Salmon Pack on Skeena is Good One

MINING MEN OF THE DISTRICT HOLD IMPORTANT MEETING AT STEWART

Skeena Salmon Pack This Year about 330,000 cases has been above average both of Sockeye and other varieties; only five canneries now open

Reports from the Skeena River are to the effect that the season is almost closed and that only five canneries are in operation. A close estimate of the pack for the season is at 330,000 cases in all, a larger pack than the average. Sockeye pack is also above the average so that this year may be a good one, showing no falling off in the number entering the river, but rather a gain. Cohoes have yet been taken in the river but they should soon and in two weeks the run of cohoes will be in full. In the meantime trollers are taking the fish outside. The price for cohoes this year is set at 65c. each to canneries. It is believed, however, if many of the canneries will remain open the cohoes catch as the cans are practically all filled. There will be many fishermen left on the river by that time. Fish will be sold on the market here by auction.

INDIAN SLEUTH LANDS CHINESE

Chow Yee Found Guilty of Selling Liquor on Evidence of Home Made Detective.

INTERESTING EVIDENCE OF STAR WITNESS

Through the medium of Mathew Williams, a Haida Indian, who swore in the box that he was a detective, and Sergeant Adams, Chow Yee, Chinese, was this morning brought to justice and fined $300 for "peddling liquor." The sleuth and the sergeant were the only witnesses. "I met the accused on August 30 in front of the Klondyke Hotel on Fulton Street," said the self-styled detective, "and said 'hello' to him. He turned right around and asked me what I wanted and I said 'hello' again and asked him if he had any 'sant suey' (Chinese whiskey). He said he had, at $4 a bottle, and Scotch at $10. I ordered the bottle of Scotch and when he delivered it I paid $7 cash and gave him my gold ring in lieu of the $3 stating that I would be back next day to redeem the ring.

Arrest Made.

"We made an arrangement to meet the next night at 9 o'clock but the accused did not turn up. Another arrangement was made for the night after that and I also ordered another bottle of Scotch. When we met I was all ready with $13 to pay for the new bottle and the ring. I found, however, that accused had not brought the bottle so I grabbed back the money. Sergeant Adams then came up and arrested the accused." A bottle and ring were produced in court and identified by the detective.

Cross Examination.

"Do you belong to the Pinkerton or Thiel service?" asked Mr. Patmore in cross-examination. "I belong to neither." "Is it the Metlakatla agency then?" "I already told you I belong to none. I am a Haida Indian and I come from the Queen Charlotte Islands where I live."

Officer's Evidence.

"On August 30, the witness Williams brought the bottle on exhibit to the station and we made arrangements to meet the next night and endeavor to get the Chinaman who had sold it," said Sergeant Adams in the box. "For an hour and a half I sat in the muskeg near the Klondyke Hotel but nobody showed up so I quit that evening. "The next evening we went

North Vancouver Ferry Is Tied Up by Strike

Two Thousand People Gathered on Wharf this Morning Unable to Cross; Mosquito Fleet in Operation

NORTH VANCOUVER, September 4.—The ferries owned by North Vancouver city, the only regular means of direct transportation across Burrard Inlet to Vancouver, tied up at the wharf shortly before eight o'clock. The cessation of operations was due to a strike of deckhands and others over the new wage schedule which the men refused.

Something like 2,000 Vancouver business folk waited at 8 o'clock on the north shore wharf. Some went by way of the P. G. E. and West Vancouver to reach the city and vice versa.

All the small launches available were early requisitioned and a mosquito fleet soon dotted the patch across the inlet carrying the people to and fro. Everyone got across in some way, but many were late at work.

NORTH VANCOUVER, Sept. 4, convey the shipyard workers to (noon) the city council is to their Vancouver homes. meet this afternoon to discuss the strike issue. Wallace's have Special $4.00 silk hose, $2.95. chartered the S. S. Britannia to Tax paid. Wallace's. 08

Olier Besner Wins Out On Second Liquor Charge

Quantity of Wet Goods Seized by City must be Returned to his Bonded Warehouse

Olier Besner was dismissed on the having liquor for sale charge this morning in the police court and Magistrate McMordie ordered that the liquor in his bonded export warehouse also be restored to him. As the moving illegally charge has been withdrawn by the prosecution, Besner now only awaits sentence on the selling charge, of which he was found guilty yesterday morning.

