DAVIDSON COMMISSION DEALS GENTLY WITH PARTY PATRIOTS

COMMISSION EXPENDS ITS EFFORTS IN MARKING TIME—CLUES PROVIDED BY FRANK CARVELL ARE NOT FOLLOWED UP—A PATRIOT IMPORTED FROM NEW YORK

Ottawa, July 31.—The opinion is expressed here that the Davidson Commission expends more effort marking time than going ahead. In other words, Sir Charles is probing the old scandals unearthed by the Public Accounts Committee with commendable zeal, but is not opening up much new ground. Those who had been found out before are the chief sufferers by the inquiry.

When Frank Carvell, K. C., concluded his efforts in the Public Accounts Committee last session he was loaded up with fresh clues leading in many directions, all of which were abruptly terminated by the prorogation of Parliament. Honest citizens had written him from all over Canada suggesting graft and extortion in almost every item of military supplies. He had in hand the raw material—for a life work as Hawkshaw, the detective. The question arises now what is being done with all those footprints in the mud and thumbprints on the furniture which were passed along by Mr. Carvell. The scent was warm then, but it has had a chance to grow cold in three months.

At the time Mr. Carvell dropped the cross examination the government professed itself eager to follow the clues up and bring the offenders to justice. As Dr. Reid, with great originality put it, they would "hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may."

MURDER CASE IN PORT ESSINGTON

The body of Jack Pittman, who was stabbed by a Jap at Port Essington on Friday, was brought to town yesterday afternoon, and is now at the parlors of the B. C. Undertakers.

The coroner's inquest, which opened this morning, was adjourned, pending the arrival of witnesses on tonight's train. Deceased formerly worked at the drydock. Four Japs have been arrested in connection with the murder.

PATRIOTIC CONCERT REALIZED SUM OF $32

At the concert in aid of the machine gun fund in the Majestic Theatre on Saturday, a very fine musical program was rendered by local talent, with dancing by the Bayley sisters and special numbers by the Majestic orchestra.

Canon Rix, who presided, delivered a patriotic address.

The sum of $32.00 was realized.

One hundred and twenty young ladies will arrive tonight en route for the Frisco Fair. They will take in the ball game between the Colts and C. C.'s.

DAVIDSON COMMISSION DEALS GENTLY WITH PARTY PATRIOTS

However, the noble impulse to do right at the expense of party friends seems to have been succeeded by a statesmanlike caution which is more careful as to whether the chips fall on the Conservative side of the fence. A government may be honest, but it need not be quixotic.

At all events the Davidson Commission has about reached the spot where Mr. Carvell left off and seems disposed to remain there. The case against W. F. Garland, M. P., offered no new disclosures, the old ones being strong enough to do the business. It was necessary to confirm Premier Borden's powers of high, low and middle justice over his party followers in the House of Commons, and to that end his death sentence on Garland was carried out. The Member for Carleton was inclined to cut up nasty, but they had the goods on him and he was obliged to let go. As Mr. Garland had coughed up the plunder some months before, all the inquiry did to him was to break his clutch on the patronage of Carleton County and force him to resign. Even at that (Continued on Page Two)

THE SITUATION

There seems to be a little feeling of despondency over the evacuation of Warsaw. It certainly is not cheering news, and the report that Austrian cavalry has succeeded in cutting the Russian lines of communication with the south does not improve matters. However, the only plan is to keep a stiff upper lip, and take a long view of the situation. This war is not necessarily a matter of weeks, or months. It is something which has got to be pursued relentlessly and determinedly to the bitter end.

The Germans are making a strong fight of it, as was to be expected since they had been preparing for years. Lord Kitchener knew what Europe was up against when he stated that the war would last for at least three years. If the Russian armies can retain a solid front, the German advance need not cause any deep depression. The Russians are as confident as to the ultimate outcome as their French and British Allies are, and all are thoroughly determined that there is to be only one result.

In a war of such dimensions setbacks must be looked for, but they must only serve as incentives to us to make greater sacrifices in the cause of liberty. This is a war in protection of all that is best in the civilisation of the twentieth century. Whether the Germans advance to Moscow or to Paris or to the gateway of London, the barbarianism which they represent must and shall be utterly defeated.

The events of the past few days will lend an added solemnity to the commemoration services to be held throughout the Empire on August fourth. This is no time for a celebration, in any sense of the word.

but it is an eminently fitting occasion for every citizen to make a solemn vow that he is ready to make the last sacrifice in the name of liberty. The adoption of a measure of conscription might be a means of convincing the Allies that we are in deadly earnest, but, to red-blooded sons of Britain, all that should be necessary is that they realize that they are needed. One full-blooded volunteer is worth three half-hearted conscripts, and it should not be necessary for Britain to demand that her sons shall rally to the side of justice and freedom. This momentary German success should prove to be the strongest recruiting agency of the whole momentous year.

ANOTHER GUN

There was such a rush of subscribers to the machine gun fund on Saturday that much more than the amount aimed at could have been collected. The only plan will be to open a fund for a second gun. Probably the end of the month brought along a number of cheques which had been promised, but it is also likely that the news of the German advance in Russia helped matters considerably.

It is quite possible that enough money could be collected by Wednesday night to provide another gun, which, with the Cold Storage contribution would make three guns from the terminal of the Grand Trunk Pacific. Every machine gun subscribed for is equivalent to a draft of several hundred men. Prince Rupert is nobly doing its share in men and guns.

