The Old vs. the New Revelation.

Editor of News,-

Your editorial on spiritualism, and your invitation for correspondence in reference to it stirred up sufficient interest to cause me to look up information on the subject. From your reference to Conan Doyle and his books and from other press notices I was led to believe that he would be one of the most reliable and informing authorities on spirit alism that I could procure. Through your kindness I have had the privilege of reading his book "The New Revelation." This I have read and reread, and along some lines have carefully analyzed.

As the whole subject hinges on the messages that come from the departed spirits, I gave close attention to all the author said about the spirits from whom the messages came, the mediums through whom they came, and the way the validity of these mesages was tested.

Mistakes of Spirits.

After speaking on pages 90 and 91 of the mistakes the spirits make in their attempts to foretell events, he makes the following statement rgarding a certain class of spirits, which to me is very significant, and speaks volumes. The author says: "But apart from these limitations we have ,unhappily, to deal with absolute cold-blooded lying on the part of wicked or mischievous intelligences. Everyone who has in vestigated the matter has, I suppose, met with examples of wilful deception, which occasionally are mixed up with good and true communications. It was of such messages, no doubt, that the Apostle wrote when he said: "Beloved believe not every spirit but try the spirits whether they be of God. These words can only mean that the early Christians not only practiced spiritualism as we understand it, but also that they were faced with the same difficulties." Everything in the above quotation finds its analogy in the derstand it, but also that they 1st John 1-7. were faced with the same difficul-

Canadian Film Had Remarkable Run in New York and Other Centres.

"Back to God's Country," the Canadian play featuring the Victoria girl Nell Shipman, had a wonderful run at Madison Theatre, Detroit; Garden Theatre, Washington; New York, and other theatres. It is the great picture of the Canadian northland.

One of the scenes shows Delores the naked swimming girl of the north woods, pure as chrystal waters of the cold mountain streams into which she plunges. Only the wild folk of the forest who know and love her, see her. But she was caught unaware. In this picture the nude is artistic, not rude:

Sixteen varieties of wild animals are seen and most of the scenes were photographed in the lice fields of the Arctic, north of the 56th paralled where the temperature was 60 degrees below

The above represents the number of years spent in fruitless efforts to cure a bad case of eczema with ordinary ointments, compared with the time it took Zam-Buk to effect a complete and permanent cure.

This was the experience of Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 East Broadway, Portland, Ore. Writing to the Zam-Buk Co., he says: "For fifteen years I suffered with a bad case of eczema, and used all kinds of so-called "cures" and treatments, but nothing was capable of curing me until I tried Zam-Buk. This wonderful balm, however, completely cured me in less than a year, and not only so, but I have had no return of the disease. I strongly recommend Zam-Buk to anyone afflicted as I was."

This is but one of the hundreds of cases where Zam-Buk has effected a cure when everything else failed. The reason is easily explained. Zam-Buk being unusually refined-containing absolutely no animal fats or mineral drugs such as are contained in ordinary ointments-is capable of penetrating to the underlying tissues where skin diseases have their roots. Ordinary ointments, on the contrary, never get beyond the surface skin and so are incapable of effecting permanent cures.

Zam-Buk is just as good for salt rheum, ringworm, boils, ulcers, abscesses, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box,
