HOW ENGLISH WOMEN HELP

Upper picture shows Viscountess Supplin seated at her desk "enlisting" women volunteer workers for manufacturing war munitions, after the monster parade in London in which 50,000 women participated. WASHINGTON INVITES AN EXPLANATION FROM BERLIN

NO TRUTH IN RUMORS REGARDING THE BOVIC AND LAPLAND —CYMRIC ARRIVES SAFELY AT NEW YORK, CONVOYED BY WARSHIPS FROM LIVERPOOL TO BAY OF BISCAY

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, August 21.—Ambassador Gerard has been directed to call the attention of the Berlin government to the sinking of the Arabic, with the loss of American lives, and to invite an explanation.

Cymric Arrives.

New York, August 21.—There is no truth in the rumors that the White Star liner Bovic and the Red Star liner Lapland have been torpedoed. Passengers who arrived today on the Cymric state that the vessel was convoyed by relays of warships from Liverpool to the Bay of Biscay, where a submarine was lurking, until she was thirty-six hours out to sea.

TRUST DIVIDENDS PAID OUT OF TRUST FUNDS

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, August 21.—The liquidator of the Dominion Trust Company has filed a list of contributions demanding the sum of $1,300,000. He alleges that over $600,000 was wrongly credited to numerous shareholders, and demands the return of $465,000 paid out in dividends, from trust funds, to 4,147 shareholders during the past two years.

CROWDED HOUSE AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic was packed to overflowing last night when, in addition to a splendid six-reel picture show, Billy Woodworth, Cy Confer and Andy Anderson provided a first rate vaudeville entertainment. Their various numbers were heartily applauded and the artists were equal to all the "requests" of the audience.

The daring voyagers will give an entire change of program to-night and there is sure to be another crowded house.

REAL GOOD SHOW AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Westholme has a real good show tonight. "Identification" is a splendid two-reel Kalem drama, featuring Helen Holmes, while "Slippery Slim, Diplomat," is a laughter-provoking comedy. "For Better, But Worse" is a Keystone comedy of the rollicking order. The Hearst-Selig Gazette is up-to-date and interesting.

On Wednesday and Thursday Florence Reed will be the star in "The Dancing Girl."

FISHERMAN DROWNED IN SKEENA RIVER

William McNeill, of the Oceanic cannery, was drowned in the Skeena early this week. He was well known on this coast, where he has lived for some years. His body has not been recovered.

The accident happened on Monday about ten o'clock in the forenoon. McNeill, who was a fisherman at the Oceanic cannery, was taken out with the tug along with other fishing boats on Monday morning. The day was perfectly calm and not a ripple on the water.

After being towed to the limit of the fishing grounds in the river, he decided that he would drift down to a point off the Cassiar cannery.

He had something to eat and was cleaning up the dishes when the accident occurred. While dipping a vessel into the river, to get some water to clean up with apparently, he was noticed from the Claxton cannery by a Jap to fall over into the river. There was no one else on board the boat but Mr. McNeill, and he at once became separated from the boat and before any help could get to him he had sunk beneath the water. Paddy Sullivan went out and brought the boat in.

NO CANADIANS ON THE ROYAL EDWARD

Ottawa, August 20.—The rumor that a number of Canadian doctors and nurses were among those who went down with the Royal Edward is given a denial by Major General Sam Hughes, who this morning sent the following cable from London:

"General Guy Carleton Jones assures me after investigation that there were no Canadian doctors or nurses on the Royal Edward."

A cable message was received this morning by the government from the British Admiralty stating that so far as known there were no Canadians on board the troopship Royal Edward, which was sunk on Saturday last in the Aegean Sea.

SASKATCHEWAN GOVT. WANTS NO HARVESTERS

City Clerk Woods was advised by the G. T. P. this morning that the Saskatchewan government has notified them that they have already more men for the harvest than they anticipated, and, therefore, the government does not find it necessary to send delegates to Prince Rupert nor does it intend to apply to the railroad companies for special rates.

In view of the fact that 188 men had enrolled for harvesting work, there is a good deal of disappointment amongst the unemployed in the city. The city council intends to follow this matter up, as men are still being sent from Vancouver to Saskatchewan.

HOW PRUSSIANS LOOTED PARIS AFTER WATERLOO

The following interesting letter was recently received and published by the editor of the London Morning Post:

Dear Sir:—

Being engaged in the compilation of an important family history, I have recently come across a number of original and unpublished letters, written by Sir Robert Peel, when secretary of the Irish office, to Lord Whitworth, when he was Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Some three weeks after the battle of Waterloo Sir Robert Peel, with two other members of Parliament, went over to Paris to see the Allies march in, and the following extract is from a letter entirely in his writing, dated at Paris July 15th, 1815.

Dear Lord Whitworth:—As I owe my trip to Paris in great measure to the kindness and readiness with which you dispensed with my services in Ireland, it is but just that I should give you some account of my proceedings. Croke, Fitzgerald and myself left town on Saturday morning last, the 8th inst. Paris is surrounded by the troops of

HUGE PROHIBITION CONVENTION PLANNED

(Special to The Daily News)

Vancouver, Aug. 21.—A great prohibition convention has been planned to be held in the skating rink on Wednesday and Thursday.

Organizer Glass reported to the committee that seventeen hotelmen and barkeepers sat in boxes at his Prince Rupert meeting. Afterwards he was visited at his hotel by a lady from the red light district who professed to be interested in prohibition. The lady disappeared when he insisted upon seeing her in the public sitting room of the hotel.

THE CATHOLIC CLUB WINS BASEBALL CUP

In an exciting game of baseball last night, the C. C.'s defeated the Colts by the score of 9 to 6, thereby winning the baseball cup offered to the team winning the most games two seasons out of three. The C. C.'s were determined to win last night and end the struggle for the cup, and McAlenan's Colts were equally determined that all the games would have to be played before the result would be known.

The teams played evenly until the fifth inning when the Colts manager thought it advisable to take Hunter out of the box, but was unable to find another man to stem the tide, the final score being 9 to 6. The C. C.'s have played consistently throughout the season and have never stopped fighting until the last man had been caught out. The Colts have always played a clean game of ball, but in playing many new men, lacked the team work.

ACTION WANTED

It is significant that the White Star liner Arabic was torpedoed while outbound for New York. In the past Germany has sought to find excuse for her submarine piracy in the fact that she was combatting the importing of munitions by the Allies, but in this case she can only claim that she was attacking a ship which had been carrying munitions.

Germany tells the truth in actions, not words. Her diplomats are past-masters in the use of the diplomatic truth, but no smooth language will be of any use in convincing President Wilson that Berlin cares a straw what America thinks or feels. There is only one interpretation to be put upon this latest dastardly act—that Germany has no intention of heeding American or any other protests. She has made up her mind to defy the world, and the civilized world must treat her exactly as the authorities would treat a dangerous lunatic. The time for words between Washington and Berlin is over, and the situation demands instant action. For America to waste further time in speech, is akin to a constable reading the riot act to a mad dog, which is tearing up everything in sight.

WINTER CAMPAIGN

According to Berlin, the Germans are continuing their victorious career in Russia. Petrograd says 1915 or nothing in the matter. In the past the greatest foe to an invader of Russia has been the climate in winter. The German line is extending, and with it the risk of having to keep a huge German army, on a lengthy front, during a Russian winter, is growing. Winter is drawing near, and an invading army entrenched in Russia with many feet of snow on the ground and the thermometer around zero, will not worry the defenders very much.

Doubtless the Germans intend to spend Christmas in Petrograd, but their disappointment is certain to be that of last Christmas, when they figured on having a great time in Paris. The Russians are just as well off as they have been, and Von Hindenburg is liable to have mighty cold feet before he sees Berlin again. During the coming winter, the German armies in Russia will be practically in the position of an invading force fighting the snow and frost of the Canadian prairies. Big guns and millions of men will make a poor showing against the silent, relentless King Frost.

AMERICAN MEDIOCRITY

America just now provides the greatest exhibit the world has ever seen of successful mediocrity.

There are no contented poor on this side of the Atlantic except in the backwaters of the East. There is no single class content to recognize the intellectual or mental superiority of the rest. Every one is pushing onward and upward. The poor man, as we are told every day, may be rich tomorrow; the ignorant goes to night school and will learn; the drummer hopes to run the business for which he is travelling; the hired man will own land as good as that he plows; the clerk will be a partner in the firm. Even in the universities no institutions like the fellowship of Oxford and Cambridge can exist. In America not even the scholar is willing to stop at such a position. He must go on—or try to go on—as far as the rest. Never before has a nation exhibited so complete a spectacle of millions of insects all swarming upward toward the light.

This view may be optimism. I do not think so. For in 900 cases out of 1,000 the goal of all this striving is mediocrity.

HOW PRUSSAINS LOOTED PARIS AFTER WATERLOO

The Allies, and nothing could be more interesting than the present situation of it. The streets are crowded with officers and soldiers of all nations. The English are great favorites, the Prussians being held in the greatest detestation; if they had entered Paris alone, or if the Crowned Heads had delayed their entry, they (the Prussians) would probably have pillaged Paris; they have taken some pictures from the Louvre. They have demanded the payment of 100,000,000 of francs from the city and at this moment there are Prussian guards in the house of Penguax and some of the other principal bankers, who are held as a sort of hostage for the payment of the contribution.

We drove today to the depot d'Artilleries. We were told by the sentry that we were welcome to see the salon, but that the Prussians had removed everything which it contained—the sword of Joan of Arc, the knife of Ravallac, Turenne's sword. I

Your son nowadays does not hope to be president. He climbs toward a much lower round in the ladder. The laborer wishes to reach the middle class. The middle class wishes to be richer. The upper class—if we have one—hopes to make sure of its perch.—Henry Seidel Canby, in Harper's Magazine am sorry for this, not on account of the mortification which it will inflict on French vanity, but because I fear the return of the King will be less popular than it would have been if he could have preserved entire at least these national monuments and relics, which are exclusively French.

We paid a visit to Denon the other day. He had some Prussians quartered upon him and was very loud in his exclamations against the bete feroc, as he called Blucher.... And believe me to remain, dear Lord Whitworth, yours most truly,

ROBERT PEEL.

I think at the present time it would be of interest to publish the opinion of the great Robert Peel upon the Prussians of 100 years ago, their behaviour during the present war showing that they have not only not advanced in their civilization, but have retrograded.

Yours truly, etc.,

POPULAR GERMAN POSTCARD—Picture is of a postcard common in Germany, showing the torpedo striking the Lusitania. Germans delight in keeping before them the horrible results of their dastardly means of warfare.

HARRY LAUDER'S RULES FOR SAVING MONEY

After aiding in recruiting, after sending his only son to the colors, after nursing him of wounds so he might quickly return to the trenches, Harry Lauder put $50,000 of his savings into the newest British war loan, saying: "I am proud today that I am 'mean', as some say, for I have been able to lay my little bit of money out to fight the Germans—and get paid for doing it, too. Yes, 4 1-2 per cent. for fighting the Germans."

You Should Worry If

it were difficult to find a safe and reliable remedy for the ailments due to irregular or defective action of the stomach, liver or bowels. These ailments are likely to attack anyone; likely, too, to lead to worse sickness if not relieved.

His maxims on thrift, once quoted only in raillery, are today circulating in Britain because of the solemn need for economy. "Mither wadna waste, and I should be disgracing her memory if I wasted," is his explanation of his habit, and here are the rules he went by:

1. Behave towards your purse as you would to your best friend.
2. View the reckless money spender as a criminal, and shun his company.
3. Dress neatly, not lavishly. A bank pays a higher rate of interest than your back.
4. Take your amusements judiciously. You would enjoy them better.
5. Don't throw away your crusts; eat them. They are as strengthening as beef.

Your King and Country Need You

RECRUITS WANTED FOR 62nd OVERSEAS BATTALION, CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE.

RECRUITING OFFICE AT PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT OFFICE NOW OPEN.

In view of the recruiting which is in progress at present throughout the Province, it is apropos to answer a few of the questions which are considered by those who contemplate entering the Service. The following is a list of pertinent queries, together with the information which each elicits.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

1.—How long am I to serve? Until the end of the war and six months after if required.

2.—What pay shall I receive? Your pay as a private will be $1.00 per day and 10 cents field allowance. Besides this you will be clothed, equipped and subsisted by the Government.

3.—What will my wife receive during my absence? Every month there will be paid her a separation allowance of $20 (also part of your pay) and if this be not enough to comfortably maintain your family, the Canadian Patriotic Fund will further assist them.

4.—What will happen if I am wounded or sick? You will be cared for by the Government and your pay continued until you are discharged. If you are permanently disabled an allowance will be paid you, varying according to the extent of your injury or disability.

5.—What will be done for my wife and children if I die while on Active Service? The Government will provide an adequate pension, that will enable the family to live comfortably until the children are old enough to look after themselves. The widowed mother of a single man, if the son be her sole support, is treated in the same way as a wife.

Sunlight Soap

cuts Monday's labor clean in half.

The Sunlight way is so easy—just note. First you soap the garment; then roll it up to soak. After a while you rinse it thoroughly and the dirt drops out like magic.

Why scrub, and rub, and wear and tear the clothes when the gentle strength of Sunlight Soap will do the work with never a hurt to fabric or hands.

Try it once—
this Sunlight way.

The Housekeeper is Right

Sometimes a housekeeper requires a quick leavening agent, and finds she has no baking powder.

What does she do?

She raises her biscuit by a mixture of cream of tartar and soda, or soda and sour milk. She may not get the proportions quite right, but she knows her food is safe. But does she ever use a mixture of alum and soda? Was there ever a housekeeper who bought alum and soda to make a home made baking powder? Intuitively she feels it would be unsafe.

Then why use baking powder made from alum or the same mixture that the housekeeper would not dare to eat and use in her food?

Alum is alum, whether bought in the drug store or in baking powder.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

is made from pure cream of tartar and contains no alum, lime or phosphate. There is absolute safety in its use.
