Approximate Majority 25,000 for Government Sale of Liquor Province Vote Decisively Against Prohibition at present time; big centres nearly all go wet; only two cities dry

VANCOUVER, October 21.—The province by a majority estimated this morning at 25,000 expressed itself as preferring control and sale of liquor to continued prohibition. In many country districts are yet to be heard from, but the cities and towns is decisive. Vancouver and Nelson were the only cities that gave meagre support against prohibition. All others went for government control by substantial majorities, in many cases two to one. In Vancouver where the former referendum was strongly in favor of prohibition, there was a majority of 10,000 against the prohibition.

At the outset expressed fullest confidence, the majority relying very largely on the newly enfranchised voters. The poll all over the province was heavy. Vancouver had 10,000 votes for prohibition and 20,000 for government sale. In smaller centres the percentage was even.

Most Ever Poled
The vote was the largest ever polled. Three of the cities voted dry by a majority, but the rest went wet by large majorities. South Vancouver the vote was carried every division. The same occurred in Vancouver and West Vancouver. Westminster, Point Richmond, Chilliwack and...

Government of... will probably take four years to replace prohibition by government control. The present prohibition will be repealed and a session called without a session of the legislature and it is contended that the Government will call a session for the purpose of passing a new act.

BOTH LEADERS INTERVIEWED
Tupper Thinks Session of Legislature should be Called at Once

VANCOUVER, Oct. 21.—Sir Charles Tupper, the leader of the moderationists, interviewed here, said: "In my opinion the Government should call a session with any extension they bring in will have to be very thoughtfully considered. It should enable the Government to restrict sales and keep control and see that bars neither directly nor indirectly reappear."

William Savage
William Savage, president of the Prohibition Party, said: "We accept the verdict, but are confident the Government sale will be a ghastly failure as it proved to be in Saskatchewan. The prohibition party will carry on as before."

PRINCE RUPERT DISTRICT WET
Substantial Majority for Government Control and Sale Given in This Constituency.

LATEST RETURNS FROM ELECTION

LONG WAITS AT JASPER NOT TO BE PERMITTED
When Vancouver Train is Late Prince Rupert Section will go Right Through.

Word has been received by Superintendent Walton that in future all trains from here to Edmonton will go right through whenever the Vancouver train is more than two hours late.

Usually the trains are on time and connect well at Jasper, but in the few cases when there are obstructions on the line or when for any other reason the train is abnormally late, the Prince Rupert section will go through direct without waiting.

This plan will continue through out the winter and in the spring it is expected traffic will increase to such an extent that the split train will become an impossibility.

British Transport Workers Ultimatum

LONDON, October 21.—Railwaymen and transport workers here announce that they will strike in sympathy with the coal miners unless negotiations between the Government and the miners are opened this week.

FISHING BOAT STRIKES LOG GOES ASHORE

Crew Picked up This Morning off Digby Island by Chief Zabassa.

The fishing boat Livingstone last night struck a log off the south end of Digby Island, stove in the stem of the boat and ran ashore in order to save the lives of the crew. It was a close call, for the water was coming in fast and the engine stopped just as she reached shore. This morning the men were picked up by Capt. Parsons on the Chief Zabassa and brought to port.

The Livingstone is a Seattle boat. She had discharged 20,000 lbs. of fish here and left about ten o'clock for Ketchikan with six fishermen aboard. About midnight they struck and the injuries to the boat were such that they decided to run her ashore. Water was coming in fast and it put out the engine just as they reached land.

Parsons to Rescue.
Capt. Parsons on the Zabassa was taking out provisions and supplies to the men who are saving the Carruthers. In passing he noticed the boat partly under water and went in as close to the shore as he dared. The men put off in a dory and were brought here, arriving about nine o'clock this morning.

Louis Holm of Seattle is the owner of the Livingstone, but he went south on the steamer Princess Beatrice a week or two ago, leaving Capt. R. Bergness in charge. With him on the boat were Hans Carlsen, Louis Jacobson, Andrew Fustad, Ed. Holset, and M. Erickson.

NO INQUIRY ON REPRISALS

Motion Favoring It Withdrawn by Opposition in British House of Commons

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A motion in the House of Commons yesterday calling for a public inquiry in regard to reprisals in Ireland was withdrawn after a heated debate. The Government, which firmly resisted the demand, had a large majority at the time of the withdrawal.

The debate resolved itself into a duel between the opposition and the Government, the former demanding and the latter resisting the demand for an independent inquiry into the recent reprisals.

RED CROSS WORK

Financial Statement Just Issued Shows Large Sum of Money Was Raised.

A statement printed in today's paper shows what a wonderful lot of work was done by the local branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society in this city during war days. Over forty thousand dollars was raised in one way or another and much work was done by the women in addition to the raising of the cash.

The society is still in existence, although no work is being done just now in connection with it.

