ROUMANIA FINDS NEUTRALITY IMPOSSIBLE

CABINET TO DECIDE PLAN OF ACTION TODAY--ITALY MAY DECLARE WAR NOW

LINER VERONA BEING CHASED BY SUBMARINE

Vessel Sent Out Wireless for Assistance—Submarine is Accompanied by a Steamer.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Madrid, Nov. 20.—A wireless call has been received from the Italian-American steamer Verona stating that she is being pursued by a large submarine with two periscopes, in latitude 40 and longitude 8, off Cabo Palo, 110 miles west of the island of Sardinia in the Mediterranean. The submarine is accompanied by a steamer.

The Verona is of the same steamship line as the ill-fated Ancona, which was sunk last week. She is a vessel of 8,260 tons and is on her way from Genoa to New York.

Germans Face Hunger.

London, Nov. 20.—It is reported that Germany's wheat crop has failed and that only two thirds of it has been harvested. Hardship is staring the people in the face, for the coming winter.

AMERICAN RAILROAD OFFICIAL ON VISIT

J. A. Chandler, travelling passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, arrived from the east last night. Mr. Chandler, whose headquarters are in St. Paul, made the trip over the G. T. P. with a view to studying conditions along the line.

It is his first visit to this part of the country and he speaks in the highest terms of the road. He states that it is in many respects the finest road which crosses the continent. Mr. Chandler left for the east on this morning's train.

AN UNCROWNED KING

The King of Bulgaria has a crown that he has never worn in public. In 1902 "Prince" Ferdinand thought the time ripe for proclaiming himself King, and ordered a diadem from Brussels. The "Concert of Europe" ordained otherwise, and the crown was relegated to a cupboard until 1908, when the Prince was elevated to kingship. Austria, however, prohibited Ferdinand's coronation, so that he has not yet worn the crown publicly.—Tit Bits.

ROUMANIA TO DECLARE HER PLANS TODAY

Special Cabinet Council Called by Ferdinand—King is Pro-German—People Are Pro-Russian.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Rome, Nov. 20.—Roumania's part in the war hangs on the decision arrived at by the cabinet council today. The council has been called by King Ferdinand as all are agreed that the country cannot longer maintain a position of neutrality. The Russians are on one frontier; the Austrians on the other, and both are in force.

People Pro-Russian.

The King is pro-German, but the people are pro-Russian. Casleke Jonescu, former Roumanian minister of the interior, is announced to speak at Jassy on Sunday, on which occasion he will attack the Austro-Roumanian treaty and will urge that action be taken in favor of the Allies.

Fighting in Danube.

It is reported that the Austro-German forces and the Russians are in conflict around the Roumanian island of Hurawai, on the Danube. The Austro-Germans are mining the river from the island to the shore.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Attorney for the Defence" at the Westholme is a thrilling drama, in which the chief piece of excitement is a most daring drop through a bridge in an automobile. "The Drug Clerk" is a most amusing comedy in which some remarkably curious drinks are mixed. "The Man Who did not Die" is the most bewildering part of "The Road O' Strife" yet screened. The old doctor, who was supposed to be dead, comes on the scene again. "A Lucky Loser," a comedy, concludes a good program.

