FIFTY-FOUR GERMAN SUBMARINES LOST OR CAPTURED

GERMAN SUBMARINE FLEET PRACTICALLY SWEEPED FROM THE SEAS—CAMPAIGN ABANDONED OF NECESSITY—AMERICAN LUMBER SCHOONER TORPEDOED OFF IRELAND

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, Sept. 4.—The chief reason why the Germans are preparing to abandon their submarine warfare is the heavy losses sustained. It is authoritatively stated that 54 German submarines have been lost or captured. A naval banquet in England recently, celebrated the destruction of the 50th German submarine.

Swept From the Seas.

Washington, Sept. 4.—General Sir John French, in a letter to an intimate friend three weeks ago, tells of the destruction of 42 German submarines by the British alone.

German submarine strength last fall was only 36. It is believed that the German submarines have been practically swept from the seas, including nine super-submarines launched since July, 1914.

Schooner Sunk.

London, Sept. 4.—The American lumber schooner W. T. Lewis of San Francisco, has been submarined off Queenstown, but is still afloat. She had a lumber cargo from Everett, Wash., to Sheerness.

FRENCH SPORTING CELEBRITIES FIGHT ENEMY IN AIR

This photograph was taken at a French aero base in Northern France. The figure on the left is George Carpentier, the famous boxer, and next to him is Somos, French champion cyclist. Somos had brought down a German aviator in an exciting aerial battle just before the photograph was taken.

RUSSIAN RETREAT DESCRIBED MASTERPIECE OF STRATEGY

AUSTRIAN OFFICER DESCRIBES IT AS TERRIFYING—GERMANS FACE SEA OF FLAME—VILLAGES BURNED—ROADS BADLY CUT UP—VIOLENT ARTILLERY DUELS IN WEST

(Special to The Daily News.)

Geneva, Sept. 4.—In a letter, an Austrian officer describes the Russian retreat as a masterpiece of strategy, terrifying in its systematic destruction of anything that would tend to aid the invader in the very slightest degree, recalling the great retreat before Napoleon in 1812, when the "little corporal's" great army was lured to death and destruction in the heart of Russia.

There is an immense sea of flame behind the retreating army, and the Germans have been delayed for hours being unable to pass through the burning village of Krylow. Every village of the Volynska plains is in flames. The Austro-German troops have been without shelter for days, and the roads are badly cut up.

Artillery Exchanges.

Paris, Sept. 4.—Violent artillery exchanges are proceeding along the French line from north of Arras to the Aisne.

Roi Barnes, with ticket 95, won the 20 acres of Florida land raffled by L. Methot, in the Majestic Theatre last night.

FIVE LITTLE GIRLS PERISH IN FRISCO FIRE

(Special to The Daily News.)

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—Five little girls perished in a fire this morning which destroyed the St. Francis Girls Dormitory. The heroism of Sister Mary Agnes saved 52 children and six blind adults from death in the fire. Two of the little girls, Elizabeth and Katie O'Brien have been identified.

THREE FIGHTING PARSONS AND BROTHERS

London, Sept. 3.—Three brothers, all Anglican clergymen in Canada, who originally went from Leeds, are returning to serve with the forces. They are Rev. George Turned, Medicine Hat, Alta.; Rev. John Turner, formerly of Manyberry, Alta., and now in the Fifth battalion, and Rev. Thomas Turner, of Southern Alberta, formerly of Exeter, England. Mrs. George Turner, a nurse, formerly of Leeds, is also returning for army medical work.

RUSSIAN VISITORS HAVE BUSY TIME

His Excellency Gregory Wilenkin, representative of the Russian Minister of Finance, arrived on the Prince George this morning, accompanied by his son, Mr. Clarence Wilenkin. Mr. Mitchell Albert met the party in Vancouver and travelled north with them.

Having only three hours at their disposal, the visitors wasted no time. Accompanied by Mr. Albert and Mr. J. H. Pillsbury, they made a tour of the harbor, visiting the drydock, the cold storage plant, and Prince Rupert cannery. On their return to the wharf, about 9:30, they were met by the Mayor, Wm. Manson, Geo. R. Naden, D. G. Stewart and W. C. C. Mehan. His Excellency expressed great interest in the drydock and harbor. Enquiring as to the distance between this port and Vladivostok, the Board of Trade representatives informed him that Prince Rupert is nearly 500 miles nearer the Siberian port than Vancouver is. He expressed the opinion that a great shipping business must naturally spring up between the two points.

