BOLSHEVIKI DEFEAT WRANGELL'S ARMY IN CRIMEA

PRINCE RUPERT WRECK INQUIRY IS PROCEEDING IN VANCOUVER TODAY

GENERAL WRANGELL'S ARMY IS CLEAN WIPED OUT AND NUMBER OF GENERALS COMMIT SUICIDE

LONDON, November 15.—The inevitable has occurred. General Wrangell and the anti-Bolshevik army in the Crimea have been wiped out and a number of generals are reported to have committed suicide. The troops are fleeing in confusion and destroyers are evacuating the civilians.

A blockade of the Black Sea coast has been declared and British destroyers are patrolling with a view to the prevention of Bolshevik communications with Turkey.

PARIS, November 15.—It is reported that the Reds have taken Sebastopol and have complete control of the Crimean peninsula. General Wrangell is seeking General Townshend's assistance.

MANY PERSONS ARE LEAVING STEWART

Prince Albert Brought Out Big Passenger List on Saturday.

There was a big crowd of outgoing Stewartites arriving on the Prince Albert on Saturday from the Portland canal mining camp. Some went south on yesterday's steamers but the most of them are spending a few days in the city. Among those in town are O. B. Bush, Pat Daly, J. G. Campbell, Horner Fickling, Mrs. W. B. George, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chapin, and W. J. Moberley, of Stewart, and Mrs. Wm. Gray, Mrs. Taborski, D. Lindeberg, A. Lindeberg, Mrs. Horland and Mrs. Theresa Edblad, of Hyder. Among those who continued south were D. B. Morkill, James Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sunderlin.

Captain C. M. Formby and M. M. Stephens left on Saturday night by launch for Ocean Falls and other points to the south on an electioneering tour.

P. Lorenzen left on the Princess Royal last evening for Vancouver.

Archie Watt arrived last evening from Prince George.

that the matter was not in his hands. He would do his best, however, to secure a satisfactory adjustment.

