POLICE COURT TRIALS FOLLOW WHISKY SEIZURES REAT PREPARATIONS BEING MADE TO PROPERLY CELEBRATE AT FALL FAIR

Quor Cases are Still Proceeding

Johnson Fined $300 by Magistrate McMordie in Police Court This Morning; Argument in Other Cases

Cases were further proceeded with in the police court, being up for hearing the charges against Black and Charles Olsen, of the Windsor Hotel, Carl bartender at the Knox Hotel, and Olier Besner, prop. of the Knox. The case against Black and Olsen of selling ended until tomorrow morning when argument will be. This is a third offence charge. Carl Johnson, of the hotel, pleaded not guilty and was represented by W. E. His case closed by his admitting that he had sold the to the detectives and he was fined $300, with the option months with hard labor at went to the building across the The case of selling street. He came back in about Besner was proceeding at three or four minutes and walked back, the evidence of the straight to the end of the bar and having just been heard, the small card room there. Charge against Besner. Bottle From Hip.

"He did on August 2. As he was about to enter the heating liquor through card room I saw him pull a bottle from his hip pocket and I could plainly see the neck of the bottle. When he had entered this room I could see him bend down and it appeared to me that he put the bottle on the floor. He then came out and left the bar room.

As Besner was passing out, Johnson signalled us to come up and we entered the card room with him. From a barrel which was partly filled with rubbish, Johnson took the bottle of Johnny Dewar's Scotch whiskey and Smith paid him $8 for it. We then took the bottle to the Hotel Prince Rupert."

PUBLIC MEETING in
EMPIRE THEATRE
Wednesday, 25th August,
at 8.30 p.m.
Special Seats reserved for Ladies

Addresses by
JOHN OLIVER Hon. T. D. PATTULLO
Premier Minister of Lands

HON. JOHN OLIVER, farmer and statesman, who will address a public meeting at the Empress Theatre here tonight.

PREMIER READY FOR TONIGHT

Arrives This Morning Accompanied by Member for District.

This morning Hon. John Oliver, accompanied by Hon. T. D. Pattullo, arrived on the steamer Prince Rupert looking fit and well. They will address a public meeting tonight at the Empress Theatre at 8:30 and will continue north to Anyox, returning here tomorrow and going east to interior points.

It is understood that the Premier will take up some of the points made by Mr. Bowser against him on Monday night and will discuss the affairs of the province generally, especially insofar as they affect Prince Rupert.

Cross-Examination.

In his cross-examination of the witness, Mr. Patmore brought out the evidence that Money had not heard the actual words of the conversation between Besner and Johnson. It had appeared to him that this conversation had been confidential. He had not actually seen Besner enter the building across the street nor had he seen him actually take out the bottle from the barrel.

On W. J. Smith being called to the witness stand the city solicitor repeated a request that a conversation between Smith and Bartender Johnson earlier on the day in question be admitted as evidence on the grounds that the action of the employee was as the action of the proprietor in such cases. Mr. Patmore objected and the objection was sustained by the magistrate on the ground that no conversation, not in the presence of the accused, could be taken.

Corroboration.
Smith's evidence was largely (Continued on Page Six).

DR. R. W. LARGE PASSES AWAY

Well Known Methodist Missionary Closes Useful Career This Morning.

DID GREAT WORK AMONG THE INDIANS

People of Prince Rupert were saddened this morning to hear of the death of Dr. Richard W. Large, medical missionary and ordained clergyman of the Methodist Church. The doctor was also a Justice of the Peace. He had been in failing health for a year or two and was taken suddenly ill at Port Essington on Thursday. On Saturday he was brought to Prince Rupert and passed away at the hospital this morning, his wife and children all being with him.

Dr. Large was the son of an Ontario Methodist clergyman. He was educated at Trinity College, where he took the medical course. In 1898 he came to the Pacific Coast to take up medical missionary work among the Indians and the success of his efforts is well known from coast to coast.

At Bella Bella

The Doctor first went to Bella Bella, where he established a hospital under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Methodist Church and a summer hospital at Rivers Inlet. In 1899 he was married to Miss L. M. Geddes of Toronto, who has ably supported him in his work.

It was in 1910 that Dr. Large moved to Port Simpson, succeeding Dr. Kergin, and since that time he has lived there, operating a branch hospital at Port Essington during the fishing season each year. He was one of the most valued missionaries on the coast and the loss sustained by his death will be great.

