Griffith Hughes Has Now Been Committed for Trial

Victoria Business Man is sent up to Higher Court; Counsel claims made Contract for Repayment to Spencer Firm

Business Partner Gave Sensational Testimony

Mrs. Eddy's books said to have saved him from taking his own life; Said he was going to do so

VICTORIA, July 17.—Griffith Hughes was committed for trial by higher jury yesterday afternoon on the court charge of the theft of $28,095 from the firm of David Spencer, the bail for $20,000 being renewed. The prosecution look as its point the differences in the accounts, while the defence by R. T. Elliott, K. G., was on the grounds of an agreement for repayment. "Criminal proceedings are barred," argued Mr. Elliott, "for the accused is unable to carry out the agreement when he has divested himself of all his property."

"He cannot contract himself beyond his liability," ruled the magistrate.

"The court charges only relate to a sum of about $30,000, while Hughes has on deposit with Spencers' $51,000. This, therefore, would make the case only a civil action," countered B. A. McLean for the defence.

"The prima facie case has been made out," decided the magistrate, "so I commit the accused for trial."

Intended Suicide.

VICTORIA, July 17.—In giving evidence at the Griffith Hughes theft trial yesterday morning, W. B. Monteith, former partner of the accused in the auditing business, stated that on meeting with Gerald G. McGee, solicitor for the Spencer company, Hughes said that he would be able to make restitution to the extent of $325,000 by turning over his property. "On June 29, Hughes told me that he contemplated shooting himself," continued the witness, "and had written letters to Chris Spencer, his wife and sister telling of his intention. Since reading Mrs. Eddy's book, however, he had changed his mind."

MINISTERS ARE TORY SQUIRES

So Says Toronto Editor Pleading for Hydro-Radial Progress.

TORONTO, July 17.—At a meeting held here to protest against the provincial government holding up the hydro-radial railway scheme and the proposed investigation thereof by a royal commission, John R. Robinson, editor of the Toronto Evening Telegram, hurled invectives at the head of Premier Drury, Attorney-General Raney and Hon. Manning Doherty. "They are a trio of Tory squires," Mr. Robinson said, "for if ever there were three hopeless, incurable Tories outside the bone yards, they are the three." Speaking of the commission that is to investigate the hydro-radial, Mr. Robinson said: "We do not know if it is a commission of assassination or if it is a commission of undertakings."

The meeting passed a resolution expressing confidence in Sir Adam Beck and condemning the government for delaying the radial railway undertakings.

Court Proceedings as Result of Tarring and Feathering Hyder Man

STEWART, B. C., July 17.—As a result of last Thursday's tar and feathering episode when Jack Sutherland was made to suffer this indignity, Jack O'Connor, J. McLennan and O. Hill were bound over by Commissioner Reed at the preliminary hearing yesterday. The two former are officials of the Pioneers of Alaska.

The charge laid against them was kidnapping, it being alleged that after Sutherland was decorated they forcibly took him across the border line. Sutherland was none the worse for the experience, physically, as his clothing had not been removed. The officers of the Pioneers of Alaska disclaim any responsibility for the act as an organization.

MENNONITE INVASION OF SOUTHERN STATE FINDS OPPOSITION

JACKSON, Miss., July 17.—The Democratic state executive committee has adopted a resolution opposing the proposed emigration of eight thousand Mennonite farmers from Western Canada to southern Mississippi.

The resolution declares the Mennonites to be "undesirable citizens," and objects to their settling in Mississippi on the following grounds:

First, the Mennonites refuse to allow their children to attend the public schools; second, they speak and write only the German language, which is equivalent to thinking in German; third, they are composed wholly of conscientious objectors who refused to fight for the allied cause when Canada was being bled for the war.

Resolute Sets Pace in the Second Race

Sea calm at start, but freshens up outside; Promotors and spectators on power boats reporting to shore by wireless

SANDY HOOK, July 17.—The second race for the America Cup commenced at 1:45 this afternoon when the Resolute crossed the starting line. The Shamrock IV was under way nine seconds later. The wind was tame again.

