DAILY EDITION.

Wednesday, Oct. 20, 1920.

Everyone Should be Sure to Vote.

There is yet time to vote if you have not already done so. No one should neglect the duty. The question before the people is very important and everyone whose name is on the list ought to record his or her opinion. Women especially are urged to come to the poll, perhaps for the first time, and use the franchise and show that they are really citizens.

Two Trains Daily From Prince Rupert.

It is an interesting suggestion made by F. G. Dawson in regard to the train service out of this city. He says there should be two trains a day each way, one carrying local passengers and the other through passengers and fresh fish. As he says, if there were a proper service with plenty of cars, there would be a lot more fish marketed here than there is at present. Tourist trade is steadily increasing on this route and local business would increase if given a proper service. Add to that the steadily increasing settlements in the interior and it is easy to see there will be a good deal of business to handle. Last year the trains were so heavy that it was difficult to haul them. Next year there should be a great deal more business. Prince Rupert people should set out to demand that the government-owned service with this city should be adequate. Nothing should be allowed to stand in the way.

Assembling Wharf For Lumber.

The need of an assembling wharf for lumber is apparent to everyone here. Arrangements have been made for such a wharf at Victoria, and at Vancouver there is a similar institution. Here at Prince Rupert it is needed very badly and we know that the officials of the traffic department of the Canadian National are interested in it. All that is now needed is action. There is plenty of foreshore and the construction of such a dock would not be difficult. It is to be hoped that in the very near future we shall hear from the railway officials in regard to this. We need it badly.

Railway Vital To This Port.

The Canadian National Railway is vital to this port. It is the artery that carries the lifeblood. Without it we do not exist. Because of this it is very necessary that we keep in close touch with the activities of the railway and that we try to be on good terms with and act in a helpful manner toward the big institution which we own.

Prince Rupert can do a great deal to build up the railway and make it a success financially. In order to do that, however, there must be a spirit of co-operation. The railway must help Prince Rupert and not, as at present seems to be the case, devote all its energy to serving the bigger port to the south.

We are not jealous of Vancouver. There is no need to be. Both ports have a work to do, but we shall always strenuously object to our interests being made subservient to those of the C. P. R. terminal.

In this matter of making Prince Rupert a branch line, we naturally feel sore. We feel that we are badly used. Business cannot improve if the service is to be ruined. We are glad to know that Edmonton joins with us in protest against the present conditions. Possibly we can make the protest so clear to the officials that a change for the better will be made in the near future.

THE TORTURES OF RHEUMATISM

Happily Stopped When He Began To Take "Fruit-a-tives"

3 OTTAWA ST., HULL, P. Q.
 "For a year, I suffered with Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again. One day while lying in bed, I read about 'Fruit-a-tives' the great fruit medicine; and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it. The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the Rheumatism left me."

High, 7:0 a.m., 16.3 ft.

19:36 p.m., 16.2 ft.

Low, 1:00 a.m., 7.6 ft.

13:31 p.m., 10.8 ft.

Thursday, October 21

High, 8:0 a.m., 16.7 ft.

Low, 2:08 a.m., 7.9 ft.

20:49 p.m., 16.3 ft.

14:51 p.m., 10.2 ft.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:—

THAT beware of touching the buzz saw. Experimenting is all right along right lines, but there are things it is better to leave alone.

THAT it is beginning to look as if Mayor McSwiney had a stand-in with the press associations.

THAT there have been advances all along the line, but the wages of sin remain the same year in year out.

THAT it is a wise man who knows the difference between "a long time" and "quite a long time."

THAT there are some who think they know more than they know and others who know more than they think they know. My friend thinks he knows more than his friends think he knows and— but what's the use?

THAT the Liberals and farmers in the Yale Cariboo constituency are fighting together against the Tory nominee. The combination is nae sae bad.

LARGE POTATO CROP

Prairie Reports Show Tubers
already Out of Ground

EDMONTON, Oct. 19.—The movement of the Edmonton district potato crop to Eastern markets, especially to Winnipeg and
St. Paul, has commenced, report officials of the Canadian National Railway. Several carloads from the Stony Plain, Spruce Grove and other potato growing centres have already been dispatched to Winnipeg.

