Demonstration for Those Convicted Of Selling Liquor

Great Crowd Gathers at Dock to give Send Off to Sweet, Besner, Zarelli and Olsen, who go South

A demonstration, which rivalled even those accorded Rupert's heroes when they left for training in the war days, was given last night on the departure of the Prince Rupert for the south bearing among the passengers the four convicts for the Okalla Prison Farm, Besner, Sweet, Zarelli and Olsen. A procession awaited at the corner of Fourth Street and Third Avenue the starting of the cars from the police station bearing the prisoners and, by the time they had passed, a parade to the wharf commenced with pipers and drummers in the lead.

At the dock the scene became more enthusiastic, for there are said to have been fifty women there who had hampers of catables, fruit and other dainties for the comfort of the departing ones. What with cases of near beer, wine and cigarettes which were also borne down to the steamer, the staterooms of the men are said to have been filled.

As the big liner pulled away from the wharf, cheers broke out from the friends left behind and were answered lustily from the vessel. After cheers had been given for Sweet, Besner, Zarelli and Olsen, a loud voice was heard from the vessel to lead three cheers for the bootleggers who are left behind.

NEW SYSTEM FOR PRIVATE CASES

Hospital Board Does Not Require Public Ward Patients to "Pay as You Enter."

In answer to a question by W. Wilson Murray at last night's meeting of the Hospital Board, President Stewart stated the "pay as you enter" system was only applicable to private ward cases.

When this system was adopted by the last meeting of the Hospital Board it was stated by the board that was also to apply to public wards, and that report has caused considerable criticism in labor circles which resulted in the inquiry of Mr. Murray last evening.

SENT WARNING OF EXPLOSION

Lawyer Sent Post Card to Broker Urging Keep Away From Wall Street.

HAMILTON, Ont., Sept. 17.—Edward Fischer was arrested here today. This man allegedly sent warning by postcard dated "Toronto, Canada, September 14," which read:

"Greetings! Get out of Wall Street when the gong strikes three o'clock, Wednesday 15th. Good luck—Ed."

The postcard was received by George W. Ketchledge, financial broker, who said Ed. Fischer was a lawyer who was unable to practice his profession for fifteen years owing to an attack of paranoia. He thinks Fischer sent the card under mental aberration and that it was a mere coincidence that it arrived shortly before the explosion.

In the Letter Box

NOT ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY.

Editor News.—On behalf of the St. Andrew's Society, of which I have the honor of being president, I wish to make it clear to the public that last night's celebration was entirely a private affair. Application was made to me for use of the Society's instruments. I promptly refused to permit their use and discouraged as far as I could anything in the way of a demonstration. Subsequently, I understand, private arrangements were made with certain pipers to furnish music, but insofar as St. Andrew's Society was concerned it neither sanctioned nor assisted in the demonstration, directly or indirectly.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your space.

S. D. MACDONALD,
President St. Andrew's Society.

Amundsen's Ship Fast in the Ice

Capt. Hecla was also Icebound in Fishing Boat, but Managed to Get Free Carrying the News to Nome

NOME, Sept. 17.—Amundsen's expedition ship Maud, which left two months ago bound for the North Pole, has been caught in the ice 20 miles off Cape Serge on the Siberian coast, according to information brought by Captain Hecla, whose fishing boat is also icebound near the Maud.

Captain Hecla's vessel, being of light draft, wormed her way out after being icebound for ten days, but Amundsen's ship was still fast when the fishing boat left.

Amundsen had hopes of being able to free the Maud soon and continue his voyage.

APPEAL AGAINST RAILWAY RATES END OF MONTH

September 29 is Set as Date when Shippers will be Heard by Cabinet

OTTAWA, Sept. 17.—Appeals against the judgment of the Railway Board increasing the rates on freight and passengers throughout Canada, will be heard by the Cabinet Council on Wednesday, September 29.

Appeals are being sent in by almost all Boards of Trade and big shippers in the country, it being considered that an increase of 35 and 40 per cent on freight is altogether too great.

