EVIDENCE IN ASSAULT CASE

Hearing of Urlacher Assault Case Starts in Police Court; Remanded.

In the police court this morning evidence was taken in the case of Rex vs. Urlacher in which the accused has been held on a charge of inflicting serious bodily harm to James Garnett. The case has arisen out of a fight on the night of Sunday, June 27, when Garnett was taken to the hospital in an unconscious state. At the opening all the witnesses were ordered from the court room until called by the court. W. O. Fulton appeared for the accused and City Solicitor Hooper acted for the prosecution.

The first was C. A. Eggert, doctor of the city of Prince Rupert, who had been summoned to the local hospital on the night of the 27th to attend to the wounds of James Garnett. He found the victim in a deeply unconscious state, bleeding at the nose and mouth. The patient had sustained a fracture at the base of the skull and was suffering from paralysis on half of the left side of the body. Garnett had a wide abrasion on the left side of the temple but the physician was not prepared to state how the blow might have been delivered. The patient seemed to be improving but lacked co-ordination, which the doctor went to explain by saying that he could not concentrate for any length of time. The period of convalescence might be a long one but he was not prepared to state for certain.

Constable McGlinchey described having received the phone call to proceed to the scene of the fight, where a man was reported to have been "knocked out." On arrival there he found James Garnett unconscious on the street. He summoned a taxi and Gus Steputis took the helpless man to the hospital. On June 28 he arrested the accused in a shack on Fraser Street and warned him in the usual way. The accused admitted at the time having struck the man but not kicking him.

Gus Steputis was then called and described how he met his partner Garnett at Anxox some months ago. He described how the fight started when an old man pestered him for drinks and he refused to give him any, both at the Royal and the Empress bars. At the Empress, Good told him to quit picking on the old man and this was what brought about the first quarrel. They went around the corner and he gave his coat to James Garnett. He did not see much of the fight between the accused and the man now in the hospital. On cross-examination he told that during the fight someone was on his back and he felt a kick near the shoulder blades. There were many people around before the end of the fight. When asked if he had taken a foul hold he said no but had grabbed him round the waist in a clinch. He admitted that the old man cried out that he did hold him foul. During the course of events he had heard no words between Garnett and the accused.

Fred Williams told of how he had seen the two fights taking place on opposite sides of the street. He did not see the start and was going home when he heard further shouting and returned. The injured man was not on the ground until he was knocked down and he was not close enough to see if the accused did anything after the fall. He did not know any of the parties and couldn't remember the man with the gold teeth in front who had been fighting with Steputis. Ernest Unwin told of having seen the fighting but did not recognize the accused. A man was hurt and he helped Fred Williams lay him out on the sidewalk. He noticed his face bleeding, he was breathing heavily and smelt strongly of liquor. It was a haphazard fight and rocks were thrown but he had no idea who the parties might have been.

When called, Leonard Knight told of the way in which the fight started and of its progress. He was watching the first fight and did not see how the other got under way. He had noticed the accused trying to stop the fight between Steputis and Good at the time the latter claimed the foul hold. In the second fight he only saw the accused standing alongside the man on the ground.

On account of the wide brimmed hat he thought the accused was a policeman and decided to go away. He thought that Garnett had been under the influence of liquor, and half of those standing around as well. He had not taken any himself. Upon cross-examination he said that it was some other man who kicked Steputis in the back and not Good. He did remember another man having interfered besides the accused. He did not know what had stopped the accused from entering again and stopping the fight.

Following the hearing of the remaining three witnesses, Fritz Schultz, Frank Aldridge and C. H. Good, the magistrate remanded the case until July 23.

Canadian Fisheries Increase in Value

Big Advance on previous year---Exports also Show Improvement---Canadians must seek Foreign Markets

OTTAWA, July 16.—The commercial revenue from Canadian fisheries for the fiscal year ending March 31 has just been announced here. The total revenue from the fishing industry was $60,000,000 for the year which shows an increase of $25,000,000 over last year's report.

The fish exported is valued at $40,687,172, one hundred per cent more than 1914 and $4,000,000 over the previous year. Comparisons show that the exports to the United Kingdom were $9,815,979, as against $6,726,389 in 1914. United States got $17,180,250 worth of Canadian fish in the past year, while her 1914 receipts were only $5,644,355.

In the six years there has been a 300 per cent advance in the value of dry salted cod, ling and pollock. The Canadian fisheries people are urged to further seek foreign markets.

WARSAW, July 16.—A battalion of a thousand women is defending Vilna against the Bolshevik advance. The Reds are seriously harassing the city.
 LONDON, July 16.—The Bolsheviks have entered Vilna, all opposition being withdrawn. Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik leader, has refused the British proposal that his forces withdraw from Crimea. This was to be incorporated in an armistice arrangement.