Friday's Meeting

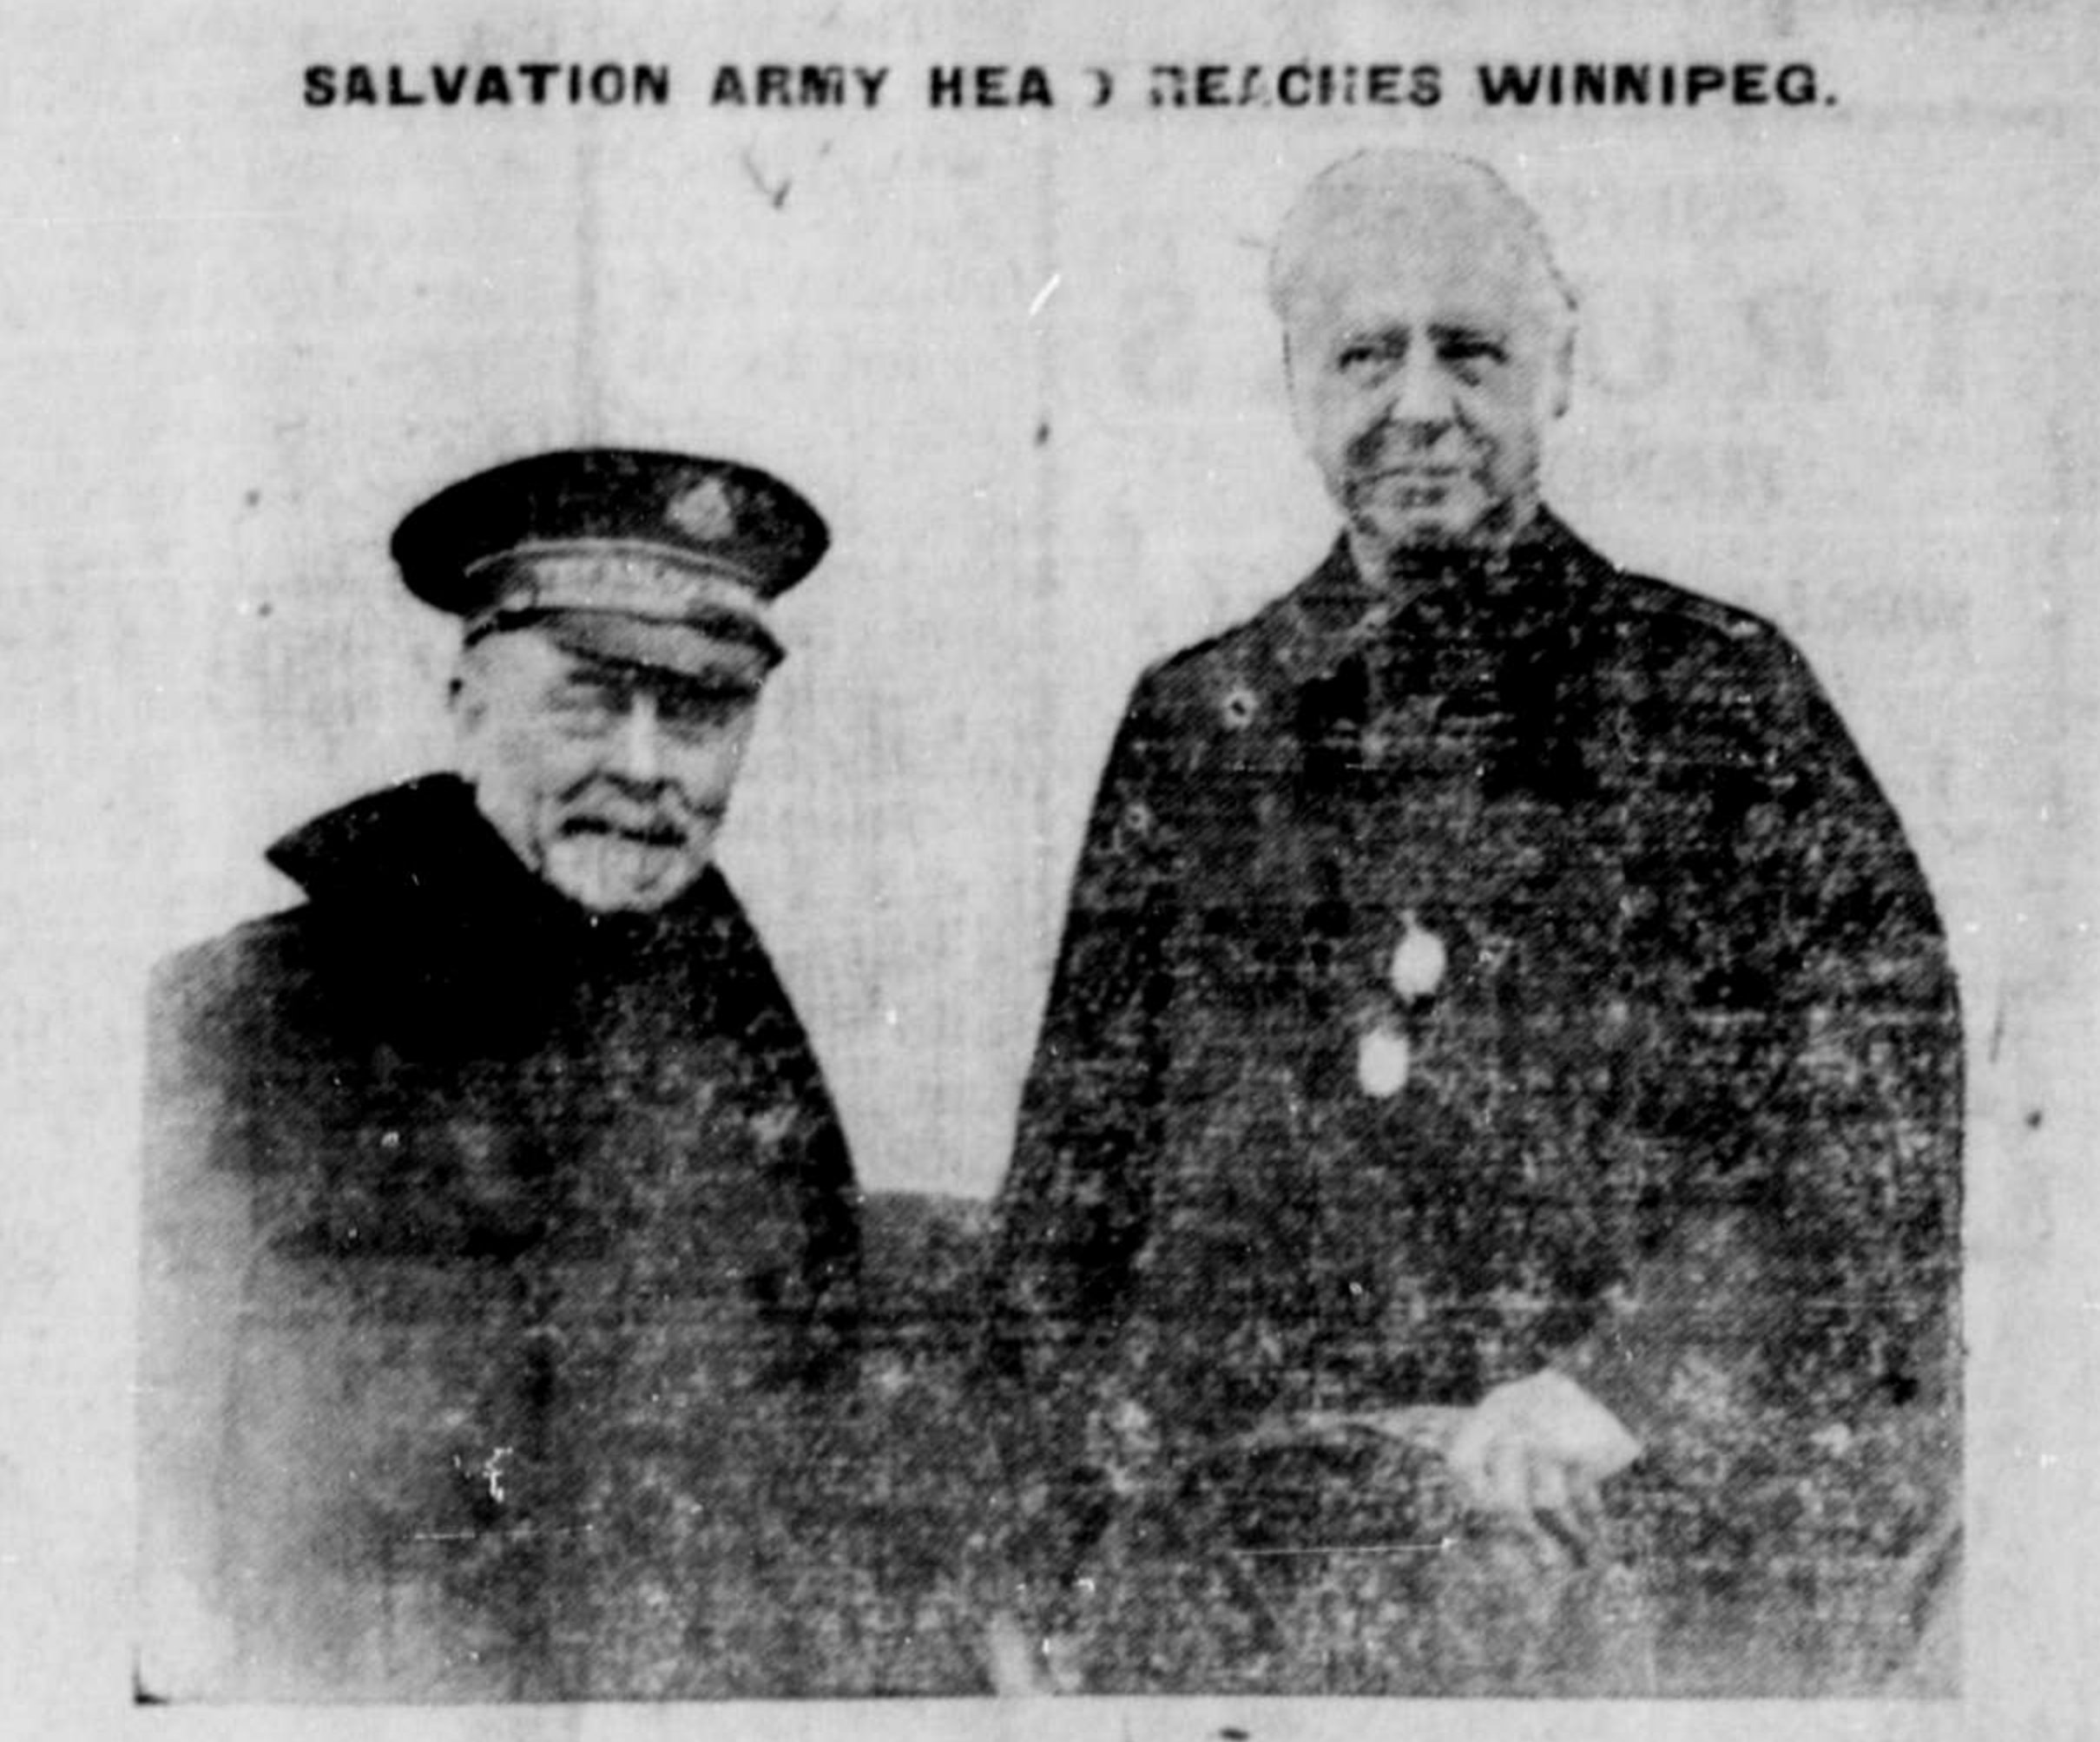

On Friday night there was another meeting and it was decided to wire C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, W. A. Found, deputy minister, and Col. C. W. Peck, protesting against the boat being taken south. This was backed by another emphatic telegram sent by T. D. Pattullo.

The manner in which specifications were issued for the repair of the boat also came in for a great deal of criticism. They are claimed to be very haphazard and indefinite. An unscrupulous company getting the contract could readily put in shoddy work, for there is very little specification as to quantity or quality of materials to be used. Following are the official specifications for the job:

Specifications

"Winch over hauled and repaired, electric light rewired and new switchboard, bridge timbers repaired amidships, new smoke stack casing, new tube for rudder post, flooring for galley, new canvass for top deck, take out garbage streak to clear bilge water, general overhaul to engine, rehabilitating main bearings, and lining up shaft, one new toilet forward, lead wells for pilot house windows, new galvanized water drinking tank, galley range repaired, main steam pipe raised 6 ft. 6 ins., pipe and flanges 8 ins., extra heavy wrought iron pipe, new set rubber valves for circulating pump 1/2 in. by 6 ins., fuel oil pump rods trued up, rings and plunger renewed."

When the specifications were submitted to the tradespeople they were accompanied by a letter asking that the bidder inspect the boat before November 13. It is understood that the department wanted them to do this so that the boat could be taken south before the tenders were opened.

WRECK INQUIRY AT VANCOUVER OPENS

Capt. McKenzie of the Prince Rupert Giv's Evidence regarding Fog, Sound Waves and Echoes Time Ship Went Ashore

