ALLIES ADVANCE--HEAVY FIGHTING IN ARGONNE--BRITISH TROOPS IN SERBIA

CHARLES CROWELL HAS SENT IN RESIGNATION

It will be learned with regret that Charles N. Crowell, general manager and superintendent of the drydock, has sent in his resignation to President Chamberlin, and expects to sever his connection with the G. T. P. about the first of August.

Mr. Crowell expects to go into business for himself, having secured a site and the necessary capital for the establishment of a large shipbuilding plant in the United States. Of this plant Mr. Crowell will be the designer, builder and operator, and will also hold a large interest.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Patmore left for the interior this morning.

J. V. Rittenhouse and Captain Gillingham went upriver this morning.

EN STRIKE IN SPITE OF GOVERNMENT PROCLAMATION--ALLIES ADVANCE IN DARDANELLES--HEAVY FIGHTING IN ARGONNE--ACTIVITY IN POLAND--BRITISH IN SERBIA

(Special to The Daily News.)

Cardiff, July 15.—Virtually every mine in Wales is idle today in spite of the government proclamation. It is estimated that 150,000 men are idle. They are liable, under the act, to a fine of $45.00 per day, or imprisonment.

The rank and file are obdurate though the leaders urge arbitration. The strike shuts down all the mines in the Welsh fields which have been supplying steam coal for the British navy.

Substantial Advance.

London, July 15.—Athens reports that substantial advance has been made by the Anglo-French forces on the Krithia-Tchi Babba line in the Dardanelles.

PROSPECTIVE BUSINESS FOR DRYDOCK PLANT

Charles N. Crowell, general manager and superintendent of the drydock and ship repairing plant, who returned this morning from a business trip to Vancouver and Victoria in the interests of the company, states that H. M. S. Kent, which has been anchored off Victoria for some weeks and was expected to come here for repairs, has sailed under sealed orders. However, there are one or two other vessels which the drydock will have a chance of getting, Mr. Crowell having seen the representatives thereof and placed all the facts regarding the drydock before them.

Mr. Crowell states that the admiralty officials are in full possession of all the dimensions and necessary information regarding the local plant. Mr. Crowell while in the south, also had a lengthy interview with one of the representatives of the lumber export business in Vancouver, who stated that there is a great shortage of freighting vessels, and that he expected that two or three would be built shortly, and that Prince Rupert would be given a chance to figure on these.

In regard to the manufacture of shells, Mr. Crowell not only visited the plant where these are being made, with a view to getting information and a line on any special tools which might be necessary, but also approached the secretary of the Manufacturers Association, who gave him assurances that Prince Rupert would be considered for part of the next order for shells.

Mr. Crowell reports that sawmills around Vancouver are busy, having orders booked well ahead, and states that he is making an effort toward working up a trade in yellow cedar with the various ship yards along the coast.

THIRTY MORE MEN FOR THIRD CONTINGENT

A party of about thirty men left on the Prince George this morning to join the third contingent at Vernon. Twenty-seven of these came from the interior last night. Captain Fullerton was in charge of the company, which included Cecil Brown and M. Henderson, of this city.

The Prince George was gaily decorated for the occasion, and the Serbian and Montenegrin contingent lined up on the wharf to bid their allies goodbye. The ship left amid cheers and counter cheers from the large crowd which had assembled.

THE HAPPY VALLEYS WHICH LIE BEHIND PRINCE RUPERT

F. S. WRIGHT, AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION SECRETARY, IS GREATLY IMPRESSED BY HIS RECENT VISIT TO THE INTERIOR—TERRACE AS RUPERT'S SUMMER RESORT

What's the matter with Terrace, Kitsumkalum and the Lakelse? Nothing. The first thing one notices on arrival at Terrace is the growing number of familiar faces that greet the arrival of the train. Yes: Holiday making Prince Rupertites. The Lakelse and Kitsumkalum valleys as a summer resort for Prince Rupert is a fact. It's a change from the eternal boards of Prince Rupert. A change from the rush of business and worry. Quiet? Well yes; but that is what the ones who go are looking for. But only the usual calmness of the country, not the quietude of depression. Cheap. Why go south for a holiday when you can get the same effects for one tenth of the cost? It's the place for the kiddies for the summer. Lots of things to do; berry picking by the ton; fishing; long walks over the roads; strawberry patches to crawl into, where the only requisite to get all you want is an appetite, and six hours of the Kitsumkalum air will give you that. It's a country of brown and happy faces. Try it; it's a holiday worth taking and beats the dusty south hollow.

