SIR EDWARD GREY'S ULTIMATUM EFFECTIVE

CZAR FERDINAND NEUTRAL—GREECE JOINS ALLIES—ROUMANIA WILL FOLLOW

BRITAIN'S ULTIMATUM TO BULGARIA IS EFFECTIVE

SIR EDWARD GREY SENDS WARNING—CZAR FERDINAND DOES NOT WANT WAR—GREECE JOINS THE ALLIES AND ROUMANIA WILL OBEY THE POPULAR DEMAND—SHIP MINED

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Sept. 30.—The following ultimatum sent by Sir Edward Grey to Bulgaria, has had a most wholesome effect on the Balkans: "If Bulgarian mobilization should result in Bulgaria assuming an aggressive attitude on the side of our enemies, we are prepared to give our friends in the Balkans all the support in our power, in a manner that would be most welcome to them, in concert with our allies, without reserve and without qualification."

Czar Ferdinand has intimated that he no longer wants war.
Greece and Roumania.
Greece today announced that she will take the side of the Allies. There is a popular demand in Bukarest, that Roumania shall do likewise.

Greek War Loan.
Athens, Sept. 30.—The Greek chamber of deputies ratified the action of the government in calling for a general mobilization, and authorized a war loan of $30,000,000.

Serbia is reported to have 600,000 men in the field.

American Ship Mined.
Washington, Sept. 30.—The American sailing ship Vincent has been blown up by a mine off Cape Orloff, in the White Sea. The ship is a total loss, but the crew was saved. Three men who were injured were taken to hospital at Archangel.

MONTREAL HARBOR COMMISSIONERS HERE

W. Ross, president, and M. P. Fennell, T. Pauze and Colonel Labelle, of the Montreal Harbor Commission, arrived from the south on the Prince Rupert this morning, and left for the east on the train.

They were on their way home from a convention of American Harbor Boards held recently at Los Angeles, and took in the Panama Exposition on the way north. In the short time at their disposal, the commissioners were able to make a short trip around the harbor, paying a visit to the drydock. They were greatly impressed with both the harbor and the dock.

ANOTHER STALWART OFFERS HIS SERVICES

There was a tartan and heather mixture touch in the air around the depot this morning when Ben Redfern took a hilarious farewell of his friends, on his leaving for the old country.

Ben tried hard to get away with one of the Prince Rupert contingents, but was turned down on account of defective hearing. His sister in Scotland notified him that, being an ex-naval man, he would have little difficulty in getting into some branch of the service over there, and Ben lost no time in making tracks.

LIEUT. A. G. FORSTER FOR 54TH BATTALION

Lieutenant A. G. Forster left for Vancouver this morning, en route for Vernon, where he will take up his commission in the 54th Battalion. Mr. Forster is one of Prince Rupert's most highly respected old timers, having been manager for C. B. Schrieber & Company since the very early days of the city. The hearty good wishes of his many old friends will go with him.

It is interesting to know that Lieut. Forster will be in the same regiment with Major Bullock-Webster and Major F. T. Lucas. By the way, it may not be generally known that Mr. Lucas recently received his majority. News of the rapid promotion of this most popular young Rupertonian will be received with a great amount of pleasure.

PATHE ATTRACTIONS AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"In the Mesh of the Net," a Pathe three-act feature, is the special attraction at the Majestic tonight. It is a story of the U. S. secret service, and is remarkable for its wonderful photography, the interior cave scenes being particularly fine. The picture depicts the plans laid for the capture of a notorious contraband runner, and the successful carrying of them out, in which there are some exciting episodes.

The Pathe Gazette shows some very fine military views, including one of a ship-load of German prisoners, who look extremely happy, and a splendid picture of a flotilla of British destroyers. The comic side of the program is also good, "Whiffles' Alibi" and "Vanishing Cinderella" providing fun for everybody.

There is another splendid program for Friday and Saturday.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE

The annual general meeting of The St. John Ambulance Association will be held in the Board of Trade rooms on 2nd Ave., Wednesday, the 29th inst., at 8 p. m. #### FRENCH PENETRATE SECOND LINE OF GERMAN DEFENCES

TRENCHES CARRIED AFTER TERRIFIC BOMBARDMENT—ALL GAINS ARE CONSOLIDATED—KAISER COMMANDS IN PERSON—GREAT STRUGGLE FOR LENS, THE KEY TO LILLE

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, Sept. 30.—(Official bulletin, 3 p. m.) The French forces today penetrated the second line of German defences in the Champagne district. The French infantry carried the German trenches by storm after a terrific bombardment by 500 heavy guns, which had partially demolished the German defences. The French are consolidating all gains made.

Kaiser Commands.
Kaiser Wilhelm is personally in command of the German defensive.

Struggle for Lens.
London, Sept. 30.—The great struggle of the moment on the western front is for the capture of Lens, which is nine miles northeast of Arras. The capture of Lens with its railroads means the re-taking of Lille. The Allies hold high ground, the British being on Hill 70 and the French on Hill 140, both dominating the German positions.

There is a general belief in England that these attacks are only the prelude to a much vaster offensive.

Zeppelins Hovering.
A Zeppelin attack is expected, following the news that six of these craft have been sighted over Aerschot, flying west.

Canon Rix left for Terrace this morning, where he will deliver an address in aid of the Red Cross Society.

ALLIED AIRMEN BOMBARD BRUGES

Amsterdam, Sept. 29.—Airmen of the entente allies have again bombed Bruges, Belgium. Sudden cessation of the flow of gas at Sluis (in Zealand, on the Belgian frontier), which is supplied from Bruges, leads to the suspicion here that bombs from the aircraft struck the gas works.

A message received later from Bruges confirmed the belief that the gas works had been struck by the bombs of the allied airmen. The whole city has been thrown into darkness, the dispatch said.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Galveston, Sept. 30.—Torrential gales have visited New Orleans and the lower Mississippi. All communication has been demolished and scores are dead, while there is considerable loss of property. The gale attained a velocity of 130 miles an hour.

A SPLENDID FEATURE AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Famous Players' five-act production, "When We Were Twenty-one," at the Westholme tonight is a most enjoyable drama. William Elliott, as "The Imp," is great, while Marie Empress, as the notorious "Firefly," plays the part of an alluring adventuress to perfection. The piece is played by an exceptionally strong company, and there is not a dull moment from start to finish. "The Imp" gets into no end of scrapes, each one more costly than its predecessor, but his guardian, Dick Carew, foos the bills, with the assistance of his staunch old friends, and, finally, when the "Firefly" drops "The Imp" like a soiled glove, he realizes the different kinds of a fool he has been, and everything winds up happily for all concerned.

RED CROSS HOME COOKING

On Friday afternoon of this week, from 1 o'clock to 6, the Red Cross Society will hold a sale of home cooking in the office of ex-Alderman McClymont, Third Ave. Mrs. Bazett-Jones and Mrs. R. E. Walker will be in charge. All ladies in the city are requested to assist by sending in home cooking. Raffles as usual will be a feature. Remember now is the time the Red Cross will be taxed to its utmost to take care of our wounded soldiers. Everybody is requested to lend a hand.

SPEAK OF EVENTS AT THE FRONT WITH SHUDDERS

Amsterdam, Sept. 29.—The Telegraaf's Roulers' correspondent says:—"There is a fearful bringing back of German wounded. The trains bring them to Roulers and automobiles rush them to villages close behind the lines. Courtmark has all its available buildings filled, and more are constantly arriving in wagons, lying on straw which has been hastily improvised into beds. The soldiers speak of the events at the front with shudders.

"Great events are everywhere expected."

JUST MADE IT

Two lovely Skeena river salmon just made the boat this morning by a nose. The Prince Rupert had drawn away from the wharf, when someone came rushing through the crowd carrying part of the lunch. Captain Mackenzie had to do some skilful manoeuvring in turning the ship's bow into the wharf to take the belated arrivals on board.

THE CAUCASUS

The term "Caucasus" is the name of a chain of mountains extending from the Black Sea to the Caspian; it is also loosely used to connote a large area of country traversed by the mountain chain. In a general way the Caucasus range has long served as a boundary between Turkey in Asia and Russia in Europe, but during the present war the latter has been able to hold Turkey to her own side of the mountains and make some progress in pressing her armies back toward Mesopotamia on the east and Asia Minor on the west. In the former direction the Russians have been moving toward, the British forces advancing from, the Persian Gulf. In the latter they are likely before long to be found meeting the approaching forces of Italy and Greece.

At the close of the first year of the war the Czar of Russia announced his intention to take upon himself the active work of the office of commander-in-chief, which he holds as Emperor. The Grand Duke Nicholas, his near relative, who had been in control of the army in Poland, was transferred to a like position in the Caucasus region, with the added dignity and influence of governor. Whatever the chief motive of this change may have been, it is not hard to foresee some of its effects. The Grand Duke is a consummate strategist, a forceful personality, a tireless worker, and an intelligent organizer. To him is due the credit of re-developing the military system of Russia, which had gone to pieces during the Russo-Japanese war, and which has since proved a formidable obstacle to the eastward progress of the German and Austrian armies. If there is important work to be done in the Caucasus he is able and willing to do it.