While a definite statement has not yet been prepared, expectations are that the potato crop this year will be a record one. The crop for the most part has now been taken out of the ground, thus eliminating the possibility of any duplication of the condition which prevailed last year, when growers were caught by frost with the potatoes still in the ground.

LET US SING A NEW SONG UNTO THE LAW

(The following satire on the prohibitionists, though not true, is clever and for that reason we use it.)

That man hath perfect blessedness

Who walketh not astray
Within the realms of bootleggers
Or of the cabaret;

Nor sitteth in the corner chair
Around the bar-room stove;
Nor plants his foot upon the rail
Nor elbows up above;

Nor gazes on the 9 per cent.
All capped with dewy foam,
A devil's brew enticing path
To hoist the "schooner" home.
But goeth to the "Red Cross Hut"
And sits among the chosen
And sips a cup of tea, or two,
(Or maybe half-a-dozen).

He goeth Sabbath to the church
And chants the saintly lays,
And listens to the parson preach
Upon his evil ways;
And nods in most approved style
(That they had e'er been born)
While preacher flays the evil ones
Who worship Barleycorn.

He voteth with the saintly host
Against the alcoholic,
And quotes statistics in a way
That fires the melancholic;
And all the ills that flesh e'er knew
And all that we expect
He blames it all on Barleycorn
—And proves it with a text.

He shall be like a tree that grows
Near-planted by a river,
Whose roots are firm embedded in
The soil of the forever.

When e'er I think upon it,
Full many a tree has met an axe
When least expecting on it.

MANY ENTRIES BASKETBALL

Seven Teams in Senior League—
Ladies Enter Seven Teams
in All.

The first executive meeting of the Basketball Association was held last evening in Peck-Moore's office and the entries for participation in the winter series were opened. It was decided to close the applications for the senior league as seven teams have entered, but all other leagues have been left open until next Monday. President F. Gihuly was in the chair and the delegates were W. R. Martin for the Callies; R. V. Lepine, Elks; H. Fraser, Colts; E. A. Donohue, Dry Dock; Joe Hatchford, Beavers; J. Day Bell, Sons of England; A. M. Macdonald, King Edward School, and Harry Love, Sons of Canada.

The seven entries for the senior league were from the G. W. V. A., Sons of Canada, Sons of England, Colts, Dry Dock, Elks, and Callies. A committee consisting of President Gihuly and Secretary George S. Russell was delegated to draw up the senior league schedule and present their draft to the executive next Monday night.

The following were the other entries: Ladies Intermediate, Hello Girls, G. W. V. A., Maple Leafs, and Meteors; Junior Ladies—Spartans, Tillicums, and King Edward School; Intermediate Boys—Colts; Junior Boys—Colts and Beavers.

WONDERFUL GARDEN, BIRDS AND FLOWERS IN PICTURE TONIGHT

Enid Bennett, who is coming to the Westholme Theatre tonight in a new picture, "What Every Woman Learns," is a great lover of birds and flowers. Surrounding her home is a beautiful garden that contains practically every variety of flower grown in semi-tropical southern California, and every tree has its bird-house. Canaries, parrots, and other songsters hang in cages around the spacious veranda. Her chief pets, however, are a family of Australian rabbits which a friend presented to her when she was a little girl and which she carefully brought to America with her and lodged in a pen. Miss Bennett herself has often been likened by her acquaintances to a child in her vivaciousness and enthusiasm. In her new picture, "What Every Woman Learns," she is the exuberant child-wife who becomes sobered through tragedy and learns that a philosophy of joy alone will not enable her to cope with her more serious problems.

NO WAGE INCREASE FOR CARETAKER OF THE CITY CEMETERY

A recommendation of the board of works to grant Harry Smith, cemetery caretaker, an increase of salary to $140 a month failed to carry at the meeting of the city council last night after considerable discussion.

Alderman Rochester suggested that the matter should be discussed in committee of the whole but to this Alderman Perry objected and it was decided to take the matter up at once.

