(Special to The Daily News.)

London, July 14.—There is a movement afoot to construct a fleet of 10,000 aeroplanes with which to destroy Germany from the air by a continuous attack on the Krupp works, the nine bridges of the Meuse and the fifteen bridges of the Rhine.

L. D. Desbelds, lecturer on aeronautics at Woolwich Military Academy is leading the movement. He says a continuous bombardment of Germany by aeroplanes, like ants coming and going on an anthill, would hamstring Germany in one week.

Swedish Schooner Lost.

The captain and four of the crew of the Swedish schooner

Crown Prince Defeated.

Paris, July 14.—The army of the German Crown Prince has been definitely defeated in the Argonne with heavy loss.

THAW'S NINE YEARS FIGHT FOR LIBERTY

(Special to The Daily News.)

New York, July 14.—The trial to determine the sanity of Harry K. Thaw is closing. The case goes to the jury tonight. Thaw has been fighting for liberty for nine years.

LORD NORBURY "HAS TAKEN A JOB"

He is one of England's wealthiest noblemen, and is now employed in an aeroplane factory as a fitter, both to do his share and, by his example, to encourage others to go to work for their country. He runs a lathe.

ANOTHER GRAFTER MAKES RESTITUTION

Ottawa, July 12.—T. T. Birkett has made restitution to the government of the excess profit which he made on the sale of 166 binoculars to the Department of Militia, through the P. W. Ellis Co., of Toronto last fall.

This is the third restitution made since the public accounts committee started probing.

CATTLE SLAUGHTERED IN PENNSYLVANIA

(Special to The Daily News.)

PARTY OF MONTENEGRINS LEAVING FOR THE FRONT

A party of 75 Montenegrins will leave on the George tomorrow, en route for the front. Seats have been reserved for them at the Majestic Theatre and a special patriotic performance will be given.

Today, Frenchmen the world over are commemorating the birth of the French Republic, and in honor of the occasion, Mr. Couture has been asked to sing "The Marseillaise" at the Majestic tonight.

"THE SCALES OF JUSTICE" AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Westholme theatre tonight and tomorrow presents a striking Paramount five-reel attraction, entitled "The Scales of Justice." The piece is remarkable for steadily maintained interest rather than dramatic flashes. Paul McAlister, as Robert Darrow, a district attorney who resigns rather than prosecute a woman he believes innocent, is splendid right through the story, while Jane Fearley, as the woman in the case, will captivate any audience.

The staging, down to the minutest detail, is of the highest Paramount standard, while all the parts are in capable hands. The management announces that this is the finest picture ever screened in the city. The program concludes with a Vitagraph comedy entitled "The Speeder's Revenge," featuring the ever popular Wallie Van.

ANOTHER EFFORT BY RED CROSS SOCIETY

With Mrs. A. E. Wright and Mrs. W. T. Kergin in charge, the Red Cross Society will, on Friday, conduct the first of a series of "Exchange Days" at the Board of Trade rooms.

The ladies have spared no effort to make this a successful event. Home cooking and cakes and pastry will be on sale and the support and liberal patronage of the general public is confidently expected.

Cakes and "goodies" cannot be sent to the front, but they can be sent to the Exchange for Friday and the proceeds from sales will go toward helping our boys at the front.

The war is not over yet and it behooves every one of us that are comfortably situated at home to do our share whenever and however we may. Turn out on Friday and show the ladies that their efforts are appreciated.

FOOTBALL

The Drydock and the Regiment meet at Recreation Park at 7:30 tonight in a league game. The Drydock lineup is: Woods; McDuff and H. Hamilton; McAninch; A. Dixon and L. Campbell; D. Neilson, R. Jones, A. McWilliam, A. McCrote, and F. J. Winchby. Reserves: Laurie, Bainbridge and Wright.