The feature which struck him most forcibly is the fact that this port is never at any time ice-bound, being so far north he had evidently thought of it as a summer port only. Though purely a financial agent of the Russian government, he was sufficiently interested in the commercial possibilities of this district to promise that he would place the facts he had gathered, in the proper quarter.

After an auto trip around the city, the party left for the east on the train, in the car Canada, which has been placed at their disposal by the G. T. P.

Mr. Clarence Wilenkin is a typical young Cambridge undergraduate, and might be taken anywhere for a bright young Englishman. He was particularly impressed with the visit to the cannery, being amazed at the despatch with which salmon are cut up, cleaned, cooked and packed for shipment.

CITIZENS EXTEND HEARTY WELCOME TO ARTHUR NOBLE

EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD TURNS OUT TO GREET THE RETURNED SOLDIER—BATTLE-SCARRED VETERAN LOOKS FIT AND WELL—EVERY MAN IS NEEDED AT THE FRONT

W. Arthur Noble, the first of Prince Rupert's worthy sons to return from the battlefields of Europe, arrived on last night's train, and was given a right royal reception. Practically every man, woman and child in Prince Rupert was at the depot when the train drew up. On leaving the car, Art was met by the mayor, Wm. Manson, M. E. A., and Major J. T. McMullin. Amid cheers all along the platform, the party made its way to Middy Fortier's automobile which was decorated with the flags of the Allies. Bronzed, lean and very fit looking, Art stopped every yard to shake the hand of some old friend, and to receive hearty congratulations on his safe return.

Rule Britannia.

Amid the singing of "Rule Britannia," the party took their seats in the car, and the parade, headed by the Cadet Bugle Band, a pipe band, the Irish Fusiliers and the 68th Earl Grey's Own Rifles, started towards the government building, where a large crowd had already congregated.

Welcome Back.

In the name of the citizens of Prince Rupert, Mayor Newton expressed great pleasure in seeing Mr. Noble again in our midst looking well, though bearing the scars of battle. He assured Mr. Noble that, since the first contingent left this city last November, the thoughts of citizens had ever been with them. "We all realize, to a certain extent, what you and your brave comrades have gone through, and it is with pride that we welcome you back to this city. We have the greatest admiration for the way in which you and your comrades have upheld the traditions of the British Empire, and have brought great credit to the Dominion and to the city of Prince Rupert. We are all proud to welcome you back to our midst, though we regret that you bear the scars of the fight. The citizens will always remember that you and the heroes who follow you back to our shores have 'done your bit.'

"When the boys left we told them that when they returned we would greet them, thank them and kiss them. I have tried, in the name of the citizens, to carry out the first two and I now leave it to the ladies to attend to the third part of the program, and I am sure you will find it more pleasant than facing the guns of the enemy."

On the call of the mayor, three hearty cheers and a tiger were given for Mr. Noble.

Art Noble Replies.

Mr. Noble, in reply, thanked the citizens for the warm welcome extended to him. He said he was proud to have been a member of the Canadian Expeditionary Force "The boys have shown themselves to be good soldiers, and General Anderson, after the desperate battle of Ypres, in which the Canadians certainly saved the situation, said that nothing gave him more pride than the narrow red band he carried on his arm signifying that he commanded the First Canadian Expeditionary Force. Though none of the Prince Rupert boys were fortunate enough to take part in that fight, they had their share in the fierce fighting at Festubert from May 15th to May 25th. The fact that 75 per cent. of them figured on the casualty lists in that fighting showed that they had done their share."

More Men Wanted.

Mr. Noble said that he hoped

Vancouver, Sept. 4.—The B. C. E. R. employees have agreed to accept the amended agreement by a large vote, so that all danger of a street railway strike is now over.

SPLENDID PROGRAM AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Westholme tonight has a splendid program of drama, comedy and interesting news items. "From Champion to Tramp" is a two-reel drama which depicts the defeat of a champion runner through the crooked work of an opponent, and goes on to show how, when the ex-champion has been reduced to the tramp stage, he gets an opportunity to square accounts with his old enemy. It is a thrilling story, splendidly told.