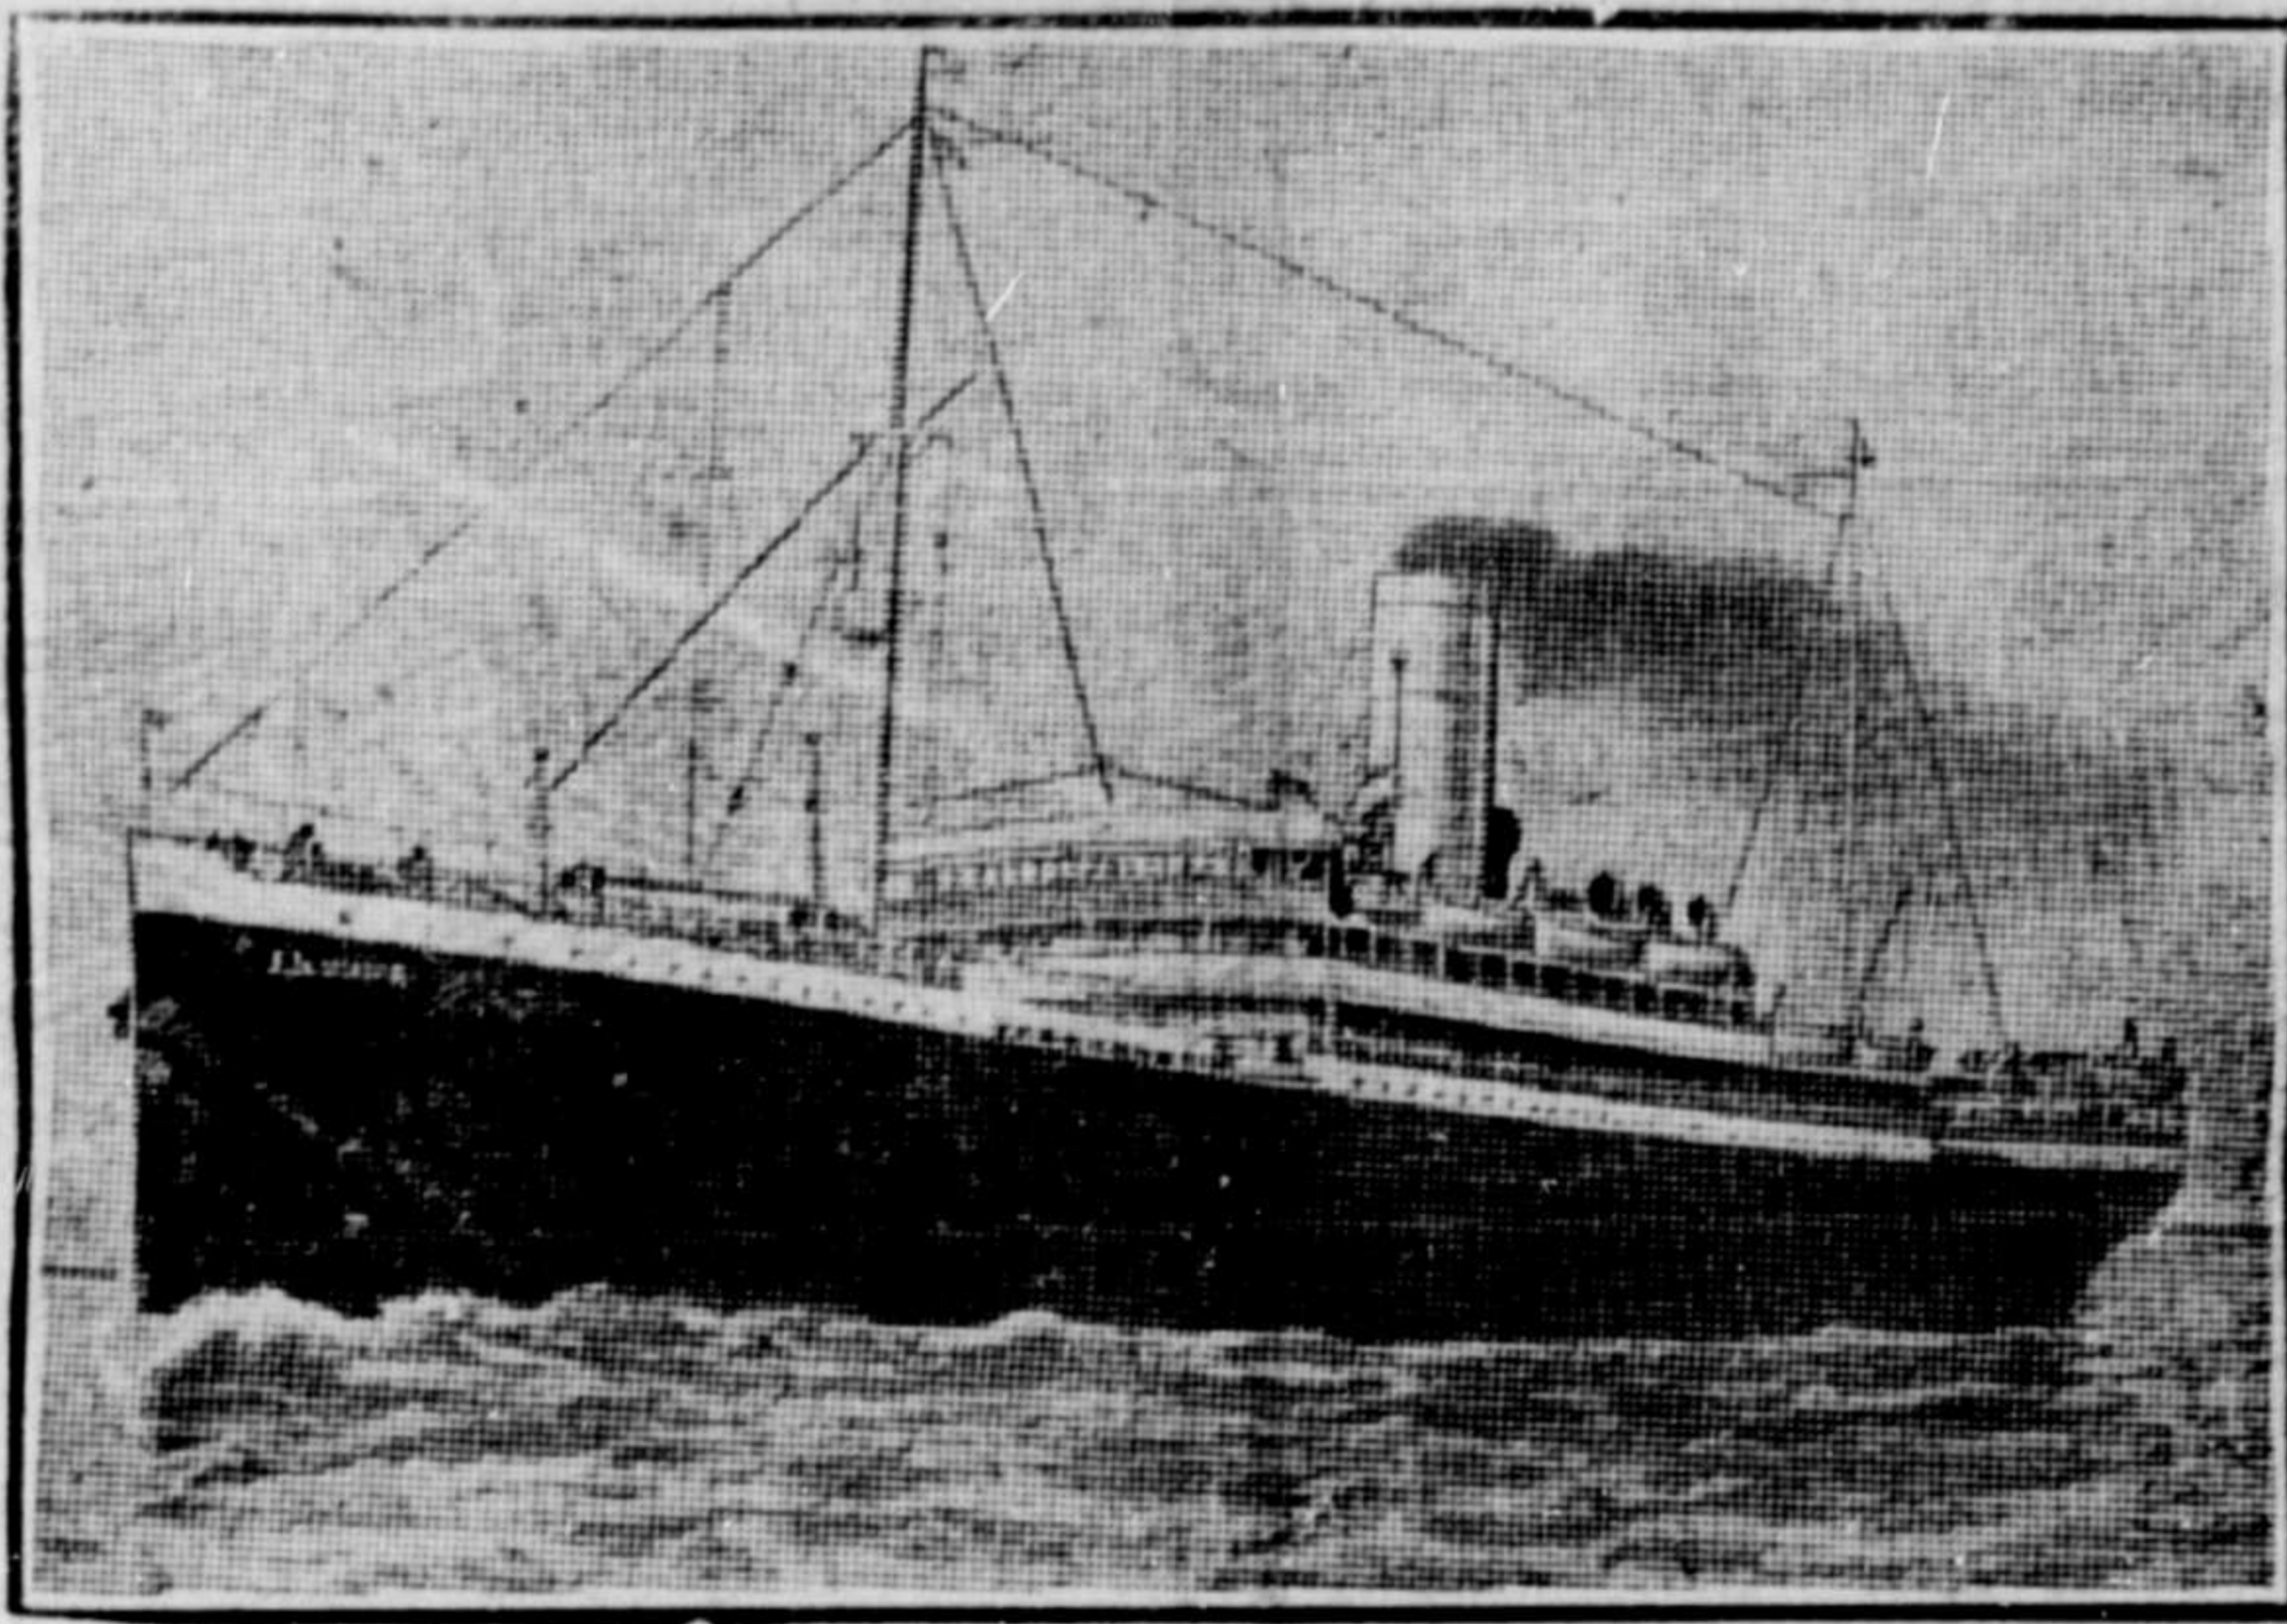

CAZAR OF RUSSIA HAS SERVED AS A PRIVATE

The Czar at one time served as a private, submitting himself to all the privations of the life of a common soldier. He appeared on the regimental roll as "Private Nicholas Romanoff, married, of the Orthodox faith, coming from Tsarskoe Selo."—Ex.

MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Profligate", the three-reel feature at the Majestic is the story of a ne'er-do-well and how he makes good. It is a good story with a most surprising finish. "Billy Joins the Navy" is the most amusing Billie Reeves film seen yet. It created as much fun as a Chaplin last night. The railroad drama "Flying Freight Captive" is exciting and full of action, while "The Manufacture of Big Guns" is interesting and instructive.

SEATTLE COMPANIES LOWER FISH RATES

In an effort to prevent Prince Rupert from getting the Alaska fresh fish trade, the American shipping companies trading between Seattle and Alaska have reduced their freight rate on boxed fresh fish from Wrangell, Petersburg, Juneau and Ketchikan from $7.00 to $5.00 per ton. The shipping companies have made this move because of the fact that the G. T. P. at Prince Rupert has been able to get and keep a very large part of the fresh fish trade to the eastern states which formerly went through Seattle. The fishery committee of the Board of Trade is going into the matter.

