Sensational Arrest Made Last Night

BRITISH COLUMBIA BONDS BRING HIGH RATE WHEN SOLD IN THE PROVINCE

Owner of Victoria Paper Faces a Charge of Theft

Griffith R. Hughes, prominent citizen of Capital City, placed under Arrest last night at his own Residence.

Spent Night in Cells; Got Bail This Morning

Alleged Theft from firm of David Spencer; was closely connected with Financial Affairs of the Company

VICTORIA, July 9.—Griffith R. Hughes, a prominent business man of this city and owner of the Victoria Daily Times, was arrested here last night, the affair causing one of the biggest sensations in the history of the city. The arrest was made at Hughes' residence on information laid by W. J. Spencer of this city, one of the partners in David Spencer, Limited, charging him with the theft of $600.25 from the firm. Bail at that time was refused by Magistrate Jay because of the large amount allegedly involved.

It is understood that the Spencer firm is claiming a sum going well into six figures from Hughes. It is also understood that Hughes has vested in G. G. McGee, M.P.P., the lawyer for Spencers, a great amount of his Victoria property, including The Times newspaper, pending an adjustment. Joseph Martin, K. C., has been retained as special adviser to Spencers' while R. T. Elliott, K. C., is acting for Hughes.

Is Wealthy Man.

Hughes joined Spencer's staff fifteen years ago as bookkeeper and later was made auditor. He acted as financial adviser to the late David Spencer.

It is understood that trustees in the meantime are in possession of the Daily Times, which was bought for $225,000, a Noble Hill farm, $75,000, and cash and bonds of over $100,000. Hughes is 58 years of age and was born in Wales. He was school mate of Lloyd George and is a life long friend of the British Premier's.

Is Given Bail.

VICTORIA, July 9.—Griffith appeared in the police court this morning and has been remanded until Tuesday bail being fixed at $20,000. Griffiths spent all night in the cells and at 9:45 this morning was brought into the office of the chief of police to meet his friends. After being photographed and having his finger prints taken he went into court where he sat alongside his counsel, A. A. McLean, K. C.

When the charge was read his counsel pleaded not guilty. As a "prominent Victorian" bail was sought but was opposed by Deputy Attorney Johnson who said "Certain other information was received last night." The magistrate then stated that two other informations had already been laid. Mr. Johnson asked that the magistrate hear him within closed doors on the bail question stating that he had good reasons for an investigation that could not be finished in a week.

VICTORIA, July 9.—(Later).—Hughes has elected for trial by jury. Counsel was closeted for twenty minutes in the magistrate's room before bail was granted.

ASSAULT CASE IS INTERESTING

Many Citizens Follow Case of J. J. Uriacher in Police Court

This morning in the Police Court before Magistrate McMorris the case of assault against J. J. Uriacher again came up for hearing, but had to be adjourned. The victim of the attack is still in the Hospital suffering from the effects of the injuries received. For some days the man, James Garnett, has been lapsing into long periods of unconsciousness. Now, however, he is able to be around, though still very feeble.

This case has aroused considerable interest locally and the outcome is being watched by many. At the sitting of the police commission on Wednesday the mayor asked Chief Vickers if it was true that the officer called to stop the fight had allowed the men to finish it out themselves. This the chief flatly denied.

And the Costs Keep Piling Up.

From New York to Victoria and from practically every point of publication in between, come reports of increases in the price of subscriptions to newspapers. In the City of New York all the evening papers with but one exception have raised the price from two cents to three on account of the increased price of publication. And when it is remembered that a newspaper depends upon its circulation, which this increase might be supposed to affect adversely, to maintain its advertising rates, the public must realize that the publishing business is "up against it." And it is, too, hard. Last month newspaper jumped 60 per cent in price and even higher rates are quoted this month and at that supplies are uncertain. On this coast the oil scarcity threatened to close the mills down and does not add to the brightness of the prospect. Practically every classification of advertising has been increased in price the continent over, and yet there is no diminution in its volume. Publicity, in the form of newspaper advertising, is properly regarded as a legitimate charge against every business, even as rent and taxes. So, too, is the newspaper accepted by the average individual as mental pabulum, equally necessary as physical. Visitors to Alaska used to regard ten cents a copy or $1 a month for the newspapers there as something out of the usual, but now the Victoria papers are compelled to charge $1 a month. And in the newspaper world there is every indication that the costs of publication for the latter half of this year will be even greater than in the months just past.

Grow Small Fruits at Home.

In the process of getting the most out of the backyard garden many amateur gardeners have overlooked the cultivation of small fruits.

Fresh fruit on the table has almost become a luxury. The high prices which these fruits are commanding and their growing scarcity on the market are due largely to lack of help and the enhanced cost of picking and transportation.

