Large Crowd out at Terrace to Greet Minister of Lands

In spite of Heavy Rain largest Meeting of Campaign out to Hear Pattullo; Vote for Government Candidate will be heavy there

In spite of the heavy rains at Terrace on Saturday evening a large crowd turned out to hear Hon. T. D. Pattullo discuss the political issues. The hall was well filled, there being about twenty-five people standing at the back of the hall throughout the proceedings, in addition to those who were able to find seats. It was by far the largest political meeting held this year in Terrace.

Mr. Pattullo was in good fighting trim and he made an excellent impression. As a result, a good many people, some of these Conservatives, who had been in doubt as to the issues, expressed to the minister their determination to back him on this occasion.

The chair was taken by E. T. Kenny and the other speakers were M. P. McCaffery and H. F. Pallen.

Mr. Pattullo, in opening, said there seemed to be a prevalent opinion that the government of the country was something apart from the people. He wanted them to understand that the business of the government was the people's business. On Wednesday they would have their annual meeting and elect their board of directors, who would conduct their business for them during the next term. If they were discussing with the way in which the directors had handled their business during the past term, it was their duty to turn them out and put in others. They should ask themselves whether the government was carrying on the business of the country successfully.

Contrast in Four Years.
In order to show what the present government had done, Mr. Pattullo then pictured the condition as they found it when they took over the affairs of the country from Mr. Bowser and his associates. They had taken it out of a slough. Not only was there a heavy debt to be met four years ago, but the credit of the province was bad and taxes were not being collected. In some cases they found people who for twenty years had evaded their income tax payments.

No Apologies.
Mr. Pattullo said he made no apologies for his government. They had nothing for which to apologize but he was always prepared to defend the actions of the government. That was necessary sometimes. They had today 150,000 more people in British Columbia than four years ago. He did not claim that this was altogether due to the efforts of the government, but they had made conditions such that people would come. It was claimed by an opposition candidate that people would come. It was claimed by an opposition candidate that private concerns like the Rattenbury Lands Co. had brought the people in. Who was it forced Rattenbury to sell his lands? inquired Mr. Pattullo. It was the government through its Land Settlement Board. Now they had become colonization agents with great benefit to the province.

Pulp Industries.
The minister went on to speak of the improvements to the grazing industry, the irrigation projects, and other provincial affairs in which he personally had had something to do. He also mentioned the timber and pulp in which they were more directly interested. He said there would be pulp industries started at Prince George, at Kitimat and at Masset. At Kitimat there was enough timber to keep a pulp industry going for 100 years. At Masset there was a man on the ground just now in connection with the establishment of the industry.

Social Legislation.
The minister then went on to speak of the social legislation of the government. He showed the advantages already being derived from the Mothers' Pensions, no less than 630 women and several times that number of children drawing pensions of $35 a month and up. These would otherwise be destitute.

The minimum wage bill had had a good effect in connection with the employment of girls in giving them a living wage. He also cited the deserted wives' maintenance, the labor bureau, the eight-hour day in certain industries and other beneficial legislation. In connection with the general eight-hour day, the Premier had promised that if the Dominion Government did not bring in a measure to make the eight-hour day general, he would do so provincially. At a conference with the Dominion it had been agreed that it was desirable all provinces should have the same law in regard to number of hours of work so that neither would be placed at a disadvantage. Accordingly the Dominion Government had promised to secure

URGE COAST DO AS WELL AS TERRACE

As Hon. T. D. Pattullo and party were boarding the train for Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon when a large number of citizens at Terrace were out to see them off, one of them sent this final message:

"Tell the people on the coast that if they do their duty as well as we on Wednesday, there will be no doubt about the result, and Pattullo will have a handsome majority of all the votes cast."

KAVANAGH AND NEWTON CLASH

Independent Candidate Tells Open Forum that he will not Divide Little Plant

The political issues of the day were fully discussed at the Open Forum of the Central Labor Council held in the McIntyre Hall last evening. N. Booth was in the chair and the principal speakers to the crowded hall were S. M. Newton, Jack Kavanagh, J. H. Burroughs and George B. Casey.