PORT ESSINGTON BOY GOT FRACTURED LEG

Edward Letnes, the nine year old son of Mr. Letnes, of Port Essington, was admitted to the general hospital here last night suffering from a fracture of the right leg. The boy came by the fracture through falling off a sleigh about a week ago. He is progressing favorably.

SPAIN ORDERED TO WATCH COAST LINE

Paris, Nov. 19.—Great Britain has requested the Spanish government to keep a strict watch along its coast line, especially that of Morocco, to prevent violations of neutrality by German agents who are believed to be assisting submarines with fuel and food at night, says the Journal's Madrid correspondent.

FROM THE TRENCHES

A Tommy in the front trench, under heavy fire, repeatedly rung up by a comrade in a back trench to know if all was right, at length vernacularly inquired why his pal took such interest in him. The answer came:—"Cause I've drawn you in the sweepstake, and if you come out all right I shall win two dollars."

Such is the sporting instinct of our troops "somewhere in France."—Ex.

RED CROSS SALE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

The Red Cross sale in Max Heilbronner's store yesterday, in charge of Mrs. Merryfield and Holtby, was a success, the sum of $66.05 being realized, $44.10 of this amount coming from the raffles. The sofa pillow presented by Mrs. Willisroft was won by Mr. Holtby, the picture given by George D. Tite was won by Mrs. D. G. Stewart, the vase by Mrs. Solomon Mussallem was won by Mr. Squires, the ham by P. Burns & Co. went to Mrs. W. E. Burritt, the ham by Geo. Frizzell was won by Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, the clock by Max Heilbronner went to Miss Freda Morrow, the pickles by Mrs. Doolittle went to J. D. McLeod, the box of cigars given by Prince Rupert Importing Co. was won by John Burt, a watch given by Ben Self went to John Burt, a roaster by J. G. Scott went to Miss Rohning, crocheted lace done by Mrs. F. S. Clements went to R. E. Moore, slippers given by Mr. Carroll were won by A. M. Ford, and a muffler given by the Aome Clothing Co. went to H. F. McLeod.

The ladies wish to thank Kelly, Douglas & Co. and C. H. Orme for candy, Mr. Heilbronner for the use of his store, and all who so kindly contributed to the success of the sale.

A special feature was the kolach, the special bread made by Mrs. Syrotuck and Mrs. Videck. Many loaves of this, the national bread of the Ukrainians, were sold.

FAREWELL DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stillwell were entertained to a farewell dance in the McIntyre Hall last night. The floor was crowded with dancers and everybody had a most enjoyable time. In the course of the evening, Mr. Len Bell, on behalf of the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell, presented them with handsome silver dressing cases, suitably engraved.

THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stillwell wish to thank most heartily the many friends who so kindly entertained them last night, and who presented them with such handsome gifts, as mementoes of their long and happy sojourn in Prince Rupert.

ITALY WILL DECLARE WAR ON THE HUNS

Declaration Expected Soon; Serbs Are Outside of Monastir, City Regarded as Untenable.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Nov. 20.—It is understood that the declaration of war by Italy on Germany is a matter of only a few hours.

Monastir Untenable.

There is no confirmation of the reports that the Bulgarians are in Monastir. A despatch on Friday from Monastir announced that the Serbian advance posts were outside of the city. It is believed that Monastir is untenable.

French Activity.

The French forces are hurling their strength against the Bulgarians on the Vardar river and are making desperate efforts to relieve the pressure on the Serbians.

RED CROSS PLAN TO REBUILD HUMAN FACES

New York, Nov. 18.—Backed by some of the best known men and women in this country and by the American Red Cross, a nationwide organization is being started to raise funds for the creation of a great hospital in Paris, the purpose of which will be the rebuilding of "mutilated human faces" resulting from wounds received in the war.

"The first twelve months of the war," the announcement statement says, "the official reports show 6,490,000 wounded. In this terrible sum of human misery there has been little time to think of after effects. It is nothing that a man's face is shot away. If his life is not in danger he must leave the hospital as soon as possible to make room for a new victim.