The growing of raspberries, currants and gooseberries is very simple, and their value both for use as fresh fruit and for baking and preserving purposes, should make their cultivation much more extensive. There are no fruits that respond more quickly to good treatment, but they will also stand a considerable amount of neglect. Large fruits and productive bushes, however, can only be expected when they are given proper attention.

Should Have Some Education.

The educational problem is the same in Prince Rupert as it is in all other cities of Canada. The great majority of children leave school half educated and that condition has been more common since war times revolutionized the employment market and high prices were offered even the most unskilled of labor. During war days it was almost necessary for young people to leave school and produce, but now that labor conditions—at least as far as demand and supply is concerned—are quickly becoming normal, the excuse for the young person leaving school for that reason has almost entirely disappeared. Unless he shows conclusively through his unconscious acts that he has a natural bent towards such lines as mechanics or practical engineering attendance at least to the end of high school work should be insisted upon. There also is a good deal in the argument that the elementary school course should be complete in itself and less a preliminary to something else as it is today.

INTERESTING EVENT IN NOVA SCOTIA

Local Lady is Present at the Celebration of Parents' Golden Wedding.

There appears in the Halifax Sunday Leader of June 8, a photograph of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander MacKenzie, of Truro, N. S., and an account of their golden wedding celebration, which will be of interest to many residents of Prince Rupert as Mrs. G. A. Woodland, of this city, is one of their children and was present at the happy function. Mr. Woodland, himself, leaves for Truro tomorrow morning where he will meet Mrs. Woodland and they will journey back across the continent together.

The Leader says: "Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie were married June 8, 1870, at North River and later they went to live in Dover, Mass., returning in three years to North River. About 36 years ago they moved to Truro where they have since lived. The family consists of Edward, Leonard, Noble, Nellie (Mrs. Woodland), Clarence and Dr. Seymour MacKenzie, all of whom with the exception of Clarence were present at the golden wedding."

BRITISH DENOUNCED FOR MORAL LAXITY

Archbishop of Melbourne Gives Flaming Criticism of Morals in Dress and Dancing

LONDON, July 8.—A storm of denunciation over laxity of morals in dress, dancing and other customs, is sweeping over England.

Following the example of an American priest who refused to marry a bride groom immodestly, the Archbishop of Melbourne denounces the present fashionable and scanty attire of women as a menace to morality.

"The church cannot condone the birth of one child out of wedlock," he continued, and linking this as a result of women's fashions, he added: "Society must in the name of the church crush the new rule which is bringing human life to the approximate morals of a fagyard."

"The first duty of men and women who are marriageable is to marry and rear children. To remain unmarried now is little short of a crime against the community."

Alderman Hunter objects to the use of municipal halls for boxing matches and dances on the grounds of immorality. An immoral atmosphere is created at boxing contests, he declares, and this class of audience is undesirable. Dancing as it is popularly carried on today must lead to immorality and it is the duty of public bodies to take measures for uplifting the tone of the community.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

July 9, 1910.

The exhibition committee met last night and a very interesting session was held planning out further details of the fair. Mr. Hays suggested that a big show be held as it was a near failing attraction.

Secretary Coyne of the Publicity Club yesterday received a communication from the general post office, London. The note paper and envelope carried a deep mourning edge on account of the death of King Edward VII.

Alderman Pattullo has been presented with the silk hat promised him by Mr. Coote when the city obtained the water grant from the government.

Dr. C. A. Eggert, and his bride, Miss Helen Rorke of Montreal, arrived in town on the Prince Rupert and will take up their residence in their new home on Fifth Avenue near McBride St.

The All Stars bowling team beat the Grand Trunk Pacific quintette of players at the Dunedin bowling alleys last evening by a few points margin.

Mr. Lendrum, of Peterborough, Ontario, was a passenger from train to boat last night. After a stay in the south Mr. Lendrum will return to this city where he may decide to locate. He owns considerable property in the city.

To Handle Lumber

The undersigned Mill Operators on Masset Inlet, having found it impossible to ship lumber for the past month, owing to the failure of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Longshoremen's Union to agree on the wages to be paid, have offered the longshoremen the maximum of their demands from the Railway Company, that is Ninety Cents per hour plus fifteen per cent to provide for the higher cost of living said to obtain in Prince Rupert.

They have refused to accept our offer and in the meantime our mills and those who would be working in them are idle.

We now make the same offer to any who wish to handle lumber—longshoremen included—namely

$1.03½ per Hour

Work will commence as soon as a sufficient number of men can be obtained to make a start. We have about four million feet to handle.

LIFE STORY OF ROBERT BORDEN

Broke with Liberals on Reciprocity in 1891 and Has Since Been Conservative.