In the meantime the increased rate is being collected by the railways and complaints to hand indicate that stagnation in business at many points is the result.

CORLEY APPEAL OPENED TODAY

Evidence Being Heard in County Court Before Judge Young.

The hearing of the Corley appeal case commenced in the County Court this morning before Judge Young and was adjourned until this afternoon after several witnesses had been heard.

The first witness called this morning to the box was W. D. Vance but his testimony in regard to the issuing of the license in the police court trial was un- questioned by the appellants, so he was not further examined.

Detective W. J. Smith was called and gave evidence similar to that given in the police court trial, telling of the alleged sale by McKay. He also told of a bottle having been bought directly from Corley by a friend of his in the lane the day before.

Detective Money was also examined and the case was adjourned at 1 o'clock. Chief Vickers will be the first witness this afternoon.

Did You Ever Get Something for Nothing?

Did you ever get something for nothing? If you did, you were stung. You may pretty well depend upon that. It is not in accordance with the laws of the universe. We all have to pay for what we get, but the difficulty often is to get value for the money expended.

Once upon a time, not many years ago, there was a canvasser came to town taking orders for gold watches. The price of each was said to be $35, but the canvasser carried with him a bunch of envelopes, each of which contained a coupon said to be worth $20.
The canvasser asked his prospective customer to draw an envelope and, on finding the coupon, the customer was told how lucky she was for she could now get the gold watch for $15 instead of $35.
She fell for it immediately. It was a great bargain.

As a matter of fact the gold watch was worth only $5, so the purchaser, usually a lady, was "done" to the extent of $10, just because she thought she was going to get something for nothing.
She took big chances in dealing with a stranger without a business establishment behind him, and she might have known she was being "played" by the clever canvasser. Ladies are often easy in such matters, but men are caught just as often in other lines.

Reputable Houses
Do Business in Town.

There may be men in business here who are not straight in their business dealings. We are making no plea for them. They can take care of themselves. The chances are, however, that the man with a reputable business and a local stock of goods is always ready to do business honestly and there is usually a dome-back if anything is wrong. The travelling canvasser, however, has nothing to lose in the way of reputation. He may be honest and give good value for money, but there is no surety that he will, and there is no recourse if he is a crook. When a customer has been duped a few times he usually gets wise, but every new salesman has a new tale to tell.

Advertising Also Easily Peddled.

What is true of agents selling goods is also true of people who come in and peddle advertising. There are businessmen in Prince Rupert who seem to be always ready to fall for any advertising scheme put up by a stranger, but when the newspapers go to them with a genuine publicity scheme, they are turned down. It is a similar story. Everyone knows that next to window advertising there is nothing so good as newspaper advertising. Yet there are men in business who will hand out their good money to any scheme outside of the newspapers and never run a line to keep the daily readers informed of their offers.

Another curious thing about the men who always turn down the newspaper advertising canvasser, is that they are among the first to criticize what the newspapers publish and to try to dictate what their line of policy shall be. The man who does nothing whatever to support a local institution should be the last person in the world to try to take part in the management of that institution, but it is not so. It is almost always the outsider, the man who scoffs at the newspapers and at newspaper publicity, who is the first to run to the office to try to get some item of legitimate news kept out or some other item of interest to him alone published.

motion of J. B. Roerig, seconded by D. G. McRae, was accepted, with deepest regret. The resignation

President D. C. Stewart intimated that a suitable party was now in sight for a successor. Mr. Den-action was that the hours were

CANDIDATE FOR CARIBOO IN NEXT
GENERAL ELECTION

The Cariboo Observer announces that it has received a communication from John P. McConnell, former publisher of the Vancouver Saturday Sunset and later editor of the Vancouver Sun, stating that he will be an independent candidate in Cariboo for the legislature at the Provincial election. Mr. McConnell states that he has decided to contest the riding at the solicitation of his friends in Cariboo.

