Mendous Earthquake Shock Devastates Italian Cities

One Town Alone Ten Thousand People said to be Homeless; Buildings Overthrown and People Buried in Debris

RENTON, Sept. 9.—Another violent earthquake took place this morning, causing the loss of many lives and considerable damage.

RENTON, Sept. 9.—Over 10,000 people are homeless and dead in one town alone as the result of an earthquake occurred here and which seems to have been felt throughout the country. Many large buildings have been destroyed and are buried in the debris. Everywhere there is damage. The book and houses trembled and many were overthrown.

OTTAWA, Sept. 9.—The Italian earthquake shock was reported on the instrument at the observatory here.

PRINCE GEORGE HAS NO PITY

POLICE COURT LIQUOR CASES

Evidence in Miller Case Concluded While Prosecution Heard Against Zarelli.

MONDAY PROMISES TO BE VERY INTERESTING

Evidence for the defence in the Miller-Carlson liquor case and for the prosecution in the D. Zarelli second offence selling charge was heard in the police court this morning. The former case has been adjourned until September 16 and the latter until tomorrow morning when defence testimony may be taken. September 13 promises to be a big day, for several of the more prominent accused come up for sentence on that day and this morning Magistrate McMordie signified his intention of disposing of some of them.

In the cases this morning Sergeant Adams and Jack Miller were called by the defence in the Miller case, the former testifying as to Carlson coming to him inquiring as to the means of getting a license for the New Windsor Cabaret.

Miller testified again that he had no interest in the premises in question other than as the landlord. He was to be paid $125 a month in rent, but Carlson's business affairs had been in none too good shape lately and he had been in the habit of going around after closing hours and taking such money as he could from each day's receipts towards the payment of rent.

He contradicted the evidence of City Clerk Woods that he had come to him regarding the obtaining of a license for the New Windsor. He had not known until these liquor cases commenced that the license for the premises had been made out to Carlson and himself.

Counsel Argue.

W. E. Williams, in his address, drew attention to the fact that Miller had explained various incidents such as the license and keys satisfactorily. There had been other mistakes in this particular license and the inserting of Miller's name on it was still a further one. At any rate the cabaret had no interest in the liquor, for Carlson had put the $10 in his own pocket and not in the till. He asked that Miller be given the benefit of the doubt and be dismissed on the grounds that he was not the occupant of the premises.

Mr. Hooper argued that taking the money from the till was the direct act of a proprietor. In regard to the returning of the keys by Carlson to Miller there was the evidence of the detectives and Miller contradicted each other. The same applied between Woods and Miller in evidence. There was much conflicting evidence in which more than one witness contradicted Miller. He felt that there was sufficient evidence to convince the magistrate that Miller and Carlson were joint owners of the cabaret.

Zarelli Case.

Detectives Smith and Money were the only witnesses called in the Zarelli case this morning. Their evidence which is corroborative is to the effect that the purchase had been made direct from the accused in room 1 of the Royal Hotel. Seven dollars is the sum that was paid for the bottle of King George that was identified in court. August 14 is the date of the alleged sale. Smith had seen Zarelli deliver a bottle previously to a colored lady in a chili parlor and that was how he found out that Zarelli was selling liquor.

L. W. Patmore, on the defence, questioned the witness rather severely as to dates. The witness said that he could tell every bottle he had bought and the date upon which it had been bought.

A long dialogue then took place between Mr. Patmore and the witness regarding the manner in which the latter secured a bottle of whiskey he was alleged to have been found drinking.

NO ROOM FOR SOME SCHOOL CHILDREN

Class Sent Home From Borden St. This Morning Pending Finding of Another Room.

The School Board has been unable to get accommodation for a class of pupils at the Borden St. school so this morning eighteen senior third pupils were sent home for the week. A committee was appointed at last night's board meeting to find quarters for another room and an effort is being made to go to the Presbyterian Church hall. Dr. Grant will be back tonight and a decision will be made after he has been consulted. The class will probably resume their studies on Monday.

