TRouble RIFE AMONG GERMAN MUNITION MEN

Several Hundred Men Sent Sky-wards by Their Fellows—Venizelos Issues Election Manifesto.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Copenhagen, Dec. 6.—There is great dissatisfaction amongst the workmen in munition plants in various parts of the German Empire.

The large ammunition factory at Halle, in Prussian Saxony, has been blown up by the workmen, with the loss of several hundreds of lives, while a similar disaster was just avoided at Bogen, in Silesia, by the discovery that the plant had been under-mined. Many arrests have been made.

Venizelos' Manifesto.

Athens, Dec. 6.—Ex-premier Venizelos has issued a manifesto requesting his followers to abstain from voting in the general elections which take place on December 19th, as the constitution has become merely a scrap of paper on account of the power having been wrested from those to whom it was given by the people at the last election.

Allied Drive Looked like the End On Western Front—Krupps' Preparing for a Big Last Effort.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Dec. 6.—A Lausanne, Switzerland, correspondent of the London Times writes that Krupps are working feverishly preparing for a great final offensive on the western front in January.

If this big effort fails, Germany will appeal for mediation on the part of the Pope and President Wilson.

Got Big Fright.

The German General Staff got a big fright when the Allied drive started last September, and had cars packed for three days ready for flight in the event of a continued Anglo-French advance.

Vienna Wants Peace.

The peace movement in Vienna is growing. Women say that they have had enough of murder and starvation, while the Masonic order in Hungary is pledged to use all possible means to secure peace.

Germany is attempting to form a Zollverein over Austria, which will practically mean the taking of Austria within the German Empire.

PORT ESSINGTON MURDER IS CASE HEARD TODAY

The Port Essington murder case occupied the assizes this morning. At the outset, Mr. Shoebottom asked that the accused be given separate trials, on the ground that they did not set out together to commit a crime, but that the death of Pittman was the result of a fracas. One hand having struck the fatal blow, he claimed that it was unfair that Ohara and Nagano should be tried together.

His Lordship held that a joint trial would not be unfair and ordered that the case be proceeded with.

The following jury was elected: George P. McColl, P. Lindsay, J. T. Potter, S. Harrison, J. H. Barnsley, H. J. Blake, J. Bassobert, W. Grant, F. Brochu, T. J. Davidson and C. T. Heward.

At noon, Constables Burchall and Lee had given their evidence as to finding Pittman's body, with a trail of blood stains leading up to it from the Japanese restaurant.

THE INTERNAL TROUBLES OF THE BORDEN GOVERNMENT

DISSATISFACTION WITH THE PREMIER—CABINET WONDERING WHAT TO DO WITH BOB ROGERS—RUMORS OF SUPPORT OF SIR SAM HUGHES AS SUCCESSOR TO SIR ROBERT BORDEN

Ottawa, December 4.—It is a mistake to picture the Borden government as shivering on the brink of an election. A year ago that might have been the case, but since then the brink has been moved and the government now hopes to get an extension and hang it out until after the war is over. So far as the government is concerned it doesn't care if the election never comes off. All it wants is to be left alone.

Not to put too fine a point on it, the government has a bad case of cold feet. The next session of parliament is its last. The rapid are near and the daylight is past and unless their political opponents can be persuaded to grant a stay of proceedings the government is bound to shoot the chutes. This government was born to trouble as the sparks fly upward. It has had nothing but trouble since it took office and now certain defeat looms up ahead.

The first sign of fear in the Conservative camp is the more or less open criticism of Premier Borden by his own friends, some of whom have been saying lately that he is not the man for the job. This is no new complaint on the part of Premier Borden's supporters. They said it in times of peace and they are much more liable to say it in times of war.

It will be remembered that the premier was made leader of the Conservative party in the House of Commons on the defeat of Sir Charles Tupper in 1906 for three chief reasons. The first reason was that never having done anything there could be nothing against him; the second was that none of the wrangling leaders of the old brigade wanted that particular job at that particular time, and the third was that Leader Borden was an amiable person, who could be pushed forward or back at will. The third reason probably had the most weight. When the real hero came along Leader Borden could be brushed aside and no questions asked.

From time to time the Conservative party has looked for the coming of the real hero, Premier Borden being considered only a locum tenens. As far back as 1910 Rufus Pope, M. P., and his little band, peevish from their long march in the wilderness, thought they saw the real hero in Sir Richard McBride, of British Columbia. They made signals to him to come and take his proper place at Ottawa, but Sir Richard was a wise young man and remained in his own little flower pot where he had grown so well. Thus was Leader Borden's life saved at that time and when he came to power Rufus Pope was made a senator and the other conspirators were choked with butter and so that little matter was settled.

But the trouble has broken out again. Again the captains murmur. Again doubt is expressed whether Sir Robert is the strong man for the crisis which Canada is now going through. Some of the knockers go further and speak of his lack of backbone in a manner which would have been deemed rank treason a year ago. It is worth nothing that these doubts (Continued on Page Two.)

