SERBIANS FLOOD COPPER MINES IN THEIR RETREAT

LARGEST MINES IN EUROPE RENDERED USELESS -- ARSENAL BLOWN UP--FRENCH REPEL BULGARIAN ATTACK AND ADVANCE--BULGARIAN SUPPLY TRAIN BOMBARDED

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, Nov. 3.—The Serbian copper mines, in the Bor region, which are the largest in Europe, have been flooded by the Serbians before they left the district, in order to render them useless to the advancing enemy.

Arsenal Blown Up.

The arsenal at Kraguyevatz, which is the largest in Serbia, has been blown up along with all the connecting military buildings.

French Advance.

The Bulgarians today attacked

a French force near Krivelsk, but were repulsed. The French are advancing in the region of Strumitza.

French Warships Busy.

French warships yesterday bombarded a Bulgarian supply train near Dede Agatch, the Bulgarian port on the Aegean Sea.

The Bulgarians are advancing beyond Veles, but the Serbians are still holding the principal defences near Perlepe. The report that the Serbians have evacuated Monastir is denied.

PASSENGER STEAMER WRECKED IN THE SOUTH

(Special to The Daily News.)

Marshfield, Ore., Nov. 3.—The passenger steamer Santa Clara plying between Portland, Ore., and San Francisco, has been wrecked on South Spit, at the entrance to Coos Bay, 170 miles south of the Columbia river bar. Ten bodies have been recovered, but eight are still missing.

A party of life savers shot a line, by means of the rocket apparatus, over the vessel, which was half a mile out from the shore, and some thrilling rescues were made through the surf. The dead were all passengers on the ill-fated steamer.

AN EISTEDDFOD

At the close of the 4th century, when the Romans departed from Britain the Eisteddfod, or national bardic congress of Wales was originated. The object of these gatherings was to encourage bardism and general literature. The term "Eisteddfod" is of very ancient origin and means a session or sitting.

During the Middle Ages interest in Eisteddfods waned considerably, but at the close of the Napoleonic wars a great revival of Welsh nationalism took place. Since 1819 they have been held without intermission. Miniature Eisteddfods are becoming a common occurrence in many parts of Great Britain.

At the Methodist Church, Friday, November 26th, 1915, an Eisteddfod, on somewhat similar lines will be held. It is purely competitive and consists of five sections, music, literature, art, sewing and cooking. Each section is subdivided into a number of competitions to suit varying abilities. A prize of $2.00 will be awarded the winner of each competition. Everyone eligible for entry, fee 25c.

Competitors for the music, elocution, impromptu speeches and answers will compete on the night of the 26th, when also the decision of the judges of other competitions will be announced.

Those desirous of entering the competitions may obtain programmes, tickets and entry forms from Mr. E. W. Ling, Parkin & Ward's; Mr. M. M. Stephens, 623 3rd Avenue; Mrs. Lancaster, 220 2nd Avenue; Rev. J. F. Dimmick, 632 6th Avenue, East.

(Special to The Daily News.)

New York, Nov. 3.—The Woman's Suffrage Amendment has been defeated in the state of New York by a majority of 210,000, and in Massachusetts by 108,000. It also went under in Pennsylvania.

Republican Victory.

Boston, Nov. 3.—The Republican party has gained control of the executive of the state of Massachusetts. Samuel McCall has been elected governor by a majority of 6,606 over Governor Walsh. The legislature returns 34 Republicans and 6 Democrats.

Prohibition Defeated.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 3.—For the second time in two years, Ohio has rejected a prohibition amendment. On this occasion it was defeated by a majority of 40,000.

GROCERS EARLY

CLOSING BYLAW

A petition signed by eight of the grocers appealing against the passing of an early closing bylaw applied to grocers, was presented to the council Monday night.

A second petition, signed by licensed traders handling groceries, was presented appealing against such a bylaw.

The petitions were laid on the table pending the discussion of an early closing bylaw for grocers.

As requested last week, the city solicitor presented a report on the matter of bringing in a grocers' early closing bylaw under Section 4 of the Shops Act, showing that the council could bring in a compulsory early closing bylaw if they so desired.

There was a general feeling that such a bylaw should be passed, though Ald. Edge suggested that the question of the cutting down of the amount of light used should be taken seriously into consideration.

Ald. Montgomery pointed out that the amount thus saved by the shopkeepers would be so much gained by the consumer.

The chief point of discussion was the hour of closing, Ald. Casey, Montgomery, and Nicol voted in favor of 6:30 p. m., and Ald. Dybbavn, Beveridge, Edge and the Mayor favored 7 p. m. The bylaw will be discussed in committee next week.

ITALIANS CONTROL HEIGHTS SURROUNDING MALBORGHETTO

FORT HANSEL, CENTRE OF AUSTRIAN SYSTEM OF DEFENCES, IS RENDERED USELESS--ITALIANS OCCUPY A COMMANDING POSITION--ROUMANIANS MAY FORM NATIONAL MINISTRY

(Special to The Daily News.)

