Destroying Bridges.

The Franco-British forces are slowly retreating towards Greek soil, taking time to destroy railroad tunnels and bridges as they go.

The Bulgarians are within five miles of the Greek frontier and are preparing to cross it. Greek troops are moving towards the threatened point with the object of disputing the Bulgarian invasion.

British Position Improved.

The British position has been improved owing to the daily arrival of re-inforcements. In the retirement, while fighting in a fog, the Allies abandoned eight field guns.

Bayonet Charge.

A British counter attack repulsed the enemy, the Dublins, Munsters and Connaughts charging with the bayonet. The Bulgars left 8,000 dead and wounded on the field.

PATRIOTIC FUND COLLECTION HAS BEGUN

A meeting in the interests of the Patriotic Fund was held in the city hall on Saturday afternoon, the mayor presiding. It was decided to divide the city into districts, the following gentlemen to make the collections:—

Cold Storage, Messrs. Johnson and Thompson; Section 7 and 8, Mr. Jarvis McLeod; Section 6, Mr. H. F. McTae and Mr. Halbeck; from McBride Street to Fourth Avenue, Mr. G. R. Naden and Mr. T. D. Pattullo; from Fourth to Sixth Streets, Mr. Thompson and Mr. G. W. Morrow; Sixth Street West to Section 2, Mr. Arthur Noble and Mr. Geo. Frizzell; Borden Street, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th Avenues, Rev. Canon Rix, Mr. G. Woodland and Chief Vickers; G. T. P., including Drydock, Mr. James Melville and Mr. H. S. Woods; Government wharf, Mr. John Beatty; City Hall, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Woods; Provincial and Dominion offices, Mr. George Hull and Mr. Harry McLeod.

After a discussion as to the best method of raising funds, George Morrow, seconded by Canon Rix, moved the following resolution: "Resolved that the Patriotic Society of Prince Rupert assembled, urgently request that the city council of Prince Rupert at its next meeting, or as quickly thereafter as possible, take up the question of seeking to have the legislature of British Columbia, at its first session, add a clause to the Municipal Clauses Act of British Columbia, granting municipalities power to levy a rate for patriotic purposes during the war, and hereafter as long as funds for patriotic purposes may be required."

Mr. Morrow and Canon Rix both spoke briefly on the subject, pointing out that this system is in vogue in other provinces. Mr. Morrow pointed out that about 70 per cent. of the property holders reside outside of the city.

Mr. Naden was not in favor of the plan, pointing out that it is a national question and should not be applied to a community. The mayor also favored this view.

PATRIOTIC FUND

The collection in aid of the Canadian Patriotic Fund starts today and it is the duty of every man who remains at home to provide all he can afford to help support the dependents of the men who are fighting his battles on the fields of Europe. If you cannot fight, you can do the next best thing in paying for those who do. The wives and kiddies whose breadwinners are at the front are making a bigger sacrifice than can ever be figured in dollars and cents.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOL-BOY'S FUNERAL

The funeral of Garnet MacPherson was largely attended on Saturday afternoon, a very large number of his school companions being present. Six school-boy friends of deceased acted as pallbearers. The service was conducted by Rev. W. W. Wright, assisted by Rev. J. F. Dimmick.

Amongst the floral offerings were tributes from Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Catherine Morgan, King Edward School staff, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Ling, the teachers and pupils of Borden Street School, Mrs. William Manson, Mr. and Mrs. Conant, Mr. and Mrs. R. McKay, Baptist Sunday School, Mrs. R. O. #### HAMOD TO COME UP FOR SENTENCE NEXT ASSIZE

The trial of Charles Hamoud, on a charge of uttering seditious language, was concluded on Saturday, the jury bringing in a verdict of guilty, after fifteen minutes' deliberation.

The jury was as follows: E. J. Large (foreman), J. G. Johns, George Smith, Wm. Beveridge, G. M. Shirley, M. McLeod, A. J. Galland, H. S. Nickerson, V. A. Cole, J. G. Moody, F. E. Clapp, and Alex. Finnie. Accused was defended by L. W. Patmore.