After S. M. Newton had spoken there was quite a clash of ideas between himself and Jack Kavanagh. Mr. Newton had taken exception to the Socialist principles and Mr. Kavanagh inquired what his exception might be. Mr. Newton replied that he had worked hard for his own little plant and would not be willing to divide it up. In reply to this the other speakers said that the dividing up of Socialism applied to the big basic industries of the world and consequently did not take in Newton's petty little business. Mr. Newton professed his ignorance of this point of view.

The next meeting of the Forum early in December will be addressed by Rev. Th. B. Nuttall, his subject being "The Relation of the Church to the Labor Movement."

LIVERPOOL, November 29.—The Sinn Fein war was started in England on Saturday night when nineteen fires at warehouses and other establishments started simultaneously at 9 o'clock along seven miles of waterfront on the River Mersey.

Government Complete Ships if the Guarantors Delay

Patmore Opposes Vancouver Appointment of Liquidator and asks that Walter E. Hodges be Given Position

VANCOUVER, November 29.—Word has been received here by the creditors of the Prince Rupert shipyards from the Dominion Government that unless the guarantors come forward immediately and make good under their bond with the Prince Rupert Drydock and Engineering Co. it will take advantage of the clause in the contract giving them the right to take over the ships and complete them. Should there then be a deficiency it is understood the bonding company will be compelled to make good the deficiency.

Newman Erb's claim was that there should be no deficiency, but that there would be enough money coming at the end to pay all claims and then there would be a surplus to be divided among the plant to the good. The liquidators are awaiting the majority of the creditors live the receipt of the claims from at Prince Rupert and that they have no confidence in the Credit Men's Association. This followed a refusal of the Vancouver creditors to agree to the meeting being called here.

The application will be heard by the court on Thursday and in the meantime no liquidators have been appointed and the sheriff is trustee under the Act, and now still in charge at the drydock.

What Has Pattullo Done for Prince Rupert?

On the first page of this paper Saturday was an article which aims to answer the question, "What has Pattullo done for Prince Rupert?" It is worth studying. It may not be couched in the language of the parliamentarian, but it is expressive. There is, however, something that seems to have been forgotten in the article. His effort in trying to secure a hydro-electric power for the city and plenty of it was defeated, largely on political grounds, and the same people who have placed the city in the helpless position in which she finds herself today in regard to power, are now opposing the return of Mr. Pattullo. Many of them have changed their minds because they realize what it would have meant to the city to have had a big hydro-electric plant selling power to big manufacturing plants, right at our doors. Mr. Pattullo is still working on this power problem and if he gets another term in the Legislature he will likely land it.

Big Four for Northern B. C.

Citizens of the north are keenly interested in the north. They want to see it go ahead. What helps one part of the north, helps another. The north is a unit. What we want to do now is to send a solid four members to Victoria, who will work as a unit for the north. They must not be at cross purposes one with the other or nothing will be done. We want a good many things. Unified effort will get them.

Let Pattullo Finish His Work.

"Let Pattullo finish his work." That is a good slogan. It is a slogan that appeals to people who see the necessity of carrying on the good work that has only just commenced. For two years after the government came into power the war was on. For another year at least the reconstruction work was in hand. Now the finances have been restored, the big problems connected with the work are well in hand, and a period of expansion is ahead. Let Pattullo finish his work in this district.

Terrace Will Give Pattullo Majority.

After all the stories that had come to town in regard to the political position at Terrace, the minister got by far the best reception of any candidate there, when he spoke on Saturday night. There was a large crowd out and it was found that there is a large and enthusiastic group of supporters of the present Government at that point. It was estimated by one Terrace man, who was in a position to know, that at least half of the Terrace people would vote for Pattullo, the remainder being divided between the other three, with Formby and Burrough running close for second place. Newton does not seem to have much of a following at Terrace.

The whole outlook for the constituency is good. There is a strong Liberal organization at Ocean Falls and also a large percentage of support at that point for the Liberal candidate.

Reports from other parts of the province all indicate that the Oliver Government is sure to be returned.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

"If I Could Only Be Strong and Healthy Like Other Girls."

THIS is the longing of the girl who is pale, weak and anaemic.

She is lacking in energy and strength, and is so easily tired out that she does not feel like taking outdoor exercise or joining others in social gatherings.