This announcement adds a certain "pop" to the political situation in our neighboring constituency, says the paper. John P. McConnell is well known in that territory. Last year, in the company of Tommy Burns, the ex-world champion heavyweight prizefighter, Mr. McConnell was engaged in certain mining adventures in the Barkerville country. He wrote a good deal of material for the Coast papers, inclining to the view that the P.G.E. was not located in the right direction and indicating that the route should be via the Barkerville section in spite of the great altitude at that point. It will be interesting to read Mr.
McConnell's platform, which will appear shortly.

is built of three ply veneer about a quarter of an inch thick and is ready for the engine. The di-

There are those who say Sugu's in his speed boat, is anything from 45 to 50 horsepower. His boat is 21 ft. long by 5-ft. beam.

George Frizzell's new racing

18 feet long with a 6 foot beam.
With that powerful engine of his she should be the fastest boat in

WALLACE REID CUB REPORTER AGAIN IN "THE LOTTERY MAN"

Famous Star, Once Newspaper Man, Again on Job in New Picture.

One morning about ten years ago a youth entered the newspaper office in a Jersey town and asked for a job as reporter. He didn't know anything about the business, but had a burning desire to write. The editor liked his looks and put him on the staff at $10 a week. The "cub" made good from the start, but after a few months the wanderlust attacked him, and he left for the West.

A few weeks ago this same "cub" was again back grinding out copy in a newspaper city room. He has aged hardly at all, but his salary has been growing by leaps and bounds. He doesn't even have to depend upon his writing for a living, for he is Wallace Reid, the famous motion picture star, and he has the role of a reporter in his new Paramount-Artcraft picture, "The Lottery Man," which will be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight. It is a "property" newspaper office.

"I still haven't given up that old ambition to write," said Mr. Reid recently, "and some of the happiest days of my life were those I spent as a reporter. That's one of the reasons I enjoyed making 'The Lottery Man' so much."

TREASURE FOUND BENEATH FLOOR OF RHEIMS CATHEDRAL

PARIS, Sept. 17.—A treasure-trove dating from the beginning of the fifth century has been found beneath the foundation of the Rheims Cathedral.

A few days ago workmen engaged on restoration of the cathedral found traces of an earlier building beneath it, which monkish records declare was the Basilica founded in honor of the Virgin by St. Nicaise, in the year 401 A.D. The nave of the primitive building was disclosed supported by three Roman arches in good condition.

The archaeologist who was summoned made a careful investigation of the sandy floor of the ancient edifice and found buried in the corner sacred images of ivory, strangely and beautifully carved, among the mouldering debris of a wooden box.

Evidently the priests of the period had buried their most precious treasures to save them from a barbarian invader 1,400 years before the German cannon thundered against the masterpiece of Gothic architecture that had replaced their primitive church.

TIMBER SALE X 2282.

One (1) year will be allowed for removal of timber.

DAILY PAPER TOO EXPENSIVE FOR FARMERS

Increasing Cost of Publication Makes It Inadvisable to Commence

TORONTO, Sept. 17.—The United Farmers do not yet see their way clear to commence the publication of a daily newspaper. They will lead up to it gradually. At the annual meeting of the United Farmers Publishing Company, Col. J. Z. Fraser, the president, announced that though the rising cost of everything connected with a newspaper made a daily practically impossible, before the end of the year the Farmers' Sun, the U. F. O. official organ, would likely be published three times instead of twice a week.

Not quite Harmonious.
Many leading farmers, all share holders in the company, attended the meeting, which was held in the Labor Temple. Though it was closed to the Press, it is understood that everything was not as smooth as it might have been. Hon. Manning Doherty, one of the directors, was present, and it is said that he plainly told the shareholders what he thought of the Sun's policy of criticizing the Government.

The election of the directors was looked forward eagerly by the meeting. Practically the same board was re-elected. Hon. Manning Doherty is again a director, but W. A. Amos, Vice-President of the U.F.O., was added to the board, to give the U.F.O. official representation as well as the Government.

The New Directorate
The officers elected were: President, Col. Fraser; vice-president, W. A. Amos; secretary-treasurer, Harold A. Walters; directors, J. J. Morrison, W. C. Good and Hon. Manning Doherty.

