OLIVER-ELLIOTT LIBEL SUIT IS CONCLUDING THIS AFTERNOON AT VICTORIA

R. T. Elliott was to Receive $60,000 on Dolly Varden Deal

Questioned in Witness Box, he said he was out to Benefit His Own Pocket, not initiating a reform movement

VICTORIA, June 30.—This morning the court room was thronged when counsel, M. B. Jackson, for Premier Oliver and H. A. McLean for R. T. Elliott, addressed the jury in the libel suit brought by the Premier against the lawyer for the Dolly Varden Company. At the time of wiring the judge is summing up and a verdict is expected this afternoon. The evidence was all in yesterday afternoon before the court adjourned.

In his address to the jury yesterday Mr. McLean, acting for R. T. Elliott, reading from the examination for discovery of the Premier, said the Premier declared he had taken an option to buy three sections of land from Mr. Wallace at 85 an acre and later had turned it over to the Land Settlement Board as good for soldiers for stock raising. This was in 1917 and had never gone beyond an option.

Continuing to read McLean said the Premier declared he took an option as he thought the land was a good buy, but thinking it over decided not to get mixed up in speculation.

Elliott Evidence

R. T. Elliott, defendant, called to the witness stand to give evidence in his own defence, testified regarding the telegram he sent. "Everything I said is absolutely, definitely true," he declared. "I first heard the land story in conversation with Petley Keith in the lobby of the Vancouver Hotel.

Later Elliott said that he and Cromie went to Chicago to meet the former owners of the Dolly Varden. He and Cromie were associated in enterprises. If he succeeded in the Dolly Varden actions Mr. Cremie would directly benefit.

Mr. Elliott further said that he considered the Dolly Varden confiscatory legislation was passed by a corrupt body of men.

Elliott's Commission

At the afternoon session yesterday R. T. Elliott in the witness box, concluding his evidence for the defence, said that under the Chicago arrangement with the former Dolly Varden owners he was to get a ten per cent commission. His explanation of this was that when the Taylor people paid up the outstanding balance of $613,000 and the Chicago people withdrew their demand for disallowance of the legislation at Ottawa, Elliott's commission was to be $60,000.

Cross-examined, Elliott admitted that he was out to benefit his own pocket. He was "not initiating a reform movement." Witness understood the meaning of the word graft and was charging Oliver with a breach of his oath of office in dealing in crown lands.

"Would it be proper for Mr. Oliver to induce his sons to go on to provincial lands to farm?" asked Mr. Jackson, counsel for Premier.

"Safer than going to war that time," replied Elliott.

Oliver Evidence

Premier Oliver then took the witness stand. He said that four of his five sons offered themselves for military service and three were accepted.

Dealing with the land question, he said the land Petley Keith offered him was privately owned and not crown land. He declined to buy it because his son, John, refused to give up the study of law and become a farmer.

The Premier said he had never bought an inch of land, except to work it. He desired to make categorical denials of all the allegations, but the presiding judge ruled that he must confine his evidence to the land deal issue. "You have the remedy in other actions on the other charges," said the court.

Out One Dollar

Continuing, Premier Oliver reviewed the Dolly Varden affairs, the introduction of the legislation and the receipt of the telegrams, again emphatically denying that he had ever made a cent out of land on option in 1917 but he was out a dollar searching the title. When his son refused to go farming the $7,000 City of Victoria bonds which he had cashed, had been reinvested in securities. He warmly denied that he had sent for Petley Keith for the purpose of discussing in private a land purchase.

W. Savage, barrister, corroborated the Premier's evidence regarding the proposed land deal.

This ended the evidence. The court adjourned until today to hear the counsels' addresses and the verdict of the judge.

VICTORIA, June 30.—(Later)—The Elliott libel case went to the jury this afternoon at 1:22.