DAILY EDITION,  Thursday, Oct. 24, 1920.

Voice of the People
 Has Been Plainly Heard.
 The people have decided that they want the Government to dispense liquor without the formality of a doctor's prescription.
 As we live in a democratic country where the will of the majority is supreme, we shall play the game and wait our turn. We do not believe that in this case the voice of the people is the voice of God, but rather think it the prompting of the Devil. However, the people have spoken and there is nothing to do but submit gracefully. At any rate we can give the new method a good trial.
 Possibly the prohibitionists were all wrong. If they were we believe they will admit it. If, however, the government sale system proves a failure we shall hope to shut the liquor door tight and nail it up with spikes that cannot be drawn.

Clean Election
 Well Fought.
 It was a clean election. It was fought in a good spirit. There were no petty animosities. Members of the opposing factions were good friends throughout and will continue to be so. There was no mud slinging or nasty personalities. Both sides conducted a gentlemanly campaign and there is no bad taste in the mouth on the morning after.
 That is the way to fight all election campaigns. If we are to develop a democracy we have to learn to take defeat as well as victory. One side has to lose every time.

Arrangements Were Well Carried Out.
 Returning Officer Mortimer is to be congratulated on the manner in which he carried out all the arrangements. Most of the deputy returning officers and poll clerks were returned soldiers and they all did excellent work. Scrutineers were provided by either side but their work was light.

One interesting feature of the election was the success of the new method of checking personation. Every voter had to sign his or her name in a book and this signature was compared with the original on the application form. While looking these up causes some little delay, there were enough boxes to prevent long delays. The only weak spot was in taking the affidavits of the non-residents. There were a large number of those, so many that it was often difficult to take care of them. However all had an opportunity to vote and the arrangements on the whole were excellent.

The new method of voting was designed by the Provincial Government to avoid the dangers of personation, such as have scandalized past elections. It seems to have been quite effective.

But One Reason For Opinion Expressed.
 Someone asks how we account for the vote that was taken yesterday. The only way to account for it is that the people wanted it that way. There were no unusual reasons. It was a swing of the pendulum and the same pendulum will swing the other way later. It is a matter of action and reaction. This time it is reaction, but thank heaven the action that will follow is likely to be stronger than the reaction. That is the way of the people.
 Prohibition sentiment was as strong in Prince Rupert as almost anywhere in the province. The few dry spots could be counted on the fingers of one hand and doubtless were due to local influences. Public opinion is undoubtedly for a change of method of control just now.

Present Act in Force Until Repealed.
 At the next session of the Legislature it will be the duty of the Legislature to repeal the Prohibition Act and to put in its place a measure providing for the sale of liquor in Government stores under such restrictions as they may see fit. Until that time the present act remains in force.

Give Today for The Navy League.
 Soon there is to be a campaign on for the Navy League, the organization that is fathering the Boys' Naval Brigade in this city. Everyone should give freely for so worthy an object. We are a seafaring town and can perhaps appreciate better than any other place what the navy means and what it means to us to have a merchant marine. Anything that has to do with the use of the sea as a means of transport should appeal to us. Let us all encourage this organization that is asking for our money.

THAT the country is gone wet.
 Who could expect anything else
 on a day like yesterday.
 THAT, let us sing together—
 We love our nice bottle,
 It keeps us so warm,
 And if you don't touch it
 'Twill do you no harm.
 THAT everyone will soon be able to get a sealed package securely wrapped.
 THAT thank heaven there will be no more flu now.
 THAT it is in order for everyone to talk about the waning influence of the press.
 THAT it was bad enough to be beaten, but to lose that bet, Ouch!
 THAT owing to the fact that a lot of women read this column, it is impossible to express in suitable language what the Man in

 THAT the reason for sending poor children to the university is that they may become rich by de-

 THAT since the price of rubber has dropped the cost of board should go down unless profiteering
 in steaks continues.
 THAT there was a drop in

 THAT someone suggests there was a landslide yesterday.
 THAT they are wrong. It was

 Baldwin and Captain Groves re-yesterday morning after having been on a pleasant hunting trip

 for they did not break the game laws in the country where the deer come down to the shore in herds and the ducks vie with each other for air space. The hunters did not even get a clam in that muddy zone and came back this morning with tales of wonderful mountain scenery and guns with crooked barrels, but all they got was wet.

POULTRY MUSTARD

During the moulting period the egg production is practically nil. Why not change this condition? ONE TEASPOONFUL of

LILLY GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE

Man Convicted of Murdering Woodworth on Gas Boat goes to McNeil's Island

Weeping copiously but silently, E. C. Lilly appeared before Judge Robert W. Jennings in the District Court and was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor at McNeil's Island for the murder of Billy Woodworth on August 25 last, for which crime he was recently convicted, says the Juneau Empire.

Lilly was brought into the courtroom before Judge Jennings ascended the bench. He was seated with his attorney J. B. Marshall apparently composed, showing little or no sign of agitation.

