RUSSIANS LANDING UNDER COVER OF GUNS--GERMAN BALTIC PLANS ARE UPSET

PESSIMISTIC REPORT FROM THE TIMES MILITARY EXPERT

COL. REPINGTON SAYS REINFORCEMENTS ARRIVED TOO LATE TO SAVE SERBIAN FORCES--BALKAN SUBMARINE CAMPAIGN HAS UPSET GERMAN PLANS--RUSSIAN WINTER ON

(Special to The Daily News.)

Rome, Nov. 1.—Colonel Repington, military expert on the London Times, interviewed here, says that the Serbian forces are in a desperate position and must retire towards the Adriatic coast outside of their own territory, where Italy will be able to supply assistance. He states that the Allied expedition from Saloniki arrived too late to save the Serbian forces.

He asserts that the Austro-German forces can be in Constantinople within a week, though they will suffer eventually from exhaustion.

Plans Demoralized.

London, Nov. 1.—Germany's plans in the Riga district have been completely demoralized by the British submarine campaign in the Baltic and by the closing of the Gulf of Riga by Russian mine-fields. The German troops are suffering from a lack of supplies.

Winter Begun.

Petrograd, Nov. 1.—In the Courtland district, the Germans made several unsuccessful attacks on the Russians, being forced to retire with heavy losses. Snow is now falling heavily and will impede the movements of big guns.

SEVEN DROWNED WHEN ORE CARRIER WRECKED

(Special to The Daily News.)

Vancouver, Nov. 1.—The ore carrier Leona turned turtle in Active Pass on Saturday night. Her cargo of 2,000 tons of ore from Britannia Mines, shifted in a gale. Captain Ludlow, Captain Cochrane, Wm. Anderson, second mate, H. Cecil and Joe Drunel, firemen J. J. Hunter, Winchman, and a Chinese cook were all drowned.

James Hunter, mate; William Boomer, chief engineer; J. Kelly, M. McKinnon, S. B. Rennan, J. Thompson, deck hands, and Chow Fung, a cook, were saved, after battling with heavy seas for twelve hours in an open boat. After a desperate struggle they managed to land at Steveston all suffering from exhaustion.

The vessel was on her way to Tacoma, when she was caught in the tide rip, and was broached to by a big beam sea.

SAM AND THOMAS ON SHELL CONTRACTS

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—Major General Sir Sam Hughes has had his first regret-to-report experience since the war began. In a skirmish with D. A. Thomas the other day Canada's War Lord came out second best, although the Welshman is no great talker and the Major General has legions of words at his command. In fact if words were soldiers Sir Sam would be a whole army division.

The skirmish, as everybody knows, was over the Shell Committee, which is the apple of Sir Sam's left eye, the apple of his right eye being the American Purchasing Committee which is located in New York. The matter in dispute was whether the shell game in Canada should be run Sir Sam's way or Commissioner Thomas' way which is Lloyd George's way and the British War Office way. Victory rested with the stronger battalions as usual. Mr. Thomas won but the Major General though defeated is not conquered—he carries his head high and the Rideau Club, where he takes his lunch, thinks of him as a great man yet. How can it do otherwise when it sees him stride in, glorious in khaki, a curt word here, a piercing glance there, an eagle looking for sheep to bite.

Sam is a Napoleon, on a larger scale, perhaps, but a Napoleon still. On second thoughts not a Napoleon still, for Sir Sam could never be still a minute. But you know what I mean. Sir Sam is like Napoleon, or rather Napoleon was like Sir Sam, for we must remember that Napoleon is a dead lion and that Sir Sam has the proverbial advantage of the live dog. At all events Sam and Napoleon remind themselves of each other, perhaps Sir Sam a little. (Continued on Page Two)

KING IMPROVING
London, November 1.—(Official bulletin) King George is weak. Pain has been reduced and condition is improving.

GENERAL JOFFRE CONFERS WITH BRITISH MINISTERS

RUSSIAN ARMY TO BE ALLOWED TO PASS THROUGH ROUMANIAN TERRITORY--ROMANIA WILL TAKE THE FIELD LATER--RUSSIAN ARMY LANDING NEAR VARNA

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Nov. 1.—An unofficial report of the result of the conference between Genral Joffre and the British cabinet states that the Allies have decided to save Serbia.

It is stated that an arrangement has been made between Russia and Roumania, whereby a Russian army will be allowed to cross Roumania. The Roumanian army is expected to take the field later. It is expected that Roumania will get part of Bessarabia.

Russians Landing.

A special fleet which is conveying the Russian troop ships is now outside Varna, on the Black Sea and the army is effecting a landing under cover of the guns of the fleet.

Ferdinand Willing.

Bucharest, Nov. 1.—King Ferdinand, of Roumania, in an interview with the Roumanian Conservative leaders, says that he will not oppose the aspirations of the Roumanian people, and that he will place himself entirely in the hands of parliament and the government.

Western Front.

London, Nov. 1.—Yesterday the Germans made several determined attacks with gas bombs and asphyxiating gases along a five-mile front in the Champagne district. All were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy.