Ald. Rochester said this was a vexatious question. In a month or two they would be leaving office, some of them never to return. Mr. Smith was a good man but it was the principle they were dealing with. The cost of living had not gone up recently but the tendency was downward. If they took action in this particular case they would stir up a hornet's nest among the city employees and this should not be done. They should not keep raking up this matter of wage increases. They should get along for the balance of the year. Mr. Smith doubtless earned every dollar he got but the alderman thought the application should go over to the first of the year.

Alderman Kerr in supporting the motion for an increase said every case should be dealt with on its merits. Any adjustment made at the beginning of the year would doubtless be downward. Acting Mayor Dybhavn said he was personally opposed to the motion. The cost of living was coming down and at this late hour in the life of the council it would not be good judgment to grant the request.

Alderman Perry urged that Mr. Smith was doing dangerous and unpleasant work and that he had a long family.

The motion failed to carry, the acting mayor voting against it.

Britain, the Greatest Maritime Power, Supports Her Mercantile Training Ships Wholly by Voluntary Public Contributions, Because it is Realized that the Sailor is a National Asset.

It takes six times as long to train a seaman as it does to build a ship.

Maritime strength cannot be achieved in a year or even a decade. Its growth can only be commensurate with the development of sea-conscious spirit in the nation.

The continuous training of over two thousand Canadian lads, in the Boys' Naval Brigades of the Navy League of Canada, is to-day having an effect upon our maritime future.

Only through this medium can the foundation be laid of trained Canadian seamen for our ships.

Since May last, sixty of these lads have completed their training and passed into the Canadian Merchant Navy. Fifty more are on the new ships of the re-organised Royal Canadian Navy.

Under the guidance of Experienced Sea Minds, it is being planned to give chosen lads from the Boys' Naval Brigades an ocean-going education second to none, so that Canada will have efficient master seamen.

The Merchant Navy of any nation is its first step to sea power.

Public opinion demands that this work be maintained.
From the public, then, must come the funds.

GOOD CONCERT NAVY LEAGUE

Pleasant Entertainment Afforded
Those Attending Westholme
Last Evening.

JUDGE YOUNG URGES IMPORTANCE OF NAVY

Merchant Marine Policy Essential for Prosperity of Canada;
Boys' Brigade Work.

To those who attended the Navy League concert in the Westholme Theatre last night a musical treat was afforded. The only pity was that a larger turnout was not present for the quality of the performance would have warranted a crowded house. The pit of the theatre was well filled but the balconies and galleries presented almost a deserted appearance. Despite this the splendid program was rendered in excellent style and all enjoyed it.

After "O Canada" had been sung Judge Young made a few remarks to open the program. He told of the objects of the Navy League for the education of boys for occupations in the navy, the advocating of a navy and merchant marine policy for Canada and the establishing of sailors' homes. He referred to the enthusiasm among the boys in the local brigade, which now numbered over 70, on land in charge of Captain C. V. Evtitt and at sea in charge of Captain McGoskrie. Soon the ship upon which $1,200 had been spent will be ready for the sea. It was not necessary for boys who took this navy league instruction to join the navy. The training would be useful and those responsible for it could feel that the boys were being given a benefit that they could not get if hanging around the streets and the poolrooms.

Must Guard Our Own

Speaking of the general aims of the Navy League the Judge said that the time had not yet arrived when we could do without navies and armies. The League of Nations had not yet arrived at that ideal stage where its usefulness had been proven. In the meantime Great Britain and Canada must be prepared not to take from others what is justly theirs, but to guard their own rightful belongings. If the nations had been prepared there never would have been the great conflict that broke out in 1914. We owed it to those boys who now lie buried in the fields of France and Flanders to be prepared to guard what they had fought and died for.

Canada's prosperity depended on the development of her merchant marine. She had a surplus of commercial necessities and the merchant marine was essential for the carrying of this surplus. With Canadian ships, routes, ports and men her success was assured. In time a Sailors' Home would be necessary here when the trans-Pacific routes are established.