"The Face of Fear," the second installment of the serial which began last week, is one of the greatest mystery tales ever screened. "Ham at the Fair" is a regular circus, Ham and his friend being victimised by slick crooks. The Hearst-Selig Gazette is particularly interesting, showing the rescue of a disabled steamer and many other unique happenings.

that many of the men he saw before him would take up arms and go forth to uphold the name of Canada and the Empire. He assured them that every man was needed.

Amidst loud cheering, Constant McMullin presented the returned warrior with a beautiful bouquet in the name of the Daughters of the Empire.

Interviewed later, Arthur said he had hoped to get into the city quietly, as he had done at Peterboro, but his Prince Rupert friends were too wide awake. Doc McCutcheon, George Morrow and the rest had figured that he wouldn't spend two weeks between Peterboro and Prince Rupert. Continued on Page Three

FIVE AMERICAN DESTROYERS IN PORT

The harbor had an air of naval activity this afternoon when a flotilla of United States torpedo boat destroyers crept in and anchored off the government wharf. They are the Perry, Paul Jones, Treble, Steward and Whipple. Each destroyer is 280 feet long, and carries two torpedo tubes, 2 3-inch guns and 5 6-pounders. They are all coal burning and have a speed of 29 knots, and develop 8,000 h. p.

The flotilla left San Francisco on July 15th and have cruised along the Alaskan coast as far as Sitka, and are now on their way south. This is the flotilla which the Daily News reported a month ago as having proceeded north. The boys on the Perry are proud of the fact that they hold the pennant of the American navy for battle practice, and also the highest marks for engineering.

Shortage of coal brought them to Prince Rupert, where they are now taking on a supply from the New Wellington Coal Company.

SUBMARINE FAILURE

Von Tirpitz has been superseded by Admiral Von Pohl in the command of the German battle fleet, or rather bottled fleet. The reason given for the Grand Admiral's resignation is the failure of his submarine campaign. It is rather hard that the man who has built up the German fleet from a very small beginning should be called upon to resign because British merchant-men refuse to be scared off the seas. It is true that the submarine campaign has been an utter failure, but the fault scarcely lies with Von Tirpitz. He did his utmost in preaching the doctrine of "fearfulness," but it was impossible to sink more than a very small percentage of the thousands of British vessels operating in the danger zone. Berlin fondly hoped that the sinking of an occasional liner would so paralyze the British shipping trade, that it would practically come to a standstill, and that, in a few months, the inhabitants of Britain would be starving. In spite of the submarines, the importation of food supplies and munitions and the transportation of troops has gone on steadily, just as if submarines did not exist. The campaign failed because British sailors refused to be scared.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

The facts disclosed by the Ontario Commission on unemployment are startling as they stand. It appears that in 1914 70,000 people were unemployed for 15 weeks, or nearly four months. Upon a very moderate estimate each worker would have three persons dependent upon him. That would mean that in the Province of Ontario more than 200,000 people, for nearly four months in the year were without means of livelihood except such small savings as they might have and the kindness of others. It is needless to say that they could not live on their savings. Wages do not provide the means for such savings. But this is not the whole story. The 70,000 workmen with their dependents, do not include those employed in building and other "seasonal" trades in which unemployment is inevitable during a large part of the year. The commissioners accept a statement that there are 83 idle days in the year in building trades. They do not give or even estimate the number of men who are necessarily idle during the winter. Why not? For what purpose was the commission appointed except to collect information on unemployment? Why should it depend upon the Ontario Bureau of Labor for its information as to the building trades? Why should it not have called carpenters, bricklayers, and other builders as witnesses?

For the present, however, we must regard the building and other seasonal trades as an unknown quantity, to be added to the 70,000 factory hands, with their dependents. What are we going to do with the problem? We need the builder and the factory hands. We know that a large proportion of them must be idle at certain times, not by their own fault, or even by accident, but by the necessities of industrial life. The logical conclusion is that we must provide for them during enforced idleness, not as a matter of charity, but as a matter of justice. The report says that industry needs a reserve. If so, industry should be allowed, when slack times come, to throw a man on the street, and then expect that he will be available when good times return—that industry shall take all the profits of good times and accept none of the losses of hard times.

The just and rational plan is to average up good and bad times, and make the fat years help to feed the lean years. The way to do that is to establish a system of unemployment insurance. It is not fair to ask the workman to supply all the organization and four-fifths of the money, as the Ontario Commission recommends. The Province of Ontario should supply the organization. All those who benefit by the industry should contribute to the funds, according to the share which they have in producing the problem and their need of the "inseparable reserve of labor" to which the report refers.—Toronto Star.

