No One Responsible for Parade with Prisoners

Members of Police Force tell their stories to Police Commission this morning; Inquiry Adjourned

A preliminary investigation into the procession to the steamer Prince Rupert last Thursday night on the departure of the men sentenced for liquor selling and condemned to hard labor at Okalla Prison Farm was the main business of the Police Commission at its session this morning. Chief Vickers, Sergeant Adams and Constable Wisely were called to give their stories and after considerable discussion the investigation was adjourned pending further inquiries.

"At 10:30 on Thursday night," said the chief, "Besner and Zaroffi asked permission to go to their hotels for their baggage. This they were granted and they went direct from the hotels to the boat in company with the officer all the way. At 11 o'clock I instructed Sergeant Adams to take them left in a taxi. I heard the pipers and the drummer at the corner and saw them in front of the taxi. I also saw them later at the wharf. I could not say if an officer tipped anybody off as to the departure of the prisoners from the jail although I have heard that one did."

Could Not Hurry.

"I didn't know there was going to be a procession until I heard the music," stated Sergt. Adams. "As far as I know there was no collusion between the participants and the police and I certainly did not tell them. The parade came right up in front of the station when the taxi set out. The car remained behind the parade all the way to the wharf else we would have had to run over them for they got in front."

"That is the point that is criticized," said the mayor. "Was there no other way you could have gone? Didn't it seem out of place to you?"

"Yes, it seemed out of place alright, in fact the proceeding of the whole day after the convictions had been unusual and I had never seen such before in handling prisoners here. The prisoners had been given more or less liberty all day, when they should have been in their cells like an ordinary prisoner."

Questioned further as to the incident of the parade, Adams stated that on the way to the wharf he had seen Tom Black, or somebody like him, on the running board at the police court. He had thought he heard him in-

CARNIVAL WILL NOT RUN WHEEL

Police Commission Puts Kewpie Doll Wheels Out—Looking Into Country Store.

The Kewpie wheels which were in operation at the Carnival yesterday will be out of business today for the police commission this morning would not countenance any such devices which were contrary to law and were apt to instil gambling instincts in the children.

"It seems strange to me," said the mayor, "that an institution like the Daughters of the Empire, in which patriotism and morality among the children are principles, should be a party to the introduction of devices that might have such a far-reaching detrimental effect on children." This was after J. Venables, who appeared at the meeting, had stated that the Daughters of the Empire held one of these concessions.

The matter of the country store where tickets for goods are being sold is receiving the attention of the solicitor this afternoon with a view to its legality.

Formal Opening of the Fair Tomorrow

Parade will start from Carnival Midway at 1.30 and Ceremony at Exhibition Building will follow at 2