SANDY HOOK, July 17.—For the thirty-mile course the Shamrock must give a six minute and forty second time allowance on account of greater sail area.

2:15 p. m.—The Resolute leads.
2:30 p. m.—The wind is freshening and the sea is rolling.
2:30 p. m.—The Shamrock has again taken advantage of the burst of wind and is leading 400 yards ahead.

Keenly Watched.
Many power boats are in the sound watching the progress of the race and reporting ashore by wireless. Interest is running keen and the hope is held forth that the Resolute despite losing the first race may pull out in the lead when the end of the course is reached. Her supporters claim that without mishap she will prove the speedier boat on account of her lightness. Sir Thomas Lipton himself, burly old sailor, watches the progress of events from his private yacht.

3:2 p. m.—At the ten mile point the Resolute is a mile ahead.
4 p. m.—After rapid gaining by the Shamrock she is but thirty yards behind.

SANDY HOOK, July 17.—(Latest.)—The Resolute is a mile ahead again and after the first ten mile leg the Shamrock is virtually becalmed. It is doubtful if the contest will be completed. The first ten of the thirty mile course took half of the six hour limit. Lack of wind is the cause.

Exceptional Sockeye Run at Rivers Inlet This Year

One boat gets 700 fish in one day--Skeena run is average--Naas River late--Trolling was not good

J. T. C. Williams, inspector of fisheries for the northern district, received a message from the fisheries overseer at Rivers Inlet yesterday afternoon telling that the run of sockeye there is the largest experienced for years, and the canneries in that vicinity have all the sockeye that they can handle. Recently one boat came in with 700 fish caught in one day and sold the catch at 55c apiece, bringing the owner over $350. Prospects for a record pack are exceedingly good.

The catch on Rivers Inlet is largely affected by weather conditions and owing to the fine warm weather prevailing the inlet is filled with a creamy glacial silt which makes it impossible for the fish to see the nets, average and cannot be expected therefore they are taken with ease. Thousands of spawning fish are going up to Owekayno Lake which is making prospects for 1924 excellent.

None on the Naas.
Mr. Williams has just come back from the Naas River where he reports the sockeye run has not yet commenced. The American traps are not catching any fish and there are no signs outside of their coming. There seems to be no explanation for the delay but it is expected that the run will commence later.

Skeena River.
The sockeye run on the Skeena has been falling off a little in the last few days. On Tuesday the average was 45 per boat but this is not so large now. A big run is not expected this season for in 1916 the spawning grounds were not well seeded. The pack of sockeye will be little better than

GOOD GROWING WEATHER NOW

Potatoes, Turnips and Such Crops Are Developing Most Satisfactorily—More to Root Than Top.

Gardeners in the city and district state that the present warm weather is the very best for the growth of vegetables of the root variety. Usually there is so much moisture that the development is caused to go to leaves and top at the expense of the root. This is not the case now, however, and although gardens will not look so well from a show standpoint, it is probable that the crops of potatoes, turnips and carrots will be larger than usual.

Cabbage and plants of the leaf variety are growing quickly at the present time but they require moisture for rank development and too much warmth will not advance their growth. Reports from up river have it that the weather is too warm for the proper growth of berries. It is altogether likely, however, that the crop will be abundant this year even if the picking season is short. Many farmers are welcoming the arrival of people to pick their own fruit as the supply of pickers is, as usual, small.

RINK DANCE WAS PLEASANT AFFAIR

Will be Popular Summer Events; 150 Couples Attended Last Night.

Over 150 couples attended Marren's rink dance at the Auditorium on Sixth Avenue last evening. All present agreed that it was one of the best public dances held here for a long time. The dancing floor is excellent and the roomy building gives plenty of space even with such a large number present as last night. The recent improvements were appreciated, especially at supper time, when the tables were laid out so conveniently. Flowers and other table decorations helped to adorn the spread of good things. During the course of the second half of the program Mr. Marren was greeted with much applause when he made the announcement that a similar dance would be held on Friday next week.

