EVIDENCE IN PORT ESSINGTON MURDER CASE

When the Port Essington murder trial was resumed yesterday afternoon, Mr. Shoebottom cross examined Robert Angus. Angus said that Ohara struck him above the eye in the cafe, and he then got into the fight. Witness resented the insinuation that he was drunk. Carlson, who had been struck over the head with a crutch, went out. He saw Ohara and Kameda bring Carlson back. He did not see Carlson again that night.

Witness went out of the cafe when Carlson went the second time, leaving Pitman, Murphy and three Japs in the room. He heard a white man call for help so he rushed back. He started throwing plates as they were the handiest thing. He threw plates at Kameda and Ohara. Asked if he threw plates at Nagano, he said that he did not. Nagano was in action in a corner with Pitman with a stool.

They got out and the Japs followed. He had a lively time outside dodging a knife flourished by Nagano. He could not swear whether it was a knife, cleaver or hatchet, but he could see it shining. Kameda and Ohara had no weapon that he saw. The wound witness received was slight and left no blood stains as he ran away. He saw Nagano make a pass at Pitman with a sharp instrument.

Cross examined by Mr. Patmore witness said he did not know that Mr. Perkins paid for the meals. When he offered to pay for them he was told that they were paid for.

Pitman Stabbed.

At the foot of the steps Pitman turned. Nagano was on him immediately. He drove the weapon into him. Pitman staggered.

Ratchford's Evidence.

J. E. Ratchford testified that on the night of the trouble he was sitting with Pierce on a rail near the cafe. He saw Carlson come out followed by some Japs. Ohara hit Carlson and knocked him down. They took Carlson back. Witness went in and offered to had Carlson back on a box had Carlson's back on a box choking him. Angus walked up and said, "don't you hit a white man." He then released Carlson and hit Angus. The door slammed with witness just outside. He saw the stool break the window and Ohara hitting Carlson with a crutch. Nagano and Kameda had hold of Murphy. Nagano, followed by Kameda, got behind the counter. Nagano seized a knife and Kameda a cleaver. Ohara got a knife also.

Rushed Out.

The white men rushed for the door. Pitman turned round after he came out, and grabbed Ohara at the door. Nagano was flourishing a knife around his head. He swung around and struck with his knife. Witness saw that his left sleeve was stained with blood, after he swung the knife. Pitman staggered back. Witness did not see the blow struck as Nagano was

(Courtesy Hotel Prince Rupert.)

London, Dec. 8.—The fort of Congalee, one of the strongholds of Namur in Belgium, which is in the hands of the Germans, has been blown up and eighty German soldiers killed. The cause of the explosion is not made known.

Germans in America.

New York, Dec. 8.—It has been discovered that Germany had plotted to embroil the United States in a war with Mexico, in order to divert supplies of American munitions from the Allies.

It has been clearly established that German agents caused the recent labor troubles in America.

"SAVED FROM HIMSELF" AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

"Saved From Himself" is the three-act feature at the Majestic tonight. It is a society drama of surpassing interest, in which the acting and staging leave nothing to be desired. There is also a Pathe Gazette showing the latest news from the front and from Britain. "Once Every Ten Minutes" and "A Merry Chase," two top-notch comedies, complete a good program.

For Friday and Saturday, there is a sensational drama entitled "Midnight at Maxim's." This is something which you cannot afford to miss. The inimitable Charlie Chaplin will provide two reels of his best at an early date.

Sleighs, Toys, Dolls, Xmas Cards—everything for Xmas at McRae Bros.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION TAKING DEFINITE SHAPE

On Monday evening in the McIntyre Hall, a very enthusiastic and representative meeting of the Prince Rupert Amateur Athletic Association was held, for the purpose of perfecting the organization, and deciding on matters of moment for the immediate future. After appointing committees to take care of the house, press, social and other branches of the association, it was decided to hold an open night within the next week or so. The idea of open night is to entertain their friends with music, song, and a little heart to heart talk by the president, Mr. Stork, on the benefits to be derived from healthy exercise and congenial company.

The regular classes in the gym commence Thursday evening at eight o'clock under trained and competent instruction, and will be held regularly thereafter on Mondays and Thursdays at the same hour. The association invite any and all men, young and old, who are interested in the physical as well as mental strength of our city to come and share in the benefits which are bound to accrue to the members of the P. R. A. A. A.