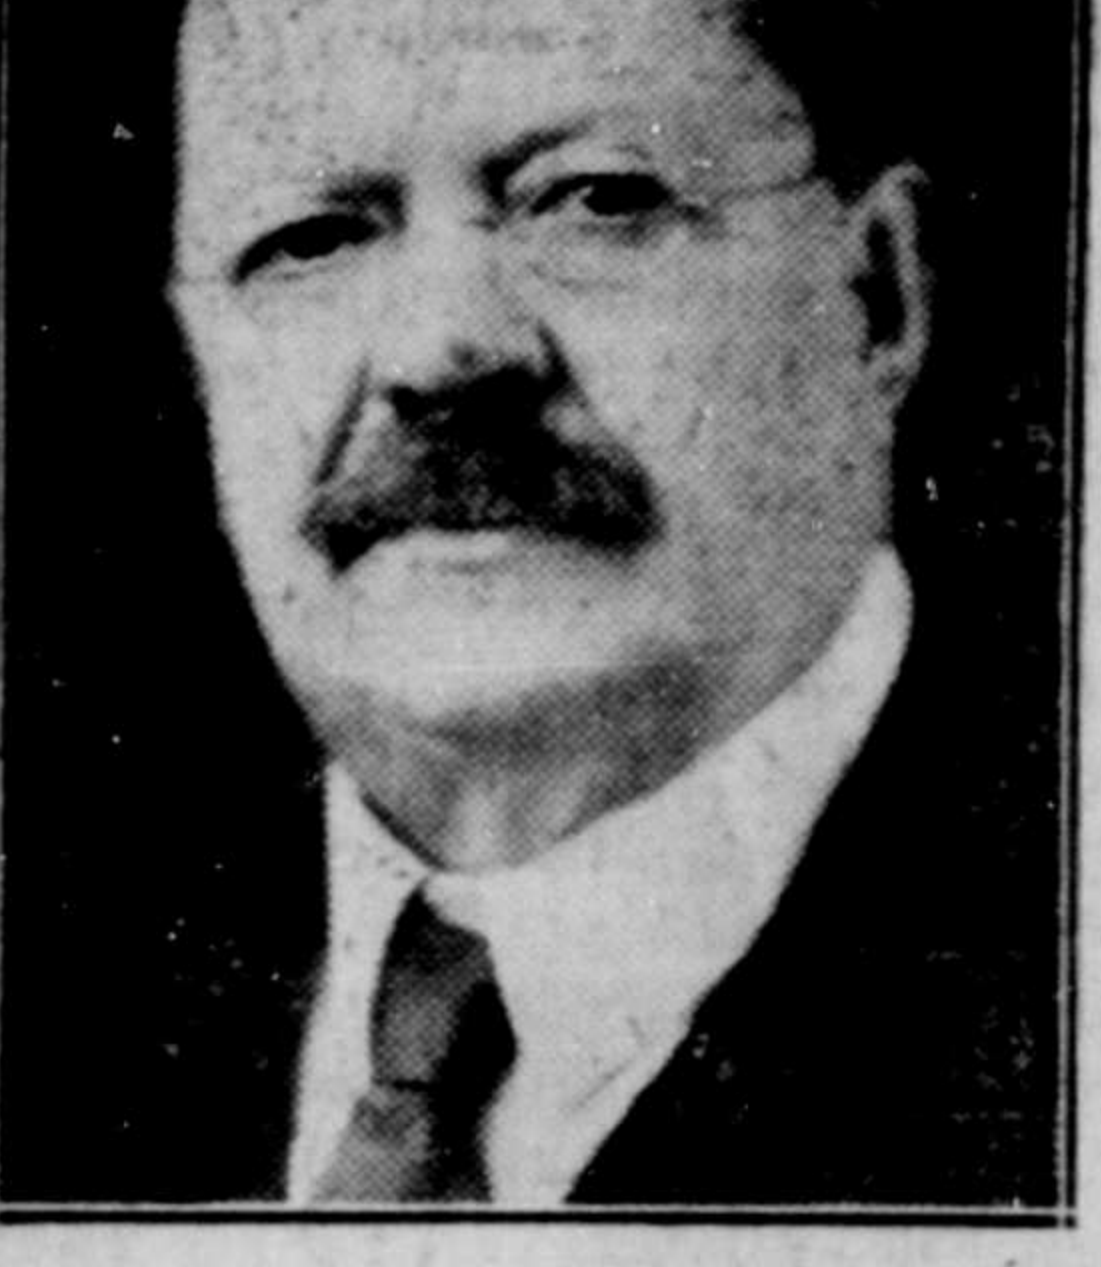

Tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock the exhibition will be formally opened. A big parade with Indian bands will form up at the Carnival midway, Third and Seventh Streets, at 1:30 at which the school children will take part, and everyone will march to the exhibition building where the formal ceremony will then take place. This will be followed by children's sports at the Athletic grounds.

Following the sports there will be a football match final between the Sons of England and the Trail Club.

In the evening there will be some doings at the Exhibition Hall, announcement of which will be made tomorrow. Every afternoon and evening there will be some special attraction and on the final evening, Friday, there will be a dance.

Great activity is being shown in getting the exhibits into shape. The hall at present is one of the busiest places in the city but by tomorrow afternoon the present chaos will have been reduced to order and all is expected to be in readiness for the opening.

TWO MINISTERS ARE ELECTED

Hon. R. Wigmore and Hon. F. B. McCurdy each Returned by Large Majorities on Appointment to Cabinet

OTTAWA, Sept. 21.—Hon. R. W. Wigmore and Hon. F. B. McCurdy, recently appointed members of the National Liberal and Conservative party, were re-elected in St. John and Colchester respectively, yesterday. While it is expected that they would be returned, having all the prestige of cabinet position to help them, the majority were more substantial than was anticipated.