TWO ADDITIONS TO CITY TEACHING STAFF

At a meeting of the School Board held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to appoint Mrs. Klower, of this city on the teaching staff of the school. Mrs. Klower formerly taught in Toronto schools and brings high testimonials for efficiency from that city. She has, since coming to Prince Rupert three years ago, qualified under the British Columbia regulations as a teacher for this province.

An appointment was also made of an assistant teacher for the high school. The choice made was that of Miss McLenaghan, B. A., who has been teaching for a few years in Vancouver. She is a graduate of Manitoba University, and has had a thorough training as a teacher, as well as having considerable experience in the practical work of teaching.

RUPERT'S HINTERLAND

F. S. Wright, commissioner of the Board of Trade, has returned from a visit to the Kitsumkalum and Lakelse valleys and is very optimistic regarding the future of this fertile hinterland of Prince Rupert.

FRANK SALTER WAS WOUNDED AT FESTUBERT

In a letter to E. A. Woods, Corporal Frank Salter states that he was wounded in the left hip by shrapnel at Festubert on May 18. In describing the short rushes through the open, he says that the shrapnel bullets were flying so thickly that it is a marvel that a single man escaped.

Frank had quite a round of visits after being wounded. He was first taken to Bethune; transferred to Rouen, where he underwent an operation; moved to Havre, where he remained a few days, after which he was taken to Manchester hospital. Later he went to a convalescent hospital at Somerford Park, Cheshire, and then to his home at Bath, where he spent eight days on furlough. As he was due at Canadian headquarters at Shorncliffe Camp on June 28, it is possible that he is again in the trenches.

In concluding a very interesting letter, Frank said he would like to spend a day at Metlakatla picking raspberries again.

NOTICE

Any information regarding the whereabouts of W. H. Wark, who left Prince Rupert on May 28th to join his wife and family, and has not been heard of since, will be appreciated by Mrs. W. H. Wark, P. O. Box 606, Simcoe, Ont. 163-168.

SEND-OFF TO SERBIANS AND MONTENEGRINS

The local Serbians and Montenegrins who leave tomorrow for the front, met in St. Andrew's Hall last night. They were addressed by W. E. Williams, Captain Fullerton and J. V. Rittenhouse, and a most enjoyable time was spent in singing their national airs.

J. G. Scott and W. E. Williams collected $180.50 in the city for the benefit of these men, and last night Mr. Williams asked them to say in what way they desired the money to be used. Although many of them hadn't a cent in their pockets, they decided that the money be sent to the Red Cross Societies of Serbia and Montenegro.

Serbia has suffered terribly during the war, having lost fifty per cent. of her population by typhus fever. These men who are going from here are displaying the same spirit of splendid self-sacrifice that their brothers have shown in Europe.

A SUGGESTION

It would be a splendid thing if Prince Rupert were to follow the example of Vancouver and do something in the way of providing a machine gun for the third contingent, which recently left for Vernon. Such a gun can be purchased for $1,000, so that if two thousand citizens subscribed fifty cents each the purchase can be made. The boys who left from here will likely go to the front as one company, as the others have done, and it goes without saying that nothing would delight them more than to have the handling of a machine gun bought by the citizens of Prince Rupert.

One thousand dollars seems a lot of money in these hard times, but if every one gives a little, it could easily be accomplished. The sums collected by the Daughters of the Empire and the Red Cross Society show what can be done by concentrated effort. Prince Rupert has done nobly in providing comforts for the soldiers and necessities for the wounded, but we feel certain that the citizens will welcome another opportunity of helping to defeat the enemy.

RESPONSIBILITY

The Winnipeg Free Press, in a full and careful study of election petitions and the election practice, particularly in regard to "saw-offs," refers to the difficulty and cost of working the election act. It points out the cost of getting evidence and of the difficulty in bringing it to the attention of the public. It refers to the two protests seriously entered in Manitoba, one in the Dominion election in Macdonald, where the counsel for the member admitted technical irregularities and gave up the seat, the trial at once being discontinued. The other case was in the provincial riding of Gimli, when the case was delayed until after the dissolution of parliament.