VANCOUVER, November 15.—Wreck Commissioner J. D. McPherson this morning opened an inquiry into the wreck of the steamer Prince Rupert at Swanson Bay on September 29. Capt. Nicholson and a number of other shipping men were present.

The witnesses included Capt. McKenzie, First Officer Rod McKenzie, Third Officer Kiscock, Chief Engineer Cochrane, J. Bakin, a lookout man, and Burke, a watchman.

The evidence of Capt. McKenzie and others showed that the fog was thick and the overlapping of the sound waves was deceptive. Echoes did not sound true. These were contributing factors in the running of the boat ashore.

Captain McKenzie in his evidence said that the vessel had been going at full speed, but when she struck was making only about four miles an hour.

Bankruptcy Proceedings have been Stayed Awaiting Reply from Ottawa Regarding Guaranteeing of Local Accounts by Government

VANCOUVER, November 15.—"A Prince Rupert despatch saying that Newman Erb had agreed to pay one third of the claims is misleading," said Manager Dinning of the Credit Men's Association to a reporter here when shown the despatch. Mr. Dinning says Mr. Erb is willing to pay all claims of $100 and under in full at once and one third of the other claims when the ninth instalment is paid by the Government. The remaining third when the tenth instalment is paid.

Local creditors are pleased with the offer. They met here on Saturday and heard Erb's offer and then wired L. W. Patmore of Prince Rupert urging that no steps be taken at present to continue the bankruptcy proceedings and urged that some one representing the Prince Rupert creditors come to Vancouver to discuss the matter.

A wire was received on Sunday from Prince Rupert saying that bankruptcy proceedings would be delayed, but the sheriff would remain in charge. Local creditors are meeting again today.