The healthy, happy outdoor girls get in the way of leaving her to herself, and she gets lonely, discouraged and despondent.

The source of trouble is in the condition of the blood, which has become thin and watery, and utterly lacking in nutritive qualities.

The anaemic condition is shown in the pallor of the lips, the gums and the eyelids, as well as in the pale face and angular form.

Nature has provided for the purifying of the blood by having it sent to the lungs periodically to come in contact with the fresh air and take up new oxygen.

Unfortunately this plan of nature has been defeated by human beings living too much indoors and breathing over and over again the vitiated air of ill-ventilated rooms. This is the usual cause of anaemia, as well as a reason for its continuation.

The blood gets ever thinner and more watery, until the human system is literally starved.

The digestive system has failed, and your health must go naturally downhill until you can find some means of restoration.

Fortunately, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food furnishes the vital substances needed for regenerating the entire organism when in a run-down condition.

Gradually and certainly the building-up process is established, and the pure, rich blood created in the system carries health and strength to every part of the body.

Weakness and disease, the cause of discouragement, failure and unhappiness, give place to new hopes, new confidence and stronger determination to succeed.

The appetite is sharpened, digestion improves, and you find yourself enjoying your meals and taking a new interest in life. As you gain in strength and energy you feel encouraged to keep up the use of this restorative treatment until thoroughly restored to health.

The rosy cheeks and healthful appearance of people who have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is its strongest recommendation, and accounts for its ever-increasing popularity.

It is for sale by all dealers, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.75, or by mail from Edman-son, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Look for the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, on the box you buy.

In the Letter Box

Editor Daily News:— I have just finished reading the very beautiful tribute to the Hon. T. D. Pattullo published in your issue of November 27.

While treachery may be the one, treachery and base ingratitude are the two unpardonable sins of the world.

There is a snatch of song in such an article and I, for one, thank you very much for having written it.

We are as truly influenced today as the ancients ever were with picture writing, and it does not require a very plastic imagination to see Duff Pattullo as you, in your article, have painted him.

Ignored False Things. In offering my comments to you I do not, in the slightest, consider them educative—for I do not question the intelligence of the reading public; but the time is pregnant and your remarks have opened up a range of thought which might not occur to them until their eyes fell upon your editorial.

During his incumbency of office, the News has more or less ignored the false things sent broadcast by his political enemies and when you have noticed them at all it has been with gloves—what could you expect but to be startled at and bitten to the bone?

The time has come when deliberate and malicious lies are too contemptible to go unpunished, even though we must sometimes reluctantly temper by adding—by implication—the most dangerous of them all.

On the Trail. Stop and think, men and women, no one knows the man, Pattullo, like those who met him on the trail and under adverse circumstances. I became acquainted with him at Bennett in '98 and have personally known him to do inexpensively tender things for his fellow men and animals—generous to a fault and thoroughly honest.

His reputation in those days of his early college moustache, when he was secretary to Major Walsh, followed him to Dawson, and show me a man from the Klondike who would not vote for him, in many cases waiving party allegiance in doing so.

And later, when he plucked the job he now holds from the grills he had a red hot hickory nut to crack—a period when war and flurried finance made the country tremble—and you have kindly shown us in your article how passing well he carried on.

ELKS' CONCERT A BIG ATTEMPT

Under Capable Direction of Will Edmunds will Provide Notable Attraction

The Elks minstrel and vaudeville show to be held in the Westholme Theatre on Tuesday week promises to be one of the biggest amateur attempts ever staged in Prince Rupert and if enthusiasm counts for anything it will be one of the most successful. It looks like the big theatre will be crowded for the occasion and a show of merit is assured. It is being staged for the Christmas Cheer fund and is being produced and directed by Will Edmunds, whose life long experience at this work makes him most capable of handling it. Former performances under Mr. Edmunds' guiding hand have proved his ability.