Udine, Nov. 3.—Fort Hansel, which is the centre of the Austrian system of forts protecting Malborghetto, has been rendered useless.

Heights Occupied.

All the heights surrounding Malborghetto have now been occupied by the Italian forces and Italian heavy guns have been placed in position.

Roumania Wavering.

Milan, Nov. 3.—The Roumanian opposition, under the lead of M.

Jonescu, is doing its utmost to form a National Ministry, which would be favorable to the Allies.

It is semi-officially stated that Roumania will only enter the war after the Allies have landed half a million men on the Balkan front. Otherwise it is claimed, it would be impossible to wage war on two fronts.

The George E. Foster, of the Cold Storage Company, brought in 120,000 pounds of halibut last night.

FRESH HERRING PREFERRED AS BAIT

Captain Rorvik, of the Rorvik Fish Company, along with Bill Selig, the well known halibut fisherman, are making arrangements to embark on a new enterprise in the fishing business in Prince Rupert.

Satisfied that the halibut fishermen will not use frozen bait if fresh herring can be obtained, these gentlemen have decided to enter the fresh bait business with a view to supplying halibut men along the coast with the required article. Captain Rorvik claims, and he knows the business thoroughly, that fresh herring will always draw many more fish than frozen herring will.

The new concern expects to be able to supply many of the boats which at present buy bait in Vancouver and other ports, and the result should be highly beneficial to Prince Rupert.

START KNITTING

Latest reports indicate that cold disagreeable weather prevails in the trenches held by the Canadian troops, and good warm socks in particular will be welcome. Mrs. Dr. W. T. Kergin will be at the Board of Trade rooms every Thursday forenoon from 11 to 12 to deliver wool yarn and all Prince Rupert ladies are invited to call and obtain a supply and start knitting immediately.

H. L. Harris, late editor of the Bella Coola Courier, will describe how the Tory machine works, at the Liberal meeting Friday.

Two more American halibut schooners made port this forenoon. The Wireless had 12,000 pounds and the Seattle 70,000.

Children's shoes at your own prices at Fogg's.

The I. O. O. F. whist drive and dance realized the sum of $26.50 for the Red Cross fund.

The halibut schooner Seymour brought in 65,000 pounds this morning.

RED CROSS SALE AT WOMAN'S HOME BAKERY

The Red Cross sale of home cooking will be held on Friday, November 5th, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Mrs. Peter Black and Mrs. Wm. Miller will be the ladies in charge. The sale will be held in the store of the Woman's Home Bakery on Third Ave. British pluck and the determination of every man and woman is going to win, and now more than ever must we at home make some sacrifices for the assistance of the men at the front; donating pie cake, dough-nuts, buns or a loaf of bread, or patronizing the sale means doing something, and you are all invited to consider this an invitation to assist.

Mrs. Birnie will demonstrate at this sale the making of an inexpensive war cake, and sell the recipes. Every lady in the city should have this recipe; price 5 cents. Proceeds for the Red Cross fund. Miss James of the Woman's Home Bakery has very kindly offered to serve tea, proceeds also in aid of the cause.

Go to the Liberal meeting Friday and hear Mr. Harris explain the Tory calendar.

AUSTRALIA'S NAVY

Notable speeches showing the growing belief of Australians in a policy of naval self-defence were delivered recently at the launching of the Brisbane, the first cruiser of the Australian navy built in the Commonwealth. Premier Fisher, the Scotsman who combines Imperialism with the advocacy of labor's cause, and who has now resigned office to accept the post of High Commissioner for Australia in London, said the Australian navy, a dream five years ago, had become a startling reality. He hoped the other Dominions would follow Australia's example. This view was further expressed by Mr. Hughes, who has succeeded Mr. Fisher in the premiership. He said most of those present would live to see a squadron composed of Australian, Canadian and New Zealand ships.

Australia continues to build with that end in view. The cruiser Adelaide is to be laid down immediately on the slip vacated by the Brisbane, and Australian naval engineers are going to Britain to see the latest models of submarine and study their construction so that the Commonwealth may begin to tackle the making of under-water craft. Meanwhile Canada, which started out in 1910, as Australia did, to develop a system of naval defence, has done and is still doing nothing. The Australian policy is definite and within the powers of the overseas Dominions which front upon the Pacific—it is to build and maintain sufficiently strong squadrons to defend the coasts and commerce of Australia, New Zealand and Canada on the Pacific from raiders, even though not strong enough to challenge the battle fleets of any of the powers. It is not a matter for pride to Canadians that Australian and Japanese ships had to be called upon to protect Canada's pacific coast, and that the cruiser Sydney of the Australian navy has recently been engaged in convoying Canadian troops from this side of the Atlantic to their destination overseas. Canada is grateful for the service, but would have been better pleased had Canadian cruisers been available to escort Canadian troops.—Toronto Globe.

