COLTS AND RED SOX ARE AGAIN WINNERS

Will Mix Again in Exhibition Trophy Play-off Next Wednesday.

The Colts and the Red Sox are to meet in the exhibition play-off next Wednesday, for these teams were victorious yesterday afternoon in the elimination double-header. The Colts defeated the Sawmill in a close game by a score of 6 to 5 while the Red Sox held the Beavers easily by a 11 to 2 tally. The rain interfered with the games a good deal and there were few on the grounds besides the players and team officials.

The batteries were: Red Sox—Russo and Frizzell, Colts—Butler and Hill, Sawmill—Astor and Abbott. Beavers—Green and Hatchford. Referee Laporte conducted both games.

ORGAN RECITAL AT METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. A. E. Couldry Gave Special Music on Occasion of Rebekahs' Visit.

There was a large congregation out at the Methodist Church last night to welcome the Rebekahs who had their annual church parade last night.

The feature of the evening was the fine organ recital given by Rev. A. E. Couldry, missionary to the Indians at Hartley Bay. He played the Hallelujah chorus and a number of other selections. The choir sang an anthem and a special address was given by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Nuttal.

George Babbage, charged with stealing an overcoat, was again remanded in the police court this morning. Magistrate McDermott made adjournment ordering that a complete report be then given as to the mental state of the accused. Babbage is a returned man.

The case of G. G. Perry vs. F. S. Wright and Donovitch vs. Johnson are being heard before Judge Young this afternoon. The International Union vs. S. V. Cox is slated for 8 o'clock this evening.

MONTREAL, September 20.—The Grand Trunk arbitration party left this morning on a tour of the whole railway system ending at Prince Rupert. The party is a most important one and comprises Sir Walter Cassells, judge of the exchequer court of Canada; William Howard Taft, ex-president of the United States; Howard G. Kelley, vice-president of the G. T. P. and chairman of the Board of Co-ordination of the Canadian National and Grand Trunk railways; F. N. Phippen, and an army of technical experts, secretaries and officials.

In Prince Rupert they will inspect the terminals and then return east.

LIQUOR HIDDEN IN THE WALLS

In Fining Woman This Morning Magistrate Warns Heavier Sentences in Future.

Mrs. Gurvich appeared before Magistrate McDermott in the police court this morning to answer to the charge of having liquor in a place other than the private dwelling in which she resides and, pleading guilty, was fined $50.50.

Miss Gurvich appeared with her mother and acted as interpreter. "Tell your mother," said the magistrate, "that this trafficking in hooch has got to stop. In the past I have been imposing the minimum penalties but from now on they will be the maximum. I fine you $50.50 and order the liquor confiscated."

The raid was made by Sergeant Adams and Constables Leek and Wisely on Saturday afternoon. Acting on inside information the police knew where to look and found sixteen bottles of Dewar's Irish concealed in the walls of the kitchen. These hiding places, it is said, have been passed by the police in other searches of the place.

C. Well, a Hazelton Indian, was fined $25 in the police court this morning for having intoxicating liquor in his possession. The magistrate sent him out with Sergeant Adams to show where he bought the lemon extract he had in his possession.

The Jack Miller liquor sentence has been remanded until Thursday morning as the stenographic notes were not completed this morning. The Miller and Carlson finding is also postponed until the same date.

INDIAN MISSION DAY AT ANGLICAN CHURCH

Noted Address by Archdeacon Collison — Music by Natives.

Yesterday was Indian mission day at the Anglican Church. Indians from the various Anglican missions at Masset, Kinkolith, Aiyansh and Metlakatla took part in the services or attended as members of the congregation. As a result the church was packed to the doors.

In the morning Rev. Canon Rix preached on "What the Native Races Owe to the Missionaries." In the evening the music was provided by the Kinkolith Indian choir accompanied by two Indian violinists and a solo was sung by a native. At that service Rev. Archdeacon Collison gave an interesting address on the history of mission to the Indians in Northern British Columbia. The Archdeacon is the great pioneer of mission work in this part of the coast and his address was an admirable exposition.

Rumored Coup in Scotland Planned

Rumor that Miners intend to Seize the Mines and set up a Soviet Government

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The seizure of the mines and the establishment of a soviet regime is the coup planned for Scotland, according to extraordinary rumors circulating in Lanarkshire. It is asserted the cashiers and officials were bluntly told the seizure of the pits was imminent.