Next to the Church a good, healthy athletic association is the most important institution in any community.

Handkerchief sale will be given in basement of the Methodist Church on Saturday, December 11th from 2 to 7 p. m. Musical program during the afternoon. Refreshments served. 287194

TODAY'S EVIDENCE IN JAPANESE MURDER CASE

This morning E. Carlson was examined. He testified as to the starting of the row. Ohara hit him in the face twice. He went out and Ohara and another Jap followed him, pulled him down and struck him, and then took him back to the restaurant.

Ernest Pierce, the next witness, said he was sitting on the fence near the cafe with Jack Ratchford. He saw Carlson come out with two Japs after him. Carlson was taken back to the restaurant and witness and Ratchford followed. Ratchford offered to pay for the soup, but Ohara ignored the money and sailed into Carlson. A lugh house followed. Robert Angus came out and the door was shut. Angus got in again and the Japs retreated. Angus threw dishes at them. The Japs grabbed Nagano and Ohara had knives and Kameda a cleaver. The white men rushed out. Murphy was stabbed by Ohara just outside the door. Pitman grabbed Ohara. Nagano, who was three feet away, turned towards Pitman and Ohara with a knife in his hand. When Nagano turned again his side was covered with blood. Pitman at once said "Bob, I'm stabbed," and staggered down the street. Ohara followed. Ohara came running back flourishing a knife and witness ran.

John Wesley, an Indian whose evidence was interpreted by Rev. W. E. Collison, was next called. He saw Carlson run out of the cafe, Ohara and another Jap following. Carlson was brought back. A fight ensued in the cafe. Angus came out and then went back again. The white men came out, the Japs following. He saw Murphy struck by Ohara. Later Pitman ran down the street. He did not see Pitman struck.

It is expected that the trial will conclude tomorrow.

FAMOUS DRAMA AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

"Kindling," the remarkable five reel drama at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow, is founded on Charles Kenyon's famous drama. It depicts life in the city slums as it is today, showing the lack of sanitation, the lack of privacy with its accompanying evil spirits hovering over the lives of the inhabitants of the crowded tenements. Charlotte Walker is the star of this intensely interesting drama.

"The Fire Escape," a delightful comedy featuring Lillian Walker, completes the program.

On December 16th Rex Beach's great drama of Alaska "The Spoilers" will be presented in nine acts. On Friday and Saturday the Hearst-Selig Gazette will show Russian destroyers shelling a Turkish ship.

NO POLITICS

The most satisfactory note which rang through the recent meeting of local fishermen with the representatives of the fisheries advisory board was "no politics." Nearly every man who spoke on the subject emphasized the fact that politics had nothing to do with the fishing business, and that, in this question at least, politics had been shelved as having nothing whatever to do with it. F. H. Cunningham expressed his pleasure that this was so, and ventured the remark that he had never been a politician.

Yesterday F. H. Cunningham wired to George Nickerson that the herring concessions had been granted. He also took the precaution of sending a wire to the same effect to Joe Merryfield. What, in the name of all the herring that ever were spawned, had Joe Merryfield to do with it? With politics entirely outside it would have been just as sensible to send a wire to every fisherman in the district.

Of course, Mr. Cunningham might have meant that Mr. Nickerson was to inform the fishermen and that Mr. Merryfield was to tell the herring. In that event Joe would have some difficulty in distinguishing between the Conservative and the Liberal herring, and it would be out of the question to expect him to tell them both.

While on the subject of politics, why should it be recognized as a good thing to leave politics out of the fishing business and yet allow it to interfere with the affairs of the city? It is a well known fact that the reason why the council came to a deadlock over the Digby Island water scheme was that politics interfered. The labor difficulty could easily have been overcome by arrangement with the contractors before the contract was ratified, but the real difficulty, which was insurmountable, was that the "peanut" politicians who rule this city wanted to have the work arranged to their own liking. The last wire from Ottawa on the subject plainly intimated that the work would not proceed except along the lines laid down by the government.