Rev. Dr. Large was 47 years of age and there survive him a widow and four children: Geddes, taking the third year in medicine at the University of Toronto; Gordon, attending Columbia College; and two little ones, Alfred and Marion, five and three years of age respectively. One brother, Dr. S. H. Large, is a prominent specialist at Cleveland, Ohio, who is on his way here and is expected to arrive Sunday, the funeral taking place on Monday.

LABOR CANDIDATE.

SUMMERLAND, B. C., August 25.—Tom Richardson of Vancouver has been offered the labor nomination by a convention of labor men here. Richardson was formerly a labor member in the ey. He demands a jury trial to determine his financial stability.

IRISH EXTREMISTS POSE.

Members of the visiting Imperial Press party smiled when J. C. Glendenning, proprietor of the Derry Standard, Londonderry, Ireland, at the left, posed with P. J. Hooper, at right, editor of the Freeman's Journal, Dublin. They represent the extremes of Irish politics. Mr. Glendenning enjoyed the situation, judging from the way he was laughing.

HON. T. D. PATTULLO, member for this district, who will speak briefly at the Empress Theatre tonight.

SKEENA RIVER CLOSED A WEEK

Official Action Taken to Allow Fish to Get up River to Spawn.

After consulting with the cannery men and fishermen the local fisheries inspector, J. T. G. Williams, last week closed the Skeena River to fishing from Friday, August 20 at midnight until Thursday, August 26, at midnight in order to give the few remaining sockeye and the pinks an opportunity to get up river to the spawning grounds. As the regular weekly close season is from Friday midnight to Sunday evening, it is probable that most of the fishermen will not go out until Sunday, thus giving the fish a good opportunity to get up the river.

The action of the fisheries inspector does not in any way affect the seining or the trolling, but simply the gill netting.

Good catches of cohoes are reported outside the river and there is every expectation that the season for cohoes will be a good one.

PONZI ASKS JURY TRIAL

BOSTON, August 25.—Ponzi, the frenzied financier, has filed a statement here denying bankruptcy. Ponzi, formerly a labor member in the ey. He demands a jury trial to determine his financial stability.

Ambitious Program for Water Sports at Fair

Big Procession Opening Spectacle --- Pleasure Boat and Industrial Contests --- $400 in Prizes --- Yacht Club Cup

Plans for an Aquatic Day in connection with the forthcoming Fall Fair are now well advanced and last night the committee in charge of the preparations met in the city hall and still further perfected their program. J. D. McAuley, chairman of the committee, presided at the meeting and there were present Harry Lipsett, Alex. McRae, George H. Munro, A. Swanson, H. S. Wallace, J. Day Bell, G. W. Wilkinson, Douglas Stork, D. McD. Hunter, D. H. Morrison, P. Rorvik and George Bryant.

Big Procession.

September 25 falling on Saturday has been selected as the date for the event and the first item on the program is to be a monster procession of all the craft in the harbor which, it is expected, will be a fitting spectacle for the opening. Taking part in this parade will be, probably, the Prince George, government steamers and vessels ranging down to the smallest gas boat in size.

Program of Events.

All the separate events are to be pulled off on schedule time and, if necessary, events will be allowed to overlap. This may be deemed necessary as a big list of events will be offered. There will be trawl setting contests, canoe races for men and ladies, rowboats, pleasure craft, speed boats, cannery tenders, log rolling and aquaplaning. The Yacht Club last night, through four of its members, D. H. Morrison, Alex McRae, George Bryant and H. S. Wallace, guaranteed that that organization would put up a cup for the pleasure boats. For the speed boats there is, of course, the E. E. Campbell trophy. For all the other events it is proposed that the awards be made in cash.

Gear Setting Contest.

The officials of the Fair Association present last night voiced the opinion that the board would be in a position to advance $300 for the water sports but the committee were not satisfied with this.

On the suggestion of Harry Lipsett the idea of gear setting event was taken up and Mr. Lipsett generously offered $50 towards a fund of $300 that it is considered will be necessary to stage the exhibition. Other marine firms are to be approached by the committee with a view to making up the necessary amount. This would bring the cash awards for the marine show up to $600.

Moving Pictures.