"The great facial surgeons in the world have contributed their services to a hospital to be established in Paris for the treatment of these wounds. The French War Office has offered a suitable building. The American Red Cross will supply disinfectants, gauze, bandages, cotton and other hospital articles. It will also give $2,000 in cash when $18,000 has been raised elsewhere, and may be of future assistance.

"For each $20,000 the committee can establish and maintain one hundred beds. Even one hundred beds will do a great work. Five hundred will do wonders."

Holdup Artist Shows Some Consideration—American Federation of Labor Faces Trouble.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, Nov. 20.—The police are seeking a nery hold-up artist who knocked at the door of the house of Alex. Riphims at 126 Powell St. at nine o'clock last night; walked in; covered Riphims with a gun and took fifty dollars. He left $4.00 for his victim in order that he might get a meal ticket for a week. The thug's face was covered by a handkerchief.

Labor Squabble.

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—The American Federation of Labor is faced by disruption because of the recommendation of its adjustment committee asking for the suspension of the Brotherhood of Carpenters.

The carpenters have the second largest trades union in America. The union is accused of setting up machinery in defiance of the commands of the convention, and of encroaching upon the jurisdiction of machinists.

WELL KNOWN YUKONER PASSED THROUGH CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Besner welcomed an old friend from the Yukon yesterday in the person of Mr. C. Penonnault, purchasing agent for the Treadgold Company, of Dawson. Mr. Penonnault left on the train this morning for Montreal en route for London, England, where he will spend the winter. He has been in the north for seventeen years.

CANADIANS SINKING WELLS AT LEMNOC

London, Nov. 19.—When the first British naval forces landed at Lemnos, near the entrance of the Dardanelles, they were surprised to find that the island, which has an area of nearly 200 square miles and a population of 30,000, was practically destitute of drinking water, except for uncertain supplies from a few small springs. The Allied troops were supplied with mineral water sent in shiploads through the generosity of a French woman in Marseilles.

The British authorities, however, promptly sent to Canada for engineers, who are now engaged in sinking artesian wells, which will guarantee the people of Lemnos a reliable and abundant water supply.

RUSSIA CAN RAISE ARMY OF 20,000,000

The Russian army, drawn from an empire with a population of over 170,000,000, is naturally a very large one, and includes in it a number of different nationalities. From men dwelling within the Arctic circle to the swarthy Orientals of the Caucasus, all serve under a flag which, to many of them, conveys but little, so remote is all that it stands for from their own distant corner of the world. Nearly all the peoples constituting the Russian Empire come under the law of conscription. There are, however, strange as it may seem, some who are so uncivilized that they are not even pressed into service.

PUBLIC MINDS

William Penn says, in his "Fruits of Solitude," that "men must have public minds as well as salaries or they will serve private ends at public cost." William Penn knew. He knew what the private ends in politics means. The "public mind"—how little there is of it! It seems to have fallen behind and been captured entirely for salary purposes. Ah, if we could have the "public mind," with its dignity, its broad-mindedness, its unselfishness, its nobility of sentiment in charge of our public affairs, what a great country would it be. It is the citizen's fault that it is not so. It is his fault that the self-seeker has so much to do with the administration of affairs. It is his fault that he does not attend to his education and religion more.—Ohio State Journal.

nounced from London that the British government have placed three captured German sailing ships at their disposal—the Terpsichore, 2,000 tons; the Chiffi, 2,000 tons, and the Cargi, 3,000 tons.

The Courier would respectfully suggest that when these sailing vessels have completed the light task of transporting two hundred million bushels of grain to England, that they be rechristened "Foster", "Borden" and "Evans," and added to the Canadian navy. They would be splendid auxiliary vessels in case of a war between Canada and Patagonia. The command of each might be bestowed on three of our most famous honorary colonels seeing that there are no honorary vice-admirals available. Crews could be recruited from the Royal St. Lawrence or the Royal Canadian Yacht clubs.—Canadian Courier.

SCANDINAVIAN HAS ARRIVED IN ENGLAND

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—It is officially announced through the press censor's office that the troopship Scandinavian, which sailed from Canada on November 6, has arrived safely in England. She had on board the following troops: The 60th Montreal battalion, 40 officers and 1,024 men; second fortress company, 3 officers and 139 men; civil practitioners for Royal Army Medical Corps, six details, four officers and 19 men.