Sir Robert Borden entered Canadian public life in a year when the power of the Conservative party was shattered. It was in 1896 that he was first elected to the House of Commons for Halifax, and it was in 1896 that the Conservative Government was defeated and the Liberals, under Wilfrid Laurier, assumed office. For fifteen years Sir Robert remained in opposition. During that period he had all the ups and downs which generally befall politicians. He tasted personal defeat, but a seat was found for him.

At the general election of 1900 he was re-elected for Halifax, and the following year was elected Leader of the Conservative Opposition, succeeding Sir Charles Tupper. In 1904 at a general election the Liberals again swept the country, and Sir Robert was defeated in Halifax when Nova Scotia returned a solid Liberal force of eighteen members. Edward Kidd resigned the Conservative stronghold of Carleton county and Sir Robert was elected by acclamation for that riding in 1905. No better success greeted the party at the general election in 1908, although Sir Robert was elected in his home riding in Halifax, and also in his adopted riding at Carleton. Sir Robert chose to sit for Halifax.

After many lean years Sir Robert and his party won in 1911. That election is too recent to require much explanation. Reciprocity was the issue. Reciprocity plays rather an important part in Sir Robert's life. He was born in 1854—a reciprocity year. He broke with Liberals on that issue in 1891 and he went into power on that issue in 1911. He was called upon by Earl Grey, after the Conservative party success, to form a government.

The next big political step was the formation of Union Government in 1917, which Sir Robert headed, and has continued to do until the present. Union Government was returned by the people by a large majority. In history Sir Robert will be best remembered as the Prime Minister of Canada during the great war.

During the war period Sir Robert was frequently in Great Britain consulting with the British Government regarding the war policy and effort of the Empire. He went first in 1915. In 1917 he again went overseas for the purpose of attending the Imperial War Cabinet, the first Cabinet ever summoned to represent the whole British Commonwealth. In 1918 he again attended the meeting of the Imperial War Council, and also attended sessions of the Supreme War Council at Versailles.

In the latter part of 1918 he visited Great Britain to attend the sessions of the War Cabinet consequent upon the armistice. In 1919 he attended the Peace Conference as Canadian plenipotentiary and member of the British Empire delegation. He was appointed as chief British Empire representative on the Inter-allied Commission of the Peace Conference on the Greek question, and the Inter-allied Commission on the Russian question.

Sir Robert, like so many of the Canadian politicians in the past and present, is a lawyer, and was born right in the heart of that land of Acadian romance in Nova Scotia, at Grand Pre. For a short time, too, he was a professor in a college in New Jersey. He has been honored by degrees from many great universities. Because of ill-health Sir Robert has frequently intimated during the past year and a half that he would resign. He was abroad during most of the recent session of the House, although he was still Premier.

J. C. Brady has been elected to the Executive Committee of the B. C. Federation of Teachers to represent Prince Rupert and northern British Columbia.

Chief of Police W. H. Vickers accompanied by Mrs. Vickers and daughter were among the south-bound passengers on the Prince Rupert last evening.

TINKERS WON LAST NIGHT'S BALL GAME

Their Good Batting and Chaffeurs' Errors Deciding Factor in Match.

Chaffeurs and Tinkers mixed it fast and furious at the baseball grounds on Acropolis Hill last evening but the latter came out of the tussle with the odds in their favor by the score of 11 to 9. The game was well played throughout although a large number of errors disheartened the pitchers at times. The Chaffeurs started the ball rolling in fine style when good stick handling on their side and errors on the other brought in four runs in the first inning. They were steadily mounting and after the departure of Stickey, Red Davidson took the box and later Harry Menzies. The game was not decided until the end of the ninth when the Chaffeurs who were two runs behind got last bats. They were unable to make up the difference and the Tinkers scooped the honors.

Harvey Fraser judged the balls and strikes and had considerable difficulty in giving decisions which satisfied everyone. Geo. Mitchell had similar trouble as base umpire. The line-ups were as follows: Chaffeurs—Haudenschild, Maxwell, Smith, Arthur, Clapp, Davidson, Menzie, Stickey and Tite. Tinkers—Ratchford, Astoria, La Porte, Cummings, Menzie, Robinson, Crossley, Elmer Smith and Marr.

George Walsh expects hereafter to delegate all shopping duties to his friends. George, during the filming of his William Fox picture "The Kid is Clever," which is being shown at the Empress tonight, dropped into a candy shop to buy a box of sweets for a friend about to leave Los Angeles. "How do you sell your chocolate," George asked. "Two dollars and a half a pound," the girl clerk answered. "Aren't you a little dear?" he countered. "Well," she replied, "that's what the boys say."

EXCITED CHINAMAN

Yesterday evening a little excitement was created by a Chinaman who was seen rushing down the street from the direction of Fulton Street and Third Avenue. When stopped by Fire Chief McDonald the man said that he was looking for "the boss." On further inquiry it was found that a pulley and belt had caught fire in the back of George Frizzell's new butcher shop. Apart from the loss of the pulley and the belt there was no damage done. "The boss" was soon found and warned of the danger.

