicate a keener perception of

HON. BOB ROGERS AND HIS POLITICAL FATHER, ROBLIN

SIR RODMOND SPILLED THE BEANS AT A BAD TIME — HON. BOB ROGERS ROSE WITH REAL ESTATE BOOM AND LEFT ROBLIN TO EXPERIENCE THE FALL.

Ottawa.—The wise boys are guessing that there must have been warm language between Sir Rodmond Roblin and Hon. Robert Rogers when they met on neutral ground in Toronto a few days ago.

Sir Rodmond has been the Honorable Bob's benefactor from the beginning of his political life and naturally the Honorable Bob doesn't see why he couldn't have gone on being a benefactor by hanging on a little longer in Manitoba. Once a benefactor, always a benefactor—that is Bob's motto, and he believes that benefactors should live up to it even at some slight disadvantage to themselves. At all events, it was a particularly bad time for Sir Rodmond to spill the beans.

Sir Rodmond had been under good advice from the Honorable Bob and others for months past, but none of his advisers expected him to do what he did. Their advice to Sir Rodmond was that he should resign and let his colleagues form a new cabinet with a new premier, and thus avoid handing the government over to the Liberals. Sir Rodmond's colleagues thought very well of that plan, and the Honorable Bob, hot foot from Ottawa, pressed it on him from time to time, but Sir Rodmond figured that it would make him the goat and raised objections.

Finally, he became real peeved, and said, "Just for that you'll all get off." He resigned, as it were, in a body, taking his colleagues with him. It was the neatest thing in the way of a double cross since Samson sacrificed himself to destroy the Philistines. Ever since this signal act of revenge, Sir Rodmond has been able to the importance of the position which agriculture occupies in the business life of Canada. Prospects of a good yield on a largely increased acreage are bright throughout the Dominion.

The greatest reduction in volume has been in the building trade, but it is expected that a good crop will partially revive it, and the looked-for movement of immigrants to Canada, after the war is over, should restore the building trade to its wonted state of activity.

take a philosophical view of Manitoba politics. His interviews with Liberal newspaper reporters are full of human kindness toward Premier Norris, whom he wishes long life and prosperous statesmanship. In fact, it almost appears as if he would rather have Premier Norris on the job than his own friends, who might malign him if they remained in office and he didn't. Absence, as the poet aptly puts it, makes the hammers stronger.

Everything Sir Rodmond has said since he resigned sounds like a benediction to public life, but it would not surprise anybody if he swung into the bigger game at Ottawa, instead of enjoying the comfortable sunset to which he is entitled. His being a Manitoba discard would be no real argument against him, because the present administration at Ottawa has a lenient feeling toward discards. It wasn't so long ago, for example, that Sir Richard McBride was being broached for a cabinet position at Ottawa, and doubtless Sir Richard would have landed it if it hadn't been for his adventures with Attorney General Bowser and the two submarines. Sir Richard's work with the two submarines was careless, if it wasn't coarse, and spoiled his chances. Finesse is what the situation demands—finesse that will defy the best efforts of the Public Accounts Committee. Anybody, as short on finesse as Sir Richard McBride, could never get along at Ottawa.

Sir Rodmond Roblin, on the contrary, has shown great deftness in getting out of his troubles. He has not only got himself out but he has left his friends holding the bag and has displayed qualities which prove that he has nothing to learn even from the Honorable Robert Rogers. Indeed, there are those who say that the Honorable Bob learned his trade from Sir Rodmond, and that the master can still teach the pupil a trick or two. Be that as it may, the Honorable Bob hasn't the same reputation as a Frankenstein with Sir Rodmond, as he has with other people who don't know him so well. If he is a

A FAMILY REMEDY FOR MANY YEARS

Used "Fruit-a-lives" With The Best of Results.

GEORGE MCKAY Esq.

KIPPEN, ONT., June 17th, 1913. I have been using "Fruit-a-lives" a family remedy for many years. They are the best medicine I have ever tried. "Fruit-a-lives" do me the best good—they never gripe and their use is pleasant.

These troubles have left me completely and I give "Fruit-a-lives" full credit for all this. A nicer pill a man cannot take."

GEORGE MCKAY.

The enormous demand for "Fruit-a-lives" is steadily increasing, due to the fact that this wonderful fruit medicine prompts relief in all cases of Indigestion, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Rheumatism, Chronic Catarrhes, and Neuralgia, and all other Bladder Troubles.

Price a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. Sold by all dealers or sent on receipt of 25c by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

COPPER AND LEAD AT RECORD PRICES

New York, June 14—High grade or lake copper sold at 20 1/8 cents per pound in the local market Saturday, a record price since 1907, when for a brief period it sold at 25 3/4 cents.

Lead also advanced to 6 1/2 cents, its best price, according to reports, in about thirty years. In the Boston market, lead was quoted at 7 cents.

The advance in the metals results chiefly from the enormous demand by the European countries now at war, especially England and Russia.

TEA IN THE TRENCHES.

It is said that tea is the favored beverage of the soldiers in the trenches. It is certain that tea is the most refreshing and sustaining drink under the circumstances, and it has good warming qualities. It is the first experience of tea for many of the soldiers, and the taste will undoubtedly spread when they return to their homes after the war. In fact, everything points to a greatly increased consumption of tea all over the world, and as the supply is insufficient to cope with the high prices now obtaining may continue for some years.

Frankenstein, then Sir Rodmond created him, and familiarity breeds contempt. It is being recalled that, when the Honorable Bob, in the reciprocity election of 1911, was made responsible and delivered the goods from Winnipeg to the Rockies, Sir Rodmond was jealous and had to be made a knight as an offset to Bob's getting the big job at Ottawa.

The feeling which actuates both Sir Rodmond and the Honorable Bob is that ingratitude is sharper than a serpent's tooth and consequently each is very much ashamed of the other. Sir Rodmond naturally remembers that he made Bob the right-hand man of his real estate government and that Bob rose with the real estate while he, Sir Rodmond, remained to decline and fall with it. Bob was a very lucky man to be a member of a real estate government when real estate was booming. He shared in the era of expansion, helped to keep it expanded; in fact, by his personal and official influence, went on soaring even after the town lots had fallen behind. Bob soared sky-high and came out of the clouds with a silver lining which is going to be a great comfort to his old age.

Sir Rodmond remembers all that and naturally puts it down to himself, forgetting the element of luck and Bob's own merits as a foresighted, forehanded man, who knew what was going to happen next and was generally on the spot when a shower of blessing was scheduled to burst in Winnipeg or any other town lot centres of activity. Sir Rodmond, knowing how the game was played, naturally feels that one real estate operator makes as good a Minister of Public Works as another. What he fails to take into account is the Honorable Bob's personal charm. He has made a great hit with the back benchers, not as an orator, for he talks like a scrambled egg, but as a hale fellow and a splendid promiser. He never sends a member of Parliament, even a Grit one, empty away. If kind words never die, Bob is going to have a long life. Sir Rodmond could never fill that part of the job. He is too irritable.

Meanwhile, the Honorable Bob looks wistfully at the Canadian High Commissionership in London. As a wicked partner his ability is impugned, as Minister of Elections he is a distinct failure, as upholder of tottering governments he shows signs of strain—if it wasn't for leaving Major General Sam Hughes a free field he might be tempted to move on.

SAILOR SPENDS TEN DAYS IN OPEN DORY

Juneau, June 14.—Fred Campbell, a seaman on the fishing schooner Galilee, lived ten days in an open dory off the southwest coast of Alaska, and does not know how he did it. He was picked up by the ship Bohemia, bound from San Francisco on a codfishing cruise.
 A storm arose while Campbell was out in the dory and he was driven away from the Galilee. He rode out the storm only to find himself out of sight of land with only a few raw fish for food. When the Bohemia picked him up he was weak from exhaustion and thirst, and could not tell how he had lived through the ordeal.
 May 6, the revenue cutter Unalaska, Capt. Harry Hamlet, took Campbell from the Bohemia to Unalaska for treatment in the Marine Hospital. The cutter's surgeon said his condition was not serious.

VITAGRAPH FEATURE AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic presents tonight a splendid four-reel Vitagraph photoplay entitled "The Man Behind the Door." The acting and staging throughout the piece leave nothing to be desired. The ballroom scene is one of the finest interior photographs ever screened, while there is a delightful vein of comedy in the story.
 The program concludes with "Won Through Merit," in which the history of a country youth in his efforts to make good in the government service at Washington is traced. This film shows very fine views of Washington and the government offices there, and has a "lived happy ever after" finish. There is the usual daily matinee from 3 to 5 o'clock.

PLANT THE FLAG IN THE WORKSHOPS

London, June 14.—Sir Percy Girouard, chief lieutenant of Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George in his new office as Minister of Munitions, accompanied his chief to Cardiff, and following Mr. Lloyd George, addressed a mighty gathering of masters and men, when they were urged to "plant the flag in their workshops." Sir Percy said:
 "I stand as a British subject, French-Canadian. My forbears resided in Canada for 250 years, and I am the first of my family who can speak English as well as French. We have enjoyed under the British flag the Catholic religion, the French language, and the old Napoleonic and pre-Napoleonic law without hindrance and with great tolerance. Is it any wonder that French-Canadians, and among them I must put in the highest place my great friend since boyhood, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, all feel what it would mean to them, and to the Empire as a whole, and to the whole world, if anything occurred to upset the equilibrium of the Empire."