The board was unable to decide on the basement of the Baptist Church.

DRINKS LIKE A TOPER

R. T. Elliott has to Pay $1,388.20 Costs of Court in the Oliver Libel Case

VICTORIA, Sept. 9.—While the damages granted Premier Oliver by the court in his libel suit against R. T. Elliott were only nominal, the judgment was in reality much more than seemed on the surface. The amount of costs awarded Oliver, as the winner of the suit and now finally approved, is $1,388.20. This has to be paid by Elliott in addition to his own costs, which of course would be as high as those of the opposing side. The libel was therefore very costly in money as well as in prestige for the Victoria lawyer.

The case was brought by Premier Oliver as an aftermath of an attempt on the part of Elliott and Robert J. Cromie of the Sun newspaper to get the Dolly Varden mine and railway away from the present owners. The matter came before the Legislature and Elliott made a savage attack on Premier as a result of which the action was brought. The verdict cleared John Oliver and the bills are being paid by Elliott.

ELSE GORDON SIMPLY GREAT

Impersonator and Entertainer at Chautauqua Made Hit With Local Audience.

Elsie May Gordon, impersonator and entertainer, is a study in psychology. From the moment she tripped to the platform last night at the auditorium she held the Chautauqua audience and played on their feelings, making them laugh when she would, and be solemn when she wished. She gave sketches of the negroes of Georgia and sang a couple of their songs, giving a wholly new impression of the people of the slave days. She showed why it was impossible to write the folk songs of the old south.

In her other sketches she was interesting all the time and, judging by the effect on the audience, it is safe to say that everyone enjoyed the entertainment and thought it well worth the money.

The Royal Willow Four gave the first half of the program. Their singing was excellent and their jokes bright. Their part of the entertainment was somewhat similar to that given in the afternoon.

This afternoon is devoted largely to piano and vocal music, while tonight Julia Morse, soprano, sings, Alice Genbieve Smith plays the harp and there is a lecture on "Ireland" by Louisa Peat. This should be first rate, judging by the advance notices.

"The Miracle Man" arrived on today's boat and will be shown on Friday and Saturday with a matinee Saturday also. The greatest picture produced so far.

POLICE COURT WANTS STENOGRAPHER NOW

Mr. Woods Has Other Work to Do and Great Delay Caused in Dealing with Big Cases.

In the police court this morning Alex. Manson inquired if some joint recommendation could not be made so that another police court stenographer may be obtained. Mr. Woods was overcrowded with work and he had other duties to attend to. This police court work was unfair to him and he could not do justice to it. Keeping these witnesses waiting until notes were transcribed was expensive to the city and a police court stenographer would be in the interests of economy.

Mr. Hooper concurred, stating that he had already urged the necessity on the mayor and aldermen. There should have been a stenographer brought from Vancouver to handle these cases. There was also work in the police office that a stenographer could be employed at.

W. E. Williams and Magistrate McMordie were also of the opinion that there should be a stenographer.

New Rates Immense Burden on Country

Increased Levy by Railroads will mean anything from Two to Three Hundred Millions a year to be Paid by People

CALGARY, Sept. 9.—Traffic experts here say the railway rate increases mean an added burden of $300,000,000 a year or $100 for every family. The loss to the western farmers will amount to $20,000,000 this season.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 9.—The Free Press, editorially, says that the people will have to pay an additional burden of $200,000,000 a year as a result. The judgment is remarkable for the amazing speed with which everything asked of it was granted.

CANDIDATES FOR ATLIN

PRINCE GEORGE SELLS BONDS

Several Names Mentioned as Possible Nominees of Conventions to be Held.

STEWART, Sept. 9.—Kate Ryan one of the heroines of the trail of '98 to Dawson, is spoken of here as a candidate for the legislature to fill the position formerly held by the late Frank Mobley. She is well known, especially among the old timers, prospectors and miners, and if she runs her chances of election are said to be good. Miss Ryan is at present living at Stewart.

Other candidates mentioned are Pat Daly of Stewart and Harry Andrews of Anyox. Both are well known and popular and it is said would make good representatives.