Hon. R. W. Wigmore was returned in 1917 in St. John with a majority of 8,000. This has now been reduced to 4,000. On his election being known last night the successful candidate, who was opposed by a Liberal, Dr. Emery, stated this was "an answer to King."

Hon. F. B. McCurdy, who in 1917 was returned by acclamation in Colchester, defeated his soldier farmer opponent, Captain Dickson, by over 1,500.

Both seats were considered safe for any Conservative candidate.

DAILY EDITION.

Tuesday, Sept. 21, 1920.

Exhibition Opens Wednesday Afternoon.

The Exhibition opens in the big hall at Acropolis Hill tomorrow afternoon. The directors have worked hard to make it a success and now it is for the people of Prince Rupert to do their part by turning out and taking an interest in the activities there.

The matter of conducting a fair is one on which there is as much difference of opinion as there is in administering the affairs of the province. No two people think alike. It is always more or less experimental, for new policies have to be devised. What succeeds one year is out of date the next. There never are two seasons alike. It is always difficult to secure new exhibits which will be attractive to visitors and to the home people. This it is claimed has been done this year.

New Problems Every Day.

No sooner is one community problem settled than new ones crop up. New needs are discovered and new residents bring in new ideas and ideals. The building up of the southwest end of the city has already brought new problems to bear. The people there want proper road connection with the city by way of a good bridge. They are now asking for better school facilities and very soon there will be other needs. The News did its part by giving the people in Section 2 a newspaper delivery, long before there were enough customers even to pay for the delivery boy. The people there appreciated the service and today the route is a fairly substantial one and is steadily increasing. The business of building and operating a city is like any other large business, in that new problems are always arising. The difficulty is that running the city business is done by amateurs at the work and as a hobby. The people who do it, give only part of their time to it, whereas it is well known that any other business a quarter the size is a full sized man's job. We have a lot to learn yet in connection with democratic government, civic, provincial and national. The wonder is that more mistakes are not made, considering the conditions under which affairs are conducted.

General Manager Is Only System.

Railways get good results in managing big businesses under a general manager. The system has been adopted in a more or less restricted sense in connection with town governing. It has usually been a success, but the difficulty always is that there are so many strings on the manager or managers that they find it almost impossible to get results.

In Prince Rupert there is a pretty good city government, compared with that of other cities. Even here, however, it is impossible to adopt business methods because of the danger of losing out with the workmen, the business element or the salaried class. It is impossible under present conditions to get away from politics, municipal politics in municipal affairs. The shareholders in a civic business are altogether different from those in an industrial concern. In a city the shareholders not only are interested in financial results but in all the details of running the business. In a big company dividends are the test of efficiency.

How civic governments will work out in future no one can tell. As a people we are apt to try out any system which seems to offer a possible betterment, and something wholly new may appear at any time.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

SECTION TWO HAS SCHOOL TROUBLES

Wanted City Truck so Little Children Would Get to School Dry.

A petition from J. D. Allen and 29 other residents of Section two was presented to the City Council last night asking that the utilities department truck be commissioned into use in bringing the children and teachers of Section 2 to school in the bad weather and was referred to the utilities committee. The petition pointed out that Section 2 had no school, that there were 22 children and four teachers in residence there, that the distance to the nearest school in town was one mile and that little children in bad weather had to stay wet all day in school. This could not continue, either there would have to be suitable transportation or the youngsters would have to be kept home and the parents did not wish to keep them home.

The mayor took the view that a petition to the school board asking for a school in the section would be a point well taken. He did not think the city could let its utilities truck go and, anyway, it was inadequate to accommodate 26 people. Ald. Perry, chairman of the utilities committee, stated that it would be impossible to get the utilities truck and suggested a contract with one of the bus services.

EXPLANATION OF ALD. PERRY

Claims He Was Ignored as Member of Hospital Finance Committee.

ALWAYS ATTENDED WHENEVER INVITED

Is Not a Quitter and May Retain Position at Request of City Council.

On request of Mayor McClelland Alderman Perry is to reconsider his resignation from the Hospital Board which he handed to the mayor during the week. Before adjournment was made by the council last night, the alderman explained his stand on the question. He said:

"In January, Mr. Mayor, you appointed me to the Hospital Board and being called to two meetings of the finance committee I attended both and nothing disagreeable passed. From then on Mr. Denholm was secretary and I received no further notices and neither did Mrs. McLeod, another member of the finance committee. Later I spoke to Mr. Stewart about it and he referred me to Mr. McRae, the chairman of the board, who in turn told me it was the secretary's duty to notify me. Mr. Denholm told me he had no instructions to send notices and when a meeting was to be called Mr. McRae would tell him 'Come on down and we will go over and see Joe.'"

Fruitless Call.

"Then I spoke to the mayor again and last Monday week Mrs. McLeod and I were sent notices to attend a meeting in the City Hall. Mrs. McLeod walked all the way into town and I came and we waited with Mr. Denholm but neither Mr. McRae or Mr. Roerig turned up. Finally after waiting more than half an hour we dispersed. These were the only three meetings of the finance committee I was asked to attend. I think I have always been willing to do my share of this kind of work."

"The next thing I see is a press report where I have been discussed at a meeting in my absence. Mr. McRae says that I have been called repeatedly and have failed to respond so they have stopped asking me. Now I think that I have measured up and have neglected none of my public duties although my fraternal meetings have been neglected on account of public ones. Mr. McRae's statement is an untruth and I will swear an affidavit to the effect that I have never failed to attend any meetings of the finance committee of which I was notified."

Not a Dead One.

"I am a member of the hospital finance committee, but I am sure I do not know much about the financial affairs of the institution. I remember when Mr. McRae was an alderman he was always keen about accounts and I do not think it is proper for these two men to sit alone in passing accounts in which they are both, probably, interested. I do not intend to be a member of a dead committee."

"The Hospital Board does not seem to show much respect for your nominee, Mr. Mayor. I think this is high-handed business and a letter of apology is due the council," said Mr. Rochester.

Not a Quitter.

"I did not know you were a quitter before, Ald. Perry," remarked Ald. Dybbavn.

"Neither am I," said Ald. Perry, "but I want to be a member of a live committee where a little business method is shown in holding meetings and passing accounts."

"As a director of the hospital, I am very sorry that this has come up," said Ald. McLennan.

"President Stewart also regrets that there should have been friction. Proper notices will henceforth be sent out. In Mr. Perry's case his government duties often took him out of town. I understand, and when he was called up on the phone he, sometimes, could not be reached and it is probably thus how the misunderstanding has occurred. I think the finance committee, itself, is sorry although it will not admit it."

The mayor then asked Ald. Perry to reconsider his resignation and the matter was closed, council adjourning.

Savoy, Turf and Svea Got Licenses

Parlor Lose Theirs.

Beverage licenses for W. R. Garey, Savoy bar, and Harry G. Fletcher, for the Turf Buffet, were granted by the city council last night. A transfer of the Svea license from Elsie Peterson to Horace A. Duhamel was also allowed. Accompanying the latter was a testimony of character of the applicant from Chief Constable A. C. Minty.

The action of the chief of police in closing up the Royal and Knox bars and the Chili Parlor was also sustained in view of the convictions against these places under the B. C. Prohibition Act.

STORES STAY OPEN ANYWAY

Council Would Let Them If It Could, But It Cannot; Petition Too Late for Effect.

A petition signed by 90 per cent of the merchants in the city praying that stores be allowed to remain open until 10 o'clock during fair week and that the by-law be changed to compel closing at 6 o'clock for all other week days except Christmas week and Saturdays was presented at last night's council meeting. The council, however, found itself tied as far as immediate action is concerned and although concurring in the idea of having the stores open this week, the request in that regard could not be granted as it would be in direct contravention of the law. Whether or not the city would grant such request, the stores would be subject to prosecution, so in granting it the council would be encouraging the breaking of the law. It is understood that the stores will remain open this week, however, and run the chance of prosecution.

There was a good deal of discussion over the request and Ald. Rochester, who favored the remaining open, moved that the request be granted. This was seconded by George Kerr who mentioned, in reply to Ald. Murray, that the employees would be benefited if the law were lived up to. Ald. Dybbavn pointed out the legal technicality and refused to support a resolution supporting the breaking of the law although he favored the purport. Alderman Perry and Alderman McLennan were of the same mind. Finally after George Hill and George Munro, who were present, had spoken to the motion, Alderman Dybbavn suggested its withdrawal, which suggestion was carried out by Ald. Rochester.

The council went on record as concurring in the purport of the request but being illegal it was impossible to grant. The only method of putting a by-law out of effect is by passing another one which would take three weeks to do under the regular procedure.

FRANK ECKERT TAKES BURNS LAKE BRIDE

Married Miss Ethel Eileen Shaw Yesterday Afternoon

The marriage took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shaw, 709 First Avenue West, of Miss Ethel Eileen Shaw, of Burns Lake, and Frank Julius Eckert, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Eckert are both newcomers in the city and they will make their home at the Pacific Rooms. Rev. T. H. Nuttall was the officiating clergyman.

RUSSIAN JOURNALIST ARRESTED NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Alex. Brailovsky, Russian journalist, was arrested on Saturday. He was in Wall Street at the time of the big explosion.

It is stated that Fischer, who was arrested at Hamilton, was a psychic and innocent of complicity in the crime. He had received warning by telepathy of the impending explosion.

Sport Briefs

The outside sport season will practically close with the Exhibition games this week and then the attention of the athletes will be directed to the inside games for the winter months. As soon as the exhibition is over the school boys are going to reorganize the basketball teams with a view to drawing up the winter schedules. The St. Andrew's Society are already starting certain forms of inside recreation, while the Whist League is also getting ready to start the contests for the Dybbavn Cup. Doubtless the Athletic Association will soon be starting the classes at its quarters in the Exhibition Hall.

It's the Colts and the Red Sox for it again, by the results of the Intermediate League play-offs at Acropolis Hill Sunday afternoon. These two teams have emerged victorious out of so many games that there is little doubt that they are the two best teams. Now the Red Sox are going to try to show the Colts in the play-off this week that their winning the League Cup was just a lot of luck, while the Colts are determined to prove that the best team won.

"Doc" Shaw was in great form Sunday afternoon playing with the Colts and in the four times he came up to bat sent a good clean hit out to field. "Doc" had his mind all made up at one of those times to send a long homer right to the end of that old field, but just at the crucial moment his foot slipped and his hit only took him around to second. The Colts will be very grateful to him if he produces his heavy one during the play-off this week. They feel they might need it.

Ben Self was out on Saturday afternoon for the first time in weeks and during the course of his airing was up at the Acropolis grounds during the progress of the football game between the Great War Veterans and the Sons of England. It is not necessary to say that his friends watching the game as well as many of the players noticed and were glad to see that he would be around for the big week commencing yesterday.

Lakelse Lake is not only gaining a name as a summer and health resort but also seems to be a great hunting ground. W. J. McCutcheon and Joe Rogers came in from the lake Sunday and report the sport great. Fishing is not so good now but the lagoons of the lake abound with geese and ducks and, of course, the woods are full of bear. It will probably be the scene of some hunting expeditions this year.

It seems a shame that some men who go up to the sports grounds and watch the various games can find no better way of expressing their enthusiasm than by cursing. Good healthy rooting is never discouraged and, in fact, has almost become a part of the game, but the use of swear words is neither admirable nor pleasant to listen to. Especially is it bad when there are ladies looking on. It will only discourage their attendance.

E. E. Chandler, editor of the Terrace News, will arrive here on tonight's train to attend the exhibition.

MACDONALD'S CUT "BRIER"

"Brier" Smoking Tobacco has become a Canadian institution. More men smoke "Brier" than any other tobacco in Canada. It leads in quality—and leads in value.

Now "Brier" comes in new form—Macdonald's Cut "Brier"—the same tobacco—prepared under the Macdonald standards established in 1858.

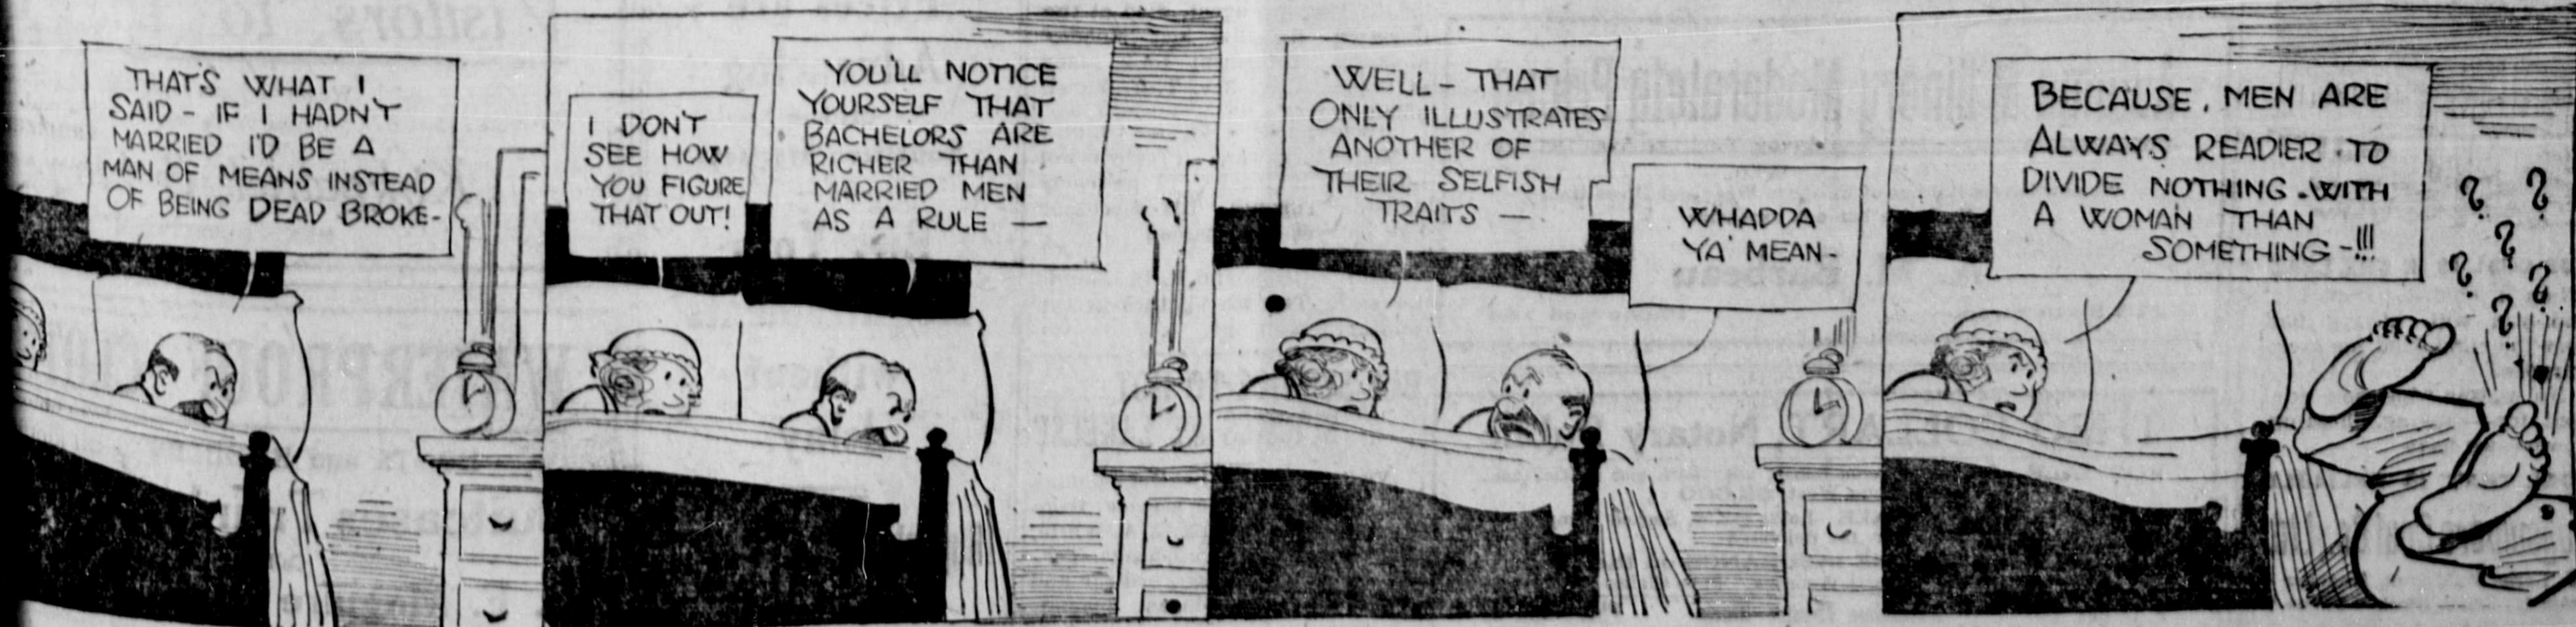

Still leading in value. Macdonald's Cut "Brier" gives more tobacco for the money in the 1-12 lb. package for 15c.—$1.80 per pound.

HERBS USED FOR BRONCHIAL CURES

Remarkably Successful Results in Fine Climatic Conditions of B. C.

World interest has been awakened by the discovery of curing properties of natural herb juices in connection with asthma, bronchitis, catarrh and other diseases of the air passages. A formula has been produced by a Scotch herbalist in which herb principles are contained that have demonstrated positive healing powers. How this is brought about is simply the perfected modern method of what is probably the oldest cure known to the human race—the restoration of the blood to normal condition through the soothing action of juices extracted from herb plants.

This remedy has been given the name Wonder Health Restorer, and a descriptive booklet has been written in which are included many signed testimonials from people who have been successfully cured after all other treatments had failed. One case of especial note is that of Mr. H. Duncan of Vancouver. Mr. Duncan's serious condition necessitated hospital treatment and the care of specialists. A friend advised him to take Wonder Health Restorer. Pronounced relief came to him within a month and he is today able to sleep perfectly and enjoy a condition of health denied him for years.

Wonder Health Restorer, not being a narcotic or artificial stimulant—it does not contain a drop of alcohol or drugs—is a nature cure to which the blood responds in a way possible by no other means. Sufferers from lung troubles will welcome this wonderfully effective permanent cure.

Wonder Health Restorer and its descriptive booklet can be obtained in Prince Rupert at the Prince Rupert Drug Co., and at most drug stores throughout the province. If you can't get Wonder Health Restorer from your druggist, send to the distributors, W. V. McCarter-Burr Co., Limited, 1915 Dominion Building, Vancouver.

LAW COURTS COST MOST

London Buildings Run Well in Million Pound Figures in Cost of Erection

Which is London's most costly edifice?