Cruiser Crew Mutinied and Fired On Shanghai Arsenal—Other Ships Chased the Crew Ashore.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Shanghai, Dec. 6.—A mutiny broke out yesterday in the Chinese navy, when the crew of the cruiser Chao-Ho seized the vessel and opened fire on the town arsenal.

Loyal crews on the cruisers Hai-Chi and Ying-Swei and the gunboat Tung-Ching opened fire on the Chai-Ho. When the Chai-Ho burst into flames the crew landed in launches at the Shanghai foreign settlement and renewed the attack on the arsenal and the police station with bombs.

The troops guarding the arsenal opened fire on them, killing three and wounding five, after which the rebels were dispersed down the Hangchow railroad.

Bernstorff Dissatisfied.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador here, is demanding that reasons be given for the recall of his naval and military attaches, and intimates that it is the duty of the United States government to secure safe conduct across the Atlantic for Lieuts. NEWS OF RUPERT BOYS IN ENGLAND

An interesting letter has reached town from the Scotch boys who were drafted from the 67th Battalion at Vernon to fill vacancies in the 48th in England. They are now located near Folkestone after having camped for a time at Bramshott, near Aldershot. Major McMordie is in command along with Captain Pettigrew and Captain Agnew. The writer describes the camp as a little Prince Rupert, so many of the boys of the earlier battalions come to visit them. Joe Howe and Bill Matheson were recent callers. Bill has recovered splendidly from his wounds, though he still limps rather badly.

James Stewart and Alec Holmberg, who were both wounded early in the year, are around and looking fit and well. The boys are all in splendid condition, and find the climate similar to that of Prince Rupert, even as regards rain, the drill grounds being ankle deep in mud. They look eagerly for copies of The Daily News which arrive regularly, and between visitors from this city and the arrival of the local papers, they feel quite at home.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING

The Liberal meeting on Friday night was an unqualified success. The audience was large, and, what is much more important, each man followed with the keenest interest and attention the various phases of misgovernment described by G. R. Naden and Fred Stork. A few years ago, the detailing of figures in a political speech was considered a weariness to the flesh, and something to be left to the politicians themselves; the average man, at that time, was doing well and an odd million dollars thrown away here or there did not interest him. Today, there is a marked change. Every man is forced to examine every dollar, and every nickel for that matter, and the ruthless waste and extravagance of the McBride and Borden governments is being brought home with a stab that hurts.

The public today is interested in figures, at least in figures with the $ mark in front of them, and it is very evident that the day of reckoning for the grafters is at hand. A few years ago, politicians such as McBride could get away very simply with grandiloquent vapors about the millions which would in the nature of things flow into British Columbia, but today men want to know where these millions are. They want to know what has been done with the $16,000,000 which have been spent in one year. They are content to let the future depend upon the retrenchment and careful expenditure of the present. Air castles worth many millions do not interest them and longer, what they want is solid bed-rock fact. McBride and Bowser are now on trial before the tribunal of an awakened public opinion which cannot be stalled off with big sounding nothings; they are not being examined as to what they will do, but must answer for what they have done.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

"Prince Rupert is unique in that it is the only city in the country which has a post office site which owns its own pumping plant," said Fred Stork at the Liberal meeting.

Ford's Christmas peace party is evidently going to pose as the wise men from the west, in reversal of the old story.

Those Hamburg-American directors will now have time to figure out some horrible forms of "frightfulness."

Hon. W. T. White evidently thinks that $100,000,000 on hand is better than $50,000,000 in prospect.

There are rumors that Sir Sam Hughes is thought of as the next Tory premier. Such a post would seriously hamper Sam in his duties as Commander-in-chief of the British Empire.

INTERNAL TROUBLES OF THE BORDEN GOVERNMENT

among Sir Robert's supporters trod as it were on the heels of Mr. D. A. Thomas who came to this country as Lloyd George's special commissioner and speedily found the Shell Committee a scandal and a shame.

Mr. Thomas not only found the composition of the Shell Committee a grave scandal, but he told Premier Borden so, adding that the price asked for shells was as scandalous as the fact that the committee was largely occupied in handing out contracts to its own members. He recommended that for the good of the Empire and the credit of Canada, the Shell Committee be dismissed or radically reorganized. He is also said to have wrenched a promise from Premier Borden that this would be done immediately. When day after day and week after week followed and it was not done, for the simple reason that the Committee positively refused to resign and the premier didn't have the heart to kick them out—when in short the Committee defied the premier and stuck to its highly profitable job like a limpet to a rock, Commissioner Thomas had to take the matter into his own hands and pressure was brought to bear from the British government which finally resulted in the purged Shell Committee as we see it today.

