Sockeye Fishing Begins Tomorrow Evening at Six

For Some Days Fish have been Seen Jumping in the Skeena and it is Anticipated that Fishing may be good

The sockeye fishing season opens in the north tomorrow, Sunday, evening at six o'clock and once more the boats will be busy on the Skeena and Naas rivers and at Rivers Inlet. Tomorrow afternoon a string of boats from the Prince Rupert cannery will go out to the river and the canning plants will all be busy.

The prospects for fishing on the Skeena seem fairly good, although this is not expected to be a big year. Four years ago the spawning grounds were not very well seeded and for that reason this should be a slim season for sockeye. For some days past, however, fish having been going up the river and as late as yesterday were seen jumping.

City to Sell Bonds Locally.

The city is offering the people of Prince Rupert short term bonds at a good rate of interest. They are as good as anything in the country in the way of security and can be used as collateral. They pay a better rate of interest than Victory Bonds and the only objection to them is that they cannot be marketed just as promptly as a Dominion Government security. They are not a liquid security. This, however, is often an advantage in that it compels saving. It is the nearest approach to buying life insurance as an investment.

Prince Rupert people will probably want to support their own city, just as they supported their own country during the war. A city bond is a good thing to put in the safe or in the bank among the other papers. "Buy a bond" is a good slogan during the next few days.

Local Building Society Prospers.

Another local security has turned out well. Reference is made to the Prince Rupert Housing Ltd. The annual meeting is to be held during the week, and there is a sufficient balance on the right side to enable the company to declare a dividend. This was entirely unexpected by most of the shareholders, although it was carrying out the suggestions made at the time of organization.

There is some talk of winding up the company as soon as possible and distributing the proceeds. It is argued that it has filled its purpose in that it has financed nineteen new houses, which were badly needed.

The Daily News is of opinion that houses are needed today just as much as they were a year ago. The building company is needed just as badly, and if another dozen houses can be financed during the coming year, the concern would well justify its existence. What would seem to be more to the point would be for each shareholder to double his holdings so that there would be a fund with which to work. The company is paying fairly well, it has passed through the throes of organization and there should be a useful future for it. If there are one or two shareholders who are pressed for cash they might be bought out, but certainly the company should be continued.

Judging from the statement issued by the company, the funds have been handled conservatively and all the borrowers are in good standing. The valuers have worked without fees and they seem to take a pride in serving the company.

The Daily News is glad to give this free advertising to a local concern which has served the city so well. Such an institution is worthy of support and if there are any people who would like to take an interest in it and see that it is continued as a purely commercial concern, it would be well to get in touch with the officers at once for there is plenty of treasury stock still for sale and loans can be made if the money is available.

Crop Prospects On the Prairies.

While it is early yet to predict the crop prospects at present are better than usual on the prairies. The acreage in wheat is not as large as last year owing to the late season, but if the yield is high, it will make the general output just as large. There are still dangers to be passed, such as rust and hail, but the prospects are reported very good, compared with other seasons.

At last a friend advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and soon I felt some relief. I continued with 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a short time, the Constipation was banished, I felt no more pains or headache or the disagreeable sensations that follow dyspepsia. The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince-Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

LOCAL GIRLS' GREAT WORK

Pupils of Miss Marcellus in Domestic Science Make Excellent Showing.

Yesterday afternoon in the Domestic Science Building at the King Edward public school the second annual exhibit of the girls' needle work was opened to the parents and children for inspection. Work was on display from all classes. The first year high school and the entrance class were in one group with hand sewn garments made for their own use. The junior fourth specialized in children's garments from 1 to 2 years. The senior third had their own cooking garments up for show.

Mrs. A. M. McDonald in speaking of the exhibit said that wonderful ability was shown in the needle work and that Miss Marcellus deserved great credit for the excellent showing. No marks were given for trimming so that it was the actual stitches put in by the girls that counted.

There was a much larger attendance than usual and a number of the mothers who had never taken any interest in the work before expressed great surprise at the excellent equipment and the good results obtained.

From the Seal Cove school there were a number of samples from the young pupils. From the Borden Street School Matsu Hara, Lizzie Currie and Alice Ennyu had displays on the tables which caused much favorable comment. From Miss McKinnon's class came some fine work by Alice Spencer, whilst Frances Cross, Alice Pillsbury and Alice Nelson of Miss Gladwell's class had some very nicely worked children's wear on the tables. In the Entrance class Mary McRae, Louie Fisher, Leona Parker, Dorothy McDonald and Lita Congrail had sets of three pieces on show as did Gertrude Nelson and Helen McTae from the first year class in high school. There were many other girls who had samples of their handiwork on the tables.