The Monument, built to commemorate the Fire of London, cost £14,500; Nelson's Column in Trafalgar Square £28,000; and the Albert Memorial, £120,000.

The British Museum cost upwards of one million pounds to build and requires over £100,000 yearly to maintain it and its valuable contents. The reading-room, which is 106 ft. high and 140 ft. long was added at a cost of £150,000.

The custom House cost £30,000 and the Mansion House £40,000. It took thirty-five years to build St. Paul's Cathedral, which cost £747,954. The Blackwall Tunnel cost one and a quarter millions to construct and the Tower Bridge £1,600,000.

Buckingham Palace, built by George IV., involved the expenditure of nearly a million pounds. Marble Arch, once the principal entrance to Buckingham Palace, cost £80,000.

The bill for building the Houses of Parliament amounted to over two millions sterling.

But the most expensive of all London's important buildings are the Law Courts, covering seven acres. They cost nearly two and a half million pounds.

GIVE LOCAL MEN CHANCE FOR JOB

City Council Does Not Select Assessor From Applicants From South.

Three applications from the south for the position of city assessor were received at last night's council meeting but the council divided on the opinion as to whether a local man or an outsider would be the most suitable and the question of appointment has been laid over for a week so that advertisements may be run in the local papers.

Applications were received last night from W. C. W. Broadbent, of Burnaby, who wanted $200 a month and a steady position; John D. Dransfield, New Westminster, formerly assessor for the municipality of Pitt Meadows, $600 for the job, and E. H. Henderson, former manager of the Imperial Canadian Trust and Great West Permanent Loan Co., $200 a month.

Alderman Dybbavn moved the appointment of Mr. Henderson for the purpose of argument this was seconded by Ald. Perry. Ald. Rochester was against the outside appointment, as were Ald. McLennan and Ald. Murray. Finally an amendment laying the matter over was made by Ald. Rochester and carried by the meeting.