T. B. Hooper, city solicitor, in his rebuttal of L. W. Patmore's plea for dismissal this morning argued that there was no necessity for a strain of proven facts as long as there was strong presumption of the guilt of the accused. With this strong presumption and the sequence of suspicious occurrences there was strong enough evidence to put the accused on his defence.

Mr. Patmore referred to the Gun-a-Noot murder case, in which the accused had been acquitted practically on the instructions of Chief Justice Gregory, when almost everyone in the north had believed the accused guilty. There had been many suspicious occurrences in connection with the murder in question, but there had been no direct evidence. Chief Justice Hunter, in dealing with a liquor case similar to this, had stated that conviction could not be made if facts were consistent with guilt, but were not inconsistent with innocence.

Public Opinion

Mr. Hooper complimented Mr. Patmore on his narrative abilities, stating that he would probably make a better narrator than a lawyer. It was quite right that everybody thought that Gun-a-Noot was guilty and it was also the opinion of everyone that Besner was guilty of this charge. The present charge being preferred with a view to the confiscation of the liquor in the warehouse and the charge having been dismissed, Magistrate McMordie ordered the return of the liquor to Besner.

FISH AGENTS IN NEW YORK

Trade Urges Establishment of Offices in Canada.

After the Board of Trade Agent General in regard to appointment of agencies in Canada rather than in New York for the conduct of Canadian trade was discussed by the Board last night and the Agent General in connection a letter was from the Canadian Trade Agent in London explaining that there was so much direct trade with Canada as there is to that many English firms agencies here. There were a number of established New York agencies many years ago which had not yet changed their system of doing business.

SMOKING CASE IS REPORTED

Entered Lungs and Man is in Anyox Hospital.

Smoking affray is reported Anyox. This morning Chief of the Provincial police reported that Ellis Andy of had been stabbed, allegedly by Dattilo, the knife penetrating one of the lungs. The man was taken to the Anyox where he is recovering well. Dattilo was arrested and before John Conway, Magistrate, on Monday.

Mining Institute Meeting Held at Stewart This Week

Addressed by E. E. Campbell, Pat Daly, Peter E. Peterson and Other Prominent Mining Men

STEWART, September 3.—Men representing every branch of the mining industry gathered here on Tuesday and Wednesday at a session of the north coast division of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy. On Tuesday afternoon a business session was held in the Ocean View Cabaret and in the evening a banquet was given in the Baldwin Hotel grill. The visitors spent Wednesday visiting about town and district, though, on account of the bad condition of the roads, the proposed trip to the Premier mine in a body was not attempted. Both the business session and banquet were presided over by E. J. Conway, field engineer for the Granby Co. and chairman of the north coast division.

In an optimistic address opening the business session, E. E. Campbell, assistant to the general manager at Anyox and vice-president of the Institute, pointed to the progress the industry has been making in the northwest and declared that the man needed was the practical miner and metallurgist who could mine for a dollar when there was only $1.25 in the ore. He reviewed some of the work being done at Anyox and said they were mining ore there at a lower cost than any mine in the Dominion. The concentration work they were doing was unique, he said.

Concentration.

Peter E. Peterson, the concentration wizard of the Anyox plant, read a paper on the work he has accomplished there and described the Peterson Cell which the company has adopted in its enlarged plans. There was no question but what the method would be adaptable for the ores of Alice Arm and Stewart districts, he said, and would be used ultimately (Continued on Page Five.)

Rupert people will welcome Private Peat. He did his bit.

again and Williams met the accused and talked awhile. They then began to go in the direction of Fulton St. and I, wondering what they were up to, jumped up and arrested the accused. I searched both he and Williams, but found no liquor. I never lost sight of the ring even if the accused did throw it on the ground after he had been manacled. He pulled off quite a few gymnastic stunts on the way to the station in an endeavor to get away but we finally lodged him safely.

BUILDING FOR AUGUST $34,535

Improvements on Waterfront Important Part of Total Outlay.

The building inspector reports that the permits for the month of August amount to $34,535, of which $21,000 was for improvements on the waterfront. The new dock, the work on which has commenced, is not included, as the permit has not yet been issued.

The total for the month just past exceeds the same month for the last five years. August, 1919, had $32,750; August, 1918, $20,320, and August, 1917, $16,000. This month's figures are considered quite satisfactory in view of the fact that the building business all over the country is practically at a standstill on account of the high cost of materials.

Railway Commission
 And a Census.

The Railway Commission is to hold a session at Prince Rupert and this will be the opportunity to take up with them any local questions that may arise or which have arisen. The matter of a settlement of the Cow Bay question, which has been accentuated of late by the closing of the road to the public, is one that should be placed before them if some definite plan can be evolved. There is also the express parcels delivery, something which has been asked for and which the city has a right to obtain.

There is a general feeling among members of the Board of Trade that the companies are making excuses to avoid having to put in a delivery system. They are now asking for a census of the city to show that they ought to deliver parcels here. While we think their demand unreasonable, we also think it would be a good thing to have a census. It would be something to use in other directions than in securing an express parcels delivery. It would be a means of showing the world that we are really something more than a village here.

There will be a census next year, taken by the Dominion Government, but the results of it will not be known until next autumn. In the meantime we have to go under the stigma of being a town of 4,000 people as published in Vancouver, when we know perfectly well we are much larger than that. Matters of this kind have an effect on business and credits and almost everything we do.

Many Festivities In Near Future.

After being in the doldrums for a few weeks, Prince Rupert is suddenly getting up wind and will from this time on be running before a spanking breeze. Tomorrow the fun begins with a swimming gala at the Salt Lakes. Monday is Labor Day and on that occasion everyone will be out for enjoyment. Next week there will be a three-day Chautauqua to be followed two days later by a visit from Madame Fahey, the great soprano singer from Victoria.

Preparations are under way for the biggest fair Prince Rupert has ever had, accompanied by a week of carnival. Surely these things are swift enough for any city. Festivities are piling on us at a great rate and we shall have to work hard to keep pace with them. Add to all this the fact that the hunting season commenced today and it is evident that autumn activities are on in earnest.

$10 Ten Dollar Prize $10
 for Letter on Prohibition

A good friend of the prohibition cause has made an offer of a prize of ten dollars for the best short letter arguing in favor of the continuation of prohibition and against government sale. He has asked the News to receive these letters and to publish such as may be thought worth while. This we have agreed to do.

There will be no rules in connection with this competition except those which usually go with newspaper correspondence. Letters must be brief, to the point and must be couched in parliamentary language. Personalities should be avoided.

Contestants should write legibly on one side of the paper only and the correct name and address of the writer must be given, although not necessarily for publication. If the letter should be a prize winner, the name of the winner will be published.

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. AMEDEO GARCEAU

32 Haskery St., Ottawa, Ont.
 "I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1913, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and after one week I was easier, and in six weeks was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the cure of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson. The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

EXPRESS PARCELS DELIVERY SYSTEM

Matter Before Board of Trade at Meeting Last Night.

The matter of delivery of express parcels was before the Board of Trade at its meeting last night and preparations are being made to take it up with the Board of Railway Commissioners when they hold their session here.

The president reported that a map of the city, as required by the company, had been forwarded and then they had asked for a civic census before they would install a delivery system. This action the board resented as it seemed like an excuse for delay. It was decided to ask the committee to again take the matter up with the mayor and urge on the company the desirability of proceeding with the delivery of parcels without delay.

Ten Years Ago
 in Prince Rupert

September 4, 1910.

E. J. Chamberlin, vice-president and general manager of the G. T. P., has sent a telegram to Mayor Stork suggesting that a citizens' committee take up the matter of the assessment agreement. Thomas Dunn has been appointed a delegate to open fresh negotiations with the officials who are now in Vancouver.

A passenger on the Prince George on a recent trip fell overboard when he overbalanced after his hat had been blown overboard.

Magistrate Carss is very busy in the police court these days dealing with blind pig charges.

Alice Arm townsite is to be put on the market soon, according to reports brought to town.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

THAT one of the difficulties about life in Prince Rupert is that there is so little to kick about.

THAT speed boats are the talk of the town today and the interest in them is putting the liquor trials in the shade.

THAT there is promise of a good race here on Monday, but the big thing is to be the struggle to win the Campbell Cup.

THAT there are several dark horses in the form of flat bottomed boats that may make a good showing here.

THAT if the local boats don't win, the editor says they'll get a worse roast than they did last year.

THAT the Wayward Girl is said to be a little headstrong and will take a lot of beating.

THAT there is a rumor of an Indian boat that will make all others look sickly pale.

THAT the reason auto engines do not work well in speed boats is because they are partly human and feel deeply the degradation to which they are being subjected.

GAME SEASON OPENS TODAY

Hunters are Preparing to Go in Every Direction for Deer, Ducks and Geese.

Today is an important one in sporting circles for the hunting season for all kinds of popular game opened this morning. Already preparations are being made for many parties leaving this weekend for various favorite grounds, including Pitt Island, Porcher Island and Estall River, as well as the more frequented places in the immediate vicinity. Among those going out this weekend are parties headed by George Bryant, Alex McEae, Dr. L. W. Kergin and D. H. Morrison. While many are going to take advantage of the first days of the season, others wisely stand back and say they will wait until the early birds have shot their "pop guns."

The season opening today includes that for deer which will be open until November 30 for all parts of the north except Kaien Island and the Queen Charlottes. Ducks, geese, brant, snipe and plover may also be taken until December 18. The grouse season extends from today until November 15. The season for larger game such as moose, caribou, mountain sheep, mountain goat and bear opened on the first of the month.

The bag limits this year are to be strictly enforced. Ducks are limited to 20 a day or 150 in the season, geese ten a day or fifty a season, grouse 6 of one variety or 12 of all a day or fifty in the season. Deer, of course, is still limited to three in the season including one doe. Huntsmen can go out and get their three today or spread them out over the season.

BASEBALL GIRLS ARE GIVEN PARTY

Home of Ralph Smith Scene of Enjoyable Affair Last Night. Farewell Miss Mitchell.

A delightful party was given last night at Ralph Smith's home on Third Avenue in honor of the girl rooters of the Gulls' baseball club which has finished the intermediate league series at the top of the list. The girls thus honored included Misses Caroline Mitchell, Helen Hibbard, Willa Dyer, Margaret Lindsay, Annie Kelly and Lita Corral and the event also was in the form of a farewell for Miss Mitchell who leaves Sunday week with her brother James to attend the sessions of the University of British Columbia.

Most of the evening was spent at dancing to piano music ably supplied by Dave Fanthorpe. A guessing contest was also held, the high winners being Miss Helen Hibbard and John Mitchell with Miss Dorothy Barge and Mr. Fanthorpe carrying off the consolation awards. Eddie Smith was in charge of the whole affair and the refreshment end was especially well managed by him. J.N. Sinclair, who during the evening had favored with vocal selections, made a speech before the party broke up, thanking Mrs. Smith for her hospitality and congratulating the fair "rooters."

CHEAPER FISH CHEAPER RATE

That is the Proposal of Freight Rates Committee of the Board of Trade.

A report of the freight rates committee to the Board of Trade last night stated that they thought the express and railway companies were entitled to higher rates on some articles but that on the cheaper grades of fish the present rate should be maintained. To raise the rates on this commodity would kill the business.

The Board of Trade endorsed the report, the substance of which will be laid before the Railway Commission on their visit here next month.

TOM MIX HERE IN THE THREE-GUN MAN

Thrilled Audience at Westholme Last Night—Repeat Tonight

The "two-gun man" of the had, had vest must like a back seat, because the "three-gun man" has made his appearance. In the old shooting days any man, outlaw or otherwise, who could operate two six-shooters simultaneously was regarded with considerable respect and he lived longer than the fellow who could shoot accurately only with one hand.

Tom Mix, the William Fox film star, was a two-gun man when he was a Texas ranger and cowboy, and his ability to shoot with both hands got him out of some very tight holes. It was this ability, too, which helped him to wipe out the Shonts, gang of outlaws on the Pecos River in New Mexico a few years ago. Now Mix, who for some time has been engaged in thrilling motion picture audiences by his daring horsemanship and athletic feats, has developed into a "three-gun man."

In "Hell Roarin' Reform" at the Westholme Mix routs a band of outlaws by operating two six-shooters and a rifle simultaneously. This is the first time it is declared, that this remarkable feat has been accomplished.

PARISIAN GOWNS ARE SHOWN AT EMPRESS

Beautiful Models Beautifully Attired Shown in "Lombardi, Ltd."

Parisian gowns never before shown in this country and obtained only through the influence of M. P. Staupeup, technical and art director for "Lombardi, Ltd.," the Screen Classics, Inc., production starring Bert Lytell, that is the attraction at the Empress Theatre. The latest creations from Harry Collins and Hickson models, are worn by the six famous beauty mannequins in this picture.

For six of the French gowns the bill was $3,500. The models from Hickson and Harry Collins, for which Mr. Staupeup made a special trip to San Francisco for the gowns as soon as they arrived on the limited from New York, cost approximately the same.

Maxwell Karger, Director General of Screen Classics, Inc., having cast for the mannequins six of the most beautiful girls that could be found in musical comedy, from the smartest of Fifth artists' models and from the Avenue shops, from the ranks of actresses on the stream, was determined that they should be gowned in a manner fitting their appearance.

BOARD OF TRADE AND RAILWAY COMMISSION

Three Subjects to be Taken up With That Body When Visiting Here.

In connection with the impending visit of the Railway Commission on October 6, the Board of Trade will probably take up with them the matter of freight rates, express delivery and possibly the Cow Bay question. This was mentioned at the meeting of the Board of Trade last night by President Parker, who suggested that the committees having those matters in hand should be ready for action.

It is possible that a special meeting of the Board will be called to discuss these questions.

MINING INSTITUTE MEETING HELD AT STEWART THIS WEEK

for the recovery of the gold and silver here.

Transportation costs and other things affecting the mining industry in the district were referred to briefly by W. C. Ross, who was in a humorous vein.

Garde Speaks.

Milestones in the industry, marked by the Granby operations, Surf Inlet, Premier and Dolly Varden mines were the subject of a few words from A. C. Garde who predicted that the solution of the handling of the silver-lead-zinc ores of this district was but a matter of time and that selected oil flotation is a distinct step in the right direction.

William Noble reviewed the past, being one of the earliest pioneers in the district.

In an interesting few minutes Dr. J. A. Baneroff spoke on geology not only in mining and oil but in connection with railroad construction and general engineering. The big mission of the geologist in the mining field, he said, was to work out the geology of various districts. Ore bodies, he pointed out, occur in so many ways. Such studies, preceding the prospector, would indicate where mineral was not to be found, and in this way the geologist and his work would be of vast benefit nationally.

Brief remarks were made also by J. L. Stamford, Mr. Brindle, John Dillon and Tim Williams and the discussion proved interesting.

Big Missouri.

At the banquet the visitors laid business aside, only brief remarks with reference to the occasion, compliments for their reception from the visitors and welcoming speeches being made. Owing to having arrived too late for the business session, Pat Daly took occasion at the banquet to make reference to the closing down of the Big Missouri, being inclined to not accept as final the results obtained by the limited amount of diamond drilling upon which the decision to abandon work was based by Dr. Baneroff and the Pacific Exploration Co. Mr. Daly made reference to the history of some great mines, including the Premier, where development had altered opinion of engineers and geologists and expressed abiding faith in the resumption of work at the Big Missouri.

Those Present.

Among well known members of the Institute present were E. E. Campbell, vice-president; E. J. Conway, field engineer for Granby and chairman of the north coast branch; H. M. Roscoe, secretary; J. Tuttle, Jr., mine superintendent at Hidden Creek; Peter E. Peterson, superintendent of concentration at Ansox; N. E. Nelson, field engineer for Granby; Jack Dillon, assistant smelter superintendent; W. L. Wetmore, mechanical engineer; William Weir, chemist; A. B. Wing, superintendent at Swamp Point; A. C. Garde, mining engineer; Dr. J. A. Baneroff, professor of geology at McGill; Dr. S. J. Scofield, in charge of the Dominion Geological Survey of Salmon River; G. W. Bain, fourth year student at McGill.

A. C. Garde was the only representative of the Institute from Prince Rupert.