Hooper, C. C. Hooper, A. Snape and Paul.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

June 19, 1910

A special committee has been appointed to look after the Dominion Day celebration. This was formed through the motion of Alderman Lynch and Alderman Pattullo, who favored having one alderman on the committee and the rest made up of citizens. The following were appointed:—Alderman McIntyre, Dr. Tremayne, L. Crippen, W. M. Brown, Alf. Morris, J. B. Roerig, G. G. Nickerson and B. Ross.

The Cetriana arrived from Stewart this morning and left a few few hours later for Vancouver.

S. P. McMordie & Co. are making splendid progress on the sewer connection. Forty men are at work and it is expected that the pipe laying will commence shortly. The contractors are troubled somewhat by inquisitive people loitering around the work, especially when blasting is being done. Warning notices will be passed and thereafter they will assume no responsibility.

J. G. McNab will succeed D. Sutherland as representative of the C. P. R. here. Mr. McNab has been contracting freight agent for the B. C. coast service and has made a number of trips here before in an official capacity.

SAYS MARRIED ONLY ONE GIRL

Lieut. W. R. S. Hayes Tried for Bigamy Declares His Brother Exactly Like Him.

LONDON, June 15.—A case worthy of being used as a movie plot was tried at Tolnes. It was a bigamy charge and the defence of Lieut. W. R. S. Hayes, the defendant, was that he was married only once, but that his brother, who was exactly like him, had married the other girl.

In evidence Hayes described himself as a lieutenant in the Royal Navy now on the retired list, and gave H.M.S. Aurora as his address. "Edith Elizabeth is my proper wife," he declared, "and Lillian Hayes my brother's wife." His brother's name, he said, was Wilfred Reginald. He (the defendant) was born at Bangor on April 6, 1892. His brother was 15 months older. At the age of six his brother was sent to the residence of his uncle and aunt at Larne owing to the difficulty his people had to distinguish between them. The only difference was that he (the defendant) had a scar on the left temple, and his left arm was somewhat crooked through an accident. He was educated at Mossley Public School in Belfast. When he left school he was apprenticed to Kirk and Sons, electrical engineers, Belfast. He had a quarrel with the principal and left. He joined the navy, went to Harwich, and proceeded to Plymouth about 1910 on board H.M.S. Gloucester.

While at Plymouth witness met Miss Phillips, and they became engaged towards the end of 1912. Shortly after he met his brother, whom he had not seen since 1908. He stated that he was in need of funds, and the defendant lent him £20. About a week after he quarrelled with Miss Phillips, and the engagement was broken off, but they became engaged again. At the end of 1913 she wrote to him at Portsmouth asking for her freedom, and returned the engagement ring. In March, 1915, he met her again, and the following day again met his brother, to whom he gave the key of a locker at the Drake Institute, where he had his plain clothes. He told him he had to meet Miss Phillips two days later, and that he could take his place, as he wanted to go to Ireland on leave. He did not see her again until the end of May.

In the second week in May he met his brother, who explained that he had taken the witness's place, and married her. In December, 1915, he saw his brother again, and agreed to take his place as Miss Phillips' husband. That was the last time he saw him. He went to the West Indies and elsewhere, and on his return lived with her. Last autumn he met Miss Hill, became engaged to her, and was married on February 11. He concluded: "That is the end of the story."

The defendant, who was committed for trial, was admitted to bail.

CALLIES WIN FIRST GAME

By a Score of 3 to 1 Scotchmen Beat Sons of England.

Last evening the Callies walked away with the honors in the first semi-final for the Dominion Day football play-off by a score of 3 to 1. The winners had the shade of the play throughout the first part of the game but the Sons of England picked up in real style when they got the down-hill in the second half. At half time the score stood 2 to 0 in favor of the Scottish eleven and the English boys were still out for gore. Immediately after the whistle to resume play, the Sons, eager to take the first opportunity to break through, made a brilliant play and were pressing hard against the opposing defence. Strive as they did, however, they could not engineer the leather through the lines and finally the ball came back to their own end where the third goal was scored. A few minutes before time a long shot from near centre rolled by the Callie goalie and netted the sole score for the boys in red.

The first goal for the Callies was made by White at centre by a very nice touch in from the right. In the general scurry that followed a short time after the ball was touched and it slowly lobbed towards the goal. It hit just inside the goal post and rolled unchecked into the net. The parting shot from D. Wiggins' toe had done the trick. In the first part of the game there was a marked eagerness by both sides and some excellent ball handling was displayed by Abe Kinghorn, the star centre half for the Callies.

Successful Shot.

