EVIDENCE IN LIQUOR CASE

Detectives Tell of Purchasing a Bottle of Johnnie Walker at New Windsor.

CARLSON DID NOT APPEAR IN COURT

Evidence was taken in the Miller and Carlson liquor case this morning and adjournment made until tomorrow when Police Sergeant Adams will be called by the defence as a witness. This morning Detectives Hugh Money and William Smith were heard as well as City Treasurer W. D. Vance who testified in regard to the license of the New Windsor Cabaret.

The charge alleges the sale of a bottle of whiskey in which Miller and Carlson are accused of being jointly involved. As Carlson has not been located since he was released on account of improper arrest, Miller was the only person to appear in the dock this morning.

Detective Money.

Detective Money told of going to the New Windsor Cabaret in company with Detective Smith. As the result of a conversation between Money and Carlson in which the former testifies he asked for a bottle of whiskey, Carlson went to Miller and got a bunch of keys. Carlson left the cabaret and returned about ten minutes later with a bottle, returning at the same time the keys to Miller. Money had paid $12 to Carlson to cover the bottle which was $10 and $2 worth of drinks.

The bottle of Johnnie Walker's Red Label was too uncomfortable to carry around so the witness set out for the Prince Rupert Hotel with it. On the way he noticed that he had left his pipe behind so he went back to the cabaret. It was getting late by this time and one of the girls was going to the Vancouver boat so they all got in a waiting car. Smith and Money were dropped at the car-

Great Grain Crop Throughout Canada

All Grain expected to yield well; Flax nearly double amount of last year; Increases phenomenal

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—The latest careful estimate of the grain crop of Canada shows that the crop of wheat this year will total something like 262,338,000 bushels, an increase over last year of almost seventy million bushels.

The oat crop is correspondingly large. It is expected when the thrashing is completed that the total output of oats in the Dominion will be 496,686,000 bushels or over one hundred million bushels more than the crop of last year.

The barley crop is estimated to reach 63,438,000, an increase of nearly seven millions over last year, while flax gives an increase of approximately five million bushels, the total being set at ten and a half million bushels.

This large crop means a great deal to every part of the Dominion for it will place a large amount of money in circulation, and will aid in righting the adverse balance of trade.

GOOD MEETING AT TERRACE

Mon. T. D. Pattullo Dealt With Local Issues and Premier with Provincial Affairs.

(Mail Correspondence.) TERRACE, Sept. 8.—The public meeting addressed by Hon. T. D. Pattullo and Premier Oliver last week in Progress Hall was well attended and proved very valuable from an educative point of view. Mr. Chandler of the Terrace News occupied the chair.

The member for the district dealt chiefly with local issues. He pointed out that he had secured a fair share of the provincial grant for public works for his constituency and that Terrace had received a fair allotment of this. He was doing the best that could be done under existing circumstances and had no apologies to offer.

With reference to the establishment of a land settlement area in the district, the minister assured his hearers that when this was done, even-handed justice would be meted to all concerned and no one or two made a goat for others. His address was well received and his attitude well spoken of, even by his opponents.

Clear and Forceful.

Premier Oliver spoke in his usual clear and forcible manner. Many of his hearers were new to B. C. politics and these were given a good insight into the legislative workings of the province. The premier dealt clearly with the Dolly Varden affair and since hearing him most people are convinced that under his direction British Columbia is not only a safe place for capital to be invested, if invested honestly, but also a safe place for the laborer to ply his craft.

Seeing the large number of ladies in the audience, the premier explained several acts of the legislature tending to the betterment of the social and home life of the people. He paid a high tribute to the ability of the one lady who now occupies a seat in the legislature.

R. M. Wellwood, electrician for the Granby Company at Anyox and formerly of Victoria, returned last night from a lengthy trip east and goes to Anyox tonight. He is accompanied by Mrs. Wellwood and son.

Cause of Unrest Autocratic Government.

Recently mention was made of the efforts to induce the Dominion Government to appeal to the country through the holding of a general election. We also mentioned that we did not think that in the west there was any demand for an election just now.

"W. L. Mackenzie King has again and again insisted that one of the remedies for the unrest which now prevails throughout Canada is a return to responsible government. It is upon this ground that he demands that a general election be held so that a government and parliament which really represent the people of Canada, will take the place of a government and parliament whose mandate has expired and which no longer possesses the confidence of the country.