NEWS NOTES

The Bulgarians have decided that their contract is up in six weeks. It has already been evident that the Bulgars did not know what they were up against. They will shortly realize that it is easier to start fighting than it is to quit.

By the time the Roumanian army is thoroughly mobilized, it may be time to begin demobilizing.

The reign of the white-wash brush is nearing an end, and the scrubbing brush will take its place at Victoria.

A well known Prince Rupert Socialist was met in Third Avenue yesterday carrying two business-like white-wash brushes. He represented the insinuation of a friend who asked him "if he had turned Conservative."

The attorney-general has decided to make a personal inspection of the film "The Spoilers," which was last week rejected by the moving picture censor. The title suggests that the attorney-general should take Sir Richard McBride, Price Ellison, Sir William MacKenzie and Sir Donald Mann, or their representatives with him.

The Vancouver police are alarmed at the prospect of a big influx of rogues and vagabonds from San Francisco. If they are of the thug type, they may cause some trouble if they get past the customs officials, but if they are of the type who simply want to borrow a few million dollars, or annex a few hundred thousand acres of British Columbia, they must have been misled by reading some back numbers of the Matsonian press and are doomed to disappointment.

THE THRILLING CAPTURE OF A MOUNTAIN LION

Above is a scene from the great animal picture of six reels showing at the Westholme Theatre to-night and tomorrow. This is one of the most striking films ever produced. Not only is the scenery depicted amongst the most wonderful on the continent, but the wild animals have been photographed in their natural surroundings. The bear, lion and cougar are shown in their native haunts, while fishing and bird hunting pictures are amongst the most remarkable ever brought before the public.

Besides furnishing as much excitement as the most thrilling of dramas, the six reels have a high educational value. The children will be delighted, while at the same time they will learn more of the ways of the wild animals in two hours than they could in days in a school room. The majesty of the scenery and the natural movements of the denizens of the forest, coupled with the exciting hunting scenes will hold the interest of the grown-ups every minute. A good comedy entitled "Polly of the Pots and Pans", completes this great seven-reel program.

At the city council Monday night, a petition signed by A. B. Williams and 19 other residents in Section 2 was presented, requesting that no Orientals be permitted to put up buildings in Section 2.

Ald. Maitland, seconded by Ald. Nicol, moved that the petition be laid on the table for a week, pending a report from the city solicitor.

The Housekeeper is Right

Sometimes a housekeeper requires a quick leavening agent, and finds she has no baking powder.

What does she do?

She raises her biscuit by a mixture of cream of tartar and soda, or soda and sour milk. She may not get the proportions quite right, but she knows her food is safe. But does she ever use a mixture of alum and soda? Was there ever a housekeeper who bought alum and soda to make a home made baking powder? Intuitively she feels it would be unsafe.

Then why use baking powder made from alum or the same mixture that the housekeeper would not dare to mix and use in her food?

Alum is alum, whether bought in the drug store or in baking powder.

"THE SILENT CHORD" AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

The chief item at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow is a three-reel Pathe masterpiece photoplay entitled "The Silent Chord." This is an intensely dramatic story of a man who has been released from a long term of imprisonment, and who is unaware of the fact that a sister, who was a baby when he was sent down, is now the wife of a millionaire. The ex-convict is now a confirmed criminal and at once looks around for a "crib to crack" and fixes on the house of this millionaire. The millionaire's wife hears the burglar at work and appears on the scene. Unaware of her identity, the thief sees in her the exact image of his mother and ultimately their relationship is made plain. She hides the fact of her brother being the burglar and her husband mistakes him for a lover, with the result that she is put under guard. Complications ensue, and the brother meets his death at the hands of the guard, and in the long run the whole situation is made clear. It is a play full of human and dramatic interest.

There is also a splendid Pathe Gazette, showing the latest British news items, and two real good comedies.

INSPECTION

INSPECTION of the Gillette Safety Razor
 by mechanical experts and men of judgment shows clearly WHY seven million shavers prefer it.

The thin, flat blade is tempered to a uniform hardness impossible in an ordinary thick-backed razor. As a natural result, it takes an edge unequalled for even keenness.

The curved holder supports the blade close to the shaving edges, preventing all that vibration which makes hollow-ground open blades and other safeties pull and irritate when they strike a stiff beard.

Then there's the adjustable feature, exclusive to the Gillette.

By a simple turn of the wrist you can regulate a Gillette shave to a nicety—light, medium or as close as you like.

The toothed guard ensures safety, and permits such free and rapid strokes that a smooth, clean Gillette shave need take no more than three minutes.

Inspect the Gillette and you'll buy it—and shave in comfort thereafter. Go to it! Your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will gladly parade the Gillette Line before you.

"Bulldog", "Arctocrat" and Standard Sets, $5.00—Pocket Editions, $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, $6.50 up.