SHRINERS CONCERT ON "PRINCE RUPERT"

On this trip north a very pleasant concert was held on board the Prince Rupert under the auspices of the Shriners. Amongst the artists contributing to the program were the Misses Edith and Helena Craike who are travelling to Montreal and New York and back to Vancouver. Another sister, May, and their mother, Mrs. Craike, are also making the trip. Upon arrival here the Shriners arranged to have the ladies' accommodation changed to travel on the special train.

The three sisters are all prominent singers in St. John's Presbyterian Church in Vancouver. Accompanying the Misses Craike is Miss May MacKenzie, who was met at the steamer by her cousin, Mrs. Jack of this city. The visitors were delighted with the trip north and during the short stay took the opportunity of seeing Prince Rupert.

BURGLARIES ARE ON INCREASE IN ENGLAND

Insurance Companies are Hard Hit from Increase in Crime

Burglary insurance companies are very hard hit at the present time. The whole of burglary underwriting in respect of commercial premises, private dwelling houses and personal property is in a difficult position, as the number of robberies of all kinds is the greatest ever known and the amount of the claims unprecedented.

The thieves confine themselves to appropriating articles like silk dresses and men's suits—which now have a considerable value, owing to high prices—furs, jewelry of all kinds, and silver. The lack of domestic servants has had a most injurious effect on the position of the insurance companies, as the flat-breaker always waits until the occupants are absent. It is very difficult to know how to cope with this increase in crime, but flat-dwellers would do well to put a mortice deadlock on their doors, particularly where there are glass panels. The door is locked from the outside, and the flat-breaker who cuts away the glass finds no handle to turn on the inside. Of course, given the time and the patience, a really smart burglar can deal with any lock. The only thing that the householder can do is to put as many difficulties in his way as possible.

BEEF PRICES DROP ON THE PRAIRIES

Frozen Meat From the States is Coming In.

EDMONTON, June 30.—Cattle prices are down from $1 to $2 per cwt., and this is to some extent due to the fact that frozen beef is being brought in from the states to compete with local packers. There is, however, very little good beef coming in to the yards, so it is difficult to state definitely what good grain-fed beef would bring if it were offered. The packers are not at all anxious for this soft grass-fed stuff that is being offered now, and there are very few buyers of stockers and feeders. The coast market has been cut off also by the American beef being brought in in competition and it is apparent that Canadian prices will have to come down to the United States levels.

There are several loads of cattle that were taken from the drouth areas east and south of here, to points on the Dunvegan lines, being returned now. There are also, some horses, shipped north last fall for feeding, being returned now. All prices at the present time are showing a depressed prospect.

R. G. Harlow of the G. T. P. engineering department was a passenger for up river by the train today.

McAdoo Not Candidate at Democratic Convention

"Moist" Plank has been Placed on Flatform of Party it was Announced This Morning; Bryan Influence on the Wane

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—It is definitely decided here that McAdoo will not be the candidate to lead the Democrats at the forthcoming election.

This morning the platform builders have been busy and a "moist" plank has been allowed, but not until after a strenuous fight on the part of the "drys." The leaving of Bryan off the committee presages some such action as this.

The convention was this afternoon declared open for nominations and the following names were put up:

Senator Owen of Oklahoma.

Ambassador Gerard.

Homer Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

C. N. Rolston of the Imperial Oil Company was a passenger for the south on the Chelohsin last evening. He returned by the same boat early yesterday morning from a business trip to Alice Arm and Anyox. While here he investigated the local oil fuel situation.

Norris Government Has a Minority in Manitoba Province

Labor elects Eight Members and probably more in Winnipeg City; Government Supporters this morning numbered 18

WINNIPEG, June 30.—In the Manitoba elections held yesterday, the province seemingly adopted a group system of government, as they defeated the Norris Government in the sense that it cannot command a majority over all other groups.

This morning the results showed the following results:—Government supporters, 18; Conservative, 6; Farmers, 8; Labor, 8; Independent, 5; Deferred, 2. These with the eight Winnipeg seats make up the Legislature of 55.