Up to the time of the arrival of the Westholme Orchestra, Miss Adams and Willie Martin furnished the music very acceptably. Alex Gray, Will Edmunds, Will Balagun, Will Brown and Jimmie Kelly made up the orchestra and their selections last evening were well received. They were ever ready to respond with an encore and dancing continued until half past two.

Next week the Beavers baseball team will have a busy time of it, for on Tuesday night they play a postponed game with the Golts and on Wednesday a regular league game with the Red Sox. Johnny Crossley, pitcher for this team of youthful valiants, will be given a hard trial maintaining his hurling pace. However, his ready smile betrays that he is not in the least depressed over the prospect.

Smithers grabbed both ends of a double-header baseball series with Telkwa last Sunday. The second game had to be called off in the fifth on account of darkness.

The Terrace baseball team returned home this morning slightly downcast over the showing they made in their games with the local aggregation. They had satisfaction, however, in knowing that they had to some degree answered to their aspirations in being able to come to the coast and engage the senior nine.

Johnny Commins is in baseball as he is in football. The first night he knocked a homer and kept hitting well during the whole five innings. Last night he started as catcher and then moved into the box with Clem receiving. He is an all round man and on his job in whatever position he is placed.

Danny Main, the star right half of the Grand Trunk football team, has returned from a fishing trip. Unfortunately Danny was not in town for the battle royal of Wednesday night and his presence was missed on the railroads' line for his steady and clever footwork makes him a difficult man to pass.

On Monday evening there will be another regular football league game at the Acropolis Hill grounds between the Grand Trunks and the Trail. The latter has been urged on to further victories by their last week's record whilst the Grand Trunks are quite in favor of maintaining their record of no games lost in the league race.

Among those arriving from the south on the Grand Trunk steamer this morning was Miss McDonald, sister of Principal A. McDonald, of the local public schools. Miss McDonald has come north from Ocean Falls for a short holiday. She is attached to the nursing staff at the mill town.

Miss Thelma Johnstone, of Seattle, arrived in the city this morning and will spend a few days visiting with Miss Helen Morrison, Fifth Avenue East.

ANYOX HAD A CLOSE CALL

Timber Blaze Threatened Town for a While—Country Very Dry.

Anyox nearly had a serious fire at the first of the week when a bush blaze started on the hill behind the coke plant and rapidly swept through the dry dead timber, crossing the mine road behind the town and destroying several hundred feet of it. There are many points of danger from explosion and it looked for a while that some of the residences might catch, so scores of fire fighters went out and finally the blaze was put under control. It is still reported to be burning further back but there is now no danger to the town.

Forest fires are rather unusual on the northern coast but there have been fires in the timber back of the Granby smelter for nearly two months this year.

DOUKHOBOR LEADER TELLS OF BIG CROPS

WINNIPEG, July 16.—Peter Verigin, of Brilliant, B. C., known as leader of the Doukhobors, is in this city with his secretary, F. C. Allen.

Verigin, who speaks no English, talking through his secretary, said that he is in Winnipeg purely on a business and buying trip. He denied that there are any plans on foot for further negotiations for the sale of the Doukhobor colony land to returned soldiers, a plan that was discussed about a year ago.

Crop conditions in the three Doukhobor colonies, in Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia, are better, says Mr. Verigin, than they have been in the history of the colony.

Norman Broadhurst left this morning for the Granby camp up the Hocsattl river on a brief business trip. He was accompanied on the trip north by Mrs. Broadhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ward.

HIGH WATER IS REPORTED

Skeena River and Tributaries are Overflowing Banks—Amsbury Mill Closes Up.