Must Not Pay Canvassers or Other Election Help

Consternation in Vancouver when discovery was made and S.O.S. calls sent out at once for Volunteers

VANCOUVER, November 15.—Discovery that in the new election act payment of canvassers and other election workers was forbidden has caused consternation here. Both parties had hundreds enlisted and these have been notified that it will be impossible to retain them.

S. O. S. calls have been sent out for volunteers to take their places. The Elections Act limits the expenses of candidates to advertising, hall rents, transportation within the riding, maintenance of committee rooms and the candidate's personal expenses.

ROSS AND VERINO HAVE BEEN SENT UP FOR TRIAL

Two Men Charged With Having Stolen Goods in Possession Appear for Preliminary Hearing.

Joe Verino and Harry Ross were both committed for trial by Magistrate McMullin this morning on a charge of having stolen goods knowingly in their possession. This is as a result of the search made at the refuge on Digby Island where Ross went when he escaped recently from the city jail. The goods that were stolen from the cemetery three months ago were discovered in the shack and the charge then laid. Among the articles are a rifle, a shotgun and revolver.

Those giving testimony this morning were H. Smith, caretaker of the cemetery; Sergeant Adams, Constables Campbell and Aekroyd. They told of the events following the robbery and leading up to the present charge.

F. S. Walton arrived on last night's train from Hazelton.

Henry Seaton, an Oolisa Lake rancher, is spending a few days in the city, having arrived last night.

NEW GRANDSTAND AT ATHLETIC CLUB HALL

Provision Made for Good Seating During the Basketball Matches.

A fine grandstand has been completed by the members of the Athletic Association in the big hall on Acropolis Hill. It will seat over one hundred spectators comfortably and should be a great convenience during the basketball matches which commence tomorrow night when three games are scheduled to be played. This, in addition to the sidelines, will provide for a good many to watch the play. Should the attendance warrant it, the size of the grandstand will be increased.

Local Tradespeople Now Up in Arms

Voice Their Protest to Authorities over Taking Patrol Boat South --Proceeding Unnecessary and Unbusinesslike

In the protest to the taking of the Dominion Government fisheries patrol boat south for her winter lay up and repairs the following emphatic telegram was sent on Saturday night by members of the trade in this city to Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and fisheries: W. A. Found, deputy minister, and Col. C. W. Peck, M. P.:

"Referring to your night letter of the 10th inst. to the Board of Trade we, the undersigned business firms who have been asked to tender on the repairs to the Marfish, emphatically protest against the boat being taken from this, her home port, to winter at New Westminster, an entirely unnecessary proceeding and expensive.

We consider the reasons given for the taking of the boat to West- Electric Co., Pattinson, Ling, master are unbusinesslike and Ltd., Ward Electric Co., Akerberg, Thomson Co., Atlas Boiler Works, Smith & Mallett, Steen & Long-will, N. McLean, W. R. Love, Imperial Machine Shop, H. A. Le-tourneau, H. D. W. Machine Shop, and Seal Cove Marine Ways. The Prince Rupert Dry Dock and engineering Co. were also represented in the protest.

Local Views

Local tradespeople have been making a strenuous effort to keep the Marfish here for her annual repairs. "It has been intimated that the vessel is to be taken to New Westminster so that she may be kept for the winter in fresh water and the intention, it is reported, is to take the boat south within a few days. The local people object particularly to the taking of the boat away before the tenders for her repairs are opened, for it would be an expensive operation taking the boat south and then bringing her back for repairs. They think that once the boat got south, the job would be let in the south anyway and unfairness towards local tradespeople is alleged. It is considered that there is no excuse for the taking of the vessel away at all. As far as fresh water anchorage is concerned that could be just as easily done in the Skeena River near Port Essington.

STOLEN GUNS ARE RECOVERED

Warden Bailey Finds Them Hidden Close to Place from Which They were Taken.

Warden Bailey yesterday recovered the guns recently stolen from Howe & McNulty's store on Second Ave. They were hidden about thirty feet from where they had been stolen, beneath the roof of a shed at the rear of the Kaizen and Hardware Store.

Some boys were playing there yesterday and one of them was hurt. Warden Bailey spoke kindly to the lad and soon afterwards the boy came and told him there was a rifle hidden under the roof. A red label had been hanging from a 303 Savage and this had attracted the attention of the lad. In addition to this rifle there was a .22 high-power Savage, two army rifles and a double-barrelled shotgun.

Naturally Mr. McNulty is glad to have the guns back.

Labor Just as Bad As the Capitalists.

One of the speakers at the Labor meeting on Saturday night was anything but fair in dealing with the Liberal program of labor reforms which have been carried out during the last three or four years. Absolutely no credit was given for any effort to improve things. It was claimed that the Government was impelled only by the pressure of public opinion and every good thing done was made light of.

If a capitalistic newspaper had made similar remarks about a Socialist candidate, it would have been pointed to as another example of the unfairness of capitalism toward the working class. As a matter of fact human nature is just the same whether it wears overalls or swallowtail evening clothes. Both get so enthused with their own cause that they fail to recognize any merit in the opponent. Mention is made of this particularly because it is the extreme labor party that is always calling down others for doing just what was so grossly done on Saturday night by Mr. Ellis.

Public Opinion is Powerful Factor.

Under a democratic system of government, public opinion is the guiding factor. The Liberal party recognizes this and tries to carry out the wishes of the people as expressed at the polls. It may not always succeed in everything, but it makes a very good attempt and carries into legislation the wishes of the majority.

Socialists are trying to reform public opinion so as to secure a new system, an unworkable system, a system of which they know nothing themselves except in theory. Mr. Burroughs is the exponent of that system. He is enthused with his subject and apparently sees the millennium of Socialism right ahead.