The Elks' big performance will be divided into two sections, a black face minstrel show first, followed by an olio or general vaudeville recital. All the talent is local and much is drawn from the confines of the Elks membership, although the quest for quality has not limited it to that. In the minstrel show there are thirteen local men, all of whom are well known to Prince Rupert stage in various capacities. The bones will be E. B. Tahrin and W. E. Thompson, the tambourine, U.S. Vice-Consul Hill and Jack Cobb and a circle double quartette made up of J. E. Davey, A. J. Lancaster, George Wilson, A. Clapperton, George Waddell, Harry Fletcher, Leo Wright and E. V. Ling. E. A. Donohue will be the interlocutor. There will be a great variety of entertainment along skilled and humorous lines.

Taking part in the vaudeville will be Miss Agnes Black in Scotch dancing, Mrs. Stanley Bennett, soprano, J. S. Roberts, baritone, Will Edmunds, "black face" specialty, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brady in "The Sculptor's Dream," and Eddie Crags, impersonation. Rev. Josiah Ephraim Smith, distant relative of "Soapy" Smith will give an exhortation, on religion from B.C. 444 to B.C. 1920. Rev. Smith will arrive in the city on Tuesday night's train just before the concert. The olio will be concluded with a spectacular farce entitled "Black Justice," orchestration for the whole affair is in the hands of Alex. Gray who will lead an augmented orchestra.

The committee in charge comprises S. K. Shane, chairman, Ben Self, Alex. Gray, R. Lepine, Howard White and Will Edmunds.

STAMPEDE FOR NEW OIL LAND

GRANDE PRAIRIE, Nov. 29.—The land office here is experiencing a keen rush for oil leases and in the last 48 hours several thousand acres have been filed.

This stampede follows the leasing of a thousand acres to the Imperial Oil Co. These locations is six miles north of Rolla on the Pouce Coupe trail. The land being filed is in the Peace River block of 3,500,000 acres that were sold by the B.C. government some years ago to the federal government.

WILL DEVELOP TERRACE MINES

Trail up Copper Mountain Will be Built Early Next Season If Engineer Satisfied.

A good deal of interest is being taken at Terrace in the molybdenum and tungsten discoveries of Michaud Bros. on Copper Mountain. The tungsten is contained in an ore known as scheelite and has none of the appearances to a layman of being valuable. As a matter of fact, however, it is a very scarce ore and in this particular case is rich in tungsten. According to the Michauds, there is plenty of it in the vein and it should prove a very valuable find.

The molybdenum is over 60 per cent pure and, from the amount of work already done on the claims, there seems to be a large quantity of it in the mountain. The difficulty in getting to these properties and also to the gold and copper properties on Copper Mountain staked by Andrew Olsen and other prospectors, is the only thing that prevents development. There is already a trail but it is so poor that it cannot be traversed by a horse. Packing in food and camping outfit is very expensive. Just now Olsen wants to take a small stamp mill up the mountain but is unable to do so. It is expected this property will be examined by the engineer early next season and if it is shown the properties warrant it, as is confidently expected, the trail will be improved to allow of using pack horses.

MINING in British Columbia has developed under the Oliver Government

DURING the past four years, the Provincial Department of Mines, under the direction of Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, has passed some of the most important legislation in the history of this Province affecting mines and mining; has given assistance in the building of roads and trails; assisted the prospector; improved sanitary and working conditions; provided for closer inspection and regulations tending to the elimination of accidents.

Most noteworthy, perhaps, among the many achievements of the Department of Mines are the following:—

Division of the Province into six mineral survey districts, each under the charge of a highly qualified engineer, whose duties are to help the prospector when he is in doubt as to the possibilities of his claim, or how to develop it; to assist small operators in equal manner; to advise the Government as to properties worthy and in need of financial aid for the construction of trails, roads, diamond drilling, etc.; to prepare a complete report of their season's work and the condition of the mining industry in their several districts for publication in the Annual Report of the Minister of Mines.

The Iron Bounties Act, which binds the Province to give a bounty of $3.00 per ton on all pig iron manufactured from British Columbia ore in British Columbia, and $4.50 per ton on all pig iron manufactured in British Columbia from foreign ore. THIS WITHOUT DOUBT IS A MOST IMPORTANT PIECE OF MINING LEGISLATION.

Indian reservations have been opened up to the prospector and the miner. ALL PREVIOUS RESTRICTIONS ON PLACER MINING ON INDIAN RESERVATIONS HAVE BEEN REMOVED.