It is not hard to understand the importance of the Grand Duke's new command. The capture of Constantinople has proved a difficult enterprise by way of the Dardanelles, but in view of recent events the plan of campaign so far maintained is not likely to be abandoned. Constantinople is the military objective of the British and French, but if and when it is taken it will become the property of Russia. The latter, from lack of a sufficiently powerful fleet, cannot do much at the Black Sea end of the Straits, but she can create an effective diversion in the region of the Caucasus, and to do this is the task entrusted to the Grand Duke. In order to perform it he must have a powerful army, well equipped not merely with munitions, but with means of transport. The Russian fleet can no doubt render him useful aid, and so can the British forces in Mesopotamia, not to mention any enterprise that Italy or Greece may attempt in western Asia Minor as a speculative investment in view of the coming international settlement.

When this war is over the Black Sea will be a Russian lake, as completely as Hudson Bay is a Canadian sea. To accomplish this it is absolutely necessary that Russia should own a strip of territory of adequate width, extending from the Caucasus to the Troad, and commanding the navigable channel made up of the Bosphorus, the Sea of Marmora, and the Dardanelles. The compassing of this achievement will be the chief fame of his cousin and namesake; Nicholas the Grand Duke.—Toronto Globe.

GERMAN BATTLESHIPS ARE DRIVEN BACK INTO KIEL

Paris, Sept. 29.—A Petrograd special to the Temps says: "Russian and British submarines have driven all the German battleships and cruisers back into Kiel from the eastern Baltic."

"The Moltke, which was torpedoed several weeks ago, was towed into Kiel with a huge hole in her hull."

MRS. HAROLD J. TENANT

Wife of the parliamentary under-secretary for war, one of the two women members of a new committee named by Lloyd George to advise on questions of industrial fatigue, hours of labor, etc., in munition factories. Mrs. Tenant has been prominent in industrial work formerly as factory inspector.

HARD NUT TO CRACK SAYS LONDON TIMES

London, Sept. 29.—The Times military correspondent says:—"The latest semi-official notice which the press received of the strength of the Germans in the west placed their numbers at 1,800,000 men or thereabouts. Most of the German cavalry is in the east, but there is an inordinately large proportion of heavy and machine guns in the west."

"We have a hard nut to crack, now that we have passed to the offensive. The ground in front of us is honeycombed with trenches. The Germans have all the best of the ground. The masses of German troops which came into Flanders in the autumn of 1914 are still for the greater part on our front. We have no Aisne or Argonne, or Reuthe, or Vosges—no natural line of defense, in short—to lighten our task. The Scheldt and Meuse in our front are all fortified by the enemy."

Japan plans to dredge a 35-foot channel, 17 1-2 miles long and 3,600 feet wide, through the historic Straits of Shimonoseki, the work requiring ten years.

The Housekeeper is Right

Sometimes a housekeeper requires a quick leavening agent, and finds she has no baking powder.

What does she do?

She raises her biscuit by a mixture of cream of tartar and soda, or soda and sour milk. She may not get the proportions quite right, but she knows her food is safe. But does she ever use a mixture of alum and soda? Was there ever a housekeeper who bought alum and soda to make a home made baking powder? Intuitively she feels it would be unsafe.

Then why use baking powder made from alum or the same mixture that the housekeeper would not dare to mix and use in her food?

Alum is alum, whether bought in the drug store or in baking powder.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

is made from pure cream of tartar and contains no alum, lime or phosphate. There is absolute safety in its use.

HOW FRENCH AIR HERO MET DEATH

The following is an account of how the daring Pegoud met his death, taken from the London Daily Mail:

The news of the death of Pegoud, the world's champion upside-down flyer, has been received in Paris with expressions of the deepest regret.

Pegoud was at Belfort aviation camp on Tuesday morning last week. He had been flying on reconnaissance since dawn and was going off duty at ten o'clock when the news was telephoned that a German Aviatik was in sight making for the town.