The authorities are not entirely sceptical as they are aware there are undercurrents at work which may prove a danger.

DAILY EDITION.

Monday, Sept 20, 1920.

Welcome to All Visitors.

The Daily News extends a hearty welcome to all visitors to the city, who have come to visit the carnival or exhibition. The carnival commences today and the exhibition will open on Wednesday afternoon.

Among the visitors to the city may be some who have not seen a modern newspaper printing press at work. If so they are invited to step into the News office any day between three and half past when the Daily News is being run off. They will see the roll of paper being fed in at one end and coming out ready folded at the other with the latest news hot from the wires, unless, as sometimes happens, the wires are out of commission.

Another Election of French President.

This week a new president will be elected in France. He is chosen by a majority vote of a national assembly consisting of members of the senate and the chamber of deputies. He holds office for seven years, unless he should resign before the term expires. He promulgates the laws passed by both chambers and it is his duty to insure their execution.

The election of president in France is not taken as seriously as in the United States. Perhaps the reason for it is because there is a cabinet with a premier at the head that is responsible to the Senate and Chamber of Deputies for the conduct of affairs of State.

Railway Company

Getting Down to Work.

The railway company is getting down to work in connection with the development of this port. Filling for the base of the new dock is progressing steadily and it will not be very long before operations will commence on the work of pile driving. Following this the announcement is made by the general manager of the railway that plans are now being considered for the new station and that the other work will be going forward soon. This is very satisfactory. It is what we have been looking for, but the railway company, owing to lack of funds, has been unable to proceed.

Co-operation to Make Fair Success.

It is very satisfactory to hear that there is a general spirit of co-operation being shown among Prince Rupert people with a view to making the fair a success this year. It is the only method. Working at cross purposes never gets anybody anywhere. If people show a desire to go together for the one event of the year and lend a helping hand wherever possible, it will tend to benefit the community. Visitors are already being shown courtesies and much may yet be done.

Judging from the way in which things are shaping, the fair this year will be a real event. There are already more people here than usual and more are coming. If Jupiter Pluvius can be propitiated and Old Sol takes his proper place, everyone will have a good time.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. INVESTIGATE
INTO ACTION OF
POLICE ASKED

Alleged There Was Appearance of Collaboration with Organizers of Thursday's Sendoff.

The prohibition organization meeting on Saturday night, on motion of J. R. Morgan, passed a resolution calling on the mayor and police commissioners to investigate the action of the police at the recent send-off given to the bootleggers who went south on Thursday night. It was alleged that the police allowed the car, in which the prisoners were taken to the boat, to slow down so that a procession might be formed.

The matter was introduced by Rev. T. H. Nuttall and spoken to by D. H. Morrison and Walter Shaw. One person who was present at the procession said the car was put in low gear deliberately and there seemed to be collaboration between the police and those who took part in the procession. The resolution was passed unanimously.

Committees.

Two committees were appointed, that on finance, consisting of D. H. Morrison, W. W. Wright and Lancaster, and another on publicity to consist of H. F. Pullen, Mayor McClymont, Ald. Dybahn, P. Linzey, Walter Shaw, Rev. Dr. Grant, Rev. T. H. Nuttall, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, and Mrs. Booth. The sum of $50 was voted to the publicity committee as a preliminary sum to be expended as the committee saw fit.

It was reported that the Red Cross hut has been secured for headquarters during the campaign and active work was planned. Public speakers will be secured from outside points and every effort made to place the issue fairly before the voters. It was pointed out that there was nothing wrong with the act but only with the manner in which it was enforced.

It was announced that Rev. William Stevenson would speak on prohibition in the McIntyre Hall on the evening of Sunday, September 26.

The meeting was well attended and there was a good deal of enthusiasm shown.

Skeena River arrivals over the week-end included A. E. Carter, Oceanie; S. E. Atkins, Dominion; J. A. Brown, Hoostall; J. E. Lord, North Pacific; S. T. Pyke, Haysport; Mr. and Mrs. Pearce, Oceanie, and A. M. Kipp, Essington.

Joe McPhee came in from Butedale on the Chelohsin last night and will return south next week. Mr. McPhee, who is Customs officer at the cannery port, reports that the Western Packers this season put up the biggest sockeye pack in the history of the plant. Their fishing grounds are up Gardner Canal and at the Queen Charlottes. The last of the pack is now being boxed up.

