HEATED DISCUSSION OVER RETRENCHMENT PROPOSALS

ENTHUSIASTIC AUDIENCE AT THE COUNCIL MEETING LAST NIGHT—REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE IS ADOPTED—CITY WILL SAVE THE CITY $7,860 PER ANNUM.

When the question of salary reductions came up at the Council meeting last night, there was a large and enthusiastic audience, many of whom appeared to enjoy the proceedings just as heartily as they did the ball game. An attempt was made to side-track the proposals put forward by Alderman Montgomery and Maitland last Monday, and to consider a new proposition brought forward by the Finance Committee. The motion of Alderman Kerr, former proposals were considered. Several of the clauses brought out heated discussions, in view of the Finance Committee's report, only two points were carried: the recommendation to the Police Commissioners that the police staff be reduced and the suggestion that the assistant city engineer be suspended. The large audience enjoyed the argument thoroughly, cheering Aldermen Montgomery and Maitland repeatedly.

The report of the Finance Committee was then proceeded with. It proposed the cutting off of the assistant city engineer, the city clerk's stenographer, and the following salary reductions: city engineer, from $300 to $200 per month; city clerk, $180 to $150; water foreman, $150 to $130; city purchasing agent, $140 to $125, and a recommendation to the Police Commissioners to cut off two patrolmen. It also included the appointment of the Mayor and Aldermen Edge, Dybhavn and Casey to enquire into the possibility of reductions in the light and telephone departments.

In the discussion which followed, the members expressed regret that it was found necessary to dispense with the services of Mr. Edmonds, the clerk's stenographer, as he was so capable, but it was felt that a young man of his ability would have less difficulty in finding an opening than a lady stenographer would have.

Alderman Montgomery said that the report was all right so far as it went—but it did not go far enough. He felt pleased that in one week the Finance Committee had been able to accomplish so much, and suggested that if they gave the matter another week's consideration, they might be able to bring about a total saving of $14,000 instead of the $7,860 proposed. (Cheers.)

Alderman Maitland said that he approved of the reductions, but that they would hear from him again very soon on the same subject. (Cheers.)

The Mayor resented Alderman Montgomery's insinuation that the Finance Committee had only made the move as a counter to his proposal, and that the Finance Committee would have done nothing had the first proposition not been brought in. He reiterated that he had tried for months to get the Council together on some such plan of retrenchment and had failed to get unity in the matter, and that Alderman Montgomery was chiefly responsible for this lack of cohesion.

Alderman Montgomery retorted that the Mayor should give a lead in such matters, and not wait on someone else doing something. Each alderman present expressed a desire for retrenchment, and, after a discussion which lasted until midnight, each clause of the Finance Committee's report was adopted, making a saving to the city of $7,860 a year.

At the close of the meeting the city engineer tendered his resignation.

RUSSIANS IN RETREATING OFFER STUBBORN RESISTANCE

RUSSIAN CENTER RE-FORMING — A FURIOUS BOMBARDMENT FROM ARRAS TO THE SEA — ITALIANS ADVANCE STEADILY AT TRIEST — GERMAN SOCIALISTS WANT PEACE.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 29.—The following is a review of the situation today: The Russian centre is reforming before Von Lingingen's drive across the Dneister. The retreat is strategical and is necessary for the consolidating of the Russian forces, after the retreat from Lemberg. The Teutons hold the Galician capital.

Western Front.
London, June 29.—There has been fruitless fighting along the western front, and a furious bombardment from Arras to the sea. The stubborn Russian resistance and the increasing pressure by the Italians prevents the transfer of German troops to the west.

Italian Front.
London, June 29.—The Italian advance on Trieste is slow but steady. Trieste is the first important milestone on the way to Vienna.

Socialist Intercession.
Milan, June 29.—German Socialists have approached their Italian brethren, requesting intercession in the cause of peace.

Sedition in India.

Delhi, India, June 29.—The government is taking rigid steps to deal with seditionists. Six native school teachers were charged today and found guilty of seditious conspiracy.

BASEBALL GAME LAST NIGHT NETTED $160 FOR HOSPITAL

WONDERFUL FORM DISPLAYED BY THE "BOYS"—STARS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT OF THE GAME — MILES OF BASE RUNNING AND BALL CHASING MERCHANTSWIN EASILY.

The baseball game between the Merchants and the Professionals last night was a huge success from every point of view. Everybody and his wife was there, and there wasn't a sad moment, for the spectators, from start to finish. At first some of the players seemed inclined to take the game seriously, but as the sense of the importance of the occasion wore off they warmed to their work, and never thought of consequences.

The game revealed a number of "has beens," and a lot of "might have beens." The form displayed by some of the players was remarkable. Judge Carss was the youngest and hottest wielder of the bat, and, judging by what he can do yet, he must have been a terror some forty-odd years ago. Frank Mobley had a home run, while Joe Scott and George Sweet scored three-base hits. Geo. Frizzell did wonders at first base, and George Tite and Fred Stork were the star pitchers. W. E. Williams pitched well on the start, but later on was inclined to do too much in the way of curve and elevation.