His Lordship, in addressing accused this morning, said that he quite agreed with the verdict. He pointed out that accused had enjoyed the freedom and liberty of this country since his early youth, coming to this country before he reached years of discretion, and becoming a naturalized citizen on coming of age.

Taking into consideration the fact that accused had apparently borne a good character, His Lordship reserved sentence until the next assizes in Prince Rupert.

PROMINENT TORIES ARE RUSHING FOR COVER

Ottawa, December 11.—Close observers affect to discern in the Borden government certain small belated fruits of repentance. These acts of grace, scarcely visible to the naked eye, apparently did not materialize soon enough to satisfy wise boys like Pelletier and Coderre, who made haste to become judges, and Dr. Sproule, who foregoes at least one session of his Speakership in order to take refuge in the Senate.

All these gentlemen have a keen eye for the political weather and evidently believe in the wrath to come. The way Dr. Sproule takes time by the forelock and gets out from under while the getting out is good is perhaps the most significant omen of all. Obviously the Doctor does not expect that the next general election is going to leave his party in a position to keep him in Parliament in those circumstances of dignity, comfort and public emolument to which he is accustomed. Dr. Sproule is an old timer. He has a record of thirty years continuous service in Parliament and naturally he doesn't want that continuity broken in the sunset of his long and useful life. It is a matter of pride with Dr. Sproule to serve his country to the latest breath and, though life is not as exciting in the Senate as it is in the Green Chamber, there being no Dr. Michael Clarks to "name," the veteran member for East Grey probably figures that he can get along without such turbulent joys now that old age is in sight and his strength needs husbanding.

However, that is not the chief reason why Dr. Sproule abandons active hostilities in the Commons for the torpor of the upper house. The Doctor has plenty of fight in him yet, can give as good as he takes, and if they hadn't spiked his guns by making him Speaker, would, perhaps, be occupying half the annual volume of Hansard as he used to do in the good old days. It is no weak desire for rest that hurries Dr. Sproule into the Senate one full session before his term as Speaker of the Commons is up, no sluggish impulse to hibernate after his long, fierce struggle with the rule book. No, it's not that. A more powerful motive is behind the Doctor's quick get-away—self preservation, which is the first law of nature. As I said before, Dr. Sproule has been thirty years in Parliament and he can smell what is going to happen as well as the next man. One thing he has determined on is that it is not going to happen to him if he can help it.

As a philosopher he knows that it is better to be safe than sorry and that a sure-thing Senator is better than an extinct Member of Parliament. Safety first—that's the word. The Senate Chamber has a red carpet which is not unpleasant for cold feet; the Senators' rooms are comfortable, even luxuriously furnished; the servants are polite and obliging; the sessions consist mostly of adjournments so there is plenty of Greece May be Scene of Flanking Movement—Turk Transport Sunk by a French Submarine.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Dec. 13.—Greece's act in withdrawing her army from Macedonia, to permit of the entrance of Germany and the Allies, opens up the possibilities of flanking movements through Greek territory.

The British are now landing at Kavala. Allied naval squadrons are paying strict attention to the Greek coast, and the restrictions placed upon Greek commerce are unabated.

A French submarine in the Sea of Marmora has sunk the Turkish transport Rehid Pasha, a vessel of 8,000 tons. Four hundred Turkish soldiers were drowned.

Explosion at Havre.

time for gossip; the atmosphere is one of ripe wisdom, unflavored by fear of poverty or hard work; the talk between Senators, that is to say when they are not performing in public, is mellow and reminiscent; and there is a gymnasium in the basement to stir the liver. Life in the Senate may be monotonous, but it is far from being the deadly dull thing pictured by jealous newspapers. A member of Parliament might go farther and fare worse. The Senate is the most comfortable spot in Canada for storm-driven wanderers and tears of joy will fill many an eye to see Dr. Sproule has reached harbor at last. It may (Continued on Page Two)

SHELL PROFITS

The Ottawa Journal, which has intimate relations with Sir Robert Borden, says that "any person or corporation who can be shown to have taken unquestionably excessive profits, all things considered, in any war contract merits public contempt, and should also be made to feel the force of public opinion not merely that way, but in his or its pocket. There should be, and we have no doubt there will be, government investigation of the matter, and there should be retroactive legislation which will enable the government to confiscate any proven undue profits. Meantime, to a number of Liberal newspapers which harp on the subject and claim to have exact knowledge, we may point out that the Davidson Commission exists for the purpose of investigating all war contracts, and that any private individual can place charges before the Commission and have them examined without cost to himself. There will probably be government investigation; but if any of our newspaper friends are impatient or dubious, and know what they say they do, they don't need to wait for government action."

The Liberal press can afford to wait till Parliament meets. The removal of members of the original Shell Committee from positions in which they could award contracts to their own firms makes an end of the most serious abuse attending the operations of the Shell Committee. The new Imperial Munitions Board, over which Mr. Flavelle presides, is composed largely of men who are not connected with the iron and steel industry, and who, with the assistance of the British technical experts now in the Dominion, will be able to reduce the profits of the shell-making firms to reasonable dimensions.

The suggestion of retroactive legislation which will enable the government to confiscate any proven undue profits is a good one. The assertions that undue profits have been and are being made by certain shell-making firms did not come originally from the Liberal press, but from persons possessed of inside information who sought by publishing it to produce a stock market boom. From one of these booming circulars an amazing statement was reproduced in The Globe, which credited the Steel & Radiation Company with a profit of $1,050,000 on certain munitions contracts totalling $2,060,000. The Liberal press, and the Conservative press also would fail lamentably in its duty were it to pass such statements by in silence. If profits so excessive are being made the government has a clear duty to perform. A large part of them should be returned to the public treasury through taxation. If excessive profits are not being made and false statements are sent out to tempt the unwary into stock speculation the authors of the statements should be pilloried before the public as men prepared to dishonor their country to promote personal gain. In either case the plain duty of the government is to investigate so that the truth may emerge.—Toronto Globe.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

It is now abundantly clear that the Journal was aware that Mr. Stephens had been added to the government payroll at the time the "cold facts" Journal stated that his future plans were uncertain.

It is gratifying to have the Journal admit, in its own tortuous fashion, that action by the fisheries advisory board was the direct result of the fishermen's efforts at the meeting held here.

If the Germans have been forced out of Lemberg it is good news; if they are withdrawing troops for service in the Balkans it is a sign that the Allies need many more men at once.

Both the Conservatives and Socialists are getting into trouble in Germany. Berlin will soon be of necessity a silent city.

The Entente ministers are still holding conferences with King Constantine. The Greek people, headed by Venizelos, will probably have a few words to say to his majesty shortly.

The usual winter's skating season on the postoffice site is about due.

be that another career stretches before him even there. In the course of nature Speaker Landry must surrender his Speakership of the Senate at the end of this Parliament, and what's to prevent Dr Sproule becoming his successor and establishing a precedent—namely the translation of the House of Commons Speaker to the Senate Speakership when he is nervous enough to feel like it? Such a practice, combining as it does the principles of seniority and hereditary right, would have many advantages.

The rush for Senatorships, Judgeships and other secure retreats, goes to show how much stock the weather wise members of the party take in the Borden government's laggard efforts to please the people. The Government's Parliamentary supporters are not deceived and there is no reason to believe that the public at large can be hoodwinked either. The outstanding fact is that the Borden government trusts the people only as a last resource—it pleases the people only after the rich corporations have been asked if they have no objections. In no case does the Borden government aim to offend the powerful and wealthy persons who put it in A conspicuous example of this is the recent Canadian war loan. It was only after great pressure from the Liberal newspapers that Finance Minister White realized that there might be other people than the note-writers of the United States from whom to borrow money. It came upon him as a fierce and sudden light that Canadians might have money to lend to Canada, not only because they wanted to show confidence in their own country, but because five per cent. was a healthy rate of interest. But, of course, the banks had to be seen first and assurances given that the loan would be handled in such a way as not to disturb the sacred union rate of three per cent. as delivered to Moses on Mount Sinai and by him passed along to the Canadian Bankers Association. The loan is handled that way, subscribers to the loan draw cheques on their respective banks, the money is transferred from the drawers' to the Finance Minister's credit, and the banks experience no disturbance except a little bookkeeping. All of which is quite as it should be and as everybody would have it, but it only goes to show that domestic war loans are not as spontaneous on the part of the Borden government as they might appear to the casual observer.