In the second half Tommy Black's successful shot from the left brought the whole crowd to its feet with a shout. It was one of those shots which may be read about but is very seldom seen. It was a beautifully clean piece of work. Undaunted the Sons, like the good sports that they are, kept right on playing and Bentley, who had shown up in fine form during the whole evening, took a long punt from near centre. The Scotch back stood aside to let Martin pick it up but the latter fumbled it and the ball was soon resting in the back part of the goal.

McCulloch was referee, with Warrior and Cummings as linesmen.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Archibald were among the arrivals from Vancouver by this morning's boat. Dr. Archibald who is professor in the chemistry department at the University of B. C., is here as supervisor for the high school examinations to be held next week.

Miss Ethel M. Kinch and mother arrived from Vancouver on the Prince George this morning. They are making the round trip to Stewart.

HERB REMEDIES DO WONDERFUL WORK

One of World's Most Famous Herbal Preparations Now Handled by Prince Rupert Concern.

Herbs have always been known to possess wonderful medicinal properties. There are but few bodily complaints for which a corrective is not found in the juices of the stalk, leaf or flower of the simple herb. This fact is conclusively proven by the truly wonderful work done by Wonder Health Restorer, a herbal preparation now offered in Prince Rupert.

Wonder Health Restorer contains nothing but the concentrated juices of herbs. There is not a trace of alcohol or drugs in the preparation. It acts directly on the blood and the various bodily organs, relieving them of impurities, toning up the organic fluids and correcting improper action wherever it exists. It is an unequalled preparation for cases of rheumatism in all forms, asthma and kindred diseases, indigestion and all stomach troubles, nervous complaints, kidney and bladder troubles, skin diseases, piles, etc. A typical example of the work of Wonder Health Restorer is that of Mr. Duncan of 1368 Eleventh Ave. W., Vancouver. This man suffered from asthma since childhood, his condition being so acute as to make hospital treatment necessary. On the advice of a friend he tried Wonder Health Restorer and, such was the marvelous relief he received that he commends its use by all sufferers from this ailment.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR ISSUES ANNUAL REPORT

Gives Review of Conditions with Particular Reference to International Organizations.

The Ninth Annual Report on labor organization in Canada, containing statistics, etc., for the calendar year 1919, has been issued by the Department of Labor. The report deals with the advent of the One Big Union and also gives a review of the progress of the national Catholic unions in the province of Quebec. Notwithstanding these two forces, the international organizations have made a very substantial gain in their following, while the non-international bodies and independent units show losses.

The figures given in the report show that trade union membership in the Dominion has reached the highest point recorded since the department commenced the publication of these annual reports in 1911, the total reported membership for all classes of labor bodies in Canada at the close of the year 1919 being 378,047. There are in all 2,847 local branch unions in the Dominion, of which 2,309 are affiliated with international organizations, comprising 260,247 members, an increase over 1918 of 412 branches and 58,815 members; 325 local branches with 33,372 members are connected with what are termed non-international bodies, these figures showing a loss of seven branches and of 4,556 members; 29 are independent units, a decrease of 16, and the reported membership was 1,249 less than that reported in 1918; the national Catholic unions number 83, comprising a membership of 35,000; the One Big Union reported 101 units with a membership of 41,150.

These figures show a gain of 573 in local branches of all classes of labor bodies operating in Canada, and the remarkable increase in membership of 129,160. The membership of all classes of organized labor in Canada, as reported to the Department for the past nine years, has been as follows:

1911	133,132
1912	160,120
1913	175,799
1914	166,163
1915	143,343
1916	160,407
1917	204,630
1918	248,887
1919	378,047

CONSUL TELLS AMERICANS OF PRINCE RUPERT

Speaks of New Work About to be Done Here With Large Expenditures of Money.

In the United States commercial report for May 20 appears an article signed by Consul E. A. Wakefield of Prince Rupert telling of the expected developments in this district. It says:—

"A general belief prevails that Prince Rupert and the surrounding district will expand and develop wonderfully during the next few years; in fact, that the development period has arrived. Conditions in Prince Rupert today are said to be more promising than ever before in the history of the municipality, and the same is true of the surrounding district. Mining activities throughout central and north central British Columbia and the demand for forest products are responsible for many new arrivals here, and the city of Prince Rupert has been full to overflowing, from a housing standpoint, for many months.

Government Expenditures
Provincial acknowledgment of these conditions is seen in the amount allotted to this district in the government estimates which have just been submitted to the Assembly. The principal expenditure in Prince Rupert itself will be for provincial government buildings to cost $500,000, of which $100,000 is provided in the expenditures for this year. A new public school is to be constructed at a cost of $150,000 to $200,000, for which the provincial government will provide one-third of the necessary funds.