W. Ross, the local lawyer, son of W. R. Ross, member for Prince George, is also said to have political ambitions and is spoken of as a possible candidate in the Bowser interests.

As soon as an announcement is made as to the date of the election, conventions will be called by each of the parties and nomination's made. It is not decided whether the conventions will be held here or at Anyox, probably at Anyox.

SCHOOL CLOSED AT ALICE ARM

Residents Live on Indian Reserve and are not Taxable—Over Twenty Children.

ALICE ARM, Sept. 8.—Due to a combination of circumstances there seems to be some doubt about a public school starting in Alice Arm this fall. For the most part the residents are squatters on the Indian reserve and but very few are living on property subject to schools taxation. When school closed last spring there were twenty scholars enrolled, but six of whom belonged in the school district, while this year, due to the growth of the camp, there will be several more enrolled, the most of whom will be from outside the district.

The trustees have never been able to secure a teacher for the compensation allowed by the government and heretofore a collection has been taken up to make the position sufficiently attractive, but a short time ago when a public meeting was called by the chairman of the board for the purpose of securing subscriptions for this school year, and transacting other important business, not one resident responded to the notices posted. The chairman then wired the minister of education with the result that an additional one hundred dollars was appropriated for the school, but as it will require $160 to carry the school through the year the situation remains much the same.

Poor Building.

There being no school building the public school has been held in a little poorly constructed building used for church purposes and it has been stated that this structure has been condemned for use as a school as well as being too small to accommodate the number of scholars who shall attend this year.

The present lack of interest would indicate that a large proportion of the population are indifferent to educational facilities and it is therefore likely that the Alice Arm public school will remain closed indefinitely, or until such time as some action may be taken by the government officials to provide a school building and a teacher at the salary allowed, or the parents of children living outside the school district take a deeper interest in the needs of education.

PREPARATIONS FOR FALL FAIR

Entries Begin to Come in and Prospect is for Successful Event.

Preparations for the fall fair, which opens on Wednesday, September 22, the week after next, are in full swing and there is every prospect that it will be a bigger and better show than has been put on here before.

The people of the city are showing a good spirit of co-operation and the officials are working hard to make the affair a success. Entries have already commenced coming in and exhibitors are asked to try to have all their entries made next week at the latest.

There are a few who have not yet paid in their subscriptions and other few who have not paid for their advertising in the fair book. These are asked to call at the office and straighten out their accounts.

MATRICULATION SCHOLARSHIP

Most Efficient Matriculant From Prince Rupert High School to Receive Halsey Memorial Award.

The first scholarship to be awarded exclusively to Prince Rupert students was announced at the School Board meeting last night and will be known as the Halsey Memorial Scholarship.

The award is to be given annually to the most efficient student in the junior matriculation class at the high school and is a bequest from the estate of the late Major J. Charles Halsey, who died at Balfour Hospital two years ago after a long service overseas.

The School Board was unanimous in its feeling of appreciation and suitable thanks are to be conveyed to Mrs. H. M. Halsey, the widow.

CHAUTAUQUANS FIRST RECITAL

Royal Willow Four are Clever and Harmonious Vocalists With Other Gifts.

The opening concert presented by the Canadian Chautauquans Company at the Auditorium yesterday afternoon proved very entertaining although there was not a large assembly present. The program was rendered by the Royal Willow Four who are versatile and humorous vocalists. Besides being singers each member of this company is gifted in another way, for William D. Broom, the second tenor, is also an able pianist, George Fulton, the baritone, a clever sketch artist, and Arthur Ainsley, a splendid bass and pianist as well.

The program yesterday afternoon was opened with the chorus "My Own Dear Canada," in which a sweet blending of voices was displayed. "The Old Oaken Bucket" also gave another splendid opportunity for harmony. The troupe were not failing in popular music and "They're All Sweeties" offered a different phase of entertainment.

INDIVIDUAL NUMBERS.