An amendment which provides for the elimination, by easy stages and in an equitable manner, of any accumulated rentals on placer mining leases, has been made to the Placer Mining Act.

British capital is certain to respond to the representative exhibit of British Columbia minerals which is now being prepared for display in England.

Accurate information of the iron ore reserves of the Province is now being obtained.

IT IS ADMITTED THAT MINING LAWS AND REGULATIONS IN THE PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA ARE NOW THE MOST FAVORABLE FOR PROSPECTORS AND MINERS OF ANY PROVINCE, STATE, OR COUNTRY ON THE AMERICAN CONTINENT

DORREEN WILL GIVE PATTULLO MAJORITY

DORREEN, Nov. 29.—There are ten voters at this point and of these Pattullo will get six or seven. The others will be divided between Formby and Newton.

BIRTHS.

At the General Hospital, on November 28, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. T. Mishio, of 8th Avenue East.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. I. Bruyn, of 8th Avenue West, at the General Hospital, on Sunday, November 28.

PRINCE GEORGE

The Board of Trade is planning for a big dance in Ritz-Keifer hall on election night. The Vanderhoof jazz orchestra will be in attendance.

Mayor H. G. Perry, Liberal nominee for the forthcoming election, addressed a crowded house in the Rex Theatre last Monday night. Reports from Vanderhoof and Fort Fraser are that Mr. Perry is receiving a great reception all along the line. Sam Cocker's supporters say that it is, however, offset by his receptions. J. S. Ross, independent, is in the Peace River country.

Messrs. Young & Ogston, barristers and solicitors have moved from the G.T.P. building to fine new offices in the Munro building.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Monty Fraser, of Prince George, on Tuesday morning, a son.

A Letter From South Vancouver

A lady in South Vancouver has asked for the recipe of an eggless or, at most, a one-egg cake. It strikes us that some user of Pacific Milk may have recipes better than the ones in the office. Will someone please help this cook, who finds the price of eggs too high to use in baking.

In regard to the P. G. E., Mr. Pattullo said it was not their baby. It had been left on their doorstep. One man had spoken of it as a wild cat which it hurt to let go. They were forced to complete the line to Prince George, even though it took a lot of money to build it.

Election Act.

The Election Act had been passed by the united effort of the Government and opposition and Mr. Pattullo claimed it was the best that had yet been devised. Any man could now run for office whether rich or poor. Majority rule was made possible through this measure.

Turning to Terrace affairs, the minister told the people their appropriations had always been among the highest of any in the province. All northern British Columbia has been well treated. The people coming in had justified this expenditure. He could not, however, use his position as minister to secure more than a just share of appropriations. He spoke of the road to Lakelse which was to be built and of its advantage to the country, and also mentioned other improvements such as the bridge, for which $25,000 had already been appropriated. This Government, he said, was ready to step out at any time when the people were not satisfied with its work.

Spewed Out Venom.

The minister referred to the erratic movements of the independent candidate, who one day tried to get the labor nomination and the next made a bid for Conservative support. He was cast out of both parties. He for years had been curled up in his office spewing out venom through his newspaper and had refused to correct prejudicial and deliberate falsehoods.

There was something vital in Liberalism, the minister said. Today there was not a Conservative government in Canada. Liberals were not afraid to submit their cause to the people.

M. P. McCaffery.

M. P. McCaffery gave an interesting address in which he extolled the personality of Premier Oliver and Mr. Pattullo, and spoke appreciatively of a good deal of the legislation that had been passed.

H. F. Pullen dealt with the returned soldier legislation of the Dominion and urged that the present Government was the best B. C. ever had. The Premier was the best the province ever had, and they were asked to support the best minister of lands the province ever had.

WIFE INVITES RIVAL TO SEE HER LIFE

She invited the girl who was trying to win her husband right into her own home, did June Hilmy, the heroine in "Stepping Out," the picture that comes to the Empress Theatre tonight.

Enid Bennett plays the part of this audacious wife who hit upon this means of showing the girl who was dining in high-toned cafes just what the husband really expected of a wife—to iron, scrub, cook, mend and economize on food. It was a daring experiment and just how it worked furnished much of the interesting action in this picture.