Twenty years ago there were enthusiasts preaching the same doctrine in the same way, and almost everyone of them had abandoned the scheme since as unworkable. It is a beautiful conception but takes no account of the frailties of human nature. It may be possible some day but if it is, it will be generations ahead. In the meantime much can be done in the way of bringing about a better condition of affairs. This is the Liberal way. Liberalism is evolutionary, whereas Socialism as expounded by Mr. Burroughs is revolutionary. The first is permanent in its effects and the second is not. No condition brought into being without the backing of public opinion and a long period of education can succeed.

Food, Clothes And Shelter.

Mr. Burroughs says all that working men get today is food, clothes and shelter. That is very nearly true of everyone in the world. These are the basic needs. Add to them the time and ability to study, sufficient recreation and there is an ideal condition. There are a few who get more efficient methods of transportation than others. There are some who economize on food, clothing and shelter and spend their money in other ways, and they are often classed as capitalists, just because they do that. Loggers come here from the islands and immediately proceed to "blow in" their earnings. Because they do this they are members of the working class. Others earning much less money prefer to invest it in a home or put by enough until they can purchase an automobile. They immediately become capitalists and are opposed by the spendthrifts who call themselves revolutionary Socialists. This is just one phase of this big question, but it is important. There are very few people in Prince Rupert who are not workers. Most of those who are not hard workers belong to the "working class."

LORD MAYOR'S SHOW IS DULL

Procession This Year Lacked Much of Pageantry of Former Years.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The historic procession of the newly-elected lord mayor of London, participated in by the dignitaries of the municipal corporation, wended its way through the streets of the metropolis, following the formal induction of Alderman James Roll into the office.

The ceremony lacked much of the customary pageantry, which had been curtailed in the plans for the ceremonial owing to conditions brought about by the recent coal strike. Nevertheless thousands of people crowded the streets to watch the parade.

The procession started from the Guildhall with the lord mayor occupying the antiquated, gilded coach of state, attended by gorgeously liveried servants and preceded by uniformed trumpeters.
Other carriages contained the retiring lord mayor, Sir Edward E. Cooper, the sheriffs, aldermen and other city officials. The procession was interspersed with bands and detachments of troops.

The line of march took the procession past the ancient Tower of London, the Nelson Monument and St. Paul's Cathedral to the law courts where the customary official reception by the judges was held. After this the marchers returned to the Guildhall and dispersed. At night the customary banquet was held at the Guildhall where, in accordance with time-honored usage, the cabinet ministers were the chief guests.
Premier Lloyd George delivered an address, following precedent by using the occasion to make important ministerial statements.

The Man in the Moon

SAYS—

THAT the difficulty with a Scotchman is he never seems to see a joke unless it's there.

THAT there are a lot of people looking for jobs. At least three are after the one held by the minister of lands.

THAT at last the coal barons are coming into the limelight again. Life will be worth living pretty soon if this develops. An election without a coal baron would be a tame affair.

THAT if the city were to acquire a wharf and the coal barons were to go out of business, what in the world would the independent Newton candidate have to campaign on?

THAT if we only knew as much about life as the telephone operators, living would be worth while.

THAT it pays to be nice to everyone but especially to a hella girl.

THAT among the things that don't get you anywhere is trying to flirt with the telephone operator when she is on duty—when she is on duty, mind—or flying off the handle if she does not answer promptly.

THAT if you want to be on the right line, speak promptly and clearly. The girl at the other end is doing her best.

THAT if you want to stand in well at Central, go up to the Athletic Hall and root for the Telephone basketball team on the opening night.

THAT a man is like a motorboat. He gets out of kilter just when you are expecting most from him.

THAT humor is the salt of life, which accounts for the salty flavor of things since the election campaign commenced.

THAT when a little man tries to attract attention he has to abuse everybody. See election campaign material of the midgets.

THAT the latest disease is "candiditis." It afflicts some people in such a way as to make them want to run for office on every possible occasion. The person so afflicted becomes an office seeker.

THAT "let the office seek the man," once was a good motto.
But it seems to be a bit old-fashioned.

IF YOU HAVE Skin Trouble

DOES your skin get rough, rashy, and irritable? Are you troubled with outbreaks of pimples and blotches? If so, Zam-Buk will soothe your skin and clear away these annoying disfigurements. If afflicted with more obstinate troubles like dry or weeping eczema, ulceration, abscesses, ringworm or poisoned sores, Zam-Buk alone ensures speedy and thorough cure.
Zam-Buk's soothing, healing and germicidal powers are derived from a sci-

Zam-Buk has revolutionized the treatment of skin troubles. Where ordinary coarse ointments act merely on the surface, Zam-Buk's refined herbal juices penetrate to the underlying tissues, destroying disease at its very root.
For quick, clean healing of everyday cuts, burns, scalds and wounds, or for ridging skinoreas of eruptions and sores Zam-Buk is invaluable.

MEMORIAL TO FALLEN HEROES

Service at Presbyterian Hall in Honour of the Great Sacrifices.

PROPOSES NEW CHURCH BE IN THEIR MEMORY

There was a memorial service last night at the Presbyterian Church hall in commemoration of the sacrifices of the sixteen men of the congregation who fell in the war overseas and of the 150 men who went to fight. In the course of his sermon the pastor, Rev. Dr. Grant, suggested that when they build the new church in the near future it should be known as the Memorial Church and in it should be a tablet to those who served their country.

Before the sermon the whole congregation stood while the names of the sixteen men were read and continued to stand while Miss Edmunds played the Funeral March. The names were:

Dr. Grant alluded in his address to the tendency to forget and urged on his congregation that they should not fail to remember the sacrifices that had been made for us. He also urged the need of better provision for the widows, especially those with children, and for those who were handicapped as a result of having fought for us. In a rich land like this he said there was no reason why all should not be well provided for. France was caring for her immense legacy of widows and orphans and if they could do surely we should not be backward. It would be a standing disgrace if any boys or girls were handicapped in the battle of life because their fathers did their duty.