It is generally expected that in Winnipeg F. J. Dixon will head the poll by a huge majority and that Attorney-General Johnson will be elected. Beyond that the Winnipeg returns are uncertain. In the city the proportional representation form of election is being adopted and that delays the returns.

The Free Press, commenting on the results, says: "The growth of the labor movement is the feature of the election. The Government should continue its policy fearlessly. There is doubt if labor could get the support of the farmers and independents. Thus labor will become the official opposition in the House.

WINNIPEG, June 30.—(1 p. m.)—Unofficial returns in the first choice count of the Winnipeg votes give P. R. Dixon leading all other. Other Socialists well up are Armstrong, Ivens, Russell, Queen, and Prichard.

The Government first choice men are Johnson, Cameron, Stove and Mrs. Rogers.

Conservatives are Haig, Tupper, Christie.

The independents are swamped.

KILLED IN COLLISION

SEATTLE, June 30.—James Sadley, 45 years of age, and Chas. Ball were killed in a train collision. They were riding on a train.

There will be a baseball game tonight at the Acropolis grounds between the New Metlakatla team and Prince Rupert. The northern visitors arrived yesterday morning but the grounds were not in good playing condition.

Jas. Cullins, editor of the Portland Canal News, arrived back from Vancouver by the Prince Rupert this morning and will leave for Stewart on Saturday.

MAYOR OPENS JAZZ CARNIVAL

Daughters of the Empire Prepare Unique Entertainment for Everyone Tomorrow and Friday.

The I. O. D. E. Jazz Carnival at the Exhibition Building tomorrow and Friday promises to be a great event. It will be opened by the mayor at 1:30 and everyone will be curious to see what are the stunts that are advertised.

The affair is unique and no one seems to know exactly what are the attractions, except that many of them are entirely new to Prince Rupert.

In the evening there will be dancing and a vaudeville show and all sorts of other side shows, just the thing for a holiday crowd, especially if Friday should be damp. There is plenty of room in the big building for everyone.

NO INQUIRY INTO MURDOCK CHARGES

Immediate Raise in Indemnities Voted by Commons.

OTTAWA, June 30.—The House of Commons voted yesterday for an immediate raise in the parliamentary indemnities.

The Government announced that there would be no inquiry into the Murdock charges, made after James Murdock had resigned from the Board of Commerce. It is claimed by the administration that the evidence is insufficient and intangible.

MYSTIC SHRINERS VISIT THE CITY

About ninety members of the order of Mystic Shriners arrived from the south on the Prince Rupert this morning. Many branches of the order were represented in the gaily dressed party. One tall man of the tribe of Moslem had the line "Trade you smiles" on the side of his cap and from his genial countenance one would not have found it difficult to make the exchange. A lady of the party was carrying home a big souvenir from the decorations at Portland on which was inscribed the figures of the order and the words "Welcome to Portland." They left on a special train this afternoon.

DAILY EDITION. Wednesday, June 30, 1920.

Dominion Day
Great Event.

Dominion Day is a day to be remembered by every Canadian. It is the birthday of the Dominion of Canada, when the confederation of the provinces became effective. By the provisions of the British North America Act passed in 1867 the four provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia became one Dominion under the British flag with provision for the entry of other provinces. All have now taken advantage of the offer except Newfoundland, which still remains a crown colony.

Canada Nearly Independent Republic.

Canada approaches very near to being an independent republic, but in sentiment she is intensely British. The only official connection with Great Britain is the resident governor-general who takes the place of the King here by officiating at important national or social functions and by signing the bills that are pssed by Parliament. This signature is necessary before bills become law. There is also a right of appeal from the Canadian courts to the judicial committee of the British Privy Council, but this is falling into disuse and there has been from time to time considerable agitation for the repeal of that provision.