One can spend a fortnight up there and still have something to see. People have said that there is no chance for agriculture in the north. Sceptics, who rush to conclusions, smile when the up-country farmer is mentioned, but rest assured, he is there and, what is more important, is producing, and that is more than most who decry him are doing. One can walk through farms where tobacco, corn, lettuce, cabbage, potatoes, asparagus, alfalfa, clover, wheat, speltz, barley, oats, rye, pumpkins and tomatoes are growing and doing well. There are fruit trees, which, after six short years, are bearing cherries, apples, plums, etc. There are small fruits galore, wild and cultivated. It is a great country for the drone of the bee, and where did you ever hear the bees hum except where there is bee food. There is not a bee in the country except wild ones. There is a hint for the rancher, or the man who is looking for something to pay his way while breaking the first soil. Honey is always marketable and costs practically nothing to produce.

Now as to the farmers. They are breaking and cultivating more. Clearing is not any too easy, but and more land and the exhibits at the fair this year are assured. It is a new country and the farmers are meeting with all the familiar old difficulties. Experience only, as in other places, can furnish the remedy, but that will come, and come quickly.

Clearing is not any too easy, but even under hard conditions I saw a patch which had been virgin bush in January last and now growing just as good a crop of spuds and vegetables as could be wished for. The owner has worked, and worked hard, but he has his reward. He has enough to keep him over the winter and next year's crop will leave a margin

SIR DICK'S QUANDARY

Sir Richard McBride has his eyes fixed on the political indicator. He cannot say when there will be an election, for the simple reason that the whole matter is a question of personal and party expediency. The welfare of the province is a small matter compared with the necessity of keeping the Conservative party in power by hook or by crook.

Last April seemed an opportune time to try his luck, but the boss said "No," and now the nominal leader is pretty much in the predicament of a polar bear on an ice floe which is drifting seawards. He would like to jump, but the water looks mighty cold and uninviting all around him. Sir Dick is a fair weather voyager, who can smile complacently in good times, but he heartily detests a storm. The political clouds look black and threatening in British Columbia just at present, and Sir Richard would like to get in out of the rain.

The premier would feel more comfortable in London, England, or in Ottawa, than in Victoria. Unfortunately his prospects are not very bright in either city. They have enough trouble in Ottawa already without importing any more from British Columbia, and it is evident that the post in London is still a long way off. There is only one thing to be done—to stay in Victoria meantime and stall off the evil day as long as possible.

YPRES

An old town is Ypres, whose name is figuring largely in the news. Its origin dates from back in the ninth century, and in its day it has been subjected to many sieges, all of which it has survived. For Ypres is in the cockpit of Europe and all the world knows what that means to a town. Possibly never in its history has this ancient place been subjected to such bombardment as it has suffered of late. Landmarks that have survived the centuries have been badly broken up or destroyed by the cannonading. The famous cloth hall, known as Les Halles, is in ruins, if reports are to be believed. This structure was begun in 1230 and building continued until 1342. In 1730 another big section was added to the easter end. When war broke out last August one of the wings was being used as the City Hall, other parts being occupied by various public establishments and used as concert rooms. Another fine building was the Cathedral at St. Martin, and almost as noteworthy were the churches of St. Peter, St. James and St. Nicholas. These have all suffered like the great cloth hall which was at the height of its glory in the fourteenth century, when Ypres had 200,000 inhabitants and was one of the chief manufacturing centres of Flanders. The population of Ypres gradually dwindled until it got down below the 20,000 mark. Now it is probably smaller than ever. But if the ancient town is almost in ruins the spirit of its people is still strong—stronger even than the fortifications—and that means that it will in time rise from the ashes of its present distress and be a solid community once more.—Montreal Gazette.

Prince Rupert's first cricket match was played on the Acropolis grounds on Saturday, July 3rd, between teams representing the C. G. S. "Galiano" and Prince Rupert. By courtesy of the "Galiano's" team the Prince Rupert team were put to bat first. The scores were as follows:

Coughing scatters germs —Stop it

Coughing increases the irritation of the already inflamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others. Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil promptly stops coughing, and soon, thanks to its tonic properties, effects a permanent cure. The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is specially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bronchial healer. Sold everywhere, 35c large bottles.