The well known motor ship Tecu which has been used by the Taylor Mining Co. in taking supplies to Alice Arm and bringing ore out has been sold by that company to the B.C. Cement Co., who will use her in the cement trade. The Tecu, which was built by the Taylor Engineering Co., was a familiar craft in Prince Rupert harbor.

Captain Park, who was formerly master of the steamer Venture and is appointed to the bridge of the new Goughian steamer City of Victoria and in the meantime is one of the nautical assessors in the Prince Rupert inquiry starting today at Vancouver, was well-known in Prince Rupert in his former capacity as master of the Venture. He is a capable mariner and many people will be glad to hear of the more responsible position he has accepted.

The Country Store

IN the evening, when the day's work is done, men like to stroll over to the village store to discuss the war, politics, or whatever may be of local interest.

It is under these circumstances that the health of the family is referred to and experiences are interchanged in regard to medicines that have proven particularly effective.

After Dr. Chase had introduced his medicines to the druggists he found that many who wrote to him for treatment lived many miles from doctor or druggist, and had to depend on the country store for their medicines. Thus it came about that Dr. Chase's medicines were placed in general stores, and you can now obtain them wherever medicines are sold.

Instead of trying to imagine what the man in the picture is saying about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, we shall publish a letter from Mr. James Carr, who attributes his good health and that of his large family to the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

18 Miles From Drug Store.

Mr. James Carr, Maynooth, Ont., writes: "About nineteen years ago I received an envelope containing two of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I was doctoring at the time with two doctors and, as they did me no good, I used the pills, and by the time I had finished one box I was cured of the pain in the back and shoulders.

"We have great confidence in Dr. Chase's medicines. I have a family of ten children and have never had a doctor in the house for any of them. We live eighteen miles from a drug store, and find that these pills cure nearly all the ordinary ills by regulating the liver, kidneys and bowels. That we are all well and sound I attribute to their use, and I have recommended them to hundreds and given away many a box because I believe there is no medicine so good."

After long experience with Dr. Chase's Medicines we have found that people who try them are soon convinced of their exceptional merits.

We have published thousands of letters to give you an idea of the benefits others have obtained by their use, but if you are still skeptical we shall be glad to send you our

Europe's Triangle of Suffering

At the earnest request of the Canadian Red Cross, Herbert Hoover, Director-General of Relief for Europe on behalf of the Allied Nations, came to Canada to launch the appeal on behalf of the British Empire War Relief Fund. That fund is being raised throughout the British Empire to combat disease and distress in Europe. The Canadian Red Cross through all its provincial divisions will make the appeal in Armistice week.

Mr. Hoover, who is recognized as the best authority in the world upon European conditions, spoke with the quiet conviction of one whose message was sufficient in itself. In commencing he said he felt some embarrassment lest his presence in Canada might be misinterpreted as urging the Canadian people to further sacrifice. He said he realized that the sacrifice of the Canadian people, individual by individual, had been far in excess of his own people, but he said that he knew that the charity of the Canadian heart was inexhaustible, and he felt there would be no resentment against his coming to discuss with them the problem that confronts the western hemisphere towards the east.

The Greatest Problem

"To me," Mr. Hoover said, "the greatest problem of the human heart in the world today is this problem of a myriad of waifs and orphan hungry children through Eastern and Central Europe. The slaughter of fifteen million men could not but have left millions of helpless hungry children in its track, and upon their well-being

$3.00 Saves a Child

"We have found by experience that the cost of caring for a waif child is approximately $3.00 a month; that of the supplies, that are required by imports about $1.00 is needed, and therefore the dollar that we provide together with local support practically preserves the life of one child. It is not much of a sum. — $1.00 per month per child — and although the calls may be very considerable upon your people and upon ours, we still have something after we have cared for our children and our neighbor's children.

A World Problem

"Our present problem over the forthcoming winter appears to be about 3,500,000 to 4,000,000 children. We feel that if we could find among all the nations $1,000,000 per month, we could solve this problem. Surely it is not much for a whole world to find. It is a heavy burden for charity, but it is so appealing in its necessity that I have no doubt that charity will find it. These children are the obligation of every man and woman in the Western Hemisphere, for we have suffered less, but beyond this they are a charge on the heart of the entire world. If we are to preserve the foundations for the future stability of Europe, if we are to keep open the love for humanity, our duty is clear before us."

Are husbands always happy? Husbands enjoy all the comforts of a good home and incidentally learn to take as well as to give in little family quarrels. UNDER THE OLIVER GOVERNMENT

British Columbia Leads All Provinces in Legislation for the Benefit of Returned Soldiers

WHILE the care of returned soldiers is primarily the business of the Dominion Government, the Liberal administration of British Columbia has done more than that of any other Province in the Dominion to assist in the settlement of the problems incident to their return to civil life. The best proof of this is in the fact that veterans, generally, are satisfied with the work done by the present administration.

Some Things the Liberal Government Administration has done to assist the return of the soldier to civil life and independence are:—

It reorganized the Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission, which has spent $120,000 in the past four years in providing relief, besides helping with advances in war service gratuities to 1,335 men.

Prepared and submitted the Soldier Housing Scheme to the Government at Ottawa. Under the Better Housing Act, secured $1,351,521.59 from the Federal Government as loans to soldiers for the erection of homes, besides supplying free homesites on Government lands.

Exempted pensions of returned men from taxation. Also exempted soldiers' pre-emptions from taxation for five years. Extended their ten per cent. discount on unpaid taxes from August, 1914, to March, 1920.

Withheld from tax sale lands of soldiers and their dependents. The 6 per cent. interest on delinquent taxes made non-applicable to soldiers.