One result is that there is much less work here this winter than there would otherwise have been, and another is that the city will have to spend $1,000 in laying a new main along Park Avenue, as a result of which the residents on the hill will have to do without their hydrants. The machinations of petty politicians has retarded the growth of this city in the past, but the day is near when the Merryfields and the Mansons and their gang will be put where they belong, and the whole district will be given a new lease of life.

PATRIOTIC FUND DEMANDS YOUR SUPPORT

To the Editor:—The Canadian Patriotic Fund is calling for more subscriptions to enable it to carry on its great work during the second year of the war.

For this purpose a vigorous campaign is being carried on throughout the province to meet the ever increasing demands made upon the fund by the wives and children of those who have gone to the front. There are now in France and England, and in training, more than 150,000 men from the Dominion, three times as many as at this time last year; and about one tenth of that number have gone from this province.

During the past year throughout Canada, over $3,000,000 have been distributed in relief to the families and relatives dependents of soldiers who are in the fighting line. This year the

Coughing scatters germs — Stop it

Coughing increases the irritation of the already inflamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others. amount required will be about $6,000,000, and in this province alone the sum will be $750,000. It will, therefore, be realized that every effort must be made to meet this requirement, and help to maintain the families of those who so nobly have taken up arms to uphold the right and preserve the integrity of the British Empire. Surely the least we can do is to see that the wives, children and dependent mothers who have already so much to bear, are assured of a reasonable degree of comfort.

As Prince Rupert and district have been asked to contribute $8,000 to this worthy object, the local branch of the fund has arranged to canvass the city on Monday, December 13th, when every one will be given an opportunity of doing their "bit", and so contributing to the success of the campaign. It is hoped that wherever possible there will be a systematic giving of a stated amount—a plan which is being followed in most places with great success—not necessarily a large amount, but enough to be a sacrifice and a recognition of our duty and privilege.

Perhaps it will be thought that enough has already been given for this cause in Prince Rupert:

EVIDENCE IN PORT SINGTON MURDER CASE

 between him and Pitman. Pitman staggered down the steps and down the street.

Murphy, who was lying on the street, asked for help. He took hold of Murphy's arm when Ohara came running back with a knife and witness ran, Ohara following.

Cross Examined.
 Cross examined by Mr. Shoebottom, witness said that Kameda went round the counter and did not jump over it. He did not see Nagano drive the blow home. When Pitman ran away, Ohara and Nagano followed him.

Cross examined by Mr. Patmore witness said he was sure that Kameda had a cleaver. When Nagano swung round he had the knife raised above his head. He brought the knife down in the direction of Pitman. He clearly saw the blood on Nagano's left arm after he had swung the knife.

Charles Glacy.
 Charles Glacy said that he lived near the cafe. People running past the house on the night of July 30th woke him up. He saw a man lying on the street, but thought it was a drunk. Kameda came past flashing a light, and asked him where the police were.

Cross examined by Mr. Shoebottom witness said that Kameda was very excited and said that a drunken man was breaking up the restaurant.

Harry Berryman.
 Harry Berryman, who lived in the same building as the cafe, said he was awakened by the sound of breaking glass downstairs. He looked out and saw Carlson and Pitman talking. They then entered the cafe. He heard another crash and looked out again, and saw Nagano standing in front of the restaurant. He saw two men and two women standing and Ohara came running up. He told Ohara that if he had trouble he should call the police.

Nothing is too good to send to the boys who are serving King and Country. But let our gifts show thought and judgment as well as good-will and love.

Among the few really acceptable gifts—smokes and pipes, chocolates and sweet biscuits, fountain pens and toothbrushes, toilet and shaving supplies—the Gillette Safety Razor ranks as a warm favorite, for one of the real luxuries of trench life is a clean, comfortable Gillette shave.

It's a luxury the lucky ones share with their pals, so send along plenty of extra blades. If he has a Gillette already, a few boxes of blades will go far toward making him the most popular man in his Company.

Welcome as it is on the firing line, the Gillette is even more keenly appreciated in the hospitals. With it the wounded can shave themselves safely, easily and regularly. They certainly do enjoy the Gillette—and Doctors and Nurses can scarcely speak well enough of it.

Gillette "Bulldog" and Standard Sets cost $5.00 each—compact Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, including Soap, Brush, etc., $6.50 up. If you wish it, your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will arrange delivery through us, at the Front, of the Set you select, without shipping expense to you.