TOM LIPTON NOT PLEASED

Is not Satisfied with Winning Technically—"Not Tom's Way."

NEW YORK, July 16.—After the race yesterday, Sir Thomas Lipton said: "While the Shamrock won technically, I am not satisfied with that kind of a victory, it is not Tom Lipton's way."

Lipton's first impulse was not to cross the home line after the Resolute had met with the mishap, but he was persuaded to continue as the construction and sturdiness of his yacht were factors in the winning.

ARE TRYING TO SAVE BUILDING

Creditors are Pressing for Payment of Six-year old Construction Bill on Vancouver Y.M.C.A.

VANCOUVER, July 16.—Renewed efforts to save the Y.M.C.A. building are to be made here. Creditors of the Y.M.C.A. for the construction of the Georgia Street building are pressing their six year old claim for payment, and are even threatening to take action against the old building and assets on Hamilton Street.

About $300,000 worth of construction has been put into the Georgia Street building, the progress of which was hindered by the collapse of the realty boom in 1914 and the inability of many of the guarantors to make good on their guarantees. About $300,000 is needed to complete the building. Two years ago a "drive" was made but failed by $24,000 to realize enough to complete the building and under the conditions of the "drive" all pledges were released as the total amount required to complete the building had not been obtained.

Several local syndicates are said to have their eyes on the property, as the $300,000 of construction is now worth very much more than when put into place in 1913 and 1914. Its value as a residential hotel or convention centre has attracted notice. Y.M.C.A. circles are very anxious to renew efforts to have the building completed.

OTTAWA, July 16.—The Canadian Temperance Act, commonly known as the Scott Act, will be voted on on October 25, in the Yukon Territory and the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Nova Scotia, and possibly one or two other provinces. The vote will be on the question whether the Scott Act shall be adopted and thus prohibit the importation or conveyance of liquor from other countries to other provinces into the provinces adopting the act. It will be definite "yes" or "no" and one question only. Alexander Smith, minister and election authority in this city, points out that "the act to be used will be the lists prepared under the new Union Election and Franchise Act as this act has repeated the federal laws of unhappy mem-

AIR ROUTES WILL BECOME VERY ACTIVE

Regular Service from London to Bombay promised—France Making Strides

PARIS, July 16.—A regular air-plane service from London to Bombay is probable by 1922, as a result of a rush order for planes and airdromes by an English-French company. France is excelling England in the development of civil air service, and new air routes for passengers and goods have been opened throughout France. Two of them fly between Lyons and Paris and Nice. A project is being launched this week for a flyer service from Paris to Constantinople via Prague and Bucharest. Two former captains of the French Air Service are at the head of the first section from Paris to Prague.

Already the operation of a line from London to Paris has been established for some time and a British company is developing a line to Constantinople and Bombay. The through trip from London will take 50 hours flying time, and changes of machines will be made in Paris, Prague and Constantinople. Regular flights are now made between London and the Riviera.

TOM MIX IS NERVY MAN

Plays With Danger and Seems to Enjoy It—"Western Blood" is Thriller.

Tom Mix, the star of the new picture "Western Blood," which is showing at the Westholme Theatre tonight, is the nerviest man on the screen. Nothing has ever been suggested to him that he has not done if it helped his picture. He has been thrown from precipices and shot at and hurled about in a way that you'd cost most men their lives, or at least a bump or two, not to mention their ease of mind; but they never phased Tom Mix.

The great feature of Tom Mix's work is that he never "fakes" even the slightest portion of it, nor does he allow those about him to do so. Everything is real that he does. Tom Mix plays with danger and seems to enjoy it. The thing that he hates most is the appearance of danger when it does not exist. He seems to feel that this is unfair to the public. In spite of the record that Tom Mix has already made for himself in the way of defying death in his previous pictures, the one that has just been completed far out-classes all the others in the matter of the personal danger to which its star is exposed.

SKATING RINK IS ENLARGED

Manager Marren is Giving First Dance of Season Tonight; Supper and Dressing Rooms Improved.

The series of rink dances which proved so popular last year are to be conducted again this season and the first one will be tonight. Gray's Orchestra will preside and there is no doubt of a good attendance, therefore.

Since the last dance was held in the Auditorium the place has undergone a veritable transformation and L. J. Marren, the popular manager, has expended a good deal of money lately making it more convenient.

The mezzanine supper room has been doubled in width and will now hold two long tables, seating over one hundred persons. Besides this balconies have been built along either side of the building and have been arranged for dressing rooms. Hot and cold water has been installed to further add to the convenience of the visitors. It should prove an even more attractive place for dances than ever.

Archie Grant arrived from the interior on last night's passenger train. Archie says the weather to the east is exceptionally warm.