Relieved all disabled men from poll tax.

Gave preference to returned men for Civil Service positions.

Outfitted and paid expenses for returned men to engage in prospecting.

Through its Department of Industries, loaned over one million dollars to assist enterprises on behalf of returned soldiers, and so helped to create employment for approximately 1,200 persons.

Under the Soldiers' Land Act, reserved large areas exclusively for returned men who wish to go farming. Conveyed Provincial land to the Dominion Government, free of cost, for soldier settlement. Gave to soldiers purchasing land through the Land Settlement Board a rebate of $500 on the purchase price of land.

Assisted the "Empress of Asia" scheme for a community settlement, watching over the progress of men, and arranging for financing them until the settlement became self-supporting.

Furthering the Asia scheme, supervised financed the soldier settlement schemes at Mer and Creston, on which over 200 soldier farmers now settled.

Soldiers holding special timber licences were relieved from payment of any additional sums beyond failure to renew annual fees.

Revised the lapsed water records held by soldiers and gave power to the Water Board to extend the for completion of work required to put water in dyking taxes.

By the University Act, 1919, empowered grant of a loan of $500,000 for co-operating with the Dominion Government for buildings and equipment vocational training of returned soldiers.

Exempted returned soldiers for payment of the fees at the University.

Continued Soldiers' Free Miners' Certificates out charge to March 31st, 1921, and exempted returned men from doing record work.

Obviously it is in the interests of all returned men to assist in returning this Liberal administration with a substantial working majority in order that it may continue its good work in the interests of British Columbia veterans.

Burrough Addresses Meeting Saturday

Outlines his position as Revolutionary Socialist; believes nothing but overthrow of present system will avail workers

"I stand for the abolition of the wage system. The whole system is on its last legs. The coming panic will likely be the last blow the system will get. My main object is not to get elected, but if I am elected it will be my duty to do the best I can for the workers. At election times the attention of the workers is turned toward government, and it is a good time to draw their attention to the evils of the present system." That is from the address of J. H. Burrough, the labor candidate, who spoke at a meeting in McIntyre Hall Saturday night. Jack Kavanagh did not arrive as the steamer was late, but it is announced he will speak tonight. W. E. Denning presided and the other speaker was E. W. Ellis.

Mr. Burrough in opening expressed the opinion that reforms were useless to raise the condition of the working class. He stood for the Socialist party's revolutionary platform. While he stood for the eight-hour day, he realized that it had worked harm in some ways by causing the discarding of the old and slower workers. There was no solution for this problem under capitalism. Some people were alarmed at the idea of Revolutionary Socialism, but he pointed to the fact that Winnipeg and Vancouver were hotbeds of Socialism and yet the people there were law-abiding and well behaved. The revolutionary Socialist was a student. In his investigations he found that the current histories were false. History was made by the man in overalls.

Wage Slaves.

Mr. Burrough then outlined the evolution of capitalism and the condition of the workers. He told of the slave days when the slaves were given food, clothes and shelter in order that they might be capable of working. This was followed by serfdom and later by the present wage slave system under which the workers still got just enough to provide food, shelter and clothes, but with this difference, that under the present system the wage slave was fed only as long as his masters had use for him.

The speaker went on to say that science had done wonderful things but what benefit was it to the workers under the present system. The majority of the people were propertyless. They were hewers of wood and drawers of water. Thousands of men got nothing but casual employment. The Socialist plan was that the workers should control and own the machinery of production and the political power of the state, which today was needed by the owning class. At every election capitalists poured out money on all sides in order to retain this political power in their own hands and thus control the working class by means of the police and the military. The educational system too was drafted by and taught things in the interests of the governing class. Any teacher or professor that kicked over the traces did not last long in his position. The woods were full of men and women who had been dismissed and hounded out of their positions.

The best educated people today were the members of the working class, continued the speaker. All great works were carried out by them. They were educated in their masters' business. Free education had not been introduced for the benefit of the workers but for the purpose of making the slaves more efficient. These had learned to read and thus had secured a chance to compare.

The Modern Socialist movement pointed to the fact that if there was to be progress, the ownership of the machinery of production must be in the hands of the workers. At present the capitalist owns the product and the slave gets a living wage.

The Candidates.

Pointing to the election in Prince Rupert, Mr. Burrough mentioned that there were four candidates in the field. Two of these represented the old political parties and one was an independent who represented no one. He was the labor candidate. When he was nominated the other candidates who had been before the convention had promised to work for the one who was chosen. He did not do this as he could not work for the election of any man who was not in favor of Revolutionary Socialism. The Conservatives represented big capital, and the Liberals small capital, but they both wanted to turn the wheels back. The Liberals wanted equality, fraternity and free competition. There could be none of these. There was no basic difference between the old parties. All stood for profit and the military system. "I stand for the abolition of the wage system," he declared.

Mr. Ellis Speaks.

E. W. Ellis, the first speaker, took the program of labor legislation as published in the Daily News and made light of the changes that had been made, claiming that it was the pressure of public opinion that made them carry out these. He thought the House at Victoria could be used for propaganda purposes. They should elect a man of their own class.

MARGUERITE CLARK IN "A GIRL NAMED MARY"

Dainty Star in Screen Version of Popular Story Tonight.

Marguerite Clark's new picture, "A Girl Named Mary," will be the attraction at the Westholme tonight. It is a picturization of Juliet Wilbur Tompkins' magazine story of the same name and is said to be ideally suited to the talents of the little star.

The plot centers around the search of a wealthy widow, Mrs.