The present government wharf at Prince Rupert is to be improved and extended at an outlay of $80,000, and a new bridge in the city limits to cost $20,000 or $25,000 will be partially paid for by the provincial government.

"The estimates carry a lump sum of $64,000 for the Prince George section, $81,000 for the Omineca section, and $38,000 for the Athin section, for general expenditure as may be required, with additional specific provisions for a new ferry at Usk and a new bridge at Terrace. Grants are also provided for wharves and improvements at Port Essington and Port Simpson in connection with the fishing industries. On the Queen Charlotte Islands provision is made for the Skidegate-Queen Charlotte road and for the reclamation of 10,000 acres of swamp land at Myers Lake.

Other New Work
"The municipality of Prince Rupert is about to inaugurate a permanent road and sewer construction program which will permit of continual development with the increasing growth of the city. On the water front, in addition to the government wharf extension already mentioned, the Grand Trunk Pacific Steamship Co. will immediately commence the construction of an addition to its present wharf with large storage freight sheds. An English capitalist has called for plans and estimates for a modern apartment house to be erected near the center of the city, and numerous dwellings are being built. Everything seems to indicate a period of marked prosperity in this city. The one distinctly unfavorable feature is the lack of housing accommodation, which is serious."

O. R. Bent was dismissed from the hospital yesterday afternoon after a week's illness.

SIX MONTHS FOR NEGLECTING WIFE

EDMONTON, June 18.—"Six months' imprisonment with hard labor in Fort Saskatchewan jail will give you some idea of my opinion of the man who will leave his wife in a helpless condition and without the necessities of life," said Magistrate Primrose to Mark Ernest Turner, late of Moose Jaw, when he found him guilty on the charge of non-support of his wife and three children.

Leaving a dollar and a half on the table and his wife under the care of a maternity nurse, and no provisions in the pantry, Turner deserted his wife in March, 1919, and was not seen or heard from by her until they were brought face to face in the police court when the husband was constrained to come to answer the charge laid against him.

For over a year now Mrs. Turner has been provided with the necessities of life by the Edmonton Board of Public Welfare, the Salvation Army and kind neighbors, testimony to the effect being given by Miss Dorothy King.

SPREAD GOSPEL OF FREEDOM

Liberal Leader Appeals to Women of Canada to Encourage Spirit of Good-will.

"And in the great work of seeking to reconcile differences, and to promote the greatest good of the greatest number women's work will be, as it has been through all time, that of healing and restoring," said Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in addressing the Ontario Women's Liberal Association. "We as Liberals appeal to the women of Canada to spread the gospel of a greater freedom and a larger spirit of good-will, that out of the ruins of the world lying shattered at our feet may come a resurrected life in matters political, industrial and social, to meet the sacrifice of our noble men, who laid down their lives for mankind."

Speaking of the destructive powers of war and the wreckage following in its wake, as in the wake of every storm, Mr. King said there came also a certain temporary lessening of the power of Liberalism. He pointed to the Union Government, formed for the purpose of winning the war, but not for holding on to power till the last possible moment. Several Liberal members have withdrawn, but some professed Liberals are willing to stay with a Government which is prepared to usurp power for some years to come, and which wholly ignores the wishes of the people. This the speaker attributed to the wartime attitude of mind, an attitude revealing itself in a number of instances of autocratic action which he quoted, and in matters of lavish expenditure for which he gave figures, such as the increase of the country's debt since the end of the war at the rate of a million dollars a day.

B. C. BONDS ARE RE-SOLD WELL

High Standing of Provincial Securities Shown in Quick Turn Over by Syndicate.

The Financial Post announces that the syndicate which purchased the British Columbia six per cent bonds in the United States at 88.14 has resold the whole issue at 92.85, yielding them a handsome profit and showing the high standing of B. C. bonds on the American market. Telling of it, the Post says:—

"The most important transaction of the week was the sale of the British Columbia issue of $2,000,000 to a syndicate composed of Halsey, Stuart & Company, Chicago, Wood, Gundy & Co., Dominion Securities Corporation and A. E. Ames & Co., Toronto. The bonds are for five years and bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent. They are dated June 4 and mature June 4, 1925. The price paid was 88.14 and interest in New York and the province will get the benefit of the premium on bringing the New York funds into Canada.

It was announced later that the syndicate had disposed of the entire issue in the United States at 92.85 and interest, giving a yield of 7 1/2 per cent. The only other bid received was made by a syndicate headed by the Canada Bond Corporation, their price being 86.95. The following are the tenders:
