CITY STRUCK BY CYCLONE OF FEMINITY

A regular cyclone of femininity struck the city about eight last night, when nine carloads of young ladies arrived from the east. There were 93 of them, accompanied by chaperones and a few railroad officials. These young ladies were successful competitors in popularity competitions conducted by the Montreal Herald, Boston Journal, Halifax Herald, London Advertiser, Detroit Journal, Winnipeg Telegram, Calgary Herald, Edmonton Journal and Manchester (Mass.) Times, and were on their way to the Panama Exposition in San Francisco.

All were loud in their praise of the scenery along the G. T. P., and the courtesy shown them by the railroad officials. Landing in Prince Rupert under ideal weather conditions, the visitors made a regular raid on the city, and no tourists ever saw so much of the terminal city in two hours as these young ladies did between eight and ten o'clock last night. Representatives of the various papers are with the party and are sending home stories of the trip as they go along.

At the wharf this morning a large gathering of citizens wished them bon voyage. The following is a list of the names of the party:

Boston—Marion Story, Grace Graham, Louise R. Parrot, Velma Millay, Elsie Vogel, Gladys S. Rodd, Mrs. Martin Moeckel, Mrs. R. Thane, Pauline Franjaten, Eleanor Franjaten, Dr. and Mrs. Mott, Ethel Bloot Ingraham, Jessie McCaddoo, Clara E. Wiley, Rose Cassassa, Mary J. Chaney, Jeannette Kerstine, Harriet Kerstine, Mae McIntosh, Ruth Wheeler, Alice Goode, Sadie H. Kellar and Lillian A. Kellar.

PREMIER OF ALBERTA ARRIVED LAST NIGHT

There arrived on last night's train the Hon. A. L. Sifton, premier of Alberta, accompanied by Mrs. Sifton, on his way to San Francisco Exposition. The premier states that crop prospects in Alberta are splendid, as the weather conditions are now ideal. He looks for a general improvement in conditions throughout the country, as the grain crop is almost certain to be a bumper.

Edmonton is looking for big developments from the opening up of the Peace River country, and even now is showing signs of picking up. Mr. Sifton is convinced that Peace River Crossing is destined to be an important centre once the Edmonton-Dunvegan railroad is completed.

WELL KNOWN MINER ARRIVES FROM INTERIOR

James Cronin, one of the best known mining men in the Northwest, arrived from the interior last night. He is working a silver-lead proposition 25 miles from Smithers in the Babine mountains.

Mr. Cronin has twelve men on the work, and, judging by the time and money this mining man is devoting to it, there must be indications of something real good to follow.

CATHOLIC CLUB TEAM AGAIN DEFEATS COLTS

In one of the best games of the season, the Catholic Club defeated the Colts by 12 runs to 11 at Recreation Park last night. For the Colts, Hunter was in the box with Sundesburg behind the bat. Babe Fortin pitched for the C. C.'s while Hannifin caught.

The scores ran along equally most of the time, and it was only in the ninth that the C. C.'s snatched the odd run and the game.

WINTERING CITY'S UNEMPLOYED HORSES

The board of works reported to the city council last night that Mr. Lindsay was willing to winter the four unemployed city horses for $10.00 per month on his ranch, and that the freight of $56.00 would be shared by Mr. Lindsay as he would be shipping two horses of his own at the same time.

City Clerk Woods reported that he had an enquiry regarding one team from Mr. Meagher of Skeena Crossing, and had quoted $300 for one team, and $100 and $90 for the single horses. The report was laid on the table pending a reply from Mr. Meagher.

BOWSER'S SPEECH

The Hon. W. J. Bowser devoted most of the time at his disposal on Thursday night to personal attacks on Moses Cotsworth and the Rev. A. E. Cooke, in an endeavor to show that "The Crisis in British Columbia" was a purely party pamphlet issued for party purposes. The attorney-general spent a great deal of time in trying to prove that Moses Cotsworth was himself a land grabber of the deepest dye. What Moses Cotsworth was, or is, is of little consequence to the people of British Columbia. The fact that the pot calls the kettle black, does not lessen the blackness of the pot. It would be just as logical for the attorney-general to tell the Dominion Trust depositors that they were lucky to get off with their lives, as men had been known to be shot as well as robbed.