For all purposes of government the Prime Minister of Canada is the head of the administration and he holds his office subject to the will of the House of Commons. As the House of Commons is elected directly by the people, the government is purely democratic and representative. It approaches very close to the ideal, in form, but like all governments it is as good as the people it represents.

Government Reflects People.

We believe that the Dominion of Canada has as good a form of government as any other country and better than a good many of the republics. It is, however, still far from perfect. It is just as good as the people who elect the representatives to Parliament. The way to improve the Government is to improve the general status of the people, morally, physically and socially.

The people of Canada are a virile people, but we are continually absorbing people from other countries and we have to see to it that these new arrivals are educated in Canadian ideals. This is a great opportunity for such organizations as the Sons of Canada. As a country we have a lot to learn and a great work to do.

Canada's Future Lies with the People.

The future of Canada lies with the people of Canada. Our country will be what we make it. It is a good thing to hold a celebration and extol the virtues of our nation, but also it is a good thing now and then to be introspective and to see wherein we sometimes fail so that we may better guide our future conduct. We can make of this a great and powerful nation if we have high ideals and live up to them. On the other hand we can drag the name of our country in the mud and make her to stink in the nostrils of the other nations of the world. Which shall we do? Our future is in our own hands.

"ALMOST A HUSBAND" AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

The story of "Almost a Husband," adapted from Opie Read's widely read novel "Old Ebenezer," is as different from the ordinary run of screen stories as is Will Rogers' personality from that of every other motion picture star. It is a story of small-town life, a masterly blend of humor, drama and pathos. Above all, it is a warmly human story in which human characters do human things. Novelty and surprises abound in "Almost a Husband."

The story tells of Sam Lyman, a homely but shrewd and kindly teacher in Old Ebenezer. At the annual town social the prettiest girl in town and the daughter of the wealthy banker plays in a game of forfeits and is directed to marry the first man who comes through the door. Sam inadvertently opens the door and is forced to go through the mock marriage ceremony with the girl. After the ceremony it is discovered that the law requiring a marriage licence has been repealed and the young clergyman who performed the service has already been ordained. Thus the prettiest girl in town and the homeliest man find themselves legally married.

From this point on, the plot unravels in a highly interesting manner and develops a number of dramatic complications that are well tinged with romantic sentiment and spontaneous humor.

The Port Simpson band will also be here, so that much good music will be provided for all the events of the day.

PLENTY OF MUTTON FROM NEW ZEALAND

Three Million Carcasses of Lamb Sent to This Continent

LONDON, June 30.—The Government's decision not to extend the purchase contract for New Zealand meat for another year was discussed by Sir Thomas Mackenzie. The High Commissioner said that he agreed with Mr. Massey's computations, for he thought that, including the meat on hand at this end, that in store in New Zealand and that afloat to this country, there would be between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 carcasses to dispose of at the end of the year. This was after allowing for the sale of 3,000,000 carcasses of lamb to America and a quarter of a million to the Continent. He also concurred in the hope Mr. Massey expressed that the home authorities would not insist on New Zealand keeping all the meat killed after June 30 until that owned by the Imperial Government was disposed of.

"We recognize," said Sir Thomas Mackenzie, "the difficulties which have been experienced by the authorities in providing shipping, but at the same time, had the Imperial Government faced the position earlier and cut their losses, the congestion would not have been nearly so great as it is.

"As for the disposal of New Zealand lamb to America, while I regret that our most delicate and choice article of food should have to go past this country, there is no doubt that the step marks the opening of what will probably prove to be a profitable market for our produce."

Sport Briefs

There will be no baseball match in the Commercial League tomorrow afternoon. Following the Dominion Day excitement regular games will be arranged for and continued until the end of the season. So far the matches held by this league have proved very interesting and have provided great sport and amusement for fans and players.

* * *

The general topic for discussion now is the possible outcome of the Callies vs. G.T.P. football game to be played on Dominion Day. The boosters are busy in both camps and it is very certain that a large crowd will greet the stripes and the blues as they come on to the field following the afternoon baseball match on Thursday.

