THE RUSSIANS CARRY FORTIFIED HEIGHTS

HEAVY AUSTRO-GERMAN LOSSES -- MANY PRISONERS TAKEN -- ITALIAN GAINS

RUSSIANS CARRY FORTIFIED HEIGHTS WITH GREAT SUCCESS

HEAVY LOSSES INFLICTED ON GERMANS—ITALIANS MAKE RAPID ADVANCES—200,000 AUSTRIANS DEFENDING TRIESTE—NORWEGIAN STEAMER FIRED BY SUBMARINE

Petrograd, June 25.—The Austro-German forces have been re-versed with heavy losses at three points on the Dneister. The Russians carried fortified heights at Smirne Jine by assault, and inflicted heavy losses on the Germans in the Kozany region in the counter engagements which relieved the pressure during the retreat from Lemberg. In each case the enemy were driven across the river. The capture of Mount Rezymiana is also reported and all the garrison but two officers and 210 prisoners were captured. At Martovo 40 officers and 1,700 men were taken prisoners.

Critics' Opinion.

London, June 25.—Critics compare the Russian retreat from Lemberg with Joffre's retreat in the early stages of the war.

Italian Advances.

Paris, June 25.—Rome reports rapid advances on the Isonzo river with the occupation of Globna and the capture of the Plateau of Sagarado and Monfalcone. 200,000 Austrians are assembled in defence of Trieste.

Norwegian Steamer Fired.

London, June 25.—The Norwegian steamer Truma has been torpedoed and set on fire by a German submarine near the Shetland Islands.

SPECTACULAR FIRE AT CALIFORNIAN WINERY

Fresno, Cal., June 25.—There has been a loss of $500,000 by fire at Barton Winery. Nearly a million gallons of wine escaped, which formed a lake of burning alcohol.

UNIQUE BASEBALL GAME

The Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary has arranged for a unique baseball game at Recreation Park on Monday evening, when a team composed of local merchants, will oppose the doctors and lawyers. Proceeds will be devoted to the general hospital. This will be the most remarkable game ever played in Prince Rupert.

Follow the crowd to Self's Cafe. There is a reason. Next Majestic Theatre.

POLITICAL DEADLOCK IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Paris, June 25.—There is a deadlock between political parties at Constantinople following the serious illness which occasioned an operation on the Sultan. The Royal Princes desire that the eldest son of Abdul Hamid be his successor is opposed by the progressive party.

HAS SETTLED FOR $9,000 PER HEAD

Madrid, June 25.—The German government has made a full explanation and has paid an indemnity of 180,000 marks ($45,000) for the lives of five Spaniards who were shot by mistake at Liege last August. The Spanish government has decided the incident closed.

EXCITING FOOTBALL AT RECREATION PARK

The crowds attending the football games continue to grow, and it seems to have become part of the day's routine to finish up with a visit to Acropolis Hill. When the Drydock-Merchants game opened last night, both sides of the field were lined with spectators, and they had plenty of excitement. Right from the start the ironworkers forced the pace, McIlravey spoiling a good chance by lying offside. Thus early the Drydock forwards showed good understanding, and continued the pressure.

At the other end, Doodson, through lack of control, lost a glorious opportunity to score. Returning to the attack, the Drydock boys were ultimately successful, McWilliam being fouled within the penalty area. McAnich made no mistake with the kick. The Merchants tried hard, but their half-backs were not giving the forwards enough support. They had one or two good tries, but Kinghorn nullified their best effort by getting offside. The half-time score was 1-0 for the Drydock.

In the second half, the Drydocks immediately attacked, McWilliams rattling the timbers with a raking shot, and later from a cross by Neilson, the same player scored, though it looked as if the ball had been handed through. From the centre, Kinghorn and Brighton got away, but the former drove past and a little later his elevation was faulty. A good pass from Dixon let the Drydock left away but Currie cleared. Both sides attacked alternately, but goals were hard to get, though Jones and Brighton both missed chances. After good work by McIlravey, McWilliams again scored. It now looked hopeless for the Merchants, but they made their exit fighting, and should have scored at least once. Mr. Eardley refereed the game, and, for a first appearance in this capacity, did well.

VARIED FEATURES AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

No one should miss seeing the splendid bill at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow. There is variety enough to suit the most jaded movie fan, and every feature is full of interest and well presented. The Hearst-Selig Gazette shows cycle races, thoroughbred horses, high school girls as hares and hounds in a two-mile race, the U. S. battleship Alabama, which was sent to Newport News to enforce the internment law, etc.

"The Bargain Counter" is a very fine comedy, while "A Wayward Daughter" is a comedy drama of high merit. The story traces the history of a wayward village girl who is tempted to go to New York, where she has a great struggle, but everything ends happily. "His Last Call" is a splendid drama. "Fatty's Faithful Fido," a comedy, completes the program.

COMMISSION APPOINTED ON POLISH AUTONOMY

(Special to The Daily News.)
Petrograd, June 25.—A commission of six Russians and six Poles has been appointed under Premier Goremykin to arrange preliminaries to carry into effect the autonomy of Poland, which was promised by the Grand Duke Nicholas last August.

"BLACK BOX" SURPRISES AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

The final episode of "The Black Box" is more interesting than any of the others, and that is saying a great deal. It explains what has gone before, but the explanation is made in such a way as to provide more thrills than any previous installment. The benevolent looking old professor is the real culprit, but he is no ordinary clever criminal. His double life is a tragedy for which he is not responsible, and the explanation of the cause is most original. The last thing he does in life is to again fool the great criminologist. It is a fitting climax to one of the most remarkable stories ever screened.

The Animated Weekly is particularly good, showing most beautiful night scenes of the Panama Exposition, with searchlights playing, and rockets bursting against a sky of black velvet. The comedies "Such is Life" and "Schultz's Lady Friend" are both of a high order.

JOBBERY

The Ottawa Citizen tells of the efforts which W.F. Garland, M. P., for Carlton County, is making to secure his renomination as the Conservative candidate. It will be remembered that he was one of the two Conservatives whom Premier Borden reprimanded for their connection with the purchase of war supplies. Mr. Foster, of Nova Scotia, resigned his seat, but Mr. Garland is evidently more hardened than the horse dealer. The Carlton candidate is publishing display advertisements telling how much government money he has had spent in his constituency, and how many men he has obtained jobs for.

This is a favorite line of argument with Conservatives and is a criterion of the standard of intelligence and honor to which they are appealing. The Borden government stands convicted of loading the people with an enormously increased expenditure, in order to pay the salaries of thousands of unnecessary job holders, and here we have Mr. Garland publicly boasting of, and taking credit for, the fact that he has been instrumental in bringing about part of this enormous expenditure.

Such a line of argument is not new to British Columbia, and it remarkable that so many people seem to imagine that money spent by a government comes from the air. The Conservative test of a government is its ability to spend, and the bigger the number of jobs created, and the larger the appropriations made, the better the government.

These hard times, people must be realising that every cent ilspent, and every arm-chair job created, is so much more liability to be carried; that every bad investment made in poor roads, or useless servants, represents so much public money wasted. If Mr. Garland is typical of the general run of Conservative members, there can be little cause for wonder at the enormous expenditure of the Borden government, a government which depends for its existence on appearing to satisfy the cupidity of its supporters is doomed to disaster.

GERMAN DIPLOMACY

The United States has had a no more successful secretary of state than the late John Hay, for one who possessed better qualifications for his important post. His many years of service in different capacities made him an expert in diplomatic matters. It is of peculiar interest, in view of current events, to learn his opinion, expressed without official reserve, in the series of articles appearing in Harpers' Magazine under the title of "John Hay's Statesmanship," as shown in his unpublished and, for the most part, private letters.

Mr. Hay represented the United States during the Chinese trouble of 1900. "At least we are spared the infamy of an alliance with Germany," he wrote. "I would rather, I think, be the dupe of China than the chum of the Kaiser. Have you noticed how the world will take anything nowadays from a German?"

All along he perceived the purpose behind German naval expansion, so he watched closely the beginnings of the policy to unite the German-Americans into a political unit which should, when the time was ripe, try to use the United States to forward the ambition of the German Emperor. As the writer of the article says, "Hay was not deceived into taking the Emperor's bustle in politics, art, literature, and religion for greatness. He recognized that such a monarch, working upon such a people as the German, might become a danger to civilization."