The feature of the evening, however, was the baserunning. There hasn't been so much base running in one game for a long time. Fred Stork and "Doc" McCutcheon trotted around like two-year-olds, though it is reported that they feel considerably older this morning. The speed of Alex Manson and L. W. Patmore was wonderful, and suggested weeks of quiet training.

The outfield work of both sides was a splendid example of combined work, feet and hands working together in perfect harmony when the ball showed signs of becoming obstreperous, though sometimes the ball won in the tussle.

Wm. Manson made a great umpire. He was absolutely imperturbable and even when threatened with a bat refused to divulge any information. The Mayor for a time acted as judge on bases, but was called away to play first base at the City Hall, being succeeded by Olier Besner, whose decisions went unopposed (Olier weighing 230 and proportionately husky).

There is a difference of opinion about the score, but it seems fairly certain that the Merchants won by at least ten runs, though some say twenty. The hospital directors say the score was $160, and that it was the finest game of ball played anywhere by anybody. In any case, the audience was satisfied; the players were more than satisfied, and the hospital board was delighted—so the ladies had better arrange another game soon.

INSURANCE COMPANIES FIGHTING ARNOLD CLAIMS

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, June 29.—The Mutual Life Insurance Company has secured an order for the clothes of the late W. R. Arnold, which were impounded by the Supreme Court. The company is contesting the claim for $50,000 insurance, alleging suicide by the late Dominion Trust manager. Arnold's total insurance at death amounted to $455,500. Other insurance companies are also refusing payment.

MARKET BYLAW.

The bylaw regulating the City Market was read last night at the Council meeting. It has been decided to pay the manager $100 per month, and to collect 7 1-2 per cent commission on all produce sent in to be sold.

AMERICA AND EUROPE.

The movement known as Pan-Americanism is making remarkable headway. It involves no hostility to the nations dwelling on any other continent, but it does mean better relations among our own affairs and those of our immediate neighbors, but the other nations, which we know generally as the Latin-American Republics, we seldom hear of, except when they are suffering from some domestic trouble, as Mexico is today.

Yet there is no doubt that these republics are destined to play a great part and growing part in the world. South America is nearly twice as large as Europe. Brazil and Bolivia together are as large as Europe. Argentina is larger than Germany, Austria-Hungary, and France. Of course, we know that national greatness cannot be measured in square miles. But square miles represent opportunities—possible homes for men, women, and children who may change the destinies of the world. South America, which today has a smaller population than Austria-Hungary, will undoubtedly contain a larger population than Europe. Europe is undoubtedly destined to play a smaller and smaller part in the world, so far as population and wealth are concerned. If Europe is to hold her own, it must be by moral and intellectual superiority. That is the reason why European statesmen attach so much importance to plans for the government of Europe after the war. Unless Europe can govern itself it will sink into a condition of anarchy far worse than that of Mexico, and will fall behind in the march of civilization. If, on the other hand, European militarism is moderated as a result of this war, Europe will take its rightful position in the march of civilization.

In the meantime, it is gratifying to see that America is moving in the right direction. Canada has thrown itself upon the side in Europe which it believes to be right, which it believes will result in an ordered world, governed by justice rather than by force. The United States and the other American nations, while not actively engaged in the war, are undoubtedly anxious and desirous that civilization shall progress and that order shall prevail. They are American, but not anti-European. If Europe, after this war, can arrange its affairs so that Europe will cease to be a source of uneasiness and danger, there is no doubt that America will hail the settlement with joy.—Toronto Globe.

In the Letter Box

Editor, The Daily News:

Sir—Please allow me to ask a question of my friend, the "pro-British" Irishman.

What right has any one nation to dominate the waters of this planet? As long as there was a Jack Johnson there always would have been a "white hope." As long as the British Admiralty is determined to continue to dominate the waters of the seven seas, just so long will there be some toast, "To the Day"; if not German, Irish, if you please.

The ideal of a nation is the composite of the ideals of individuals. I didn't sign any "scrap of paper." My ideal is this: I will absolutely refuse to kill my brother man, even if he is duped into the idea that I want something that rightly belongs to him, even if he comes at me to take my liberty, my life. There is something in me that refuses to be taken captive; that refuses to die; that refuses to countenance war, the sum total of everything evil.

Read it again, brother.

G. L. CLAYTON HAS COLD STORAGE PROPOSITION

A proposal from Geo. L. Clayton regarding the establishment of a fish and cold storage plant in the city was brought before the City Council last night.