"THE DIAMOND FROM THE SKY" AT THE WESTHOLME

"The Diamond from the Sky", at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow, enters upon its seventh stage, and is more interesting and exciting than ever. Some very beautiful hunting scenes figure in this installment. Besides this exceedingly popular serial, there is a great three-reel feature entitled "West Wind." It is a regular whirl-wind drama of the early days in the west, in which there are some splendid battle scenes between Indians and the American troops. This is something quite above the usual run of western stories.

A Gaumont Gazette full of good things from the front completes a very interesting program.

Wednesday and Thursday will bring along one of those great animal pictures which are now such a popular feature in film-dom.

Mrs. J. Hyland, of Telegraph Creek, went south Sunday night.

CHANGE OF G. T. P. STEAMER SCHEDULE

Beginning on Tuesday, November 2nd, the Prince George and Prince Rupert will begin a twice-weekly service between Prince Rupert and Seattle.

Steamers will arrive on Mondays and Thursdays at 9 a. m. and will leave for the south on Tuesdays and Saturdays at 9 a. m. Under the new schedule, the boat arriving here Thursdays will make the trip to Granby.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF LATE JOHN HERSTICK

The funeral services of the late John Herstick were conducted by Rev. W. W. Wright at 2:45 yesterday afternoon in Hayner's chapel, the Knights of Pythias, of which order deceased was a member, taking part in the service. There was a large attendance of railroad officials and employees and friends of deceased. Interment took place at Fairview Cemetery, when three of the G. T. P. men and three members of the K. of P., Skeena Lodge 45, acted as pallbearers.

Floral tributes were sent by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McNichol, Knights of Pythias, Skeena Lodge 45, Engineers and Railroad men, Dr. and Mrs. Eggert, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Black.

WELL KNOWN OLD TIMER PASSED AWAY

Archie Sherratt, one of Prince Rupert's old timers, passed away at the general hospital on Saturday, at the age of 73.

Deceased came to this district from Guelph, Ont., when the town was but an engineers' camp. He was a blacksmith by trade and followed that line of business here for some time, while in the early days he was also connected with a laundry business. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B. C. Undertakers.

"DANDY" LINE HAULER PROVES BIG SUCCESS

The halibut schooner Tuladi has been fitted with the "dandy" Longline Hauler and Anchor Winch, the great labor saving device made by the Akerberg, Thomson Company, of Prince Rupert. The hauler which was proved to be a great success some time ago, has now been fitted with a niggerhead which cuts down the labor of hauling up the anchor tremendously. A two-speed gear has also been fitted, which has proved to be a great advantage in handling the line under varying conditions.

Mr. Creelman, the owner of the schooner, has made a thorough test of the new hauler and is perfectly satisfied that it has all the advantages claimed for it by the makers. Such a labor saving device as the "Dandy" has been proven to be is certain to become a regular part of the equipment of the Pacific Coast halibut boats, and Messrs. Akerberg and Thomson deserve every credit for the enterprise they are showing.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER

The Right Honorable Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., the last of the Fathers of Confederation, passed away on Saturday at his English residence near London. Sir Charles was one of the grand old men of Canada, being within four years of the century when he died. At the time of a memorable split in the Conservative party, Sir Charles succeeded Sir Mackenzie Bowell as premier, which position he held for a few months, when he was defeated by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. After leading the opposition for a short period, he was succeeded by Sir Hugh John Macdonald.

After retiring from active participation in political life, Sir Charles went to reside in England, where he still took a lively interest in all things Canadian. Last year, he issued a book of reminiscences which proved very interesting as a record of the prominent men of the early days. Sir Mackenzie Bowell, the last of Sir Charles' contemporaries is still hearty and well at the age of 92.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

That the working men of British Columbia require the finest Workmen's Compensation Act which can be framed is certain. That the McBride government has steadily refused to take advantage of its opportunities in this direction has been equally apparent. In the session of 1907, Mr. Hawthornthwaite introduced an amendment to the Workmen's Compensation Act, which the Liberals supported, but which the Conservatives defeated. Later in the same session, Mr. J. A. Macdonald introduced a similar bill, which suffered a like fate.

We have now reached the year 1915 and the McBride government has spent $40,000 in collecting data regarding such compensation without doing anything that will benefit the working men 40 cents, as Parker Williams said recently. It is eight years since Mr. Hawthornthwaite's measure was defeated by the Conservatives, and all that has happened outside of the spending of $40,000 of the public funds by party friends, is the appointment of another commission. A few minutes before the house adjourned on March 6th last, a Workmen's Compensation Act was introduced, but no effort was made to consider it. Since that time, the attorney-general has dangled some such measure before the noses of the working men in the hope that it will keep them following along behind him. Being short of railroad bait, the McBride-Bowser gang are going to resort to workmen's compensation as fishing material for the forthcoming election. In other words they are promising to do what they have refused to do for years past.

more so. They both glower, they both prow abroad at midnight and surprise the sentries, they both do those Little Corporal stunts which are the spice of history and they both—but why multiply comparisons? Enough to say that great minds run in the same channels. If anything Sir Sam has a slight advantage. He says more and thinks less than Napoleon deemed advisable.