A moving picture outfit will be here for this year's fair, if present plans materialize, and this particular event will prove spectacular and of great advertising value. Douglas Stork is looking after the canot end, Harry Lipsett the fish boats, J. D. McAuley, Indians, and George Frizzell speed boats. A committee comprising D. H. Morrison and Jack Hinton is to arrange the handicaps in the pleasure boat race.

Mr. McAuley is to interview Superintendent R. Beaumont of the G. T. P. S. S. Co. with a view to getting a scow for the officials.

REDS RUNNING BEFORE POLES

Retreat Turns to Panic and Men Discard Rifles and Run

WARSAW, August 25.—It is estimated that 65,000 Bolsheviks have been captured by the Poles. The Reds are in full flight. The retreat turned into a panic and the men ran discarding their rifles, and herds of cattle mingling with the fleeing troops.

AIR ROUTE FOR PASSENGERS TO NOME FEASIBLE

So Says Captain Street Who Arrived Recently at Northern City.

NOME, August 25.—"We accomplished what was believed impossible," said Captain Street in an address here last night. "The entire trip was completed with the original motors in spite of fogs and storms. At Ruby there was sunshine and before landing there we sighted innumerable glaciers."

In conclusion, Captain Street said that he and the others with him were convinced that an express, mail and passenger service by those routes was feasible.

BAY ON FIRE HIDDEN INLET

Cannery Destroyed and Fish Burned; Burst Tanks Cause Spectacle

Further particulars have been received in connection with the fire at Hidden Inlet, Pearse Canal, where the cannery was burned to the ground, everything, including the wharf and store, being totally destroyed. In addition there were 15,000 cases of fish and 12,000 fresh fish consumed by the fire.

The fire took place at noon on Friday and the oil tanks burst, causing the whole bay to catch fire, the sight being a spectacular one. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The cannery was partly covered by insurance, but nothing was saved.

A scheme for the supply of Terrace with electric light and power is being considered. An expert was recently there examining water powers with a view to installation of a hydro-electric plant.

DAILY EDITION.

Wednesday, Aug. 25, 1920.

Greetings to Premier Oliver.

It is some time since Premier Oliver has visited this city, some people think much too long, but he is here and we greet him most cordially. We are always glad to see any premier, but especially one who has done as much for his province as has the visitor of today. Tonight he will address a public meeting and there will be no need to ask for a big turnout on that occasion, especially in view of the attack made on him by Mr. Bowser and the surety that he will answer the leader of the opposition with no uncertain voice. He has come at an opportune time, and all who were at the Empress Theatre on Monday night will want to be there tonight.

Ship Contracts Seem Likely.

It seems very likely, in view of the announcements that have been made, that there will be more ships built at Prince Rupert after those now on the stocks have been completed. Until the contracts are actually signed, nothing is certain, especially in view of other announcements which have been made here, but the condition is most hopeful and we all look forward to a prosperous time for years to come. There will undoubtedly be little flies in the ointment but those we must always expect. There is unusual cause for optimism. With plenty of fish cars and the shipyard working we are bound to have good times here.

Reaching Out For Business.

People in the surrounding country look to Prince Rupert for a lead in matters of development, and they sometimes look in vain. They complain that the people of the city are not sufficiently interested in the interior points. "We think they are wrong." Everyone we know is intensely interested in everything between here and the mountains. That is why the Daily News makes an effort to publish so much news of the communities in the interior. We have to work together if we expect to prosper. Prince Rupert is necessary as a market and supply centre for the interior settlements, and the interior settlements are necessary to the prosperity of Prince Rupert.

News Gathering Is Expensive.

Gathering news is expensive. We publish news of interior points whenever we can get it. The News has a large circulation and it is worth something to the communities to be given prominence in these columns. If we get the support of the farmers and miners and others of the interior we can give more and more news of the districts. As it is we could publish more news if some public-spirited person in each community would send in brief accounts of local happenings. We cannot, however, publish jibes on fellow citizens nor bits of scandal. We are trying to rise above the plane of the country newspaper and publish a dignified sheet that will give a good impression when it is sent abroad.

Many Send Paper To Their Friends.

Many subscribers to the News send the paper to their friends after they have read it. The custom is more prevalent than is generally understood. It is a custom that should be encouraged, for there are times when a copy of the paper is the best advertising the community can receive. We suggest that whenever there is an article bearing on the development of the district, those who have interested friends should send them marked copies. This may benefit the News but it is of still greater benefit to the community as a whole.