"THE PERFECT LOVER" HAS WONDERFUL CAST

"The Perfect Lover," Eugene O'Brien's picture, adapted from Lois Burton Wells' "The Naked Truth" has one of the most wonderful casts ever seen on the screen. This cast includes four of filmdom's most talented and beautiful leading women, who lend Mr. O'Brien splendid support.

Marguerite Courtot, who has a leading role in Select Pictures' big Special Attraction, "The Undercurrent," and was a Gaumont and Paramount star for many years, is seen in "The Perfect Lover" as Eileen Hawthorn, the little country girl who supplies Brian Lazar (Eugene O'Brien) with the inspiration that prompts him to paint the picture which later was hung at the exhibition. Miss Courtot will also be remembered for her excellent work in "The Unbeliever," in which she was starred with Ray McKee.

Beautiful Martha Mansfield, who has been a famous Follies girl for a number of years and who is at present gracing that production with her charming self, is seen in this romantic drama as Mavis Morgan, a dashing debutante of New York's "Four Hundred." Miss Mansfield was at one time the most popular artist's model in New York. She also played opposite Harold Lockwood in several of his latest screen productions.

NEARLY READY FOR FLYING

Six Machines and 18 Men are at Vancouver Station; Parts Not Arrived

PLANNING LONG TRIP TO PRINCE RUPERT

Aerial photography will largely feature the work of the government pilots under Major G. McLaurin, D.S.S., who will shortly be operating from the seaplane station at Jericho Beach, says the Vancouver World. The major today is advertising for an experienced aerial photographer. A camera has already been secured of the L.B. type, R.A.F., and will be attached to the side of the machine when in flight, beside the photographers seat. It is proposed to photograph any area on which the government want data and specifications. If it should be desired, a photographic map could be made of the desired locality, showing lakes, rivers, timbered stretches, burnt-out areas, etc., and by such means also knowledge could be obtained of the geographical peculiarities of stretches of country hitherto almost unknown because of their inaccessibility.

Fly to Kamloops

The station at Jericho now comprises a staff of 18 men, also six machines. The latter are only partly assembled. Actual flying has been held up for some months because certain necessary parts have not arrived. They are expected daily, however. Major McLaurin, who is chafing at the delay, states: "If I had the parts today, I could have a machine in the air tomorrow."

First Flight to Victoria

In commencing flying it will first be necessary to make a couple of test flights, and the first actual flight, as outlined by the major, will be to Victoria and return. After that a flight will probably be made to Kamloops, following along the Fraser and Thompson Rivers and making note of waterways, lakes, rivers, etc., that would be available for landing places.

It is possible that a long flight may be made to Prince Rupert, 600 miles, in the F-3 type seaplane, which is equipped with two 385-H.P. Rolls-Royce motors, and has a cruising radius of 750 miles.

This machine, which is dual control, carries, besides two pilots, an engineer and a wireless operator, but can accommodate 12 to 15 persons. It is equipped with bombing gear, just as used in the North Sea.

An interesting and novel feature of the extra equipment which has recently arrived is the wireless set, which has already been installed in the planes.

Arrangements have been made with the Point Grey station for sending and receiving at the land end, and the machines during flight will be constantly in touch with the operator at the station.

Two commercial wireless operators have already been added to the staff at the Jericho station and have been busy getting the equipment in readiness. A small building will be erected there for the storing and overhauling of the wireless gear and equipment.

Sand Distress Messages

When in flight the machine equipped with wireless apparatus reels out the aerial, which is wound on a large spool. To the end of this is fastened a two-pound weight, and it drags almost vertically out behind the machine for 230 feet, with a dropping curve near the weight.

It is proposed to equip the planes with collapsible 30-foot wooden masts, resembling fishing rods in their structure, which can be set up when the machine is landed, four aerials attached from its tip to nose, stern and wing tips, and regular sending and receiving of messages commenced. In this way communications can be established, for safety's sake, in case of a forced landing in some deserted spot, progress can be reported on long flights, word given of forest fires, etc.

INDIANS FROM MASSET BRING GOOD EXHIBIT

Display of Native Work — Will Give Concert During Stay Here This Week.