* * *

On Friday evening the second half of the Intermediate baseball league commences, with the Beavers and the Red Sox in the initial engagement. Although no definite arrangements have been completed, it is very likely that the Red Sox and the Colts will play on the following Monday. This will be the postponed game of last Friday.

"Spud" Cummings arrived on the Grand Trunk steamer this morning from Victoria. He is the star short stop of the Rupert baseball team and augurs well for the success of the home team in the Ketchikan series tomorrow. Last week local fans thought that they had lost "Spud" for good when he left so hurriedly with the other boys from Victoria, but he was not long in changing his decision and coming north again of his own volition.

It takes Clementson to show real spirit as far as playing the game is concerned. He was told yesterday morning that there would be a baseball game that evening, so immediately after work he went up to the grounds to get things in shape. For a long time he worked all alone clearing off the diamond. A few fans staggered up but none of the ball tossers appeared. Finally "Clem" strolled down town only to find that the game had been called off. These are some of the joys of being a baseball team captain.

NEXT MONTH NEW SERVICE B.C. TO FRANCE

Pacific to be First Steamer Load On This Coast for Havre and Calais.

LONDON, June 30.—The inauguration of the North Pacific Havre-Calais Line, whose steamships will travel via the Panama Canal, will be completed next month, when the mail steamship Pacific (6,500 tons dead weight) will be loaded at Vancouver for French ports. She will be followed by the mail steamship Kron Princessan Margarite in August, and thereafter there will be regular sailings every six weeks. The new enterprise will be started by the Johnson Line of Stockholm, which has some 42 ships in commission.

Agent-General.

F. C. Wade, K.C., Agent-General for British Columbia, in speaking of this new line to a representative of the Canadian Gazette, said: "A little over a year ago it was proposed to operate this line from B. C. ports to France, and I at once notified the Provincial Government to that effect, and circularized the Boards of Trade in order that freight might be forthcoming for the new undertaking. In 1912 Henri Moreau, who was agent for the Johnson Line in French ports, started the Montreal-Calais line, which has proved a great success, and just before the war was bringing to Calais 10,000 tons of goods every month. The inauguration of the line from British Columbia ports to France has been for various reasons postponed, but it is now to become an accomplished fact. I am much interested in the enterprise, for I have been working on the Panama Conal route ever since I came to this office."

Short Route.

The distance from Liverpool to B. C., via Cape Horn, is 14,558 miles. The Panama Canal shortened the distance to 8,892 miles. Before the war it was estimated that a combined freight and passenger steamer of 8,000 tons gross register, running 14 knots and burning 100 tons of coal daily, would cost to operate about $750 a day. By using the Panama Canal the saving of such a vessel from Liverpool would be 5,666 nautical miles, that is about 17 days' steaming, or $12,750, less canal dues. At present prices the saving on every ship would be much greater.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:—

THAT one of the things that won't get you anywhere is hitching your wagon to a star. It is much better to hitch to a little gas buggy or tin Lizzie.

• • •

THAT the very essence of wisdom is to be foolish sometimes for recreation.

• • •

THAT even an all-day sucker is of some use in the world.

• • •

THAT we take our fruit canned, our vegetables canned, our fish canned and our music canned, but we sometimes forget to can the gabfest.

• • •

THAT fashionable society has been called "canned life."

• • •

THAT the man who talks too much should sometimes take time to scratch his long furry ear.

• • •

THAT hot air is all right in its place, but when too much diffused becomes quite harmless.

• • •

THAT the thief usually gives largely to charity.

• • •

THAT now we watch real democracy at work at San Francisco.

• • •

THAT if the big American conventions are the last word in democratic government, then give me a soviet or a Sultan.

• • •

THAT living is keeping in tune with the best there is in life. Discord spells death. And yet without death, life would be a weariness.