From the officers elected it is fairly safe to state that the policy of the Farmers' organ will not be materially changed. Should there be further trouble between the U. F. O. organization and the Government, the organization would have the majority on the directorate.

Members are Ungrateful
The President regretfully stated that many who directly profited by the success of the Farmers' Sun had contributed "little or nothing towards its promotion, either in time, labor or financial assistance, and in some cases since they have obtained the aforementioned success have invested their moneys in other publications. "But ingratitude," the Colonel added, "has long been a striking characteristic in the make-up of a portion of humanity."

The coming year, he said, would mean increased expenditure in every department. Postage alone would mean an additional $8,000, and newspaper an increase of at least as much more. The directors expected an increase of $20,000 or $30,000 in all over last year's expenditure. "This will naturally mean an increase in the price of your paper, an increase the board is, not anxious to incur, but, in view of conditions they believe it will not be objectionable to the readers not to any great extent prove unpopular."

FLORENCE REED AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Florence Reed stars in "The Code of Honor" tonight at the Empress Theatre.

Miss Reed is an emotional actress of the most modern type. She has ideas of her own in regard to her art and this originality makes her exceedingly attractive. She realizes that there is a great difference between acting for the movies and in the spoken play. What is lacking in the absence of the voice must be introduced by facial expression and indeed every part of the body is used in the interpretation.

STEWART GETS GOOD REPORT

Professor schofield who Visited there in Official Capacity Speaks Favorably

VANCOUVER, Sept. 17.—Dr. S. J. Schofield, Ph.D., formerly of the Dominion geological survey and now Professor of Geology at the University of British Columbia here, who has just returned from a trip to the Stewart gold camp, says: "Stewart has passed through her boom days and has reached the condition of sound, progressive prospecting. The findings of my investigations on the Salmon River this summer will be reported from Ottawa at the end of the year.

"Prospectors are certainly getting splendid results, the bulk of the valuable ore now being mining containing besides silver, both lead and zinc."

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

THAT speed boating promises to be the most popular sport in Prince Rupert.

THAT there seems to be some people who make fun of Tommy Hooper's "barge" but it will be impossible to say what will happen until the day of the races.

THAT interest in the result of the races is increasing every day.

THAT yesterday some local prominent citizens were committed to jail for trying to get rich quick and at the same time the office of J. P. Moran Co. in New York was bombed, possibly for a similar reason.

THAT Jack Toner called at the News office yesterday to remark that three inches of booze and obscene language cost him eighty dollars recently, but that he won't be able to buy any more now.

THAT Jack also said he would not mind doing a year in jail if he could make a cleanup like some people.

LIVELY MEETING OF HOSPITAL BOARD HELD LAST NIGHT

Wm. Denholme Takes Offence—Ald. Perry Quits and Mrs. McLeod Has Grievance

Discussion became rather heated for a few minutes at the meeting of the Hospital Board last evening after Mrs. Jarvis McLeod had complained to the president about not being notified as to the meetings of the Finance Committee of which she was a member. Mrs. McLeod also criticized the action of the Finance Committee in not calling for tenders for a recent job of painting the operating room. She believed in all work, where there was a large amount of money to be spent, being let by contract.

W. Wilson Murray supported Mrs. McLeod's contentions. He informed the board that Alderman Perry had just tendered his resignation from the board for he was never notified of the meetings. He inquired from Secretary Denholme how the meetings of the Finance Committee were called.

"Why, when I ask Mr. McRae, the chairman when we shall meet, he says: 'Come on down and we'll go over to Joe's.'"

"You are not stating the facts, Mr. Denholme," replied Mr. McRae.

"That certainly is no way of doing business," from Mr. Wilson Murray.

"Do you mean to call me a liar," asked Mr. Denholme of Mr. McRae with some heat.

Never Turned Up

Mr. McRae then explained that Ald. Perry had been called up repeatedly for meetings and he had never turned up so they just stopped asking him. "He should not go around talking about it at the street corners, anyway."