DESPITE ANTI-OPPIUM LAWS, POPPIES ARE GROWN IN QUANTITY

SHANGHAI, July 16.—Opium is being grown extensively in parts of Fukien province despite the law against it, according to a mission worker stationed at Yenching. He writes to the Anti-Opium society:

"At the city of Yungan, the headquarters of the southern forces, I found they were growing opium extensively; even in the grounds of the yamen itself the ground was white with poppy. I was told there were over 100 opium shops in the city licensed for one dollar per night marked 'place for the breaking of the opium habit.'"

"The military are forcing the people to plant the drug and no matter what the value of the crop may be, they are to be taxed a definite amount."

LAST NIGHT'S GAME POOR EXHIBITION

Game Called at End of Fifth with Score Standing: Terrace 4; Rupert 15.

Last night's baseball game was rather an easy win for Prince Rupert against Terrace. The match did not get under way until a quarter to eight and on account of darkness and inferior playing the umpire called the game at the end of the fifth with the score 15 to 4 in favor of the home team.

Early in the game Harry Menzie was substituted for Stickey as pitcher but coming fresh from the train without a moment's relaxation before starting to play, the boys from the strawberry centre had an up hill job. Tonight a nine will be picked from the teams of the intermediate league and a more exciting tussle is anticipated.

LEAGUE HAS A VITAL MEANING

Striking Utterance of General Smuts in Assembly of South Africa—Must have All Nations

LONDON, July 16.—"Those who imagine the League of Nations is destined to fade into a nonentity are invited to study the discussion in the South African House of Assembly and the strikingly pregnant utterance of General Smuts," writes J. L. Garvin in The Observer. "The moral forces of the world are not the loudest," he continues, "but their subordination is only temporary. The League has a vital meaning for the Dominions."

Garvin points out that even the accession of America to the League wouldn't establish it in functions so long as Germany and Russia are without. It would only be a "League of some Nations." Friends of the League are urged to work early for the admission of Germany and Russia. If they are admitted and America is in, then all excuses for a continuation of the Supreme Council will have disappeared, but "it is well to be reminded," he adds, "that the Dominions aren't resigned to accepting an expedient of the hour in place of a settled policy."

The Beans are cooked to perfection; you will find every bean whole, tender, mealy and melting to the taste. Then there is a tender little strip of juicy pork to add flavor, and just the right amount of tomato sauce to give that little touch of relish.

BARBERS STRIKE IN CITY OF MONTREAL

Two Hundred Walk Out, but 600 Stay, so Situation is not so Alarming

MONTREAL, July 16.—Two hundred barbers of the local union are out on strike following refusal of their demands. It was stated at a meeting of the Barbers' Association that it would be impossible to meet the men's demand of $25 a week wages and half of the receipts of each man over $35 a week, under the present scale of charges to the customer. Six hundred barbers are still at work, so the strike is not liable to cause much inconvenience.

CANADIAN NATIONAL OFFICE MOVES INTO GRAND TRUNK PLACE

Arrangements have been made in Vancouver for the transfer of the Canadian National offices to the same quarters used by the Grand Trunk Pacific on Granville Street. The Hastings Street Canadian National office is to be abolished, part of the staff going to the Grand Trunk office and the remainder to the Main Street terminal.

This change has been made in pursuance of the policy of combining the work of the two roads in the interests of economy. Considerable extensions are to be made at the Grand Trunk offices.

TORONTO, July 16.—"Feat accomplished, tell Dan."

That was the message which Professor Charles Stevens left to be cabled to his wife, so sure was he that he was going to successfully make the passage of Niagara Falls in his English-made barrel. Dan was his manager who was supposed to have put the performance through, but who did not show up.

"Professor Stevens lost in attempt," was the message actually sent across the ocean to the widow and her nine children in Bristol.

posited, showing a shortage of $1,000.

A sensation was caused in the court when Monteith said that Hughes became very nervous when it was pointed out to him, saying that he was going to Vancouver and would fix it up on his return.

"I asked him on June 18 what the devil he meant by stealing Spencer's money, and he said that he did not know but had started by taking small amounts. He was very contrite and was going to make restitution to the very last farthing. The following Saturday he met McGeer and turned over the Times and his farm to Spencers."

COKING OVENS ARE SUCCESSFUL VENTURE

H. S. Munroe, New General Manager of Granby Co., is Pleased With Results.

VANCOUVER, July 16.—The establishment of coking ovens at Cassidy, on Vancouver Island, by the Granby Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company is proving a successful venture, according to reports of H. S. Munroe, the new general manager of the company. From 420 tons of coal per day, 300 tons of metallurgical coke are being produced, while the by-products recovered include 5,000 gallons of coal tar, 800 tons of motor fuel, and considerable quantities of ammonium sulphate. The coal tar is used in Vancouver in the manufacture of creosote, and the sulphate for making fertilizer. These results are considered highly satisfactory.