Jaffrey, for her daughter, who has been missing since the railroad wreck in which Mr. Jaffrey was killed. In the course of her seeking she becomes acquainted with a vivacious little person named Mary Healy, the role played by Miss Clark. Later it develops that Mary, who lives quite plainly with a foster mother and is loved by a youth named Henry Martin, is the missing girl. Mrs. Jaffrey is overjoyed at the discovery but her attempts to inject the girl into a luxurious environment are at first failures. When the widow at last sees the light and consents to Mary's marriage to Henry, the happy ending is in sight.

BIG ARRIVALS FISH COMING

Yesterday There was Over Quarter Million Pounds Halibut Sold at Fish Exchange.

There were several large halibut schooners in yesterday for the fish sale and the quarter of a million pounds supply had the effect of lowering the price, each of the buyers getting all the fish required at prices not exceeding 15c. There are still ample refrigerators so market conditions are favorable for the present.

Following were the catches and sales:

Seattle sold 50,000 pounds to the Pacific Sea Products Association at 13c and 7.6c.

Albatross sold 45,000 pounds to the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. at 13c and 7.1c.

Scandia, 30,000 pounds, and Senator, 40,000 pounds, sold to the Pacific Fisheries at 13c and 7c.

Hazel, 7,000 pounds; Daisy, 17,000 pounds, and Ethel June, 1,000 pounds, sold to the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. at 13.5c and 7c.

Arctic, 18,000 pounds; Nip, 2,000 pounds, and North Cape, 5,000 pounds, sold to the Booth Canadian Fisheries at 13.6c and 7c.

Amundsen, 9,000 pounds; Progress, 8,000 pounds, and Thelma, 7,000 pounds, sold to the Royal Fish Co. at 15c and 8c.

D.C.F., 6,000 pounds; Malamut, 5,000 pounds, and Wave, 42,000 pounds, sold to the Atlin Fisheries at 15.1c and 8c.

The Allen with 70,000 pounds arrived this morning, while the Seymour cleared last night for Seattle with 68,000 pounds, not satisfied with the market bids here.

"A FOOL AND HIS MONEY"

Dramatization of McCutcheon's Story at Empress Tonight.

An old feudal castle on the Danube, ghosts, the face of a beautiful woman in the moonlight, a baby's cry, an author in search of "atmosphere," and there you have the foundation of Geo. Barr McCutcheon's story "A Fool and His Money," which has been adapted to the screen and, with Eugene O'Brien in the leading role, will be seen at the Empress Theatre tonight.

Mr. O'Brien will undoubtedly add to his already great popularity with his characterization of the role of John Bellamy Smart, a young American author who buys an old feudal castle and gets most beautifully "trimmed" financially, on the deal. Being a good sport John murmurs the old saw about "a fool and his money" and tries to make the best of a bad bargain.

DOG TEAMS IN THE FAR NORTH

Price of Huskies in Northern Manitoba Run to $100 or More

WINNIPEG, Nov. 15.—With the pending approach of winter, trappers and fishermen in the north country are overhauling toboggans and carriages, patching up dog harness and looking anxiously into condition of their dogs, replacing by new blood those which have outlived their usefulness.

The dog is the principal motive power for transportation of the northern fisherman and trappers and without him these gentry would be lost. Upon his fitness depends their comfort and sometimes their lives, so it behooves them to look after him well and to see that he is well nourished to withstand the rigors of the winter.

Many on Lake Winnipeg

There will be hundreds of dog teams on Lake Winnipeg this year, according to an official of the Northern Fisheries Company at Selkirk. Dogs are plentiful in that locality, he says, the supply being more than equal to the demand and the reigning prices running from $10 to $25 a dog.

Every man engaged in fishing has his dog team to draw him to his fish lines and carry away his catch, and last year when dogs were scarce they commanded as much as $50 a head at Selkirk.

Reports from The Pas state that the price of dogs there is high. Five last spring pups are worth $200 and full grown and trained animals bring from $75 to $100 each.

A good leader is worth even more than this, as the work of the whole team depends on him, and the work of training a leader efficiently is long and arduous.

Five Dogs to Team

A dog team in Northern Manitoba usually comprises five dogs and the cost of feeding is about $2 a day. The principal diet is fish, and while some "mushers" throw the fish out before throwing them to the dogs, the majority of them do not go to any such pains, but allow the animals to struggle with the frozen article.

The dog team is to the pioneer in the northern outpost what the automobile is to the city man.

Not only is it the principal means of transportation, but it has been responsible for many a happy-ending romance. Instead of inviting his fair lady out for a spin in an automobile, the northerner tucks her up in his carriage and, wrapping her in an eider-down robe and muffling her in such a way that there is no chance of her getting her pretty nose frozen, speeds away with his dogs through the snows.

Hundred Pounds to Dog

The weight which a dog team can haul depends largely upon the nature of the trails, but it is usually estimated at about 100 pounds a dog. On the glare ice, where the carriage runs smoothly, more can be pulled, but when the lakes and portages are packed feet deep with snow, the loads have to be lightened, and the musher has to go ahead in his snowshoes and break the trail.

In Alaska, where the malamutes are used, dog teams sometimes number as many as seventeen or twenty dogs, but in northern Manitoba a team of five huskies is considered best suited for the work to be done, the smaller team being much more easily handled.

Although the advance of civilization and the instalment of modern methods of transportation and communication are gradually limiting the sphere of usefulness of dogs to a more confined area, it will be many, many years before the last dog team will wend its way across the frozen northern lakes.

Cannot be Replaced.

Many an offender against the law has been run to earth by the Royal North West Mounted Police with their trains of "huskies," and many a sick man in some out-post shack has been brought relief by a comrade harnessing up his dogs and travelling hundreds of miles across the frozen wastes for aid.

The dog can travel where train, automobile or horse would be useless, and he will long be the servant and companion of the isolated individual whose life takes him into the far northern reaches.