• • •

THAT jazz must be all right, else why the carnival tomorrow with the daughters as the moving spirits.

• • •

THAT the man who cannot enjoy himself tomorrow does not deserve to be a son of Canada.

• • •

THAT every man is a son of Canada who recognizes Canada as his home and tries to be a good citizen.

• • •

THAT a college degree is all right if it does not accentuate the length of the furry ears.

• • •

THAT fisherfolk are the salt of the earth. The Bible says so, even if Peter did hear the cock crow.

• • •

THAT there is something about the lonesomeness of the sea that makes for conviviality on the land.

• • •

THAT a wise old owl is the stupidest thing on earth. He is worse than a chicken.

• • •

THAT you should try to imitate your mother, said the head of the household to his daughter. "I do pa," was the reply. "The other day I heard you call her an old hen."

• • •

THAT there will be more Scotsmen in heaven than any other nationality. Why? Because salvation is free.

• • •

THAT no place would be heaven to an Irishman unless he had a chance for a scrap there.

• • •

THAT the stolid Englishman would want a game of cricket, don't you know, in any perfect life.

• • •

THAT jazz will be the order of the day tomorrow.

• • •

THAT who said merrygoround? Why every kiddie in town, to be sure.

• • •

THAT when a census of the seals is taken, will the legless animals have to answer a lot of fool questions like Canadians will next year?

• • •

THAT killing off the surplus males seems all right since seals do not have to work for a living.

• • •

THAT tomorrow should be a great day for the kiddies, and there will be plenty of old people feeling young again too.

• • •

THAT the woman who tells her troubles is the most disagreeable creature on earth, and a man with the same proclivity is just as bad, or he would be if he talked as much.

• • •

THAT if we were all as stupid as we look, this would be a dull old world.

• • •

THAT life is like Ben Self's merrygoround. It does not seem to get you anywhere and it is pleasantest when accompanied by lively music.

• • •

THAT frankness is a pleasant thing to talk about in the abstract, but hitch the quality to some person and we all suddenly find we always preferred duplicity.

• • •

THAT a lot of people would be real nice if they weren't so horribly good.

• • •

THAT this has no reference to anyone living in Prince Rupert.

• • •

THAT for one man with a perverted brain there are a dozen with perverted stomachs.

• • •

THAT there is no failure except for those who think failure. Failure is purely mental, although it sometimes follows a physical manifestation.

• • •

THAT Prince Rupert is not exactly a climate. It is a mental condition. There is danger that it may mean "a few minutes late."

LONDON UNIVERSITY PROPOSED BUILDINGS

LONDON, June 29.—The site offered by the Government to London University for a new headquarters lies on the north side of the British Museum extension and comprises over 11 acres. Central and convenient, it would afford adequate accommodation for the increasing work of the university, which is now the largest in the Kingdom. One or two objections may be urged against the position. For example, an avenue cuts it in two. This, however, should not be regarded as an insuperable barrier. Bloomsbury has the air of a university quarter, whereas other situations that could be mentioned are deprived of it.

The question has been referred to a committe for early report. An estimate of the cost of the buildings to be erected is no less than £5,000,000.

All ye lords and ladies gay,
Hear ye what I have to say.
When youre at the Carnival
Step inside our concert hall,
There you will enjoy a treat
Such as mortals seldoin meet.
Mrs. Bryant heads the bill
As an artist of rare skill.
Soft and sweet Hawaiian notes
From her ukelele floats.
A dainty maid from far Japan
Will tell the story of her fan.
Eight saucy dolls in overalls
Will sing a song of patches,
And songsters fair who will compare
With linnets in the branches.
The kiddies, too, will 'stonish you.
Picture, song, rhymes and fairy times,
So sweet that they will haunt you.
And then the fairies will trip in
And dance so light and airy.
So wet on fair,
Please all be there,
For funds are necessayry.