ASSISTANT FOREST RANGER.

Object. These examinations are for the purpose of filling present vacancies and to enable candidates to qualify for future vacancies and increases in staff.

Assistant Forest Rangers.

Assistant Forest Rangers are employed during the fire season (May to September inclusive) of each year and this period is extended where possible by working on improvements such as trails, etc. Re-appointment is made each year as long as satisfactory service is given. Promotion to the permanent staff is made by merit and examination as occasion offers. The salary is $1,000.00 per month the first year and $1,200.00 per month the next year. Travelling expenses are also paid.

Qualifications for Candidates.

Candidates must be British subjects resident in British Columbia for at least one year, of good character, good physical condition and with woods experience.

They should have experience in fire fighting, possess the ability to organize work and handle men; and have knowledge of the Forest Act.

The examinations are partly written, partly oral and are designed to test the candidates' ability along the above lines. All statements made by applicants as to experience, education and fitness are subject to verification by the examining board.

Preference is given to returned soldiers with the necessary qualifications.

The examinations will be held at the places and on the dates named below. Each intending candidate should apply to the District Forester of his district for application forms and for information regarding the hour of the examination and the building in which it will be held. Application forms should be filled out and mailed back to the District Forester in time to reach him before the date of the examination.

lished out of this port. When the time came the Navy League would be ready and willing to found one. In closing the Judge asked for support for the Tag Day tomorrow.

Greenville Band

The first number on the concert program was the opening march, "Viscount Nelson," by the Greenville Concert Band. This band proved an invaluable part of the program and the more one hears it the more it is realized the great boon it is to musical circles to be able to keep this aggregation of musicians in the city. Great credit is also due to Will Edmunds for the way in which he conducts the band. Accompanied by the band, George Martin, one of the members, rendered a euphonium solo, "The Death of Nelson," and their final number was the rousing march, "Sons of the Brave." All the numbers of the band were heartily enjoyed.

Mrs. Stanley Bennett, soprano, was pleasing in her solos, "Boys of the King," "In the Garden of My Heart" and "A Perfect Day," accompanied in the latter by Will Edmunds' cello obligato. J. Y. Fraser sang several solos and was received with much applause. The male quartette consisting of J. E. Davey, George Wilson, A. J. Lancaster and A. Clapperton gave some part songs which pleased everyone. The song and chorus "The Lads in Navy Blue" was very pretty. Mrs. Will Edmunds was in the solo role assisted by six little jack tars, Masters F. Tabrum, E. Tabrum, G. Bell, J. McGee, R. Irvine and H. McDonald.

Instrumental.

The Skirt Dance and the Spanish Dance by Miss Gladys Kemp were performed with precision and daintiness. They were received with much pleasure and the young lady was recalled on either occasion. Taking part in the instrumental section of the program were Will Edmunds on the cello and Will Balagno on the violin. The excellence of both is well known and they are always a treat. Principal J. C. Brady, recited "The Battle of the Baltic" and "Ghunga Din."

Mining News

McLENNAN QUILTS

Captain J. A. McLennan, who was in charge of operations at the Royal Group near the Dolly Varden this season, has resigned as president of the company in control of that group and has also left the Board of Directors. The McLennan Mines Co. conducted quite a stock selling campaign this season and some good showings were said to have been laid open during the course of development work.

MOOSE DIRECTORS

The Moose Mining Company which recently took over the property of that name at Alice Arm from Don Cameron, the owner, elected its directors in Vancouver Friday morning and the following influential names appear on the directorate: President, F. W. Sylvester, former managing director of the Granby Consolidated; vice-president, Newton J. Kerr, secretary, W. R. Ross, M.L.A. for Prince George; Dr. J. W. Mahan and E. B. Berg, directors, and P. W. Racey, manager.

ILLIANCE SIDE GOOD

Georgel Naden, deputy minister of lands, recently returned from Alice Arm where he has mining interests. Mr. Naden has been interested with Joe Wells in the Mohawk claims up Round Creek on the Silver City side of the Arm for many years and is confident that in time there is going to be some good proven properties in the Illiance River valley. He says he thinks that some of the claims on this side are of equal merit with those in the Kitsault River valley. Mr. Naden returned south last night.