ON LOOKOUT FOR SUSPECTED CRAFT

From the department at Ottawa has come an order to all masters of vessels navigating the coasts of Canada, to keep a lookout for suspicious craft. The order reads as follows:

"The masters of vessels navigating Canadian waters are warned as to the necessity of keeping a sharp lookout and reporting any suspicious craft they might sight. Small fishing and coasting vessels are particularly urged to at once report any such craft to the nearest customs officer for transmission, by telegraph on the east coast, to the captain in charge, Halifax dockyard, and on the west coast to the superintendent, Esquimalt dockyard. It is not desired that any hearsay evidence should be forwarded but only definite facts."

PATRIOTIC CONCERT AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic Theatre was crowded last night, when a special patriotic program was given in honor of the company of 75 Serbians and Montenegrins who were present on the invitation of Mr. Delasala.

In addition to a splendid series of pictures, Miss Gladys Kemp danced daintily, and was heartily recalled, and Mr. Couture's singing of "La Marseillaise," and the playing of patriotic airs by the orchestra were enthusiastically cheered.

The mayor delivered an appropriate address and the program concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

SPLENDID SHOW AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Scales of Justice," a five-reel Paramount picture, showing at the Westholme Theatre, is all that the management claims for it. The setting, acting and photography are all splendid. Paul MCAhister, as Robert Darrow, an attorney, and Jane Fearley, as a young lady whose selfwill gets her into difficulties with a wealthy uncle, are the particular stars of the piece, but each part is in capable hands. One of the most pleasing features is the remarkably clever work of a cute little child actress. "The Speeder's Revenge," a most laughable Vitagraph comedy with Wally Van in his element, concludes a program which should please the most fastidious.

SENDOFF TO SERBIANS AND MONTENEGRINS

The company of Serbians and Montenegrins, numbering about seventy, paraded at Government House this morning, where they were joined by the local contingent for Vernon. Headed by the cadets, they marched to the wharf where the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. After the George sailed, the Serbians and Montenegrins lined up at the train, where they were presented with cigars and flowers by the women folk.

On the call of the mayor three hearty cheers were given, and as the train pulled out, the departing soldiers called for cheers for Prince Rupert, which were given with a will. The company reports at Montreal, whence about 30,000 of their fellow countrymen will proceed to the front. If the rest of the contingent is of the calibre of those who left this morning, the Austrians and Germans will be kept pretty busy.

of profit. Can you better it? Times are hard, and to most it is a source of worry as to what the future will bring forth. But production pays, and furnishes the worry killer; and whether you have a market for your surplus or no, you have a living assured.

The price of land is high, but there are one or two out of those who hold the land who recognize that a sod turned over by themselves as well, and are willing to meet the man who has the grit and energy to tackle the game. There is no speculation about it as far as a living is concerned. You cannot lose. They require lots of things in these valleys. They want cattle, hogs and other requisites for mixed farming, a small canning factory to take care of their surplus fruit, and so make them independent of a hazardous market. Opportunities; well they are there. For the man looking for a living and a home for his family and independence. For the small business man who can turn a little capital into something that will meet the requirements of the farmers. There is a good town, good stores and modern conveniences. All that is lacking is willing hands to help in the good work of snatching a piece more of the frontier for civilization.

Work is scarce; government work especially, and lots of people will whisper to you that probably the country is getting along better without government work. True it makes a shortage of cash, but then it keeps a man at home where he belongs on his ranch. No man can work profitably on the outside in the summer and go farming in the winter, at least not in the Lakelse and Kitsumkalum valleys, and that is the reason why there is more and more acreage under the plough. People are staying at home this year and cultivating their land.

The old question of markets is a difficult one. They look to Prince Rupert to help them in this line, and the people of Prince Rupert are going to do it. The farmers will shortly be sending down vegetables, etc., to Rupert. They ask the Rupert people to patronize their produce in preference to Seattle stuff. A dollar spent on home grown stuff means a dollar kept at home where it belongs. You housewives make your grocer supply you with home grown vegetables. Forget that there is a vegetable grown in the world outside of Northern British Columbia and help yourself and your family by helping the rancher of the north. It is easy enough to spend that dollar on your own people, instead of sending it to Yankee land.