Use Doesn't Harm It!

There is this in favor of the new idea of using silverware instead of keeping it in a "look at" only, that when it is used in the best it is made to be used in, it does not harm it. In fact they are nothing else in the same that will so well stand ordinary usage as silverware.

WESTERN SHOW THIS EVENING

Picture at Westholme Theatre Tonight Mas Plot Laid in Canada.

There is a strange tale of Oriental mysticism in "The River's End" that will both startle and fascinate. This picture from the book by James Oliver Curwood, author of "Back to God's Country" will be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

Shan Tung, a Chinese, is a prince in disguise. Driven from his own country by political factions, he settles in northwestern Canada on the edge of civilization, where he keeps an opium den and traffics in vice.

The Chinaman because of his wealth in the community is a power. He falls in love with a beautiful white girl and demands that she marry him. She loathes him and is horrified yet he holds a strange spell over her and she is apparently unable to resist his will.

She appeals to an officer of the Royal Northwest Police to help her free herself from his influence but she withholds some secret from him, evidently fearing to reveal it.

The Chinese is getting more and more of a hold on her when the officer of the police visits the den on Shan Tung's command, and Shan Tung openly demands that he be a party to the deliverance of the white girl to him.

But the officer is not the craven Shan Tung thought and a terrific battle ensues in which the den is set on fire and burned. What happens to the officer and the girl is something worth seeing.

Section 4 of said Act provides that no person shall act as a Real Estate Agent or Salesman in this province without first having applied for and obtained a licence. ### The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

THAT the water wagon is a very popular affair with prohibitionists and the hot ones.

THAT some of the latter, however, would prefer a beer wagon.

THAT coolness is a very admirable and useful virtue.

THAT there should be two kinds of coolness when one falls into the waters of Prince Rupert harbor.

THAT the mental kind is the one that will get the person out.

THAT assistance from others would also help.

THAT the police commission is a critical body at times.

THAT criticism doesn't hurt many people, however.

THAT he is blind who does not care to see.

THAT there are many blind people in Prince Rupert for that reason.

THAT Victoria had the hottest day in its history on Wednesday, but there have been no reports of sunstroke.

THAT you don't often see anybody on the street in Victoria anyway.

THAT visitors wonder how that city ever got such a large count in the official census.

THAT Hyder is getting even a "wilder and woolier" reputation.

THAT pioneer Alaskan believe in direct treatment and probably Jack Sutherland knows that now.

THAT a boy generally loses his power of speech when he talks to a girl "who is too sweet for words."

THAT that is why Prince Rupert boys have not become great orators.

THAT some politicians must have been brought up among simply awful looking girls.

The steamer Prince John which left for northern Queen Charlotte Island points last evening besides carrying a large quantity of freight had many passengers on board. Among those making the trip were a party of women who will be engaged in the fishing industry during the summer.

Harry Berryman and Jack Lochead arrived in from Port Edward cannery last evening and returned later by the same boat.

CELEBRATION MEN MET LAST EVENING

Make Suggestions for Improved Carrying Out of Events in Future.

Last evening in the Sons of Canada Hall a meeting was held of all the committees of the Dominion Day celebration to consider the finances of that event. Nothing definite could be accomplished, however, owing to the fact that all accounts had not yet been handed in. It was therefore recommended that the finance committee proceed to further carry out duties and produce an itemized expense sheet which could be passed by the whole body. When this has been completed there will be another meeting called at which all matters will be passed upon.

Considerable discussion was the feature of last evening's gathering and satisfaction was expressed at the success of the great event. Among the criticisms offered by some was that of the manner of conducting and distributing the children's races and prizes. Chief Vickers had not been supplied with an exact list of just what stores were contributing to certain races. At future occasions of this nature instead of having everyone looking after any event two or three will be detailed off to superintend particular features.

W. Featherstonhaugh of the G. T. P. Railway engineering department is doing some reconnaissance work up the Telkwa river in connection with the coal fields.

The voters of this district have been advised to get on the list without delay, as it is reported there may be an early election.

James Cronin of the Babine Mines and John Kennedy of the United Grain Growers, Ltd., were in town this week. These gentlemen are prominent in the district and are both interested in the road and bridge work of the district, having considerable interests in the valley.

W. F. Morden, late of Morden, Man., who has purchased half a section of land here, proposes to start a local creamery in the near future if he can interest the business men and farmers in the project.

The Telkwa District Board of Trade is working on a new race track and stock yard, situated on the south side of the railroad. It is hoped to have the work completed for next season.

Work is being pushed on the new Methodist Church, the new government school and the Telkwa garage. The McDonald residence is nearing completion, as is also Art Burdett's.

The old timers of Bulkley Valley will be glad to learn that Hugh McLean is back again with the government on road construction.