The Haida Indians are here in force this year, the first time that they have ever attended the fair in large numbers. Practically all the Masset village are here and they have brought a good exhibit of Indian work. From Masset there are entries of dairy produce, potatoes, totems and model canoes, chief houses, bows and arrows mats and baskets.

George H. Haley of the Coqualeetza Institute is bringing an exhibit of school work and during the week he will give a banquet to the alumni in the parlor of the Methodist Church. This is the annual event when the head of the institute meets his former pupils and entertains them here.

The Masset Indians, organized by Chief Albert Adams, will give a concert at the exhibition hall during the week at which all the performers are to be Indians.

Thomas Denby, Indian Agent, is here this year for the fair and is superintending the placing of the exhibits at the fair, work of which has already commenced.

VETS ARE NOW ELIMINATED

Sons of England Will Meet Trail in Exhibition Football Finals Next Week.

The Sons of England had little difficulty in holding the Great War Veterans in the elimination game for the exhibition cup on Saturday afternoon and defeated them by a score of 3 to 0, thus winning the right to contest the final with the Trail next week. At no time did the match take on much enthusiasm for the teamwork gained by a season's practice by the Sons had its telling effect over the more or less unfinished efforts of the Veterans. Playing on both sides, in fact, was of a mediocre nature. Kelly and Ed. Ross taking the stellar roles for the Vets, with occasional bursts of speed by Petrie. During the first half the Vets did make several near goal kicks which touched the goal posts. Tinker played a consistently good game for the Sons of England and Darton proved a fortress of strength as a full back.

The first score was made by the Sons on a long pass from centre to Tinker and converted to the goal by Lyons when goalkeeper Waldorf, for the Veterans, was away from his position on the field. A few moments later a stop by Waldorf, Tinker again gained the ball and made the second count. The third tally came in the second half when Lambe kicked in off Fanthorpe from half back. Towards the end the play loosened up and the Vets held the ball in their end most of the time but were unable to send a good ball between the goal posts. In the second half Fraser, of the Veterans, cut his arm badly and had to leave the field.

W. McCulloch refereed in his usual effective manner with Harry Day and "Doe" Clapperton on the side lines.

ANOTHER SPEED BOAT COMING FOR RACES

Anoxx Sending Postmaster Eve's Speedy Craft.

Word was received by wire on Saturday afternoon that there is to be a second speed boat cup contender from Anoxx for Saturday's event. W. F. Eve, the postmaster from that place, is bringing his "Priscilla" down for the contest. The Priscilla is a speedy little craft and has been a local rival for Ed. Campbell's well known racer "Wayward Girl."

Anoxx is just doubling up on her chances of taking that cup home while preparations continue apace here on the three new boats under construction. Tom Hooper's "Folly II" will take the water tomorrow.

BRITISH MAY ARBITRATE

Possibility of Home Rule being Submitted to League of Nations

LONDON, Sept. 20. — That Britain would be willing to submit settlement of the Irish question to the league of nations if it is not settled before the United States elections in November, is the statement made by the foreign office today. Britain is prepared to take radical action to appease American sentiment, except that it will not consider the independence of Ireland.

The official statement said: "If

Cox is elected we will put no stone in the way of settlement along the lines he suggested. If settlement is not reported by the November elections, we are willing to put the entire situation up to the league and abide by its decision. Britain is now willing to give southern Ireland the most liberal form of home rule, with control of its own customs, excises, even mails and police, providing it agrees to terms, without coercing the six northern Ulster counties, which must have their own parliamentary government. Lloyd George has put the matter up to Ireland through a standing committee recently appointed by the Irish conference at Dublin.

Britain fully realizes the tremendous weight of Irish-American influence in American policies. In order to secure the closest Anglo-American co-operation and to settle the Irish difficulties, we are willing to do anything consistent with safety and honor."

Official reports from Ireland indicate a split in Sinn Fein ranks on the premier's latest proposal.

As to De Valera, he is free to return to Ireland whenever he wants. All reports from Ireland indicate that he will clash with Griffiths, who is acting president, just as he clashed in New York with Gahanan.

Mrs. A. E. Oakley left by this morning's train for Edson where she will join Mr. Oakley who is engaged in engineering work with a construction company at that place.

HERBS USED FOR BRONCHIAL CURES

Remarkably Successful Results in Fine Climatic Conditions of B.C.

World interest has been awakened by the discovery of curing properties in natural herbs found in common in North America, Canada and other districts of the air passages. A formula has been produced by a Scotch herbologist which herb principles are contained that have demonstrated positive health powers. It is important about as simple the perfected modern method of what is probably the oldest cure known to the human race—the restoration of the blood to normal condition through the working action of forces derived from herb plants.

This remedy has been given the name Wonder Health Restorer, and a descriptive booklet has been written in which are included many signed reports successfully cured after all other treatments had failed. One case of especial note is that of Mr. H. Duncan of Vancouver. Mr. Duncan's serious condition necessitated hospital treatments and the care of specialists. He came to us to take our Wonder Health Restorer. Pronounced relief came to him within a month, and he is today able to sleep perfectly and enjoy a condition of health denied him for years.

Wonder Health Restorer, not being a medicine or patent stimulant, it does not contain a drop of alcohol or drugs—it is a nature cure to which the blood responds in a way possible by no other means.

Sufferers from lung troubles will welcome this wonderful effective permanent cure.

Wonder Health Restorer and its descriptive booklet can be obtained in Prince Rupert at the Prince Rupert Drug Co., and at most drug stores throughout the province. If you can't get it, send to the distributor, W. Y. McTear-Burr Co. Limited, 1615 Dominion Building, Vancouver. (ADVR.)

WINNIPEG PEOPLE

SPEND SUMMERS AT LAKE RESORTS

WINNIPEG, Sept. 18.—There has been a great development of the "week-end" habit among Winnipeggers this summer. The city's summer resorts have had increased popularity, equally among those who camp at the lakes for their vacation periods, or who go down for the Saturday-to-Monday outing.

Many thousands of young people have patronized evening trains to Winnipeg Beach and Grand Beach for the bathing and dancing—"Moonlights," these trains are called by the railroads; "Spoonlights" by the jocular. These beaches on Lake Winnipeg have the advantage of being comparatively close to the city, but they do not by any means exhaust the resources of the district for those on recreation bent.

The Lake of the Woods district claims its devotees in greater numbers every year, and in addition to the hundreds of Winnipeg people who have their own cottages, many of them their own islands, the hotels at Minaki, Kenora and Keewatin lake down around the eastern boundary of Manitoba or just across the line in Ontario, and the season is close when the duck hunters come into their own.

SEA LION CATCH

King of Hunters Collects Bounty Amounting to $880

ASTORIA, Ore., Sept. 18.—William M. Hunter, known here as "king" of sea-lion hunters, recently collected $880 bounty from the state for 52 sea-lion scalps, paid at the rate of $2.50 each. Bounty is paid on the sealions because they are considered the Pacific coast salmon's worst enemy. They gather off the mouth of the Columbia River here to prey on fish bound upstream.

Sea-lion hunting is dangerous, Hunter says, and he tells of narrow escapes from angry bulls. Seals, he asserts, are not as awkward as they appear, but can travel fast. Recently one chased him over the rocks but was killed by Hunter's companion before it reached him.

Hunter works from a small launch while at sea. Much of his hunting is done on rocky beaches where seals congregate. He learned his trade—as he terms it—as a mountaineer hunting bear and deer in the Cascade Mountains.

In addition to the government bounty, Hunter is paid by salmon cannerymen for destroying seals. Estimated on the 1919 pack the rate of the cannery bounty would be about $2,000 for every 1,000 sea-lions killed.

Sea-lions destroy the fish by snapping off their heads, it is said. During the salmon running seasons in the spring, tons of the fish are victims of the sea-lion herds.

Skins of the sea-lions are used extensively in glove manufacturing. Oils and fats also are products.

TERRACE

John Burgi brought in last week several crates of celery that were three feet high and weighed from two to five pounds a stock. This celery was set out in the open on June 28.

D. W. Haire has been transferred from the management of the local Bank of Montreal to a similar position at New Denver. Mr. Barber comes from Trail to take charge here.

The Terrace fair took place last Monday and despite the fact that the original plans for outside assistance did not go through, was a good success. Progress Hall was well filled with good exhibits and a fine celebration was enjoyed in town. Horse racing and a jolly dance to good music concluded the day.

The School Board have rented the front of the Traynor Block where Miss Marsh and her primary class will now be placed.

Mr. Kirkpatrick is surveying his 160 acres across the river with a view to subdividing into ten-acre plots.