There is no denying the fact that Bowser made a clever speech. The occasion demanded it. At the same time he did not clear the McBride-Bowser government of the charge of disposing of the land resources of the province. He did the only thing a clever lawyer could do in the circumstances, he pointed out how the government had succeeded as a real estate firm. He took credit for the fact that the government had realized huge sums and could still claim the land, but he omitted to mention the fact that speculators who owe $13,000,000 to the government had been protected by special legislation so that they might not lose their holdings.

He covered the whole miserable business by drawing a picture of the land gambling period in the province, in order to gloss over the fact that the genuine farmer has been land starved, in order that the speculator might reap unearned increment. The fact that the speculator has fallen on evil times, so far as selling land is concerned, is no credit to the McBride government.

After all the ridicule, satire, and personal abuse is taken out of the attorney-general's speech, the central fact remains, that the best land of the province is still held by the speculator, and that the government will not enforce him to give it up. All the satire the attorney-general may pour on the head of Moses Cotsworth will not alter this fact.

Before the warrant was issued for his arrest, Sir Rodmond Roblin could have achieved in Winnipeg exactly the same result that Bowser did in Vancouver. Before a packed house of his party supporters, he could have heaped ridicule and abuse upon his opponents, and they would have cheered him to the echo. Up to the last moment the Manitoba government sought to appear white by blackguarding the opposition, but that line of argument failed at the finish, as is must also fail in British Columbia.

The Province editorially handles the attorney-general's speech very gingerly, concluding as follows:

"While to some extent the meeting was occupied with a defence of the policy and administration of the government it was evidently not considered the occasion for any attempt at the enunciation of those broad and constructive principles of statesmanship on which the stability of any government must ultimately depend, and of which British Columbia seems rather badly in need."

BELLA BELLA INDIANS EARN BIG BOUNTIES

News reaches us from Bella Bella that two Indians, Lorne Williams and John Wooten, have returned from an expedition to the southern point of Calvert Island, situated near the mouth of Rivers Inlet. Their activities were directed against the sea lions which in the late years have proved so destructive to the salmon industry on that part of the coast.

The Dominion government has found it necessary to offer a bounty of $2 each for the destruction of this pest. And these two Indians have certainly scored in their campaign against this foe of the salmon, as they killed no less than 1,600 of them. They are good-sized beasts, weighing as high as 1,000 pounds. The number of those killed were about evenly divided between young and full grown. The bodies are not utilized for any purpose whatever, which seems like a great

FRANCE READY FOR WINTER CAMPAIGN

Paris, Aug. 3.—France is fully prepared for a winter campaign.

It is understood General Joffre is unwilling to force a decisive battle, on the ground that Germany must give way under long drawn-out pressure, and by such tactics he can save France many thousands of men. He is said to be an exponent of defeating Germany by attrition, no matter how long it takes. France and her allies being in a better position to play a waiting game than the central European powers.

The drydock is now ready for business. The steel work is finished, and all that remains to be done is a little painting and the straightening up of the yards.

RECRUITING OFFICE AT PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT OFFICE NOW OPEN.

In view of the recruiting which is in progress at present throughout the Province, it is apropos to answer a few of the questions which are considered by those who contemplate entering the Service. The following is a list of pertinent queries, together with the information which each elicits.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

1.—How long am I to serve? Until the end of the war and six months after if required.

2.—What pay shall I receive? Your pay as a private will be $1.00 per day and 10 cents field allowance. Besides this you will be clothed, equipped and subsisted by the Government.

3.—What will my wife receive during my absence? Every month there will be paid her a separation allowance of $20 (also part of your pay) and if this be not enough to comfortably maintain your family, the Canadian Patriotic Fund will further assist them.

4.—What will happen if I am wounded or sick? You will be cared for by the Government and your pay continued until you are discharged. If you are permanently disabled an allowance will be paid you, varying according to the extent of your injury or disability.

5.—What will be done for my wife and children if I die while on Active Service? The Government will provide an adequate pension, that will enable the family to live comfortably until the children are old enough to look after themselves. The widowed mother of a single man, if the son be her sole support, is treated in the same way as a wife.