It was after this experience with Premier Borden that Commissioner Thomas gave out the opinion that Sir Robert was as spineless a man as he had ever seen in public life. And it was following Mr. Thomas' cue that Sir Robert's critics in his own party took up the cry and are now suggesting stronger leaders of whom there happens to be such a plentiful scarcity that Major General Sir Sam Hughes is mentioned as the next best bet. RUSSIA HAS THE WORLD'S LARGEST HOARD OF GOLD

The largest hoard of gold in the world is that held in the vaults of the Russian State bank, which now amounts to about $850,000,000.

Ordinarily a visitor may travel from one end of the Russian Empire to the other and not see enough gold coin to buy a pair of shoes. Paper currency is used universally. The cheque system as it prevails in the United States and Britain, is practically unknown in Russia.

Although the larger cities have many fine banks, the provincial business man distrusts banks and there are hundreds of thousands of prosperous Russians who have never had a banking account in their lives. Their working capital is represented by paper currency of big denomination which they carry in a leather bag suspended by a thong around their neck.

In Russia the visitor may meet shaggy men whose dress and appearance suggest the artisan class, who are carrying with them constantly from five to ten thousand pounds in currency.—Ex.

they make a Khaki idol of him, the man on horseback, the hero of the thronging streets, taking the salute wherever a bright eye sparkles—will they set him up as a little tin god, or will they give him the dump? That is the question.

Sam is not wholly loved by his party. What's more he is not taken at his face value and it is just a question whether the public mightn't see through him too. In fact there are so many risks in pulling off a Khaki election with Sam as the central figure that the party has about decided that it doesn't want an election at all. It is also worth remembering that Major General Sam was the chief appointer of that Shell Committee of which Commissioner Thomas so cordially disapproved and naturally that would not help him with the voters. On the whole if Premier Borden is weighed in the balance and found wanting, so is Sir Sam. It's horse and horse, so to speak.

Of course, after the war is over the government will have to do a lot of taxing and taxing is not popular with the masses, and it may have to provide sustenance for a transcontinental railway or two which will mean hard scratching, but these matters are not as disquieting at present as the personal troubles of the various cabinet ministers. For example, what are they going to do with Bob? It has become plain to everybody that Bob Rogers can no longer carry Manitoba. For that matter he can't even carry his own constituency of Winnipeg.

What to do with the Machiavelli of the administration? His great strength has become weakness, but he knows too much to be dropped readily. The plan is to take the High Commissionership in London away from Sir George Perley, who has made a poor fist of it, and give it to Bob, who will naturally work it for all it is worth. This may satisfy Bob, but will it not put Sir George's nose out of joint?

All of which is to say that the government is in a state of perspiring hesitancy and that a general election is the last thing it wants to put an end to it.—H. F. Gadsby.

SEVEN-REEL SHOW AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

There is another big seven-reel show at the Westholme tonight, beginning with the 12th episode of "The Diamond from the Sky." "To the Highest Bidder" is the title of this thrilling installment of the great $800,000 serial.

There is another new feature in the "Urban Gazette" an entirely British production showing scenes in the Clyde, the great warship building district in Scotland. This should be of particular interest at the present time.

"Sally Castleton, Southerner" is a very fine three-act drama which provides some superb acting and splendid staging. A real good comedy, "Cocksure Jones," a comic detective story, completes a great program. "Kindling" a great five act drama is coming on Wednesday, and "The Spoilers," in 9 acts on the 16th.

ATHLETIC CLUB

There will be a meeting of Prince Rupert Athletic Club in McIntyre Hall tonight at 8 o'clock.

It is to be hoped that parents will see that their boys who are eligible for enrollment, will be in attendance on that evening. All Cadets having rifles, pull-throughs, oil-bottles, hats and belts will turn them in at the meeting.

Will Your "Boy" Spend Christmas
"Somewhere in France"?
Then help him spend it Merrily!

Nothing is too good to send to the boys who are serving King and Country. But let our gifts show thought and judgment as well as good-will and love.

Among the few really acceptable gifts—snakes and pipes, chocolates and sweet biscuits, fountain pens and toothbrushes, toilet and shaving supplies—the Gillette Safety Razor ranks as a warm favorite, for one of the real luxuries of trench life is a clean, comfortable Gillette shave.

It's a luxury the lucky ones share with their pals, so send along plenty of extra blades. If he has a Gillette already, a few boxes of blades will go far toward making him the most popular man in his Company.

Welcome as it is on the firing line, the Gillette is even more keenly appreciated in the hospitals. With it the wounded can shave themselves safely, easily and regularly. They certainly do enjoy the Gillette—and Doctors and Nurses can scarcely speak well enough of it.

Gillette "Bulldog" and Standard Sets cost $5.00 each—compact Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, including Soap, Brush, etc., $6.50 up. If you wish it, your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will arrange delivery through us, at the Front, of the Set you select, without shipping expense to you.