"German diplomacy," Hay once expressed it, "is generally brutal." He suspected their interest in the Philippines and the exorbitant German demands in connection with the China trouble. The article also gives an interesting sidelight on how the United States brought Germany to time in connection with the Venezuelan matters. "Germany," he wrote, in another connection, "cannot help being bullying and swaggering. It is their nature." He further noted the changing attitude of the German-Americans under the underground influences of the Fatherland. "The prime motive of every German American is hostility to every country in the world, including America, which is not friendly to Germany."

Even these few extracts reveal how accurately Hay sized up, not only the Kaiser, but his Prussian court, years ago, and it is remarkable how his characterizations are proving themselves true today.—Toronto Star.

BELLA COOLA AND DISTRICT NOTES

F. A. Johnson is around and actively at work again after a long confinement owing to a broken leg. He, with a crew of men, engaged in repairing the wagon road above the Canoe Crossing. He has also been superintending the work of installing a ferry service from the wagon road to some settlers on the opposite side of the river. The land thus connected with the road is especially fertile and has been settled by a few preceptors, among whom we learn are H. Casebeer, E. Oien, M. Nam-thy and P. Kenyon.

Mr. Walter Ratcliffe has another crew of road workers above Stewey engaged in extending the road further up the valley. He intends to construct a fairly good wagon road to Heckman's ranch this summer.

Tom Engebretson and family, John H. Shafer and Jacob J. Lunos, came down with their pack-trains a week ago yesterday, from Tudistan, back of Anaham Lake. We regret to learn that Mr. Lunos is seriously ill at his farm above Noosatsum.

Mr. M. W. Marvin has received appointment as forest guard for the upper half of the Bella Coola district. Mr. J. H. Lunos is the forest guard for the lower part.

Mr. A. R. Oveson at Hagensborg finds it necessary in view of the big crop of hay, to sight to enlarge his store rooms by building a large addition to his barn.—Bella Coola Courier.

In the Letter Box

Prince Rupert, June 25th,
Editor Daily News:

Dear Sir—Are We right in putting all the blame for this awful war on the Germans?

We sing with pride in our hearts, "Britannia Rules the Waves." That Britannia rules the waves is no idle boast. Though this rule is innocent of any vile intent, it is never the less a sinister fact. Bear witness, the toast "To the Day."

The arrogant war lord of Europe did not like our little song. The peace-loving, socialistically-inclined, German people refused to build for him a navy able to challenge this boast of ours, so with devilish cunning and almost infinite patience, he set about to educate his people to the idea that they must have a great military system for defence. The perfection of that organization shows it was really intended for definite aggression, to dominate Europe in order that he might be in a better position to fight the British Admiralty, who showed they were absolutely determined to continue to dominate the waters of the seven seas. At an opportune time he put a match to the fuse. There was an explosion and now the whole world is aflame.

To be true to her ideals Britain most certainly was compelled to stand by her "scrap of paper." We hate war, yet it seems as if we must go to war in order to banish war from off the face of the earth. To go to war that war might cease. Does not this sound absurd? Because of some imperfection or incompleteness in our ideal we have got ourselves into a terrible muddle.

In making my decision as to what I can do to help bring order out of chaos, I should bear in mind it must be an individual decision. I should not decide for my brother, for my country, or for my God. It is not for me to say how God should punish Germany for the crimes of her leaders. Vengeance will be attended to regardless of how little or how much of that function we relegate unto ourselves. The ideals of my country do not necessarily correspond identically with what my ideals as an individual ought to be.

Two great ruthless machines are engaged in a competition of horrible butchery. The peoples who own these machines are both praying to God for victory. Is it for me to decide who God should give the victory to; then deliberately throw myself before the juggernaut wheels of him, who, I think according to that decision, is bound to lose? When it comes to a battlefield, from a military point of view, a man must be a brute. He is there to kill, kill, kill; in other words to break the Sixth Commandment. Must we disobey God in order to gain his approval? God is of the spirit. Must we give way to the brutal in order to gain the spiritual?

To be true to the highest in us we must face these questions. Our friends who have died for us will have died in vain if we refuse to think, think, think.

Realizing these views might be considered by some pro-German, I sign myself.

A CANADIAN.