"Here is a snapshot of one of the aristocrats of Prince Rupert, B.C., and her fine garden. The ground upon which the garden is made was originally all muskeg, but Mr. and Mrs. Hammond, who have resided here eight years, cleared off the stumps and rocks, dug up the muskeg and drained it. They then carted good soil from the odd places where it is found here and spread a layer of it over the muskeg. This, with a good coat of manure and some lime they worked up well, and planted their seed. Since then they have grown their own supply of vegetables and various fruits, always fresh and toothsome.

23:51 p.m., 18.7 feet.

Low, 5:52 a.m., 5.1 feet.
18:2 p.m., 8.1 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

The demand far exceeds the supply

The efficiency of Pratt's Fly Chaser is shown in the fact that the sales increase yearly to such an extent that the supply is divided among the various states and provinces. Our original shipment was taken up so quickly that we urged a second small one immediately. This is now on hand. Get your supply now.

We know that cows give more and milk, that calves put on flesh and that horses have more vim and when not worried with flies. Flies are carriers of disease and contagion. They not only make nervous and sick—they eat our profits. It is humane to use Pratt's Fly Chaser which effectively keeps away because the animals suffer less in their dumb way from these pests.

Remember Pratt's is a guarantee. It does the work.

Terrace Orchards Show Great Promise

(A casual survey of the District by H. F. Pullen)

The berry season is practically over at Terrace and the apples and pears and plums are ripening fast. Some of the trees are loaded with fruit and there are evident signs of prosperity everywhere. The person who produces is the one who is always sure of a good living and the people of Terrace are producing the very finest kind of food.

Terrace is essentially a fruit and berry district, Usk and the Kitsumkalum valley are potato and vegetable lands, especially Usk where there is rather more moisture than in Terrace. It is safe to say, however, that anywhere on the river bottom lands potatoes and almost all vegetables do well. Potatoes are also on the bench lands, but they do not produce anything like as well there as on the lower lands, although in some cases the quality is better.

Frank Clapp's

On a recent visit to Terrace, I found a number of good orchards, although I did not have time to visit a tenth of them. One of the best, from a commercial point of view, was that owned by Frank Clapp. There are ten acres in the tract, almost all planted in trees. A good many of these are of the recognized commercial varieties, such as the Wealthy apple and there are a large number of trees of each variety. They are about seven years old and from this on, if well cared for, should bring good return on the investment.

J. W. Graham has fifteen acres, but only about half of it is cultivated. He goes in for berries and fruit and potatoes. Some of his potatoes near the river bank look just as good as those grown at Usk.

Michaud Brothers

Michaud Brothers, across the river, have rich land and they grow a good deal on the small acreage they have cleared. They are prospectors and trappers as well as ranchers, and they find time to study the plants scientifically and cross fertilize some of them and produce new varieties. The Skeena Wonder strawberry, mention of which has been made before in this paper, is a seedling, the result of a cross with the Magoo. It is a fine berry and probably has a good commercial future. A good many of the plants are being raised and owners of various ranches are intending to try them out next year. Another curious berry the boys have raised is a cross between a blackberry and a raspberry, but it is not stable. The Michauds grow all their strawberries on ridges and they are very successful in raising good crops. One of the brothers is a naturalist and taxidermist and many fine specimens decorate their bachelor home.

It would be useless to try to enumerate the number of fine gardens and ranches in this favored spot. Mr. Gordon of the hotel cultivates one in connection with his other business and A. L. Kenney has the makings of a good orchard. Northward both below and above the ridge there are some fine places and Howe's ranch has been practically all put into cultivation. Mr. Gilbert's fine bungalow is in a nice setting of cultivation and in that neighborhood there are a number of good places. Alongside him is the embryo ranch owned by Rev. Dr. Grant of this city, and across the road is the Douglas Sutherland place.

At Kitsumkalum.

A very interesting section of the district is the Kitsumkalum valley in which Prince Rupert people are particularly interested because it is there the Boehler ranch is situated. It looks fine just now and the vegetables are first rate. A good exhibit will be brought to the fall fair by Mrs. Boehler, who just now is away visiting.