If the Shell Committee is not all Sir Sam thought it was it is because Sir Sam had to give half his mind to something else. At times it has been hinted that Canada would be better off if we had a Minister of Munitions who would stay at home and be on the job all the time instead of taking joy-rides to England and chasing the bubble of glory in Buckingham Palace, the Savoy Hotel and other bright spots. It is true that the Major General pulled a knighthood out of it and is now entitled to be known as Sir Sham Shoes, but he did it not for himself, but for the army, for "mysoldiers" who feel proud that their Little Father has been honored by his King. Sam, as you know, is a thorough democrat and takes no titles which are not absolutely necessary. Duty though it was, and keen on duty though Sam is, it irked him to lie down and take the count from anybody. They put it on him while he was on the floor—that's what they did. Sam wears the title now and submits to being called "Sir" but that's because he has bought the clothes that go with it. He feels that it really belongs to the army.

Meanwhile, his critics contend that if Sam had acted as a Minister of Munitions or had delegated part of his prerogative to somebody else who might act as organizer of the ammunition industry in his absence, in short if he had kept his mind on the work instead of chasing butterflies up primrose Piccadilly paths—there are no primroses in Piccadilly but let it go at that—what we mean is if Sam had tended to his knitting D. A. Thomas would have had nothing on him. As it is the Welshman's remarks are in the nature of a mild rebuke.

The making of shells and big guns in Canada will be under the direction and management of the British War Office from now on. The expectation is that the factories at present engaged in the work will double their output and that the number of factories will also double as soon as the manufacturers understand that the business has been taken out of politics and that the British War Office intends to treat Liberals and Conservatives exactly alike in the awarding of contracts. And if the British War Office can do that for the ammunition industry in Canada what a shame it is that it can't do the same thing for appointments in the militia! These, as it is well known, go all by favor, and little whiffet with the right kind of pull being able to get a lieutenant's commission for overseas service, while seasoned officers, from major-generals down are left at home simply.

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR?

Train Of Thought Inspired By a Letter
About "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. D. McLEAN

Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914.
"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results and my Headaches became more severe. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-tives' make you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for 'Fruit-a-tives', and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends."

ly because they are Liberals. However, that is another story. Another reasonable expectation entertained by Commissioner Thomas is that the deliveries will be quicker and prices lower—especially the lower prices. Rumor has it that the toll gate on ammunition contracts is from ten to fifteen per cent.—said assessment not being graft but a contribution to the party war chest—and it is quite certain that the manufacturer doesn't take that fifteen per cent. out of his own pocket. He adds it to the cost of course. The consumer pays.

As the British War Office does not give a hoot which party wins in the next general election in Canada it is not unlikely that the fifteen per cent. will be cut out and consequently shells will be that much cheaper. Manufacturer's profits may also be trimmed, particularly as such profits are not subject to sixty per cent. war tax as they are in England. A saving can also be effected in the matter of inspection. If the Canadian manufacturers can have the shells inspected in their own factories instead of paying freight to Quebec to have them inspected there and shipped back if they are wrong and reshipped when they are made right—in a word if the British officers who inspect the shells will remember that the Atlantic seaboard is only a small part of Canada, and that there is no objection to their moving round when they do their inspecting, the cost can be whittled that much more.

On the whole it would be no surprise if the reorganized shell committee does everything D. A. Thomas says it will do. At any rate people will be interested to see how much better the thing gets along when Major General Sir Sam Hughes keeps his hands off it. It will be the one Canadian military enterprise in which Sir Sam hasn't got his thumb and it will bear watching if only on that account.—H. F. Gadsby.

The Housekeeper is Right

Sometimes a housekeeper requires a quick leavening agent, and finds she has no baking powder.

What does she do?

She raises her biscuit by a mixture of cream of tartar and soda, or soda and sour milk. She may not get the proportions quite right, but she knows her food is safe. But does she ever use a mixture of alum and soda? Was there ever a housekeeper who bought alum and soda to make a home made baking powder? Intuitively she feels it would be unsafe.

Then why use baking powder made from alum or the same mixture that the housekeeper would not dare to mix and use in her food?

Alum is alum, whether bought in the drug store or in baking powder.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

INSPECTION

INSPECTION of the Gillette Safety Razor
by mechanical experts and men of judgment shows clearly WHY seven million
shavers prefer it.

The thin, flat blade is tempered
to a uniform hardness impossible in an ordinary thick-backed razor. As a natural result, it takes an edge unequalled for even keenness.

The curved holder supports the blade close to the shaving edges, preventing all that vibration which makes hollow-ground open blades and other safeties pull and irritate when they strike a stiff beard.

Then there's the adjustable feature, exclusive to the Gillette.

By a simple turn of the wrist you can regulate a Gillette shave to a nicety—light, medium or as close as you like.

The toothed guard ensures safety, and permits such free and rapid strokes that a smooth, clean Gillette shave need take no more than three minutes.

Inspect the Gillette and you'll
buy it—and shave in comfort thereafter. Go to it! Your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will gladly parade the Gillette Line before you.

"Bulldog", "Aristocrat" and Standard Sets, $5.00—Pocket
Editions, $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, $6.50 up.