The Free Press doubts if any great improvement can be made at the present time. The suggestion that a public prosecutor be appointed who will pursue election rascality as vigorously as he would pursue other forms of crime, is not workable, because such a prosecutor would be a party appointment.

The wrong-doing, at the bottom, comes right back upon the people, who are really responsible. The Free Press concludes as follows:

"There can be no substantial improvement until there is a higher standard of morality among the people. When the unseating of representatives for corrupt practices is made legally possible and politically profitable, it will be resorted to more freely by the opposition, which is the party to whom we must look for action of this character; but as long as it is impossible to defeat a government candidate in a by-election, owing to a willingness of whole communities to sell their votes for a postoffice, or a wharf, or a grant for better roads, the time-honored practice of reaping political advantage by withdrawing election petitions instead of prosecuting them will be continued.

CAMOSUN TO RETURN TO NORTHERN RUN

The popular Camosun, of the Union Steamship Company, will be here shortly. She will leave Vancouver on July 20, arriving in Prince Rupert on Thursday, July 22, and will take in Granby, Stewart, Queen Charlotte Islands, North and South, leaving Prince Rupert southbound on Wednesday, July 28. She will be on a fortnightly schedule, making Rupert her home port in the north as she touches here four times. It is expected that Seattle will also be included in the run.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM MRS. E. A. WOODS

The following is an extract from a very interesting letter received from Mrs. Ernest A. Woods who left New York for Liverpool on the S. S. Adriatic on the 27th of last May:

"There wasn't anything very exciting happened on the way.
The second day out the captain ordered everyone to be moved into the staterooms on the upper decks, so there was no one on the level with the dining room. Having an outside room is of no benefit now for all the port holes are covered with black paper like building paper and at night are covered with dark blanket; we were not allowed to open them at all. There were no lights in the corridors at night excepting dim red lights to enable you to find your way about, and the decks were all screened off so that the lights from the library and smoke room could not be seen, or lights from men smoking. The stewards had to instruct everyone how to put on their life-belts, and they brought a small one for Doreen.
They were all laid out ready. It was really surprising to see everyone so calm and no one seemed the least bit worried. I could never have believed I could have felt so easy in my mind as I did once I was on the boat, and everyone said the same thing.
Everyone was a little anxious, of course, when we neared the Irish coast. All the lifeboats were lowered to the lower deck and we had orders to assemble in the library if anything happened to the boat. We got in the Channel about 7 p. m.

There was a concert on board that night, but Mrs. Hardy and I went to bed at 9 o'clock and slept till 12 p. m. We didn't take off our clothes or Doreen's. After that we never slept a wink for everyone was running about all night. The crew were not allowed to go to bed. McLean told me that a destroyer met the boat at 12 o'clock and signalled to her to change her course and that they got word from the Admiralty that there were six submarines waiting for us, so the captain changed his course sixty miles further south, and talk about travelling, we did go. In the morning the decks were about a quarter of an inch thick with soot and grit. It was very foggy also, so I think that was a help to us as the "subs." are of no use in a fog.

We all felt relieved when we got to the Mersey and the pilot came on board. We had beautiful weather all the way and not the least bit rough, except when we were off the Welsh coast, when it was so bitterly cold that no one could stay on deck. We docked at Liverpool at 4 p. m., but didn't get off till 6:30. We were in the dining room all that time passing the inspector. It was so tiring, he was so strict. Everyone with cameras had to unload them and hand over the films, etc, which will be returned to the owners after being developed, if they are all right. The Adriatic brought a record cargo; she was loaded down; they wouldn't allow a bit more on in New York, and it was all war material. We had 250 transport wagons alone. Her cargo was valued at $20,000,000, so no wonder the Germans wanted to get her."

- FACT HUNGER -

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance;
but before we will accept him as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—searching for facts.

We are asked to try a new food product; isn't it instinctive with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