LE PAS GOING STRONG

Persons interested in the Le Pas, Manitoba, country claim that some of the greatest copper mines in the world will be developed in that district. Prospectors of experience from California, British Columbia and Nevada and other places declare that in no other place have they worked where prospects were so good. The Flin Flon and Mandy Mines are already producing big revenue for the owners. The Preston Bartley Co., an Edmonton syndicate of a railroad to holdings it has, are considering the building recently acquired there.

The Truth About Sugar

The Sugar Industry of Canada is confronted with a serious situation, and has appealed to the government to come to its assistance.

Ignorance of the circumstances leading up to this situation has led many people to enter objections to the measures of relief that have been proposed.

The purpose of this statement is to put the plain facts before the people of Canada, in the belief that at heart they want to play fair, and are willing to accord a square deal to everyone.

The present upheaval in the world's sugar trade has been brought about by enforced liquidation of some large stocks of raw and refined sugars held by American and Cuban interests. Its effect in Cuba, where some of the native banks have been forced to suspend payment, and where the government has put into effect a sixty day moratorium are of common knowledge.

A feature of the disturbance has been the dumping on the American market of a quantity of so-called "distressed" sugar in amount relatively unimportant to the whole supply, but sufficient nevertheless temporarily to disorganize the trade.

Part of this "distressed" sugar, forced into the market under conditions of practical bankruptcy, has found its way into Canada, where it has, temporarily, upset trading conditions, and made it impossible for Canadian refineries to market their product except at a ruinous loss.

It is pertinent to observe that the low prices quoted for the "distressed" sugar now being dumped in Canada by no means reflects the true market price in the United States. Only a day or two ago the newspapers announced that the American Sugar Refinery Company, the largest sugar refiners in the U.S., and who control some 40 per cent. of the production of that country, is selling sugar on the basis of 22 1-2 cents a pound, equivalent to 25 cents in Canada at the present rate of exchange, several cents a pound higher than that contemplated for Canada in the order made by the Board of Commerce, and set aside.

At the present time the plants of four of the largest Canadian refineries are closed, thousands of men have been thrown out of employment, and millions of capital are temporarily inactive and unproductive.

The refineries have bought, or are committed to buy, raw sugars to the value of over $60,000,000. Their sales in Canada, due to the conditions before stated, are at a standstill. It follows that the financing of the raw sugar already under contract, should these conditions continue indefinitely, will be an impossible task for the refineries, with all their resources. The burden will develop upon the banks if a critical situation comparable to a panic is to be avoided.

The question naturally arises, why have the Canadian sugar refineries allowed this situation to develop, and what justification have they for appealing for public support of their industry in this crisis.

The refineries disclaim responsibility for the situation.

They maintain that if they had been left to shape their own course the situation, so far as they are concerned, would not have developed.

They frankly admit that had control of their business not been taken out of their hands by agents of the Government, they would now have no shadow of an excuse for appealing for protection.

What are the facts:

For over a year the Board of Commerce, created by the Government, exercised absolute control over the prices at which sugar could be sold in Canada, and fixed the price, from time to time, on a basis contrary to all established commercial usages.

At the same time the Trade Commission, another agency of the government, refuses permission to the refineries to export sugar, which they might have done, and thereby reduced their liabilities very materially without injury to the domestic market.

Government control went further, and even prevented the re-sale abroad of raw sugars not necessarily needed in Canada.

Government control caused the refineries to lay in additional stocks of raw sugar after the price had advanced, and when it was economically less desirable to buy.