Immediately on the opening of court, Judge Jennings summoned the prisoner before the bar, the latter being accompanied by Mr. Marshall. Being asked by the court if either had anything to say before sentence should be passed, both said no, Lilly's response being so low as to be almost inaudible and accompanied by a negative shaking of the head.

Sentence Imposed

Thereupon Judge Jennings imposed the sentence as follows:

"I do not know that there is anything that could be said. The jury found you guilty of murder in the first degree, without capital punishment, and the law fixes the punishment and the court has no discretion in the matter. It is not the court who is sentencing you so much as the law itself which sentences you. You were indicted by the Grand Jury, tried under the law of the land, had an attorney of your own choosing to defend you and a fair and impartial jury to pass upon your case. That jury found you guilty and the court has nothing to do but to do what the law says.

"It is the judgment of the court that you are guilty and it is the sentence of the court, under the law, that you be confined in the penitentiary at McNeil's Island, at hard labor, for the term of your natural life."

Lilly Breaks Down

As the court spoke, slowly and distinctly, tears formed in Lilly's eyes and began to flow in streams down his cheeks as he nervously shifted his weight from one foot to the other and made ineffectual efforts to control his emotion, wiping away the tears with a fresh white handkerchief. As soon as the court concluded, Lilly was led from the room by deputy U. S. marshals, his eyes dimmed and reddened. He was immediately taken to cell where he will remain until transferred to McNeil's Island.

COAL STRIKE NEGOTIATIONS

Premier Willing to Examine Any Proposal; Transport Men Restive

LONDON, October 20.—The parliamentary debate on the coal strike makes a settlement likely. Premier Lloyd George especially emphasized that no question of "amoral" proposals would prevent the Government from honestly, fearlessly and sincerely examining any project promising a settlement, having at the same time due regard to the public interest. He said that he favored increased wages if the output were increased.

At a cabinet discussion the labor men considered a proposal of William Brace, labor leader, that two shillings wage advance be granted until a permanent wage board was established.

It is considered probable that negotiations will be resumed. The transport men are growing restive, orders having been issued to their unions throughout the country to have the strike organization ready.

J. H. Thomas announced that seventeen days ago a special meeting of the railways delegation received only one vote not to join the strike.

GOVERNMENT BOOK IS OUT

"Skeena Land-Recording Division," by J. Gordon Smith, Just Received in City

The illustrated booklet, "The Skeena Land Recording Division," issued under the direction of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, member for Prince Rupert and minister of lands, has just been received in Prince Rupert and everyone who has seen it expresses pleasure with the value that the publication will have as a source of information and advertising. It consists of 47 pages and is replete with many fresh photographs which were taken during the past summer. Although published more with the idea of bringing the wealth of natural resources to the public eye the work mentions Prince Rupert freely. It is treated as the headquarters town and its industries are well described. The city is also well represented in pictures in the book.

Personal Work

The material for this publication was gathered during the spring and summer by J. Gordon Smith, who was here in May and June. Mr. Smith is connected with the publicity department of the Lands Office and is a writer of some experience, having done considerable work in the city of Victoria. He visited all the places he describes and took a large majority of the photographs which have been used to illustrate the work. Besides the general descriptive articles and the photos there is a plenitude of statistical figures which add to the value of the book as a refer-

Ships that Pass in the Night

Foreign Trade is Essential to Domestic Prosperity.

Else—stagnation at home. New routes must be opened, Canadian Trade Lines must be established and maintained. With ships, the markets of the world are open to Canadians. Canada produces a surplus of necessities. Commercial supremacy means—the ability to carry where and when required, to sell without interference, and Demands the Freedom of the Seas.

By willingness and ability to provide ships, Canada this year has drawn the West Indies closer to herself and to the Empire. She can make preferential trade agreements with other peoples under the British Flag without arousing international complications.

The trade of 45,000,000 people in British Tropical Africa is waiting for us to-day.

Trade Follows the Flag.

The very existence of the Empire proves it. But to secure trade there must be ships and men with adventurous spirit to man them—and men with vision to seek out markets.

The Navy League advocates a Merchant Marine, officered and manned by Canadians trading from Canadian ports.

Politics have no place in this work. It promotes a national ideal. Commercial and agricultural prosperity depend upon it.

Unless we develop Overseas Trade, we may become mere hewers of wood and drawers of water for other nations.

To carry on this work costs Money. The money must come from the Public.

ence. Varied Industries The mining and pulp industries have received a good deal of attention and Anyox, Alice Arm, Stewart, Swanson Bay and Ocean Falls have been generously dealt with by the author. Mr. Smith spent some time in each of these places and covered the ground first hand. Not only are the settlements touched on, but the tributary valleys and hills have been covered from the same personal observation. The publication besides presenting a wealth of authentic information gives much reading of great interest to people here and in all corners of the earth.