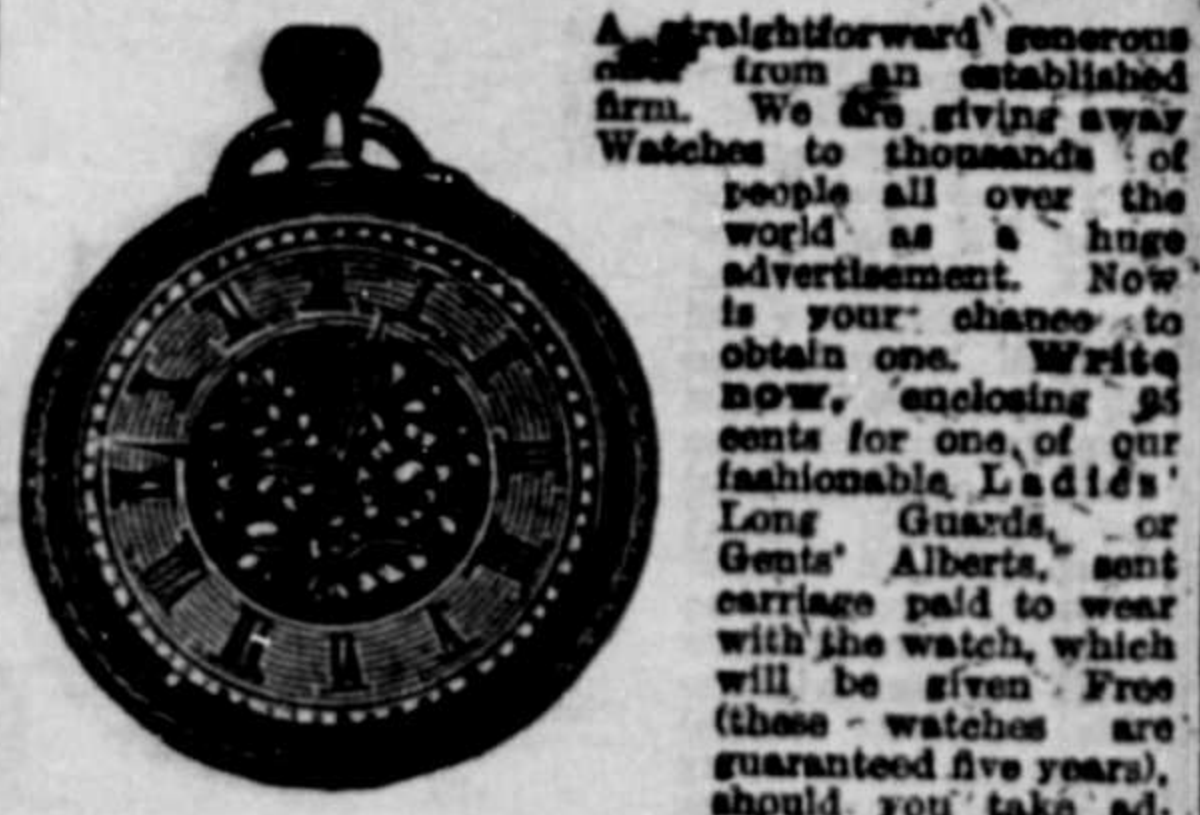

He mounted his machine at once and set out with his usual confidence alone to face the foe. The two machines came within fighting distance very quickly almost over the fortress of Belfort. The German was a large and heavy Aviatik, Pegoud's a swift Monocoeque. With lightning-like rapidity the two craft circled round one another seeking the advantage of position.

The night was unclouded; the soldiers in the trench beneath had the fullest view of the fight. The firing could be distinctly heard, though the machines were fully 3,000 feet high. Pegoud was the first to get to work, and having emptied his cartridge belt without effect he retired, making a graceful half turn so as to gain distance and time to reload his machine gun. The Aviatik, however, seized the opportunity, and before Pegoud was ready to fire had gained the higher position.

The German pilot, manoeuvring skilfully, banked sharply on his left wing, thus giving the man at the machine gun a clear aim. Once more the rattle of firing broke out. This time the on-lookers were horrified to see Pegoud's machine suddenly quiver and sway uneasily. Then it came hurtling to the ground, sliding on one wing like a withered leaf from a tree. It smashed to pieces on the ground.

The French soldiers rushed to the spot, well within the French lines. Pegoud was dead, but bore no traces of the terrible fall. A surgeon said he had met an instantaneous death in the air with a bullet from the German machine gun, which had severed the great artery from the heart.

OFFICE NOW OPEN.

In view of the recruiting which is in progress at present throughout the Province, it is apropos to answer a few of the questions which are considered by those who contemplate entering the Service. The following is a list of pertinent queries, together with the information which each elicits.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

- 1.—How long am I to serve? Until the end of the war and six months after if required.
- 2.—What pay shall I receive? Your pay as a private will be $1.30 per day and 10 cents field allowance. Besides this you will be clothed, equipped and subsisted by the Government.
- 3.—What will my wife receive during my absence? Every month there will be paid her a separation allowance of $20 (also part of your pay) and if this be not enough to comfortably maintain your family, the Canadian Patriotic Fund will further assist them.
- 4.—What will happen if I am wounded or sick? You will be cared for by the Government and your pay continued until you are discharged. If you are permanently disabled an allowance will be paid you, varying according to the extent of your injury or disability.
- 5.—What will be done for my wife and children if I die while on Active Service? The Government will provide an adequate pension, that will enable the family to live comfortably until the children are old enough to look after themselves. The widowed mother of a single man, if the son be her sole support, is treated in the same way as a wife.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE

ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. The primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. It was Sheffield's expression of respect.

BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. This extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency.

SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. You know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. Do you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? Do you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall?

DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE OUT THIS SUMMER.