Election A Remedy.

"The remedy for all this is a general election, which will result in giving Canada a government and a parliament which really represent public sentiment as it is today. It is possible that such a parliament would contain many new men and new elements and represent new schools of thought. In all this there is no danger. The responsibility attached to a seat in parliament has a natural tendency to moderate extreme views. In fact experience shows that the atmosphere of the capital is not at all favorable to radicalism and that there is rather more danger of a new member being too much influenced by his surroundings and going too far in the direction of conservatism.

Canadians are Sane and Progressive.

"The people of Canada are sane and moderate. There is not the slightest danger of Bolshevism making any headway in Canada. The history of Canada is one of progress along moderate and constitutional lines and there is not the slightest doubt that in this respect history will repeat itself.

"The best rallying ground for men and women who are at once moderate and progressive, is the Liberal party. The Liberal party does not profess to accept all the new ideas which have come to the surface in the present ferment of new thought, but it is open minded. It does not believe in suppressing thought or speech. It is not afraid of new ideas. It regards it as a sign of health that men and women today are thinking for themselves instead of accepting without thought the ideas of so-called men of light and leading. The new movement of thought in Canada today represents a decentralized public opinion. That opinion must be reckoned with. Public policy must be shaped in accordance with any opinion that is progressive, constructive and sane. The new movement cannot be met by reaction. The country wants no extremes of either kinds, it wants orderly government. Government safeguarding freedom as well as order. It would be an immense benefit to Canada if we could have such a change as was effected in 1896 when a weak government which had ceased to represent the people was replaced by a strong and representative government. Peace, union and progress were the results of that change. Peace, union and progress will be the result of the defeat of the present government and the coming of a government and parliament that will represent the sane progressive ideas of Canadian people."

RAILWAY BOARD AND THE CITY

Will Perhaps Discuss the Morse Creek Bridge, Cow Bay and Assessment.

As a result of an inquiry made by Alderman McLennan last night as to progress on the Morse Creek Bridge, certain questions which may be brought up at the impending visit of the Railway Commission were suggested. It appears that all that stands in the way of the starting of the bridge is the endorsement of the latest city plans by the railway commission, for the railway has already endorsed them.

The mayor suggested that the city should have its case ready to present when the commission came. The Cow Bay matter and the railway assessment were mooted as possible questions. Alderman Dybhavn stated that he had seen a letter from Mr. Carvell, the chairman, telling that any local matters would be taken up. Therefore it would be up to the city to get started on its case without being further notified.

The application of J. D. Fargo for a beverage license was turned down by the council last night and the permission refused despite the recommendation of the chief of police that it be granted. The premises applied for are 710 Third Avenue West.

It was pointed out by the mayor that Fargo was the late partner of McDougall in the Turf Buffet which license was revoked last week, McDougall having been found guilty of an infraction of the B. C. Prohibition Act.

Alderman Perry moved, and Ald. Murray seconded, that the license be granted on the recommendation of the chief of police, but Aldermen Rochester, McLennan, Dybhavn and Kerr all voted against it, so the recommendation was thrown out.

WOULD SHIP PRODUCT BY THIS ROUTE

Manager of Granby Co. Sees no Reason Why Copper Should Not Go Through Rupert.

"The Granby smelter ships fifteen cars of copper a week and there is no apparent reason why it should not all go through Prince Rupert. If shipped that way it would have to be taken regularly and not stacked up." That was the statement made to the Daily News by H. S. Munro, general manager of the Granby company's smelter and other activities. Mr. Munro went on to say that he thought the railway company would be looking for business and they were prepared to give it, if they would take care of it. Just now they would like to ship five or six cars of copper a week by this route, three cars on each steamer, but the transportation company was now taking off one of the steamers and they would not be able to get more than three cars a week.

Present Output.

Mr. Munro went on to say that the output of the smelter at Anyox would be increased, just as soon as the price of copper went high enough to make it profitable. At present the price was so low that they were manufacturing only enough to keep the plant going. The output at present was about 2,500,000 lbs. a month, but if the price increased they could raise the output to 3,500,000 lbs. without difficulty.

Mr. Munro said that all the social activities of Anyox had now been placed in the hands of the Community League. The billiard parlor, movie theatre and all other affairs. They would like to hand over the hotel to the same people but they lost too much money on it for the League to take it.

Newspaper Too Costly.

