Mass Meeting What Liberalism Stands For and Puts Forward Constructive Policy.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

HALIFAX, January 13 .- The Hon. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, brought his personal message to the people of Nova Scotia last night at a mass meeting held here. Mr. King military director charged nomin- issued purporting to reflect the period since 1914, and was principally underpinning of the plank spoke of the three groups into which the Dominion was roughly ally with the supervision of the divided, namely, the Farmers, Labor and the War Veterans, and execution of the Peace Treaty. aid that beneath the associations of each was the great underying principle of liberalism. He claimed that a parliament must be like a mirror and reflect the aspirations of all of these groups. Otherwise there could be no hope of a united Canada. It was the work of Liberalism to include the essentials of the demands of the groups, to prevent them clashing with one another and elding them into one great forward movement. He expressed complete opposition to the monopoly of government by any class.

Mr. King spoke much of the unity of command in an enpayor to show wherein the Union Government had utterly failed. so that they could obtain a site e said it had been formed to win the war, and now that the from the provincial government war was ended, it was seeking a pretext for holding on to office. for a lath and shingle mill, was

The Modern Woman And Masculine Habits.

Women today are doing many things that their mothers never did—things at which their grandmothers would be shocked. It is something to be thankful for that the era of false modesty which characterised the Victorian period is just about passed out, although its flavor still lingers in some sections of the older fashioned generation. Time was when prudery was carried so far that even the legs of a piano were draped. We have emerged Prince Rupert, B. C., as owner from that age, however. There are few things nowadays that a man does, which women have not attempted-successfully also in most cases. An echo from the past was heard the other day, and being in the City of Prince Rupert, From Pt. The staid fathers and mothers of St. Catherines in Ontario are sorely distressed, according to recent word from that place. The whole city has gone dancing mad. Every night in the week in that happy town there is some dance or other got up by the various clubs and organizations and the young people-and not they alone either—are scarcely ever a night at home. The voters, at least mostly, if they have any opinions, keep them to themselves, like most of the candidates. Here we are two days before the date of the election and neither of the fourteen aldermanic candidates nor the three mayoralty contestants have raised their voice in public to tell us about themselves or to give the voters a chance of finding out by asking them questions. Possibly they consider that their record is an open book. If so, they take a lot for granted. The public is noted for its short memory.

The space occupied by the exchange apparatus in the City Hall is large enough to afford space for doubling the present capacity. This would serve a population of about 14,000 and would tide us over to a more favorable time.

The trend in telephone practice today is rapidly moving in the that the most economical plan in directon of adopting the automatic system, the first cost of which is, however, rather high. Mayor Supports Plan.

The above letter was read before the council last night and was referred to the utilities committee of the incoming council.

The mayor stated that the utilities committee had been very reluctant about spending more money but it had been decided, mainly on the recommendation of the superintendent of utilities. telephone affairs was the building of this new building and the ingreat advantage about this would Hall should burn the city would new exchange had been passed by the people in 1914 but they had defeated the building bylaw for its accommodation. Therefore the present building bylaw was quite consistent. Expert advice had been sought and it had been decided that the installation of a new exchange would be more economical than the continuous addition to the present one which was becoming obsolete anyway.

Council Discussion.

The prospects for the islands appear bright and a large influx of mill hands, fishermen and preemptors is looked for.

The Massett Indians elected their Council for the ensuing! year. Alfred Adams, Peter Hill, William Matthews, Adam Abrams, 32.50 an acre. Robert Brown and Jasper, Amos | Pre-emption new confined to surwere elected. A returned soldier, Jasper Amos, was elected Chief Councillor. The Massett Indians | Partnership pre-emptions abelished, work under by-laws and attend to arrange for adjacent pre-emptions the internal affairs of the towns in the same manner as the cities claims. govern the municipalities.

At a basket social held on Massett Reserve, Queen Charlotte Islands, over four hundred dollars was raised to aid in the completions of the pretentious Anglican Church now under construction.

The Prince Albert brought a first consignment of canned crabs from the new cannery at Naden Harbor on Virage Sound. A number of men and women are employed in capturing and preserving the large crabs found beneath the waters of Naden Harbor where another industry has been added to the growing trade on the Queen Charlottes.

Christmas trees for the children has been the order of the day at Massett and Port Clements. Basket socials, masquerade balls and social gatherings were held under the auspices of the church societies and G. W. V. Society, which were well attended. The residents of Queen Charlotte Islands passed the holidays in a most pleasant manner.

Contractor Muse, after building a new wharf at Massett and repairing the wharf on the Indian reserve, is now engaged with a large crew building a wharf at Port Clements.

Three large "Killer" whales visited Massett Inlet and dispersed, to the wonder of the residents along the shores.

The marriage of James Jones to Mrs. Isaas Wilson took place at Skidegate on New Year's Eve. The contracting parties were born on Graham Island and received the congratulations of the residents at a festival held in the Town Hall.

Five births, with no deaths, increased the population of the Queen Charlotte Islands during December. On account of the mildness of the winter, game was not plentiful before the close of the shooting season. The absence of snow and ice, with the weather all that can be desired, again shows the climate of the Queen Charlottes cannot be surpassed in the Dominion.

Charles Adam, one of the oldest settlers, now resident in Prince Rupert, recently paid a visit to Towns and Villages Virtually Graham Centre and Port Clements. A number of veterans met Comrade Adam and made his stay as pleasant as possible.

How to Foil Wind and Weather on Washday

From now until spring a battle that endangers health must on washday be waged with rain and sleet.

That, or drying the washing in the cellar or attic, with its attendant inconvenience and sour smells.

Of course we can not order weather to our fancy, but if you would laugh it mud and water, save your health and keep your hands and face free from chapping and roughness, telephone us.

Next, bundle up your family washing and have our driver call for it.

In our laundry your things are initialed where the mark never shows. Everything is sorted, too - table linen is washed only with table linen, hosiery with hosiery. There is no indiscriminate mixing. And it is laundered in fleecy suds of silky softness.

The weather, and the hardship of fall and winter washing need never be a source of worry. Use your telephone and let us help you.

P. O. BOX 1632

Woodland Farm, Wednesday Morning

Dear Jane,

At last I've found a moment to answer your very welcome letter.

That's as far as I got, when I heard a terrible noise in the kitchen, and rushing in, found that Bobby had pulled a pan of boiling water off the stove and scalded himself badly. Just imagine! —and I ten miles from the nearest doctor and no one here to help! Thank goodness Tom has always insisted upon keeping Zam-Buk in the house. The poor little chap was in such awful pain it was all I could do to hold him while I plastered the Zam-Buk on his arm and leg. Then I bound them up with strips torn from an old sheet, and now he's actually asleep! Could you believe it? I always knew Zam-Buk was good stuff, but I'd no idea it was so wonderful for ending pain. Whatever should I have done without it!

This started out to be a letter, but it sounds more like a testimonial for Zam-Buk! I'll send it off anyway, because I want to ask if you'll please send me half a dozen boxes of Zam-Buk as soon as you get this, as I have only enough for one more dressing.

Yours in haste,

Blue 92.

Mary

Mothers! Take the hint! Never be without a box of Zam-Buk on the shelf. Not only for scalds, burns and cuts, but for eczema, ringworm, ulcers, blood-poisoning, piles, cold sores, etc. it is without equal. And it costs no more than ordinary ointments. 50c. box, all dealers.