With reports of heat up river that has not been experienced in the memory of the oldest settlers comes also word of extreme high water on the Skeena River and its tributaries. The water is on a level with the railway track in the vicinity of Amsbury and at some places the section lands have left the stations for higher ground. To passengers the river presents picturesque scenes for at many points trees are to be seen standing in the water with no apparent footing, while there are innumerable new islands.

At Amsbury the Lakelse Lumber Co. has been compelled to suspend operations at its mill for some of the machinery is under water, indeed almost on a level with the floors of some of the residences. Great caution is being exercised in the securing of the log booms in the seething torrents of the rivers and streams as intense heat such as 98 degrees at Hazelton, 97 at Terrace and 94 at Smithers is causing the snows on the mountains to melt very rapidly.

Bush fires are also reported to be raging at various points but are not proving a menace to property as yet.

COAL AREAS AT COPPER RIVER

Vancouver Financial Men have Gone to Smithers to Explore with A. C. Garde

For the purpose of making inspection of their extensive coal holdings in the Copper River district, H. W. Dyson and F. W. Osborn, officials of the Yorkshire and Canadian Trust Co. of Vancouver, are now in Smithers. They are accompanied by A. C. Garde, the mining engineer, and the party has already left for the coalfields in charge of Jack Ashman, the packing arrangements being in charge of B. M. Hoops, of Kelowna.

Great interest has been taken in the property since the war, and the growing scarcity of coal has created confidence that it would soon be worked. The property is located on Chettleburgh creek, a tributary of the Zymoetz River, about thirty miles from Smithers.

Two Seams Coal

The property, consisting of seventy-five leases, was taken up by the Copper River Coal Co., the National Finance Co., now in liquidation, handling the property as fiscal agents, until 1914, and is now being handled by the Yorkshire and Canadian Trust Co., liquidators of the National Finance Co.

There are two good seams of coal exposed, respectively nine and six feet thick, which are slightly developed by short prospect tunnels. The property has seen a lot of exploratory work and the coal measures are exposed on Chettleburgh creek for a distance of two miles. A diamond-drill was taken to the property during the winter of 1913, but has never been used, all work having been stopped since 1914.

"WESTERN BLOOD" IS A DELIGHTFUL PLAY

Daring Actor, Clever Horsemanship and Pretty Love Story Makes Tonight's Show Most Pleasant.

As a thriller "Western Blood," the picture that was shown at the Westholme last night and will be repeated tonight, has seldom if ever been excelled in Prince Rupert. Starting with the jump on horseback from the box car in the first reel to the hair-raising ride down the steep bank of the Rio Grande River in the last, the play is one of exciting actions and daring deeds in which the hero, Tom Mix, has always the leading role. His horsemanship and, indeed, the acting of his own horse are wonderful.

A pretty love story runs right through the theme and an abundance of comedy puts the audience in laughter at many places. Tom's "cave-man" wooing and his lack of self-consciousness are very unusual and pleasing. When the general's pretty daughter finally gives him another chance in the last scene and the curtain goes down every one feels that the whole thing came out just right.

Miss Lorraine Grant left on this morning's train for Terrace where she will join her father who is visiting in the interior at the present time.

TERRACE IS BEATEN AGAIN BY RUPERT

Up-river Baseballers Easily Out-matched—Score 23 to 5.

Last evening Terrace failed to rally in spite of all the efforts of the Prince Rupert supporters who valiantly turned out to do a little rooting and the final score stood 23 to 5. The third inning was the only round that the home team did not register a run. The strawberry boys were playing loose baseball, while the Rupert team was hitting hard. La Porte umpired and had great difficulty in pleasing a bunch of red hot fans who held the top rows of the grand stand.

Her name is withheld at her request.

Mrs. P. had guests for supper on Tuesday. They had a vegetable salad.

On Wednesday two of the ladies called up for her salad dressing recipe.

Mrs. P. says, of course, she says the only secret is that she uses Pacific Milk in an otherwise very ordinary dressing—and gets a delightful flavor.