Arthur Ainsley accompanied by a mimic banjo chorus by the other three of the troupe did well in "Massa's in the Gold, Gold Ground." He also sang "Asleep in the Deep," the well known bass solo, with good effect. William McFarlane McGregor, the first tenor, sang "Mother of Mine" and with Mr. Ainsley, "Mother Ma-chree" as a duet.

A novel part of the program was the crayon sketches by Geo. Fulton. He shows a good deal of adaptability and cleverness at this work and is accurate and speedy. His sketches were of King George, Lloyd George and Marshal Foch, each of which were wonderful likenesses. He also illustrated Mr. McGregor's solo, "Mother of Mine." During these sketches Mr. Ainsley was at the piano in instrumental numbers. The accompanist for the troupe was William D. Broom.

NEW PICTURE AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Douglas MacLean and Doris May in "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave"

Two new co-stars hold the screen at the Westholme Theatre for the current bill in a Thomas H. Ince production entitled "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave," Douglas MacLean and Doris May.

A large number of friends gathered to attend the funeral of Mrs. Fred C. Borhaven last Saturday afternoon. Rev. David Gray was the presiding clergyman and the pallbearers were Albert Heymann, J. H. McMillan, Robert Reid and David Turcotte.

Miss Jean Mitchell has been appointed to take charge of the local telephone exchange.

Mrs. Fergus Park, George Ogston and E. C. McGeechey have been appointed trustees of the new church and site.

Miss Mary Lee has accepted an appointment to teach in a Saskatchewan school. She will be missed in ladies' athletic circles.

The present picture is splendid light comedy, with a strong romantic interest, and centres around a training camp in which men are prepared for the recent war. "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave" does not, however, have any war atmosphere. It is pure fun and romance from first to last and is remotely removed from anything in the least gruesome or foreboding. It is an adaptation from a story by Mary Roberts Rinehart, recently published in one of the popular national magazines. Mrs. Rinehart is an author who is constantly in touch with the wants of the public and her "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave" is proof conclusive of this statement.

TERRACE

School reopened here on Tuesday with Mr. McNeil, Miss Peirson and Miss Marsh, the teachers in charge. Miss Marsh has her primary classes in the Progress Hall.

Old band players and new persons who are to form the new Terrace band met last night in Progress Hall and formulated a program for the winter practices. New instruments have arrived for the organization.

J. Bruce Johnston, of the Lakelse Hotel, stated while in town last week that business at the Lake was better than ever before.

Mrs. W. Kirkpatrick left last week for an extended visit to her home in Ontario.

L. H. Kenny has been appointed deputy mining recorder for this district, Mr. Kirkpatrick having resigned.

Ripe tomatoes are commencing to arrive in town from local farms. A good crop will be harvested this year.

STEWART

Work on the property of the Bush Mines Limited is progressing favorably under the direction of O. B. Bush. A crosscut tunnel is being driven to tap the main ore bodies at a depth of 250 feet.

The first dance of the season took place Friday night at the Ocean View Cabaret and was well attended. Refreshments were served and the dawn was breaking when the dancers left.

Mrs. E. M. Beale is selling the stock and fixtures of the Beverley Cafe and will return to Victoria.

W. H. Watson has been elected secretary treasurer of the Stewart Citizens' Association by acclamation.

PRINCE GEORGE

Charles Miller, of the Toronto law firm, Miller, Ferguson and Hunter, visited here last week to look over his property in the city. He contemplates building some residences for sale.

Premier Oliver and Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of Lands, addressed a crowded meeting in the Princess Theatre here Saturday evening.

W. P. Beal has arrived from Phoenix to take charge of the Prince George school in succession to Ivor Bassett who has accepted the principalship at Revelstoke. Miss K. Halliday of Victoria succeeds Miss Errol Branick.

School Inspector Gordon H. Gower returned last week from a visit to Penny and Dome creek where schools are being asked for. The increase of schools in the district is taken as a mark of development.

And further take notice that action under section 85, must be commenced before the issuance of such Certificate of Improvement.

Dated this 7th day of July, A.D. 1920.