Mr. Garland is a conspicuous example of how a Conservative member of Parliament can survive after being publicly buried by Premier Borden. With Arthur de Witt Foster, M. P., the commission seems to have had less trouble. He is not an old hand like Garland. He is a young beginner and easily frightened. The mere announcement that the commission would visit Nova Scotia and go farther into the purchase of horses was enough to make up his mind. He resigned three weeks ago, thus implementing his interment by Premier Borden last April. One may hazard a guess that nothing more will be done to young Mr. Foster. When he gives up the ghost he gives up all that was expected of him. The moral in Mr. Foster's case seems to be—keep the vouchers.

The commission has also provided a soft spot for T. A. Birkett, of the Keystone Supply Company to fall on. It gave him a chance to restore the plunder and avoid a criminal prosecution, which was done accordingly. Birkett is famous as the man who sold

After Suffering Almost Two Years, "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Relief.

MR. WHITMAN
382 St. Valier St., Montreal.
"In 1912, I was taken suddenly ill with Acute Stomach Trouble and dropped in the street. I was treated by several physicians for nearly two years. I was in constant misery from my stomach and my weight dropped down from 225 pounds to 160 pounds. Several of my friends advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and I did so. That was eight months ago. I began to improve almost with the first dose. No other medicine I ever used acted so pleasantly and quickly as 'Fruit-a-tives', and by using it I recovered from the distressing Stomach Trouble, and all pain and Constipation and misery were cured. I completely recovered by the use of 'Fruit-a-tives' and now I weigh 208 pounds. I cannot praise 'Fruit-a-tives' enough."

eighteen-dollar binoculars to the government for an average price of fifty-eight dollars. The government acquires merit with the public for having abstained from doing any more business with the Keystone Supply Company since Birkett put that one over. Incidentally, the patriot, Ellis, appeared once again before the commission and explained how he was paid ten per cent. right off the top to break the ring, and prevent men like Birkett milking the market. Ellis explained that he took Birkett's word for it and neglected to demand the original invoices for the binoculars. All of which goes to show that even a Sam Hughes patriot can be ten per cent. careless about these little matters.

The commission has demonstrated the fact that second thoughts are best. For example Honorary Major Thomas Russell, having had a long time to think it over, appears with a revised version of the motor purchases which puts him in a far better light. It seems that he paid the catalogue price for motor trucks because he didn't want the Germans to get on to the fact he was violating neutrality and putting President Wilson in wrong by purchasing in the United States. What's more, Major Russell gave his services for nothing and often "wonders why he did it." In which respect he is not alone—the auditor-general also wonders.

On the other hand Honorary Major Thomas, an imported patriot from New York, has been obliged to tune himself down. At the Public Accounts Committee he took credit for saving Canada $120,000 on motor purchases for the first contingent. It transpires now that what he meant was that he could have saved that much money on the prices paid by Major Russell if he had bought as many motors as Major Russell did. This hypothesis involves a difference of $100,000, but does not interfere with Major Thomas' claim that when you want to save money you've got to bring a man from New York to do it. The Major, according to his own evidence gave up a $25,000 job in New York to come over and save money for Canada. He also "wonders why he did it." Perhaps the Major ceases to wonder when he looks at his contract. He gets one and a half per cent on all motor purchases, repairs and renewals, which ought to be considerably better than $25,000 a year if he attends to business.

The Commission opened up one new field—oats. But not enough to hurt. The fresh fact disclosed was that R. H. Pringle, son of R. Pringle, K. C., ex-M. P., was a tenderer for oats, but not a seller to the Militia Department. Mr. Pringle is not a farmer. He does not grow oats. He is, perhaps, even ignorant of the fact that barley has whiskers and oats have not. But that did not prevent the government inviting him to tender for the oats. Most citizens have sown oats by one hand or another at a younger period of their lives, while other citizens have felt their oats, so that gives them a technical knowledge of the subject and enables the government to select a number of good Conservative as oat merchants to the Crown. The least you can do for a friend is to ask him to make a hearty oat meal, as it were, at the country's expense. Mr. Pringle seems to have been too moderate in his demands. Other tenderers, who were similarly invited, charged the government thirty-three and one third per cent more per bushel than oats were selling for to private customers. The only reason Mr. Pringle could have been turned down was that he didn't bid high enough.—H. F. Gadsby.

The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is especially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bronchial healer.

RECRUITS WANTED FOR 32nd OVERSEAS BATTALION, CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE.

RECRUITING OFFICE AT PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT OFFICE NOW OPEN.

In view of the recruiting which is in progress at present throughout the Province, it is apropos to answer a few of the questions which are considered by those who contemplate entering the Service. The following is a list of pertinent queries, together with the information which each elicits.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

1.—How long am I to serve? Until the end of the war and six months after if required.

2.—What pay shall I receive? Your pay as a private will be $1.00 per day and 10 cents field allowance. Besides this you will be clothed, equipped and subsisted by the Government.

3.—What will my wife receive during my absence? Every month there will be paid her a separation allowance of $20 (also part of your pay) and if this be not enough to comfortably maintain your family, the Canadian Patriotic Fund will further assist them.

4.—What will happen if I am wounded or sick? You will be cared for by the Government and your pay continued until you are discharged. If you are permanently disabled an allowance will be paid you, varying according to the extent of your injury or disability.

5.—What will be done for my wife and children if I die while on Active Service? The Government will provide an adequate pension, that will enable the family to live comfortably until the children are old enough to look after themselves. The widowed mother of a single man, if the son be her sole support, is treated in the same way as a wife.