After taking in the fireworks at Market Place tomorrow night, bring your girl to the Sons of Canada dance in St. Andrew's Hall.

Real-Fruit Desserts The Rarest Sort

The only gelatine dessert which has fruit-juice flavors sealed in glass is Jiffy-Jell.

No artificial flavor can take the place of fruit. For Jiffy-Jell the fruit is crushed, condensed and sealed in vials. A bottle of this liquid essence comes in the package. And sugar is used—not saccharine—to sweeten Jiffy-Jell.

Jiffy-Jell comes in ten flavors. Try loganberry and pineapple for desserts. Try lime-fruit flavor for tart salad jell. Try mint for a refreshing mint jell.

On account of the large amount of snow on the hills this year the rivers have been running very high. Now the Indians report that the waters are beginning to lower and expect to get started fishing around Hagwilgaet soon.

The horse races on Dominion Day will be held in the evening, with the baseball game with Telkwa in the afternoon. The citizens will decorate all the business places and as many residences as possible in order to give the town a real holiday appearance.

STATES CONSUMES TOO MUCH SUGAR

Rationing in England Offset by Increased Consumption in United States

LONDON, June 30.—There can be no question of the serious nature of the situation which has arisen through the deficiency in the world's production of sugar and the increased consumption in America following the enforcement of Prohibition. Cuban quotations, chiefly as a result of American buying, irrespective of price, have risen to a level which would necessitate a retail charge in this country of 1s. 9d. a pound if it were not for stocks bought by the Sugar Commission before the recent phenomenal advances took place.

By the system of rationing in this country consumption has been reduced to the extent of about 700,900 tons in the year, but this economy is more than negatived by the increased demand for sugar in the United States. The world production of sugar for 1920 is estimated at 15,300,000 tons, as compared with 18,700,000 tons in 1914. The cane sugar output of Cuba for the season 1919-1920 is put at 3,780,000 tons, as against 3,950,000 tons in 1918-19. The Java figures for the same years show a fall from 1,749,000 tons to 1,335,000 tons.

Excluding Holland, Italy, and Central Europe, which are self-supporting in their sugar production, the European and American requirements for the present season may be regarded approximately as follows:

	Tons
United States	4,700,000
United Kingdom	1,200,000
France (including exports)	700,000
Switzerland	110,000
Levant	150,000
Canada	350,000
Norway	80,000
Spain	40,000
Sundries	50,000

PURE BLOOD IS SECRET OF HEALTH

The great majority of human ailments and diseases are due to impure or impoverished blood. Sometimes this cause is direct, as in eczema or skin eruptions. In other cases, such as organic diseases, the condition of the blood is the indirect cause. Among diseases such as Rheumatism, in all forms, Asthma, Bronchitis and Catarrh, Indigestion and stomach trouble, Nervous disorders, kidney and Bladder complaints, Eczema, Piles, etc., the condition of the blood is of the utmost importance.

There is nothing like herbs to restore the blood to condition. In Wonder Health Restorer, a preparation which is sold in Prince Rupert by the Prince Rupert Drug Co., is a true herbal preparation, the formula of a great Scotch herbalist, which promises real and permanent relief from these diseases. This remedy contains absolutely no alcohol or drugs. It does its work solely through the wonderful medicinal power of herb juices. It is not a patent medicine in the accepted meaning of the term. It is a herbalist's prescription which, tried for years, has produced results that are simply marvellous. It is safe, as it may be given to even a newborn babe without danger. It is sure, as the testimony of thousands of those who have used it certifies. It is in a class by itself as a remedy, as it brought relief to many who have tried drugs, hospital operations and even the service of medical specialists without avail.

Wonder Health Restorer may be secured in Prince Rupert at the Prince Rupert Drug Co. The cost of treatment is nominal, amounting to only 15 cents a day for a month's treatment. The results are beyond all price. Ask for a copy of "The Road to Health," which tells all about the remedy and gives testimonials which prove its worth beyond all question.