Plans had been made for starting a daily newspaper, but they found the cost would be too great. They could not do anything for less than $15,000, and then there was the prospect of losing money on the venture.

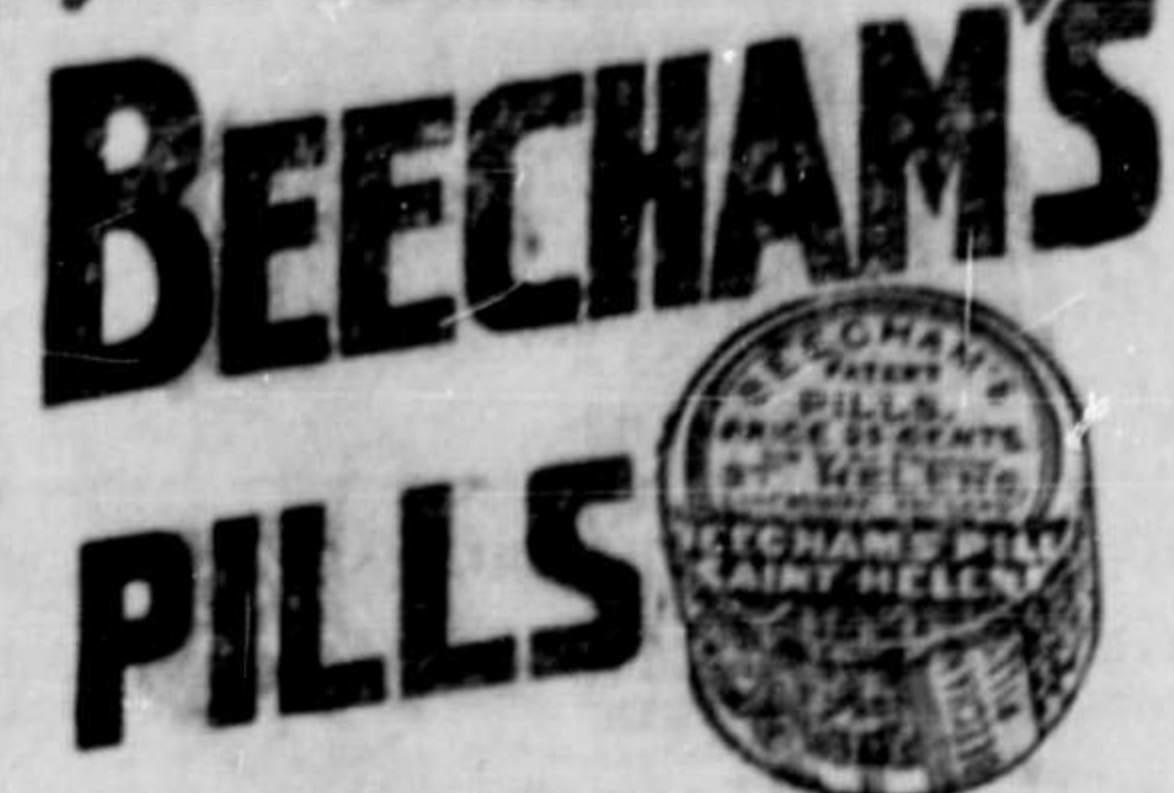

Mr. Munro went south on the Prince George.

SANITARY INSPECTOR GETS SALARY RAISE

Council Divides on the Question and Mayor McClymont Decides.

Sanitary Inspector William R. Martin is to receive a salary increase of $10 per month, making his new wage $165, according to the decision of the council last night. A report to this effect was brought in by the health committee and its adoption was moved by Aldermen Perry and Murray. Alderman Rochester did not favor the increase, feeling that it might well be left over until January when a general change would probably be effected. There was an even division among the six aldermen present and the mayor declared the recommendation adopted. The ayes were: Aldermen Perry, Kerr and Murray; nays, Aldermen Rochester, McLennan and Dybhavn.

NEW SEWER LINE CHINESE QUARTER

City Clerk Points Out All Premises Abutting Sewers Should Be Connected.

On the recommendation of the health committee the city is to prepare a by-law for the construction of a 300 foot sewer to cost about $700 which will serve Second and Third Avenues between Seventh and Eighth Streets. This sewer will be built on the local improvement basis and will connect with the Eighth Street sewer along the alley between Second and Third Avenues.

As this section is rapidly filling up with the Orientals it was deemed wise in the interests of economy and sanitation that the new connection be made. The city clerk pointed out in reply to a question of Alderman Perry's that all premises abutting sewers are required, by city statutes, to be connected therewith.

ASK FOR REMOVAL OF DANGEROUS BLUFF

John Joy and 22 Others Present Petition for Improvement on Ninth Avenue.

A petition from John Joy and 22 others for the removal of a bluff in front of Blocks 33 and 41 on Ninth Avenue West was referred by the City Council last night to the board of works.

According to the statement of the petition the bluff causes such a hump in the street that it is dangerous for vehicles and pedestrians, as the view is so restricted in its account. The menace to the youngsters who play about there is also declared great.

WILLIAM FARNUM AS A VIOLIN VIRTUOSO

Dramatic Tale of Love and Sacrifice With a Big Fight for Right.

In his newest motion picture, "Heart Strings," which is to be shown for the first time here at the Westholme Theatre tonight, William Farnum will be seen in the role of a violin virtuoso, the central figure of a remarkable story of devotion and sacrifice. As many of the scenes are laid in the Laurentian Valley of quaint Quebec, an unusual touch in atmosphere is given.

Mr. Farnum in this production adds a most lovable character to the extensive gallery of his screen creations. It is the role of a young musician who, when just at the threshold of artistic fame, sacrifices all for love of his sister.

The story, in its unfolding, is replete with dramatic incidents, giving this great actor wide play not only for the tenderest of all emotions, but also for a virile, manly portrayal of the big brother who, turning upon those who have wronged one he adores, fights as only a real man can fight whose muscles are used for the right.

In wonderful contrast to his sentimental scenes with his sister, Mr. Farnum's character work in this picture reaches unusual heights, giving the story great force.

George Meolin, 24 years of age, resorted to the use of the inflammable liquid to wash his overalls. Having done so he carelessly lighted a match. He was in flames immediately and succumbed as a result of injuries received.

TELKWA

Mr. and Mrs. Sandborn, of San Gabriel, Cal., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Tom Jefferson. They intend staying here for two weeks before proceeding on their journey to New York, returning to California some time in November.

Another old-timer is here in the person of Lem Broughton, who arrived with the intention of staying three days, but changed his mind and is going to remain over for the Barbecue. He is at the McNeil ranch enjoying the pastime of breaking some young colts.

If the way the straws fly is any indication of how the wind is blowing, then Telkwa is becoming quite a political centre. We have had visits from Colonel Peck and both leaders in the provincial house and the minister of lands. The sitting member will no doubt give the district another look over.

The Grand Trunk Pacific have started on the new siding and loading facilities. The steam shovel and a big gang are busy getting the yard and track into shape. Let us hope they keep at it until they finish the job.

Jack McNeil has gone on an extended business trip to the east. He will likely be away for three weeks.

Tom Jefferson is leaving for New York on a business trip.

Louis Schorn has closed up shop and gone into the hills to take a first hand look at his mining interests. From all reports he has the goods.

ner of Sixth Street and Third Ave. while the rest proceeded in the car. The bottle produced in court was identified by Money as the bottle sold by Carlson.

In cross examination, W. E. Williams, the defending lawyer, brought out the evidence that Money had never seen Miller tending bar at the New Windsor Cabaret except at the one time when Carlson had gone out on this occasion.

Details Given.

Detective Smith's evidence was substantially corroborative of Money's but a few more details were given. After Carlson had returned from the trip outside, allegedly for the bottle of liquor, he had complained to Miller about how dark it had been and the difficulty he had had in getting the bottle. He also said he had broken his belt so Smith had lent him his own.

Smith also testified that the $2 for drinks had been rung up in the cash register while the $10 for the bottle Carlson had put in his pocket.

Almost every night Smith said he had gone to the New Windsor. Miller was in the habit of coming in about 11:30 each night and checking the cash register, taking away some of the money.

Smith had a long line of credit at the New Windsor, which Miller had told Carlson to extend him.

Cross examined by Mr. Williams, Detective Smith told of having gone at one time to Miller's house for whiskey. Miller had told him that there was a policeman in the house at the time and he couldn't get any then but he had told him to see Carlson.

Other Cases.

D. Zarelli is to come up tomorrow morning to answer similar charges. His arrest was ordered in Vancouver and he arrived by the Prince Rupert this morning.