ENLARGING OUR NAVY

Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, tried to make arrangements with the British government to supply ships to take away Canada's big 1915 crop. Sir George failed to impress the London authorities.

Sir Robert Borden went to England and he tried to make such an arrangement. When he returned he announced that "something" would be done. But nothing was done. Sir Robert was disappointed.

Then a committee of the cabinet was formed to deal especially with the great Canadian problem. Mr. Sanford Evans, ex-mayor of Winnipeg, and investigator of the Georgian Bay Canal scheme, was made secretary. This committee has succeeded where Sir George Foster and Sir Robert Borden tried. At least it is an-

FRED STORK'S HARDWARE

The permanent Russian army is composed of such diverse elements, and is so unwieldy, that it has been necessary to divide it into three separate armies; the army of European Russia; the Caucasus; and the Asiatic army. These are practically distinct from one another, and even the terms of service vary slightly.

The army now devotes six months instead of three to manoeuvres; of these, three months, instead of six weeks, are spent in camp. Less time is devoted to parades, and more to proper drilling. The old guns and rifles have been almost entirely replaced by newer patterns, and the artillery has been reorganized, the French artillery being taken as a model.—Ex.

PACKING PRESENTS FOR OUR SOLDIERS

The public is urged to exercise every care in packing parcels for the troops, as careful packing is absolutely essential to ensure delivery of the parcels in good order.

Parcels sent abroad require a higher standard of packing than is necessary in the Canadian Parcel Post, and this applies with even greater force to parcels for the troops. Those which are inadequately packed run great risk of damage or loss of contents.

Thin cardboard boxes, such as shoe boxes, and thin wooden boxes should not be used, nor does a single sheet of ordinary brown paper afford sufficient protection. The following forms of packing are recommended:

(1) Strong double cardboard boxes, preferably those made of corrugated cardboard, and having lids which completely enclose the sides of the boxes.

(2) Strong wooden boxes.

(3) Several folds of stout packing paper.

(4) Additional security is afforded by an outer covering of linen, calico or canvas, which should be securely sewn up.

The address of the parcel should be written in ink on the cover preferably in two places.

The address of the sender of parcel should also be stated in order that it may be returned if undeliverable. The contents of the parcel should be stated in writing on the cover.

In the case of parcels sent to the Mediterranean force, they should be very strongly packed. They should be as nearly round as possible, and well padded with shavings, crumpled paper, or a similar protective material. The outer covering should consist of strong linen, calico or canvas, and should be securely sewn up. The use of wooden or metal boxes with square corners is undesirable, as parcels so packed are liable to injure other parcels in transit. No perishable articles should be sent, and anything likely to become soft or sticky, such as chocolates, should be enclosed in tins. Parcels merely wrapped in paper or packed in thin cardboard boxes, such as shoe boxes, cannot be accepted.

Will Your "Boy" Spend Christmas
"Somewhere in France" ?
Then help him spend it Merrily !

Nothing is too good to send to the boys who are serving King and Country. But let our gifts show thought and judgment as well as good-will and love.

Among the few really acceptable gifts—smokes and pipes, chocolates and sweet biscuits, fountain pens and toothbrushes, toilet and shaving supplies—the Gillette Safety Razor ranks as a warm favorite, for one of the real luxuries of trench life is a clean, comfortable Gillette shave.

It's a luxury the lucky ones share with their pals, so send along plenty of extra blades. If he has a Gillette already, a few boxes of blades will go far toward making him the most popular man in his Company.

Welcome as it is on the firing line, the Gillette is even more keenly appreciated in the hospitals. With it the wounded can shave themselves safely, easily and regularly. They certainly do enjoy the Gillette—and Doctors and Nurses can scarcely speak well enough of it.

Gillette "Bulldog" and Standard Sets cost $5.00 each—compact Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, including Soap, Brush, etc., $6.50 up. If you wish it, your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will arrange delivery through us, at the front, of the Set you select, without shipping expense to you.