"If that is the way Mr. Perry feels about it, I should be very glad to move the acceptance of his resignation," said Mr. Rorrig. If he was very interested in hospital affairs he would have made an effort to come around.

Painting Contrast

Mr. Wilson Murray then took objection to the way the painting in the operating room had been done. The work should have been done by tenders and contract as he had maintained.

"Do you think we have wasted money?" asked Mr. Rorrig.

"I will say that I think the work could have been done more cheaply," replied Mr. Murray. "Anyway, I have resigned from the House Committee because I could not agree with the way they did business."

The desultory discussion was finally cut off by President Stewart.

LOOK AHEAD SOON TO PROVIDE POWER AND LIGHT FOR CITY

It is now too late to consider augmentation of the municipal power supply which could be put into effect this winter, according to authoritative advice. This does not, however, mean that there will be any difficulty as far as ordinary lighting is concerned, if no emergency arises.

There is always the old steam plant to fall back on, which, of course, it is well known is an extravagant and inefficient affair at the present cost of coal. The only emergency that the city could not at present handle and which would put the town in darkness would be the burning out of the plant. It is felt by many that this contingency should be provided for.

It would take at least six months to augment the supply from Shawatans or hitch up the dry dock power-house with the city lines. This is the very least time that it would take with most favorable delivery of the necessary equipment. The Wark Channel scheme would take eighteen months to get in operation. Now that the chance for further power and light this winter is gone, the hope is expressed that the matter will be taken in hand to make provision for the winter of 1921.

P. W. Racey, the Stewart mining engineer, arrived last night from Alice Arm and is staying at the Hotel Prince Rupert.

NOT YET SCRATCHED CANADIAN RESOURCES

Before leaving on their return to Great Britain the members of the Press Conference all gave interviews of their impressions. One man said:

"The average Englishman pictures Canada as a little country about the size of Britain, the people semi-savage and living in wooden shacks. If you will let them know it is more of a continent, I am quite sure money will stream out here in immense quantities. I am going back thoroughly convinced not only in the immense future of this Dominion, but I am perfectly certain, from climatic and psychological reasons, that this Dominion is going to dominate the North American continent, in spite of the long start that the United States has got.

"It is quite obvious you have not more than scratched your resources, and what impresses me perhaps more than anything else is the way in which the immense natural forces, such as the water powers, are being yoked up so as to make them do the rough work of civilization while man turns his attention to other things"

HERBS USED FOR BRONCHIAL CURES

Remarkably Successful Results in Fine Climatic Conditions of B. C.

World interest has been awakened by the discovery of curing properties of natural herb juices in connection with Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh and other diseases of the air passages. A formula has been produced by a Scotch herbalist in which herb principles are contained that have demonstrated positive healing powers. How this is brought about is simply the perfected modern method of what is probably the oldest cure known to the human race—the restoration of the blood to normal condition through the soothing action of juices extracted from herb plants.

This remedy has been given the name Wonder Health Restorer, and a descriptive booklet has been written in which are included many signed testimonials from people who have been successfully cured after all other treatments had failed. One case of especial note is that of Mr. H. Duncan of Vancouver. Mr. Duncan's serious condition necessitated hospital treatments and the care of specialists. A friend advised him to take Wonder Health Restorer. Pronounced relief came to him within a month and he is today able to sleep perfectly and enjoy a condition of health denied him for years.

Wonder Health Restorer, not being a narcotic or artificial stimulant, does not contain a drop of alcohol or drugs—is a nature cure to which the blood responds in a way possible by no other means. Sufferers from lung troubles will welcome this wonderfully effective permanent cure.

Wonder Health Restorer and its descriptive booklet can be obtained in Prince Rupert at the Prince Rupert Drug Co., and at most drug stores throughout the province. If you can't get Wonder Health Restorer from your druggist, send to the distributors, W. J. McCaffery-Burr Co. Limited, 1015 Dominion Building, Vancouver. (Adv.)
