DITORIAL Ultimate Political Power is in Hands of Working Classes

That is opinion expressed by Sir Auckland Geddes, British Ambassador to the United States in speech at Atlantic City

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

ATLANTIC CITY, April 29.—Changes have been wrought by WANSLAUGHTER the war in Great Britain, which "almost deserve the title of revolution," said Sir Auckland Geddes, British Ambassador to the United States, in an address last night before the annual convention of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Vast classes have been enfranchised, he said, and the working classes, so called, are strongly anti-militaristic and they now hold the "ultimate political power.

J. L. Quinney has been found manslaughter agising out of the death of Kille Frank Berwicke on Pender Street, whom he ran down and killed with his automobile. The accused admitted that he had cident but said that the cause was due to faulty steering gear.

The conviction of Pynn makes the second within a week on this charge arising out of persons being killed when run down by automobiles in this city. The other conviction was that -last week when Philip Schrodt was found guilty in connection with the death of W. H. Wheeley whom he ran down and killed on Hastings St. East last fall.

These convictions are said to be having a good deal of effect on furious driving in this city. There have been an unusual number of fatal automobile accidents in the city during the past year due to careless driving.

Georges Carpentier (left); James J. Corbett (right). James J. Corbett, the most scientific boxer and champion of the old regime, and Georges Carpentier, conceded by most of the experts to be the most skilful of the modern heavyweights, have become firm friends. The pair recently engaged in a friendly sparring match, and at the end each was tavish in the praises of the other. Corbett declared that Carpentier was one of the fastest and most scientific boxers be ever had sparred with, while Georges refused to believe that Corbett was a champion before the European title holder was born. "Why he handles himself better and is stronger than most of the beavyweights I have met." declared Carpentier volubly in his own tongue. "It is impossib" to believe be is fifty-four years old."

Step Forward in

National Development. Step by Step Canada is moving forward toward the status of full nationhood. The latest move to have a direct consular representative at Washington is one that has excited some comment both in Europe and on this continent. The Seattle Times dealing with the subject editorially says:-

"The neighboring Dominion is seeking 'recognition' from the United States as a separate and sovereign nation.

"It desires to establish independent diplomatic relations with this republic, with the dispatch, to Washington, of a minister.

"Its aspiration is declared not to be opposed by Great Britain and only the formal consent of the United States is necessary to a realization of its hopes.

"The appearance at Washington of a Canadian minister will be followed, it is predicted, by the stationing there of diplomatic representatives by Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and "If any or all of the self-governing British Dominions desire. to send their own ministers to the United States, there is no visible reason why this country should object.

"The matter is one which primarily concerns them and Great Britain. If there is agreement in the Empire on this course, no reason suggests itself that would justify a refusal on the part of America to receive these diplomats.

"There is no question as to the stability of the Canadian government. Any minister who might be named would be the spokesman for a government as sturdy and as well-grounded as our own.

"That this procedure constitutes an innovation in the conduct of the British Empire's foreign affairs is a matter of only passing interest to this country.

"Whenever Canada knocks and asks admission to the sisterhood of sovereign states, whether now or later, America certainly should be among the first to welcome it."

Back to Jail to Escape Living Costs.

The story of the man in the United States who scaled the walls of the penitentiary in order to get back into his cell where he could escape the high cost of living, is a pretty little tale but it illustrates a big truth. It shows to what extremes the prices of everything have gone and it should be a warning that things cannot remain so. Already there is a tightening of the money market and no one can say how long the present condition will last.

Naturally people are uneasy at the abnormal conditions. is natural that workingmen should be worried and tha temployers should be timid. 'No one knows what is going to happen tomorrow, commercially. There is no reason to be fearful, only careful. It must always be borne in mind that the present condition cannot last very long.

Lumber Industry

Important Here.

The lumber industry is very important to this place. Not Prince Rupert harbor is slightly only have we our own big mill and the mill at Georgetown, but greater than Port Simpson. all up the line there are a string of sawmills that circulate a lot of money and help to make business. On the Queen Charlotte Islands, too, there are a number of mills running and they are lower low water. all tributary to Prince Rupert.

In today's News F. L. Buckley tells of his big mill at Buckley Bay and he still has an idea of further extensions in the way of a re-saw plant and box factory not far from here. All these things help to make the place busy.

Geo. A. Clothier, district minng engineer, in speaking of the steel industry which is causing so much discussion at the present time says that very promising indications of magnetite as, well as limonite exists in this district the chief indications of magneite have been found on Louise, Moresby and Porcher Islands.

"Work of proving up these indications has never been carried on and, as yet, very little can be said in regard to the depth," said Mr. Clothier. "Until the depth is ascertained by extensive diamond drilling no estimate as to the tonnage can be formed. However, there is every indication that there are large quantities of it for some of the surface showings reach a width of 75 feet.

"Limonite is more valuable as an element in the making of steel but on account of its scarcity it is not used as much as magnetite. There is plenty of limonite at Copper River but that is the only body of this mineral that exists to any extent in the north as far as has been discovered."

The halibut schooner Panama arived this morning from the fishing banks, but has not yet sold er catch. The trawler Andrew Kelly was in yesterday morning with 90,000 lbs. for the Cold Storage.

An Examination for junior and senio tenographers will be held on Saturday day www. 1920, in Vancouver, Victoria, Nev f full age or seventeen years, and not ore than thirty-five years of age. Applications to write will be received up men, Friday, May 21st, 1920. Applica ion forms and full particulars may be manned from the undersigned or from W. H. MACINNES, Civil Service Commissioner. sctoria, B. C., April 1910, 1920.

e Synopsis of e Land Act Amendments

Minimum price of first-class land reduced to 35 an acre; second-class to $2.50 an acre.

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only. Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land. Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing, and cultivation of at least 5 acres. before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emptor in occupation not less than 3 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health, or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim. Records without permanent residence may be issued, provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $300 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained in less than 5 years, and improvements of $10.00 per scre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years are required. Pre-emptor holding Crown grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions. For grazing and industrial purposes areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company. Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land not exceeding 40 acres may be purchased; conditions include payment of stumpage.

Natural hay meadows inaccessible by existing roads may be purchased onditional upon construction of a road to them. Rebate of one-half of cost of road, not exceeding half of purchas price, is made. PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from for one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made re-

No fees relating to pre-emptions are due or payable by soldiers on preemptions recorded after June 26, 1918. Taxes are remitted for five years. OSPREY DOES MORE GOOD THAN HARM

So Says Writer in Comox Argus, Who Defends Big Fish Hawk.

The osprey is one of the birds condemned by some local fishermen. The claim is made that it i destroys many fish. Here is what a writer in the Comox Argus says of the bird: "The Osprey feeds on fish and | a very interesting sight is to see it hovering over the river and then plunge down into the water, | 1 being often quite immersed, and then rise with the fish secured. It seizes its prey with its feet which are exceptionally large and strong and, when carrying a fish to its nest on a suitable spot to break it up, always does so lengthwise with the body, thus reducing the wind resistance which, otherwise would be an item as it catches fish of considerable weight compared wit hits own

"The Osprey does take trout, but there can be no true fisherman who grudges it its share as 11 it more than balances these by the suckers and other coarse fish destroys which play havor with the spawn. Moreover what is more destructive to salmon spawn than trout? If nature be left alone she manages that there shall be plenty for all and it is only when man wants everything that trouble begins.

"Thanks to stupidity and greed ! and to its own foolish disregard | of danger, the Osprey is decreasing sadly in numbers and it is a pity it and some of the other larger birds are not protected by legislation before it is too late."