After describing at length the position of the fishing industry here and its possibilities for the future, the letter went on to state that if the Council is prepared to build a cold storage plant, costing about $150,000, Mr. Clayton's company will furnish the cash, accepting city debentures for ten or fifteen years, and will pay a fair rental for the plant for a stated period. The company claims to be able to bring fifty independent boats here permanently, which they state will increase the population of the city to about 7,000.

FAMOUS NOVELIST'S IDEA IS WORTH CONSIDERING

London, June 29.—H. G. Wells, in an article in the Daily Express, argues that a method for ending the war will be for the Allies to build and send a tremendous fleet of aeroplanes to the rear of the German lines and destroy all the German ammunition factories. He contends that it would be cheaper to launch 2,000 aeroplanes against Essen than to risk one battleship.

TAX SALE EXEMPTION FOR SOLDIERS AT FRONT

At the City Council last night a copy of a resolution passed by North Vancouver Council was read, asking that steps be taken to approach the provincial government with regard to property, owned by men at the front, which is liable to be sold for taxes at the next tax sale. The resolution proposed that such property be protected against tax sale during the period of the war and for six months after.

The resolution received the unanimous support of the Council on the motion of Alderman Dybhavn, seconded by Alderman Nicol.

A report from the city solicitor on the legal aspect of the question was read. Mr. Peters pointed out that, as the law stands at present, it is impossible to make any exemptions. Mr. Peters pointed out that the time for redemption would give ample opportunity to save such property.

U. S. FEDERAL ARSENAL CAN'T KEEP LABOR

Philadelphia, June 29.—Scores of skilled workmen are leaving the employ of the government arsenal at Frankfort to accept positions with private concerns that are supplying orders for munitions of war for the European belligerents. For the first time in years the arsenal is suffering from a shortage of employees, and officials fear the situation may become serious. The men declare they have been given three-year contracts with these private firms at wages far in excess of those paid by the government. According to officials at the arsenal, there is a federal statute which makes it unlawful for private concerns to use a promise of higher wages to induce an arsenal employee to leave the service of the government, and an investigation was said to be under consideration.

PROGRESS REPORT BY EXHIBITION SECRETARY

Seven years ago, Prince Rupert and the Northern Interior was the frontier. Today, there is a trans-continental railway cutting clear through the centre, towns with all modern conveniences, splendid farms, mines, a fishing fleet and other signs of civilization.

This is the year of the third annual exhibition of the Northern British Columbia Agricultural and Industrial Association, and from all indication the fair of 1915 bids fair to show the public that the man behind the plow, the miner, and the fisherman, have not been backward in answering the call of the Empire—for men at the front and greater production within the Dominion.

It is a proud moment for the farmer, miner or fisherman, when they can show the world and their fellow citizens how they, each in his own way, has enriched the resources of the Empire, and also the actual benefit which has accrued to them in doing so, both to themselves and their home district.

Progress is steadily proceeding in the matter of organization work. Prize lists showing a total of over $2,000 in cash, cups, medals, etc., have been distributed, and anyone desiring copies can obtain the same on application to the secretary at Prince Rupert. There are lots of prizes, in fact, prizes for all, and assuredly for those who can show results in the way of greater production.

Quite a number of the members of the association are at the front in France, in answer to the battle call of civilization, and it is therefore only right for those whose duty it is to stay at home to do "their little bit" by especial efforts towards increased production and the utilization of the district's natural wealth.

Splendid attractions for the entertainment of all, not forgetting the kiddies, are under way. Co-operation by the transportation companies as to special reduced rates and free return of exhibits has been promised, and the citizens of Prince Rupert are fully alive to the fact, that what advertises the district benefits the town, and are putting their shoulders to the wheel in an effort to give Prince Rupert's Fair visitors a right royal good time.

The Majestic is sparing neither trouble nor expense in securing the best which the exchanges afford, and on Thursday and Friday will show a great five-reel Paramount feature entitled "Betty in Search of a Thrill."

WORKING FOR TAXES.
The Board of Works suggested to the City Council that the petition, from Walter Shaw and others, asking to be allowed to do replanking in lieu of taxes, be received and filed. In reply to a question by Alderman Casey, the city solicitor said the plan was unworkable.

LAST CHANCE.
Today is the last opportunity to make reservations for the Ketchikan excursion, as the C. P. R. will cancel the trip if there are not 100 tickets sold this evening. Phone the C. P. R. at once.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

The rebuilding of the Bayview hotel began today. John Bergman has the contract.

Have you made your reservations for the Ketchikan trip? It can't be done after today. Get busy at once.

A proposal by Alderman Montgomery last night that the Mayor's salary be cut $30 per month did not find a seconder.

The City Finance Committee, reporting on the proposal of Geo. Ambrose and others regarding the replanking of streets, stated that they would consider the matter when such work was required.

The City Council last evening, on the recommendation of the Finance Committee, voted $50 a month to the Board of Trade, from July 1 to the end of the year, for publicity purposes.