Another hollow mockery is the purchase by the government of fifteen million bushels of wheat now in eastern elevators. Fifteen million bushels in an export crop of two hundred millions is a mere drop in the bucket. It is not bought from the farmer, but from the speculator, who is holding wheat and it helps him out of hole by lending him government assistance to get rid of his stuff at the best Winnipeg price. Such a policy helps nobody but the wheat speculators and the millers. It helps them by knocking down the price paid to the farmer. Such is the wheat policy of the Borden government—an ineffective compromise over which the old flag will probably be waved and shouts raised of "helping the Empire." This is what the Northwest farmer gets instead of the American market.—H. F. Gadsby.

CITY OF PRINCE RUPERT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an application will be made in the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia at its next session on behalf of the City of Prince Rupert for an Act containing provisions which are shortly stated as follows:—

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY ELECT OFFICE-BEARERS

At the annual meeting of St. Andrew's Society held on Friday evening the following office-bearers were elected:

Hon. president, J. W. Stewart; president, S. D. Macdonald; hon. 1st vice-president, J. H. Kelly; hon. 2nd vice-president, W. G. Dennis; 1st vice-president, Geo. P. McGill; 2nd vice-president, D. McLean; secretary, J. M. Thomson; treasurer, J. D. Meikle; physician, Dr. Neil McNeill; solicitor, A. M. Manson; chaplain, Rev. H. R. Grant; piper, James Sturgeon; warden, A. Brighton; auditors, Thomas McClymont and J. G. McIntosh; executive, Thos. McMeekin, Robert Dowther, John Nicol, G. Scott and Geo. H. Munro.

The society is in quite a robust state of health in spite of the fact that so many of its members have gone to the front. S. D. Macdonald has been elected president for the sixth successive year.

At the close of the assizes on Saturday, Mr. Justice Macdonald complimented the jury on their careful attention to their duty.

"THE BROKEN COIN" AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Broken Coin," which is drawing to a close at the Majestic, offers two more reels of exciting warfare tonight and tomorrow. Kitty and her friend the count, have had a most thrilling time, and their troubles are not all over yet.

There are two comedies which Mr. Delasala states are top-notchers, "Taking Her Measure" and "Through a Knot Hole" are calculated to make the proverbial cat laugh, while there is a most entralling drama in "The Mystery of the Man Who Slept." This story will hold your closest interest from start to finish. There is also an Animated Weekly, which is invariably good, and this week is no exception. For Wednesday and Thursday, the management announces the finest variety program ever shown at this theatre.

"THE DIAMOND FROM THE SKY" AT THE WESTHOLME

A big seven-reel show at the Westholme tonight, including two reels of "The Diamond from the Sky." This week's installment of this great serial is "The Man in the Mask." There is also a three-act drama entitled "A Deadly Hate," featuring Marc MacDermott. This alone should be well worth seeing.

The Urban Gazette, which is becoming a big feature, shows the effects of asphyxiating gas and also some very fine views of New Zealand. "Mustaches and Bombs" a good comedy, completes a program which has both quality and quantity.

On Thursday and Friday the Westholme will present "The Spoilers," a nine-act picturization of Rex Beach's famous novel.

SERVICE OF MUSIC

The service in the Baptist Church last night took the form of a memorial service for the boys who have fallen at the front. Solos were rendered by Mrs. McMillan, W. V. Davies, and A. Clapperton, while Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, Mrs. McMillan, J. E. Davey and A. Clapperton formed a very effective quartette. Special choruses were also given by the choir. Rev. W. W. Wright, in a short address, dwelt on the true spirit of Christmas, reminding his hearers of the first great Christmas Gift. The collection was devoted to the Patriotic Fund.