RUSSIAN CROP TWO BILLION BUSHELS

London, Sept. 3.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs: "M. Krivoshein, minister of agriculture, has given definite assurance in figures about the Russian harvest, which dispel all doubts thrown by German agents upon its unusual size and value. The harvest is not only far better than that of 1914, but also a great deal above the average of the five years, 1909 to 1913.

"Taking all crops together, the figures indicate that when cutting is finished, in a week's time, the yield will be about two billion bushels. For export there will be available some 450,000,000 bushels of grain, the greater part of which is wheat. "The difficulty of finding sufficient harvesters has been successfully overcome and there will not be any difficulty in transporting the wheat to the Black Sea ports as soon as grain ships can steam through the Dardanelles. Great quantities of grain at these ports are already awaiting the success of the operations in Gallipoli."

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR?

Train Of Thought Inspired By A Letter About "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. D. McLEAN

Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914.

"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results and my Headaches became more severe. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-tives' make you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for 'Fruit-a-tives', and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends'.

pert, so a careful watch had been kept along the line in order to guard against a surprise attack.

Wounds.

Art makes light of his wounds, but they don't keep a slightly wounded soldier three months in hospital in England. He has lost his right eye, bears a scar on his left hand, and was also wounded in the body by shrapnel.

The Boys.

Speaking of the boys from here, Art said every one made good. Major Gibson, "Dad" Baxter and the other city men stood the hard marching fully as well as men from the woods. He said the fighting spirit of the men was of the best. He states positively that Captain Don Moore was treated by Dr. Willoughby, of Victoria, in a base hospital and that there is still reason to hope that he is alive. Mr. Noble saw Crippen, with his usual big smile, just the day before he was killed.

A Man's Job.

"This is no picnic, like it was in the Phillipines," said Arthur last night, "it's a man's job. The Germans are good fighters and are well equipped." In the minds of the Allies, there is no doubt as to the ultimate issue, but every man and every gun is needed.

GREAT PROGRAM FOR LABOR DAY SPORTS

The celebration committee of the Trades and Labor Council have provided a splendid program of sports, and a magnificent list of prizes, for Labor Day. There will be football games beginning at 10 a. m. At 11 a. m. the mile race will start for the Loop Loving Cup, followed by a big general athletic program, including high jump, hop, step and jump, putting the shot, running high jump, and the usual flat races for young and old, married and single, including a special race for fishermen.

The sports will fill up the forenoon, and part of the afternoon, allowing time for lunch from noon until 1 p. m. At 4 p. m. there will be a ball game between Merchants and Union Men, and at 5:30 the final in the five-a-side tournament.

The prizes amount to close on $500 and have been most generously subscribed by the leading merchants and citizens. There will be a band in attendance and a big free smoker in the evening.

DETECTIVE STORY AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic tonight has a thrilling three-reel detective and smuggling story, entitled "The Other Half of the Note." It is a tale of transatlantic diamond smuggling, in which several innocent people are implicated. From start to finish it is full of exciting incident, and of course ends up with the villains in the hands of the law, and the hero and the heroine smiling happily. One thousand feet of clever work by a famous cartoonist, and "Wipe Yer Feet," a rollicking comedy, complete a real good program.

Monday and Tuesday bring along the sixth episode of "The Broken Coin."

There will be an anniversary concert in the Baptist church on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Admission, 25 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McIntosh left for an extended tour of the south this morning, including the Panama Exposition. A large party of friends was at the wharf to bid them bon voyage.

Noblesse Oblige

Rank imposes obligations— or—as the French put it—"Noblesse Oblige."

It is a very natural and right principle that those who by their position in life command the respect of others should deserve it and be worthy of maintaining their position. "Much is expected of those in high station."

But this principle is not confined to persons of noble birth—it has a hundred applications. It applies, for example, to those manufacturers of reputation and prestige who make goods of high quality and who advertise them constantly in the newspapers of the land.

By their advertising they have attained an eminence where the very best in quality and good service is expected of them. They have set a standard and their very business life depends on the constant maintenance of it.

So that when you buy advertised articles you rest assured that you are getting the best value that money can buy.

Well may you place your faith in advertised goods. Well may you give them preference over articles which you can only hope may prove satisfactory.

For the principle of "Noblesse Oblige" is your guarantee of excellence in Advertised Goods.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 603, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