Adjoining the Boehler ranch are nice little farms showing good results from cultivation. These are owned by Fred Hampton, John Wentz, Frank Nightingale and J. Haubenschild. The government is building a road to serve these settlers and they will from this time be able to get their produce to market without difficulty.

Bee-keeping has commenced in the neighborhood and results may be expected soon. The bee expert reports this a perfect location for the bee keeper.

CROSSED BEAR ON A CABLE

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Clements Had Exciting Experience Returning From Bitter Creek:

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Clements returned from a two weeks' holiday in the Stewart district where they had some exciting adventures. When they went in, the roads and bridges were not in very good shape. They went up the Bear River valley beyond Bitter Creek and while there the bridge over Bitter Creek went out and also the two bridges over the Bear River.

Grossing these rivers with a raging torrent below was an exciting experience. They were drawn across in a roughy constructed cradle suspended from a cable and there were plenty of thrills in making the venture. It is an interesting experience to which to look back.

Mr. and Mrs. Clements say that it will be some time before the bridges can be rebuilt as the water has not yet subsided.

ISADORE GOLDSTEIN SUES MINE COMPANY FOR SLIDE DAMAGES

JUNEAU, August 25.—Asking for $21,500, Isadore Goldstein has brought suit against the Alaska Juneau Gold Mining Company for damages resulting from the slide which occurred on the west slope of Mount Roberts, January 2, 1920, and alleged to have been caused by the negligence of the Alaska Juneau Company.

According to complaint, the warehouse, apartment house and row of cabins owned by Mr. Goldstein were destroyed by the slide, caused by water from the Alaska Juneau Mining Company's flume, and his general store on Front Street was flooded as the result of the breaking of the flume.

FISH OUTLOOK IN ALASKA

Few Salmon Reach Spawning Beds This Year, says Official

JUNEAU, August 25.—"From present indications, judging from the number of spawning salmon in the streams, the outlook for the future supply of fish is very discouraging and it only impresses upon one the immediate need of determining upon a plan for the maintenance of the salmon supply," said Charles D. Garfield, secretary of the Territorial Fish Commission, who has just returned to Juneau after inspecting the fish supply in the streams in Stevens Bay, Frederick Sound, Rocky Pass, Sumner Straits, Wrangell Narrows and the upper end of Clarence Sound.

"The streams along the way I found especially devoid of spawning salmon. There was only the semblance of former runs, and at the mouth of each stream we saw seine boats waiting to get the fish in the creeks after the tide went down.

Pack Short

The cannery reported that the fish were not running. With the exception of the George T. Myers cannery at Karheen which has made its contract, I would say that the cannery in the district we covered have not over 30 per cent of their normal pack. "At Karheen the cannery had packed 35,000 cases. The Beau Clair Packing Company on Sumner Straits had only 10,000 cases and the cannery at Shkan had 10,000 cases. Both of the cannery at Wrangell were short. The Petersburg Packing Company was said to have 45,000 cases and I was there on Tuesday. Its normal pack is between 100,000 and 125,000 cases."

Mr. Garfield returned to Juneau yesterday after spending the last week investigating the fish supply in the streams he covered. He made the trip on the Santa Rita with R. E. Robertson, J. E. Barragar and Captain William Dickinson.

WILL ROGERS, NEW SCREEN STAR, HERE

Has Good Record as Actor and Humorist—Westholme Tonight.

Will Rogers, the Goldwyn star who will be seen tonight at the Westholme, is not only a comedian with an inimitable talent, but an author as well. When he first sprang into fame with a "specialty" act at the Ziegfeld Follies, the fact that he aspired to authorship was kept religiously to himself. But now that he has blossomed out as a successful screen star, he doesn't mind blushing when called the author of the most quoted humorous books of the season.

Harper and Brothers have recently brought out Mr. Rogers' second book, a series of rapid fire comments on the prohibition question. This is also his second book this year, the same firm having published his book on the Peace Conference earlier in the year. Will Rogers' brand of humor is quite original; in fact, President Wilson thought it so, for he told a Will Rogers story to one of his audiences.

Will Rogers writes between the acts; that is, while sitting on the "side lines" waiting for his call to step before the camera. His field has no limits, for he finds a comic side to everything. In the Follies, he has been known to present an entirely new act each night for a week, based entirely on the news in the morning newspapers. This spontaneity appears in his books of humor, which are already being quoted widely both in the press and on the vaudeville stage.