The refiners do not believe, when the situation is fully and fairly analysed, that their request involves any serious hardship upon the Canadian public. On the contrary, taking into account the benefits the public have already enjoyed in having been enabled to purchase sugar in Canada, for months, at a time when the price was materially lower than the price prevailing in the world's market, amounting at times to 10 cents or more a pound, and having regard for the national interests involved in keeping the sugar industry actively operating, and preventing the loss occasioned by unemployed labor and unproductive capital, and considering furthermore the strong advisability of keeping trade within the national boundaries instead of sending it abroad, where a Canadian dollar is regarded as being worth only 90 cents or less, and having regard above all for the very grave necessity of maintaining Canadian industrial, financial and commercial equilibrium in these trying times of worldwide readjustment, the sugar refiners of Canada believe that both the Government and the people will admit the justice and the fairness of their position, and will accord them the temporary consideration necessary to meet the situation.

Throughout all these transactions, the refineries vigorously protested against the invasion of their rights, and frequently gave warning as to what the ultimate result would be. They were met by assurances that their rights would be fully protected.

In meeting their objections the Board of Commerce promised that the refineries would be protected in a falling market to the same extent that they had been deprived by the Board of their opportunity to take advantage of a rising market.

The Board of Commerce, in a ruling dated June 11, 1920, laid down this principle:

"The Board will not recognize prices based on replacement values on a rising market. It will be its duty, in good time, as it hopes, to as carefully protect the trader on a falling market, by permitting him to average his cost down, as it must now carefully protect the consumer in compelling the trader to average his costs up."

The present appeal of the refineries to the Government and to the Board of Commerce is merely a request for a fulfillment of the pledge thus given.

In the same judgment, as illustrating the powers of the Board, it says:

"The Board will prohibit all refineries from selling to other than wholesalers. It will prohibit wholesalers from buying from other than refineries. It will prohibit speculators from buying or selling at all."

In other words, the Board assumed full powers to control the price as well as the conditions under which sugar was marketed in Canada.

The ruling recently made by the Board, and suspended by the Government, pending a further hearing, was in strict conformity with the principles the Board had laid down and is in no sense an innovation.

Sugar control and restrictions on exports were finally lifted July 1st, 1920, but with the order revoking the restrictions a letter was issued from the Department of Trade and Commerce which practically once more tied the hands of the refineries so that they were not free even then to sell their products in the world's markets, where the price was still some 6 cents a pound higher than the prevailing market prices in Canada.

Had they been entirely free, even at this late date, to adjust their trade to the new conditions, Canadian refineries could have sold their products abroad at a price that would have protected them against the slump which has since ensued, and enabled them to meet later conditions without serious loss. Again, they were prevented from doing so.

The actual cost of Government control to the sugar refineries of Canada, irrespective of the losses which now confront them in the disposal of their present stocks, is conservatively estimated at from two to twenty-five million dollars.

The refineries have facts and figures to prove that their losses, if compelled to sell in competition with "distressed" sugar dumped into Canada from the States, will run into many additional millions.

The sugar refineries are in a different position from any other class of manufacturers in Canada, whose products have not been under Government control, and who have not been denied the right to a free market.

PERRY TAKES IT ALL BACK

At Council Meeting He Apologizes for Statements Regarding Messrs. Roerig and McRae.

At the meeting of the city council last night Alderman Perry read the following statement:

"Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen,—An acute controversy recently developed from a parochial deduction credited to me during cross-fire in this council, to the effect that Messrs. Roerig and McRae were on the Hospital Board for what they could get out of it. Whatever I might have said, I certainly did not intend to make this charge, but purposed to show that complaints seriously made to me and another director and to a third party, suggested to me the appearance of such a condition. As I am held to have made the statement—as I failed to take issue with the official minute recording it because of my desire not to re-open the question in the council—I hereby retract it if I made it, and deem it to be only courteous and just to these gentlemen to apologize for my non-contention.

"A committee was appointed by the Hospital Board to investigate the inferences contained in my remarks, with the result that it was found that the deductions were of a contentious nature. But upon the closest examination it is now clear to all that neither Mr. Roerig nor Mr. McRae should be held to be using the hospital for purposes of their own respective businesses even though it had been made to appear that such was the case.

"I am happy to report that the hatchet has been buried, and I am satisfied that peace and harmony now prevails in the finance committee of the Hospital Board, and that there now remains no hard feelings in this connection, and no reflection from my point of view upon the integrity of the two gentlemen mentioned."
